WASHTENAW'S FAIR.

A LONG LIST OF ENTRIES, LARGE ATTENDANCE AND PERFECT WEATHER.

The Exhibits in the Horse, Cattle, and Pomological Departments, especially Good—Interesting Track Events—Gertie Goes Up Each Day—Palmer and Winans Speak—This Afternoon—Ann Arbor Day Tomorrow.

Monday afternoon, when Prof. Harrington arrived in Washington to assume charge of Uncle Sam's weather, the first thing that occurred to him, naturally, was the fair at Ann Arbor. It was too hot. The long torrid season must be brought to an immediate termination. The result was that, Monday night, Jupiter Pluvius reigned. Fortunately, however, he rained so hard that he soon emptied his whole tub, and Tuesday morning dawned clear and cold. It was ideal weather, and added the one thing that remained necessary to make the forty-third annual fair of the Washtenaw county agricultural and horticultural society one of the greatest in its history.

Tuesday was consumed, as the first day of the fair always is, in getting the exhibits in position. Secretary Bach and his assistant, J. W. Bennett, entered the names of exhibitors as they arrived, and answered so many questions in the course of the morning, that they felt they ought to be excused from knowing anything for the rest of their lives.

The entries in the horse and cattle departments are fifty per cent more than last year, and are of a higher class. H. P. Finley, W. H. Tuomey, and J. C. Tuomey have a fine herd of sixteen horses, among which are the stallions Golden Era and the Standard mares Gertie Welch and Bell Marvins. Patrick Irwin, of Ann Arbor, has ten head, trotters, all by Mambrino Gold Dust, who was sired by Mambrino Gift. Among them is a magnificent four-months old colt. E. Helber, of Saline, is exhibiting Lord Wenlock, a fine Cleveland bay, who took first premium this year both at the Detroit exposition and at the state fair; Emperor of Mirfield, a three-year-old Shire, recently brought from England, and who bore away a first premium from the Detroit exposition; and several others. J. E. Perry, Lehigh, shows the big Clydesdale stallion, Lochiel, and E. J. Steele, of Detroit, has the trotter Garfield. Fine trotting stock is also exhibited by C. D. Bills, Tecumseh; John Mount, Napoleon, Jackson county; Omon Stimson, Saline; and C. L. Tuomey. M. S. Conklin, of Detroit, presents two pacers, Little Fred and Johnnie Miller.

Among the exhibitors in the cattle department are S. O. Tubbs, of Delhi Mills, who has twelve head of full-blooded Galloways; Richard Nowlin showing a fine herd of short-horns; Supt. F. E. Mills and Harry Day, both of whom have Holsteins; and J. F. Avery, of Saline, who exhibits a herd of sleek, mild-eyed Jerseys, headed by the bull York, all of the Stokely Pogs and Rioler families. Mr. Avery also has an immense grade dairy cow.

The display of fruit, as would be expected, is of more than ordinary excellence. One of the largest exhibitors is Emil Baur, especially in apples and pears. J. Ganzhorn and W. F. Bird each show over thirty varieties of grapes. The displays of peaches and quinces are also very fine.

Up at the other end of the hall, Dr. G. L. Laraway, of Emory, has some mammoth yellow dent corn that he has been grading up for several years. There are thirty-four rows of corn on the cob. When shelled, one ear will make nearly a quart.

The merchants' displays in the Art Hall are very creditable. Among them are exhibits by Mack & Schmid, Dean & Co., Ewerbach Hardware Co., Koch & Henne, M. W. Blake, and Schuch & Muehlig. Here, also, is a bewildering display of ladies' fancy work, and an art booth with several paintings of great merit.

A large share of the exhibits, in all departments, were not expected to arrive until Wednesday.

WEDNESDAY.

If Secretary Bach had his hands full Tuesday, Treasurer Paul was the busy man Wednesday. But he submitted most gracefully to the inevitable; and the harder he worked and the louder and faster the silver tinkled in the till, the more expansive grew his smile. The crowds began to come early in the morning, and they kept coming all day. They came in bags and hay-racks, in carriages, omnibuses, carriages, and big lumbering farm-wagons. Those who went up on the motor-line probably thought that about two-thirds of the population of the county was going that way.

THE ASCENSION.

In the latter part of the afternoon the fire was kindled in the furnace pit to inflate the balloon, and a crowd soon gathered to see the big gray dome rise steadily from the ground, swaying in the wind.

Lithe little Gertie Carmo soon appeared from the dressing-room, and stood ready for the ascent, with the trapeze bar held tightly underneath her. At the word from Prof. Underneath the guy-ropes were cast off, and Miss Gertie sailed up into space, performing gaily on the trapeze as she ascended. Up, up she goes, until her slight form can scarcely be distinguished against the background of the sky. The sharp crack of a pistol is heard. The aeronaut is seen preparing for the 'chute-down. Now she's off, dropping at first with tremendous speed. Then the parachute opens and the fair Gertie floats down as gently as a thistle-blow, repeating her tricks on the trapeze until near the ground. She landed in a little grove about a mile to the west.

THE OFFICERS

of the society are as follows: President, F. B. Braun; Recording Secretary, Jas. R. Bach; Corresponding Secretary, Henry S. Dean; Treasurer, Henry Paul; Vice-Presidents, F. E. Mills, E. E. Leland, Dr. D. P. McLachlan, Geo. A. Peters, W. E. Boyden. The Superintendents are: General Superintendent, F. E. Mills; Superintendent of Speed Trial, Charles Hill; Marshal, Patrick Irwin; Superintendent of Cattle, John Sperry; Horses, Patrick Tuomey; Sheep, John Braun; Swine, R. Nowland; Poultry, John M. Bird; Farm Implements, John Keppeler; Farm and Garden, Heman Hicks; Dairy and Sweetmeats, Mrs. C. Kirn; Fruits, S. B. Winans; Flowers, Mrs. N. Sutton; Mechanical Works, Wm. April; Floral Hall, Thos. NOTES.

The 2:30 trot was won by Garfield. The genus fakir is not present in so many varieties as usual.

Prof. Bartholomew won the balloon race at Adrian Saturday.

Deputy-Sheriff Peterson is in charge of the police department.

A pond of German carp, exhibited by R. C. Reeves, of Dexter, has its share of the spectators.

Gov. Winans and President Palmer of the World's Fair, will speak at the grounds this afternoon.

Tomorrow is Ann Arbor day. The stores and schools close for the fair. The Ann Arbor light infantry will give a short drill.

A Distressing Accident.

W. A. Seery, son of Michael Seery, register of deeds, and himself deputy register, met with a most distressing accident at Ypsilanti Saturday night, necessitating the amputation of his left foot.

Mr. Seery had taken the motor line for Ypsilanti soon after tea Saturday evening. Here he remained until about 11 o'clock. Missing both the motor and the Michigan Central passenger, he attempted to take the west-bound freight which passes through at that time. The train was in motion, and he did not succeed in getting a good hold. As the car to which he was yarding passed the line of the depot yard his body struck hard against the fence, breaking his hold and throwing him to the ground. His left foot was caught under the wheels and terribly jammed. The injured man was drawn from his perilous position by Officer Shemeld, and carried to the Neat House, near the depot. Drs. Batwell and Owen were summoned, who found that an amputation was necessary, and performed it that same night. The young man remains at the hotel, and is as comfortable as might be expected. His father has been with him a great part of the time since the accident.

