WHOLE NO. 1083.

BACK TO HER MOTHER.

MRS. PALTRIDGE DESERTS HER HUSBAND

And Returns to Ann Arbor—Two Weeks of Married Life Satisfies Her—All Parties Concerned are Silent as to the Cause of Separation—Sad Ending of a Hasty Marriage.

Two weeks ago THE REGISTER gave the particulars of a rather sudden, and what appeared to be a very romantic marriage between George Paltridge, of Kalamazoo, and Miss Mary Purfield, who for a long time was the well-known and popular clerk in Moore & Wetmore's book store. Paltridge had, some years ago, been a suitor for Miss Purfield's hand and had been accepted. A year ago another man, a highly respected young gentleman by the name of Wier, a senior law, came upon the scene. It was not long before Miss Purfield and Paltridge had a falling out and the former began to receive the attentions of Mr. Wier. It was rumored soon after that the prospective young attorney had won his first suit and that he and Miss Purfield were affianced. After commencement last June, Mr. Wier, who is said to be a man of considerable means, left for the west to select a location to practice law. It was generally believed by the friends of the young couple that as soon as Mr. Wier could locate he was to return and claim his bride. Paltridge, who, it seems, had never given up the idea of some day winning back his former fiancée, made the most of this opportunity. Two weeks ago he came here to see Miss Purfield. The result was that they were secretly married the next day at Ypsilanti under assumed names. The sensation that followed a few days later when these facts became known has already been mentioned in these columns. It is generally supposed that the matter was ended, and that in due time all would be forgiven and that the young people would live happily together. Such did not prove true, however. Last Saturday, just two weeks after the marriage, the young wife returned to her parents. It soon became known that when she left Kalamazoo it was with the intention of not returning to her husband. This caused another sensation and dame rumor has been spreading all sorts of stories in explanation of the young lady's unexpected conduct. Both the parties themselves and their friends maintain the most strict silence upon the matter, but there are rumors afloat hinting that the young lady had been hypnotized and that as soon as she came to fully realize what she had done she at once deserted her husband and fled back to her home. On the other hand, the friends of Mr. Paltridge maintain that there is nothing whatever in such reports and that his actions in the whole matter were blameless. Some of the latter's friends even go further and assert that the rejected lover is not entirely blameless for this state of affairs, that his sudden return to Michigan when he learned that Miss Purfield had married another, and the great interest he manifested in the lady who had rejected him is not just as it should be. Whether or not a reconciliation will be effected between the young husband and wife or whether a divorce suit will follow cannot yet be definitely stated.

Of Interest to Hunters.

The new deer law provides an open season from Nov. 1 to Nov. 25, inclusive, in all sections of the state. The killing of deer in the red coat or fawn in the spotted coat, is prohibited, as is also the killing of deer while in the water or by the aid of pit, pitfall, traps, dogs or artificial lights. The new deer license will entitle the holder to kill no more than five deer in any one year. A coupon from the license must be attached to each deer or portion thereof, in case of shipment, and must be detached from the license in the present of the shipping agent.—Ex.

Praises Its Enterprise.

The Ann Arbor Organ Co. is doing a good work by trying to create an interest in the study of music in district schools. They are issuing a very clever little pamphlet called "How to Teach the Little Ones to Sing," written by Miss Lucy K. Cole, teacher of music in the Ann Arbor public schools. They are pushing the work vigorously and are offering several valuable prizes to the schools showing the best knowledge of music, and hope to arouse sufficient enthusiasm to warrant offering still greater inducements in the future. This undoubtedly will be of great benefit to the schools and we hope also a great advertisement for the Ann Arbor organs.—Song Journal.

Public Meeting of the Anti-Tramp Society.

All citizens interested in the tramp question are invited to attend a public meeting to be held in the council room of the court house at eight p. m., Friday, September 27th. At this meeting the officers of the society will make their annual reports of the work and new officers will be elected. It is hoped that the matter will be fully discussed and that new members will join the society.

Those who have taken part in this work are convinced that the tramp nuisance can be abated with benefit to all concerned, including the tramp. They are desirous of securing the active co-operation of citizens to this end.

IN FULL PROGRESS.

SO FAR THE FAIR HAS BEEN A SUCCESS.

Good Weather Today and Tomorrow All That is Needed—The Entries Are Fully Up to the Number of Last Year—Good Attendance Yesterday.

The fair opened Tuesday with every prospect of being a success. The weather so far has been all that could be asked. If it will hold out until tomorrow night, the best fair ever held in this county will have ended in a complete success. The attendance yesterday, School Day, was large while the number of schools competing was larger than last year.

The School Day exercises were carried out without a hitch and were enjoyed by all. The music furnished by the Newsboys band, of Detroit, was an attractive feature. The race by dogs hitched to carts and driven by boys attracted much attention. The chariot race was also one of the exciting events of the day. One of the great drawbacks is the awful dust which is almost intolerable. The delightful shower last night will do away with that objection. Today is woman's day and will doubtless draw a large crowd.

The following from the Evening News in reference to the new company now in charge of the Toledo road will be of interest to all Ann Arbor people.

Durant, Mich., Sept. 23.—The Ann Arbor Railway Co., succeeding the Toledo, Ann Arbor & North Michigan, was organized Saturday at Durant. The directors are Wellington R. Burt, Wm. C. Murray and Benjamin Perkins, New York. All these New York directors are distinguished financiers, Simmons being president of the Fourth National bank, and president of the Panama Canal & Railway Co. and Columbia Steamship Co.; Lawrence, director of the Wabash; and so on.

All but Astor and Murry were present. Officers have not yet been elected. They went from here to Alma as guests of A. W. Wright, and left there Sunday morning for Frankfort and left Frankfort this morning on Ann Arbor ferry boat No. 2, for Milwaukee. General Manager Ashley is with them.

The new company is capitalized at $7,250,000, of which $4,000,000 is preferred stock. The bonded indebtedness will be $7,000,000.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 23.—The new name, "Ann Arbor railway," is received with great favor in this city. The business men smile and say: "Good as for Ann Arbor." One gentleman suggested that Toledo was of small importance, anyway, compared with Ann Arbor.

ANOTHER LECTURE COURSE.

The Lyceum Committee of the Y. M. C. A. have completed arrangements for a course of five entertainments to be given during the coming season. The character of the entertainments shows good judgement in the selection. These lectures and concerts will be held in the various churches in the city. Definite announcements as to where each will be held will be given later. The following is the list and the date upon which each is to occur:

- 1st. The Laura Dainty Entertainment..... Oct. 17.

An old man by the name of Root is an inmate of the county house. Some weeks ago the old man came to town and complained to a son that he had been terribly misused. Later the young man gave Shankland, the superintendent of the county house, a severe thumping. This resulted in an assault and battery case and may cause an investigation to be made into the treatment of the county house inmates.

Webster C. E. Resolutions on the Death of Will Tubbs.

As our Father has deemed it wise to call home our brother, Will Tubbs, our society has lost one of its valued members. And we hereby express our recognition of his services and upright character, and we believe the world has been made better for his having lived in it.

And we would offer our sympathy to the bereaved parents, brother and sister, and with them we have his Christian life as our consolation.

Several Vessels Sunk and Lives Lost.

The very sudden change from torrid summer to almost freezing autumn brought on a series of storms over the lake region which did a great deal of damage on land and lake. Reports of numerous vessels being in trouble have been received and in some cases they were utterly lost and a number of persons drowned.

The schooner E. R. Williams, iron ore laden, from Escanaba to Toledo in tow of the Santa Maria sank in the big gale on Green Bay, with all on board. Of the crew, only the names of Capt. Hutton and Maggie Bennett, the stewardess, are known, the crew of five men being strangers. The Williams was owned by L. L. Fay, of Elyria, O.

The schooner J. B. Comstock, in tow of the Viking, foundered off Standard Rock in Lake Superior in 400 feet of water. The crew was picked up in life boats by the steamer J. J. McWilliams and taken to the "Soo." Capt. McArter, of the Comstock, had one leg broken and four ribs stove in. The rest of the crew are uninjured. The lost boat was owned by A. W. Comstock, of Alpena.

The schooner C. H. Johnson went ashore at Gr see Cap. near St. Ignace, and was totally wrecked. She was going to pieces before she struck and the crew took to the yawl which at once filled. A distress gun roused Ambrose Corps and two sons, fishermen, who bravely put off and saved the struggling sailors. The woman cook was nearly dead with cold and fright, and had leaped from the schooner half naked. The sailors lost all they possessed.

The big steamer C. W. Elphicke, with ore from Duluth, almost foundered in Lake Superior. The cabin and boiler house were stove in, the boats torn from their davits, a hatch wrenched loose, the hold half filled with water and the steering gear broke, but she managed to reach Marquette.

