E. church. This conference embraces all the eastern portion of the state and has within its borders over three hundred ministerial charges. It is expected that all the ministers representing these places will be in attendance. It is also estimated that fully three hundred and fifty lay delegates will be here to attend the session. These lay delegates attend the annual conference only once in every four years. Several matters of unusual importance will come up to be acted upon at the meeting next week. The conference will continue from Tuesday evening until Saturday afternoon. We give below the program for the week in full.

Leonard, D. D.; Rev. Dr. Keen, of Delaware, Ohio, will conduct Pentecostal services at 4 p. m. every afternoon of the conference week.

ANNUAL SCHOOL ELECTION.

IT DEVELOPS SOME PECULIAR COMBINATIONS.

The school election held Monday developed some rather unexpected features. At the caucus held Friday night to nominate candidates, the retiring members of the board excepting C. Mack, were not in it. The meeting was largely attended. M. J. Cavanaugh acted as chairman. The first nominees were C. Mack and R. Shannon. The result was, Mack 132, Shannon 73, scattering 4.

For the second trustee, Dr. D. Zimmerman, R. Shannon, W. G. Doty and Mrs. A. B. Bach were nominated. It took three ballots to settle the nomination, which resulted in the choice of R. Shannon. It was clearly evident at this time that there had been a hasty combination between the Bach and Shannon forces and that the nominee for the third place would be Mrs. P. Bach. With this end in veiw Mrs. Bach's name was withdrawn after the balloting had been commenced.

For the third position there were several candidates but they were all withdrawn and the field left clear to Mrs. Phillip Bach who was promptly nominated. It was clearly evident at the time that there were more or less dissatisfaction with the way things had gone and that there would be other tickets in the field on election day.

This proved true as it was soon manifest that the other two retiring members of the board were not ready to surrender if they could help it. Before the polls were opened printed slips with the names of C. Mack, J. E. Beal and W. W. Whedon were being passed. Soon tickets with Mrs. P. Bach in place of W. W. Whedon were also numerously circulated. It was evident that the friends of the candidates were out in force, and that at least one of the candidates who was nominated Friday night was not in the race. Although the rush was not so great as last year a very good vote was polled. The result stood as follows:

Christian Mack	587
Junius E. Beal	485
Anna B. Bach	457
Wm. W. Whedon	227
Robert Shannon	201
John V. Sheehan	2
Wm. C. Stevens	1
Col H. S. Dean	1

A New Law for Lawyers.

The last legislature passed a law requiring all who wish to enter the profession of law in Michigan to go before a commission especially appointed for that purpose and pass an examination. The law went into effect last Thursday. The commission appointed by Governor Rich consists of George H. Durand, of Flint; Prof. Mechem, Ann Arbor; Phillip T. Van Zile, of Detroit; Russell C. Ostrander, of Lansing, and Mark Norris, of Grand Rapids. The commission will meet in a few weeks in Detroit to organize, and to formulate rules. The first examination of candidates for admission to the bar will probably be held in Lansing, Oct. 17.

The law makes a special provision for graduates of the University of Michigan providing that graduates from the University law school shall be admitted to practice upon presentation of their certificates. Other aspirants for admission, must go before the commission for examination. One of the rules contemplated will require candidates to pass an examination equivalent to a high school examination, in the ordinary branches of study.

Atlas of Washtenaw County.

The Atlas of Washtenaw County, published by Geo. A. Ogle & Co., of Chicago, was delivered to subscribers in Washtenaw County last week. The book is a very complete one. It contains a plat book of each village, city and township in this county. It also contains a number of general maps, as well as a Historical Reference Directory of Washtenaw County, and an Analysis of the System of the United States' Land Surveys, and a Digest of our System of Civil Government, including National, State, County, Township School District, City and Village Government. The book is certainly well gotten up and one that will be very useful to a great many people. It has been nearly twenty-five years since a publication of this kind has been issued. It certainly would be an enterprising thing for some firm of map publishers to issue an Atlas of this kind at least every five years. Messrs. Ogle & Co., are to be congratulated upon the completeness of their work.

Uniform Laws Commissioners Meet at Detroit to Discuss Important Subjects —Chinese Offer to Make Reparation to Americans for the Recent Outrages.

For More Uniform Laws.

The annual session of the boards of commissioners, appointed by the several states to bring about, by voluntary state action, greater unanimity in the statute laws prevailing throughout the states and territories, was held at the Cadillac Hotel, Detroit with 16 states represented. For many years past there has been a great desire among lawyers and the people generally for unanimity of law throughout the country. The law was passed in 1889 in New York state, creating an expert commission of three members to consider the subject and advise with similar commissions in other states. Masachusetts, New Jersey, Georgia, Michigan, Delaware and Mississippi fell in line with the idea. The statutes creating these commissions have largely the same wording in the several states, and the men serve without pay. The subjects that have invited the attention of the commissioners were marriage and divorce, the execution of wills and deeds, notarial certificates, bills and notes, and commercial notes generally.

Chinese Want to Conciliate Uncle Sam.

Washington: The Chinese minister called at the state department and held a conference with Acting Secretary McAdoo and Assistant Secretary Rockhill concerning the progress of the investigation into the recent Chinese riots. The minister assured the secretaries that he called upon the express direction of his government to convey direct official assurance of the desire on the part of the Pekin authorities to make adequate reparation for the injury done to American interests by the Chinese rioters and to set at rest the reports which represent a different spirit on the part of the Chinese.

Hong Kong: It is reported that the Chinese officials are working actively and thoroughly in the investigation being made into the recent massacre of missionaries. Ten Vegetarians, it is added, have already been convicted. There is said to be no danger of any fresh disturbances in that district during the sitting of the commission.

13 MINERS DROWNED.

Flood Breaks Through into Two Mines and the Poor Fellows Perish.

The accidental flooding of the Americus and Sleepy Hollow mines at Central City, Colo., caused the death of 13 miners. The water in the lower workings of Fisk mine, east of the main shaft, broke through the old workings of the vein that has not been worked for a number of years. It struck the Americus where two Italian miners were at work in the lower part of the shaft and they were both drowned. In its course the water diverted to the Sleepy Hollow mine, the easterly portion of the Fisk vein. Fourteen men were working in the Sleepy Hollow, three of whom escaped. A courier was sent to the adjacent mines and all their workmen escaped.

Armenians Fear Another Massacre.

Advices received from Frzinghamam, Armenia, say that great terror prevails there owing to the attitude of the Turkish authorities. The latter, in consequence of an attack which was recently made by brigands upon a Turkish colonel during which a member of his escort was killed, are believed to be taking steps which will have most serious consequences. The Armenians are accused of being the authors of the attack on the colonel and it is alledged that a large force of Turkish troops has been retaliating by attacking the villages and monasteries of the vicinity and engaging in other acts of violence. The Armenians, fearing a recurrence of the of the Sassoun outrage, have appealed to the ambassadors of the powers at Constantinople for protection.

Chinese Coming Down Considerable.

Foo Chow, China: Firmness has brought the Chinese to terms. Foreigners are now present at the trials of the natives implicated in the recent attacks upon missionaries. The Chinese officials afford every facility to the foreign commissioners of inquiry. Six of the Chinese who had a hand in the massacre at Hwasang have been convicted of murder. New arrests are made daily. Foo Chow is quiet.

Washington: The U. S. cruiser Concord has sailed from Chemulpo, Korea, and will preceed direct to Che Foo, China. The Yorktown is also bound for this port, having left Shanghai, so that the United States will prepared for any action deemed necessary in Chinese waters.

Peculiar Double Fatality.

A very strange double fatality occurred at the World building at Cleveland. Three men were on a ladder placing a sign at the top of the fifth story. The rope slipped and the ladder turned over. Alois Zechmeister fell and in his descent struck John Wickson who was passing breaking Wickson's back and both legs. He cannot live. Zechmeister was instantly killed. The other two men on the ladder escaped by a miracle. Lawrence Cronenberg's feet caught in the rope, and he hung suspended over the pavement, head downward, until rescued. The other man grabbed the cornice at the top of the building and worked his way around to a fire escape.

Joshua Tiller, Albert Seifert and Oscar Voorhees, striking laborers on the waterworks trench at Wapakoneta, O., attempted to interfere with some men who had taken their places, a fight followed and all three were shot and Tillber died. Several others were seriously injured.

London: A dispatch from Shanghai says that Li Hung Chang had an audience with the emperor and as a consequence will remain in Pekin as imperial chancellor. Wang-Wen-Shoo has been nominated as viceroy of the province of Chi-Li, which office Li Hung Chang formerly held.

TROOPS AT ISHPEMING.

Men at Work on the Steam Shovels at the Mines—Strikers Very Sullen.

In response to requisitions from both Sheriff Broad, of Marquette county, and Mayor Johnson, of Ishpeming, Gov. Rich ordered the companies of the Fifth regiment, Michigan National Guard, located at Houghton, Calumet, Ironton and Marquette to report to Col. Lyon of the Fifth at Ishpeming at once. Assistant Quartermaster-General Avery left immediately with necessary camp equipage and 1,000 rounds of ammunition. The first and third divisions of the Michigan Naval Reserves, located at Detroit, were also ordered to be in readiness, with their Gatling and rapid fire guns, to proceed to Ishpeming on short notice.

The cause of all of this military gathering was for the purpose of protecting the men and property at the mines at Ishpeming, it having been decided to start the steam shovels at the mines. The mining companies had asked their men to report for work, but they refused and when the companies announced that they would start the shovels with other help the strikers became very threatening. Sheriff Broad and Mayor Johnson, upon consultation, agreed that they could not muster force enough to protect property and workmen and finally decided to ask Gov. Rich for troops with the result previously stated.

Thus it was that within 36 hours almost 300 troops were at "Camp Ishpeming" ready for duty. The following are the companies which reported first: Co. H, of Ironwood, commanded by Capt. Winslow, 62 men; Co. D, of Calumet, Capt. Grierson, 70 men; Co. F, of Houghton, Capt. Miller, 57 men; Co. G, of Houghton, Capt. McArthur, 52 men. Total 287 men. Col. Lyons is the officer in charge.

Promptly at 7 o'clock the steam shovels were started at the Lake Angeline, Lake Superior and Salisbury mines. The presence of the troops seemed to have a quieting effect upon the strikers for although they assembled on the surrounding hills in great numbers they did not venture dangerously near the picket lines. The women were out in force and were more demonstrative than the men. They gathered in groups and crowded towards the stock piles, where the men are employed, and keep up a continuous cry of "black leg" and "scab." Their conversation was of the most inflammable nature. The parade of the strikers to Union park was very largely attended by strikers from both Ishpeming and Negaunee. President Coad, of the miners' union resigned and John Roberts was chosen as his successor.

Desperate Murder and Suicide.