As Others See Us.

The Register this week issued a mammoth sheet of forty pages. It contains a description of Ann Arbor, the University, the schools and business houses. Also short biographies of a number of our leading citizens. The enterprise is an indication of the prosperity of the Register Publishing Co., which is largely due to the management of Mr. S. A. Moran, editor in chief.—Ann Arbor Democrat.

The mammoth 40 page edition of the Ann Arbor Register is the largest and most complete paper ever got out in the Northwest. Typographically it is a dandy and a credit to the Register office. It is a valuable paper and worth ten times the price asked for it. The "write ups" are good and reflects much credit on Mr. Snow who has done most of that work. The cuts are good and in fact there is not a chance for a single criticism on it. The people should show their appreciation of such a paper by sending it broadcast over the country.—Washtenaw Evening Times.

WE ARE THE PEOPLE.

INDICATIONS THAT THE U. OF M. STILL LEADS.

Increased Registration in the Law Department—Perhaps a Slight Falling Off at the Medical School—No Official Figures—Some Things That are Taking Place on the Campus.

Although no official statement as to the registration could be obtained at the University yesterday, everything points to a large attendance, a possible increase over last year. There is certainly an increase in the law department, but this may be offset by losses in the medical school. It is believed that the literary department will, at least, hold its own.

THE INLANDER.

The Inlander, the literary monthly of the U. of M., begins its second year with the brightest prospects. Among the contributors will be such men as Pres. James B. Angell; Pres. Lewis R. Fiske, '50, Albion college; Pres. Henry Wade Rogers, '74, Northwestern university; Pres. Wm. H. Payne, Peabody Normal college; Senator Cushman K. Davis, '57; Hon. Augustus H. Pettibone, '59; Judge Claudius B. Grant, '59; Hon. Byron M. Catchoon, '61; Hon. Edwin F. Uhl, '62; Judge J. E. McKeighan, '66; Hon. Wm. C. Maybury, '70; Hon. J. Logan Chipman; Albert Poole Jacobs, '73; and Frederick L. Bliss, '77. In addition to these, the editors hope for articles from Pres. David S. Jordan, of Leland Stanford, Jr., university; Pres. C. K. Adams, '61, of Cornell; Andrew D. White, Rev. Moses Coit Tyler, Hon. Thos. M. Cooley, Hon. Thos. W. Palmer, '49; Don M. Dickinson and Joshua W. Waterman. Among the clever writers who have promised to contribute sketches or short stories are Fred M. Townsend, '81; Willis J. Abbott, '84; W. A. McAndrew, '86; Miss Isabella M. Andrews, '89; Miss Ellen E. Garrigues, '89, and Miss Grace Harrah, '90. There will be several papers on philosophical and economic subjects, and it is highly probable that, in the latter part of the year, a series of articles on the history of U. of M. athletics will appear. The board has organized as follows: Prof. John Dewey and Prof. Fred N. Scott, advisory board; Wilhelm Miller, managing editor; Arthur H. Covert, business manager; P. W. Ross and F. L. Sherwin, associate editors.

FOR JESUS' SAKE.

Rev. Camden M. Coburn, the new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, appeared before his charge for the first time last Sunday morning, and made a very favorable impression. Mr. Coburn drew his text from Paul's second epistle to the Corinthians,—"For Jesus' sake." "I gave up the theory long ago," said he, "that only Christians could die without fear. The percentage of suicides has increased to five times what it was at the beginning of this century, and we scarcely pick up a paper now-a-days without reading of some murderer who has mounted the gallows with a smile or a yawn. But it is the Christian who is willing to live and suffer,—and rejoice in doing it, as Paul did,—'for Jesus' sake.' And this, too, not from fear or for reward, but for love, and in humble imitation of the life of 'the perfect man.'"

"What the lawyer, the statesman, and the physician need is a determination to work, not for selfish ends, but 'for Jesus' sake.' What the churches want is not so much amalgamation, as unity of effort and love. Let us work, dear friends, on the principle of this text in the coming year, and our church will indeed be blest."

A Verdict for David Henning.
The case of David Henning vs. the Michigan Central railroad company was concluded yesterday in the United States circuit court. On Thursday a question of law was raised by Ashley Pond, attorney for the Michigan Central Company, in which he claimed that Mr. Henning's action should have been against the city of Ann Arbor. The city had entered into a contract with the Michigan Central for a bridge, had authorized its construction, paid for it, and Mr. Pond claimed, should be held liable for all damages incurred to property owners for the embankment. Charles M. Swift opposed the motion, and Judge Swan, after a day's argument, held the Michigan Central Company to be properly sued.

The witnesses for Mr. Henning were J. Q. A. Sessions, Henry B. Dodsley Adam D. Seyler, Moses Seabolt, Daniel Hiseock, Frank Howard, Edward Duffy, John J. Robison, W. W. Whedon, Norman B. Covert, Zenas A. Sweet, Edwin Henning, Timothy Fohey, Conrad Krapf, Louis F. Alber, James R. Bach, John Kapp and William Burt. On the part of the defense were sworn Edward Treadwell, Albert H. Pattengill, Geo. H. Rhodes, Erastus Dunn, Philip Bach, Eli W. Moore, John M. Wheeler, and Thomas J. Keech. At a late hour the jury brought in a verdict for Mr. Henning for $1,000 with interest from 1885.—Detroit Free Press.

Gelston, First Presbyterian church; Scripture-reading, Rev. Camden M. Coburn, M. E. church; Hymn, "O Bow Thine Ear, Eternal One"; Historical sketch, Mrs. Maria Jameson; Hymn, "Foundation"; Dedicatory address, Rev. B. B. Tyler, New York City; Dedicatory prayer, Rev. J. B. THE HOBART GUILD.
The first meeting of the Hobart guild will be held at 8 o'clock this evening in Harris hall, when several new members will be elected and some routine business transacted. This year the Baldwin lectures will be omitted, those on the Slocum foundation, "Evidences of Christianity," being given in their stead. The lectures will be delivered during Lent, by Rev. Dr. John Fulton, of New York.

STUDENTS' LECTURE ASSOCIATION.
The S. L. A. course for the coming year offers no such name as that of Henry M. Stanley, yet it is very creditable to the board. L. T. Powers, Geo. R. Wendling, Rev. D. DeWitt Talmage, the Schubert Male Quartette, Bill Nye and A. P. Burbank, John J. Ingalls and H. H. Ragan will appear in the order named. The eighth and last will probably be Dr. Henson, the eloquent Chicago divine.

NOTES.
The enterprising U. of M. Daily began publication yesterday.

F. T. Ducharme, '90, won the hurdle race at Toronto, Saturday.

Prof. F. N. Scott has been engaged for university extension work.

Ex-Prof. C. N. Jones was in town Monday, attending the funeral of his sister-in-law, Miss Henriques.

