

COLUMBIAN ORGAN.

THE COLUMBIAN ORGAN CONCERT TO BE A GREAT SUCCESS.

Cornell Buried—Regents Meeting—Death of a Well-Known Citizen—Fatal Accident—Homoeopathic Row Again—Lecture by Yovtcheff—A Journey Around the World.

Cornell Shoved into the Earth.

The long looked-for game with Cornell is a thing of history. It was a great game, and every friend of the U. of M. is pleased with the result. The most sanguine had little hope of success, while the large majority felt that they would be satisfied if Michigan could only make a score. The boys, however, proposed to lend the players all the encouragement they could and went to Detroit fully one-thousand strong. It is but putting it mildly to say that they took the city—and it would not be far out of the way to say that when the game was ended they tried to take the earth.

When the game, which was played in the presence of at least 4,000 people, had been finished and the score stood 13 to 4 in favor of the U. of M., it would be a mild statement to say that pandemonium reigned. There seemed to be a regular cyclone of pandemonium broken loose. The team were loaded into hacks and the horses removed and by ropes attached they were drawn by fully a thousand students all the way from the D. A. C. grounds to the Russell house. Had it not been arranged for the boys to return here after midnight Saturday night there would probably have been such a reception given them here as Ann Arbor has not seen since the time of the Pan American congress. This victory over Cornell will do more to boom athletics at the U. of M. and in the west than any other one thing that has ever happened in the history of athletics west of the Alleghenies. From this standpoint, it is a victory we may well be proud of.

Regents Meeting.

After concluding the matter relative to the Homoeopathic School, mentioned in another column, the regents made a call for a printed statement of the number of professors, instructors and employees of the University, together with the salaries of each, and the actual time spent in the class room. Further, that the number of students under each instructor be found out.

Just how much this may mean is not fully known, but it looks very much as if the regents wanted to see, at least, whether all those on the pay roll, were earning their salary.

E. D. Brooks was elected an assistant in ophthalmology in the Homoeopathic department at $100 per year. Seven hundred and twenty-five dollars were appropriated to construct two iron stairways as additional exits from University Hall, the two front stairways having been cut off by the new organ.

The motion to place 100 lockers in the law building to be rented to law students at $1.00 per year, was referred to the finance committee.

Regent Fletcher then moved that Mr. Harvey recommend an engineer who shall have charge of the work now being done by Mr. Sanford, to be paid $125 per month for his services, to be paid Jan 1, '95. This motion was carried.

Yovtcheff on Russia and the Jews.

The lecture Monday night at the Inland League by Yovtcheff was an exceedingly interesting one. A good audience listened to his graphic account of how the Russian Jews preyed upon the unsophisticated Russian peasants. The speaker was very decided in his condemnation of the methods of oppression carried on by the Jews and declared that the Russian government had done all that any government could do for the Jews, but that the latter were nothing more than leeches who constantly sap the sustenance of the ignorant lower classes. The incidents which the speaker mentioned showed the cupidity of the Jew and what a deep schemer he was to gain his ends. At the close of the lecture the speaker was interviewed by a large number interested in special features of the lecture and in his dress, he having delivered his lecture in native costume and armed as a hunter or a bandit.

Death of O. B. Hutchins.

Many of our older residents will remember Carlton B. Hutchins, who was a resident of this city from some time in the 60's until about 1880, when he removed to Detroit. A week ago today, at the ripe old age of 80 years, he passed away. Mr. Hutchins came to Ann Arbor to educate his family. One of the good results of his coming here is shown in the success of his son, H. B. Hutchins, who has recently been appointed dean of the law department of the U. of M.

The Columbian Organ.

The meeting held at Frieze Memorial Hall last Friday night to make arrangements for a fitting dedication of the great Columbian Organ was well attended. Prof. Kelsey presided. The question of how to so arrange that the organ could be dedicated free of debt, was the all absorbing one. The organ had been offered to the University Musical Society for $15,000, just one-half its value. The society accepted it at this figure and have already raised all but $8,000 of the amount. The plan adopted was to give an organ concert, with Prof. Stanley as organist, on the evening of Dec. 14. Tickets to this concert are to be sold at not less than $2.00 each. It is hoped, however, that as the payment of this amount will be looked upon as a donation, many people in Ann Arbor will see fit to give more for tickets. One gentleman has already expressed a willingness to give $200.00 for a single ticket, while a number of others will give $50.00 and $25.00 each for tickets. Those paying the largest amounts will be given the first choice of seats. A number of the fraternities will take seats for all their members who will sit in a body. It is hoped that not only the fraternities but that other organizations in the city will adopt a similar plan. Ann Arbor people have never been asked, at least so far, to give anything at all towards helping to pay for this instrument, yet nothing that has ever come to Ann Arbor or to the University, will do as much to extend the name and fame of Ann Arbor and the U. of M. Ann Arbor people, therefore, ought to rally to this movement with a good-will and make the sale of tickets such that when the concert opens on the night of Dec. 14, the musical society can be able to announce that the debt has been paid and that the instrument which is about to be dedicated, is all their own.

The meeting held in the council chamber Tuesday night to make further arrangements for the Columbian Organ Concert was fairly well attended. An elaborate program is being prepared. Prominent speakers from different parts of the state will be invited to attend and make brief addresses. A full program will be published in THE REGISTER next week.

Special ward committees were appointed to push the sale of tickets in each ward. The committees are as follows:

First Ward—

Ottmar Eberbach, Moses Seabolt, D. F. Schairer.

Second Ward—

H. S. Dean, John Koch, Wm. Herz.

Third Ward—

C. E. Hiscock, N. J. Keyer, John Duffy.

Fourth Ward—

Nelson Sutherland.

Mr. Nelson Sutherland, who has been ill for several weeks from a cancerous growth near one of his eyes, succumbed to the disease last Thursday night. In the death of Mr. Sutherland Ann Arbor loses a well-known and highly respected citizen. For many years as city street commissioner he has done much toward improving the streets and has now left vacant a place which it will be difficult to fill. Mr. Sutherland has been a resident of this county all his life. He was born in Pittsfield in August, 1840. He engaged in the farming business until 1878, when he removed to Ann Arbor. For ten years, after removing to the city, he was deputy sheriff. Having been elected an Alderman from the first ward in 1887, he was made chairman of the street committee. When the new charter went into effect in 1889, he was appointed street commissioner, his excellent work as chairman of the street committee previous to this having shown his especial fitness for this work. This position he held until the time of his death. The deceased had been married just 22 years at the time of his death. He leaves a wife and two children, Frank and Mrs. L. P. Jocelyn, to mourn his death. Funeral services were held from the house Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Bradshaw officiated.

Unity Club.

Unity Club offers a very attractive program for next Monday evening, Dec. 3, in a lecture by Rev. Lee S. McCollister, of Detroit, illustrated by a large number of stereopticon views. The crowds who heard his series of lectures on "Great Cathedrals of Europe" last year are the best sort of evidence of the interest which he awakens and the information which he gives. All the places which he describes have been visited by him, and he speaks largely from personal experience.

Journey Around the World.

By Rev. Francis E. Clark.

This highly instructive and entertaining volume is a record of a recent journey around the world, such as, owing to the peculiar circumstances attending it, does not often fall to the lot of man to make. It was undertaken under especially favorable conditions by Rev. Francis E. Clark, D. D., President of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, and his wife, and throughout the long journey, which occupied more than a year, and covered nearly fifty thousand miles by sea and land, they enjoyed rare opportunities for observation and study. The entire volume is marked by fresh, original, and striking material, and is one of the most valuable books ever issued by the American press.

The reader is personally conducted through Australia, India, China, Japan, Egypt, Palestine, Turkey, and many other lands. We see these countries through American eyes, and obtain a perfectly clear view of them and their people, supplemented by two hundred and twenty splendid illustrations from photographs, most of which were taken by Dr. Clark himself.

Their route led across the land that Joseph gave to his father and brethren; past the very fields where the Israelites made bricks without straw, and along the highways where once rolled the chariots of the Pharaohs. The story of the discovery of Pharaoh's mummy among those of forty other princes of kings, queens, and princes found in the royal mortuary chamber in the Theban Hills, and the identification of Pharaoh, is well told.

The description of modern life and scenes in Palestine is written with an earnestness and fervor that make this portion of the book wonderfully real and precious to Bible readers.

Mrs. Clark accompanied her husband everywhere. She draws a vivid picture of life in far-off lands. "As seen through a Woman's Eyes." Her narrative is packed with anecdotes, incidents, and personal experiences. Her story of the long journey in a wagon is highly entertaining, its privations and perils, especially to a woman, being many. She was the only woman in the party, which consisted of herself and seven men.