Mrs. John Wilson, wife of a hack driver at Battle Creek, left her husband because he did not support her. Wilson several times threatened her life if she did not return, and finally he went to the home of Lee Prine, where she had rented rooms, and tried to shoot her. Wilson pulled a revolver, but his wife grabbed the weapon and threw it through a window. The enraged man then caught her by the hair and dragged her down the stairs and into the yard where he found the revolver. The woman broke away, but as she ran Wilson fired and the shot struck her behind the left ear and came out of her eye. He then put the revolver to his temple and fired, killing himself instantly. Mrs. Wilson was taken to the hospital, but she cannot recover.

An Alibi for Smalley—But 'Tis Too Late.

Mrs. John Smalley, wife of the man who was shot and killed at McBain by two deputy sheriffs on the supposition that he was one of the C. & W. M. train robbers and murderer of Detective Powers at Grand Rapids, has received a letter from J. C. Anderson, of Brinton, who says that Smalley was at Brinton on the night of the train robbery and also on the night of the murder of Detective Powers. S. F. Frye, a notary public of Brinton, gives confirmation of this, and has affidavits proving that Smalley was visiting relatives and friends at Brinton, 75 miles from the scene of the train robbery and the murder of Dectective Powers during the time of these occurrences.

Hot Lumber Fire at Saginaw.

One of the hottest fires ever witnessed in Saginaw broke out in the lumber piles of Randall & Boyd. A stiff wind was blowing and the blaze was in a few minutes a whirling mass of flames that rapidly spread from pile to pile. The big plant of the Allington Curtis Co., manufacturers of dust separators, caught fire and seemed certain of destruction, but good work on the part of the firemen was so effectual that the loss was only $6,000, covered by insurance. In the Randall & Boyd yard about 750,000 feet of lumber valued at $15,000 was consumed.

American Bar Association.

Some of the most eminent of America's lawyers visited Detroit in attendance upon the annual session of the American Bar association. The subjects discussed by the association were some of the deep things of legal lore and the addresses and papers—including particularly the address of President Carter—were very interesting, instructive and important. One of the features of the convention was a splendid reception given by Gen. R. A. Alger.

Dangerous Forest Fires.

A "Soo" special says: The city and river are obscured by smoke, and dangerous forest fires are raging between here and Waiskai Bay. The fire is about four miles wide. Ashes are falling in the city. Farm houses and settlements are in danger and considerable loss of property has already resulted. It is very dry. Navigation in the river is made difficult.

P. C. Yates, an old resident of Nashville, was killed by a train.

Four members of the Salvation Army were arrested at Ypsilanti for disturbing the peace by their singing and praying.

Small pox caused the death of Frank Drum, near Galesburg. Local undertakers refused to bury him. An epidemic is feared.

Mrs. Dr. C. M. Raynale, of Birmingham, was thrown from a buggy and had her right leg, two ribs and her collarbone broken.

The dead body of an unknown man was found in a box car on the T., A. A. & N. M. railroad at Monroe. There was a bullet wound in his right temple.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR IN BOSTON.

Parade the Finest Ever Held in America —The Prize Drill—The New Officers.

Boston has just entertained one of the finest bodies of organized men ever gathered in the United States in time of peace. The tri-ennial conclave of the Knights Templar of America was held in that city of culture and baked beans and the American Athenians were amply repaied for the elaborate preparations they made to entertain the Sir Knights, of whom over 50,000 had made the pilgrimage to that city. The first great feature of the conclave after the arrival of the numerous commanderies was the parade, in which 25,000 Sir Knights participated.

It is estimated that fully 500,000 people crowded the streets of Boston to witness the grand pageant, and business was entirely suspended throughout the day. Boston has seldom if ever been so elaborately decorated. Practically every building along the line of of march was clothed in color, with appropriate mottoes and emblems intertwined with streamers and bunting. As the marching columns passed the reviewing stands before the Most Eminent Grand Commander McCurdy, of Michigan, and Gov. Greenhalge, of Massachusetts, and before Chief Marshal Lawrence and Mayor Curtis, many of the commanderies executed intricate military evolutions which won the admiration of the thousands of spectators who witnessed them. Detroit commandery, as special escort to Most Eminent Grand Commander McCurdy, attracted much attention and was vociferously cheered as they executed many difficult evolutions. Ohio was well represented, having 17 commanderies in line.

The exhibition drill, participated in by six of the best drilled commanderies of the country, was held at the League ball park and was witnessed by many thousands. The six commanderies which drilled were from Washington, D. C., Troy, N. Y., Chicago, Louisville, Minneapolis and Detroit in the order named. All cf them did good work, but when Detroit No. 1 marched out, with 48 men in line, and performed evolutions of a most intricate character with all the precision of a machine, the cheers of the crowds were tremendous. In order to avoid jealousies no official judgement of the merits of the competing commanderies was given, but the universal opinion of all was that Detroit No. 1 was the finest drilled body of men ever seen in Boston

The election of officers for the next three years resulted in the choice of Right Eminent Sir Warren La Rue Thomas, of Kentucky, as most eminent grand commander.—The other officers are: Deputy grand commander, Very Eminent Sir Reuben H. Lloyd, of San Francisco; grand generalissimo, Very Eminent Sir Henry B. Stoddard, of Texas; grand captain-general, Very Eminent Sir George M. Moulton, of Illinois; grand senior warden, Very Eminent Sir Henry W. Rugg, of Rhode Island; grand junior warden, Very Eminent Sir W. B. Melish, of Ohio; grand treasurer, Very Eminent Sir Wales Lines, of Connecticut; grand recorder, Eminent Sir W. H. May, of Missouri. The committee announced the next tri-ennial conclave would be held at Pittsburg in October, 1898.

Hazekiah Roberts, a young farmer at Butler, Ky., cut his wife's throat and then cut his own. Both are dead. The bloody deed was witnessed by their three children.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

Dun's says: Improvement in markets and prices continue and whereas a few months ago everybody was nursing the faintest hopes of recovery it has now come to be the only question in what branches, if any, the rise in prices and the increase of business may go too far. A strong conservative feeling is finding expression, not as yet controlling the markets or industries, but warning against too rapid expansion and rise. In some directions the advance in prices clearly checks future business. But encouraging features have great power. Exports of gold continue but are met by syndicate deposits and are expected to cease soon. Crop prospects, except for cotton, have somewhat improved during the week. Important steps toward reorganization of great railroads give hope to investors. Labor troubles are for the moment less threatening and some of importance have been definitely settled. The industries are not only doing better than anybody expected, but are counting upon a great business for the rest of the year. The advance in the price of iron and its products has added about 2 per ton more in a single week to the price of Bessemer iron at Pittsburg, and yet the great steel companies are buying wherever they can. The demand, whether on old or new orders, appears large enough to sustain all advances yet made, and strikes of ore handlers and Marquette miners cause fear that supplies of Bessemer ore may run short. Copper has been so far advanced that large quantities of American are coming back from Europe. Wool has been speculatively hoisted and sales have fallen below last year's. The prospect for wheat has hardly improved though the price has fallen. Corn is coming forward more freely and the September price has declined, and with the promise of a great crop pork and lard are a shade lower. Cotton is rising.

The Bones of Little Howard Pietzel Found

In the chimney of a frame cottage, standing at some distance from the other residences of Irvington, a suburb of Indianapolis, detectives found the charred bones of little Howard Pietzel, one of H. H. Holmes many victims—son of the man Holmes murdered at Philadelphia and brother of the two little girls he killed at Toronto. The find was the reward of a long and persistent search by detective Geyer, of Philadelphia, who had worked on the matter for over six weeks in the vicinity of Indianapolis.

In a fire at Ivrea, Italy, 14 perished.

LOOKING BACKWARD.

Look after the Back: A Fall, a Strain, a Constant Sitting or Stooping Position Brings Backache—Do You Know This Means the Kidneys are Affected?

How few people realize when their back begins to ache that it is a warning provided by nature to tell you that the kidneys are not working properly. You have a severe fall, you strain yourself lifting or perhaps you are compelled to maintain a sitting or stooping position for long intervals at a time, your back begins to ache, then your head, you become listless, tired and weary, but do you understand the real cause? We think not, else you would not use plasters and liniment on the back, which only relieve but do not reach the cause. If you would rid yourself of the pain and cure the root of the trouble, at the same time save many years of suffering and perhaps life itself, you will take a kidney remedy that has been tried and proven that it will cure.

Mr. John Robsoin of 661 Russell Street, Detroit, says: "As a result of exposure during the war I have suffered ever since with rheumatism and kidney trouble. Pains would start in my hip and go around to my back. Highly colored urine denoted kidney disorder. The pain in my back was often so bad I had to give up work until the severity of the attack passed away. I have used many liniments and other things, but received very little relief. Some time ago I started using Doan's Kidney Pills and they have worked a wonderful change in me. My back is all right now and I owe it all to the almost magical influence of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Mr. Robsoin was a member of the Fifty-first Illinois Regiment, which served through the war with honor and distinction. Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers—price, 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

NEWS OF THE HAPPENINGS IN MICHIGAN.

A Strong Effort Being Made to Secure Pardons for the Molitor Murderers—Ugly Insinuations Against ex-Attorney General Ellis.

Molitor Murderers May be Pardoned.

An attempt is being made to secure the pardon of the alleged Molitor murderers who were sentenced from Alpena county last year to Jackson prison for life. The prisoners are August Grosmann, August Fuhrmann, Henry Jacobs, Carl Vogeler and Wm. Repke. It will be remembered that these men were convicted of killing Albert Molitor at Rogers City on the night of August 25, 1875, and it was principally on the confession of Wm. Repke—who, after nearly 20 years, says that his conscience troubled him—that the convictions were secured. Repke now makes affidavit that the evidence he gave was false. He further represents that he was induced to swear falsely upon the trial upon the assurance that by doing so he would free himself. He further says that at the time of the first confession he was intoxicated and afterward desired to withdraw his confession, but was not allowed to do so.

In the case of Henry Jacobs, the defense attempted to prove an alibi on the trial. It was shown that the wife of the accused gave birth to a child on August 27, 1875, two days after the murder of Molitor, and that for several days previous thereto Jacobs had been detained at home by his wife's illness. Attorney-General Ellis was conducting the prosecution and it is now alleged that he controverted this testimony in Jacobs' defense by sharp practice. During the closing hours of the trial he introduced a certified copy of the county clerk's record which showed that the child was born in 1876, a year after the murder. But now Joseph Smith, ex-county clerk, makes affidavit that there was an entry of the birth of the child for both 1875 and 1876, but the church records and the testimony of the neighbors show that the latter entry was erroneous. Nevertheless, Ellis directed Smith to make a certified copy of the latter entry and return the record to Rogers City, thus preventing the defense from meeting this evidence before the close of the trial.