Grosh, Van Inwagen and several other members of the football team have been here and practicing daily for two weeks.

Prof. Kelsey has received $450 for the purchase of charts for archeological study. Several boxes of plaster casts arrived for the department last week.

McMillan hall will not be open until about Nov. 1, on account of the work on the gymnasium. Rev. J. M. Linn, of Chicago, will have charge of the building and library.

The new hospitals will not be ready for occupancy before Nov. 1. Notwithstanding this fact, clinical work will begin next Monday, arrangements having been made to care for patients in the old hospital until better accommodations can be secured.

Prof. B. A. Hinsdale writes to THE REGISTER that he spent September with his family, in Switzerland. From there they go to Rome, this month. August was passed in Belgium, Holland and Germany.

There is some quiet protest going on among the students against the general rise in boarding rates, but whether any vigorous action will be taken, as at Yale, remains to be seen. Probably there will not be, for there is some difference between $6 and $8 a week, which is charged at Yale, and the $3 which Ann Arbor students are asked to pay.

Edward Duffy Honored.

The appointment of Edward Duffy, of Ann Arbor, as a member of the consolidated Prison Board was announced by Gov. Winans last Saturday. The Board will be composed as follows: Francis Palms, Detroit; O. M. Barnes, Lansing; Edward Duffy, Ann Arbor, and Milo D. Campbell, Coldwater. The act provides that the terms of the first appointees shall be eight, six, four, and two years respectively. The governor has not indicated which shall have the longer term, but it is thought that the length of service is to be in the order named, Mr. Duffy thus having the term of four years. The emolument as provided by the act, is $5 per day and expenses.

Mr. Duffy attended an informal meeting of the board in Lansing, Tuesday morning.

For Jesus' Sake.

Rev. Camden M. Coburn, the new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, appeared before his charge for the first time last Sunday morning, and made a very favorable impression.

Mr. Coburn drew his text from Paul's second epistle to the Corinthians,—"For Jesus' sake." "I gave up the theory long ago," said he, "that only Christians could die without fear. Burglars broke into the store of Hersh & Burdick in the fourth ward Tuesday night and raided it. They effected an entrance by breaking a window in the rear end of the store and reaching in and sliding the bolt of the back door, so that it would open. He found between $35 and $40 in small silver pieces, nickels and pennies, and a few old and rather rare coins, in a bag and a box. Those they took. There was some money in the safe, and the door was not locked. They supposed it was, however, and in monkeying with the combination broke the lock and effectually fastened the door so that neither they nor the owners could open it. The burglars got a quantity of cigars, a bag of bird shot and some other small matters. If the proprietors have any suspicions as to the identity of the perpetrators, they do not divulge them.—Flint Globe.

Editor Heddon, of the Dowagiac Times, has a boy, Master Will, who would an aeronaut be—that is, he desires to do the rocket act and hear the girls say "Ah-h-h-h" as he ballooned up and parachuted down; but possibly he has now heard all the "Ah's" and "Oh's" and "Ouch's" that he cares to hear, and will hereafter endeavor to remain on earth. Caspools was going to have a fair, with the usual foalbury act for a special attraction, and Master Will contracted with the balloonists to go up three times for the magnificent sum of $3.33 per up. The first ascension was made Wednesday, and after he had been bumped against chimneys, dragged over gravel roofs and slammed up against the gable end of a Cassopolis barn he was found with a suit and a bruise that weighs precisely as much as he does.—Detroit Free Press.

Three years ago last spring a man by the name of Andrews, accompanied by his wife, came to this town and stopped at the Belleville Hotel. He claimed that he was writing up a history of the country getting facts and data to that effect. His scheme, as near as we can find out, was to single out some responsible persons and ask them about their life and when they had answered the questions asked they would read them over and ask if they were correct, and then ask them to sign their names in a book showing that they had authority to use the same in their book. And now, after three years they come around delivering said history and claim that those who signed that book signed an order for a set of the books at $15.00. If that is not a swindle, worse than the Bohemian oak racket, we would like to know the reason why?—Belleville Enterprise.

Hasn't a Hair on its Body.

There was an exhibition at Menominee a remarkable freak in the shape of a hairless horse. The best is 6 years old and hasn't the sign of a hair on its body. The horse is splendidly built and was foaled on the farm of a Belgian near Sturgeon Bay, Wis. For several years after its birth crops failed in the vicinity and the superstitious foreigners concluded that the hairless horse was a "Hoodoo." Menominee parties obtained it for $40 and have been offered $5,000.

A Michigan Skunk Farm.

A skunk farm has just come to light in Jackson county. The gentleman who runs the skunkery is T. P. Vining, of Columbia township. He says that it is easier, pays better and is pleasanter than plowing. The skunkatcher has started breeding with five female skunks. He figures that by the old process, relative to the nails in the horseshoe, he will have in five years 10,339 skunks, whose skins will be worth to him $17,958.25.

A pair of kid gloves, a pipe and some tobacco were in the pockets.

Three Miners Killed.

NEBRASKA REPUBLICANS.

The following ticket was nominated: For associate justice of the supreme court, A. M. Post, of Platte county; for regents of the state university, H. P. Shumway, of Dawson county, and Charles Marple, of Douglas county.

The platform renews its devotion to the principles of the party; congratulates the people on the marvelous prosperity attending the development and growth of the state; approves the administration of President Harrison as eminently wise, loyal and courageous; puts Blaine on the back as America's favorite son; approves the silver coinage act of the present administration; demands the maintenance of the American system of protection; eulogizes McKinley; commends the workings of the interstate commerce and regards the World's Columbian Exposition as one of the most important events in the world's history; denounces the state democratic platform as weak, vacillating and cowardly; demands an equitable adjustment of freight rates, fair ally to the farmer, the shipper and the railroads. ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

Millionaire Mackay Breaks the Record Between San Francisco and New York. NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—At 10:56 o'clock a. m., Monday the private coach Grassmere, containing John W. Mackay, the California millionaire, and Miss Fair, daughter of Senator James G. Fair, and a sister of Mrs. Herman Oelrichs, rolled into the Grand Central depot attached to the fast mail over the New York Central & Hudson River railroad, having made the fastest trip on record from San Francisco to this city.

The actual time of the trip after counting the difference of time between the two cities was four days, twelve hours and twenty-eight minutes. This beats the record of Herman Oelrichs, who in August last made the trip in four days, sixteen hours and ten minutes.

LYNCHED.

A Man and a Woman Hanged by a Mob in Mississippi. HOLLANDALE, Miss., Sept. 29.—Saturday night a colored woman named Lou Stevenson, called John Davis (white bartender) from a saloon, and while she engaged him in conversation a negro named Grant White appeared on the scene and shot Davis, killing him instantly, without provocation. White fled, but was captured near Way Side and brought back to the scene of the murder. The infuriated populace hanged both White and the woman, Lou Stevenson, to a railroad bridge near the town during the early hours of Monday morning.