HERE ARE SOME REMARKABLE CASES.—The other day a wagon maker, who had been dumb for years, picked up a hub and spoke; and a blind carpenter reached out for his plane and saw; and a deaf sheep ranchman went out with his dog and herd; and a noseless fisherman caught a barrel of herring and smelt; and a forty-ton elephant inserted his trunk into a grate and flue.

NO SECRET ABOUT IT

This is an advertisement, and if you never read ads, better stop now and not read this one. It is written to tell you about the Clifford Piano. We think you ought to know more about this instrument. If piano buyers would take half the trouble to find out the good in our piano that we have taken to make it good, nine out of ten of them would buy it.

THE CLIFFORD PIANO

Is made by the Clifford Piano Co., of which Mr. Clifford C. Chickering is superintendent, and in which some of the principal stockholders in our company are interested. Mr. Chickering studied piano making for over twelve years in that famous factory of Chickering & Sons, of Boston, a part of the time receiving instruction in scale drawing and acoustics, of his cousin, the late C. Frank Chickering, president of that company.

WE HAVE FULL CONFIDENCE

In the merits of this instrument. It contains the best material, is constructed by the best workmen, and has a tone which cannot but please the most cultured musician. The price is not high if quality is worth anything and quality is everything in a piano. Call and examine it, or write for our booklet about pianos.

HEROES HONORED.

CHICKAMAUGA'S BATTLEFIELD VISITED BY THOUSANDS.

Several States Dedicate the Monument Erected to the Memory of Their Slain.—The National Park Dedicated with Very Impressive Ceremony.

It was 32 years ago that a three days' battle—one of the most sanguinary of the rebellion—was fought on the now historic battlefield of Chickamauga. Thousands of heroes were slain and now their living comrades are doing honor to their memories by erecting numerous and beautiful monuments upon the spots where they fought for their country. The United States has secured a large amount of territory comprising the battlefield and the states of Michigan, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota and other states of the heroes slain have erected the monuments and given them into the keeping of the government.

The city of Chattanooga was filled with thousands of old veterans of both the north and the south and thousands of other visitors on the occasion of the dedications and a grand reunion of the blue and the gray was held. The first of the series of dedicatory services was conducted by those representing the state of Michigan. On Snodgrass hill, where was established the headquarters of Gen. G. H. Thomas, "the rock of Chickamauga," some of the hardest fighting of the three days occurred and it was here that many of the sons of Michigan shed their life blood for their beloved country. A large multitude gathered here when the simple ceremonies of the dedication were held. Capt. C. E. Belknap, chairman of the Michigan commission called the gathering to order, and after prayer by Rev. Washington Gard-Mr. Belknap made the formal presentation to Gov. Rich who gave a very pleasing address and then presented the monuments to Gen. J. S. Fullerton as the representative of the national Chickamauga park commission. After Gen. Fullerton had responded Col. Henry M. Durfield delivered an address descriptive of the battles of Chickamauga, Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge and the heroic part which the Michigan troops took in them.

Gov. Rich and the Michigan commission then visited the various Michigan monuments which are as follows: Ninth Michigan Infantry, on the ridge overlooking McFarland's gap, the scene of the battle Sunday, Sept. 20, near where the regiment formed a line checking the right wing rout. Eleventh Infantry, Snodgrass hill, where desperate fighting occurred. Twentieth Infantry, Snodgrass hill, to the right of the Eleventh, where the regiment lost 45 men in a desperate encounter. Thirtieth Infantry, in the open field in front of the viaduct where the regiment lost 102 men, September 19, 1863. Twenty-first Infantry, near the base of Lytle hill where the regiment lost 107 men Sept. 20, and the scene of Gen. Lytle's death. Tenth Infantry, at the base of Orchard Knob, scene of the battle of Chattanooga, Nov. 24-25. Second Cavalry, at the Glen house. Fourth Cavalry, on the site of Jay's mill, on the Reed's bridge road where the desperate fighting of September 19 and 20 took place. Battery A, Loomis' battery, near Lafayette road, where Sept. 19, the battery lost its commander, 25 men, 35 horses and five guns. Battery D, Church's battery, near the Poe house, the scene of its hardest fighting, Sept. 20, and where the battery suffered heavily. Engineers and Mechanics, in the custom house lot in Chattanooga, facing Lookout Mountain. This regiment performed important work and much of the credit of the final victory of the union army there is given them.

There are, in addition to the 11 monuments, 13 granite shafts three feet high, marking subordinate positions of the various Michigan commands during the battle.

The veterans of Ohio took possession of Snodgrass hill as soon as those from Michigan had finished. General John Beatty, president of the Ohio commission, presided. Bishop Joyce offered prayer and Gen. Charles H. Grosvenor addressed the gathering. Short addresses were then made by ex-Governor Campbell, who was governor at the time the commission was created, Hon. J. S. Gill and Hon. J. S. McElroy. Gen. Aquilla Wiley made a short address formally turning the monuments over to Gov. McKinley, who in turn transferred them to the national government. Gov. McKinley dwelt upon the deeds of the Buckeye boys. Brief addresses were made by Hon. Andrew Jackson, Col. Watson and Frederick Wendell, members of the commission. Several thousand people, principally from Illinois or those who had served in Illinois regiments, were present to witness the ceremonies at their monuments. Col. H. S. Reeves, president of the Illinois commission, called the meeting to order. Prayer was offered after which Gov. Altgeld was introduced and made his address turning the monuments over to the government. Responses were made by Col. Smith D. Atkins and Col. J. G. Everest. Illinois monuments were dedicated on the site where Widow Glenn's house stood during the battle.

The exercises attending upon the transfer of the Indiana monuments to the government took place at Lytle all, so-called in memory of the death of Gen. Lytle. Gen. M. C. Hunter presided and Hon. D. R. McConnell made the address placing the monuments in the hands of Gov. Claude Matthews, who transferred them to the government. Gen. Lew Wallace and Gen. L. N. Walker, commander-in-chief of the U. S. A. R., spoke and the ceremonies closed with a salute fired by several regiments of the Indiana militia. Massachusetts monuments were dedicated at Knob Hill. The ceremonies were simple and impressive, Gov. F. T. Greenhalge presiding.

The Chickamauga National park is one of the most notable in existence. It extends from Sherman Heights, Tenn., to Glass Mills, Ga., a distance of miles and when completed will contain 19 square miles. Ohio has 34 monuments, Indiana 37, Illinois 33, Michigan 11, Wisconsin 9, Minnesota 3, Missouri 3, Kansas 3, Massachusetts 1, U. S. regulars 4. Besides these New York will erect 20, Pennsylvania 18, Tennessee 4 and Connecticut 2. About 300 historical tablets are already in place and others, giving locality and distance, number, etc. Each battery engaged is being marked by at least two guns, and 150 guns are mounted in strategic positions of the batteries and 400 guns are now on the ground ready for mounting.

The ninth national encampment of the Sons of Veterans assembled at Knoxville, Tenn. Commander-in-chief William B. Bundy, of Cincinnati, presided. Every state division, with the exception of the Colorado, California and Oregon were represented, any of them are men of national importance. The city was one mass of flags and bunting and at night was brilliantly illuminated. The parade (Sons of Veterans was accompanied by Govs. McKinley of Ohio; Upham, of Wisconsin, and Woodbury, of Vermont, and Past Commander-in-Chief Lawler, of the G. A. R., each with their respective staff officers.

BLUE AND GRAY UNITED.

The Dedication of Chickamauga National Park a Most Unique Affair.

Thirty-two years of peace and prosperity have passed since Chickamauga battlefield was made a consecrated spot to hearts of all true Americans by the spilling of the life blood of over 35,000 heroes, and now the love of a reunited nation has made of that spot a national park to be ever retained as a memento of the fact that the last vestige of strife and hatred between the North and the South has been forever wiped away. The ceremonies of the dedication of Chickamauga park while they were simple were extremely impressive and many were the tears of joy shed by the grizzled veterans of the blue and the gray as a U. S. infantry band struck up the "Star Spangled Banner," immediately after the national salute of 44 guns had been fired from Snodgrass hill. The exercises were held at Snodgrass hill because its side formed a national amphitheater and it was here that 32 years ago for a mile the top and side were so thickly covered with dead that one could walk all over it stepping from one prostrate body to another. Among the distinguished participants were Vice President Stevenson, Secretary of the Navy Herbert, Secretary of the Interior Smith, Attorney General Harmon, Postmaster General Wilson, the governors of 13 states and scores upon scores of renowned men who took part in that great struggle. Fully 75,000 people were assembled when Vice President Stevenson was introduced and made the opening speech. After prayer by Rt. Rev. Bishop Gailor, of Tennessee, the vast gathering sang the national hymn "America," and they sang it as though they were inspired. The blue turned to the gray and as their hands clasped in brotherly grip the tears flowed down their cheeks as together they joined their voices in that beautiful anthem.

