

A JURY QUEERED.

GREW TIRED OF LIFE AND TOOK MORPHINE.

Attempt to Sell the Ann Arbor Road—A. Dramatic Entertainment, Only Five Cents—Masonic Jubilee—Arrest of P. G. Sukey by his Irate Bondsmen—Mr. Rehfus' Bondsmen—Rev. Thomas Seelye Passes Away.

Makes Serious Charges.

In his motion for a new trial in the Sackett-Dancer case, Mr. A. J. Sawyer, makes some very serious charges. Among these is an affidavit by Mr. Davenport, the court house janitor who says that the jury was in charge of Deputy M. C. Peterson and at certain hours were taken into the court room; that some of the jury reviewed the judge's charge to the jury that they had access to some of the files; that the jury had cider; that several of the jurymen went down to the closet in the basement with Deputy Peterson; that during the time of their going back and forth to said closet one had a conversation with Sheriff Brenner in German; that the said deponent found the screen on the closet window out and a whiskey bottle with but a trifle left in it, still standing on the window sill, and that the window was closed and secured before that time. The deponent goes on and says that in the court house corridors were a great many Dexter people, among them the defendant; that the keys to the court room where the jury were in his possession for about an hour or thereabouts, being turned over to him by Deputy Peterson, who, together with Sheriff Brenner, went away, saying that they would be back soon, and that if the jury wanted anything he, Davenport, should give it to them. He further says that during the time he had the keys the defendant, Dancer, wanted to go into the jury room, which was refused him. Whereupon he used profane language and talked so loud that the jury could easily hear him. F. G. Weissinger and Ernest Warner make affidavits corroborating the story of janitor Davenport, at least in some particulars. If these things are true, it is more than likely that a new trial will be granted.

Masonic Jubilee.

The Grand Lodge of F. & A. M. of Michigan will celebrate its golden jubilee in Detroit, on Thursday, Jan. 24. Frank T. Lodge, W. M. of Oriental Lodge, F. & A. M., of Detroit, has been named chairman of the committee that will make all arrangements. The celebration will follow the laying of the corner stone of the new Masonic temple on Wednesday, Jan. 23, and will be an elaborate affair. It is to commemorate the first meeting of the Grand Lodge of Michigan F. & A. M., which was held Jan. 24, 1845.

At the laying of the corner stone one of the features will be a big parade, in which the different branches of the order will take part. It is probable that not only the grand lodge will be in attendance on the exercises, but that every other state body of Masons, including the grand commandery and grand chapter, will also be in Detroit to assist in the celebration. The Detroit commanderies of Knights Templar are making preparations to turn out with almost their entire numerical strength and in full Templar uniform.

Dramatic Entertainment.

Mrs. T. C. Trueblood's class in elocution in the High School will give a dramatic entertainment in High School hall this evening. The admission fee will be only five cents. Music will be furnished by the Ann Arbor Guitars and Banjo club under the direction of Mel Gillespie. The class will present the comedietta "Which is Which." The cast is as follows: Robert Capper (a young artist, much in debt), Mr. Handy; Mr. Gargle (his uncle), Mr. Clark; Paddles (an oil and color man), Mr. Allen; Annie Pestle (an heiress), Miss McMonagle; Bertha Bingham (her penniless friend), Miss Russell; Miss Mills (Capper's old servant), Miss Stebbins.

To Change Hands.

A dispatch from Cleveland, O., states that the bondholders of the T. A. A. & N. M. R. R. made a motion before Judge Ricks last Saturday for the sale of the road. The motion was based upon the fact that the interest on the bonds for the past eighteen months, amounting to nearly half a million dollars, had not been paid. It is the plan of the bondholders to buy in the road and reorganize it. Present indications are that they will succeed and that the old management will be crowded out.

Grew Tired of Life.

Edward J. Twiss, who was a student in the Law Department last year, returned to Ann Arbor last week and took rooms with Mrs. A. G. Hirsch, of No. 14 S. Ingalls-st. He had lived at the same place while in school. He had been dissipating for several days in Detroit before coming here and had been arrested there for drunkenness, but for some reason was not fined. When he reached Ann Arbor, he was only sufficiently recovered from his drinking to be exceedingly blue and depressed. This depression evidently got the better of him. Sunday morning he went to H. J. Brown's drug store and purchased two dozen one-half grain morphine capsules stating that he wished it for a severe headache. Returning to his room he took the entire twenty-four. About noon the family found him in an unconscious state. Doctors Lynds, Houghton and Harmon were called but it was too late to save his life. Sunday afternoon Coroner Ball summoned a jury who decided that the deceased came to his death by his own hand. The only reason to which such an act can be attributed was despondency. He left the following letter addressed to his mother:

Mamma: Treat Hirsch's folks kindly, they were good to me; treat— (a young lady friend) well, I loved her, she was more to me than anyone else in the world. I am going to Will (a brother who recently died.) Am tired of living. When you have put me in the grave, use Mrs. Hirsch kindly. She treated me well. Good-bye. ED.

The deceased was the son of well to do parents in Port Huron, Mich., his father being an Alderman in that city. A Mr. Whipple, a friend of the family, came to the city Monday and took the remains to Port Huron.

Arrest of P. G. Sukey.

As reported in last week's REGISTER, some of the bondsmen of ex-county treasurer, Paul G. Sukey, swore out a complaint against Mr. Sukey at a late hour last Wednesday night and the sheriff was sent to his home in Pittsfield after him. It seems that the bondsmen are divided upon what to do, some being in favor of enforcing the law to the utmost while not a few are in favor of seeing Mr. Sukey out of his trouble. Ex-sheriff Dwyer represented those who proposed to put Mr. Sukey through for his defaulting and signed the complaint upon which the arrest was made. The arrest was no sooner made than the friends of the accused were on hand, and Justice Pond, before whom the complaint was made, being unable to come to his office, called up Justice Gibson and bail was fixed at $5,000 for his appearance before Justice Pond at 9 a. m. last Thursday. These bonds were signed by John R. Miner and Dr. Kapp. The hearing before Pond has been postponed until a week from tomorrow, Jan. 18. Just what will be the outcome of all these proceedings it is difficult to predict.

Mr. Rehfus' Bonds.

The sureties on the bond of County Treasurer Rehfus to the county are Eugene J. Helber, Jacob Kapp, F. G. Schleicher, John Keppler, Wm. G. Dieterle, John Schmid, Joseph Stabler, D. Cramer, Emanuel Wagner, George Wahr, John F. Lutz, Charles Burkhardt, John G. Koch Jr., Matthew Seegar, Daniel Nissy, J. Adam Klein, G. C. Mann, Bernard Blummenaur, John Bauer, Peter Neiss, John Martin, Jacob Luckhardt, Geo. J. Haussler, Wm. Neibling, Fred Widmayer, O. F. Kapp, Columbus Aulds, John H. Schlicht, Henry J. Landwehr, Leonard Herman, Fred Schaible, Geo. L. Kull, Fred Breitenwischer, Arthur J. Waters and William J. Holmes. The bond is for $150,000. It was offered last Thursday and was at once approved by the board of supervisors, and Mr. Rehfus given possession of the office. The larger part of the work will be done by Peter Lehman, whom Mr. Rehfus has appointed his deputy.

Death of Rev. Thomas Seelye.

Rev. Thomas Seelye, who resided at No. 89 E. Washington-st. died suddenly at a late hour last Thursday night of heart failure. The deceased was seventy-one years of age. Mr. Seelye was well and favorably known in the city. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Coburn officiating.

Since the arrest of James Linnen charged with stealing from Sheehan's store a week ago last Sunday night, two Detroit detectives who had been notified of the burglary caught three fellows in Detroit trying to dispose of the goods Mr. Sheehan had lost. When arrested they gave their names as Geo. H. Collins, of Ypsilanti, and Richard Thompson and Geo. O'Brien, of N. Y. They acknowledged the theft and were brought here for trial. This, of course, exonerates Mr. Linnen

A WHACK BACK.

S. A. J. HAS HIS SAY.

"Two Communications Are Ripped Up the Back With a Buzz-Saw Vigor.—He Looks at the Matter From a Different Stand-Point and Slashes Vigorously With a Four-Edged Sword.

To the Editor of THE REGISTER:—

My Dear Sir:—We have it on the best authority that "the Lord loveth a cheerful giver," but I am afraid you will not succeed in making the readers of THE REGISTER believe that he has any use for a cheerful liar.

I have never been of the opinion that any truth, at any time, or in any place, needed a lie for its auxiliary. I have never in my life believed in that questionable partnership, the truth plus "policy." In ethics, as in physics, a straight line is the shortest distance between any two points; every deviation is of the devil, is only and always a Satanic device and worthy only of the Father of Lies.

Please, mark the words—"A cheerful liar." I use them advisedly; for the genus Liar includes many species; and you know that a species is subdivisible. For instance, we can have the following combinations: Genus, Homo; Species Mendax magnificus. Varieties, a. M. Subtilissimus, b. M. Jovandissimus, c. M. Bullheadissimus—and these variations are chiefly owing to the development of the "cheek" of the specimen. The cheerful liar has not been included in the category simply because it is so little that a broad-gauged naturalist despises it. I am not a naturalist, but I have been told that your cheerful liar is generally a pin-headed fellow who lies from a mistaken "sense of duty."

Thomas Hood says,
"Evil is wrought by want of thought,
As well as want of heart."

Therefore, it is that your cheerful liar often infracts from sheer ignorance, which is simply want of thought concerning the truthfulness of that which he so cheerfully tells. Your cheerful liar is also liable to another lapse, namely, mangling the truth—I mean dissembling it so as to use a half-truth rather than the whole—and this "for ways that are dark and for tricks that are vain." I question whether in all the devious devices of the cheerful liar there is one so well adapted to bring the whole (and wholesome) truth into contempt with the very persons for whose sake he descends to this moral debasement.