Money for the Navy.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—About $16,000,000 is the sum the navy department will ask for its annual estimates for continuing work on the new navy. This does not include anything for new vessels. It is simply the amount required for meeting payments under existing contracts which will be due during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1893. Of this amount $9,000,000 is required for the construction of the vessels proper and $7,000,000 for machinery, armament and equipment. The annual estimates will not include anything for proposed new ships.

Terribly Punished by White Caps.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 28.—Mrs. Harmon, living near Birds-eye, was taken from her bed by white caps, tied to a post and given fifty lashes on her bare back. The ruffians then called upon Mrs. Freeman and ordered her to leave town within twenty-four hours. Jacob Soppenfeld was next visited and ordered by the mob to visit Mrs. Harmon and make public the fact of the whipping. He found the woman terribly gashed from head to foot and nearly dead from loss of blood.

F., the constitutional amendment providing for admission into the order of youths of 18 years was defeated by a vote of 107 to 58, the necessary three-fourths vote not having been obtained. UNDER CONTROL.

Rain Comes to the Relief of the Fire-Swept Districts.

Awful Rain Wrought in Emmons County, N. D.—A Number of Lives Lost—Farmers Made Paupers—Work of the Flames—Elsewhere.

STOPPED BY RAIN. ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 28.—Dispatches from Carlton, Milaca, Hinckley and Pine City state it has been raining at all those points for the last eighteen hours and that the forest fires are everywhere under control. There has never before been a fire of the magnitude of this one in this region. The whole country has been swept by the flames, and everything has been burned outside of the towns, except that a few lumber camps were, by great exertion, saved. Thousands of tons of hay have been cut on the lowlands about the lakes and this is all destroyed. For miles and miles on every side there is nothing but a blackened waste.

A dispatch from Williamsport, N. D., the county seat of Emmons county, says the property loss there has been somewhat exaggerated, but will reach $100,000. Three persons were burned to death in that county—Henry Tabor, living near Williamsport, and George W. and Clyde C. Johnson, farmers living near Beaver Creek. A report from the Holland settlement on the Missouri, north of Bismarck, says three farm hands were burned there. The loss at that point is about $50,000. Whole herds of cattle hemmed in by the awful conflagration were burned to death. The prairies are strewn with carcasses.

Hundreds of families are homeless and penniless, and in many instances had to flee from their abodes with only the clothes on their backs. There is certain to be great suffering this winter unless assistance comes to them from outside sources. The fire which started this great conflagration was set by a thrashing machine.

TURTLE LAKE, Minn., Sept. 28.—Word has reached this village that the family of Mr. Nesse, a farmer living a short distance out of town, consisting of himself, his wife and several small children, were hemmed in by the flames and no doubt burned to death, as no help could reach them.

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis., Sept. 28.—Reports from the east fork say that forest fires are raging in that vicinity. Lumbering camps, timber and hay are being reduced to ashes, and even the flooding dams on the streams are not spared by the raging flames. Bears, deer and all manner of small game are seeking the streams for a place of safety. In this vicinity fires are raging on every side and a large amount of property has been destroyed.

CHIPPewa FALLS, Wis., Sept. 28.—Forest fires are raging all over Chippewa county and the air in this city is thick with smoke. Considerable timber land, barns containing summer crops, stock, etc., have been burned. Whole villages have been burned.

BABCOCK, Wis., Sept. 28.—An unprecedented situation presents itself in this section. For ten days fires have been burning in every direction, destroying millions of dollars worth of property. Fires of short duration, with a few thousand dollars' damage, are almost an annual occurrence, but a continuous blaze of ten days' duration, destroying three-fourths of all the cranberry marshes, millions of feet of lumber, many farmhouses, granaries and stacks, is far beyond anything heretofore known.

Brown Denies It Now.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 28.—Jacob Brown, who confessed that he had murdered a tramp in Centralia, Ill., on Saturday denied his story. He now claims that his name is J. A. Buda, and that he killed his brother-in-law; that he was tried and acquitted on the ground of insanity and sent to the asylum at Anna, Ill., where he remained a year, and then came to St. Paul. He professed total ignorance of his story of Friday and claimed he had been drinking.

Destroying the Land.

JUNEAC, Wis., Sept. 29.—Extensive fires have raged on Moricon marsh, some 6 miles north of here, during the last week, and have not only destroyed thousands of tons of hay stacked there, but are burning out the sod and making the land valueless for several years. The marsh contains some 13,000 acres of land, of which it is estimated that 12,000 acres have been burned over.

The Failure Record.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number for the United States 210, and for Canada 54, or a total of 264 failures, as compared with 239 last week and 214 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 219, representing 193 failures in the United States and 37 in the dominion of Canada.

Fell from a Balloon.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Mich., Sept. 28.—The balloon craze has claimed another victim, and as a result of a foolhardy adventure here Lewis B. Earl, of Marshall, Mich., lies dead of a broken neck and Frank Thayer is suffering from a fractured arm and severe internal injuries. They had reached a height of 80 feet when something about the balloon broke and they fell to the ground.

Paroled to Death.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The total value of exports of merchandise from the United States during the twelve months ended August 31, 1891, was $899,264,428. The value of the imports was $859,033,241.

Big Fire in Rockville, N. Y.

UTICA, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Mott's elder refinery and storage houses at Rockville, Madison county, the largest in the country, were totally destroyed by fire Monday night. Loss, $100,000.

The Best of all ways.

To lengthen our days, Is to use Pierce's Purgative Pellets, Sir! For nine-tenths of the diseases of the body begin with constipation or the clogging up of the sluice-ways, through which the impurities of the blood escape, so that they are absorbed into the system. The Purgative Pellets act gently yet thoroughly upon the stomach and liver, and are the best laxative known. Without racking and straining the organs, they open the bowels and restore a natural, healthy digestion. Unequaled in dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, piles, or any of the resulting diseases.

How important it is that we eliminate the taint of serofolia from our blood. Hibbard's Herb Extract is renowned by the thousands of cures effected by its use.

We are a patient people—the ox is nowhere in comparison.

We buy lamp-chimneys by the dozen; they go on snapping and popping and flying in pieces; and we go on buying the very same chimneys year after year.

Our dealer is willing to sell us a chimney a week for every lamp we burn—a hundred or more a year—and we plow for him, pay him for goading us.

Macbeth's "pearl top" and "pearl glass" do not break from heat; they are made of tough glass.

As likely as not our dealer would rather his chimneys would break; "it is good for the business," says he. He buys the brittlest ones he can get.

A SEVERE SHAKE.

An Earthquake Causes Great Fear in Six States. Inhabitants of Cities in Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Tennessee and Kentucky flee to the Streets—No Great Damage Reported.

ROCKED TO AND FRO. St. Louis, Sept. 28.—A decided shock of earthquake was felt in St. Louis at 10:50 Saturday night. It was particularly noticeable in the central portion of the city and in the north and west ends.

It was not long after the shock before inquiries and reports concerning the earthquake began flowing into the newspaper offices. It seems that the shock was general and that the vibrations were slow, but noticeable and distinct. People were awakened from sleep, particularly in the west end, and rushed to the street in their night clothes.