Gen. John M. Palmer, the venerable senator from Illinois, who risked his life on this battlefield, made the first dedicatory address. When he came forward his voice was husky and had a tremulous sound, but he told the story of the battle of Chickamauga, saying the names of but few of the fallen were known, but the courage and gallantry of all could be remembered.

After another patriotic tune the battle-scarred veteran of the confederacy, whom Lee called his "right arm," John B. Gordon, of Georgia, was introduced. He was greeted with no less applause than accorded Gen. Palmer, and he spoke with fully as much enthusiasm and patriotism.

Gen. James Longstreet then spoke upon foreign encroachments upon American soil. When he had finished the vast concourse sang "An'd Sang Lyne," and the exercises closed.

An enormous circus tent once used by Barnum was used for the reunion of the Army of the Tennessee, Union and Confederate, and it was jammed for two nights with veterans who came to hear their old leaders give patriotic addresses.

Gov. Uphams Broke His Leg. Gov. W. Upham, of Wisconsin, fell while going up Lookout Mountain, and broke his leg. He stepped upon the skirt of his daughter's dress, causing him to fall.

The Closing Exercises. The ceremonies of the last day of the battlefield park dedication opened with a grand civic and military parade. The visiting cabinet officers, governors and their staffs and the various military organizations took part. It brought more people into Chattanooga than had been there at any one time since the dedication began. The formal exercises of the day were held in the big Barnum tent near the government building and were presided over by Vice President Stevenson. After music Rev. Dr. S. T. Nicollis, of St. Louis, offered prayer. The first address was by Geo. W. Ochs, mayor of Chattanooga. Then Senator Bate, of Tennessee, delivered an eloquent oration. Next there was music and then Gen. Chas. Grosvenor, of Ohio; Gov. Morton, of New York; Woodbury, of Vermont; Matthews, of Indiana, and Turney, of Tennessee, each made short addresses.

The Alderman from the seventh ward, Mr. Butterfield, whose remarks in the Common Council were made the subject of an editorial in the Argus of last week, and who was expressly invited to reply thereto, is a believer in the motto of the statesman who held that public officials, when assailed by the press, must trust in the main their defense to the press; and he therefore declines to enter into any newspaper controversy over the alleged extravagance of the city government or comparative disbursements of the public funds.

The Toledo, Ann Arbor and North Michigan railroad company having become a thing of the past, and a new company having come into control of the road, it is to be hoped that a radical change will be made in the heads of the departments. With men in some of these positions whose vision is not as broad as a copper cent it is not surprising that the road has never prospered.

PROTECTION sentiment continues strong and active in the great West. In the South it is also developing more and more. Why? Because the value and benefit of manufacturers are better known and understood among places that have few or no factories, than in industrial centers of the East.

Upon the point that this council is in no way responsible for any increase in taxation, which was the only proposition for which the alderman contended, the Argus makes no question but that he was strictly correct; and he need not therefore feel called upon to make any qualification of what was said upon the occasion referred to.

We are reminded of the phrase of the Roman scribe: "Parturient montes, nascetur ridiculus mus." Nay, the mountains have been in labor, and a mouse is born. And in this connection we would respectfully call attention to the fact which must have eluded the gaze of the Argus with his hundred eyes that the present council, under the advice of the city attorney, has paid to Lawrence V. Smith, of Schoolcraft,

Michigan, the sum of one thousand dollars as compensation for injuries sustained by her by reason of the failure of some previous council to maintain the sidewalks in a suitable state of repair, and in settlement of litigation which had been pending since 1893. When we credit the present officials with this extraordinary sum which the council of 1894 was not required to meet and which cannot, in fairness, be called an expenditure by the present administration, and when we further remember that the present administration has secured a contract for the distribution of electric light in the city at a saving to the tax payers of about $6,000 in five years it would seem that the worthy Argus, like the warrior of old, is "hoist by his own petard."

ONE of the cuckoo organs stepped to the little door and with flapping wings shouted: "The great corn crop will make good old-fashioned Democrat times." Indeed, and did it allude to the times when for want of a market, "corn was burned"? Those were good old-fashioned Democrat times, but they are out of fashion now.—Grand Rapids Herald.

THE cable letters from London tell how the Englishmen are making much of Americans this year. They can afford to on the bond deal alone, to say nothing of the great revival of British manufacturing and trade consequent upon the passage of the Gorman-Wilson bill. Englishmen would be ungrateful dogs not to coddle the innocents they pluck.—Salt Lake Tribune.

THE N. Y. Central and Hudson River railroad company recently took a hand at record smashing and it came out in this, as it does in everything else in railroading, at the top of the heap. A heavy passenger train left New York City at 5:40 a. m. and arrived at Buffalo in just 407 minutes, making a run of 436 1/2 miles at the rate of 64 1/2 miles per hour, including all stops. This is setting the proper example to other roads.

THE Czar of Russia has decided to take into his own hands the business of liquor selling throughout the entire Russian Empire. The fact that the Russian peasants were becoming almost universally teetotalers has prompted this course on the part of the new Czar. It is rather unexpected to see Russia taking the lead in the control of liquor selling. The Czar may yet surprise other nations by making Russia a prohibition country. If he should decide to do so we shall most certainly have a place where prohibition does prohibit and there will be no doubt about it.

CARRIED away by its Free-Trade enthusiasm, the New York World said recently: "Yesterday was the banner day of the Custom House. The entries for customs were 1519 and the receipts were $438,265.95. No day in the history of the customs at New York, under the McKinley bill, approached these receipts within $50,000."

As for ourselves, we would much rather hear of "banner days" at American factories, on which more goods would be made and more wages paid than ever before. There is something absurd in this boasting of the influx of foreign goods at a time when many worthy people are out of work and many more are working for low wages.

THE "harnessing of Niagara" has been a dream of the engineer for two hundred years, yet only within the past few months has the dream become a reality. In some respects, at least, no other waterfall in the world possesses such exceptional advantages as does this great American cataract. At Niagara about 300,000 cubic feet of water plunge over a precipice one hundred and fifty feet high, every second, and this supply, coming from the great lakes, which drain 300,000 square miles of territory, is beyond the power of any drought to affect. The area of possible power transmission from Niagara, the power being electricity generated by immense turbine wheels at the falls, is all the territory within a radius of five hundred miles. This will include all New England, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Virginia, Maryland, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, parts of Illinois (including Chicago) Kentucky and Wisconsin, and the Canadian provinces of Ontario and Quebec. The present power station at Niagara, now approaching completion, is designed for the reception of ten turbine wheels, each, with its appropriate generator, capable of delivering a current of 5,000 horse-power. This station will not use one-hundredth part of the available power of the falls, which can be utilized as soon as a there is demand for it. It has been estimated that an electric plant, using coal and steam to run the dynamos, can furnish a current for about $50 per horse-power, per year. The Niagara company offer to furnish it for $18 per horse power.—Ex.

W. C. T. U. For God, and Home and Native Land. Edited by Mrs. A. E. Van Valkenburg, Press Superintendent. The next regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held two weeks from today in the Young Woman's Christian Association rooms over the post-office. These rooms have been offered for the use of the society during the coming year, and one meeting will be held in them, that a decision may be reached as to their desirability for the purpose compared with those previously occupied.

THE UNIVERSITY Y'S. Miss Otis of the University Y's gave a very interesting talk last Thursday on "The relation of the Y's to the W. C. T. U." She said this relation was a very close one, that of a child to a parent, and in view of this relationship she wished to talk over and consult in reference to some new lines of temperance work which their society hoped to take up the coming year. She gave a brief account of their branch of the society and expressed regret that their college work debarred them from attending W. C. T. U. meetings often and getting better acquainted and more in sympathy and touch with the lines of work pursued.

Miss Richards, the president of University Y's was invited to be present at the next W. C. T. U. meeting and give a talk on some phase of their work. Y'S OR YOUNG WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION. This department of the W. C. T. U. aims to enlist young women to form separate societies (Y's) for the purpose of making total abstinence a fashionable social custom, to the end that young men may be held to a higher standard of personal habits, and thus by a power, analogous to that which has effectually restrained their sisters, be shielded from contamination; also to teach young women the scientific and ethical reasons for total abstinence, and to develop a new army of trained temperance workers to whom the care of the children's work may at once be instructed, and who will eventually replace the veteran of the W. C. T. U.