Now because THE REGISTER comes into my family and is read by my children I purpose to try a throw with you from considerations which I am afraid you can neither comprehend nor appreciate. I may not, indeed, receive your thanks; but I am safely beyond the reach of the condemnation of the "exceedingly small circle of exceedingly saints" whom you represent.

Your two letters to THE REGISTER impress me with the conviction that you are not single-minded; that you are instigated by a purely personal element rather than by a detestation of vice; that, in a word, your animus is malicious. If I am correct, you had better sheathe your sword at once, for you can do it only dishonor.

What do I know about your animus? Simply and only what you reveal of it. You evince malice pretense in the opening sentences of your first letter; you need only open your mouth to show us that your saliva is rabid. In the apt slang of today, you are "too previous." There is no method in your madness. Your rather weak-minded Johnnie has been from home only "about a month," when his fond mother becomes "anxious" about him. Now if Johnnie is not one of the devil's own, why should his mother get anxious in one short month? Evidently, Johnnie isn't "built right;" he will make his mother "anxious" wherever he may be, and there is no need that you, in the ostensible service of virtue, should play the part of the Devil's advocate for Ann Arbor. If you are really "anxious" to protect your puppet, Johnnie, you will have to follow him over the whole earth. Ann Arbor is not the only gateway to hell, and I'm sorry for it, because if we had that monopoly it would "build up the town"—a pium desiderium in which both saints and sinners will join hands!

But your critic does not overlook the supposition (on which you write) that Johnnie may be a prime article, and that his mother's anxiety may be wholly owing to the fact that her dear little Johnnie is—in the high school at Ann Arbor! The innuendo here is like a stiletto concealed under an assassin's cloak. You stalk into a reputable news paper, write anonymously, wearing a mask and stabbing in the dark. Your dirty innuendo is unmanly, for one thing, and it evinces crass ignorance

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

A SPLENDID PAPER, BRIMFUL OF GOOD IDEAS.

Favors Convict Labor—Roasts Ionia Prison Management—How to Prevent Strikes—Salaries of State Officers Should be Increased—Opposed to Special Municipal Charters.

Gov. Rich's message to the legislature was read before a joint session of that body, both the senate and house being almost fully represented. The document is remarkably clear and concise, and the chief executive goes directly to the heart of each and every item he touches upon. The message is as follows:

Senators and Representatives: In accordance with the provisions of the constitution of this state, I submit the following information in relation to the condition of the state and recommendations in relation to measures deemed expedient:

As to Financial Matters.

On Nov. 1, 1893, after the apportionment of the primary school fund was made, for the first time in many years, Michigan confronted an empty treasury. This was not caused so much by increased expenditures as it was by the failure of the legislature to levy taxes sufficient to meet the same. Right reasonably have been contemplated would be the needs of the state, and while there was no direct authority for hiring money, the railroads were offered an inducement of 6 per cent discount from Nov. 1 to Jan. 1, following, to advance their taxes due in January. This was done by the Michigan Central and Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroads to the amount of nearly $200,000. Through the First National Bank of Detroit an additional $100,000 was obtained. Owing to this, on Nov. 1, 1894, a similar condition of affairs presented itself, except that only $250,000 was then needed to bridge over the deficit. The constitution provides that the state shall not contract debts to meet deficits in revenue to aggregate more than $50,000 at any one time. Under this provision the constitution perhaps the obligation entered into may not have been strictly legal, but it was a necessity in order to carry on the state institutions. The general branches of the state government, and was paid out of the first money received. This provision of the constitution was adopted more than forty years ago, when $50,000 represented more than five times that amount does to-day. It would seem to me inadvisable to provide for so restricting the constitution as, with proper restrictions, to put it within the power of the state to borrow money in cases of necessity, rather than carry large balances to be loaned at a low rate of interest when not needed to meet the expenses of government.

Another reason why this power should be given is that none of our state institutions are insured, nor should they be, but in carrying on the ordinary business of the state, for some authority, under proper restrictions, to meet emergencies. Authority might be given the boards of control of the several institutions, with the approval of the board of auditors and the governor, to borrow money on the credit of the state and repair or rebuild their respective institutions. This would not only save calling the legislature together, but would guarantee a prompt restoration of property to the state. In other respects the financial affairs of the state are in good condition.

There have been no calls for a change in the tax laws of the state, the one passed in 1893 proving very generally satisfactory to all interested. It is thought hardly probable that our people desire to change the manner of disposing of specific taxes arising from railroads, insurance companies and other corporations. The present apportionment proves of great value to the poorer sections of our state, and provides for the maintenance of schools of better quality than would otherwise be the case, and it goes to support the only school of which all the children of the state can have the benefit.

Under the head of railroad taxation the governor set forth that the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern is paying under its charter provisions instead of under the general law, but as the state is not a loser by this, no action has been commenced against them. The Michigan Central has been placed under the general law of taxation, and the governor repeats his recommendation of two years ago that if possible some means be devised for the abrogation of all special charters, so that all railroads may be placed upon the same basis so far as taxation, supervision or other legislation is concerned.

University of Michigan, Etc.

Our state university stands not only at the head of our own educational institutions but is well up in the front rank of universities in this and other countries. By providing the one-sixth of a mill tax levied upon the university has been placed beyond the need of further legislative aid for years to come. He urges the generous support of the State Normal school, and the Agricultural College, and recommends in regard to the Michigan Mining school that in view of the additional burden it imposes upon the taxpayers of the state and the fact that a portion of its students are from other states, those who attend the school shall bear a part of the expense necessary to its maintenance.

Insane Asylums, Etc.

After showing that the Michigan asylum for the insane, the Northern Michigan asylum, the Eastern Michigan asylum, the Michigan asylum for dangerous and criminal insane have a combined capacity of 3,719 beds, while they now have 3,684 inmates, the governor concludes that existing provisions will prove inadequate by the close of the next six months, but thinks that the emergency can be met through the completion of the new asylum at Newberry, the enlargement of the Home for Feeble-Minded and Epileptic at Lapeer, and the provision of a separate asylum for epileptics. For the institution named at Lapeer the governor asks for an appropriation for furnishings and the provision of additional accommodations.

Prisons—Maintenance—Convict Labor

The state prison at Jackson, state house of correction and reformatory at Ionia, and branch prison at Marquette, constituting the prisons of the state, continue to be a heavy burden upon the taxable property of the state. The total cost of keeping the 1,306 prisoners, which was the average number for the past two years, was $944,253 30. The cost over and above the earnings was $210,841 12. The cost at Jackson, where there were 1,000 prisoners, was $183,000 per day, and at Marquette $112 per day. The net cost at Jackson was 1.25 cents per day per inmate, at Ionia 59 cents, and at Marquette 60 cents. This shows a great difference in the cost of keeping prisoners at the several prisons. Comparing Jackson with Marquette, there would be many things to the advantage of Jackson, in the reduction of cost. The executive expenses would be comparatively small, while the number of prisoners would be very large. The conditions at Jackson have been much better than at Marquette, although there have been a portion of the time more than 200 idle men at Jackson, because no employment could be found for them. At Marquette the executive expenses are comparatively large, as the number of inmates cared for is limited, and, owing to the rigorous climate, and distance from supplies, the expense of keeping prisoners there is larger. Comparing Jackson with Ionia, there is still a difference in favor of Jackson, but there should be no such difference in cost as is shown. There must have been something either radically wrong in the management at Ionia, or the business was run in such a way that a large amount of money was lost. The expense of keeping an inmate in the state house of correction was twice as much as it was to keep an inmate in the asylum for the dangerous and criminal insane in the same yard, and in the first instance the inmate is supposed to be doing a regular job, he earns nothing. The former warden of this institution was removed for cause. Since the change in warden the prices of articles bought, but it is not probable that all the reforms needed have been adopted. The state accountant has been ordered to conduct an investigation, and he reports verbally that the system of keeping accounts is imperfect, and that many of the practices there should be changed.

This brings up the question of convict labor. In Jackson prison, where most prisoners are employed, the result is such as to show that had all the men been employed the prison would have been self-supporting, and possibly a little more so. It can hardly be said that there was any serious interference with free labor there. All the food, all the clothing and all the material for manufactured articles purchased there, were the products of free labor. The goods produced there were not to any considerable extent sold below the market price. It is clearly shown that contractors of prison labor do not usually make larger profits than those who employ free labor, so that competition cannot be very severe. This is illustrated by the fact that the Austin, Tomlinson & Webster Co. engaged in the manufacture of wagons have surrendered 25 out of 150 men, preferring to have free labor. At Ionia where the state account system and piece price plan have been practiced, the result has been a severe burden on the taxpayers of the state. It cannot be said that competition with free labor has been less. In the experience of prisons in this and other states where business is conducted on state account, it has universally shown disastrous results financially. This is in accordance with fixed business principles. No warden, however competent he may be, is capable of carrying on successfully in all their details for anywhere from ten to twenty-five different branches of business. Then, the number of prisoners employed on productive work is not a large number engaged in free labor is infinitesimal, and the only way in which their labor can seriously injure free labor is by putting the product of their labor upon the market at such a price as to reduce the market value of goods produced by free labor. This, I think, statistics clearly prove is not the case. On the other hand it is not the wealthy person alone who pays the taxes, but the home of every farmer and laboring man has to contribute to the support of these men engaged in unprofitable industries or entirely idle. It is needless to call your attention to the fact that the state is not a creditor or reformatory to keep prisoners without labor. It is sincerely hoped that no action will be taken to contract prison labor, but the right to contract the labor of the prisoners.

The public acts of 1893 provide that the board of control should be composed of who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the board. The same section also provides that no warden shall be removed except for cause. This section was evidently designed to have the warden appointed so that he would retain his place as long as he was a successful warden, and that he should not be removed upon the mere whim of the board, or on account of change in the political complexion thereof, but our courts have construed this section to be such that the present law the warden is practically appointed for life, unless he does some such overt act as to justify his removal, or he may become indifferent or incompetent, and may even be defiant in his attitude towards the board, and yet there is no power to remove him. This is protection for the warden, but is not, as intended, protection to the interests of the state. It would seem to me that this section should be amended so to provide that the warden should be removed only for cause as would justify his removal for business reasons in private business affairs.