At East St. Louis the shock was distinctly felt. Many people were aroused from their slumbers and in a few moments the streets were filled with people. No damage has as yet been reported, but the whole city felt the quaking of the earth.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The session of the cabinet yesterday was devoted to reports that American citizens were illegally arrested in Santiago, and that the United States minister to Chili was being harassed and annoyed in his efforts to care for American interests. The Chilean authorities will take measures to protect her citizens.

COSTLY BLAZE at Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—Fire in this city destroyed property Monday valued at $500,000. The losers are: Phillips & Cunningham, oil dealers; Jessup & Moore, gear dealers; the Armour Packing Company; Koons, Schwartz & Co., grocers; N. K. Fairbank & Co., lard, and George W. Elkins, hops. Several firemen were hurt, none fatally.

Seed-Growing in the United States. WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The census bureau has issued a report on the production of seeds in an industry. The report shows that there were in the United States in the census year 596 farms, with a total of 169,851 acres, devoted exclusively to seed-growing, of which 97,567 1/2 acres were reported as producing seeds.

Immigrant Arrivals in August. WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The chief of the bureau of statistics reports that the total number of immigrants arrived at the ports of the United States from the foreign countries, except the domain of Canada and Mexico, during the month ended August 31, 1891, was 45,173, against 37,381 in August of last year.

Statistics of Interest from the Pension Bureau. An Aggregate of $118,548,950.71 Paid to Pensioners During the Past Year—Operations of the Public Land Office.

MILLIONS PAID FOR PENSIONS. WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The annual report of Commissioner Raum, of the pension bureau, submitted to the secretary of the interior, shows that on June 30, 1891, there were 676,160 pensioners borne on the rolls of the bureau, being 138,216 more than were carried on the rolls at the close of the last fiscal year. They are classified as follows: Widows and daughters of revolutionary soldiers, twenty-three; army invalid pensioners, 419,397; army widows, minor children, etc., 108,537; navy invalid pensioners, 5,449; navy widows, minor children, etc., 2,509; survivors of the war of 1812, 7,500; survivors of the Mexican war, 16,379; widows of soldiers of the Mexican war, 4,976.

The aggregate annual value of the 676,160 pensions on the roll June 30, 1891, was $89,247,200 and the average annual value of each pension under the act of June 27, 1890, was $131.51.

The total amount disbursed on account of pensions, expenses, etc., during the fiscal year was $118,548,950.71, as compared with $106,493,890.19 disbursed during the preceding fiscal year; so that it appears that 138,316 pensioners were added to the rolls during the fiscal year just closed, at an increased cost to the treasury of $12,055,059 as compared with the expenditures for the previous fiscal year, and said expenditure includes $4,557,347 paid upon vouchers remaining unpaid at the close of the year.

The loss to the pension rolls by the death of widows and dependent mothers and fathers was at the rate of 35 per 1,000 in 1891. It is estimated that of the soldiers who served the country during the late war 1,004,658 were killed in battle or died during and since the war.

There are about 1,308,707 soldiers of the union now living, and 688,549 survivors who are not pensioned and 879,908 deceased soldiers not represented on the pension rolls.

Slang in Stories.

Though many dialect stories may have been, as preserving to the student of language the speech of different localities, many of them are very unfair, as we of New England can see in the sketches of our own country people, where wise and unwise, learned and ignorant, are represented as invariably ungrammatical, and dropping the final "s" profusely.

Writers are also in not adapting the style of their "slangish language" to the period of the story. A lady, commenting on a certain "juvenile" of the events of 1840, says: "There is slang in that story which, I am sure, is not more than ten years old. I remember 1840 well—I lived at home in a house full of noisy leathers. My father and I went to school, and I was familiar with the children's phrases popular at the time, and these I am confident are of a far more modern date."

Such a subject is worth the attention of antiquaries; every age and generation has its own phrases. When this century was in its teens did not say persons and things were "just lovely"? Did boys tell about having "a regular blowout"?

Attention to such points makes a story to use a phrase of Sir Walter Scott's "look much better in the face," and without such care a story is a little less as a portrait of the past. For evidence, however, that slang, ancient or modern, is not essential to success, see those perfect specimens of the genre's stories, the "Hobby Books."—Pamela M. A. Cole in Writer.

Aesthetics Caut. St. Marie cows walk up stairs in the houses and manifest evidence of great enjoyment as they view the surrounding landscape from the second story windows.

Is Alum Poisonous? (Hall's Journal of Health.) "This question has caused a good deal of discussion. Alum is used by many bakers to whiten their bread, enabling them to use an inferior flour. It is most extensively employed as a cheap substitute for cream of tartar in the manufacture of baking powders. It has not been considered immediately dangerous; although if continued it induces dyspepsia and obstinate constipation. But the fact that many cases of poisoning have occurred from the use of alum, puts the question in a more serious aspect, and people will exercise caution in the selection of baking powders.

"Under what conditions then, does this substance—formerly used only for mechanical or medicinal purposes—become poisonous? They are certainly obscure, and at present we can only surmise what they may be. We suspect that the cause exists in the individual poisoned; some peculiarity of the constitution producing a morbid change in the secretions of the stomach, with which the alum combines and forms an active poison; or the secretions may be healthy but in unusual proportions, and that these less or greater proportions in combination with the alum constitute a poison.

"For example, two parts of mercury and two parts of chlorine form calomel, which is not poisonous, but change the proportions of one part mercury and two parts of chlorine, and we get corrosive sublimate, which is a deadly poison.

"Then again, we know nothing of the constitutional peculiarities. Why is it that one person can eat all kinds of green fruits and vegetables with impunity, while the same course might cost another individual his life? One person can handle poison ivy and sumac without being in the least affected; another is poisoned if he approaches within ten feet of them. Out of a family residing in a malarial district, some of the members will suffer half the year with fever and ague, while the others will enjoy excellent health during the entire year. Foods that are wholesome to some persons are actually poisonous to others. This is especially true of some kinds of fish. There is no safety in taking alum into the stomach, as it is shown to be always injurious, and often dangerous."

The Scientific American published in a recent number a list of alum and ammonia baking powders, which is of great value at this time. Following is the list compiled from official reports. Powders marked with a star seem to have a general sale, as they are mentioned in at least two of the official reports.

The New York World says: "Collecting coins is a very profitable business now-a-days, as there are but few in it. One Boston broker, Mr. W. E. Skinner, buys from agents all over the country, and pays them big sums for rare coins." Coins that are very hard to find in one section of the country are often abundant in others. HONEST INJUN, Mr. Flower, how much did it cost?

If the sky-sailor makes a successful ascension, he is an aeronaut; if he fails, he is a balloonatic.

This week THE REGISTER gives the first installment of a story by Mrs. Humphrey Ward, the author of "Robert Elsmere." It is entitled "Miss Bretherton," and is written in Mrs. Ward's most fascinating style.

The London Times thinks that the stability of our protective tariff is too uncertain for American capitalists to risk money in the establishment of new industries. How the Times wishes that the capitalists would think so, too!

A PROFESSIONAL pugilist is said to have recently reformed and sought a field of greater usefulness to society through the influence of an old and much loved aunt. Go to your aunt, thou slugger, consider her ways and be wise.