But Little Sympathy at Bessemer.

Three miners representing the Ishpeming and Negaunee strikers visited Bessemer, presumably to solicit aid to carry on the strike. The notices carrying mass meetings, however, convey the idea among miners that the union is trying to cause a sympathetic strike on the Bessemer range. Several hundred attended the first mass meetings. The feeling expressed was that the strikers made a mistake, and should return to work. The committee was much discouraged.

A later dispatch from Ishpeming says: The strikers' soliciting committee has retured from the copper country, where they expected to secure $6,000, with but $120, the situation is becoming desperate for the men who have been idle for six weeks, and who were illy prepared for the seige. The men hardest to keep in line are the Finlanders and it is certain that the first day that hunger really pinches them they will make a break for work. They are growling deeply that the relief funds promised them do not show up.

Four Drowned in St. Clair River.

Frank Derufg his sister-in-law Mrs. Michael Derufg, and Misses Celina Chonski, Minnie Schoenhart and Edith Comier were picnicing on Stag island, near Marysville, in St. Clair river. They saw a storm coming up and started to row home, but when within 300 feet of the shore a squall capsized the boat. Frank Derufg was a good swimmer and he managed to get the women all to the overturned boat, but instead of holding on to it they clung to him. He held three of them up with one hand and kept hold of the boat with the other until one of the women grabbed the hand on the boat all all four went down and were drowned. The Schoenhart girl bravely clung to the boat and was rescued later by some boys. Mrs. Derufg leaves a husband and two small children. The two young ladies were about 20 years of age.

Michigan Good Templars.

The grand lodge of Michigan of the Independent Order of Good Templars met at Stanton. The grand secretary reported the present membership as 6,301, a decrease of 2,412 since July 31, 1894. There are now 186 lodges in the state, a decrease of 65. During the year 29 lodges have been instituted and reorganized, six charters surrendered and 88 charters forfeited. Only about one-fourth as many lodges have been organized during the last year. Another cause of loss is hard times. There appears to be a general falling off in interest in temperance matters. The officers of the grand lodge, however, think that this lull is only temporary. The grand treasurer reports total receipts of $4,256.68; orders paid, $4,306.52; overdraft, $18.94.

Strange Murder at Iron Mountain.

John Knutson was murdered at Iron Mountain by two men who followed him from a saloon. He was but a few rods from the door when a number of people saw the men running toward Knutson. An instant later there was the report of a revolver, Knutson fell dead, and the murderers ran down an alley and disappeared. There is not the slightest clew to the murderers, nor the causes that led to the crime.

Norris Green, of Dundee, who hired a hundred or more Monroe laboring men to work on the gaspipe line at $2 per day and then skipped out, leaving an unpaid board bill, was sentenced to 30 days in jail. Green is wanted in both Toledo and Adrian for working swindling schemes.

The body of John C. Speidel was found floating in the river at Lansing, about a block from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Wolf, with whom he lived. It is doubtless a case of suicide, as the old man was slightly deranged and had previously attempted to kill him. He was 86 years old.

MICHIGAN HAPPENINGS.

John Block, a laborer, fell from the new city building at Lansing and was fatally injured.

Hoggish thieves stripped several peach orchards near Adrian. They had a horse and wagon.

Geo. Lawson, of Lansing, tried to suicide at Sheridan with laudanum because his wife left him.

The wife of Phillip Schuerman, of Houghton, has mysteriously disappeared and foul play is feared.

The barn of Allen Shaw, near Kingston, was burned, together with his stored crops and farm implements.

John Bollman, aged 60, a wealthy farmer near Sturgis, hanged himself while despondent because of ill health.

A New York dispatch says that Andrew Storey, of Grand Rapids, suicided by shooting himself at Brooklyn.

Geo. C. Eaton, an engineer on the Lake Shore road for 30 years, fell dead on his engine as he pulled out of White Pigeon.

A tumor weighing 114 pounds was removed from Mrs. Louis Brown at Saginaw by Dr. H. M. Leach. She will probably recover.

Errors in favor of Wm. Erratt, ex-treasurer at Cheboygan, amounting to $3,000 have been found. This reduces the shortage to $10,000.

Irving Butler, of Cooper, had his face so badly lacerated that 40 stitches had to be taken. He was knocked against a wire fence by a falling tree.

At a session of the Loyal Temperance Legion of Wayne county, held at Northville, an experiment was performed showing that root beer contains alcohol.

The body of an unknown man was found in the woods near Ludington with nothing about him to show his identity. He had evidently been dead several weeks.

The Albion college exploring party have returned, having had to abandon their canoes at Ombabika river, Ontario, and take the steamer from Port Arthur to Detroit.

The wire shovel works of W. A. Reddick, at Niles, the only factory of its kind in the United States, was partially destroyed by fire. The loss is $3,000, fully insured.

It is stated that the records in Michigan show that during the past two years more farm mortgages have been discharged in this state than for any similar period for 20 years.

Three furnaces in the Calumet & Hecla smelters at South Lake Linden have been fired up after several months idleness. There is a heavy demand for copper, which warrants resumption.

A passenger on board the F. & P. M. steamer No. 4, from Ludington to Manistee, jumped overboard 10 miles out of Milwaukee and was lost. His gold watch and baggage was left on board.

The members of the Ladies' Temple society of Bay City, being wives, sisters and daughters of Masons, served as conductors on the street car lines all of one day and make a good large sum for their society.

Chief Justice McGrath has granted a writ of error in the case of Mrs. Nellie W. Pope, the Detroit woman in Jackson prison for murdering her husband, and the case will be reviewed at the October term of the supreme court.

Patrick Quinlan, who was so prominently connected with the Holmes "Castle" in Chicago, has moved to his old home at Lacota and says that he was persecuted by the Chicago police.

Frankenmuth people celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of their village by holding religious services, concerts, a big parade, and giving picnics, games and fireworks. Thousands were present.

The trial of John R. Haven, the auctioneer of Holland, who was arrested at Muskegon for selling R. Mueller's jewelry stock at auction, which is contrary to the city ordinance, resulted in a heavy fine. Mueller will appeal the case to test the ordinance.

Goorge W. Love, awaiting trial for murder, and Oscar Schultz, doing time for larceny, escaped from the county jail at Bellaire. Love murdered a squaw named Solomon in cold blood near Elk Rapids last June. A reward of $300 is offered for Love.

During a brawl at the annual church festival of the German Lutherns at Frankenmuth, Charles Corington, of Arbela, struck a man named Thomas on the head with a stone and jumped on him, injuring him so that he will probably die. Corington fled.

Frank N. Clark, superintendent of the Michigan stations of the U. S. fish commission, is just now located on the main stream of the Au Sable river, about seven miles east of Grayling, establishing a government fish hatchery for the propagation of brook trout, of which he expects to produce about two million this year.

A. L. Lakey, of Kalamazoo, secretary of the National Sportsmen's association says that the next congress will be urged to take steps to stop the traffic in the eggs of wild ducks and geese in Alaska, as the nests are systematically and persistently robbed and the extinction of these two species of fowl is threatened.

There is a prospect that the digging and shipping of marl from several west Michigan towns to Chicago will grow into quite an industry. Marl is found in large quantities in the marshes along the principal streams of western Michigan, is kilndried and ground and used for the adulteration of paint. In fact it is the principal ingredient of the cheap grades.

A movement is on foot by prominent citizens from Minneapolis, Ashland, St. Paul and several north Michigan cities, who own fishing club houses along the Brule river, to buy up the entire river from source to mouth and make it a private stream. The Brule is a famous stream for trout, and is controlled now principally by the big logging companies.

Spencer G. Millard, lieutenant-governor of California, who has been visiting his old Ionia home, was called back by the critical illness of Gov. Budd. Mr. Millard himself is very feeble from lung trouble.

Cuban Filibusterers Captured.

At Wilmington, Del., 20 men captured at Penn's Grove, N. J., were lodged in jail, charged by the United States authorities with the violation of the neutrality laws in having organized a hostile expedition to Cuba. It had been suspected for several months that a Cuban filibustering party was at work at Wilmington and that at least one expedition had been dispatched from there. Detectives shadowed the suspected men and found that they had chartered a tug to carry freight to Penn's Grove. They were allowed to go to that point, but before the steamer which was to take them to Cuba arrived the party was arrested. When the detectives examined the tug the found 27 cases of arms, a large quantity of ammunition, provisions, clothing, etc., all of which was seized.

Capt.-Gen. Campos Yacht Blown Up.

A dispatch from Havana says that the Spanish steamer Villaverde, used by Gen. Campos as a private yacht, was blown up at sea by the explosion of a ton of dynamite which was being carried from New York to Havana, and which Gen. Campos intended to use in his campaign against the insurgents. The steamer was blown into fragments.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

A Shanghai dispatch says that official reports show that there were over 40,000 deaths from cholera in Pekin during August.

Three Indians were held up near Lewiston, Idaho, by three masked men and robbed of $2,300 paid them by the government for land.

Wm. Haygood, while blaspheming at High Shoals, Ga., declared there was no God, no heaven and no hell, had his tongue paralyzed.

A boiler explosion at the car factory at Warsaw, Ind., killed instantly Quincy Nebruner, the fireman, and James Hoffman, a teamster.

The jury in the Frank Clancy inquest at Ann Arbor returned a verdict that Clancy came to his death from a blow on the head by some person unknown. The jury censured the Toledo authorities for not investigating the case more thoroughly.

Bristol tunnel, 1,200 feet long, on the B. & O. railroad near Zanesville, O., caught fire from sparks. One hundred feet of the tunnel has fallen in. Efforts are being made to prevent the fire from reaching a point where a coal vein projects from the tunnel's sides.

A special from Kingston, Jamaica, says that Capt.-Gen. Martinez de Campos has written to the Spanish consul there, it has leaked out, that the struggle against the insurrection in Cuba is hopeless. The conceding of autonomy, he adds, is the only means by which Spain can avoid losing the island. The Cubans are jubilant.

H. M. Romberg, a prominent liveryman of Decatur, Ind., left about two months ago to visit his old home at Hamburg, Germany. Word has been received that he has been taken by the German officials and sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment, charged with whipping an official in the army prior to his coming to this country.

Window glass manufacturers from Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois met at Cleveland and organized a combination, the purpose of which is to advance prices to meet the increase in the price of raw materials and the prospective advance in wages. It was decided not to resume operations at the factories until September 27.

A fight took place in a covered bridge near Rockport, Ind., between Belle Levi and Frank Hurst, on one side, and Wm. Broshears and Charles Williamson on the other, in which Miss Levi and Hurst were mortally wounded. The fight was the result of an old feud between Broshears and Hurst. Hurst was taking Miss Levi home in a buggy when the attack was made.