It contains steel-plate portraits of Dr. Clark and of his wife, from recent photographs; a large map, exhibiting the whole world at a single glance, showing the author's journey from the beginning to the end, and 220 fine illustrations, from photographs from life. This must be seen to be appreciated.

The work is published by the old and well-known firm of A. D. Worthington & Co., Hartford, Conn.

Miss E. A. Stewart, of 39 E. Univ. ave., is the local agent for this valuable book. It should have a large sale, especially among all members of the Y. P. S. C. E. societies in the city.

The Homoeopathic Department.

At the meeting of the regents last Thursday morning, some important matters transpired. The ball was opened by the receipt of a communication from Dr. Obetz, dean of the department. In this the doctor tendered his resignation as dean, and also as professor of surgery. Dr. Obetz letter is as follows:

"GENTLEMEN—I have been connected with the University for twelve years and so far have always had the confidence and unanimous support of your honorable board and the officers of the institution. I have always endeavored to do my duty as a professor and as dean of the college. Further, I have done my duty as a University man and have always supported the policy laid down by the regents, and president at all times and in every way it lay in my power so to do. In so doing I have encountered the animosity of some of my colleagues who believe they and not the University authorities should control the Homoeopathic college. I am thankful to the regents for their unqualified vindication given me at the last meeting. Having received a vindication on every point at issue I am now at liberty to show better than ever my loyalty to the board and the University. Not wishing to embarrass your honorable body in any way I hereby tender you my resignation both as dean of the college and professor of surgery.

Respectfully,

H. L. OBETZ.

Right in the wake of this came the following resolution offered by regent Fletcher:

Resolved, That for the purpose of a thorough reorganization of the Homoeopathic school the remaining members of the faculty be asked to place their resignations in the hands of the board, the same to take effect Oct. 1, next, in the opinion of the board it being then advisable.

No definite action was taken upon either Obetz resignation or the resolution of regent Fletcher excepting to refer the whole matter to the medical committee of the board. It is generally understood that this is the first step looking toward the entire reorganization of the Homoeopathic school. Just how far, or to what extent this will be carried, it is yet undecided or at least not made public by the board of regents.

NEWS OF ALL KINDS.

EVENTS OF GENERAL INTEREST AND IMPORTANCE.

Port Arthur, the Pride of China, Surrendered to the Japanese—Chinese Loss, 1,000 Men; Japs, 250.—Visit Stores of Supplies, etc., Captured.—Other News.

Port Arthur Has Fallen.
Che Foo: Dispatches have been received here stating that the Japanese captured Port Arthur after 18 hours' fighting. The Japanese army, under the command of Field Marshal Count Oyama, minister of war, consisted of about 30,000 men. The Japanese navy did not participate with the exception of some of the torpedo boats.

Particulars of the Capture of Port Arthur.
London: The confirmation of the report of the capture of Port Arthur by the Japanese has been received, together with particulars of the fighting in detail. As has been told in these dispatches, Port Arthur had been surrounded for miles with fortified hills, and in anticipation of this attack the Chinese, under direction of the European officers, had planted mines in all the roads leading to the stronghold and had connected them with Port Arthur by electric wires. This necessitated caution on the part of the Japanese, and consequently they cut roads through the woods and morasses and hauled their light field pieces over these for over 40 miles. Notwithstanding these delays the Japanese crept nearer the point of attack with commendable speed. No organized resistance was offered by the Chinese for three-fourths the distance, and on Tuesday the first skirmish occurred in which the Chinese soon retired in good order. One fort and one village were captured by the Japanese and the following morning they carried an advantageous range of hills near Fort Arthur with a rush. Guns were then dragged up and fire opened. The enemy returned the fire briskly. The Japanese infantry advanced against a well-directed fire without faltering. Shortly before 9 o'clock the fort was carried by storm in a most gallant fashion. The Chinese stood for a minute or two against the final onslaught, fighting fiercely. Then they fled toward the dockyards. The right division then advanced in force against the Kokinsan fort, which was armed with several heavy Krupp guns, which were well served. Scores of men were killed or wounded in this brief advance. At noon the fort itself was stormed and captured after a short but desperate fight. By 3 o'clock in the afternoon the right division was in full possession of the western part of the stronghold.

Meanwhile the left division had been engaged on the southeast where the ground was less difficult, but far from easy. Advancing over the hills the first division had to clear the enemy out of some out-lying work apparently of recent construction. The Japanese artillery and Chinese guns in the forts kept up a steady fire. The latter were all heavy pieces and they pounded away for some time at the Japanese infantry, who in the meantime were advancing all along the line. The final assault was splendidly delivered, the enemy being driven headlong from the works after making a gallant stand. By evening Port Arthur was in possession of the Japanese, but the enemy still held eight or ten redoubts with a total of about 20 guns on the coast line. Early Thursday morning Lao Mu and other forts were attacked in succession, all being captured without loss on the Japanese side. It is estimated that the Chinese loss was over 1,000 killed and wounded and 20,000 were taken prisoners. The Japanese loss was about 250 killed and wounded.

The Japanese have taken quite 80 guns and the mortars that were in use in the captured forts and many others found in the dock yard. They have also captured an immense quantity of ammunition, completely equipped torpedo stores and large quantities of rice and beans. The part taken in the battle by the Japanese navy was that 23 torpedo boats made a concerted rush upon the entrance of the harbor of Port Arthur at the same time that the Japanese land forces attacked the place from rear, while a heavy artillery fire was poured into the Chinese forts.

China Sends a Peace Emissary to Japan.
Tien Tsui: The chief of the imperial customs here, De Ting, who was recently summoned to Peking, has left for Japan in order to arrange terms of peace.

Washington: The departure of the Chinese customs chief for Japan is regarded by officials here as the result of Japan's demand for a direct offer from China. The De Ting mentioned in the cable is said to be Dietering, a German, who occupies the position of commissioner of customs. An Associated Press cable from Japan states that China has intimated her willingness to pay an indemnity of 100,000,000 taels and in addition pay all the war expenses incurred by Japan. This would make the total offer of China 250,000,000 taels. The tael is a Chinese silver coin worth about 75 cents, so that the whole payment would be approximately $175,000,000 American.

Washington: It has become known that Japan has declined the advances of President Cleveland as a mediator for peace between China and Japan. The correspondence has been kept secret but it is known that Japan said plainly that all overtures for peace must come directly from China.

Hawalea Royalists Talk Revolution.
Advices from Honolulu say: That the government is still slightly in fear of the royalists uprising has been evident of late. All the gunis in the suburbs have been doubled, and a close watch has been kept on all suspected persons. The cause of this sudden activity is the discovery of a plot to restore the ex-queen. A considerable number of guns and ammunition have been secretly brought here during the last few months and the royalists evidently intend to make use of them. No uneasiness is felt by the government party, however, which seems perfectly well satisfied that it will hold its own.

Adj. Gen. Eaton received from the adjutant-general of Ohio the original discharges of 13 Michigan soldiers which had by some means got to the wrong state and had been lost in the archives at Columbus. Decatur will have a system of water works in the near future. The common council adopted a resolution empowering the village to issue $12,000 worth of 5 per cent bonds. The Ypsilanti normal school was haunted by a ghost for several days. One night it was dressed in the conventional white, the next in black. The city marshal solved the mystery by capturing the factitious lady student.

The Wolverine Co-operative association, recently organized at Battle Creek, is likely to buy the farm of David Henica, near Wheatfield. It comprises about 800 acres with rich soil as smooth as a floor. Bryce, the leader of the recent Grand Trunk strike, is the president of the new association.

A heavy team attached to a furniture wagon at Grand Rapids, ran away and dashed into the window of Herman H. Idema's loan office. The window was full of watches, diamonds, etc., the value of which is estimated at $5,000, and everything was scattered all over the street. One horse went through into the cellar, and the diamonds were all scattered amid the broken glass. A huge crowd gathered and it resulted in the loss of several hundred dollars' worth of precious stones, among them being one diamond worth $200.

Cincinnati officials think that the "strangler" of Denver was the murderer of Mary Elkart, of Dayton, who was found choked to death in a house of ill-fame last July. ### MICHIGAN HAPPENINGS.

Sydney S. Hastings, one of the founders of St. Louis village is dead.

Within a week five bears were shot within the village limits of Rogers City. The F. & A. M. of Manistee are thinking of erecting a $55,000 Masonic temple and opera house.