Pardon and Reprieve.

The governor thinks the chief executive should have more freedom in granting reprieves and pardons. He says there are many cases where it would seem proper and wise to permit prisoners, and especially some young men, to be liberated upon certain conditions, notably that of abstaining from the use of intoxicating liquors, provided that in case of violation of this they may be returned to prison without the expense of another trial. There is no doubt that men liberated upon these conditions would be much less likely to enter upon a career of crime, and would be able to get a start in life before this restraint was removed. It would materially increase the chances of returning these men to the industrial pursuits of life, and to good citizenship, and at the same time relieve the state of the burden of their support. It is hoped that some action will be taken to bring about this result. It is also desirable that some provision be made, in cases of persons sentenced for a term of years, by providing either for the filing of the testimony complete, or of a history of the case, with any aggravating or mitigating circumstances connected therewith. In the executive office, to be used in cases where many years have elapsed an application for pardon is made. Anyone connected with pardon matters to-day realizes that many times it is almost impossible to get at the real facts in the case, and many times it is made to appear that the most hardened criminals serving a long term of imprisonment for crimes committed, really deserve reward at the time instead of punishment. The statement of the case is all the argument needed.

Contracts With Prison Officers.

The section of the public acts of 1893 relating to contracts with prison officers should be so amended as to clearly and unequivocally forbid the warden and any prison acting for the prison under his charge, dealing in any manner, except to pay in the regular way in cash for services rendered, with any member of the board of control, or any officer connected with the prison, or with himself, either directly or indirectly. Officers should be paid their salaries and purchase what they need as other people do.

State Institutions—State Officers.

In discussing the state charitable and reformatory institutions the governor says the school for the deaf at Flint, school for the blind at Lansing, state public school at Coldwater, industrial school for boys at Lansing and the industrial home for girls at Adrian are filling the purposes and objects for which they were created, and are under the control of competent boards. The appointive state officers—commissioners of railroads, insurance, labor, state banking and state inspector of oils—have proved very efficient and have given good satisfaction in their respective offices. In discussing the dairy and food commission, the governor calls attention to the fact that Maj. C. E. Storrs, of Muskegon, was not given sufficient power under the act to prosecute the violators of the law and that therefore he has not accomplished as much as he otherwise would, but a large amount of information has been secured which will be placed before the legislature, enabling it to provide means for successfully carrying on the work. There is no more important measure to be considered at this time than the question of pure food. Under the head of factory inspection the governor says that the act to regulate the employment of women and children, and to provide for the safety of the commissioner of labor has appointed factory inspectors who have inspected more than 400 factories and caused a large number of improvements to be made in machinery, fire escapes, etc., and has had a tendency to keep children, who formerly had been employed in various factories, when they should have been in school, in their proper places.

In taking up the removal of state officers the governor says it was his unpleasant duty to cause the removal of the secretary of state, state treasurer and commissioner of the state land office for gross neglect of duty in connection with the canvass of votes. Fraud has also been discovered in canvassing the vote in certain counties of the attorney-general in 1891. That in trying these various cases it was necessary to engage the legal talent for which bills amounting to $2,800 have been paid by the state board of auditors. He recommends that an extra expense of $5,765 88, which was incurred in the payment of all these cases and should be assumed by the state rather than paid by Ingham county alone. The legislature is asked to provide in some manner for the paying of all or such portions of this amount as shall be deemed equitable. He also refers to the dislocation of the deputy secretary of

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

The invention of Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., has, during the past thirty years, made a record in the cure of bronchial, throat and lung diseases that fairly entitles it to outrank all other advertised remedies for these affections. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing consumption of the lungs. Not every case, but we believe of all cases of consumption, in all its earlier stages, are cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, even after the disease has progressed so far as to induce repeated bleedings from the lungs, severe lingering cough with copious expectoration (including tubercular matter), great loss of flesh and extreme emaciation and weakness.

Do you doubt that hundreds of such cases reported to us as cured by "Golden Medical Discovery" were genuine cases of that dread and fatal disease? You need not take our word for it. They have, in nearly every instance, been so pronounced by the best and most experienced home physicians, who have no interest whatever in misrepresenting them, and who were often strongly prejudiced and advised against a trial of "Golden Medical Discovery," but who have been forced to confess that it surpasses, in curative power over this fatal malady, all other medicines with which they are acquainted.

Nasty cod-liver oil and its filthy "emulsions" and mixtures, had been tried in nearly all these cases and had either utterly failed to benefit, or had only seemed to benefit a little for a short time. Extract of malt, whiskey, and various preparations of the hypophosphites had also been faithfully tried in vain. The photographs of a large number of those cured of consumption, bronchitis, lingering coughs, asthma, chronic nasal catarrh and kindred maladies, have been skillfully reproduced in a book of 160 pages which will be mailed to you, on receipt of address and six cents in stamps. You can then write those cured and learn their experience.

A RECENT issue of the Courier contained some matter that will make excellent democratic campaign material in the next local campaign. The Argus has already made use of it to infuse new life into the disconsolate.

OUR state legislators should bear in mind constantly that this year there can be no shifting of responsibility. With only one lone democrat in both houses, nothing can be laid upon the minority. The legislature will not do its duty if it does not get its business all done up and adjourn at least by the first of June.

A NUMBER of state papers are advocating a reform in the matter of holding the state encampment. It is claimed that the expense is far beyond the good which such occasions bring. We cannot estimate how much good is done, but it certainly looks as though the enormous bills on these occasions is a plain indication of extravagance.

THE prediction of the Argus that the contest for the nomination of a candidate for the short term in the U. S. senate would engender a large quantity of bad blood does not seem to be any nearer the mark than most of its prophecies of Republican doings. The contest was an unusually friendly one and Mr. Burrows will find that the defeat of his opponents will not lose him their friendship and support in the future.

THE Democrat registers a kick because so many business blocks in Ann Arbor have no fire escapes. There is lots of room for improvement in this respect in Ann Arbor. The Cook House, for example, has no outside fire escape and the same is true of other buildings in the city which have the third and fourth stories occupied by a number of people. It is somebody's business to look after this matter, and that somebody is not attending to his business.

ONE of the things that should come up before the next legislature is the revision of the charter of Ann Arbor. There certainly should be a change made in the wards so as to give a more equitable distribution of representation in our city council. It is not just that any one or two portions of the city should have so little influence or representation when it has five times the population and pays nearly five times the taxes that some other sections do. Justice certainly demands a change.

THE decision to build a separate lock-up for the city is a very foolish piece of business. No difference who is to blame in the recent controversy between the sheriff and marshal, the city council should make some kind of an arrangement so that the county jail, which is plenty large enough to accommodate both the city and county, could be used. It is senseless to expend a large sum of money for a new jail, when, without doubt, some kind of arrangements could be made by which the city can have the use of the jail and pay the county a reasonable fee for the same.

THE result of the Republican caucus at Lansing last Thursday night was a victory for congressman Burrows. That he will make an able senator we have never doubted for a moment, but we cannot believe that his transfer from the house to the senate was a wise move. The great legislative field in this country today is in the house of representatives, and for that work Mr. Burrows was peculiarly well fitted. There can be no doubt that had he remained in the house he would have been placed at the head of the ways and means committee, a place that would have given him more opportunity to shape legislation than that of any other man in congress, not excepting the speaker of the house. It is to be hoped that Mr. Burrows' constituents will select a strong man to succeed to his vacant seat. It will be difficult for them to find a representative who will ever attain to the exalted position in the house that has been reached by Mr. Burrows.

Rev. A. Wilkinson, son-in-law of Mr. Aretus Dunn, of E. Washington st., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist church, at Centralia, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson left for their new home last Wednesday.

A Reduction of Price of Stamped Envelopes.

THE United States has made a reduction in the price of stamped envelopes and the reduced prices are now in force in the Ann Arbor postoffice. The reduction is not uniform. The medium size of two-cent stamped envelopes, formerly known as C's and now as No. 3, now sell for 54 cents a package of 25 envelopes, that is fifty cents for the stamps and four cents for the twenty-five envelopes. That is a reduction of one cent. Twenty-five 1-cent white envelopes now sell for 29 cents, a reduction of one cent, and 25 1-cent manilla envelopes being 28 cents. There is no reduction in the old A's and D's, now known as No. 2 and No. 5, when bought by the package. There is, however, a reduction of 4 cents on 1,000 A's, and 20 cents on 1,000 D's, or large size. The reduction on the medium sized envelopes is also 20 cents on 1,000 envelopes. On orders of 500 the government prints name and address without extra charge. So that now anybody can get 500 medium sized envelopes with name and address printed for $10.80, or $10 for the stamps and 80 cents for the envelopes.—Argus.

AND not a few of our business and professional men send to Washington to have their envelopes printed, and then kick because people go to Detroit to buy goods. Strange, isn't it?

A Midnight Session.

THE city council held a long session last Monday night. It was well on towards the midnight hour when an adjournment was had. Besides a lot of routine work the question of a main sewer in the Fifth Ward came up again. It came in the shape of a petition, signed by 95 residents in that ward, that no sewer be built, at least, at present. However, after much discussion, and in the face of the petition of 95 residents and tax-payers in the Fifth Ward the former decision to build the sewer was not rescinded. The last part of the late session was taken by the council in listening to a wordy war between sheriff Judson and Marshall Banfield. These two had not agreed about some prisoners in the county jail. It was then proposed in the council that the city build a jail of its own. This it seems will probably be done.

Bonds and Bondmen.