An unknown tramp was murdered on a Pennsylvania freight train near Mansfield, O. His throat was cut from ear to ear. Two tramps on the train were suspected. They boarded an Erie train and were met at Ashland by officers. The tramps, five in number, opened fire and the battle raged five minutes before the tramps were handcuffed. The engineer and firemen were wounded.

Constantinople: The sultan has sent a dispatch to the Turkish ambassadors at Paris and St. Petersburg, bitterly complaining of Great Britain's attitude regarding Armenia, which is described as discourteous and derogatory to the sultan's prestige. The dispatch concludes with an appeal to the French and Russian governments to use their good offices with Great Britain to modify her present attitude.

A dispatch from Loudres, France, says: Fourteen railway trains loaded with sick and maimed persons arrived from Paris, and their wretched occupants are lying helpless about the station clamoring to be carried to the sacred grotto. There are now 25,000 persons waiting to be dipped in the healing water, many of whom appear to be at death's door. Seventeen of the occupants of the last train from Paris died on the journey.

A heavy letter addressed to Baron Alphonse Rothschild was delivered at the baron's office, at Paris, during his absence. The baron's confidential clerk, M. Jadowsky, opened the package, whereupon it exploded. The clerk's eyes were almost torn out of his head, and one of his hands was so badly shattered that three of his fingers had to be amputated. Anarchists are thought to be responsible, and 30 were arrested on suspicion.

Heart Disease Cured

By Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

Fainting, Weak or Hungry Spells, Irregular or Intermittent Pulse, Fluttering or Palpitation, Choking Sensation, Shortness of Breath, Swelling of Feet and Ankles, are symptoms of a diseased or Weak Heart.

MRS. N. C. MILLER.

Of Fort Wayne, Ind., writes on Nov. 29, 1894:

"I was afflicted for forty years with heart trouble and suffered untold agony. I had weak, hungry spells, and my heart would palpitate so hard, the pain would be so acute and torturing, that I became so weak and nervous I could not sleep. I was treated by several physicians without relief and gave up ever being well again. About two years ago I commenced using Dr. Miles' Remedies. One bottle of the Heart Cure stopped all heart troubles and the Restorative Nervine did the rest, and now I sleep soundly and attend to my household and social duties without any trouble.

OUR imports of foreign grown raw cotton have increased from 5,000,000 pounds in 1886 to 49,362,787 pounds in 1895. Is it not time that American grown cotton should be protected?

ON the basis of present importations, a restoration of the McKinley duties on wool would make up half the deficit. That, then will be the first step to take. The rest of the deficit can be made up with great advantage to the country by further restorations on other articles. —Buffalo Express.

ACCORDING to a London cable dispatch the Chronicle of that city says that there is great activity in the potteries at Hanley, Burslem and other places in consequence of the revival of trade with America, exports for seven months indicating the largest shipments for many years. Under the McKinley act the Staffordshire and other potteries lost a large share of their American trade.

THAT the American wage earner is brought into competition with the home convict labor is bad enough, and they have a perfect right under the law to insist that the provisions of a law looking to their protection against the importation of the product of the foreign convict system be rigidly enforced. The Age-Herald hopes to see the day when convict labor will not be brought in competition with the honest free toiler of our land.—Age-Herald, Birmingham, Ala.

WHEN the Republican party gets control again, as it will next year, with some Republican for President such as Reed or McKinley or some other man, we will take up that tariff and go over it item by item and make such amendments to it as will give reasonable protection to American labor and American industries as against foreign labor and foreign industries. The people of this country never knew they wanted that sort of protection—they were never certain of it—until the Democrats, by mistake, got possession of this country two years ago.—Senator Cullom.

THE position taken by the Ann Arbor W. C. T. U. that intoxicants should not be sold on the grounds during the county fair, and that it is not a proper thing for school directors to give the schools a special holiday so that the children may attend the fair where liquor is sold should have considerable weight with the fair authorities. It may be that a few people would stay away if beer or whiskey could not be obtained upon the grounds. The chances are that a great many more will not attend if liquor is to be as plentiful upon the grounds this year as it was last. Not a few school teachers and directors have already expressed themselves as being bitterly opposed to adjourning their schools for children's day if the fair grounds are to be turned into a dram shop. The fair managers should give the matter careful consideration before deciding. We are convinced that should they do so there will be no doubt as to the saloon being banished from the grounds during the fair.

THE political campaign now in progress in Kentucky promises to become interesting before long. As a matter of course, the Blue Grass State is extensively Democratic, and that party has easily and safely elected its candidates in an unbroken succession for many years, opposing candidates being nominated merely as a matter of form. But the present prospect is, that the next Governor of Kentucky will be a Republican. There is a lack of harmony in the ranks of Democracy on the money question. Gen. Hardin, the party nominee for Governor, is a free coinage man. Mr. Bradley, his opponent, is an advocate of the gold standard, as is also Mr. Carlisle, who has a large political following in the state. These followers, constituting the Democratic opponents of free coinage, have revolted against Gen. Hardin, and have announced their intention of defeating him. There is some talk of holding a "sound money" convention and nominating a gold standard Democrat for Governor. Such action would undoubtly insure the election of Mr. Bradley, the Republican candidate, but the feeling in Kentucky on the money problem is so intense that either wing of the Democratic party would prefer such a result to the triumph of the opposing wing.—Ex.

While in Ann Arbor last Thursday The Leader had the pleasure of spending an half hour in the studio of Mr. A. L. Alexander, a rising young sculptor of that city. Among his most recent works is a life size bust, in clay, of Hon. A. J. Sawyer, of that city, which is acknowledged by all to be a work of unusual merit. Mr. Alexander is a very entertaining talker, full of enthusiasm concerning his work, and a young man who is bound to make his mark in the field of art.—Dexter Leader.

The board of directors of the Washtenaw Mutual Fire Ins. Co. at their session last Thursday ordered an assessment of $2.31 per $1,000, to be levied on the capital stock. This is the largest assessment that has been necessary for the company to make in a number of years, but then mutual companies must get off years once in a while and this assessment makes only $4.50 for three years on the thousand dollars, which is certainly a very low rate. For the past five years the assessments have aggregated $6.30 on $1,000.—Courier.

Jerome Quinn and Paul Schall did not agree while in a saloon on W. Washington-st. last Sunday night. Before the dispute was ended Quinn had been shot by Schall. The shot would have been fatal had not Quinn had a tin type in his pocket. This deflected the ball so that no harm was done. Later Quinn gave Schall a severe thumping. Schall then swore out a complaint against Quinn, and had him arrested. It is claimed that the saloon was not open Sunday, but that the parties had been locked in by mistake Saturday night!

They Protest Vigorously.

The W. C. T. U. of this city has made and will continue to make a vigorous protest against the sale of liquors at the county fair. At a recent meeting the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: "Whereas, The right to sell intoxicating liquors upon the fair grounds was granted last year by the directors of the county fair'

"Whereas, It has been customary to have one day during the fair known as children's day, and for which a half holiday is annually given in the public schools.

"Therefore, resolved, 1st. We thus publicly protest against the sale of intoxicating liquors on the fair grounds as offensive to self respecting citizens and injurious to the best interests of the fair.

"2d. As parents and citizens we are convinced that it is not in the interests of public morality or the welfare of our children that the public schools should grant a half holiday for a fair which is unclean, a thing inevitable where liquors are sold upon the ground.

"3d. That these resolutions be adopted by a rising vote and the vote be counted, a record made of the same and presented by a committee to the directors of the fair and the school board, and a report be made next Sunday evening.

From the Adrain Press.

A handsome epictomic directory (Lilliputian size) from the Northville Record "printery," J. S. Neal, editor and professor, is before us. It is an artistic announcement of the advantages of Northville and a condensed, but accurate pointer to the residence and business places of the city, and thoroughly up to date with every inhabitant born and named within 15 minutes of going to press. The personnel of the council, committees, village officers and fire alarms are features. The place has electric lights—obviating the need of the council having guideboards to get home — and numerous and important factories, including a needed jag-cure. The directory is a handy little book.

The Courier does not consider it fair toward politicians to have two Washtenaw farmers' picnics in the county on the same day. Now, it asks, "is the politician and office seeker to divide himself and attend both places." Was there ever a politician who couldn't play double as easy as running down hill without breeching? If Washtenaw has such a politician let him be trapped for a freak, and exhibted at the biz fall fair. Every man, woman and child in the county and all the surrounding counties will be there to see him. He can readily be distinguished from the other stock by the niumbus about his head, and the cordon of beneficent gods and good angels, attending him.

The Denver hotel explosion in which twenty or more persons met a horrible death is another calamity for which the liquor traffic is directly responsible. The drunken engineer, the drunkard maker and the man who makes drunkards—making a legitimate business, must be held equally responsible for the Gumry hotel holocaust. Truly, the drink evil never lets anybody alone.

Tadzn Sugiye is a Japanese young woman, for three years a student at Wellesley college, who is now teaching at Osaka, in a Christian school for girls. She has three classes in Chinese literature, two in English, one in the history of Japanese literature, and one in botany, besides correcting Japanese composition of all the classes, and giving a lecture each week on Japanese rhetoric. In addition to all this she is president of a florishing W. C. T. U. and gives lessons in "Yankee Cookery."

Dr. N. S. Davis, at the annual meeting of the American Medical Association, held in Baltimore, read a paper on "Does Alcohol ever Act as Food, as a Generator of any Natural Force in the Living Body?" in which he stated, that while men had been kept alive forty or fifty days on water, he had found no case, although he had sought diligently where men had been kept alive half that time on diluted alcohol. "Vital force, heat force, motor force, nerve force and muscular forces are all impaired," said he, "by the influence of doses of alcohol."

WHAT IT COSTS.

During the past two years a great deal has been said about "hard times." Last winter the poor of our cities were in want and suffering while the sympathies and purses alike of the more fortunate ones were taxed to the utmost to relieve even in a small degree the great needs. The financial depression reached to village and hamlet; and it seemed that there was literally no money in the United States.

Under these circumstances it was startling to read the following official statement: "The drink bill of the United States in one year is nine hundred million dollars!"

Think of that; nine hundred millions. Not the dollars of the wealthy classes alone, but of the "poor working man" —many of whom are and have been for months out of employment. It is enough money to have kept all the idle factories running—enough to supply all of the destitute men, women and children with the necessities and many of the luxuries of life. It is more than is paid for bread, shoes and stockings, public schools, sugar and molasses, clergymen's salaries, homes and foreign missions combined! If you should lay these standard silver dollers on the ground, edge down, you would have three rows reaching from Buffalo to Chicago. Or, if piled one above another, they would make a column which would reach 1600 miles into the air; more than two hundred and fifty times higher than the highest mountain peak of the world. Twenty-eight thousand, two hundred and ninety-three times higher than the dizzy heights to which the Ferris wheel carried its many passengers.