About 500 bushels of potatoes were roasted by the burning of Wm. Richardson's home near Birmingham.

Rev. J. A. Cairns, a retired Wesleyan minister, was struck by a T. & A. A. train at Milan and instantly killed.

Carl J. Rumsey, a well-known farmer near Hudson committed suicide by shooting. Continued illness the cause.

An aerolite fell in the field in which two Swedes were working near Benton Harbor, nearly frightening them to death.

The 42d sanitary convention, under the auspices of the state board of health, was held at Charlotte, lasting two days.

Calumet people thought they were eating venison on a recent occasion and were shocked to discover that it was horse meat.

Jacob Crook, of Bay City, was run over and killed by a Michigan Central train near the Woodward avenue crossing, Detroit.

County Treasurer Sulkey, of Washtenaw county, is short $5,500 in his accounts and has gone to Germany to get money to square up.

Rev. John Frost, of North Branch, while on his way to the F. & P. M. depot in Port Huron, was run down by a hack and seriously injured.

Louis Souser passed a check at a Kalamazoo hotel for an overcoat. He was arrested and it was found that he had his pockets full of forged checks.

Detroit schools were all ordered closed for at least one week because of the diphtheria epidemic. All the school buildings are being thoroughly disinfected.

Noah Kissel, aged 48, a meat market owner, of Sherwood, was thrown from his buggy on his way home from Union City, and his skull was fractured so that he died.

A direct descendant of Pocahontas, the tender-hearted Indian princess of Virginia colonial history, died at Grace hospital, Detroit. She was Mrs. Sarah Robinson.

In a quarrel which originated at a raffle, Louis Elsey, a stone cutter, aged 23 years, of Detroit, cut his brother Charles twice across the neck, inflicting fatal injuries.

William H. Barber, a farmer near Jackson, gave shelter to a stranger. He also sold his crop of wool, and now both stranger and wool money and a good overcoat are gone.

Three cases of smallpox were discovered in Dauby township, Ionia county. They were traced to Supervisor Holliday, who had the disease. Nine cases grew out of his exposure.

Lansing mail carriers and ex-carriers who recently filed claims for overtime, under the eight-hour law, have been advised that their claims, aggregating over $7,000, have been recommended paid.

Will Ankli was shot while out hunting with a friend near St. Joseph. The gun was accidentally discharged while they were lying in the bottom of the boat, emptying its load into Ankli's right hip.

State Game Warden Hampton pulled an Ohio hunter off the midnight train at Grayling and took a deer out of his trunk. When the Buckeye came out of Squire Woodburn's justice mill, he had just 94 cents left.

A match broke in two as a clerk in T. A. Carten's dry goods at Ionia was striking it and the blazing head caught in some lace curtains. Before the flames were extinguished $6,000 damage had been sustained.

Four boys, aged 12 to 15, were arrested in West Bay City charged with entering a building filled with tug and steamer furnishings, stored for the winter, and deliberately cutting and smashing over $1,000 worth of goods.

A hunter a few miles south of Petoskey saw two elk, and shot and killed one of them. It is said that this is the first time in 20 years that an elk has been seen in the lower peninsula. The animal which was shot weighed 600 pounds.

The common council of the village has granted a franchise to J. H. Roberts, of Grand Rapids, for an electric road around Mackinac Island, following the lake; also for an electric light and telephone system at an estimate cost of $125,000.

Lawrence Hill, millwright at Buckley & Douglas' mill at Manistee was fatally injured. He was on a ladder engaged in running off a belt. The stick he was using caught in some manner, striking him in the forehead, crushing in his skull.

Detroit has been connected with the Canadian natural gas fields by the means of a pipe line just completed across the Detroit river. It was a gigantic undertaking, but was accomplished without accident or injury to any person or the machinery.

Thomas Black met with an accident at Coldwater that may result fatally. Driving under a wire clothesline in the dark it caught in his mouth, breaking the upper jaw on both sides, cutting off the soft palate and injuring him otherwise in a terrible manner.

Charles Wright, the trusty who escaped from the State House of Correction at Ionia, was captured by Keeper Sturgeon at Clare. Wright went to Clare to receive some money sent him by a relative of Mrs. Stonewall J. De France, who is at La Crosse, Wis.

The plant of the Smith Middlings purifier company at Jackson, the largest concern of the kind in the world, which was involved in such lengthy and disastrous litigation, and was finally sold to the Central Oil and Gas Stove company, of Massachusetts, may start up again soon. Geo. T. Smith, the originator of the business, has completed the organization of a corporation composed largely of eastern capitalists, who will put $1,000,000 cash into the purifier plant there, filling the buildings with machinery for the manufacture of modern mills, purifiers, engines, boilers, etc., on an immense scale and making it the largest concern of its kind in existence.

China-Japan War Gossip.

The third army has left Ujinaon aboard the transports. The destination of this army is not known but it is rumored that it is intended to operate in the Yang Tse Kiang districts of China. The Yang Tse Kiang river has a total course of 2,500 to 3,000 miles and drains with its numerous large affluents all the central provinces for China. The tide ascends it to Lake Po Yang, 450 miles from the sea beyond which it is navigable for 250 miles. It may be navigated for 200 miles from its mouth by ships of the largest class and about 90 miles from the mouth is situated the southern capital of the China, Nankin, one of the most important cities of the empire. It is doubtless Japan's intention to advance upon Nankin.

Li Hung Chang to Dethrone the Emperor.

Washington: A prominent member of the diplomatic world has received a letter telling of a conspiracy now well underway in China, which, if not checked, will result in the downfall of the present government and the establishment of another with Li Hung Chang on the throne. This will be accomplished by the murder or exiling of the present emperor. Li Hung Chang, pandered despotically by the abuse and degradation which has been heaped upon him by the emperor, has concocted the scheme outlined above. The communication states that he has always had a contempt for the emperor who is of the tartar race, believing that China should be ruled by Chinese.

Uncle Sam's New Treaty with Japan.

Washington: Secretary of State Gresham, in behalf of the United States, and Minister Kurino of Japan, in behalf of his own country, have affixed their signatures to a new treaty of amity and commerce between this country and Japan. The chief feature of the new treaty is its recognition of Japan as a civilized country. Previous treaties have assumed that the native courts were so primitive and punishments so brutal that it would not be safe to trust American, British and other foreign citizens to native tribunals, and the foreign consuls were given extra territorial jurisdiction in their great treaty ports of Japan.

Washington: The Chinese have lost the finest and most powerful vessel of their navy—the great battleship Chen Yuen, which stood the brunt of the fighting at Yalu. The Chen Yuen in leaving Wei-Hai-Wei harbor accidentally struck a torpedo. She was beached but was rendered useless for lack of docking facilities. In despair at the catastrophe, the commander, Commodore Lin, committed suicide.

Another of Ohio's Favorite Sons Dead.

Gen. Wm. Harvey Gibson, the silver-tongued orator, died at his home at Tiffin, O., in his 74th year. The end came quietly and peacefully. His illness, which was of about three months' duration, consisted of a complication of diseases, the foundation of which was chronic diarrhoea, contracted in the army.

Gen. William H. Gibson was born in Jefferson county, Ohio, May 16, 1821. His early education was received in the pioneer days, in a log school house lighted with greased paper windows. He began life as a carpenter, but entered upon the study of law in 1842, and was admitted to the bar in December, 1846. He was a licensed minister of the M. E. church, took early and great interest in politics, and allied with the anti-slavery wings. In 1855 he was elected treasurer of the state of Ohio. At the opening of the war he became colonel of the 49th O. V. I. From Shiloh to Atlanta he was never found wanting when duty called. In the reports of all the campaigns and battles in which he served he was commended by every superior officer. In January, 1891, President Harrison appointed him postmaster of Tiffin.

The Czar is Wed.

Czar Nicholas II, of Russia, has been married to Princess Alix, of Hesse-Darmstadt. Large crowds of people assembled on the Newsy prospect in order to secure places along the route of the royal wedding procession. From the Antichoff palace to the Winter palace the whole avenue was lined with troops. The procession and the ceremonies were very imposing. The rites of the Greek church were used.

100 Springs Burned.

A fire at Springfield, Ill., resulted in the destruction of half a block of buildings in the business portion of the city. Over 100 horses were burned to death. A white man named George Brewer and a colored man named Davis, sleeping in Little's barn, burned to death. Loss about $100,000.

The executive committee of the W. C. T. U. has resolved that men must not be admitted to membership in the young ladies' branches.