The University Y's, although not large in number, are to be congratulated on the good work accomplished, notwithstanding their busy college life. SCIENTIFIC TEMPERANCE INSTRUCTION. Mrs. Lucy D. S. Parker, superintendent of "Scientific Temperance Instruction," gave at the last W. C. T. U. meeting a very complete and comprehensive history of the organization and workings of this very important department, which aims to secure such legislation, local and state, as shall make the study and teaching of the laws of health, with special reference to the effect of stimulants and narcotics upon the human body, obligatory throughout the entire system of public education. From the first compulsory temperance educational law enacted in Vermont in 1822 she went through the work year by year, until in 1895 when only three states remain in which temperance instruction has not become compulsory; over twenty million children receive by law the benefit of these instructions, and there are twenty-five revised and endorsed text-books.

Four of the Canadian Provinces by legislative enactment, and others by order of the Boards of Education require this study in their public schools as do Finland, Sweden and other countries show more or less interest aroused in making Physiological or Scientific instruction a part of the required education of the young. Among these countries are England, France, Germany, Russia, Denmark, Bulgaria, Turkey, India, Siam, China, Japan, Hawaiian Islands, New Zealand, South Africa and Australia.

After reading the history of her department, Mrs. Parker recommended the purchasing of a large number of pamphlets, published monthly on this subject, for the use of teachers, by the W. C. T. U. These pamphlets she wished placed in the hands of Ann Arbor teachers, trusting thereby to answer greater interest in the work. The society voted the necessary means to carry this recommendation.

BISMARCK. Germany's Great Leader Speaks A Startling Truth.

AND GIVES A LESSON WE WILL DO WELL TO HEED.

He Says, "Blood and Iron Rule the World."

JUST WHAT THIS MAY MEAN TO EVERY ONE OF US.

Such Startling Words Bring the Truth Home to Us.

When Prince Bismarck, Germany's great leader, said, "The world is not ruled by parliaments and political meetings, but by blood and iron," he uttered a truth, the extent of which few comprehend. The world is ruled by race—race is ruled by blood—pure blood. All genius and all talent, in war and in peace, is dependent on the conditions of the blood. It is the main spring of individual force and power. It vitalizes or enervates the physical and mental strength. We speak of blooded stock in the animal kingdom; it will apply with equal force to the human race.

When Greece was full of vital energy, when she cultivated her physical health she became mistress of the world, and her great Alexander wept for other words to conquer; but when she became effeminate a horde of barbarians overran and destroyed her, leaving behind them a path of mournful ruins. In tainted blood, impure and weak, was written that nation's sad epitaph. So queenly Rome and many another nation has suffered in the loss of physical prowess and been destroyed or hurt. We need, both as a nation and as individuals, to take this important lesson to ourselves. Be well and keep so; mend up the waste places; strengthen the nerves and purify the blood. Then, long life is assured; good work in the world will come, and you will know the blessing of sound body and happy mind. Nothing has yet been discovered to accomplish this like Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.

The great Bismarck did no more for Germany in discovering her elements of unity and enforcing them, than has this distinguished specialist done for mankind in discovering his wonderful remedy for all blood ailments and nerve weakness, giving health and strength and happiness to all who will take it and be cured of their suffering. Do not fail to improve this fortunate opportunity. Take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and you can be well and strong, strong to conquer what end you undertake in life.

Mr. F. A. Arnold, of Woodsville, N. H., says: "Three months ago I was in a very debilitated state. My stomach refused to act, and after eating I suffered pain from indigestion. My blood was in a very low state, and I was in no condition to work. I did keep around, but suffered continually. My kidneys bothered me considerably, and I had continual pain in the small of my back. I was considerably discouraged about my condition, and feared that I should be obliged to give up work. I heard of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and its wonderful results upon others, and I determined to try it.

"I had no faith in the virtues of the remedy when I began the use, but now I am rejoiced to say that I cannot help having faith, for it completely cured me, and I work with comfort every day. "My business is railroading, which I could not do if it had not been for Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and I gladly recommend it to all." Why waste time in trying uncertain and untried remedies, when here is a physician's prescription, a discovery made by the greatest living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City. If you take the medicine you can direct yourself under Dr. Greene's direct professional care, and you can consult him or write to him about your case, freely and without charge. This is a guarantee that his remedy will cure, possessed by no other medicine in the world.

Among the prizes offered by the Washtenaw fair for the great bicycle event Friday, the 27th is a pair of boxing gloves. It is said that 128 young men who are to teach school in that county the coming winter, have entered for this prize.

Over 3,000 business men of Ann Arbor have pledged themselves to close their business places on the last day of the fair, Friday next. The directors will save all the melons, peaches and pears, for them and photographs of the hogs at the show will be taken, and placed with the photos of those business men who do not close, so that everyone can see the Washtenaw county swine display. Nothing but an earthquake or hurricane will prevent the Washtenaw fair from being a success.

MICHIGAN MENTION.

BRIEF ITEMS ABOUT MICHIGAN PEOPLE AND THINGS.

The Strike of Iron Miners in Marquette County Has Come to an End by the Strikers Surrendering Unconditionally—But Few of Them Can Obtain Work

The long and stubborn strike of the iron miners of Marquette county which was inaugurated July 16 is at last broken and the strikers have returned to work as soon as the mine owners are ready for them. There had been namblings of discontent among the strikers for two or three weeks, many of them wishing to return to work at the scale recently offered by the owners, but they feared for their lives to do so or even to voice their sentiments very extensively and it was only within the last few days of the strike that those in favor resuming work made much of a show of numbers and when they did finally secure the privilege of taking a vote on the question over 1,300 of the strikers assembled at the union park between Ishpeming and Negaunee. After several speeches a vote was taken which resulted in a majority of just 100 in favor of ending the strike. There was a big cheer from the winners and groans from the losers. It was decided to wait until an official declaration of the end of the strike had been made before applying at the mines for work. The men have the consolation of knowing that they return to work at wages about 20 per cent higher than those they were getting when they went out, but they reflect with some bitterness that they might just as well have been working at this advance for the past seven weeks. It is evident that out of the 4,000 men out, not more than 2,500 can be given employment during the next three or four weeks. Many of the mines are partly filled with water and the largest of the Negaunee mines will not be opened. There is no doubt that the mine bosses of Ishpeming and Negaunee, in selecting their men, will boycott the leaders and the more turbulent among the strikers. The strongest prejudice seems to be against the Cornishmen.

The strike thus ended has been the longest and concerned more men and industries than any that has ever taken place in the iron industry of Michigan. During the hard times of 1893-4 wages were cut down until the miners were getting a bare subsistence. There were no complaints during those times, but when the times began to brighten last spring and the price of iron ore to rise the miners grew dissatisfied and in May made a demand for an increase in pay. It is now conceded that had a raise been granted at that time a strike would have been averted, but the mine owners offered nothing until the strike was inaugurated and then they offered a 20 per cent advance. The miners then wanted their union recognized but this the owners refused to do and there the matter stood until the strikers surrendered.

Three Children Killed in a Tornado.
 A tornado struck Port Austin and did a great deal of damage. Chimneys, trees, fences and grain was blown down. The windmill at Point of Pines hotel was blown to atoms. At Pinnebog the house of Richard Tott was demolished and three children sleeping upstairs were instantly killed. Mrs. Itchu's four barns and orchard were destroyed at Kinde. At Sand Beach two houses and 12 barns were blown down, the depot badly damaged by lightning and nearly every building in town damaged in some way. The grandstand at the fair grounds at East Tawas was wrecked by the wind as were several barns and Richard Evans' house, and several farm houses were unroofed. Lightning destroyed John Curry's barn near Lexington.

A terrific storm of wind, thunder, lightning and rain visited Charlevoix, demolishing one house, unroofed two others, blew down outhouses, trees and fences, but injured no one. Traverse City also had a taste of it and several of the tents of the soldiers' and sailors' encampment were carried away. At Williamsburg Geo. Tray's home was destroyed, as were three barns. Jacob Palzer lost his home by lightning at Saugatuck and Robert Brown's barn at Cass City went the same way.

Michigan M. E. Conference.
 Albion has been entertaining the sixtieth annual session of the Michigan M. E. conference, which comprises the western half of the lower peninsula of the state. Bishop Hurst, chancellor of the American university at Washington, D. C., presided, with Rev. Thomas Fox as secretary. The Epworth League work was made one of the features of the conference and the local league gave a reception. The reports of presiding elders showed that churches were prospering, and when the canvass was completed it was shown that every charge was in favor of women having a seat and voice in the annual conference. Bishop Hurst secured $3,000 in pledges for the American university. Albion college was reported as being in first-class condition.