THE new county officers have given bondsmen as follows:
Register of Deeds, C. P. McKinstry—A. L. Nowlin, C. F. Barnes, both of Ypsilanti.
Sheriff, Wm. Judson—Wm. J. Knapp, Wm. F. Reimenschneider and H. S. Holmes, all of Chelsea.
County Clerk, Wm. Dansingburg—Fred A. Howlet, Arthur Brown to the county, and J. T. Jacobs and D. F. Schairer to the state.
Circuit Court Commissioners, Butterfield—John F. Lawrence, and Webb—L. Gruner.
The Act of the Board of Supervisors in rejecting the name of E. A. Hauser, on Treasurer Rehfus' Bond technically vitiated the bond and Mr. Rehfus will have all of his 35 bondsmen to see again.

Reached the 70th Milestone.

JOHN C. Mead, of Ann Arbor town, celebrated the 70th anniversary of his birth last Thursday with three of his children and a host of neighbors who came to congratulate him. The principal of the occasion entertained his guests with many reminiscences of Washtenaw county, and jokes on several of the older ones among them. Mr. Mead, although quite advanced in years, claims he does not feel his age much, and felt quite young that evening at least.—Times.

A WHACK BACK.

FOR the other. If you mean to assert that Ann Arbor affords exceptional temptations, if you mean that it is lacking in such safeguards as both civilization and christianity afford the young, you are either untruthful on the one hand, or uninformed on the other, and either horn of the dilemma impales you, as a "moral reformer," as completely as when an irate farmer nails an unclean bird to his barn door in terror!

My dear sir, your animus outcrops continually during the recent unhealed of the "moral" forces that are at work in you. You use poor Johnnie for a stalking horse while, over his back, you thrash certain professors and President Angell for smoking tobacco! Stand up openly, like a man; express your convictions; strike right from the shoulder, and as chronic a smoker as I will respect the mere shadow of you. But your cowardly incognito: Faugh!

Did your heart burn within you to read recently that those "unspeakable Turks" placed little Armenian children in a row to see through how many a bullet would go? Did it occur to you that you had set up little Johnnie to see how many of the professors that you "lined up" behind him you could shoot through? Did you learn this method from him who proved his convictions by the bloody sweat of Gethsemane and the agony of Calvary?

Think, too, of the pitiful twaddle that you put into Johnnie's mouth about the "example" of professors' smoking. What is Johnnie to do when he reads that Sir Walter Raleigh was a smoker of tobacco, and yet wrote that passage in his History of the World, beginning: "O mighty, just, and eloquent Death"—an apostrophe which for moral sublimity is surpassed only in the most exalted passages in Holy Writ? What is your Johnnie to think when he learns that Milton was a smoker of tobacco—through all the fumes of which he discerned a lost paradise, regained? What will become of Johnnie when he finds that Sir Isaac Newton—to whom God revealed one of the deepest secrets of the Universe—was a smoker of tobacco? What will be Johnnie's opinion of you when he comes to know that Thomas Carlyle—that most perfervid of moralists—was a smoker of tobacco. Depend upon it, if Johnnie has any bowels of compassion he will find some of the same brand for your smoking!

BUT when Johnnie reads your denunciations of the abuse of tobacco applied, by inference, to such use of it as was made by these men, and is made today by millions of others who are by no means the dregs of humanity, what will he think of your logical capacity? And if he should take an inventory of you as a truth-telling apparatus! Really, I'm afraid he will be obliged to conclude that Ananias could not keep the belt with his modern competitors in the ring.

IT is even more pitiful that you can put forth such puerile sophistries in the disguise of a "reformer." You can but secure the ineffable contempt of the very Johnnie whom you would debauch with such specious half-truths. It is the stench reeking from such rotten self-righteousness, that makes the churches of the living God so destitute of those types of manhood whose daily lives are not a hissing reproach of their professions.

A deathless fealty to the truth distinguishes between the reformer and the pseudo-reformer. A pseudo-reformer will not discriminate between temperance and total-abstinence; he will confuse the righteous distinctions, although the eternal line of difference dips down as low as the pit and stretches upwards as high as Heaven.

LOOK, for one moment, at the father and son who are your chosen models. A father who arises from his bed while little Johnnie, his son, is asleep, and—to search his own child's pockets! If that father had done his fatherly duty to his child, one month in no high school on earth would have made Johnnie unable to tell his own father the simple truth. The father is a sneak "from way back" and his son, according to your own account, a "snip of the old block." My dear sir, I have more than a suspicion that your Johnnie and his father are "bad citizens;" neither of them could trust the other—and you blame the Ann Arbor high school and its "smoking professors" for that!

IN your last letter, your criticism of President Angell is hot with malignity because you write anonymously. As a public officer the President of the University expects criticism, for none in public places can escape it; but the cowardly attack of a concealed enemy is only a blessing; and the Balaam that curses will find the avenging boot in the near neighborhood of his poor ass.

RHEUMATISM!

The Sure Cure is Dr. Greene's Nervura. Weak Kidneys, Weak Nerves, and Poor Blood Always Accompany Rheumatism. They Can All Be Cured by Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy.

DEPUTY MARSHAL, A. B. WOOD.

With rheumatism, come weak kidneys, weak nerves, poor blood. Weak kidneys mean death, because they lead to serious kidney diseases, which always kill. The symptoms are weak back, pain in the back, bloating, muddy water, tired and languid feeling, gas in the stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, headache, dimness of vision, dryness of skin, and nervousness.

Just so surely as you have these symptoms, your kidneys are out of order, and you need the one sure cure, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Try a bottle and see how quickly those symptoms will vanish. It cures rheumatism, a most dangerous complaint for it leads to fatal heart disease. Mr. Nathan G. Batchelder, of Hardwick, Vt., writes: "A year ago I was badly bloated, and it was said I was going to die with dropsy. I commenced taking Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. At that time I was a sight to behold. My usual weight was 135 lbs., but I then weighed 185 lbs. from bloating. I also had rheumatism so that I could not get into a sleigh or wagon, and was bent over badly. My stomach was so bad that I could not digest my food, and it pained me a good deal. It had been in this condition for seven years before I began to take Dr. Greene's medicine, but since taking it I can eat as hearty meal as anybody. I have not been out for eight winters until this winter, but this winter I have been out constantly, and took care of my horse and driven frequently. After I got out, many of my friends did not know me I was so changed and looked so well.

"For years I only ate one slice of bread in one day, and drank one or two cups of tea, which was all I could eat, and I suffered sometimes from that. "I was about as bad a used up man as ever lived for a long time, and I expected to die anytime; but thanks to Dr. Greene's wonderful medicine, I am greatly improved. "Now all my blot is gone, and I am as well of that as ever. My rheumatism is practically gone, and my stomach is sound and digests my food perfectly, and I sleep soundly. The doctor who treated me did me no good, and he said I would not live six months I was in such bad order. Other doctors said it was the most remarkable case they had ever known, to have me come up the way I did. My case is widely known. "I can recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy as the best medicine I ever saw or heard of, and I will cheerfully answer any inquiries about my case, but for seven years I could not write my name I was so trembly." Mr. H. R. Kimball, druggist of Hardwick, says: "I knew of Mr. Nathan G.

Batchelder's remarkable case, and the statement is true."

It cures quickly and permanently, rheumatism, neuralgia, kidney and liver disease, and makes good blood and strong nerves. Everybody, both physicians and the people every where, acknowledge Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to be the greatest known cure for disease. People who take it get well. Why waste time in trying uncertain and untried remedies, when here is a physician's prescription, a discovery made by the greatest living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City. If you take this medicine you can consider yourself under Dr. Greene's direct professional care, and you can consult him or write to him about your case, freely without charge. This is a guarantee that this remedy will cure, possessed by no other medicine in the world.

Since he took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the Greatest Medicine on Earth. My boy had Catarrh in the Head so badly he lost his hearing, and medical treatment failed to help him. Then I was advised to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before he had taken all of one bottle, he began to break out with boils all over his back and neck. They were not very large, but they discharged freely. Slowly his hearing began to come back and by the time the third bottle had been taken, the boils had all disappeared and his skin was as clear as a baby's where as before it was dull and yellow and dark under the eyes. He can now hear well and is taking his fifth bottle."

Campus.

The senior lits have decided to appear in cep and gown on the 22nd of February. Prof. and Mrs. Gardner S. Lamson were given a reception last Thursday afternoon by Mr. N. J. Corey, at his home, No. 60 Lafayette-ave., Detroit. Miss May Blount, Edna Day, and Lucy Eames, gave a reception last Friday to a number of young lady seniors at the home of Miss Eames, No 7 N. State-st. A Memorial service in honor of Mrs. Gayley-Browne will be held under the auspices of the Woman's League of the University of Michigan, in Newberry Hall, Sunday afternoon, January thirteenth, at three o'clock. Any ladies who desire to attend will be cordially welcomed. The Times correspondent at Ypsilanti is authority for the statement that eight lady students at the Normal have been sent home for being too giddy—that two of them in fact were found in Ann Arbor saloons with some U. of M. students having a hilarious time. Evidently the proposed five-mile law would benefit the lady students as well as those of the sterner sex.

Death of Giles Lee.

Giles Lee, of No. 10 N. State-st., died at 10:30 o'clock last Thursday night, at the age of 57 years. He has been a resident of this city for about five years, coming here with his family from Green Oak, Livingston county. For the last few years he has been in ill health, but was taken worse on Monday and gradually sank away. The cause of his death was not definitely known and a post-mortem examination was held this afternoon by Dr. Vaughan. It was probably some kidney trouble. The deceased was a respected citizen of Green Oak for many years, holding the office of supervisor of that township for about 20 years. He leaves a wife and two sons to mourn his death. One of his sons, J. H. Lee, is principal of the Mt. Clemens schools, and the other, L. B. Lee, is attending the University. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the house, Rev. C. M. Cobern, officiating.—Times.