Samuel C. Seely, an assistant book-keeper in the National Shoe & Leather bank, New York City, has disappeared with $354,000 of the bank's funds. Seely was aided by a confederate, the bank officials are certain.

Members of the Cook gang who have been arrested are Charles Turner, William Farris and Jesse Snyder, who robbed McDermot's store and post-office in the Cherokee Nation recently. The famous "Skeeter" is also under arrest.

Edward Fairbrothers, Guy, Custer, Al Barnes and Henry Root, all young boys, were arrested at Hastings, for holding up Robert Hubbard last August and robbing him of $2, a silver watch and a quart of whisky. The watch was pawned at Grand Rapids and the pawn ticket lead to their arrest.

THOROUGH INVESTIGATION REQUESTED.

A BOLD ASSERTION.

Ever since Prof. Koch started the world by promising to cure consumption with the Koch lymph and his complete failure to do so, the people have been looking for some discovery which would prove an absolute, certain cure for that dread disease.

Consumption, as most everybody knows, is first manifested by feeble vitality, loss of strength, emaciation; then local symptoms soon develop, as cough, difficult breathing, or bleeding from lungs, when investigation proves that tubercular deposits have formed in the lungs.

Proposals for Wood.

Sealed proposals for 100 cords of hard wood, four feet long, sawed ends, young green, body or straight hickory, yard maple and second growth white or yellow upland oak, in quantities of not less than ten cords, and 25 cords of bass wood, good quality, will be received by the undersigned until the 5th of December, 1894, inclusive up to 6 p. m.

THE REGISTER.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY

SELBY A. MORAN,

ANN ARBOR, MICH.

TERMS:

One Dollar per Year in Advance.

1.50 if not paid until after one year.

Fifty Cents per Year additional to Subscribers outside of Washtenaw County.

Entered at Ann Arbor Postoffice as Second-Class Matter.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1894

THE REGISTER requests all of its friends, who have business at the Probate Court, to be sure and request the Judge of Probate or Probate Register to send their printing to THE REGISTER. Reasonable rates only are charged.

Who will be appointed to fill the position of Street Commissioner, made vacant by the death of Nelson Sutherland, is an important question. It is a difficult place to fill and the greatest care should be exercised in making the selection.

HON. Thomas E. Barkworth was chosen President of the State Sunday School Association, at Grand Rapids. How is that for an "anarchist," Mr. Register?—Sentinel.

It looks very much as if the good brethren are going to make an heroic effort to redeem him. We trust they may succeed. They have our prayers.

It is especially desired that those who secure tickets to the Columbian Organ should consider the amount they pay for them as a donation. Let every one who can, give $2.00 or more to help pay off the debt of this great organ. It is a splendid investment for Ann Arbor and should be cleared of debt at once.

THE REGISTER received an invitation from the "Majestic" of Grand Rapids to attend a reception tendered the Press of that city last Friday night. Just what or who the "Majestic" is or are we cannot say, so we did not attend. We see that the Grand Rapids papers are coming out just as before the date of the reception, so it was not necessarily fatal.

The number of candidates for Judge McGrath's place on the supreme bench is growing rapidly. Already not less than six or seven are in the field with more to hear from. There is, evidently, going to be a good number to choose from. It will be difficult to find one in the whole list who will command more earnest support than Judge Kinne of this district.

THE REGISTER is pleased to note that the Hon. Jas. O'Donnell, of Jackson, is a candidate for the next republican nomination for governor. Mr. O'Donnell is a strong man and would make a splendid executive. We should be glad to see the nomination go to Mr. O'Donnell and are ready to help along his boom whenever opportunity offers.

Ann Arbor pays its election inspectors $12.50 each, for four days work. Adrian paid $8.00 for the same. It costs Ann Arbor $410 to hold the election, and the city gave about 410 majority. Adrian's entire election expense was $220.—Adrian Press.

Maybe if the Press will study up the political complexion of the body that fixes the price to be paid for services on election day it would not make any more such breaks as the above.

THERE are many residents in Ann Arbor who subscribe for THE REGISTER for friends who reside in other places. They say it is a much more satisfactory way to send them the Ann Arbor news. It certainly is cheaper to send THE REGISTER, which will cost less than two cents per week, than it is to write and then it would take a pretty long letter to give even one-tenth what THE REGISTER gives. Then the postage on the letter would be more than THE REGISTER would cost. Moral: Come in and give us the address and we will send your friends all the news regularly.

THE Bay City Tribune, of Nov. 23, brings out the name of H. H. Hatch, of that city, as a candidate for Supreme Justice. Mr. Hatch may be a man well qualified for the supreme bench, but THE REGISTER is of the opinion that Judge E. D. Kinne would make a better justice. Mr. Kinne has the reputation of a careful and painstaking jurist, one who has had fewer of his decisions reversed by a supreme court than any other district judge in the state of Michigan. That he is a great vote-getter, a fact which indicates his strong hold upon the people, has been shown by his successful runs and big majorities in this strong Democratic district. If Judge Kinne's name is presented at the judicial convention next spring, there can be no question, it seems to us, about his securing the nomination.

SOME of the good friends of Congressman Burrows would do him a real favor by persuading him that he is making the greatest mistake of his life by attempting to secure an election to the U. S. senate and giving up the opportunities he has in the lower house. If he sticks to his determination to secure a seat in the senate, and then should not be elected, as he probably will not be, he will be left out entirely, as Mr. Reed, who will undoubtedly be the next speaker of the house, will prefer some one as chairman of the ways and means committee who is satisfied with a seat in the house. Congressman Burrows will certainly be brought to see this and drop out of the senatorial race. This will insure the election of Olds as Patton does not, we believe, stand the ghost of a show of being elected.

It is pleasing to Republican newspaper men to note the almost universal recognition of the fact that, in the recent election, the unprecedented Republican victory was very largely due to the persistent work of the Republican press of the state and country. Constantly, in season and out of season, with out any let up, the Republican editors have continued to point out to their millions of readers, the fact that the industrial condition of this country is almost wholly due to Democratic mismanagement and tariff-tinkering. It has been this, more than all else combined, that has set people to thinking and has pointed them the way to a victory that will, in due time, mean a relief from the present depressed condition of things. It has, indeed been a newspaper victory, and one of which the Republican newspaper editors may well be proud.

Numerous candidates for the appointment of street commissioner are looming up. The matter is likely to become somewhat complicated by one of the members of the board of public works resigning, and entering the race for the appointment himself. This might throw the appointment to the council in case the two remaining members of the board could not agree.

THE REGISTER wishes all of its readers a pleasant Thanksgiving and hopes that all have something for which they may be thankful.

Must Have Been Fine.

Yesterday, Mr. Hayes of the Michigan Central handed us a neat little folder entitled, A Brief visit to Niagara Falls and the Adirondack Mountains. It was issued by Geo. H. Daniels, General Passenger Agent of the New York Central and Hudson River Railway and is designed as a souvenir of a most delightful excursion tendered by Mr. Daniels to a number of fellow railroad men, Mr. Hayes being one of the favored who received an invitation. A special train was provided consisting of five elegant sleepers. The trip began at Buffalo, from whence they went on Tuesday, Sept. 25th to Niagara Falls where the day was passed in a delightful carriage ride to all the places of interest about the Falls. Fatal Accident.

The following from the Chelsea Standard, published last Thursday, chronicles the unexpected death of a well-known citizen: "About noon today Jacob Heselschwerdt, of Sharon, was delivering a load of wood to Boyd's Hotel, and in turning, the horses backed the wagon over the high bank and tipped the load over, throwing Mr. Heselschwerdt under the wood. He was taken into the hotel and upon examination it was discovered that his collar bone was broken and that his spine was injured. The physicians made him as comfortable as possible and did not anticipate any serious outcome, but within a short time he commenced to fail and soon passed away. Mr. Heselschwerdt has lived in this part of the country for many years and was respected by all who knew him. A widow and eleven children survive him."

Deputy Peterson had a lively experience last Thursday night. He was bringing back from Toledo one of the men suspected of being one of the fellows who broke into the M. C. freight car a few nights previous. At Wayne, the officer finding his charge quite docile, took the cuffs from his wrists. When near Ypsilanti, he was surprised to have the fellow make a break for liberty and jump from the train. The train was soon stopped and Mr. Peterson was not long in recapturing his man. The fellow then showed fight but was overpowered and brought back to Ann Arbor, where he will be held to await trial.

FOR WEAK WOMEN.

A Discovery of Priceless Value.

WHAT GIVES ONE WOMAN ADVANTAGE OVER ANOTHER?