What else besides this terrible waste does this $900,000,000 spent for liquor mean? Just this, that every year it sends 60,000 people to drunkard's graves, and 200,000 more to the poorhouse.

What a waste of life! What a squandering of manhood, too, these figures represent. It is said it requires two million boys from each generation to keep the saloons running or one boy from every three families.

In the face of such statistics and facts it almost seems as though there were no remedy for the evil. Yet the subject of temperance is gaining ground, surely if slowly. Public sentiment is being aroused, children are being educated to work and fight against it, and to win the children to the cause of temperance is to save the world from intemperance.

THE WOMAN

—who takes the surest way to gain a beautiful color and a wholesome skin will not take the cosmetics, paints and powders which soon injure the skin. Sallow or wrinkled face, dull eyes and hollow cheeks, together with low spirits, follow the derangements, irregularities and weaknesses peculiar to the sex. All women require a tonic and nervine at some period of their lives. Whether suffering from nervousness, dizziness, faintness, displacement of womanly organs, catarrhal inflammation of the lining membranes, bearing-down sensations, or general debility, Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription reaches the origin of the trouble and corrects it. It's a medicine which was discovered and used by an eminent physician for many years in all cases of "female complaint," and those painful disorders that afflict womankind. If women are overworked, run-down, tired or sleepless, if they are irritable, morbid and suffer from back-ache, they should turn to the right means for a permanent cure. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription fits just such cases, for it regulates and strengthens the special functions, builds up and invigorates the entire female system.

DISEASE OF WOMB.

MRS. CORA S. WILSON, of Carlisle, Sullivan Co., Ind., writes: "I cannot say too much for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I feel it my duty to say to all women who are suffering from any disease of the uterus that it is the best medicine on earth for them to use; I cannot praise it too highly for the good it did me. If any one doubts this, give them my name and address."

ANN ARBOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

To the Board of Education of the City of Ann Arbor:

Herewith I have the honor of presenting to you my twenty-fifth annual report of the Public Schools of this city.

Statistics are not generally entertaining reading, but they present the framework of all industries and are essential to the best conduct of all enterprises that cost money.

Only such items as are closely connected with the administration of the schools are here given.

Population of the district, census of 1894, 11,311.

Children of legal school age (between 5 and 20 years), census of 1895, 3,054.

This is 78 less than reported last year. The discrepancy arises from the fact that last year a mistake was made in the age limits, which made the number somewhat too large.

STATISTICS OF THE SCHOOLS.

ITEMS.	High School.	Grammar Dep't.	Primary Dep't.	Totals.
Enrollment exclusive of transfers—boys	335	306	615	1256
Enrollment exclusive of transfers—girls	323	269	480	1072
Total enrollment	658	575	1,095	2328
Average number belonging	553.20	502.75	973.83	2029.78
Average daily attendance	529.36	589	942.61	1961
Per cent. of attendance on No. belonging	93.88	97.27	96.77	96.66
Number of non-residents	247	34	34	315
Number men teachers	8			8
Number of women teachers	9	13	22	44
Number of special teachers				3
Total number of teachers				55
Number of days schools in session	180	180	180	180
Average days attendance of each pupil	144	159	160	156
Average pupils to each teacher	33	39	44	39.5

The grade enrollment was 70 more than that of the preceding year. To accommodate this additional number we employed one additional teacher. As might be expected, several of the rooms were over-weighted in their enrollment.

It is impressed upon us more and more that no teacher can do her best work with more than 40 pupils to care for; the table above shows that the average enrollment in the grades was more than that. And the fact is that more than half of the rooms had 45 to 50 pupils, while 11 rooms carried 50 to 58 on the books most of the year. The inference from these facts is that the extension of school accommodations is hardly keeping pace with the increasing demands upon them.

We should also bear in mind, in this connection, that, by the action of the last legislature, we have an efficient compulsory school attendance and truant law; and it will be incumbent upon us to compel attendance upon school of those children whose education is being neglected by their parents.

By the terms of this law all children between 7 and 16 years of age must attend some school continuously for four months during the school year. Many of these children are not enrolled in any school. Moreover, a considerable number of the vagrant class, even when enrolled as pupils, are likely to be irregular in attendance, or to remain in school but a short time. A vigorous application of the new truant law will be the corrective of all this class of evils.

We have been accoustomed to honor those pupils who maintain an unbroken attendance by printing their names in this report. The list for last year is as follows:

The culminating feature of a system of schools is the graduation, and the moving forward to higher grades, of its pupils. This is the visible product, so to speak, of the industry.

The following table puts these facts in a nutshell:

	Gram.	Prim.	Total.
Number in classes at close of school year	471	865	1336
Number unclassified	10	119	129
Number promoted at close of year	339	650	480
Number extra promotions (skipped grade)	7	4	11
Number passed half a grade	9	20	290
Number not passed (failed)	49	12	60
Number sent to lower grade during the year	27	7	32

This table may serve as a text for what follows. Let it be understood that the word "grade" in a school system means a year's work; (it is sometimes made to mean the pupils in a grade.) There is then a year's interval between any class and the class above it, or class below it. Now in order that all the members of a class be justly profited by the instruction, they should all be at or near the same point of advancement, and be about equally capable of mastering the subject of study. But the facts are far otherwise. In every class quite a section are unavoidably graded too low, and another section too high. Bright pupils are kept back waiting for the dull ones. They waste their time and lose the keen interest that comes of strong effort, while the dull pupils are goaded on to a faster pace than they can profitably travel. Health, temperament, different home conditions, make wide differences in the ability to get ahead in studies. The fifth item of the table shows that 290 pupils could not be promoted to the next grade but could be passed over half a grade.

With annual promotions the evil has been slightly lessened by permitting now and then a very bright pupil to skip a grade, or sending a dull one to a lower grade. But these means are limited in application, and sometimes hazardous. The fourth item in the table shows that only eleven pupils skipped a grade last year.

The only remedy for the evil is shorter class intervals. The plan proposed is the semester promotion, reclassification twice a year. This will at least cut the evil in two. Moving from one class to another either up or down will be comparatively easy. Perhaps the greater benefit will accrue to the bright pupils. They will be able to utilize their higher endowments, or better opportunities. The plan will also permit a closer classification and so raise the general standard of scholarship.

Our semester plan of school terms makes the conditions more favorable for the change here suggested. But there are difficulties yet in the way. Semi-annual promotions require that each grade in a school be divided into two sub-sections, a half year apart. But such division can not be made without additional cost for rooms and teachers, unless the several grades of a school shall number about 40 pupils each, so that the sub-sections need not be unduly small. Even now the plan cannot be operated in some of the ward schools, on account of the smallness of the grade classes; but we hope to extend the benefits of the plan by sending some pupils from the smaller schools to schools where the sub-classification exists.

"How can we improve the efficiency of our schools?" is the ceaseless refrain of all educational conventions and discussions. And the universal answer is "Improve the teachers." It is an age of warring educational doctrines and the battle makes much noise, but its importance is greatly subordinate to that of the equipment and quality of the teacher.

In primary and grammar schools it is an age of rapid evolution. The three R's of the old time school are being crowded to the wall by a troop of "thought" studies, mostly comprised under elementary science and literature. Therefore we must have a new order of teacher, a teacher with a new order of equipment and a new order of temperament and spirit. Our old time teacher must take in a new stock of mental furniture and breathe deeply the atmosphere and inspiration of the new education or the procession will move on without her. Our new teacher must remember that preparation for teaching implies much more than a high school diploma. It will not be enough that her classes pass examination on a set of questions in spelling, geography, arithmetic, etc., they must exhibit the scholarly spirit, the ambitious interest, the waked up mind. Mechanical lesson hearing must give way in the school

1057 W. Polk St., CHICAGO, Oct. 27, 1893.

THE OWEN ELECTRIC BELT AND APPLIANCE CO.:

Gentlemen—Solely in the interest of others who are, or may become similarly affected with myself, I venture to offer my experience with the use of the Owen Electric Belt, and that I am actuated entirely by that motive, must be apparent from the fact that until you see my name and address recorded on this letter you had no knowledge of either. I had long been a sufferer from chronic dyspepsia and nervous prostration, contracted or aggravated by many years residence in the East Indies. About three years ago I purchased one of your Belts in the hope that its use might afford me some relief, and wore it continuously as directed for about four hours every afternoon for a month or so, and the result was perfectly marvelous. My indigestion with all its attendant miseries, nervousness, depression, irritability and insomnia, from which latter I was a great sufferer, have disappeared. I then discontinued the use of the Belt (the existence of which I had indeed forgotten), until about six weeks ago, when a recurrence of my old trouble very forcibly reminded me of it. I again put it into wear (after ceasing its use for over one and one-half years), and with the same extraordinary results, being again restored to health, strength and vigor, after wearing it for only ten days. Under these circumstances I can most emphatically recommend to others suffering from the ailments which I have endeavored to describe, the adoption of the use of the Owen Electric Belt. I had long been aware of the curative powers of electricity from what I had read on the subject, and on my return to England I purchased from Pulvermacher of Regent street, London, the combined chain bands, of which he is the patentee, for which I paid three guineas, and although I must admit that I derived some benefit from their use, I am bound to say the general result did not approach the benefit derived from the use of the Owen Belt, besides which its utility is so great an improvement in comfort and convenience; Pulvermachers' being cumbersome and complicated in adjusting to the body, besides causing from being uncovered, blisters and sores, and above all not being able to regulate the current as is the case in the Owen Electric Belt. You are at perfect liberty to make what use you think fit of this letter, and I shall be glad to answer either verbally or by letter any inquiry made from me on this subject. I am, gentlemen,

Yours respectfully,

W. J. BRODIE.

BIG PROFITS ON Small Investments.

Returning prosperity will make many rich, but nowhere can they make so much within such a short time as by successful Speculation in Grain, Provisions and Stock.

$10 FOR EACH DOLLAR INVESTED can be made by our Systematic Plan of Speculation originated by us. All successful speculators operate on a regular system.

It is a well-known fact that there are thousands of men in all parts of the United States who, by systematic trading through Chicago brokers, make large amounts every year; ranging from a few thousand dollars for the man who invests a hundred or two hundred dollars up to $50,000 to $100,000 or more by those who invest a few thousand.

It is also a fact that those who make the largest profits from comparatively small investments on this plan are persons who live away from Chicago and invest through brokers who thoroughly understand systematic trading.

Our plan does not risk the whole amount invested on any trade, but covers both sides, so that whether the market rises or falls it brings a steady profit that piles up enormously in a short time.

Write For Convincing Proofs, also our Manual on successful speculation and our Daily Market Report, full of money-making pointers. All Free. Our Manual explains margin trading fully. Highest references in regard to our standing and success.

room to soul, life, individuality.