"A Voter" in the last Argus makes a savage raid on those teachers of the public schools who use tobacco. It is not a very good example to set before young boys, that's true, especially if the smoking is done on the public streets.—Courier.

The Ann Arbor Organ Co. shipped six organs to London, England, last week. Wonder if England has a tariff on organs to prevent their pauper labor from competing with American labor. We should think it would make the editors of Ann Arbor papers black in the face to note these shipments of American goods to free trade countries, by firms that are bawling for protection against the pauper labor of England. Damn England any how. Shouldn't think Republican Ann Arbor would want to try and sell any goods there. The "home market" club must be bothered over in Ann Arbor. The British gold received for those organs ought to burn holes in the paws of every Republican who handles it.—Adrian Press.

A CHAPTER OF THE DOINGS OF MICHIGANDERS.

Mrs. Mary T. Lathrap, Famous W. C. T. U. Leader, Dead—Ann Arbor Railroad to be Sold—Sad Suicide of a Port Huron Boy—Fire at Bay City—Other News

Mrs. Mary T. Lathrap Dead.
Mrs. Mary T. Lathrap, wife of Dr. C. C. Jackson, died at the family residence, at Jackson, of general paralysis, aged 56 years and eight months. She had been ill many months and suffered intensely, but her end was peaceful.

Mary Terrens Lathrap was born on a farm twenty miles from Jackson, April 21, 1837. Her childhood was spent amid the hardships of pioneer life. She was educated at Marquette, where she lived during her girlhood. Mary Terrens taught in the public schools of Detroit from 1862 until 1865, when she married Dr. Lathrap, and they removed to Jackson. Dr. Lathrap being a member of the Methodist church, his wife united with that church. She felt that life would be a failure unless she could preach the gospel. Her ability was soon recognized and the quarterly conference of the Methodist church granted her a license to preach and she became prominent as a lecturer. She organized the Ladies Aid Society of the First M. E. church in 1866, and was always a leading worker in the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. For many years she was a conference secretary. In 1881 she was elected president of the state W. C. T. U., a position she has filled since with remarkable success. Mrs. Lathrap has always felt deep interest in her own sex, and through her influence was secured the establishment of the state industrial school for girls at Adrian. Through her temperance and evangelistic work Mrs. Lathrap has become widely known. Thousands have been converted under her teachings, and her unwavering fidelity to all that was good and noble has endeared her to the hearts of man and woman all over our broad country. The memory of her gifts and graces will ever be dear to all.

The T. A. A. & N. M. to be Sold.
In the U. S. District court at Cleveland, the beginning of the end of the financial difficulties of the T. A. A. & N. M. Railroad company was inaugurated. A motion for the sale of the road for the benefit of all the interested parties was made before Judge Ricks by Attorney Clarence Brown, of Toledo. The making of this motion was acquiesced in by all the attorneys present representing the different interests. Bondholders representing about 90 per cent of the bonded indebtedness of $7,000,000 have agreed upon a plan of reorganization, and this move was in conformity with the plan of the bondholders' committee. The road will be bid in by the bondholders' committee for the benefit of the holders' agreement. The reorganization plan also contemplates the issuance of $14,350,000 of stock and bonds. The Ashleys are not represented in this deal.

Liquor Causes a Young Man's Suicide.
E. J. Twiss, aged 24, son of Alderman John Twiss, of Port Huron, committed suicide at Ann Arbor by taking six grains of morphine. Young Twiss was a member of last year's senior law class of the University, and while there became addicted to the use of alcoholic liquors. Since last June he has been living in Port Huron, but a few days ago went to Ann Arbor for a visit, stopping with his old landlady, Mrs. Hirsch. For several days he had been drinking hard, and it is thought he took his life while recovering his head.

$25,000 Fire at Bay City.
There was a $25,000 fire in the Baumgarten block at Bay City. Huyck & Ritchie, druggists, were the heaviest losers. It is supposed to have originated in a furnace and spread throughout the basement before it was discovered. Several people had apartments in the second story and these escaped with barely their clothing. Huyck & Ritchie's drug stock was a total loss; Baumgarten Brothers' stock of groceries was badly damaged by water.

War Flags for Michigan Regiments.

Mrs. Cora Hasbrook, proprietress of the Ashley house, Ashley, publicly horsewhipped C. E. Armstrong, editor of the Ashley News, while the latter was getting his mail out of the post-office. A Chance to Make Money.

In the past week I have made $125 and attended to my household duties. I think I will do better next week. I feel the more Dish Washers I sell the more demand I have for them. I think any lady or gentleman, anywhere, can make money in this business. It is something every family wants, and when they can be bought so cheap, they buy them, and the person who has enterprise enough to take an agency is bound to make money. I wish any of your readers that wish to make from $5 to $12 a day, would try this business and report their success. Any one can get full particulars by addressing the Iron City Dish Washer Co., E. E. Pittsburg, Pa. Such a chance is rare—at least I have never struck one.

LITERARY NOTES.

"The Progress of the World," the editorial department of the Review of Reviews for December, sums up the significant results of the November elections, discusses the probable action of Congress on the "Baltimore plan" of bank-note issues, comments on the progress of the civil service reform movement, and again emphasizes the extent of England's encroachments in Venezuela; the department also chronicles important movements in European politics, and the history of the war in China is brought down to date.—Review of Reviews, New York.

Professor Dr. Eugen von Bohm-Bawerk, the distinguished Austrian economist, is the author of a monograph on "The Ultimate Standard of Value," which has lately been issued in its series of publications by the American Academy of Political and Social Science.

Every person interested in political economy can obtain from this work the latest views of the Austrian School on the important subject of "value."

The book has been translated by Dr. C. W. Macfarlane. This is the fourth German scientific work which the Academy has brought within the reach of English-speaking public. The others were Prof. Meltzer's "History of Theory and Technique of Statistics," Prof. Gustav Cohn's "History of Political Economy," and Prof. Gustav Schmoller's "Idea of Justice in Political Economy."

*Von Bohm-Bawerk Eugen. "Ultimate Standard of Value." American Academy of Political and Social Science Publication No. 128. Pp. 60. Paper 8vo. Price, 50 cents. Philadelphia, 1894.

The December number of the Forum contains a notable article by Mr. E. B. Hepburn, ex-comptroller of the currency and president of the third National Bank of New York on the "Baltimore plan" of currency reform, which was lately endorsed by the Bankers' Convention—the fullest explanation of this plan to provide an elastic currency that has yet appeared.—Forum Pub. Co., New York, N. Y.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for December is one of the earliest to appear, and certainly one of the most brilliantly attractive, of the illustrated Holiday magazines. The leading paper is an original contribution from the famous Egyptologist and romancer, Dr. Georg Ebers, entitled "My Tomb in Thebes," profusely illustrated with views taken in Egypt expressly to accompany it. Other notable articles in this number are: "Living Pictures on Broadway," "The Old and the New in Japan," a timely paper, full of interesting information, by Ernest W. Clement; and "The Historic Hudson," with a score of beautiful wood engravings. There are, moreover, complete short stories.—Frank Leslie's Publishing House (Department B), 42-44 Bond St., N. Y. City.

The sparkle of bright music, in a new ballad by Sir Arthur Sullivan, entitled "Bid Me at Least Good-Bye," adds much to the pages of the Christmas Ladies' Home Journal, in which the full piano score and words are given. Frank Stockton opens one of his cleverest tales with an equally clever title "As One Woman to Another;" Eugene Field is particularly happy in a striking bit of character verse, to which a whole page with illustrations is well given; John Kendrick Bangs begins his "Paradise Club" in a really funny "take off" on the equal suffrage question; the Rev. S. D. McConnell makes a very real being of the mother of Christ, in his article "A Girl of Galilee." Robert J. Burdette is funny and wise in a Christmas article and in addition to all this there are not less than twenty articles on the practical side of a woman's life at Christmas time. This is indeed a creditable number of the Ladies' Home Journal—the best, in fact, which it has ever issued. One dollar per year.—The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia, Pa.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Monday Night, Jan. 14.

A production of unusual magnitude will be given at the Grand Opera House next Monday evening, Jan. 14. Lincoln J. Carter's superb scenic melodrama, "The Fast Mail," as its name indicates, deals largely with the railroad in its incidents, but it presents an abundance of effects that are daring in their magnitude and admirable in their execution. The steamboat is said to be a wonder of clever conception and masterly mechanical work, and the railroad scene, with its trains going at a terrific rate of speed, makes the stage seem like a piece of reality. The Niagara Falls scene is wonderfully beautiful, and it may safely be said is more elaborate than anything of the kind ever before attempted in this city.—There are a multitude of minor effects that contribute to make the performance a revelation of realism. The whistles, bells and splashing are heard as the boat leaves the wharf. The sounds that tell us of an approaching train herald the approach of the freight and the mail train—the latter rushing by with people gazing from the window at the heroine who has just saved her lover's life by fastening a letter to the mail pouch. The roaring of Niagara Falls is heard, and the mist that rises from it is shown vividly. The play is under the personal direction of L. J. Carter, the author. The cast is said to be a capable one. The play is starting at times in the intensity of its climaxes, and these, when presented with all the effects of the intricate stage settings, bring the interest to a degree that is rarely attained even in the melodrama. A large number of people are employed in the production, which is in many particulars plainly the result of care and skill combined.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Friday Night Jan. 11.

This great actress appeared last night in "Camille." Miss Gray is destined to stand in the front rank of her profession. Nature has moulded her in her kindest moods. A face full of expression and an eye capable of emitting at a single glance the feelings that stir the soul, and a presence that is commanding and full of grace, added to a voice that rises high in scenes of passion, withers with scorn and pleads for pity in its wealth of tenderness. No voice, unless we except the lower register of Forest, contains such a wealth of organ tones, such range, such compass, and so wonderful power in a vocal sense. It is admirably trained, and in the portrayal of passion, power and intelligence lights up the character with a halo of genius. There is subtle refinement in every look and every movement that few actresses possess, and delicacy in her strokes of sentiment that can spring alone from intuition. Her thorough and complete assumption of a part tells how a mistress of her art is Miss Gray. She has thrown her strong nature bodily into her personation, which is not only grand, but a beautiful and enduring picture of art.—Chicago Times.