How to be Master of Yourself and Look Your Best.

Shakespeare says: "He jests at scars that never felt a wound." How often it happens that weak, nervous, suffering women are the subjects of ridicule by friends, who, being well themselves, cannot understand such feelings in others. Yet there is no more terrible suffering than that resulting from nervousness, and it is the most prevalent of all complaints.

The most frightful tortures haunt the mind; the person is in constant dread of impending evil; sleep refuses to come, and the merest trifles cause worry and anxiety. Thoughts of insanity develop, and the poor sufferer feels weak, tired and unable to do anything. There are sometimes faintness and sinking at the stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, and lack of interest in society and daily affairs. Female weakness, with pains in the side, back or abdomen, are often present. Miss Nettie Richards, of Livermore Falls, Maine, says:

"For two years I had hysterics, and was fearfully nervous I would have them every day, and was in a terrible condition. My limbs were cold all the time. I could not sleep nights and had no appetite. My nerves were in a frightful state, and I was very weak.

"I could not walk but what it put me out of breath. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me no good. One day a friend wished me to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.

"After taking three bottles of this wonderful medicine I was in perfect health. I think it a splendid medicine, and would advise everybody to try it."

To look well and feel well you want strong nerves and good blood. They are quickly, surely and permanently made by Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It is doing wonderful work among the sick and suffering. It will cure you also. You need just such a remedy.

It is the discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th Street, New York City, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. You can consult him free, personally or by letter.

"FOUR-TRACK SERIES" ETCHINGS. The Unexampled Offer of the New York Central.

Art lovers will find one of the best bargains placed before the public for many a month in the offer of the Passenger Department of the New York Central, to sell at a merely nominal figure a collection of etchings, which have become famous all over the country as the "Four-Track Series."

The titles of the etchings are "The Washington Bridge," "Rock of Ages, Niagara Falls," "Old Spring at West Point," "Rounding the Nose, Mohawk Valley," "No. 999 and the Dewitt Clinton," "The Empire State Express," "Horse-shoe Fall, Niagara," and "Gorge of the Niagara River."

These etchings are all printed on fine plate paper, 2 1/2x3 1/2 inches, and the absence of any objectionable advertising feature renders them suitable for framing and hanging in one's office, library or home.

Copies may be secured at the office of W. B. Jerome, General Western Passenger Agent, 97 Clark Street, Chicago, for 50 cents each, or will be mailed in stiff tubes, secure from injury, to any address, for 75 cents each, or any two of them to one address for $1.30, or any three or more ordered at one time to one address, 60 cents each, in currency, express or postal money order. Prof. Finley, of the Royal Educational Society of England, gave an interesting talk last Thursday afternoon on "Secondary Education in England" in Prof. Adams' room. He is sent to this country by the English government to study our system of secondary education.

A big celebration was held Monday night in honor of the victory over Cornell. There must have been at least 2500 students gathered in University Hall at 7:30. Congratulatory speeches were made by Pres. Angell, Coach W. L. McCauley, E. C. Shields and Capt. Barnd. Great enthusiasm prevailed and all the speakers were vigorously applauded. The meeting then adjourned to the Campus where a huge bonfire and fire works were indulged in.

Several young men in the city were informed that any one could rent a locker in the Waterman Gym, even if he were not a student, and receive all the benefits of the use of the Gym and the training. A number applied to Mr. Wade, paid their fee, and were given tickets and assigned lockers. Later, some students found out what was going on and kicked. As a result, the young men were asked to surrender their keys and were told that in order to take advantage of the Gym, more than to look at it as they passed along the street, they must matriculate.

A State Agricultural Paper.

We are pleased with the fact that Michigan has now an agricultural paper that is a worthy representative of the intelligent and important agricultural community of our state. The old "Michigan Farmer" under its present management is making rapid strides towards the top in the galaxy of agricultural literature of America. It is most beautifully printed on high grade paper, and employs the most eminent writers on the science and practice of Agriculture, Live Stock, Dairying, Apiary and Poultry. Has a standard veterinary department for free treatment of all diseases of farm animals. A legal and medical department; contains all the agricultural news of the country and an invaluable literary and household department every week. Admits no swindling nor immoral advertisements and is in fact in every way a great, sound, practical, agricultural, live stock and family journal, that the agriculturists of Michigan may justly feel proud of, and subscribe for with satisfaction and profit. Send your address on postal to "Michigan Farmer," Detroit, Mich., and free specimen copy will come to you by mail, or if you are not a subscriber of THE REGISTER send us $1.20 and we will send "The Michigan Farmer" and THE REGISTER, both for one year. This is the cheapest combination in Michigan. Send in your order at once.

Col. Dean and Prof. Stanley were in Detroit last Monday attending the meeting held in behalf of the Columbian organ concert. Gen. Alger and other prominent Detroiters were present. They will not only bring out a party of their friends to attend the concert but will go to work and help push the sale of tickets.

During the fall tools have been frequently missed from the mechanical department. Monday a young man, a student, by the name of E. C. DeWolf was arrested on suspicion and placed in jail. A number of tools supposed to belong to Prof. M. E. Cooley were found in his room. Prof. Cooley is away for the present.

Some of the candidates have filed a statement of their campaign expenses. So far reports have been as follows: Rehfus, $84.30; W. H. Dancer, $60.00; Judson, $144.50; Randall, $9.00; Kempf, $70.50; Manley, $40.45; Butterfield, $6. One candidate at least, Mills, the Prohibition candidate for the legislature, claims he did not spend a cent.

A Boston author has published a book and its dedication is as follows: "I commend this little book to the Devil, and Dame Chance, the two most potent deities in literary fortunes, as in all other sublimity dispensations." Singular as it may seem, the only copies thus far received in Michigan, were by Smith of the Ann Arbor Argus, and Donovan of Bay.—Adrian Press.

John J. Robison, of Sharon, received a letter from his grandson, John K. Robison, who was sent out by the government to study mechanical and electrical engineering in foreign countries. The Y. M. C. A. has made a most excellent selection for a General Secretary in Mr. W. C. Hull, who has for the past year been assistant pastor to Rev. C. A. Young, of the Church of Christ. He has had a large experience in Y. M. C. A. work, both in Boston and Springfield, Mass. He will devote only half of his time to the work as he is at present taking some studies in the University.

The views in these books are exceptionally fine. Be sure and pay up this week and secure a copy of these pictures before they are all gone.

The Ann Arbor Organ Co. will some time this week ship one of their latest style of organs to Chas. Curtis, of London, England. Mr. Curtis is one of the leading musical instrument dealers in the United Kingdom, he having the contract to furnish the Queen's court with musical instruments. The fact that he has decided to order an Ann Arbor Organ speaks well for the instruments turned out by the Organ Company.

A well-known business man was heard to remark recently, when asked to take an advertisement in the new city directory, that he would do so, if the publisher would take the job to a certain printing office in the city, otherwise he would not patronize it. That man has a broad idea of business. Suppose people would not buy goods at his store unless he rented a store-room of certain people, what would he think of such persons?

The council, at its last meeting, authorized the city clerk to issue duplicate tags for licensed dogs, when called for, at 25 cents. Already boys who have a dog and who desire to evade the payment of the tax, are cultivating the acquaintance of some dog that is wearing a tag. When they learn its number they apply for a duplicate, saying that the original is lost. That quarter will save their dog's life! Great scheme, and the city will lose only a dollar a head.

The Inland League will have an interesting lecture next Monday night. Prof. B. M. Thompson will give a talk on "Trial by Ordeal and by Battle." Any one who is at all familiar with the ancient form of ascertaining a person's innocence or guilt by some terrible test of physical endurance and suffering, or by the trial of arms, will be able to appreciate something of the character of the talk Prof. Thompson will give. It will certainly be a most interesting lecture. Admission, only fifteen cents.

The Unity Club entertainment last Monday evening was a very unique and interesting one. Dr. S. A. Jones presented about twenty original poems which were grouped together by a slight narrative. Some of the poems were humorous, as "The Ride to Ypsi" and "My Pipe and I"; some were tender and beautiful, as "A Girl's Brown Eyes"; some were pathetic, as "Life's Lesson"; and some were sermons which those who listened will not soon forget, as "The Avenger" and "A Woman's Skeleton." These poems taken as a whole showed an originality that was extraordinary. Some of them manifested poetical genius of a high order. They were much appreciated by the audience, and it is hoped that they will be given to the world some day in book form.

Cleveland Talks.

