THE REGISTER. PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY SELBY A. MORAN, ANN ARBOR, MICH. TERMS: One Dollar per Year in Advance. 1.50 if not paid until after one year.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1894

THE REGISTER requests all of its friends, who have business at the Probate Court, to be sure and request the Judge of Probate or Probate Register to send their printing to THE REGISTER. Reasonable rates only are charged.

THE corridors of the court house resound with a strange and hollow echo as one walks through them these days. They are no more thickly peopled with throngs of Democratic politicians scheming schemes that are doomed to failure.

It now looks very much as if the Republicans had secured the U. S. Senate. At least they have 43 to the Democrats 38 and the Populists 5, leaving the balance of power in the hands of Senators Jones and Stewart, two silver Republicans, who will vote with the Republicans upon all questions excepting, possibly, upon the silver measure.

How must those defeated candidates feel when they see in every Democratic newspaper, and hear on every hand, the statement: "Well, the election this year didn't amount to much, anyhow, but just wait until '96." Some of the candidates thought it did amount to a great deal and are feeling not a little disgruntled when they think that the Democracy of the county felt that the matter was not important enough to induce more of the faithful to hustle for the good of the cause.

It looks very much as if a serious mistake had been made in attempting to put in the Liberty and Washington-st. lateral sewers this fall. At the very best a large number of our streets are sure to be in bad condition all winter. Although it may be possible for the contractors to complete their jobs on time, or nearly so, it will be impossible to get the streets in any thing like a decent condition before spring. As the main sewer will not be ready for use before next spring, it certainly would have been just as well to have postponed the work on the laterals until that time, especially after so long a delay before a start was made.

THE recent decision of the supreme court relative to distinguishing marks upon a ballot declares that any mark more than the simple cross to indicate the voter's choice makes the ballot illegal. If this rule were strictly carried out, about one-half the split tickets cast at the recent election would be thrown out. There can be no doubt, however, that the court correctly interpreted the law in the case. The mistake, and we believe it was a mistake, was made when such strict regulations were made by the legislature. The time that it would take for people to get accustomed to this method of voting is much greater than anybody ever suspected it would be. Ten years from now it would be well to have such a clause in our election law as the one referred to above about the marking of tickets, but people are not ready for it now.

Since writing the above the supreme court has more fully explained the meaning of its decision declaring the erasure of a name does not cancel the ballot. This is evidently a concession to the widespread complaint about the decision rendered.

WHY NOT BE STRONG? Do You Know What That Weakness Means?

There is a Limit to Your Endurance. Have You Reached It? Beware of the Last Straw! It Will Come Like a Shock. Shakespeare says: "When sorrows come, they come not single spies but in battalions." How true this is of disease. How surely will over-work lead to nervousness, headache, nervous exhaustion, prostration, paralysis and the most terrible brain diseases.

MISS ROSE MCCARTHY. The popular Miss Rose McCarthy, of 347 East 87th Street, New York City, writes:

"For a long time I was troubled with nervousness and violent headaches. I would lie awake nearly all night and was in constant misery. Previous to this my complexion was a very healthy color, but it now became very bad. I took three bottles of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and was entirely cured. My nervousness and headaches left me, my good complexion returned and I slept perfectly. I can safely say to everybody who is suffering, just give it a trial and you will be cured. I hope my statement will find relief for many people who do not know the benefit of such a wonderful medicine."

Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy strikes disease like the lightning's flash, which nothing can resist, and where it strikes it cures. Put it to the test in your own case and see how quickly health and strength will be yours. Physicians recommend it because it is the discovery of the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th Street, New York City. You can consult him free, personally or by letter.

Do you cook? If so, Prof. Bress has something to say to you on page eleven of this issue.

Went to church. The following story of the duke of Wellington is told in the Christian Commonwealth: It was a rule of his grace's household that all visitors should attend worship on Sunday. One excused himself on the ground that he was a Roman Catholic, and there was no chapel near. His grace caused inquiry to be made, found there was one thirty miles off, and the guest was informed a carriage and four were in waiting to take him there. As a matter of fact he was not a Roman Catholic, but simply had pleaded that as an excuse. However, in he had to get, no less volens, and arrived back to dinner after his involuntary drive of sixty miles.

Could Not Compete. Recently the Australian minister of public instruction offered a prize for the best work of fiction in prose or verse written in any of the nineteen languages of the empire. Competitors appeared from all nationalities but the Italians, and on inquiry for the reason the answer given was that the educated classes in Trieste, Tyrol and Dalmatia are Irredentists, who would gladly enter a competition started by Italy, but could not accept an offer from Austria.

Preventable Blindness. According to some estimates twenty per cent, and according to others as low as seventy per cent of the blind owe their affliction to the negligence of midwives and others immediately after the birth of such unfortunates. The blindness arising from this cause is absolutely preventable by at least two simple means.

The Old the Best. "But that is another story," remarked the young man in the course of conversation. "How I detest that phrase!" said Gladys. "The old, old story is good enough for me, any time."

A Great Shock. Caller—Is Professor Misset, the weather prophet at home? Servant—Yes; but he can't see any one. He is suffering from shock. Caller—My! my! Have some of your predictions come true?

How She Did It. First Soubrette—Well, I got my salary raised. Second Soubrette—How did you do it? First Soubrette—Kicked for it.

Shoe Blackening. Shoe blackening by electricity, with the aid of the human hand, has been known for some time, but shoe blackening without that intervening agency is a novelty just introduced in a St. Louis hotel. The device is composed of three brushes, two of which run parallel with each other. These brushes move back and forth the moment the foot is placed on the support between them. The third brush is placed vertically to the two others, and the bristles of the former move in and out of the bristles of the latter. The third brush has a rotary motion around its own axis, and then through the combined motion of the three brushes, polished by electricity, a very nicely polished shoe is turned out.

Beer in the United States. The brewing of lager beer in this country was begun about fifty years ago in the outskirts of Philadelphia. Before that brewery products were entirely ale and porter. Now, however, nearly all the output, which last year amounted to 33,822,000 barrels, is of lager. Each barrel contains 248 pints, or 496 glasses; therefore, according to the latest internal revenue returns, there was made and sold last year an average glass of beer for every working day to every man, woman and child in the United States.

Life's Problems Solved. Tired Tim—Wot's that you say? Lookin' fer work? Wampy William—Yep. I ain't no tramp. I work on farms. But I never stays in one situation mor'n a week.

In Jerusalem. In digging the foundations for a house near the church of St. Stephen in Jerusalem lately, a beautiful mosaic pavement was discovered which measured 21 feet by 13 and contained an Armenian inscription. Underneath was a cavern in which were found bones, lamps and glass vases.

Across the Irish Channel. A new route is soon to be established across the Irish channel between Ballingary, near Wexford, and Fishguard in Pembrokeshire. The time from land to land will then be reduced to 90 or 100 minutes.

There will be an election of Officers Tomorrow night by Arbor Tent Sick Benefit Society.

"Shall Women be Eligible to Election to the General Conference." This question may be voted on by all members of the M. E. church over 21 years of age, on Wednesday, Nov. 21st, from 8:30 to 9:00 p. m. in the prayer meeting room of the church.

Prof. Hunter. The world renowned Psychometrist and Clairvoyant is in the city and can be consulted on all matters pertaining to the past, present and future. He is reliable in all his readings and guarantees satisfaction. He is endorsed by the press and public wherever he goes (as has been demonstrated in this city). His stay in this city will be short, and he can be consulted at 20 E. Ann-st. the rest of this week. (68)