AN OLD COLD

Is Chronic Catarrh, the Worst Disease Known.

The first stage of catarrh is commonly called catching cold. It may begin in the head, nose, throat or lungs. In the majority of cases no attention is paid to a cold, therefore nearly half of the people have chronic catarrh in some form. To neglect a cold is to invite catarrh.

The second stage of catarrh is sometimes called an old cold. If in the head, there is a roaring, cracking in the ears, periodical headache, and confusion of the senses. If in the nose, discharge, sneezing, noisy breathing, and bad breath. In the throat it produces enlarged tonsils, hawking, sore throat, hoarseness or weak voice. When the catarrh reaches the bronchial tubes and lungs it produces cough, pain in the chest, expectoration, night sweats, loss of flesh and shortness of breath.

A cold in the head, which a single bottle of Pe-ru-na will cure, soon becomes a case of chronic catarrh, which will require many bottles to entirely cure. A sore throat, which one bottle of Pe-ru-na will cure, soon becomes chronic pharyngitis or enlarged tonsils, which will require many bottles. A slight cough, which, without a vestige of doubt, would soon disappear with the use of Pe-ru-na, becomes chronic bronchitis, which requires a persistent use of Pe-ru-na for some time. There are a great many cases of consumption each year due directly to a neglect of coughs, colds, etc., which, if Pe-ru-na had been kept in the house and used according to directions, would have been prevented.

For a free treatise on catarrh, coughs, colds, consumption, and all diseases of winter, send to The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio.

The fertilizer works of Griffith & Boyd, the acid works of G. H. & C. L. Davidson and the stable, office and home trade warehouse in No. 1 yard of the Standard Oil company at Canton, Ind., were destroyed by fire. The total loss will run upward of $200,000.

Leading officials of the southern seaboard railway lines are making a tour over the system with a view to establishing colonies of farmers along their lines. They expect to bring farmers to the south from Ohio, Michigan, Massachusetts, Colorado and Pennsylvania.

A public loan office, which seeks to rescue poor people from the clutches of chattel mortgage sharks, will be established at Milwaukee, with a capital of $50,000, subscribed by leading citizens. The interest rate to be charged will be about 2 per cent per month instead of 10 per cent, which the chattel mortgage men are now charging. A public pawnshop will also be founded.

In the New York state senate Senator Lexow will introduce a resolution extending the time of the investigation of the Lexow committee, and giving it further powers, but allowing it to make a preliminary report.

Started on a Career.
One of the most successful illustrators for the humorous papers was once a bank clerk in Philadelphia. He used to amuse himself and his fellow clerks by caricaturing the customers of the bank. Some of his friends at length sent a few of his sketches to a humorous weekly of New York, and a check was promptly returned for the pictures. That started the illustrator on his career, and illustrating soon after became his sole occupation.

If all wives and mothers could fully realize how apt each one is at all times to be bereft of the protector and support of themselves and their children they would be more fully able to appreciate the real benefits of a life insurance policy. As an investment it is as safe and profitable as a savings bank while in case of accident or fatal illness the return is much larger. Persuade your husband to lay by something in a life insurance policy and be protected in case of misfortune which sickness or accident may bring. A policy in the old reliable New York Life Insurance Company is unequalled for protection and investment.

The postoffice department at Washington is determined that no more claims shall be sent in by mail-carriers for overtime. Carriers must not put in over eight hours per day even if they are obliged to take back some of their mail undelivered. So do not expect the carrier to stop and gossip with you. If he does, somebody near the end of his route may have to wait over until next day for his mail. You would not want to do that yourself.

THE ANN ARBOR REGISTER, completed its 20th year last week, and pulls out for its majority with great vigor, and 12 pages. It is three times as big as it was when born, holds to the Republican doctrine of protection, scoops in its share of legal official patronage, has a quota of advertising that gives it robustness, and by being pretty independent in editorial utterances, and enterprising in news gathering, it commands itself to the readers, and retains a good subscription list. It is one of our welcome exchanges and we congratulate it upon its prosperity. May it continue to register success, and eventually admit the error of its pernicious political policy, and thus enter into the enjoyment of true journalism.—Adrian Press.

Thank you, neighbor. We always thought you knew a good thing when you saw it.

April 19—Catharine Clerc, servant; because she wished a king.

THE SHELLEY MONUMENT. Memorial of the Poet on the Spot Where His Body Was Found.

It was on a sultry afternoon in July, 1822, when Shelley set sail in that fatal and perfidious bark, built in the eclipse, and rigged with curses dark, to skim the waters of the bay of Spezia. His craft was caught in a sudden tempest, and some days after all that was mortal of the poet was washed ashore at Viareggio, and burned on the beach.

LION ON THE LOCOMOTIVE.

Only a Mountain Lion, But He Owned the Whole Thing for a While. Last winter when the snowstorms were so fearful throughout the mountains in Utah and the earth was covered with snow to the depth of five to ten feet, and remained hidden so long the animals were forced to desperation.

The hungry animals after a while discovered that food was to be had along the railroad track, where passengers threw bones and scraps of victuals from passing trains.

Engineer Gast had charge of engine No. 151, which was known as "the helper," from the fact that it helped trains up the mountain and when at the summit cut off and dropped back down to the bottom ready to help another.

After completing the repairs the men were mounting the engine again only to see a huge mountain lion devouring the tallow and holding full possession of the engine cab. It was a cold night and the snow drifting. The men had already remained outside until they were very cold and the chances of dispossessing Mr. Lion were very meager.

TEACHING CANARIES TO SING.

Artificial Notes Forgotten at Mounting but not that He Retained. The piping bullfinch is much valued and frequently sells for a high figure—from $25 to $50 being no unusual price to pay for one of these pretty songsters; but it is not generally known, says Pearson's Weekly, that the canary may be taught a variety of notes very quickly and that its vocal powers are by no means confined to its own more natural song.

He may be taught to sing tunes and opera airs, as is generally done with the bullfinch; or secondly, he may be instructed in the notes of another bird, as a lark or a robin; or, thirdly, his capacity may be developed, his powers of voice cultivated, and his song remain the canary song through all.

The learning time in a canary's life is from five to six months old to one year, and the owner of one of these little birds must make choice of methods and begin in time. In the first place he must see that his pupil is in robust health and good spirits.

If he is to sing "Annie Laurie" or "The Last Rose of Summer" he must be placed in a quiet room with the cage covered. Then a few notes of the chosen air should be whistled or played on some instrument—flute, bird organ or piano.

About Knives.

A cheap Pocket-knife can be bought at every Store, but it is not the kind you want.

One dollar is the lowest price that a really good knife can be sold for.

Never buy a knife only because it looks well. If blades are not the best Sheffield steel they will soon bend, no matter how they will look.

The United States law provides that only samples to agents and to the trade can be admitted free of duty.

I am an advertising agent! I am entrusted with a certain amount to spend advertising these knives.

Imagine a Pocket-knife (3 1/2 inches long) with the most beautifully-grained very handle—genuine African Ivory.

And so it is if you compare it with the value offered in the ordinary Store.

Is not this knife its own best advertisement.

You can make $4 per day selling these knives. This is a genuine and straightforward statement.

I will send you a free sample, but you must sign the promise at the foot of this column, and make a deposit to show that in asking for the knife you are acting in good faith.

The deposit that I ask of you is 44 cents about half the wholesale cost of the knife, and less than one-third what you would have to pay for a knife like it, if you bought one.

Send the money by a Postal Order or one-cent stamps for 44cts., and put a five-cent stamp on the letter, which must not weigh more than one-half ounce.

The deposit of 44 cents will be placed to your credit, and will be deducted from your first order at the dozen rate.

I am an advertising agent, contractor and publisher with one of the largest Advertising businesses in the world, and I absolutely guarantee to send, postage paid and duty free, the knife described above free to anyone who signs the promise below, and sends it with the deposit as stated.

Let me advise you not to part with your sample, even if you should lose a sale at $1 by refusing, as it will take time to replace it. I could not send you another even if I sent the full $1.

After the sample they can only be supplied to you by the dozen as there is duty on them to be paid.

Any English Banker can give you information about my high standing, or write to the publisher of this paper who knows that I do a large and straightforward advertising business, and that I do exactly as I say.

I have taken this place in this paper for three years! The first one answering this advertisement after this number of the paper has come out will, if he likes, have his name printed in this space as agent for these knives.

The Editor of the Springfield (Ohio) New Era writes, in his paper of June 29, 1894: "I have received a sample knife from Mr. Sears, and am very much pleased with it. He is the owner of a very large advertising business in London, and is, I believe, perfectly responsible and straightforward."

Sign your name and address to the following, cut it out and send it with Postal Order or stamps for 44 cents, and you will receive by return of post the beautiful knife as described above.

F. W. SEARS, ADVERTISING AGENT AND CONTRACTOR, WHOLESALE KNIFE ADVERTISING DEPARTMENT, 138 FLEET STREET, LONDON.

DEAR SIR,—I faithfully promise on my name and honor to show the Sample Knife you have promised to send me to one or more of my friends, thereby constituting myself an agent. This will make me "in the trade" as far as Pocket-cutlery is concerned.

I am entitled to a sample of your beautiful Dollar Pocket-knife with chamois leather case, to be sent me post-paid and duty free. I also enclose 44 cents Postal Order or stamps, which please hold for me until I send you an order at the dozen rate.

OLD SUBSCRIBER.

With His Communication Nearly Analyzed the Editor.