The first delegate to the Republican National convention of 1892 was chosen at Berks, Pa., last week. His announcement that he would cast his ballot for James G. Blaine was greeted with vociferous applause. Meanwhile, Mr. Blaine continues to "saw wood and say nothing."

JUDGING from the comments on the REGISTER's big edition of last week that have come in from all sides, it must be an exception to the rule, as stated by a writer in the September Century, that country newspapers are never appreciated. Or is it that THE REGISTER is not a country newspaper?

The life of Columbus which the Century will publish in celebration of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America will be of especial interest to most of us, not only because it will be the latest, best, and most carefully written of any that have yet appeared, but because it will be the work of that steadfast friend and admirer of America, Emilio Castelar, the famous Spanish orator, statesman, patriot, and author.

In an article on the world's food supply in the October number of the "American Agriculturist" he is not far wrong, Europe is much more likely to suffer the distresses of famine within the next twelve months than to endure the horrors of war. The shortage in bread-stuffs appears to be well-nigh universal. In many Russian provinces there has been a scarcity of food ever since last February. The prohibition of rye exports followed by a ukase forbidding the shipment of bran and other cereal cattle foods. It is now certain that she can export no wheat. Germany is but little better off than Russia, on the continent the potato crop is frightfully short, and in Ireland it is almost a total failure. "The Agriculturalist" thus finds a deficit in the world's food supply of 200,000,000 bushels of wheat and rye, with the possibility that it may reach twice that amount. This enormous shortage is proven, not only by reports from different European countries but by the fact that exports of wheat from the United States during the month of August were three times as much as they were in the same month of last year and four times the average August exportations.

In the meantime, America has been blessed with most bountiful harvests. The scorching sun under which we were perspiring the past two weeks has placed a great part of the corn crop beyond danger. Some prophesy the largest crop ever known. The wheat receipts are enormous, being 22,598,702 bushels, as against 7,032,968 bushels for the same weeks last year. Meanwhile, European investors have seen the unmistakable signs of increasing prosperity and have bought heavily of American securities. This, in turn, has caused large shipments of gold to the United States and a break in foreign exchanges. Thus, with money in the hands of American investors from foreign buyers of grain and stocks and from paid-off farm mortgages, everything points to a year of great activity and prosperity.

Now, it may be illogical for men to support the party in power and its principles just because the country is enjoying a period of prosperity, but the fact remains that many will do so. It is a cold day for the party of national calamity. Add to this the situation in New York and Ohio, and it is not difficult to see why the forces of Democracy are on the run. In New York state a ticket has been nominated by the Democrats which cannot unite the discordant elements in their ranks, and without New York the election of a Democratic president is indeed hopeless. The anticipated break between the Republican leaders in Ohio has not taken place, the Farmers' Alliance has not fallen into line, and the labor organizations are unsympathetic. All in all, the political sky is not the most rose-colored for the party of Hilliam, whiskey, and the Flower barrel.

Death of Miss Rebecca Henriques.
Ann Arbor people were greatly shocked last Saturday morning at the sudden and unexpected death of Miss Rebecca Henriques at her residence, 24 South Fifth avenue. Until 10 o'clock Saturday morning Miss Henriques was in apparently as good health as usual, and was about her household duties, without any premonition of her impending fate, when she was suddenly seized with a severe pain in her head and expired in a few minutes. Her death was, in all probability, due to heart disease. The funeral services, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Tatlock were held at the residence at half-past 4 Monday afternoon; the burial, at half-past 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, was private, only the immediate relatives being present. The floral decorations were very beautiful. Among the relatives from away who attended the funeral services were Mrs. Beavis, of Toronto, Canada; Mrs. Jessie Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Prof. C. N. Jones, of Milwaukee, Wis., and Mr. J. E. Henriques, of Chicago, Ill. Dr. E. C. Henriques, of Las Vegas, N. M., and Mrs. Crawford, of Philadelphia, were unable to attend. A will, made in 1881, names Mr. John M. Wheeler administrator.

Something About Fruit.
The October meeting of the Washtenaw Horticultural Society is indefinitely postponed on account of the hot weather, which demands speedy care of all fruits.

While winter apples have greatly suffered, grapes have been immensely benefited by the heat. All honey loving insects, especially the bees, are preying upon our grapes. For this reason we had to take care of this crop at once, and have none for sale.

We would advise all lovers of this fruit to use all they can, daily. Those especially, who wish to improve their blood, or are weak otherwise, should eat all the grapes they like. Weak people should not swallow the seeds. Please ask the advice of your physician.

The heat has destroyed all fungus diseases, consequently grapes have not suffered from rot.

Pears have been very sweet. Most people do not know that this fruit, which contains more iron than any other fruit, should be bought green and ripened in a dark, cool place in the house. It improves the pear if you wrap each specimen in tissue or any other soft paper. Pears should be handled like eggs.

The fruit exhibit at the Ypsilanti fair was very large. The space for fruit and sweetmeats was too small. The vegetables were immense.

The Ypsilantians, however, know how to make their fair a success, which is due to their business tact and to the filling of the offices of the different departments with painstaking ladies and gentlemen. Mr. F. E. Mills spared no effort at the Ypsilanti fair to make the county fair a success. All indications are favorable for a grand county fair.

Taking all the exhibits at the different Michigan fairs into consideration, we feel thankful to a kind Providence which has cast our lot in the state of Michigan and particularly in Washtenaw county. Emil Baur.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church will hold their first social of the season at the church parlors on Thursday, October 8. This will be made a special occasion for greeting strangers as well as old friends who have been separated during the summer. The Sewing Circle will meet at 3 p. m. with work for all. Supper will be served at 6:30.

Robert Downing, the brilliant young American tragedian, will appear at the Grand opera House on next Saturday evening, when he will be seen in his far famed impersonation of "The Gladiator." The company in support of this talented young actor is said to be the finest acting and best costumed company in America, and is led by that beautiful woman and charming actress Eugenie Blair, a great favorite in Ann Arbor. This accomplished actress and author is a southern maid and a great society favorite. That she is an actress of rare culture and finish must be accepted. Her stage gowns are gems of Paris style and delight the fair sex of the audience.

The above is a wonderful Farm Gate, patented by Wm. R. White, of Bloomington, Ill., who had lost his farm by mortgage. This is a new plan on the principle of the pendulum, and the levers are up whether opened or closed, having thirteen advantages over any gate in use. It is so convenient and durable that $3,000 worth have been sold in some counties. Call and see it at the Fair Grounds, where Mr. White will explain all of its merits. [Mr. White comes to this city well recommended, and thinks of staying for the winter.—Ed.] 75

OUR YPSILANTI RAMBLER.

Tells What He Has Seen and Heard in that Burg During the Past Seven Days and Nights.