The lay conference was also in session with a good attendance.

Wm. Arndt, aged 18, was drowned while sailing at Sand Beach.

Hiram A. Walters, of Detroit, for 40 years a locomotive engineer died suddenly near Linden with his hand on the throttle.

The schooner Penokee which was reported lost between Port Huron and Milwaukee has arrived at the latter port in safety.

A mistake of a teamster, employed by E. R. Sly & Co., of the Bay Shore lime kiln at Petoskey, nearly resulted in the death of E. R. Sly, Jr. A load of limestone was dumped into an empty kiln where Mr. Sly was at work, and bruised and burned him so severely that his life was despaired of.

Peary's Relief Expedition Has Returned

The Peary relief steamer Kite has arrived at St. Johns N. F., with Lieut. Peary and his companions from Greenland, on board. When the Kite reached Whale Sound on August 3, Lieut. Peary, Hugh J. Lee and their colored servant, Matt Henson, were found waiting for it. The party had only 10 days previously returned from their great overland expedition, which had proved a comparative failure, owing to the failure of their food supplies. They had to live on what they could kill. Lee became ill and the dogs had to be shot to prevent them starving. Only one of 49 dogs was brought back alive.

Spanish Warship Sank at Havana.

The Spanish warship Sanchez Barcizetegi, with Admiral Delgado Parejo aboard, was struck by the incoming coasting steamer Mortera in front of Moro castle at Havana, Cuba, and sank almost instantly. Admiral Parejo and 34 of the crew and officers were drowned. The remainder of the crew, 116 in number, were saved. The Sanchez Barcizetegi was an iron bark-rigged cruiser of 920 tons displacement. She was built at La Seyne in 1876. She was 203 feet long, 30 feet wide and had a draft of 12 feet. She carried seven guns.

The Lord Downshire Sank - 40 Drowned.

It is now generally conceded that the unknown four-masted steel ship, with which the British ship Prince Oscar collided July 13 last, in latitude 9.30 south, longitude 28.30 west, sinking her with all hands, is the Lord Downshire, of Belfast, which is commanded by Capt. J. C. McMurray, well-known at Philadelphia. The Lord Downshire, the ship that is supposed to have been the ill-fated craft, carried a crew of about 40 men, and all must have been lost.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

Dun's says: In spite of gold exports wheat advanced for some days, in all nearly two cents, merely because a single speculator bought, but it fell again. Corn rose and fell in sympathy with wheat, with a little reason. Good reports of foreign crops, weakness of flour in Minnesota and large exports of corn from this country, all work against a rise in wheat. The surprising increase in production and advance in price of iron seem to be bringing a natural check, as prices have gone so high as to cause some purchases of high and finished products, and also caused a distinct shrinkage in home demand.

Bradstreet's says: General trade throughout the United States shows further improvement, more particularly in manufacturing and commercial lines at the east and south. From the central and some western states there are reports that purchases of reasonable goods were checked because of the recent hot weather. In support of favorable influencing conditions are heavy increased totals of bank clearings, the largest week's aggregate of wheat exports within three months, the heaviest week's shipments of Indian corn in 12 months, the maintenance of full proportions of the extraordinarily heavy demand for iron and steel and the significant increase of bank money, all accompanied by reports of increasing mercantile discounts.

From "Our County Fair News."

The Ann Arbor Register is one of the oldest and most reliable weekly newspapers in Washtenaw county. It is the largest paper published in this county, consisting each week of 12 pages of six columns each, filled with matter of special interest to Washtenaw county people. One of its special characteristics is that it seldom loses a subscriber for the reason that when a patron becomes accustomed to it, he is so well pleased that he continues to take the paper from year to year without a thought of discontinuing.

THE REGISTER has always shown a willingness to do its full share towards helping to push along the fairs held by the Washtenaw County Agricultural and Horticultural Society. This year it offers the following premiums: For the best five pound jar of butter, five years' subscription to THE REGISTER; second best, four years' subscription; third best, three years' subscription; fourth best, one year's subscription, making an aggregate of $13.00 in special premiums. Persons competing for the special prizes offered by THE REGISTER may use the same article in competing for the regular premiums offered by the society.

AN ACCIDENT.

Mr. Quintus Hummel, of 118 Michigan Ave., Detroit, tells a War Story of his own Experience, and the Result.

(From Detroit News.)

Our representative called at 118 Michigan Avenue, the residence of Mr. Quintus Hummel. Mr. Hummel is a veteran of the late war, and received, in the campaign, an injury which has given him much pain and suffering since. He belonged to a Michigan cavalry regiment and his horse becoming frightened one day reared up, throwing him backward. In falling he struck his spine on a sharp stone, inflicting a deep cut over five inches long. The injury affected the kidneys. About two years ago the left kidney started to bleed, and has been doing so ever since. Mr. Hummel, in a few pointed sentences, gave our representative the following account: "The accident of my 'war days' left me in bad shape; pain in my back and spine rendered me almost useless, and I was compelled to give up work entirely. I could not turn over in bed without assistance. I have spent hundreds of dollars in various ways trying to find relief. Physicians have told me my spine was honey-combed for 13 inches. I had given up in despair, never hoping for relief, when a friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills, and they have done me a world of good. The pains have disappeared from my back, and the bleeding of my kidney has almost entirely stopped. I know I can never be a new man, but Doan's Kidney Pills have done more to make me feel like a new man than all the other things I have tried during past years. I have not had any recurrence of the pain or bleeding since taking them."

W. J. BRODIE.

1037 W. Polk St., Chicago, Oct. 27, 1893. THE OWEN ELECTRIC BELT AND APPLIANCE CO.: Gentlemen—Solely in the interest of others who are, or may become similarly affected with myself, I venture to offer my experience with the use of the Owen Electric Belt, and that I am actuated entirely by that motive, must be apparent from the fact that until you see my name and address recorded on this letter you had no knowledge of either. I had long been a sufferer from chronic dyspepsia and nervous prostration, contracted or aggravated by many years residence in the East Indies. About three years ago I purchased one of your Belts in the hope that its use might afford me some relief and wore it continuously as directed for about four hours every afternoon for a month or so, and the result was perfect—marvelous. My indignation with all its attendant miseries, nervousness, depression, irritability and insomnia, from which latter I was a great sufferer, have disappeared. I then discontinued the use of the Belt (the existence of which I had indeed forgotten), until about six weeks ago, when a recurrence of my old trouble very forcibly reminded me of it. I again put it into wear (after ceasing its use for over one and one-half years), and with the same extraordinary results, being again restored to health, strength and vigor, after wearing it for only ten days. Under these circumstances I can most emphatically recommend to others suffering from the ailments which I have endeavored to describe, the adoption of the use of the Owen Electric Belt. I had long been aware of the curative powers of electricity from what I had read on the subject, and on my return to England I purchased from Pulvermacher of Regent street, London, the combined chain bands, of which he is the patentee, for which I paid three guineas, and although I must admit that I derived some benefit from their use, I am bound to say the general result did not approach the benefit derived from the use of the Owen Belt, besides which its utility is so great an improvement in comfort and convenience; Pulvermacher's being cumbersome and complicated in adjusting to the body, besides causing from being uncovered, blisters and sores, and above all not being able to regulate the current as is the case in the Owen Electric Belt. You are at perfect liberty to make what use you think fit of this letter, and I shall be glad to answer either verbally or by letter any inquiry made from me on this subject. I am, gentlemen, Yours respectfully, W. J. BRODIE

The project to build an electric line between this city and Detroit seems to be merely talk thus far though it may be developed into something in time. Under the present arrangements the homeopathic department has a separate committee on the board of regents and a superintendent of the homeopathic hospitals while the faculty of that department has what is equivalent to an absolute control over their students. An Expression of Thanks.
 In addition to the resolutions adopted by the conference I desire in my own name for the church to express cordial appreciation for all the hospitality shown us in our attempt to entertain our visitors during the past week. We shall never forget the kindness of those who opened their homes or gave of their substance to "entertain strangers." We assigned over 600 visitors to places of entertainment—more, we think, than has ever before been cared for at an annual conference—yet we still had room for a dozen or twenty more. We also thank Mr. Keech for the loan of a telephone and the Ann Arbor Organ Co. for the loan of an organ during conference week.

THE KANGAROO.