In an Ohio town thirty years ago lived an old fellow worth a couple of hundred thousand dollars or so, who was given to writing "pieces for the papers." They were good, too, and the old fellow took a just pride in them, and often had them printed in the local papers of the town. One time he made a visit to Cincinnati, and took an extra good one along with him to see what the city papers would do with it, says the Detroit Free Press. The first city editor who read the article accepted it on the spot, and wanted to pay him for it, though he had never seen him before, and didn't know him from Adam's off ox.

"What pay do you accept for this?" inquired the editor.

"I don't know exactly," hesitated the old man, thinking it was a pretty good joke.

"Have you ever been paid for any of your writings?"

"Some," replied the applicant for literary honors, with a twinkle in his eye as a new idea came to him.

"How much, for instance?"

"Well, on one occasion," smiled the old gentleman, "I received $25,000 for ten words, not counting the signature."

The editor almost fell off his chair. "What?" he exclaimed, dropping the article he was negotiating for.

The visitor repeated his statement.

"Great Caesar man," asked the editor: "how did you get that much?"

"Simply by writing: 'Pay to the order of John Blank $25,000.'"

The old gentleman laughed vigorously, and the editor blushed and begged his pardon and invited him to dinner.

When War is Declared

Against a man's happiness by his stomach, the enemy may be pacified and brought speedily and easily to terms. That potent regulator of digestion, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, disciplines the rebellious organ thoroughly. Indigestion arises from the food in, for want of the power to digest, decomposes and acidifies, given rise to heartburn, flatulence and pain, besides a multitude of symptoms both changeable and perplexing. But peace soon reigns when the great stomachic is resorted to and used with persistence. Dyspepsia gives rise to morbid discomposure of mind, and even sleeplessness hypochondria in chronic cases. To the complete dismissal of these the Bitters is fully adequate. Liver complaint, constipation, debility, rheumatism and malaria are completely subdued by this genial medicine.

The Greatest Adulterant

Glucose, it appears, is the greatest of all adulterants. It is used for making cheap candy, sugars, jellies and syrups. Apple sauce is pumpkin boiled in cider. It is said that cheap confectionery and liquors are the articles most injuriously adulterated. Candy commonly contains much fusel oil and other poisons. Strawberry ice cream—a plate of it—often contains almost more fusel oil than five glasses of poor whisky. It is colored with red aniline dye. Licorice drops are usually made out of candy factory sweepings. Wine is frequently nothing but water with a percentage of crude alcohol from grain or the refuse of beef refineries, colored with burnt sugar, flavored with oil of cognac and given an agreeable woody taste with a little catechu.

Common Sense

Should be used in attempting to cure that very disagreeable disease, catarrh. As catarrh originates in impurities in the blood, local applications can do no permanent good. The common sense method of treatment is to purify the blood, and for this purpose there is no preparation superior to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring peristaltic action to the alimentary canal.

Bound to Wear 'Em.

Mother—Why did you get that bicycle suit? Modern Maid—To wear, of course. "But you have no bicycle." "I have a sewing machine."

Wines for Debilitated Females.

Physicians have used Spear's wine, and having applied to it the strictest test known to chemistry, they do not hesitate to pronounce it a pure wine of medium strength, and recommend it to be of great advantage to the aged and infirm, also low and typhoid fevers. Spear's wine will be found very superior.

Curlett's Heave Remedy is a sure cure for Heaves in the earlier stages, and warranted to relieve in advanced stages. Guaranteed to cure Coughs and Colds.

Chas. Dwyer, ex-Sheriff of Washtenaw Co., Mich., says, "I cured two different horses two different years of Heaves in early stages by use of Curlett's Heave Remedy."

"J. M. Allen, proprietor of the Dexter Leader says, 'I have used Curlett's Thrush Remedy with perfect satisfaction, having permanently cured a very bad case of that disease with his Thrush Remedy.'"

Curlett's Thrush Remedy is a sure cure for Thrush and all rotting away diseases of the feet of stock. One application cures ringworm on man or beast and removes lameness of calked or craked hoofs. Applied once a day grows them out.

Curlett's Pinworm Remedy, for a man or beast, is a compound that effectually removes these troublesome parasites, which are such a great annoyance to stock. If bowels are bound up, one or two doses will put them in proper condition.

The Sun's Three Motions.

The sun has three known motions: 1. An axial rotation, which is plainly shown by the appearance and disappearance of well-known spots upon his surface. The mean period of this axial motion is 23 1-3 of our days. 2. A motion around the center of gravity of the whole solar system—a motion which can only be ascertained by the use of very delicate instruments on account of his great mass, which is greater than the total of all the other bodies of the system combined. 3. A progressive motion through space in the direction of the constellation of Hercules. The rate of speed of this last named motion is not known, but it is estimated to be 150,000,000 miles per year, and some investigators even think it possible that the rate will exceed the above estimate by at least half.

At One Hundred Miles an Hour.

There is now in course of erection at the Altoona, Pa., shops a new passenger locomotive which is expected to cover 100 miles an hour without any trouble. The wheels are larger in diameter than an ordinary engine, and will be equipped with ball bearings like a bicycle. It will also have a steam pressure of but ninety pounds, against 180 pounds pressure in the locomotive now in use.

Rev. R. N. Middleton, M. E. clergyman, Cedar Springs, Mich., says: Sleep and rest were strangers to me after preaching till I used "Adironda." Now I sleep soundly and awake refreshed; I can heartily recommend "Adironda." Sold by all druggists.

An Ominous Beginning.

The discovery was made by a bride in Bloomfield, N. J., on her way to the church that she had on dark shoes instead of white. She insisted on returning to change them. And as she was about to re-enter the vehicle, she fell and sprained her ankle. Before the carriage reached the church, a wheel rolled off and the bridal party had a severe shaking up.

A Restful Effect.

At the Paris conservatory, then under the direction of Cherubini, Berlioz was an unruly genius, and not in favor with his teachers, especially the precise and "classical" Cherubini. One examination day, Cherubini was running over a piece which Berlioz had submitted, when he came upon a complete rest of two measures. "What is that?" he asked, in his usual ill-natured tone. "Mr. Director," said the pupil, "I wished to produce an effect which I thought could best be produced by silence." "Ah, you thought it would produce a good effect upon the audience if you suppressed two measures?" "Yes, sir." "Very good. Suppress the rest; the effect will be better still."

OIL OF LAVENDER.

Its Distillation an Important Branch of Industry.

The production of lavender for distillation is an important branch of the industry. In the county of Surrey, England, there are several large lavender distilleries. To these the growers carry their harvestings, to be subjected to the necessary process. The oil is contained in glands situated chiefly on the calyx, corolla and leaves, but also to a less extent on the branches and flower stalks. In the process of distillation two hours are allowed for the first "run." This run gives the clearest and best oil, and when of a very high quality it is almost colorless. For the second run four hours are allowed, the oil produced being of a pale amber tint and having a stronger, coarser odor than that which results from the first run.

When the highest quality of oil is desired, says Chamber's Journal, flowers only are used in the process. The quality of the oil secured depends on the kind of season in which the flowers have been grown. Sunless summers result in a much reduced quantity and an inferior quality. There are many acres of land throughout the kingdom, producing at present only a scanty crop of grass, which might be used for the cultivation of the lavender plant. The demand for it is practically unlimited and there is, therefore, little danger of its being produced in such quantities that the price would fall below a remunerative level.

Mothers.

"One good mother is worth a hundred schoolmasters," said George Herbert. Men are what their mothers make them. But if the mothers are peevish and irritable, through irregularities, "female weakness," and kindred ailments, they find no pleasure, no beauty in the care of their babes. All effort is torture. Let all such, who feel weighed to the earth with "weaknesses" peculiar to their sex, try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. They will find the little ones a delight instead of a torment.

To those about to become mothers it is a priceless boon. It lessens the pains and perils of childbirth, shortens labor and promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child.

Eyesight at Birth.

At birth no infant can see. Professor Preyer, who has carefully worked on a single subject (a boy of his own), considers that although sensibility to light exists from the moment of birth, yet this sensibility is more alive to the sense of feeling than to that of sight. The infant from the first closed its eyes when exposed to a strong light. With regard to actual sight, as denoted by the fixing of the eyes on objects, Preyer says that up to the tenth day he noticed no movements indicating that the child fixed its eyes on an object. He seemed only to look at objects before him up to that time. Other authorities assent that in this latter respect infants differ greatly. This much, however, is clear, that it usually requires between two and three weeks for the sense of sight to come into full operation.

"Trust Those Who Have Tried."

Catarrh caused hoarseness and difficulty in speaking. I also, to a great extent, lost hearing. By the use of Ely's Cream Balm dropping of mucous has ceased, voice and hearing have greatly improved.—J. W. Davison, Att'y at Law, Monmouth, Ill. I used Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh and have received great benefit. I believe it a safe and certain cure. Very pleasant to take.—Wm. Frazer, Rochester, N. Y. Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

A Financial Coup.

"You don't mean to say that you lent Sickles your umbrella?" "Yes. And it was economy to do it. It saves the twenty-five cents a day he used to borrow."

A $21.00 Humphrey's Homoeopathic Medicine Case for family use, will be sold at a bargain at John Moore's Drug Store. It is something every family ought to have. Here is a bargain for the first purchaser who applies. It will be sold at a big discount. 40c

Kind Hearted.

"Have you got any waterproof powder?" she asked the druggist in a whisper. "Any—what? Er—beg pardon." "Waterproof powder. I'm sure he is going to propose this evening and I've got to refuse him, and if I shed a few tears it will be easier for the poor boy."—Indianapolis News.

Relief in Six Hours.

Distressing Kidney and Bladder diseases relieved in six hours by the "NEW GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN KIDNEY CURE." This new remedy is a great surprise on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys, back and every part of the urinary passages in male or female. It relieves retention of water and pain in passing it almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is your remedy. Sold by John Moore, Druggist Ann Arbor.

Voices of the Nations.