"Blest be the tie that binds" Ann Arbor and Ypsi, if it is only a (motor) railroad tie, for we load up our cheeses, crazy bed quilts, oil paintings and big pumpkins and send 'em over to the fair in care of "the man," while we take our ease (and umbrella) in the open car, and sit looking with longing eyes at those great clusters of purple and gold past which we whiz, never stopping until the fair grounds loom in sight. Verily Ann Arbor is a beautiful city, and we are very glad she has the advantage of being located so near Ypsi. It sort of gives her more confidence in herself to have such a staunch, respectable burg as Ypsi in the family. The many friends of Chas. W. McCorkle, who was wounded in Detroit Friday by the cylinder explosion, are pleased to hear that his condition is improving and hopes are entertained for his recovery. There came near being a serious accident at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. The side steps and porch have been in an unsafe condition for some months, but as no means had been used to remedy the danger, it only remained for some one to take the final step which was to break, not the candle's back, but the rotten porch. The unfortunate person was Mrs. C. Corryell, and only her extremely light weight saved her from serious if not fatal injuries. As it is, she has suffered greatly from the fall. Some one proposes that the Presbyterian congregation choose for its rallying hymn, "Christian, Walk Carefully, Danger is Near."

RAMBLER.

LITERARY NOTES.

The Rector of St. Luke's, by Marie Bernhardt, translated by Elise L. Lathrop, has been recently received. It is an interesting story of modern social life in a military town of Germany.

Mother's Help and Child's Friend, by Carrie Le Favre. Brentano's, New York. This little book contains many suggestions of helpfulness to mothers and while the authoress is extreme in some of her statements and defective in her style, it will, no doubt, be useful to many of its readers.

First Lessons in Arithmetic, including the Fundamental Rules, by Andrew J. Rickoff, A. M., LL. D. Price 36 cents. This is essentially a pupil's book, and is devoted to producing clear, accurate and rapid work in the four fundamental rules, and to training the judgment in the proper application of these processes.

A marvel of cheapness is the publishing by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia Pa., of one of their large and best known Cook Books in their new 25 cent series, in paper cover. Peterson's National Cook Book contains nearly six hundred cooking receipts, purely American in their treatment of dishes used throughout the United States.

Mrs. Mayburn's Twins, with her Trials in the Morning, Noon, Afternoon and Evening, by John Habberton, author of "Helen's Babies," etc., has just been published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa., in paper cover for 25 cents. All who have read the other stories of this author know with what charm he portrays the doings and sayings of the little ones.

A Hygienic Physiology for the use of Grammar and Common Schools, by B. F. Lincoln, M. D., Late Sec'y Medical Department of American Social Science Assoc., author of School and Industrial Hygiene, etc. For introduction, 80 cents. The chief object of this book is to present the laws of health as fully as pupils fourteen or fifteen years old can be expected to understand, appreciate, and apply them.

Elements of Civil Government. A textbook for use in public schools, high schools and normal schools and a manual of reference for teachers. By Alexander I. Peterman, late principal and professor of Civil Government in the Normal school of the Kentucky state college. 12mo, cloth, 218 pages. Price for introduction, 60 cents.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

She—Why, Charley, where have you been? I've been waiting an age for you. He—Oh, but then, your age is such a brief time, you know. She—More than ever of the opinion that Charley is such a dear fellow.—Boston Transcript.

I think Ely's Cream Balm is the best remedy for Catarrh I ever saw. I never took anything that relieved me so quickly, and I have not felt so well for a long time. I used to be troubled with severe headaches two or three times a week.—J. A. Alcorn, Ag't U. P. R. Co., Eaton, Colo.

Inaac Goldberg, jr. (as he is caught by the grappling iron of the ascending balloon) Help! Help!—Goldberg, sr.—Nefter mind, Icy, son was all right. Keep your presence of mind and distribute some of our peesness cards as you go drier country.—Judge.

Nobody but a woman can write scientifically of woman's apparel. The man who attempts it is lost. It is different with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Either sex is fully acquainted with the merits of this noted remedy.

Papa—I understand, daughter, that new suitor of yours is a base-ball celebrity. Daughter.—Yes, papa, he is the greatest short-stop in the country. Papa.—Short-stop, eh? Well, I hope he will remember his specialty when he calls on you.—Boston Courier.

Our New England Grandmothers made famous Mince pies. Dougherty's New England Condensed Mince Meat contains everything required for such pies. Ready for the oven in twenty minutes.

New Equipment on the Wabash.

The Wabash Railroad has just placed on its day trains between Chicago and St. Louis a line of elegant new Wagner buffet parlor cars. These cars make direct connection at St. Louis with through sleepers for Hot Springs and the Southwest. The night trains on the Wabash running between Chicago and St. Louis have long had the distinction of being the finest in the West, their compartment sleepers being especially popular.

A Model Railway. The Burlington Route, C. B. & Q. R. R., operates 7,000 miles of road, with terminals in Chicago, St. Louis, St. Paul, Omaha, Kansas City and Denver. For speed, safety, comfort, equipment, track and efficient service it has no equal. The Burlington gains new patrons, but loses none.

To the Pacific Coast. Go to California via the through lines of the Burlington Route, from Chicago or St. Louis to Denver, and thence over the new broad gauge, through car lines of the Denver and Rio Grande or Colorado Midland Railways, via Leadville, Glenwood Springs and Salt Lake, through interesting cities and unsurpassed scenery. Dining cars all the way.

Bradfield's Female Regulator. has won, on merit alone, a widespread and enduring reputation. It is a combination of vegetable agents, the result of the experience of one who made the diseases of women a life-long study.

DR. BURCHARD DEAD. The Eminent Presbyterian Divine Succumbs to Peritonitis. SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Rev. Dr. Burchard, of New York city, died at 8:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. He attended the First Presbyterian church last Sunday and was taken ill in the evening, but he was not considered in a serious condition until Tuesday. His illness developed into peritonitis. He was 79 years of age.

The doctor was known principally through his famous alliterative expression to which is accredited Mr. Blaine's defeat. Dr. Burchard was present at a reception to Mr. Blaine, then republican candidate for president, tendered at the Fifth Avenue hotel in New York by several hundred ministers of various denominations. Dr. Burchard was there and had been chosen to address Mr. Blaine in behalf of the clergy, who gathered in the grand corridor of the hotel on the second floor. Mr. Blaine was escorted from his rooms on the third floor down the staircase in full view of the clergymen and others who had gathered to greet him.

Here's to the maiden of bashful fifteen. And here's to the widow of forty!

They have each reached a period in life when most females need assistance in tiding them over the shoals which so often completely wreck their after lives. In producing regularly and healthily action of the female organs, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription stands without a peer. At a time when nature gives them increased burdens, so many young girls have their health for life shattered. If you wish your daughter to miss those periodical, agonizing backaches, and dizzy headaches, languid and tired feelings, accompanied with rough pimply skin, and dull, heavy eyes, get her a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If you have reached the latter period of danger and weakness, you will need a bottle, too. See wrapper on bottle for printed guarantee. Satisfaction given in every case or money returned.

Singular. A fourteen-year-old boy at school wrote this sentence in an exercise: "Ten men and four woman." His teacher pointed out to him the sentence with the remark: "Is it possible that you do not know, after all these years at school, that the plural of woman is women?" The boy scratched his head in a somewhat disconcerted way. "Anyway," he said, "I've often heard my father say that woman is a singular creature.—Youth's Companion.