Not the man that runs the Nation, the greatest show on earth, not Grover—but William, the minstrel magnate, W. S. says: "The only bills that are occupying my mind at this time are the bills that pass in at the box office and Bill Cleveland; the Congress that I am most deeply interested in is my own congress of artists, and they are in perfect unison, because they are, in fact and name, "All United." Money is tight to be sure and that is because we have been using it a little immoderately when it was more plentiful. The minstrel, and I am speaking from pleasant personal experience, have an easier time of it than the theatrical people. Hundreds of dramatic organizations are in the field, and the supply of melodrama, farce-comedy and dress-coat comedy is in excess of the demand, now as it was before the panic. Theatricals are incredibly overdone, and I may say undone in many cases. Everybody in the business wants to star or manage, and with the speculators there is more than a sufficiency of attractions. The regular minstrel goers are numerous, they have enjoyed bones and tambos from the days of Christy down, and will always be found facing the first part circle when the minstrel come to town. This is the reason why I stick to minstrelsy. It is the safest management investment I know of, and over the same routes where theatrical companies have been wrecked, Cleveian's Minstrels have prospered and played to full houses, instead of vast arrays of empty seats and a dead vacuum in the box office. At the Grand Opera House next Monday night. Prices, 35, 50 and 75c.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

The favorite character in Mr. Walker Whiteside's repertoire is that of Hamlet, and next to this comes Richelieu. Many eminent critics have preferred his Richelieu to his Hamlet, though the preponderance has been in favor of the melancholy Dane. As the crafty and scheming statesman, who at one time controlled the destinies not only of France, but of the greater part of civilized Europe, Mr. Whiteside will appear at the Grand Opera House next Friday, Nov. 30, as Richelieu. He will have the support of a perfectly organized company of players, each member of which has been selected with a view to the roles for which he or she is cast. It includes Misses Lelia Wolstan and Ella Wheeler, Mrs. Robert Mantell, and Messrs. Frederick Vroom, J. L. Saphore, John M. Sturgeon, Herbert Pattee, Edmund Mortimer and others quite as well and as favorably known to our public.

Does Your Horse Like to be Curried?

If you want to see your horse stand still while being curried, and purr like a kitten, use one of these Spring Curry Combs advertised on another page. This Comb is made of four loops of a cloospring. The yielding loops of the spring make the Comb soft as the touch of a gentle hand, and yet they allow the teeth to get down into the hollows and folds of the skin, so that the horse is cleaned quickly and thoroughly. And for the horse the operation is changed from one of barbarous torture to one of supreme delight. This Comb is sold for only 25 cents, and is to be found in every retail store in the land. It is made by the Spring Curry Comb Co., of South Bend, Ind. You will find their name stamped on the handle.

LITERARY NOTES.

The November number of Scribner's Magazine has for its leading article one of especially timely interest on "Election Night in a Newspaper Office," written by Julian Ralph, one of the New York Sun's most valued special correspondents and a newspaper man of wide experience. It is fully illustrated with drawings by B. West Clinedinst. Col. H. G. Prout's second article on "English Railroad Methods" deals with their organization and management. He gives a number of interesting and pertinent facts respecting passenger and freight traffic.—Chas. Scribner's Sons, New York.

The Atlantic Monthly for November contains much of interest to the general reader. The title, which will perhaps attract most attention, is that of Mr. Henry Childs Merwin's article, "Tammany Points the Way." In these days of the municipal reform movement, such articles as this and the one contributed to an earlier issue by Mr. Merwin on "Tammany Hall," are of particular value.

Boston.—Houghton, Mifflin & Co. The table of contents of the November Overland certainly presents a rich feast for the lovers of magazine literature. Possibly Gen. Lucius H. Foote's article on the "War in the Orient" will attract the most attention among the newspapers of the country. Coming from the first U. S. Minister and Envoy that this country sent to the "Land of the Morning Calm," it is a most valuable addition to the Asiatic war literature of the day. Edith M. Thomas contributes a charming article on Nature, under the caption of "Wood and Wave Notes."—Overland Pub. Co., San Francisco, Cal.

Harper's Bazar, for November 10, is very sprightly and entertaining. A parlor play, entitled "A Slight Misunderstanding," comes from Miss Mildred Howells, and is illustrated by her own drawings. An article on "The Japanese Home," by Mr. Julius K. Matumoto, is deliciously quaint and naive, and is illustrated by several views of Japanese interiors. The fashion features are very strong.

In Harper's Weekly, for November 17, there is an article by Henry W. Fisher, an American writer, describing his experience at Castle Fredensborg in Denmark, where the late Czar used to spend some weeks every year or so free from the trials of the court life in St. Petersburg. Mr. Fisher entitles his article, "The Truth About the Czar." He draws a picture of the great man in plain clothes, as it were, living with his family and surrounded by his trusted servants. There were many royal guests at Fredensborg at the time of Mr. Fisher's stay, and about them he writes in a chatty and very delightful manner. Probably he is the only man who has interviewed the household of Russia's autocrat in real American style.—Harpers & Bros., New York.

The show of distinguished beauty, transfigured by famous artists, which is now taking place at the Academy of Fine Arts in New York, has been anticipated by the Cosmopolitan Magazine in its November issue, in an article by Wm. A. Coffin, with illustrations of some of the more beautiful faces. The "Great Passions of History" series has for this month's subject the romantic career of Agnes Sorel, who influenced the destinies of France under Charles VII. "The Art Schools of America," "The Great British Northwest Territory," "The Chiefs of the American Press," and the "Public Library Movement," are amongst the Cosmopolitan's table of contents.—The Cosmopolitan Pub. Co., New York.

A PRIMITIVE LIFE.

Thrilling Adventures of Timber Hunters in North Carolina Mountains.

If you want to see primitive life, such as Daniel Boone lived, where the loom and spinning-wheel are going all day, log cabins swarming with lean hogs and fat children, where every man carries a rifle to store or church and where crime is unknown, go to the western part of North Carolina. Of all Southern there are none more manly and straightforward than the Tar Heels.

So says a Philadelphian, James Calder, who has been on a timber hunt in that region. So great is the domestic demand for fine hard woods that very little is exported. Along the North Carolina streams are fine walnuts and wild cherries and some very large curled maples. The principal trouble is transportation, as many of the roads are little better than cattle tracks. "I got a black walnut thirty feet two inches, beautifully curled, and it cost me $90 to get this hauled forty miles. Cut into veneers the value of this log is not far from $2,000," said Mr. Calder, to a Philadelphia Times man.

"A few nights before my departure," he continued, "I stopped at the cabin of a widow with two stalwart daughters. In the middle of the night there was a tremendous noise outside, a hog squealing and dog barking. The old woman turned out, shouting: "'Thar's a b'ar a-tacklin' my old sow—catch him, Tigh—come on, gals—pitch in, stranger!"

"Such a scrimmage I never saw, the moon was up and light as day, the bear had clambered into the pen, seized the hog, and then the dog sailed in, the widow had an ax, one daughter a pitchfork, the other a club and I emptied my revolver into something black, but the widow's ax did the business, and all hands pulled a full-grown black bear out of the pen. The hog and dog were badly mangled, but the women were game and by morning the bear was skinned, hung up and we had steak for breakfast as good as pork, but no better.

"I never saw ducks so plentiful as on the Yuckin. No one hunts small game here save a party that comes annually from Baltimore. As for quail they are everywhere and wild pigeons by the millions. These made into pot-pie, with crust like a brick wall, are a popular delicacy. Otherwise the food—hog and hominy, with coffee—is palatable as lye.

"I borrowed a muzzle-loading gun from a friend in Rockford and went for duck, taking with me a queer-looking negro lad as guide. We went through the meadows to the river. Suddenly something crossed the road, a big water moccasin. The boy made one dash and the next moment had the snake in his hands. It was fully five feet long. It writhed, and struck at him. I yelled: "Drop him quick!" He waved it around his head, gave a snap like a whip and the reptile was dead. This was repeated several times, till I got nervous, and declared I would shoot him, and the snake too, if he did not quit it.

"I soon got into the ducks and found it mere slaughter. They would fly after every shot about fifty yards and light. I got twenty-eight in two hours and started home with ten.

"I was told that the boy was the son of a voodoo near the town, and he could charm any snake.

"It looks curious to see half a dozen neighbors meet, each one balancing a long rifle, stocked to the muzzle and the name of the maker, who, by the way, lives in Lancaster, Pa., on the barrel. These men can take the head off a squirrel at 100 yards, but at the shooting matches the Winchester carries the prize. Among these people pride of birth and family is more intense than anywhere else in my knowledge, and it's a patent of nobility to have had an ancestor who fought at King's Mountain.