The Tartars are supposed to have, as a nation, the most powerful voices in the world. The Germans possess the lowest voices of any civilized people. The voices of both Japanese and Chinese are of a very low order and feeble compass, and are probably weaker than any other nation. Taken as a whole, Europeans have stronger, clearer and better voices than the inhabitants of the other continents.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Major Part of Him. A Napoleon of finance picked out a promising town in Iowa and decided to "build it up." He moved to the town, organized a number of stock companies, started a bank, deposited all the money of the companies in his own bank, and then went into bankruptcy. Some of the principal sufferers went to learn whether anything could be saved from the wreck. They found him in a magnificent apartment. "I regret very much, gentlemen," said he, "but I have practically nothing left. My wife owns this house and some business property, but I have nothing. Believe me, if I could do such a thing, I would give you my body and let it be divided up among you, for there is nothing else I can do." "What's that proposition?" asked a rather deaf old gentleman, who was standing at the back of the mournful company. "He says," explained one of the sufferers, "that we can take his body and divide it up among us." "Well, in that case," said the deaf old gentleman, "I speak for his gall."—Argonaut.

OUR FIRST ADMIRAL. A Proposed Monument to Ezek Hopkins of Providence.

Patriotic Rhode Islanders propose to erect a monument at Providence to Commodore Ezek Hopkins.

The first official service he rendered in the revolution was as the commander of a battery of six eighteen-pounders erected on Fox Hill.

When the organization of the "continental navy" he was appointed by congress "commander-in-chief" Dec. 22, 1775.

He was relieved of his military command in Rhode island and immediately proceeded to Philadelphia in the sloop Katy with 100 men specially enlisted for naval service.

Feb. 17, 1776, he sailed from Delaware bay with a squadron of eight vessels, and conducted the successful Nassau expedition.

John Paul Jones was a lieutenant under Adams who, until his hitch with the marine committee of congress, was practically "admiral."

A NEW FRENCH TIRE. Intended to Replace the Pneumatic Tire—Made With Compartments.

A new bicycle tire has just been devised by M. M. Gerard, city engineer of Bordeaux and Picon, which is intended to do away with the defects of all other tires.

It consists in substance of a thin rubber tube whose inner surface is intersected by rubber disks perpendicular to it and placed close to one another; disks and surface are all moulded in one piece.

The disks are thicker at the circumference than at the center, to prevent the tube from sinking into the interspaces between supports, and they are made eccentric so as to distribute the increasing power of the surface without resting the weight of the tire.

They divide the tire into a very large number of air chambers, perfectly independent of one another, so that if one is pierced the others are not affected.

These add to the elasticity of the tire, and do not need to be filled with compressed air. The motion is as easy as that of the best pneumatic tires, while the accidents to which pneumatic tires are subject are done away with.

The tire can be applied at once to all rims for solid or hollow tires. For pneumatic tire machines some slight but inexpensive modification of the rim will be necessary.

The Lawyer's Threat. The book peddler had called at the lawyer's office to sell him a book and the lawyer very peremptorily didn't want any book.

The peddler insisted and the lawyer continued to decline. At last the lawyer rose in wrath. "Now, look here," he said emphatically, "I've told you I don't want your book, and I meant what I said. Furthermore, my advice to you is to get out of this promptly, or I'll throw you out."

The peddler was about to make a remark. "And," interrupted the lawyer, "let me also say if you hesitate, I shall charge you for that advice, and I levy on your books to satisfy judgment. Now git," and the suppressed peddler got.

February May Have Five Sundays. It is only possible for February to have five Sundays three times in each century, unless, through some chronological freak the century comes in with a leap year, with the first day of February a Sunday.

The five Sundays of this century have been those of 1824, 1852 and 1880. The next time this oddity will occur will be in the year 1920.

THE RAISER'S LITTLE KICK.

During his last visit to England Emperor William was much disappointed because the entire regiment of the Dragoon Guards, whose chief he is, was not brought over from Dublin to Aldershot to meet him. He went so far as to point out to his uncle, the prince of Wales, and afterward to the queen herself, how on the continent it is the invariable practice to bring a regiment to greet its honorary colonel if he is a foreigner on a visit to the court.

Endurance of Indian Runners. An Indian has been known to carry a letter from Guazapares to Chihuahua and back again in five days, the distance being nearly 800 miles.

Some parts where the Tarahumaris in some parts where they are used to run in the wild horses, driving them into the corral; it may take them two or three days to do it, sleeping at night and living on a little pinole.

They bring in the horses thoroughly exhausted, while they themselves are still fresh. They will outrun any horse if you give them time enough.

They will pursue deer in the snow, or with dogs, in the rain, for days and days, until at last the animal is cornered and shot with arrows, or falls an easy prey from sheer exhaustion, its hoofs dropping off.—Scribner's.

OUR FIRST ADMIRAL. A Proposed Monument to Ezek Hopkins of Providence.

Patriotic Rhode Islanders propose to erect a monument at Providence to Commodore Ezek Hopkins.

This worthy was born on his father's farm at Chapumisecook, now Chopmist, Scituate, R. I., April 26, 1718.

When the seven years' war broke out in 1756 he went out in one of his vessels as a privateer captain and returned to Providence with a valuable Spanish vessel, which he renamed the Desire in honor of his wife.

The first official service he rendered in the revolution was as the commander of a battery of six eighteen-pounders erected on Fox Hill, overlooking Providence harbor, in the summer of 1775.

When the organization of the "continental navy" he was appointed by congress "commander-in-chief" Dec. 22, 1775.

He was relieved of his military command in Rhode island and immediately proceeded to Philadelphia in the sloop Katy with 100 men specially enlisted for naval service.

RILLA DISSECTED.

Next the Lungs Produces the Great Roar. The gorilla was held upon the body of the gorilla which died late last night. Professor Franklin of the Harvard medical school and Professor Councilman, formerly of Johns Hopkins university of Baltimore, now professor of pathology at Harvard, conducted the examination. Consumption was found to have been the cause of death. The doctors decided that Gumbo was about 40 years old, and that he had had the germs of tubercular consumption of the slow variety, which is a disease the Simiadae are particularly subject to in this climate.

One discovery was that of a sort of a pouch or bag in the chest, in front of the lungs, and connected by means of an independent valve with the trachea, or windpipe. This is undoubtedly the organ employed by the gorillas in making their peculiar roar.

The brain weighed 17 ounces. In its structure it bears a striking resemblance to the human brain, being, however, broader at the base and narrower at the top, and exhibiting a far less number of convolutions. The brain will be subjected to a variety of delicate tests and a minute microscopic scrutiny.

The doctors found a lot of minor points to interest them. Professor Dexter and his assistants intend to make an exhaustive comparison between the gorilla and a human being. In life Gumbo measured 5 feet 6 inches in height, and his health, weighed 168 pounds. His arms were 4 feet in length, and his muscles of the texture of wire rope.

MUSCLE THREATS OF SCIENCE. How the Chemist Would Take Away the Joys of Human Life.

Wonderful things are going to be done by the development of synthetic chemistry between now and the year 2,000, if Professor Berthelot, the French savant, is to be believed.

The food and drink producing animals and vegetables will not then be encouraged to exist for human life, but food and drink will be manufactured direct and to order by man himself, and served in highly concentrated tablets, vest-pocket size.

A person may then carry about him two or three table d'hote dinners complete, from blue point oysters or little neck clams to crackers, cheese and coffee, and tobacco, and with all his wine and cognac included. This change will be brought about, it is said, by the remarkable progress being made in compounding food and drink from their constituent elements—carbon, hydrogen, oxygen and nitrogen.

It has advanced so far already that the preparation of beefsteak from its elements is assured, and nicotine, the essential principle of tobacco, has been produced from coal tar.

Life, indeed, would not be worth the living should the professor have his way. The ready-made tablets of food and drink would be horribly alike to the eye, the taste, and the understanding; eating and drinking would be purely mechanical; good fellowship and wit and imagination would depart and existence would be utterly material and dull.

RAISED HIS SALARY. Because the Doorkeeper Refused to Admit Him Upon His Own Stage.

H. R. Jacobs is a great stickler for discipline, and his rules are very strict and must be obeyed. One of the most rigid of these rules is to the effect that no one not connected with the theater or the company shall go back on the stage without a pass from the house manager.

Once Jacobs visited his New York theater, after a long trip among his outside houses, and he started back on the stage to see some one. In his absence Manager Edwards, of the house, had engaged a new stage doorkeeper, and the man had never seen Manager Jacobs.

"Here, where are you going?" demanded the stage man.

"On the new man, of course. I'm Mr. Jacobs."

"I don't care who you are, you must get a pass from Mr. Edwards. Those are my orders."

Instead of becoming angry, Mr. Jacobs went around and got a pass to go on his own stage.

"What salary do you pay that man?" he asked.

Edwards told him and he ordered it increased at once. He admired a man who knew his business.

The Winnowing Mill. "Fifty-three years ago I invented the winnowing mill now in common use," says Moses Gilman, of South Sangerville, Maine.

"If I had had it patented I might have realized a fortune from it, as all the machines that have been built since have been upon the same principle. Even the threshing machine separators which have superseded the old time flail use the winnowing mill substantially as I first made it for clearing the chaff from the grain. I have invented many other things that were valuable, but I never asked for a patent," Mr. Gilman, though 77 years old, is still at it, inventing, and says if his strength and reason hold out he is going to produce some valuable new ideas yet.

A Legal Equivalent. After their engagement had been broken off a Michigan man sued his certain sweetheart for the recovery of quodam jewelry which she refused to return. The judge in deciding the case asked the lover if he had ever kissed his intended bride. After he had admitted that he had done so, the judge dismissed the suit, holding that kisses and caresses were a legal equivalent for presents.

I TOLD YOU SO.

"Yes! Mrs. Swan, two hours ago, And everything's as white as snow; But then, you see, it's all because I use the SOAP SANTA CLAUS."