How Often. We see some young man who has squandered his money and ruined his health by excesses, and before 30 years of age is an all broken down and played out man! In all such cases I prescribe Nature's tonic and nerve, Sulphur Bitters. They supply food for the brain, strengthen the nerves, and are successful in nine cases out of ten.—Old Physician.

Might Even Do Him Good. Mr. Koops.—Now Mose; how did you come to kill that bird? Mose.—Dat's jus' w'at Ise comin' to 'splain, Marse Koops. I don't kill dat chicken in self defence! Mr. Koops.—Oh, look here, Mose. A little chicken would be just you. Mose.—Ya's; dat's w'at I thought.—Pick.

What Was It, John. That made your face so free and clear from pimples, said his sweetheart. Why, don't you know, Er? For over a year I took everything I could think of without helping me, then I bought two bottles of Sulphur Bitters, and now I haven't one pimple on my face. It is the best blood-cleanser I ever saw. 2

Driven to Matrimony. Georgia is going to tax bachelors. A bill for that purpose has been brought into the Georgia legislature and the house committee on hygiene and sanitation has reported it favorably. Under its terms it will cost a Georgian $25 to begin the bachelor business at thirty years of age, and on a rising scale of $25 for five years a man of sixty and up to $100 for the privilege of going without a wife.

At the Newboys' Mission School. Teacher (to Mickey): Now, Mickey, you read the lesson to me first, and then tell me, with the book closed, what you read. Mickey (reading): Saw the cow. Can the cow run? Yes, the cow can run. Can the cow run as swiftly as the horse? No, the horse runs swifter than the cow. (Closing up his book to tell what he has read.) Get out de cow. Kin her jib-steps run? Be'cher life she kin run. Kin de cow do up de horse a runnin'? Now, de cow ain't in it wid de horse.—Life.

Serious Danger

Threatens every man, woman or child living in a region of country where fever and ague is prevalent, since the germs of malarial disease are inhaled from the air and are swallowed from the water of such a region. A medicinal safeguard is absolutely necessary to nullify this danger. As a means of fortifying and acclimating the system so as to be able to resist the malarial poison, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is incomparably the best and the most popular. Irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels encourage malaria; but these are speedily rectified by the Bitters. The functions of digestion and secretion are assisted by its use, and a vigorous as well as regular condition of the system promoted by it. Constitution and physique are thus defended against the inroads of malaria by this matchless preventive, which is also a certain and thorough remedy in the worst cases of intermittent and remittent fevers.

A Dubious Situation. Rev. Joseph Gravely (giving his views on the evils of card playing during a pastoral call)—As I was saying, I am in doubt—Parrot (interrupting eagerly)—When you are in doubt play trumps! (And no member of that family has been able to account for the parrot's utterance to the satisfaction of the pastor.—Kate Field's Washington.

A Long Vacation. Llewellyn, a Little Lord Fauntleroy darling on the North Side, saw an Indian for the first time the other day. He gazed in speechless wonder at the noble red man's swarthy face and hands for some moments, and then said: "Papa, what an awful long vacation that must have been taking."—Chicago Tribune.

Watching the Hour-Glass. As a miser counts his gold, night and day, so I count the minutes told in the glass. My eye is dim, my hair is thin and gray, and I know I'm growing old as they pass.

When we approach the "sere and yellow leaf" of our days, we are prone to look back regretfully. A clear conscience and sound health will lighten our gloomy reflections. Health is the greatest blessing.—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the greatest medicine. It arrests the progress of lung and serofulous diseases, and cures consumption, or lung-scurf, if taken in time. It is the king of liver invigorators and blood-purifiers, and a powerful tonic, building up the debilitated patient to perfect health. Contains no alcohol.

After church.—Mrs. Patron—Well, how were you pleased with our pastor? Mrs. Frankey—Very much pleased with his manner and style of delivery, but do not like his advocacy of eternal punishment. Mrs. Patron.—What was there in his sermon this morning that impressed him as an advocate of such a revolting doctrine? Mrs. Frankey.—Its style and duration.—Boston Courier.

And while cakes and biscuit will retain their moisture, they will be found flaky and extremely light and fine grained, not coarse and full of holes as are the biscuit made from ammonia baking powder. Things a Woman Can Do.

Of a modern daughter of Eve a Boston paper says: She can come to a conclusion without the slightest trouble of reasoning on it, and no sane man can do that. Six of them can talk at once and get along first rate, and no two men can do that.

She can safely stick fifty pins in her dress while he is getting one under his thumb nail. She is as cool as a cucumber in half a dozen tight dresses and skirts, while a man will sweat and fume and growl in one loose shirt.

She can talk as sweet as peaches and dream to the woman she hates, while two men would be pounding each other's head before they had exchanged ten words.

She can throw a stone with a curve that would be a fortune to a base ball pitcher. She can say "no" in such a sweet voice that it means "yes."

She can appreciate a kiss from her husband seventy-five years after marriage ceremony was performed. She can walk half a night with a colicky baby in her arms without once expressing the desire of murdering the infant.

He was taken to the Franklin House, Dr. Breakey accompanying him. It is probable that his arm will have to be amputated. Stratton's home is in Dearborn.

A gentleman of the bucolic profession stood on the corner of Main and Washington, Saturday evening, with the firm determination to drive a shaft of Cupid to the gentle heart of every beauteous maid who chanced to pass that way. Having arrayed himself in a "boiled shirt" and red necktie, and having taken his pantaloons out from the tops of his boots, he had a feeling that he must appear very fascinating to the aesthetic eyes of the fairer sex. After he had posed for some time with indifference success, he began to act in a more offensive way, which drew the attention, and the remonstrations, of a passer-by. This so angered the amorous swain that he immediately wished to fight, not only the one who had remonstrated, but anyone in the crowd. He finally became so noisy that Officer Collins had to gather him in, to cool his hot blood behind stone walls. On the way to the jug he offered the munificent bribe of a glass of beer if "Doc" would only let him go. Virtue triumphed in the officer's breast, and he was released on the next day, however, he was released, on payment of jail costs.

Robert Downing, the eminent young American tragedian, will appear at the Grand Opera House on next Saturday evening, presenting Saumet's magnificent tragedy, "The Gladiator," in which he will be seen in the title role, a part that has put him at the head of his profession as an exponent of the robust, character of the stage. The company in support is remarkably strong, and is led by Eugenie Blair, without doubt the handsomest woman on the stage, and one of great histrionic abilities. It was in Baltimore that Robt. Downing commenced his theatrical career, at the age of sixteen, with the stock company under Manager John T. Ford, and, today, though but a trifle over 30, he ranks among the greatest stars. Mr. Downing belongs to that peculiar robust, vigorous school of which the American stage has had but two prominent exemplars, viz.: Edwin Forrest and John McCullough, and now comes the third in the person of this handsome, talented young actor, whose magnificent physique, powerful, though melodious voice, and vigorous manner has earned for him the distinction of being the only purely heroic actor of which we can now boast.