"Tried by the standard of common sense, these people are far happier than the same class North. All seem to have enough, and there are but few poor, and these mostly negroes. Any one seeking rest at little expense can find it at the small towns throughout this region, and the society is quite as good as elsewhere with fewer fads. Only keep clear of the war and its records. There is still an undercurrent of sensitive feeling that is easily brought to the surface. As for sport with gun and line, I don't believe it can be surpassed north of Florida.

KEEP A STIFF LOWER LIP.

It is the Tell-Tale One, and the Upper Lip Can Take Care of Itself.

"I can't understand," said a young lady of observation to a New York sun reporter, "I can't understand for the life of me why you men, who see so much and know so much, persist in the phrase 'Keep a stiff upper lip.' You use it as a sort of picturesque synonym for firmness of purpose and demeanor, but it has no value as such. The upper lip is not the weak member of the two; it is the under lip that wants stiffening. The upper lip is practically expressionless. It usually lies flat on the teeth; it is nearly always covered with a mustache—I repeat, of course, to the male upper lip—and in conversation, especially in correctly languid conversation, it does not move at all. Like the Chinese joss, it is a harmless creature and can be safely let alone.

"It is the nether lip that has to be watched and controlled. I can always tell when a man is going to propose to me by the way in which he wets his under lip and presses it against the upper for companionship and support—just the very thing he is seeking for. And I can always tell if he is lying by a peculiar fluctuation and pulsation in the same lower lip. He will look you straight in the eye, grow fierce and drop his voice into his boots through the weight of his emotion, but if there is that twitch about the lower lip I don't believe him—and I've never been wrong yet. If a man feels deeply—I mean feels sorrow, not affects it—it is in the tremulousness of the under lip that he shows it. The sensitive man's lower lip is seldom still, and there is sometimes about it a positive pulsation that takes in the whole curve of the chin. The pout begins in the lower lip and is really confined to it, for the upper lip is only pushed out by the pressure from below. You can't pout with your upper lip alone.

"In fact, you can't assume or affect any expression with the upper lip alone. Just try it. Hold the lower lip firm with the finger and look in the glass there. The mouth has become simply a hole in the face, you see, and so far as the expressional character of the lip goes it is as if you had lost a feature.

"If you want to keep back a smile it's the lower lip you must look after. Weakness begins there, whether of character, health or age. It is not the weak upper lip that tells of downfall; it is the drooping, pendulous lower lip that shows it.

And let me tell you something please, for the benefit of my sisters who have not had the advantage—I mean the experience that I have. Tell them that whenever they see the lower lip of their male companion turn out and over thickly that it is a danger signal. It's the red flag of mischief, and they had better say good-bye. Keep a stiff lower lip, young man."

If all wives and mothers could fully realize how apt each one is at all times to be bereft of the protector and support of themselves and their children, they would be more fully able to appreciate the real benefits of a life insurance policy. As an investment it is as safe and profitable as a savings bank while in case of accident or fatal illness the return is much larger. Persuade your husband to lay by something in a life insurance policy and be protected in case of misfortune which sickness or accident may bring. A policy in the old reliable New York Life Insurance Company is unequalled for protection and investment.

Went to Church.

The following story of the duke of Wellington is told in the Christian Commonwealth: It was a rule of his grace's household that all visitors should attend worship on Sunday. One excused himself on the ground that he was a Roman Catholic, and there was no chapel near. His grace caused inquiry to be made, found there was one thirty miles off, and the guest was informed a carriage and four were in waiting to take him there. As a matter of fact he was not a Roman Catholic, but simply had pleaded that as an excuse. However, in he had to get, no less volens, and arrived back to dinner after his involuntary drive of sixty miles.

The world is filled with suffering people who can't seem to get well or find out what their trouble is. Such people oftentimes cannot afford the time or expense of a trip to the city, or the large fees charged by the best physicians. It is for just these people that Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, who is with out doubt the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, makes the following and extraordinary offer. He invites you all to write him about your complaints, tell him how you feel and all the symptoms of your case, and he will answer your letters, free of charge, explaining the meaning of every symptom, telling just what your trouble is and how to get cured. He makes it the most careful study of every letter, and his explanations are so clear that you understand exactly what ails you. And it cost you nothing. He makes a specialty of treating patients through letter correspondence and it has proved a perfect success. He is also the discoverer of that wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. ### At the Earth's Center.

Let us speculate a little on what would be the probable condition of some of the common substances if they could be taken to the center of the earth—say to a distance of 4,000 miles straight down under your feet. Professor Leslie says that water, at a depth of 362 miles, would be of the density of quicksilver, and that air at a depth of thirty-four miles would be as thick and heavy as water. It is true that we are ignorant of the laws of compression beyond the depth of a paltry few thousand feet, but it is believed that water at the center of the earth would be as dense as lead and that a block of steel four feet square would be reduced to the size of a child's A B C block!

Haunted!

A haunted house in these practical and unromantic days is something of a rarity, but an individual haunted with the idea that his ailment is incurable is a personage frequently met with. Disbelief in the ability of medicine to cure is only a mild form of monomania, although in some cases repeated failures to obtain relief from many different sources would almost seem to justify the doubt. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has demonstrated its ability to overcome dyspepsia, constipation, liver and kidney trouble, malarial complaints and nervousness, and its recorded achievements in the curative line ought at least to warrant its trial by any one troubled with either of the above ailments, even although his previous efforts to obtain remedial aid have been fruitless. Used with persistence, the Bitters will conquer the most obstinate cases.

Across the Irish Channel.

A new route is soon to be established across the Irish channel between Ballygarey, near Wexford, and Fishguard in Pembrokeshire. The time from land to land will then be reduced to 90 or 100 minutes.

Don't Be Duped

By buying wines because they are imported, or because they are cheap. Ship-loads of worthless wines are imported, and a cheap wine is the dearest article you buy, and generally poisonous.

The Speer N. J. Wine Co's Wines

are superior to all others, and are guaranteed absolutely pure. The finest Port, Burgundy, Claret, Sauterne, Sherry and Climax brand of pure grape Brandy, vintage of 1876, are always in stock at the cellars in Passaic, N. J., or Salesroom, 28 College Place, N. Y., and sold by druggists all over the country. Also Unfermented Grape Juice for invalids and Sacramental purposes. The Speer brand is a guarantee of excellence.

Beer in the United States.

The brewing of lager beer in this country was begun about fifty years ago in the outskirts of Philadelphia. Before that brewers of products were entirely ale and porter. Now, however, nearly all the output, which last year amounted to 33,822,000 barrels, is of lager. Each barrel contains 248 pints, or 496 gallons; therefore, according to the latest internal revenue returns, there was made and sold last year an average glass of beer for every working day to every man, woman and child in the United States.

Awfully Embarrassing.

Sue—Did you hear about Blanche's terribly embarrassing experience at the theater the other night?"

Hell—No; tell me about it. "Her hair came about it." "How excessively annoying." "But that wasn't the worst of it. It rolled under the seats and was only recovered after a good deal of trouble, and then you can fancy what a condition it was in."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Poor Digestion

News for the Housewife.

Will the air pump supersede the carpet sweeper? It is said that there is a new device in existence by which compressed air is blown into a room by means of a hose. The air is sent with such force that it is said to search out and penetrate the dust in every crevice of the woodwork, in the openings in furniture, etc.

Life's Problems Solved.

Tired Tim—Wot's that you say? Lookin' for work?" - Wayfaring William.—Yep. I ain't no tramp. I work on farms. But I never stays in one sityvation mor'n a week. "Why not?" "Well, by that time the folks generally stops treatin' me as company and wants me to work."

Walter! Beets, Ham and Eggs, for One.

"God give us meat, but the devil sent us cooks," is a trite saying. From bad cooking, fast eating and overeating, comes a whole train of diseases—indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, catarrh of the stomach, headache, dizziness, and the like. God also gave us a brainy man, who compounded the "Golden Medical Discovery," a corrective of all the ills resulting from over-eating and bad blood. Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, has furnished the "Discovery," a great desideratum in America, where everybody are in such a hurry to make money, they have no time to eat, and scarcely any time to live. It invigorates the liver, cleanses the blood and tones up the system.

Delicate diseases of either sex, however induced, speedily and permanently cured. Book of particulars, 10 cents in stamps, mailed sealed in plain envelope. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

In Jerusalem.

In digging the foundations for a house near the church of St. Stephen in Jerusalem lately, a beautiful mosaic pavement was discovered which measured 21 feet by 13 and contained an Armenian inscription. Underneath was a cavern in which were sound bones, lamps and glass vases.