All this makes the duties of the appointing authorities more delicate and difficult, for they must constantly take into account, not only mental equipment but also the teaching ability and the teaching spirit or we cannot have good schools. Nothing in all the realm of sociology is more certain than that superior ability and skill in teaching are no more common and no more easily procured than are the same qualities in other professions.

We may here properly refer to some of the newer demands upon the grammar schools, which are agitating the educational world. Such authorities as Pres. Eliot and the famous "Report of the 'Committee of Ten'" would have about half of the studies of the High School brought down into the grammar department. Latin, German, French, Algebra, Geometry, Natural Science and Physics would thus take their beginnings in the grades below the High School. With ideal conditions such a scheme might be workable and measurably useful. As social conditions develop we shall probably see more in it to commend and apply; but for the present the scheme is, for the most part, impracticable.

Some of the ideas of the above plan we have adapted rather than adopted. In the eighth grade, along with arithmetic, we carry an excellent course in constructive geometry, and we expect to add some algebraic methods the coming year. In the same grade we have, for several years, given courses in geology and physiology with satisfactory results. Besides this, for two years past, we have permitted a few eighth grade pupils to begin Latin or French in the High School, when their previous record has been such as to justify expectation of success. No attempt was made to accommodate High School methods of instruction to the capacity of these pupils and apparently none was needed.

In the seventh and sixth grades it seems better to extend and accentuate such subjects as history, literature and geography, because of their wealth of interesting subject matter, suited to the needs of pupils at this stage of their education.

Improvements in the primary grades are especially directed to overcoming the difficulties of formal reading through a practical use of the phonetic, synthetic method; to making more complete and educative the course and instruction in nature study; and to bringing literature to bear more directly upon the aspirations and motives of the child in the successive stages of his school life.

The monthly meetings of the grade teachers, during the year, have been exceedingly profitable. The theoretical work of the meetings was done mainly with McMurry's "General Method"—a most suggestive and inspiring volume. Pedagogical studies do not insure good teaching, but we find, in general, that teachers do things better when they have a reason for doing them. I regard attendance upon these meetings essential to the successful operation of the schools.

There is much discussion in the educational world upon the merits of vertical writing, and the argument seems to be in its favor. The shorter loops and capitals, and simple forms of the letters, render it more economic of movement and so of nervous tension. It is certainly easier to learn, easier to write, and easier to read, than slanting writing. Some of our teachers have tested it during the past year, and all such heartily endorse it. I recommend that it be authorized in grades one, two, three and four, and that suitable copy-books be adopted.

A very interesting and praiseworthy exhibit of pupils' work in drawing was made at the close of the year in June. All the schools and grades were properly represented. The paper cutting and mounting in designs, the color work in lower grades, object drawing, drawings to illustrate nature studies, cast drawing, and fancy sketches of plans and scenes by the High School class, all showed the skilled teaching and the painstaking work of the pupil.

HIGH SCHOOL.

The High School did not reach its largest membership during the past year, but it graduated the largest class in its history. In all important respects the school enjoyed a prosperous year. Its courses of instruction and programs of work operated without stress or friction; the attendance was regular; the instruction was of a high character; the scholarship evinced by the several classes for the most part was excellent; while its administration was better systematized and ordered than formerly. Considering the size and complexity of the High School, it needs a well-considered, thorough organization, carefully planned methods of management and uniformity and precision on the part of teachers in carrying out adopted regulations. I know of no way to secure the successful on-going of such an institution (as of any other complicated establishment) but for each one with assigned duties to feel that its welfare depends upon his being always at his post ready for action.

The matter of secret fraternities in the High School may here be referred to, at least, as a matter of record. Theoretically there are no such societies at present among the students, because forbidden by a rule of the Board. Even if such fraternities have in them any good for the few, they are a serious detriment to the school as a whole and so must be prohibited. For a complete compliance with the rule on this subject we must in some cases rely upon the good sense and authority of the parents of our pupils.

Shall we continue our Athletic Association and the physical training of the past year? It is hoped that we may. The Association has been the source of some evil, but we believe it has prevented much more than it has caused. And as time brings knowledge and experience to our aid, we are learning how to conduct it so that it is more likely in the future to accomplish the end of its institution, and to be an honor to the school. The Board and our patrons may be assured that the Association is under healthful influences and safeguards.

The special classes, comprising elocution, singing and drawing were none of them large, but the instruction in all of them was excellent and greatly appreciated. I trust that proper provision may be again made for music and drawing. The action of the Board making elocution compulsory in the junior and senior classes for one semester each, is an important step and it is hoped will be rightly appreciated by pupils and patrons.

I may properly say here for general information that the Board have passed a resolution to the effect that no student shall take more than the regulation amount of work at one time as prescribed in the catalogue without the written approval of parent or guardian. It is hoped thereby to prevent some ambitious pupils from over-working, and to prevent others from taking more work than they can thoroughly perform.

As usual we here insert a table showing what branches have been taught the past year and the number in each branch.

At the close of the exercises occurred a very pleasing incident. Two busts of life size—one of Darwin, the other of Emerson—were presented to the High School by the Literary Societies. The presentation speech was made by Mr. Franklin G. Emerick; responses by Mr. J. E. Beal, President of the Board of Education, and by the Superintendent.

The Alumni Association held its annual meeting and banquet Friday evening of the same day. The attendance was large, and the exercises were unusually interesting. At the business meeting it was resolved to establish five scholarships in the U. of M. of $200 each. A committee consisting of J. E. Beal, J. V. Shehan and G. F. Allmendinger was appointed to formulate plans and to inaugurate the undertaking. This is a very important movement and ought to succeed.

The officers of the Association are as follows:

President—Horace G. Prettyman, class of '82.
Vice-President—Charles W. Wagner, class of '77.
Corresponding Secretary—Lucy E. Chapin, class of '76.
Recording Secretary—Ella M. Bennett, class of '89.

The bonded indebtedness of the district is $7,500.00, due as follows. $4,500.00 due Feb. 1, 1896; $3,000.00 due Feb. 1, 1897, bearing interest at 4%.

The two boilers which heat the High School building have been in use nineteen and twenty-four years respectively. Therefore they have become both expensive in repairs, and dangerous to the many lives directly above them. They were thoroughly examined and condemned, thus making it necessary to get new ones. In doing this the Board deemed it wise, on account of better safety, as well as to provide for future needs, when our rapidly growing schools shall require another addition to the High School building, to place the new boilers outside in the rear. This necessitates a building large enough for two boilers, and space for another when it shall be needed. It is estimated to cost five thousand dollars.

On account of the dampness in the basement of the Fourth Ward school it is not fit nor safe for the janitor to live there. Moreover, it occasionally happens that contagious diseases break out in the families of the janitors, thereby exposing the entire school. Accordingly it was thought desirable to erect a small house at the rear for the janitor's residence, not to exceed $800 in cost.

The Board recommends that the Trustees be authorized to issue the bonds of the district for $6,000.00 at 4% annual interest to become due Feb. 1, 1898, $3,000.00; Feb. 1, 1899, $3,000.00.

There is an increasing realization of the importance of making sound bodies to carry sound minds. To this end rational athletics are to be encouraged. Our pupils cannot use the University gymnasium, and having none connected with the schools we availed ourselves last year of the one in McMillan Hall. Here not only the pupils of the Grammar and High Schools received excellent instruction, but also the teachers of the primary grades, so that they learned the proper exercises to give the little ones. By a little assistance from the Board the expense was light on the scholars and on the district.

In line with physical culture comes the manual training. This we hope to have some day, but the expense is such that it was deemed advisable to wait for easier times. It seems important to teach the use of the saw, hammer, plane, turning-lathe, the sewing needle and plain cooking, the more thoroughly to equip for the varying duties of life, for they train the eye, the judgment and the muscles.

The continual increase in the number of children to be educated, occasioned by the constant growth of the city, is crowding the buildings more and more beyond their capacity. A slight relief will be given in the First Ward by the school room fixed up this summer in the brick dwelling house owned by the district.

All of the buildings have been put in good repair during the vacation. The old rubbish has been cleared out of the High School basement, and the property of the district is believed to be in good sanitary condition. The teachers in the Ward Schools keep up efficient fire drills, whereby any one of the schools may be emptied of its scholars inside of a minute after the gong sounds. Such drills lessen the danger of panics and jumping out of the windows, in case of sudden alarm.

The new rules adopted during the past year for the government of the High School are working to the advantage of the students and for better school room work.

Notwithstanding the amount of the Primary School Money was $500, less than was estimated to be received, the treasurer's statement shows a gain of over $2,000 from a year ago. Instead of an over-draft of $1,342, there is $700 cash on hand.

When it is considered what special demands come upon our schools because of their direct relation with the University—demands for apparatus, laboratories, special teachers, etc., it is with pride that we may regard their high standing among the similar schools of the land. It is also agreeable to the tax payers that by carefulness in expenditures the rate is kept lower than in other cities of like population. In 1893-94 the expenditures (less tuition received) for the pupils enrolled was $17.55 per capita. Other cities in the state were as follows: Adrian, $17.65; Alpena, $19.25; Battle Creek, $19.09; Bay City, $24.53; Coldwater, $21.13; Detroit, $24.08; Flint, $24.88; Grand Rapids, $20.87; Jackson, $20.19; Kalamazoo, $17.76; Lansing, $15.88; Manistee, $20.83; Monroe, $19.05; Muskegon, $26.95; Pontiac, $16.65; Port Huron, $18.02; Saginaw, $23.68; West Bay City, $35.88; Ypsilanti, $22.28.

The superintendent and teachers are doing strong work, and maintaining the standards of the best instruction of the day.

YPSILANTI SENTINEL.

About midnight Saturday, the motor crew discovered fire in a closet at the south end of the Presbyterian church sheds. They sounded an alarm, and the fire department responded in time to save the church, the Baptist sheds adjoining and C. L. Yost's barn. The Presbyterian sheds, however, and a barn on the Durry property abutting, were burned. The origin of the fire is unknown, but in all probability it was accidental. A cigar stub, a lighted match, or any one of a dozen different causes might have been the one.

Poisoning Dried Apples.

Consul Robertson at Hamburg, acting on instructions from the state department at Washington, has obtained permission from the chief of the Hamburg foreign office to procure samples and an analysis of any American dried apples which may in the future be confiscated on the ground that they are alleged to contain zinc. This action is taken with a view of stopping the confiscation of American apples by German authorities. He should do his duty fearlessly and remove the slander that Americans are willing to lose money putting expensive poisons in their food goods. Dried apples affect society. There is nothing like dried apples for a swell party.

The Heat in Kansas.