He is a Success in Many Ways, but Does Not Show Off in Running Down Hill. Leather made from the skin of the kangaroo is one of the new products in the leather line. It is soft, strong, and the light grades are particularly well adapted for light summer shoes and for shoe tops, while the heavier grades will bear more usage than any other leather finished on the grain side. The light skins are made into the finest brilliant glazed kid in and dull finish for ladies' fine shoes, and the heavy ones are finished for men's fine work. Much of it is crimped and sold for tongue boots. Shoe laces of good qualities are also made of it. The skin of the kangaroo has a wonderfully muscular fibre, which contributes largely to the strength of the animal, enabling the females to carry their young in their pouch until old enough to take care of themselves, and aiding the kangaroo in his long leaps when in motion. The animal is a native of Australia and adjacent islands. It is a distinct species, and has no counterpart in other countries. There are a great number of families, some scarcely larger than a rat, others of almost gigantic size. The giant kangaroo (Macropus major), the family which furnishes the most valuable skins, was discovered by Captain Cook about a century ago, at which time it attracted much attention among naturalists. The natives of Australia call the old males "booma," and are slow to attack them. The "booma" has paws as large as those of a mastiff, though of different shape. His feet are his weapons, and when attacked he is a dangerous antagonist. When raised to his full height his hind legs and tail form a tripod, upon which his body rests, carrying his head as high as that of a man on horseback. The kangaroo lives upon vegetable food, and roams over the plains of Australia in large flocks. Its teeth are so constructed that it can feed upon roots and live upon barren plains, where other animals would starve, and to its destruction of roots is attributed the sterile plains so common in Australia. When feeding a large male stands at his full height and acts as sentinel, while the balance of the flock lie on their sides and browse. At the slightest approach of danger the sentinel sounds the alarm, and in an instant all are erect upon their hind feet. They leap with their forepaws clasped close to their body, the tail stretched backward, while the powerful thigh muscles are caused suddenly to straighten to the joints, by which act the body flies through the air on a low curve. The ordinary jump is about nine feet, but thirty feet is often made at a leap. When pursued by hunters, and on level ground, or on an up-grade, they can outrun the fleetest dog, but down-grade they lose their balance and roll over. The flesh of the kangaroo furnishes excellent food, Kangaroo venison being considered a dainty dish, while the tail furnishes an excellent and nutritious soup.

BURIAL OF A TRAPPIST.

Solemn Ceremonies Over the Grave of One of the Order. Rev. Father Medard of the Trappist order at Oka died on Wednesday last, and was buried yesterday, says a Montana dispatch. Father Medard's family name was Placide Martin, and he was a native of the parish of St. Alexis, County of Montcalm. He studied in the Jollette college, and after his classical course entered the novitiate of the Oblates at Lachine. Having left that institution, he entered the Trappist monastery in 1831 and pronounced his vows in March, 1833.

The burial of a Trappist is a peculiar and solemn ceremony. Immediately after a monk is dead the body, dressed in the monastic robe, is stretched on a simple board, the head covered with the cowl, and then taken to the monastery chapel. There the body remains until the day of interment, four yellow wax candles burning all the time, and all the monks in turn reciting the prayers of the liturgy, night and day. On the day of burial the prayers for the dead and a requiem mass are chanted, after which all the monks form in procession to follow their brother to his last resting place. During the funeral procession psalms are chanted in the mournful tone peculiar to the Trappist order. When the cemetery is reached more prayers are recited, and then the body is lowered into the grave, not in a coffin, but simply dressed in the monastic robe worn during life. A monk then goes down into the grave to cover his dead brother's face with the cowl, after which the officiating priest slowly throws a shovelful of earth over the body. Two other monks do the same, and then the grave is filled up in the ordinary way. After the burial the procession returns to the chapel in the same order.

Baseball Up to Date.

The mighty Casey went to a "bal masque" last night, attired in his baseball uniform. The "ball" was "swift," Casey, however, made a "safe hit" in the "right field" (among the girls), and later a "home run" (with one of them). The "visitors" (other men) declared his "strike" "foul," but Casey insisted that it was "fair" (the girl), and he was not "thrown out" (of the house), as he didn't get "off his base." His "speed" (in getting acquainted) was favorably commented upon, and he "went home" after "the game," declaring to himself that he had "broken the record" at "fair catches" that night.

FRESKO ENTERTAINMENTS.

They Do Not Cost Much and Are Attractive Because Unique.

A tree luncheon is a festivity which has an Arcadian flavor to it, and which depends chiefly for its success upon the village carpenter. The cook is a secondary power. The first requisite is a large, shapely tree, with branches spreading gracefully at quite a distance from the ground. Midway between the ground and that part of the trunk, where the branches begin to spread, a large platform should be built out, supported at the corners opposite the trees by strong beams. It should be surrounded by a rustic fence having a little wicket gate. From the ground to this gate stairs should lead and the stair-rail should be of the same rustic variety as the fence. This platform is capable of many transformations. A hammock swung in it makes it the coolest of lounging places. The children and their toys convert it into an admirable summer nursery. Books and a small writing table make it an outdoor reading room. But it is as a spot for a lunch party that it is most attractive. Four small tables, arranged so as to allow free passage of the servant among them and each seating four, all decorated with outdoor flowers or ferns, make the prettiest possible group. When four times four girls are added, together with dainty viands and a white-capped maid, the effect is complete. The woman who lives on a farm where berries are plentiful, can give the most unique berry teas or luncheons. She must provide her guests with protecting aprons, heavy fingerless calf-skin gloves, sun bonnets and tin pails. With this complete berrying costume they make a tour of the berry patch, each one being assigned a row which he or she picks bare of all its ripe berries. Then on the piazza the fruit is picked over amid much merriment and finally is served in the big farm-house parlor, with its accompaniments of wafers or sandwiches and iced tea. The woman whose summer estate boasts of a big barn, or who can hire one from one of her native neighbors, need never be at a loss for a picturesque means of entertainment. Where is the dancing girl whose heart will not bound at the mention of a barn ball? Even the non-dancing youth is languidly excited by it. Of course, the barn must be cleared out for the purpose. If rushlights and tallow "dips" are the illuminants so much the better. The floor must be in perfect dancing condition. Great sheaves of wheat or bunches of corn stalks tied together should decorate the corners. The rafters must be hung with last year's ears of corn, strings of red peppers and other rustic decorations. If the native fiddlers can be secured to furnish the dance music the triumph of this bucolic ball is assured.

Nice Gruel.

A missionary's wife, Mrs. Paton, had been very ill on a lonely island in the Pacific, and when she recovered sufficiently to write to her friends at home she thus described one of her experiences: "When I was able to take an intelligent view of my surroundings this is what I first remember seeing: John (her husband), sitting by my bedside, with an old straw hat on the back of his head, and a huge tin basin between his knees half full of what tasted like very thin, sweet porridge, with which he was feeding me lovingly out of the cook's long iron spoon! He assured me that it was water-gruel; that he had got into the way of making it nicely now; but that he could not find a clean dish on the premises to put it in! He was so proud of his cooking that I asked for the recipe, and you have it here: Equal parts of meal, sugar and water—a cupful of each for one dose; boil all together till there is a smell of singeing, whereby you know it is sufficiently cooked."

"My husband had two cancers taken from his face, and another was coming on his lip. He took two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and it disappeared. He is completely well." Mrs. Wm. Kirby, Akron, Erie Co., N. Y.

Extraordinary Workings of the Elements.

A tidal wave was one of the season's curiosities at Harbor Springs. The water in the lake went down over five feet, leaving boats tied at the wharves lying on the bottom of the lake. Usually the water comes back with such force that it carries rowboats and small craft high and dry, but this wave, though it receded farther than ever before, came back slowly, and did not go much higher than the usual water level, then it again receded and the water now remains a foot or more lower than it was before. It is believed that a huge waterspout out on the lake caused the strange occurrence. The same evening Petoskey was visited by a wind which almost became a hurricane and which escorted a waterspout. Floods poured into cellars of business houses, burst through the ceilings, and cut huge gutters in the principal streets. Two miles out on the C. & W. M. railroad, an acre of land at one point, with trees and shrubs, was loaded on the tracks, and a little further on, more than an acre of road bed was swept into Lake Michigan. Immense damage was done to crops and farm buildings.

A Bold Postoffice Robbery.

The postoffice at Fenton was broken into by burglars who cut a hole in the door to reach the lock. The money and stamps were locked in a 900 pound safe and the robbers were evidently afraid to tackle it there, so they hitched themselves to D. G. H. & M. truck, loaded the safe on it and hauled it through town at 2 a. m. to the outskirts, where with chisels and hammers the safe was stripped of its outer casing and an entrance effected at the back. The inner steel chest was removed and literally smashed to pieces. C. C. Topping, the postmaster, says that they got $100 in money and a large number of stamps. The blank money orders and other valuable papers were unmolesed. Many people heard the sounds of the hammer and noise made by the burglars, but none dared to interfere.