"Yield Not to Misfortune."

I was afflicted with catarrh last autumn. During the month of October I could neither taste nor smell and hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it. —Marcus Geo. Schautz, Rahway, N. J. I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results. —Oscar Ostrum, 45 Wacker Ave., Chicago, Ill. Cream Balm is agreeable.

Preventable Blindness.

According to some estimates twenty per cent, and according to others as large as seventy per cent of the blind owe their affliction to the negligence of midwives and others immediately after the birth of such unfortunates. The blindness arising from this cause is absolutely preventable by at least two simple means.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth.

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Most Precious to Him.

A passenger who escaped uninjured from a serious railway smash, seeing a fellow-traveler searching anxiously among the wreckage with a lantern, offered to assist in the search, and thinking the old man had lost his wife, asked in sympathetic tones: "What part of the train was she in?" Raising his lantern and glaring at the kindly disposed passenger, the old man shouted with indignant distinctness that triumphed over physical infirmity: "She, sir! she! I am looking for my teeth!"

A Great Shock.

Caller—Is Professor Misseem, the weather prophet at home?"

Servant—Yes; but he can't see any one. He is suffering from shock.

Caller—My! my! True of his predictions come! Have some?

Everybody Says

That the Wine and Brandy of the Speer N. J. Wine Co., Passaic, N. J., are leading all others in public favor. Their Sauterne, Claret, Burgundy and Sherry are unexcelled for delicacy of flavor, and are pronounced by the most capable judges to be the very best in the market for table use, while their fine old Port and Unfermented Grape Juice are superior to all others for the sick room and Communion Table. For pure grape Brandy their Old Climax, vintage of 1876, is admittedly the best to be had. Vineyard and Cellars at Passaic, N. J., and Salesroom, 28 College Place, N. Y.

A Well-Learned Lesson.

Mamma—Here's a cake to be divided with your sister. Now remember that when any one offers anybody anything it should be the largest and best part.

Little Johnny—Yes'm. If I'm offered anything, I must take the biggest piece.

Mamma—Indeed you mustn't. When anybody is offered anything he should take the less desirable portion.

Little Johnny, a few minutes later—Sis, here's two pieces of cake. I must be polite, and offer you the biggest piece, but it won't be polite in your to take it.

THE ACTRESS' WIVES.

STAGE WOMEN WHO HAVE CHARMED ROYALTY. Miss Jeffreys, an Irish Actress, the Latest to Win a Husband—Some Stage Beauties of the Past Who Are in Upper Social Berths.

ANOTHER Alliance of a matrimonial character has been consummated between Great Britain's aristocracy and the stage. This time it is the second son of the earl of Howe, while the lady is an Irish girl by the name of Miss Jeffreys, who is the principal attraction just now at Terry's theater in London. The affection between the two is of long standing and they were to have been married two years ago, when the engagement was broken off in deference to the protests of Lord and Lady Howe. It is understood that neither the earl nor the countess have relented in the matter, and that they have cut off the allowance of their son Freddy as a manifestation of their displeasure, the result

MISS JEFFREYS, being that the new Mrs. Curzon has thrown up none of her theatrical engagements, but keeps on performing, presumably with the object of keeping the pot boiling for herself and her husband. His older brother, Lord Curzon, as well as Lady Curzon, the best four in hand whip in England, and their only boy, a 10-year-old lad, were upset with the coach the other day and came narrowly near losing their lives, in which case the husband of Miss Jeffreys would have become Viscount Curzon and heir to the earldom. It does not necessarily follow that because a peevish or lady belonging by marriage to the aristocracy has been on the stage she is barred forever from

BELLE BILTON, appearance at court. Queen Victoria merely insists that no lady should be presented at court as long as she is on the stage. And as an illustration thereof it is only necessary to point out that Lady Martin, who spent a part of her life on the stage, is not only frequently admitted to the queen's dinner table, but is treated with the most marked friendship and consideration by her majesty. In this Victoria follows the example of her grandmother, Queen Charlotte, the wife of King George II. When the Lord Derby of those days married the famous Miss Farren, the newly wedded countess wrote to ascer-

DOLLY TESTER, tain what Queen Charlotte's views were as to her appearance at court. Her majesty, who was infinitely more unattained than the present occupant of the British throne, replied that she had no objection to Lady Derby's appearance at court, because she had heard that Miss Farren, during her theatrical career, had always borne a most excellent reputation. It is merely because Queen Victoria would be unable to make a reply of this kind to any request of the same character in their cases that the gates of Buckingham palace remain closed to the countess of Clancarty, nee Belle Bilton; to the dowager marchioness of Ailesbury, nee Dolly Tester; to the countess of Orkney, nee Connie Gilchrist, and the Hon. Mrs. Hubert Duncombe, nee Nellie Lamar, who is therefore the sister-in-law of the lovely duchess of Leinster, of Lady Helen Vincent and of Lady Ulrika Duncombe. Of course there was also the morganatic wife of the duke of Cambridge, who was a Dublin actress; while on the continent there are a number of royal princes and great nobles who have sought their wives upon the stage, the most notable case being that of the late King Ferdinand of Portu-

SOPHIE HENSLER, gal, who married as his second wife a Boston actress of the name of Sophie Hensler, upon whom he conferred the title of countess of Edla in her own right. Prince Alexander of Battenberg, the former ruler of Bulgaria, jilted Emperor William's sister, Victoria, to marry the actress Mlle. Loisinger. Prince Windischgraetz, uncle of the present prime minister of Austria, married, not morganatically, but in the fullest sense of the word, one of the Taglione girls, the most notable ballerinas of the present century. The reigning duke of Saxe-Meiningen is married morganatically to an actress, and so, too, is the eldest brother of the empress of Austria.

SQUAW MEN. Characters Held in Just Contempt Among Mexicans.

The discovery that Henry Graeme had been personating a girl, Etta, as a servant in a Brooklyn house, finds its counterpart among the Mexican households in the Spanish-American regions of the United States. Cases in these regions are not infrequent of persons, male by sex, who all their lives have chosen to wear women's clothes and to labor at those household avocations reckoned distinctively as 'woman's. Such a case is thus described by a visitor to New Mexico: "Stopping to dine at a little plaza about twenty miles south of Santa Fe, my driver, an old timer, called my attention to what seemed to be a strapping woman working among the female servants of the wealthy old Mexican don's household across the way. This slabsided, rather ungainly person with coarse features and a chin that suggested the razor, was attired in a calico gown, wore gold earrings and had the hair braided behind. 'It's a man, such as it is!' said the driver. 'All he has to say about his wearing of woman's togs is that when a boy his mother always dressed him in girl's clothes, and he never learned to dress differently. As he grew up he was set to work about the house with the women, where he is now, treated with about the same sort of forbearance and contempt that a 'squaw man' receives among Indians. As I put it up, it was to get rid of being set to the hard, dangerous work of herding cattle and sheep when Indians were bad in the territory, that cowardly boys growing up to be peons, virtually slaves, to the wealthy Mexicans, chose to be squaws and work with the women. You'll find such cases now here and there in the Mexican towns and among the Indian pueblos."

A Merry Emperor. The Emperor William is generally supposed to be a man of austere life, rigid and punctilious in his intercourse with those about him, and habitually absorbed in affairs of state. An evening on the imperial yacht Hohenzollern is anything but dull, says the San Francisco Argonaut. Eccentric variety performances are provided, consisting of singing and playing in character, exhibitions of rapid sketching in caricature, impromptu verse making, etc. Among the participants in these merry-makings are ambassadors, ministers and professors, who are included among the emperor's guests.

Physical Development Increasing. Two statues lately exhibited in Boston were modeled after measurements made from the average man and the average woman. The statue of the average woman is the result of 5,000 measurements made by Dr. Sargent of Harvard, who says that it is 50 per cent removed from the perfect type. The faults of the figure are the hollow back and a weak waist. The oval fullness about the chest, it is said, is not found in any female figure in art. While the average woman may still fall far short of perfection in her physical make up, the number of vigorous, well formed young women who take an active interest in out of door life and physical development is increasing every day.

Death Roll of Forest Fires. The death roll of the western forest fires is a long one. It seems certain that more than 600 persons perished in the fire at Hineckley. The population of the place before the calamity was about 1,300. Evidently more than half the inhabitants were caught by the flames. There is grave reason to fear that the total number of the dead will never be known. Possibly it might reach a thousand. The fires have burned over twenty counties, and sixteen towns have been destroyed.