The heat the other day caused two rails on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, two miles west of Emporia, Kan., to spring about two feet out of line. The pressure was so great that the spikes were torn out and the bending of the rails caused such a loud report that the attention of some trackmen near-by was attracted, and a passenger train, then about due, was flagged just in time to save it. It was moving at a rate of 45 miles an hour and could not have been stopped in time if the trackmen had not been alert. A delay of an hour was caused. Two hours earlier trains Nos. 114 and 41, eastbound, met with similar delay in Osage county.

His head struck the front of the car with terrible force, bursting his skull and killing him instantly. The bicycle was not damaged.

Robbers Hold up a Union Pacific Express.

Bandits captured the eastbound overland flyer on the Union Pacific railroad near Gothenburg, Neb. The engine was cut off and sent forward in the regulation Jesse James order while the outlaws looted the train at their pleasure. They compelled the engineer at the point of revolvers to go back to the baggage car, open the door and gain admittance. The expressman was compelled to open the smaller safe. He could not open the larger combination safe and the robbers proceeded to blow the top off of it with dynamite. The express messenger says that the robbers did not get over $100 for their trouble. While they were using the engineer to get the express car open the fireman ran off with the engine to Gothenburg for assistance.

DISEASE GERMS.

The Minute and Mighty Microbe that Hides in Food, Air and Water.

The study of disease germs is the all absorbing topic among the leading physicians of today. Lurking in the food we eat, the air we breathe and the water with which we quench our thirst, are minute organisms which set up in the system diseases. Malaria is caused by peculiar disease germ. Dr. Hartman, President of the Surgical Hotel, has been making a special study of the disease germ which causes malaria. He finds chronic malaria to be caused by a different germ than causes acute malaria. This undoubtly explains why quinine fails to cure old cases of fever and ague. It also explains why Pe-ru-na so invaribly cures old malaria invalids who have sought all other remedies in vain.

Every one interested in the subject of malaria, chills and fever, fever and ague and ague cake, should send at once to The Pe-ru-na Drug Manfacturing Company for a free copy of a little book entitled "Chronic Malaria." This book is beautifully illustrated, showing five varieties of disease germs exactly as they appear under the best microscope. It also gives numerous cures and valuable information about malarial diseases.

People subject to malaria should remember that the malarial season is non upon us. Persons at all predisposed to this disease may, by taking a bottle of Pe-ru-na now according to the directions ward off many weeks' sickness. Pe-ru-na will prevent, as well as cure, chronic malaria, and no one subject to this most miserable of all diseases should neglect to take a course of Pe-ru-na in time to prevent an attack.

CAN TALK AGAIN.

Man Becomes Dumb for Several Weeks—Affliction Suddenly Removed.

George Sheppard of McKeesport, Pa., is again able to talk. He waked up the night of June 27th with a stinging sensation in his neck and found himself deaf and dumb. Doctors were baffled by the case. July 9th his hearing was suddenly restored. Still Sheppard's only means of communicating with persons was a pencil and pad. Saturday night he walked into the barroom of the National Hotel at McKeesport and wrote on his tablet that he wanted a drink of whisky and some pepper. This was supplied by the bartender. Then Sheppard sat down at a table and began to cry. In a few minutes he excitedly jumped up and began making peculiar noises with his mouth. Finally he could form words and in a few minutes was talking. Sheppard talked for two hours as fast as he could, saying he was afraid to stop for fear he would lose his speech again. He threw his pad and pencil in a corner and joined with his friends in celebrating his good fortune. Sheppard's case has attracted great attention from physicians, but none has been able to satisfactorily explain it.

Wants People to Eat More Bone.

One of the leading New York food reformers who would improve the diet of mankind has put out a proposition for the eating of bones, after they are ground fine. He holds that under the existing regimen the bones of the human frame are not properly supplied with the chemical elements needed to keep them in sound and vigorous condition, and that these elements can be most easily obtained by consuming the powdered bones of the animals ordinarily used for food. He would sprinkle a steak or chop, for example, with bone dust, after the manner in which it is sprinkled with salt and pepper, and he maintains that thus the taste of the meat may be greatly improved.

Serious Collision of Vessels Near Toledo.

As the passenger steamer City of Toledo was returning to Toledo from Put-in-Bay at 9 p. m. she encountered the schooner Magdalen, in tow of the tug Butler, in the straight channel just off Presque Isle, near Toledo. Signals for passing were given and apparently understood, for the tug at once sheered off, but in doing so gave the schooner a momentum which carried her on a bank of mud just as the steamer was abreast of her. She suddenly slid off the bank and veered into the City of Toledo, her jibboom striking the steamer just forward of her gangway, tearing away about 50 feet of her upper works. A panic reigned on board, the men acting like insane persons, but it was soon apparent that the vessel would not sink. Seven people were badly injured and about 50 received cuts and bruises. Mrs. John Sanderson, Annie Zimmerman, Jessie Jackson, Grace and Nellie Garwood, all of Ada, O., were probably fatally mangled, while James Parley, and Mrs. John Miller, of Bucyrus, were the others most seriously injured. The force of the collision disabled the paddlewheel of the steamer and she was towed into the dock. The damage to the steamer was about $3,000. The only damage to the schooner was the carrying away of her jibboom and some of her canvas.

Recent dispatches from Japan and China say that from all parts of China comes intelligence that the war has not produced the smallest preceptible effect on the nation. Some know nothing about it; others believe their country was victorious. The much predicted awakening of China is a myth.

About Knives.

A cheap Pocket-knife can be bought at every Store, but it is not the kind you want.

One dollar is the lowest price that a really good knife can be sold for. This column is placed in this paper to advertise the very best Pocket-knife ever sold. It is J. C. TIDMARSH'S Sheffield Steel Knife.

Never buy a knife only because it looks well. If blades are not the best Sheffield steel they will soon bend, no matter how they will look. Still, you want a fine-looking knife.

The United States law provides that only samples to agents and to the trade will be admitted free of duty. You can, therefore, see the advantage that I have in sending samples to agents over those who deal in Sheffield goods in America.

I am an advertising agent! I am entrusted with a certain amount to spend advertising these knives (the best value ever seen in America at One Dollar each). Now, the knife is its own best advertisement.

Imagine a Pocket-knife (3½ inches long) with the most beautifully-grained ivory handle—genuine African ivory mand with two blades of the very best Sheffield steel that will last a lifetime and cut like a razor. The tips of the handles are heavily plated with sterling silver. And then a very nice chamois leather case goes with each knife. Now, would it not be easy work selling this knife at One Dollar each? I know it would, for it looks as if it were worth two dollars.

And so it is if you compare it with the value offered in the ordinary Store.

Is not this knife its own best advertisement.

You can make $4 per day selling these knives. This is a genuine and straightforward statement. This is counting that you show it to only twelve buyers every day. And every one that sees it will say it is a good value for $1. The knives are sold to you at $8 per dozen; you sell them at $1 each.

I determined to use large sum of advertising money entrusted to me in sending out free samples to those who promise to act as agents for the sale of these knives

I will send you a free sample, but you must sign the promise at the foot of this column, and make a deposit to show that in asking for the knife you are acting in good faith

The deposit that I ask of you is 44 cents about half the wholesale cost of the knife, and less than one-third what you would have to pay for a knife like it, if you bought one.

Send the money by a Postal Order or one-cent stamps for 44cts., and put a five-cent stamp on the letter, which must not weigh more than one-half ounce.

The deposit of 44 cents will be placed to your credit, and will be deducted from your first order at the dozen rate.

I am an advertising agent, contractor and publisher with one of the largest Advertising businesses in the world, and absolutely guarantee to send, postage paid and duty free, the knife described labove free to anyone who signs the promise below, and sends it with the deposit as stated.

Let me advise you not to part with your sample, even if you should lose a sale at $1 by refusing, as it will take time to replace it. I could not send you another even if you sent the full $1. After the sample they can only be supplied to you by the dozen as there is duty on them to be paid.

Any English Banker can give you information about my high standing, or write to the publisher of this paper, who knows that I do a large and straightforward advertising business, and that I do exactly as I say.

I have taken this pace in this paper for three years! The first one answering this advertisement after this number of the paper has come out will, if he likes, have his name printed in this space as agent for these knives.

The Editor of the Springfield (Ohio) New Era writes, in his paper of June 29, 1894:—"I have received a sample knife from Mr. Sears, and am very much pleased with it. He is the owner of a very large advertising business in London, and is, I believe, perfectly responsible and straightforward."

Sign your name and address to the following, cut it out and send it with Postal Order or stamps for 44 cents, and you will receive by return of post the beautiful knife as described above.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. is on every wrapper.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR IN BOSTON.

Parade the Finest Ever Held in America —The Prize Drill—The New Officers.

Boston has just entertained one of the finest bodies of organized men ever gathered in the United States in time of peace. The tri-ennial conclave of the Knights Templar of America was held in that city of culture and baked beans and the American Athenians were amply repaied for the elaborate preparations they made to entertain the Sir Knights, of whom over 30,000 had made the pilgrimage to that city. The first great feature of the conclave after the arrival of the numerous commanderies was the parade, in which 25,000 Sir Knights participated.

It is estimated that fully 500,000 people crowded the streets of Boston to witness the grand pageant, and business was entirely suspended throughout the day. Boston has seldom if ever been so elaborately decorated. Practically every building along the line of of march was clothed in color, with appropriate mottoes and emblems intertwined with streamers and bunting. As the marching columns passed the reviewing stands before the Most Eminent Grand Commander McCurdy, of Michigan, and Gov. Greenhalge, of Massachusetts, and before Chief Marshal Lawrence and Mayor Curtis, many of the commanderies executed intricate military evolutions which won the admiration of the thousands of spectators who witnessed them. Detroit commandery, as special escort to Most Eminent Grand Commander McCurdy, attracted much attention and was vociferously cheered as they executed many difficult evolutions. Ohio was well represented, having 17 commanderies in line.

"Oh, my poor head," sighs many a weary mother, many a tired husband, many an overworked child,—and relief seems far away. The severity and frequency of headache in many instances leads the sufferer to despair of ever obtaining freedom from the painful affliction. Remedy after remedy is tried in vain, for still the malady "sticketh closer than a brother." There, is however, a specific for headache and neuralgia. It is Gessler's Magic Headache Wafers. Chronic headaches yield to them. Sold by John Moore.

BUT A SINGLE SHELL.

Yet Its Explosion Made Awful Devastation Aboard the Ship It Struck.

As the principal squadron circled around us, the range varied from 2,800 meters (nearly two miles) to perhaps 1,000, at times even less, writes Commander McGiffin of Chinese navy in Century magazine. At about 3 o'clock the Matsushima closed upon the Chen Yuen to about 1,700 meters, and we fired at her, from one of our 12.2-inch guns, a steel shell of five calibres' (5x 12.2 inches) length, having a bursting charge of nearly ninety pounds of powder. The Japanese flagship was struck by this missile, and as a burst of flame arose from her, followed by a great cloud of white smoke, hiding her entirely from view, our gun's crew yelled their satisfaction.