A Story Told in England.

One of the most valuable flocks of Southdown sheep in the United States is the property of Mr. Mansan Migg, the beet-root sugar magnate, says the London Tit-Bits. A peculiar fact in connection with the flock is that it is looked after, not by sheep dogs, but by six trained Spanish game cocks. They are armed each morning with spurs, and have so fierce a way of attacking any sheep that tries to run away or will not be driven that the animals are now thoroughly afraid of the birds and obey their directions perfectly. Mr. Migg's daughter brought the birds from the Canary Islands.

About Knives.

A cheap Pocket-knife can be bought at every Store, but it is not the kind you want.

One dollar is the lowest price that a really good knife can be sold for. This dollar is placed in this paper to advertise the very best Pocket-knife ever sold. It is J. C. TYDMARSH'S Sheffield Steel Knife.

Never buy a knife only because it looks well. If blades are not the best Sheffield steel they will soon bend, no matter how they will look. Still, you want a fine-looking knife.

The United States law provides that only samples to agents and to the trade will be admitted free of duty. You can, therefore, see the advantage that I have in sending samples to agents over those who deal in Sheffield goods in America.

I am an advertising agent! I am entrusted with a certain amount to spend advertising these knives (the best value ever seen in America at One Dollar each). Now, the knife is its own best advertisement.

Imagine a Pocket-knife (3 1/2 inches long) with the most beautifully-grained ivory handle—genuine African ivory made with two blades of the very best Sheffield steel that will last a lifetime and cut like a razor. The tips of the handles are heavily plated with sterling silver. And then a very nice chamois leather case goes with each knife. Now, would it not be easy work selling this knife at One Dollar each? I know it would, for it looks as if it were worth two dollars.

And so it is if you compare it with the value offered in the ordinary Store.

Is not this knife its own best advertisement?

You can make $4 per day selling these knives. This is a genuine and straightforward statement. This is counting that you show it to only twelve buyers every day. And every one that sees it will say it is a good value for $1. The knives are sold to you at $8 per dozen; you sell them at $1 each.

I determined to use large sum of advertising money entrusted to me in sending out free samples to those who promise to act as agents for the sale of these knives.

I will send you a free sample, but you must sign the promise at the foot of this column, and make a deposit to show that in asking for the knife you are acting in good faith.

The deposit that I ask of you is 44 cents about half the wholesale cost of the knife, and less than one-third what you would have to pay for a knife like it, if you bought one.

Send the money by a Postal Order or one-cent stamps for 44c's, and put a five-cent stamp on the letter, which must not weigh more than one-half ounce.

The deposit of 44 cents will be placed to your credit, and will be deducted from your first order at the dozen rate.

IT WAS INSTINCT ALONE.

Curious Power of Divination Possessed by First-Class Business Men.

"Business is business," says the man vowed to that life, and so it is unquestionably, but equally so, its personality is personality. Leaving the latter out of consideration will throw business calculations about as far astray as those of the astronomer who does not allow for personal equations. This the successful man of affairs fully understands.

When it can be recognized there is nothing more interesting than watching the actual consultation of a business man with the promptings of his own soul's equations. Such power of consultation is not possessed by all and is invisible with many of those who have it.

I remember hearing a young business man describe such a rare revelation in an interview with an older business friend known as the keenest financier. The proposition which the young man had to present was reasonable, seemingly sure of success, and he himself believed in it enthusiastically.

"I laid it before the old fellow," he said, "one by one meeting and explaining the vexed points he raised. He ceased questioning me finally because the patent value of the proposition seemed proved so far as words go. He nodded assent as each heading was checked off. I felt emboldened to ask: 'What do you think of it, sir?' And then I saw a curious sight. The old fellow sat motionless, looking away into space, his blue eyes growing innocent and far away as a child's who is listening for a distant and familiar voice. I could have sworn he heard something which I did not. Finally he turned to me with a smile and shook his head. 'I can't exactly believe in your plan,' he said, 'I sat staring at him. I knew, and he knew, that his reason was convinced; it was an instinct alone that held the superstitiously trusted and on which he obstinately acted. It was the most extraordinary thing I ever saw. The more so that events have proved the warning voice gave him a private information which was more than correct. The plan failed miserably, as I too well know.'

Extraordinary or not, those who come in contact with successful business men will see the same phenomenon repeated over and over in greater or less degree. Call it a genius for affairs or what you will, this curious power of divination remains still as unexplained a mystery as any other kind of second sight.

How many young men and young women are cut off just as the future seems brightest and fullest of promise! They are taken away by the disease which causes over one-sixth of all the death in the world—the disease which doctors call consumption. There is absolutely no reason in the world why consumption should be fatal—why it be even serious. It is a disease of the blood, and can be cured absolutely and always by purifying and enriching the blood. The only exception of this is the case where the disease has been neglected and properly treated until it is stronger than the body—until the body has become so weak as to have lost the ability to recuperate. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption if used according to directions. It also cures all lingering coughs, bronchial and throat affections.

Women as Licensed Distillers.

The new woman has broken out in another place in Georgia. This time she comes to the front as a distiller. A woman in Jasper county and another in Cherokee have been granted the necessary government license to enable them to establish registered distilleries from which to make peach brandy. These are the first cases of women distillers who appear on the books of the revenue department. There have been isolated cases of women who claimed to own illicit distilleries, but those have been Spartan women, who took the blame on themselves in the hope that the courts would be lenient with them.

"Tis only a kind word spoken, Only a smile on a face, That inspires to noble actions Pilgrims in life's weary race. Yes, only a wee bit of sympathy, Beaming like the sunshine's ray, Can cheer the desolate beggar— His downward course to stay.

Just a frown on the fairest of foreheads, One cruel and sharp-edged word, Turns all life's sweet to bitter, For they who those words have heard One, just one, look of scorn, A word idly spoken, here and there, May doom to eternal hell, To misery or despair.

Take a truth from this you may draw, Then it with you wherever you may go: That frowns blight many more flowers Than the chill of winter's snow. —Fannie K. Dennis, in Atlanta Constitution.

The Shakers have made a great hit. Their Digestive Cordial is said to be the most successful remedy for stomach troubles ever introduced. It immediately relieves all pain and distress after eating, builds up the feeble system and makes the weak strong.

The fact is, foods properly digested are better than so-called tonics. The Cordial not only contains food already digested, but is a digester of other foods. Food that is not digested does more harm than good. People who use the Cordial insure the digestion of what food they eat and in this way they get the benefit of it and grow strong.

The little pamphlets which the Shakers have sent druggists for free distribution, contain much interesting information on the subject of dyspepsia.

ANATOMICAL DRAWINGS.

A New York Woman Art Accomplishes Wonders in a New Field.

Miss Fannie Elkins, a New York artist, follows a unique line of art which has won her a World's Fair medal and diploma, "awarded for accuracy, detail and beauty." Miss Elkins makes anatomical drawings for physicians and surgeons who require such in delivering lectures or in illustrating medical books. To the outsider the work at once carries gressive suggestions. Undoubtedly it is an odd occupation for a woman to choose. Miss Elkins, so far as can be discovered, is the only American woman who has succeeded in making a distinct profession of such drawing. Once within her studio the idea of gressiveness is almost lost. The room is a pleasant square one, with a big window overlooking Fourteenth street and admitting a strong light to the table beneath. There are few of the manifold decorations and hangings which usually appear in studios, but the drawings, framed in oak and gilt upon the wall—part of her World's Fair exhibit—are not at all alarming. Among these the human eye, much magnified, is represented under several aspects, gazing out from circular mats of white board.

Nikola Tesla's Honors.

Although still so young a man, Nikola Tesla is beginning to find the honors shower thickly upon him. He has already been made, within the last year, a doctor by Columbia College, and an M. A. by Yale, while one of the leading universities of the far west has recently invited him to accept one of its diplomas. A couple of years ago he received the rare order of St. Sava from the King of Serbia, and last week news reached him officially that the Order of the Eagle had been conferred upon him by the Prince of Montenegro, who may be said to represent the race from which Tesla springs. His own people are very proud of this young genius, even though he has become an American citizen, and not long ago the unique honor was bestowed upon him by the Serbian government department of posts and telegraphs, of printing a special Tesla postage stamp. When Mr. Tesla went home to his native land four or five years ago, each of the six morning newspapers in Belgrade saluted his arrival the same day with an original poem. The modest inventor appreciates these manifestations deeply, but he says laughingly to his friends that he "would go home oftener if there was less of it."

The Market is Full of Cough Mixtures.