This shell indeed wrought frightful havoc. From the Japanese report it totally disabled the big 13-inch Canet gun and swept the decks. Several charges of powder for this gun had been massed on deck, and these, exploding, gave the gunners a true "hoist with their own petard." By this one shell forty-nine officers and men were instantly killed, and over fifty wounded; the gunnery lieutenant was blown into the sea, his cap and telescope being all trace of him ever found on the ship.

Two Things Up Brown Out West

During the thunderstorm at Butte, Mont., the other day lightning struck the residence of Fred C. Anderson, and a ball of fire entered the roof and passed back and forth through every room of the house, going through partitions like a ball of iron, and for fully two minutes it gyrated about the house, making eleven large holes in walls and ceilings, melting picture wires and other metal in the rooms. It finally passed out along the water pipes without setting fire to anything. There were five persons in the house at the time, but the only injury they suffered was a great fright and temporary deafness.

A Royal Calamity, if True.

A great sensation is caused by the report that Prince Edward, son of Prince George, Duke of York, and Princess Mary of Teck, and heir to the British throne, is deaf and dumb. The exact truth of the rumor it is not possible to ascertain. The child is a little over a year of age.

One of the Supposed Robbers Shot Dead.

George A. Smalley, supposed to be one of the C. & W. M. train robbers and the man who shot Detective Powers, was shot and instantly killed at McBain. Soon after Smalley arrived at McBain word was received from Charles Dunham, sheriff of Wexford county, to capture Smalley and hold him. A deputy with a posse of men at once surrounded the house of Ezekiel Brown, where he was in hiding. Smalley is known as a desperate character, but the men were armed for any emergency. Refusing to give himself up and reaching for his guns, which were in a belt on his body, he was shot, two balls striking him in the left side, killing him instantly. He had two of the best make pistols with full chambers and a belt filled with cartridges. No money was found on his person.

300 Russians Killed by Nihilists.

An explosion occurred at the Artillery barracks at Toola, capital of the government of that name, in Russia. Three hundred persons are said to have been killed, including many officers. The barracks are a heap of ruins. An examination into the cause of the explosion led to the discovery that the barracks has been undermined everywhere. Many arrests have been made of persons suspected of being implicated in the outrage, which is supposed to have been the work of nihilists.

Four Murderers Lynched.

Four murderers were taken from jail at Yreka, Cal., by a mob and lynched. A band of 250 citizens, mostly farmers, learning that the law would not be carried out, and engered over the atrocity of recent crimes, determined to take matters into their own hands. One of the victims was L. H. Johnson, who stabbed his wife to death. Another was Wm. Null, who shot Henry Hayter in the back with a rifle in a dispute over a mining property. The others were Louis Moreno and Garland Seemler, who are supposed to have murdered two prospecting companions for their money.

Niagara in Harness at Last.

After almost five years of work and the expenditure of more than $3,000,000, Niagara has finally been harnessed, and the power generated by the monster 5,000 horse power dynamos of the Cataract Construction company are now sending out the electricity for commercial use. The first power was delivered to the works of the Pittsburg reduction company, manufacturers of aluminum. Everything was found to work perfectly and great satisfaction was expressed by the officers.

A BABY

CONTRADICTS THE DOCTORS.

All Are Happy, Glad, and Well.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

The theories of physicians in regard to female complaints suffer a "Waterloo" very frequently, when sensible and thinking women take matters into their own hands.

Women are sometimes compelled to act for themselves, because of the suffering forced upon them by incompetent doctors, who are baffled by very simple complaints, because they are not the right sex to comprehend them.

Lydia E. Pinkham, when she gave to the world her Vegetable Compound, lifted women from the darkness into light. She placed within their reach a guaranty, not only of health, but of delicacy and self-respect.

The following letter is a little story where a "dear little boy" was the "Waterloo."

"I have taken three bottles of your Vegetable Compound, one package of Sanative Wash, one box of Liver Pills; and now I have a dear little babe four weeks old, and I am well. I have to thank you for this.

"I have spent $200.00 for doctors' bills without a cure. For my cure I only spent $5.00.

"I was once a victim of female troubles in their worst form. I have suffered untold agonies every month; had to stay in bed, and have poultices applied, and then could not stand the pain.

"My physician told me if I became pregnant I would die. I had bladder trouble, itching, backache, catarrh of the stomach, hysteria, and heart trouble, fainting spells and leucorrhœa. Can you wonder that I sing the praises of a medicine that has cured me of all these ills?" MRS. GEO. C. KIRCHNER, 351 Snediker Ave., Brooklyn, N.Y.

HE WAS NERVY.

And Didn't Shudder at the Thought of Besting the Innocent Conductor.

She was a business-like woman. There was nothing frivolous in her face, if I am any reader of countenances. She looked as if she could drive a bargain with the skill of an expert. She boarded a Main street car, walked calmly to the front corner, sat down and began to read a newspaper. After several other persons had got on, the conductor came forward to collect the fares. The woman did not look up from her paper. The conductor rang up a number of fares, and then began to look puzzled. Evidently his receipts did not correspond with the mental note he had made of the number he should collect.

"Did I get your fare?" he asked of a man sitting on the opposite side of the car. The reply was affirmative.

"And yours?" turning to his neighbor. Still an affirmative reply. The woman continued absorbed in her paper. The conductor looked hard at her several times, but evidently her sex saved her from an accusation of trying to beat the company. The conductor shook his head sadly, and returned to the rear platform. Then the woman stopped reading, and, with just the ghost of a smile on her face, began looking out of the window. I have seen men work the trick often, but this was the first time I ever saw a woman who had the nerve to do it.—Ex.

She Was Dressed Like a Man.

Dr. George M. Bassett, of Vandalia, Ill., and Miss Allen Bumgardner, alias Mattie Murphy, alias Mattie Howe, of Hillsboro, Ill., were arrested in St. Louis the other night, because the girl was masquerading in the attire of a young man. At the police station both declared their masculinity. The effeminate looking one was taken to the city dispensary, where the wise doctors soon discovered that the prisoner was a sure-enough woman.

"This is simply a spree, and I acknowledge the corn," said Dr. Bassett. "When I get out of here I shall go home to my family. I have two pretty little children, 4 and 6 lears old, respectively, and I love them dearly. While I cannot get along very well with my wife, yet I never dreamed of eloping with the young woman who is with me."

War Conditions in Cuba.

A prominent Cuban who left the island recently and is visiting New Orleans, says there is little doubt in his mind of the success of the revolution. The Spanish army is composed of very young men, who are not used to much exertion or a tropical climate. They are constantly harassed at night by small parties of insurgents, who prevent them from sleeping, and the sentry duty required is very heavy. The revolutionists live on the corn and other crops that grow wild in Cuba, and there are cattle enough in the deeper recesses of the forests to last an army two years. The hospitals in the larger cities are full of sick and wounded Spanish soldiers. Campos is virtually conducting a defensive campaign, and his hold upon some of the important towns is by no means secure.

Masters of Economy.

The Maine man who provides all his berry-pickers with spruce gum so that they won't eat berries.

The New Hampshire farmer who made his minister a present of a load of hay which was so weedy that the boys were going to burn it up.

The Harlemite who slept last night in the mantle of the darkness, to save the wear on the bed clothing.

The old gentleman in Indiana who had a tombstone made with six sides, on each of which were narrated the virtues of a dead spouse.

The wheelwright in New Jersey who returned an adopted boy to his parents because the lad wore out his shoes shuffling his feet on the floor.

It's a Grand Success.

The fact has been demonstrated by the thousands of testimonials the Mayers Drug Company, of Oakland, Md., has received since it has sent its famous Mayers Magnetic Catarrh Cure out to the sufferers of catarrh. No medicine has received such an endorsement from the people in so short a time as it did. The makers sell the medicine on business principles, and a patient is not required to buy the medicine by the dozen to get a cure. The Mayers' Magnetic Catarrh Cure sells for $1 per bottle, one bottle to last for a three months treatment. Three bottles is the highest record ever required to complete a cure. General catarrh one bottle is guaranteed. No cure no pay.

This is an unequalled offer and if you are a sufferer from catarrh get a bottle from your druggist, if no benefit derived costs you nothing. A prominent R. R. conductor speaks:

Cumberland, Md., April 29th, 1893.
To The Mayers Drug Co.,

Gentlemen:—Yours to hand, in reply will say that I have the highest regard for your Catarrh Remedy, my trouble is in a chronic form and expected to use more than one bottle. I used one bottle which removed the trouble from the head in good shape and am on the second bottle for throat trouble, if I should succeed with the latter as I did in the former I shall write you again in the near future. Hoping it will do for the suffering humanity what it did for me, I remain

Yours truly,

The Incomparable Chicago & Alton

In these United States of America at least, and it is highly probable that throughout the entire world, the official record for the safety and welfare of its passengers made and maintained by the Chicago & Alton Railroad cannot be surpassed if indeed it can be equalled.

Over its completely rock-ballasted, dustless roadway between Chicago and Kansas City, Chicago and St. Louis and St. Louis and Kansas City, eighteen magnificently appointed express trains are run on uniformly fast time every day. But in spite of this heavy passenger traffic the official records show that from December 4, 1879 to December 4, 1890, eleven years, there was no passenger, who was in place as a passenger, killed on Chicago & Alton trains. Moreover there was not a passenger seriously injured, to the extent of losing a limb, an eye or a member of any kind during that time.

During the entire period of the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago, when it was not an uncommon thing to find the usual passenger traffic of the road increased two, three and four-fold, and special excursion trains were very many, there was not an accident of any kind—a most remarkable record.

Besides being America's most popular railroad, the Chicago & Alton is the Pioneer Dining Car Line, the Pioneer Pullan Sleeping Car Line and the Pioneer Palace Reclining Chair Car Line.

Be sure that your ticket reads over the Chicago & Alton Railroad, when its matchless and direct lines can form the whole, or even a part of your journey.

WHY ARE WHEELER & WILSON'S "No. 9" SEWING MACHINES POPULAR?

BECAUSE LADIES BUY THEM LIKE THEM AND TELL THEIR FRIENDS.

Many ladies have used our machines twenty to thirty years in their family work, and are still using the original machines we furnished them a generation ago. Many of our machines have run more than twenty years without repairs, other than needles. With proper care they never wear out, and seldom need repair.

We have built sewing machines for more than forty years and have constantly improved them. We build our machines on honor, and they are recognized everywhere as the most accurately fitted and finely finished sewing machines in the world. Our latest, the "No. 9," is the result of our long experience. In competition with the leading machines of the world, it received the Grand Prize at the Paris Exposition of 1889, as the best, other machines receiving only complimentary medals of gold, silver and bronze. The Grand Prize was what all sought for, and our machine was awarded it.