The market is full of cough mixtures, but one trouble with most of them is that when they do a little good the patient has to take so much that he gets to loathe the taste. The Pineola Balsam is superior to other cough remedies because it is agreeable to the palate and its good effects are immediate. In a few days an ordinary cough is gone altogether. Bronchitis and asthma are more stubborn, but they too are cured by Ely's Pineola Balsam. A remedy worth trying. Twenty-five cents is all it costs.

The Little Things.

Don't forget three little words—"If you please," said Sir Humphrey Davy. Life is made up, not of great sacrifices or duties, but of little things, of which smiles and kindness and many small obligations, given habitually, are what win and preserve the heart and secure comfort.

MALARIA MICROBES.

A Few Facts Concerning These Unavoidable Disease Germs.

The organism or germ which causes chronic malaria is known among microscopists as Polimitus or the Parasite of Laveran. These organisms are so exceedingly small that they must be magnified many thousand times to be seen at all. Unlike the parasite of acute malaria, those which produce chronic malaria are incapable of motion. They reproduce themselves with astounding rapidity, and in malarial districts it is impossible to be safe from them. They enter the body with every swallow of water, with every mouthful of food, and even in the air we breathe. When they have once entered the system they begin their work by producing all the well-known symptoms of malaria; the cold sweat, bad breath, coated tongue, sour taste in the mouth, poor digestion, and almost ceaseless biliousness and headaches.

When these people have satisfied themselves that it is malaria they begin to take quinine, thinking that will help them. But each one is doomed to final disappointment. There is only one remedy which is known to permanently and thoroughly cure or prevent chronic malaria. This remedy is known as Peruna. Taken regularly during the season, Peruna will entirely prevent the malady, and if the disease be already acquired, will cure it permanently.

Every one who lives in or near a malarious district should send at once for a free medical book which treats of malaria in all its forms. This book will be sent free to any address by The Peruna Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, Ohio.

GRANT STATUE REJECTED.

Because It Is Not a Likeness Franklin Simmons' Figure Is Refused.

Eleven thousand dollars were expended by the Grand Army of the Republic for a statue of General Grant, which it was intended to place in Statuary Hall at the Capitol. After the statue had been made it was brought to the rotunda of the Capitol and here partially unboxed. Soldier after soldier who had served with Grant during the war looked at it in amazement and said that it bore no resemblance whatsoever to the hero of Appomattox. The joint library committee of the House and Senate, whose approval of all statues proposed to be placed in Statuary Hall is necessary, viewed the statue which was intended to represent General Grant, and then unanimously rejected it. They held that it did not in any way look as he had. This statue itself is a magnificent piece of work and beautifully done, the only trouble with it being that the sculptor, J. Franklin Simmons, was unable to catch the likeness of the great general. The statue could be used to represent a general of the United States army, and might be useful as a monument in some national cemetery, but to pass it off for General Grant would not do. The Grand Army of the Republic has a marble on its hand, and has had it packed up again, but it still remains in the rotunda of the Capitol, where visitors to town look at it and ask the guides what the two immense boxes are. What the Grand Army of the Republic men will do with it is not known, but at present they have a great big white elephant on their hands, for which they have no use. By the mistake of the sculptor Statuary Hall loses what would have been an attractive addition to the crown of celebrities.—Ex.

Geneva's Great Fountain.

The fountain that the municipality of Geneva has recently established at the entrance of the port of that city is certainly the largest fountain that exists upon the surface of the globe, since it is no less than 300 feet in height. It may be seen from a great distance in clear weather, detaching itself like a great white sail flapping through the effects of the wind. The city of Geneva possesses a most complete distribution of water under pressure, the motive power for which is obtained from an artificial fall established upon the Rhone at the point of the lake. The water for domestic purposes and for the running of certain motors is raised to a height of 215 feet above the level of the lake. For the distribution of motive force it is raised to a height of 460 feet. The reservoir is an open-air one, and is situated upon the top of Bessingers, at a distance of three miles from the turbine building. A very ingenious regulator, invented by Mr. Turrettini, assures the uniformity of pressure in the piping. The length of the first pipe line is about forty miles, and that of the second about sixty. It is with this latter that the fountain conduit is connected. The latter is set in play only on Sundays. It is sometimes in operation also on week days, in the evening. Instead of a single jet of great height, several are then utilized that do not rise so high. Powerful electric light projectors, placed in a structure near by, brightly illuminate them with their rays of varied colors, which transform them into a luminous fountain of the most beautiful aspect.

HYPNOTIC TRAMP.

Befuddles the Children of Washington Parents and Is Living High.

Washington city is agitated over the antics of a hypnotic tramp, who has scared the nervous suburbanites almost into hysterics. According to several excited parents, he is in the habit of hypnotizing their little boys and girls and making them steal to provide for his wants. The man is described as a well-dressed and polished man, 25 years old, rather tall, with dark mustache and deep-set eyes. Mrs. Martha Hays, one of the complainants, declares that the tramp took her son, Willie, into the railroad yards and hypnotized him by making him gaze at a bright metal disk. After he had got him under the influence, the mother says, the tramp made the boy go to her house and steal a quantity of clothes and provisions. Another case is reported where the man is said to have used his influence on a little girl and caused her to go to the grocery store where her family dealt, and get him a dozen cigars and a pint of whiskey. She declared the grocer by stating that the articles were for her father. Several other cases of the kind have been reported, and the police, who at first were inclined to regard the thing as a joke, are now seriously looking for the man with the deep-set blue eyes.

Drink and Cigarettes Cause a Tragedy.

Frank Fortes, manager of a theatrical company playing at Grand Lodge, was addicted to the excessive use of cigarettes and also indulged heavily in intoxicants. While on a spree he quarreled with his wife at the hotel and ended up by shooting her in the side. The ball passed entirely through her body. When Deputy Sheriff Halliday attempted to arrest Fortes he fired two shots at the officer, both passing through his clothing. Fortes was finally overpowered and jailed. Mrs. Fortes cannot recover.

Piano Playing and Neurosis.

A corresponding member of the Paris Academy of Medicine has sent to that learned body a memoir in which he maintains that the numerous cases of chlorosis, neurosis, and neurasthenia observed among young girls is due to learning to play on the piano and to the hours devoted to practicing. He has drawn up careful statistics from which he concludes that, among 6,000 pupils obliged before attaining the age of 12 to learn to play the piano, nearly 12 per cent suffer from neurosis, troubles of which he does not attempt to draw up statistics of the victims among persons who have to listen to their performance.—British Medical Journal.

How a Woman Works for Her Sex.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Seated at her desk in the bureau of correspondence, this wonderful woman opens her letters from all parts of the world. A few extracts from their contents tell the story:

FROM IOWA. "I am in a very bad condition. My courses have stopped from catching cold, and the pain is fearful. I am all bloated up, and the pain in lower part of my body is terrible. My back and head ache all the time. What shall I do for it?" —Miss L. Des Moines.

FROM NEW JERSEY. Mrs. Lizzie DeCline, 234 Grand Street, Jersey City, relates her miseries resulting from womb trouble, from which she was relieved and cured by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She ends her letter by saying, "I owe all to you."

FROM OHIO. Mrs. Newton Cobb, of Manchester, O., writes: "I used eight bottles of your Vegetable Compound, and I am happy to say it has cured me of painful menstruations and backache. My suffering every month was dreadful. The doctors gave me morphine to ease the pain; nothing to cure me. Oh, I want to tell every one what cured me! I wish every suffering woman would write and get your advice!"

FROM ILLINOIS. Miss Jennie —, Chicago, states that she is twenty-two years of age, occupation, saleswoman in large dry goods store. Constant standing has brought on womb trouble, the symptoms of which she describes fully. She says: "Help me if you can. There are several girls I know who have written to Mrs. Pinkham, and been cured by her advice and medicine."

FROM PENNSYLVANIA. Miss Mary Smylie, who resides at 207 E. Susquehanna Avenue, Kensington, Pa., writes: "I am a working girl, and must stand eleven hours every day. I have suffered terribly from painful menstruations and kidney trouble. At times my head was so dizzy I could hardly see. A friend recommended your Vegetable Compound. I am a different girl now; no more aches and pains. Oh, thank you, thank you!"

The above extracts from many hundred letters received daily by Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., go to show how easily ailing women can obtain advice and relief. Write to Mrs. Pinkham.

YPSILANTI TOWN.

Alone in China is the striking title of a story by Julian Ralph which will be a feature of Harper's Magazine for October. This is the first of a series of six Chinese tales by Mr. Ralph, with illustrations by C. D. Weldon, the outcome of travels in the East, which both writer and illustrator undertook at the instance of the publishers of Harper's. As no other country in the world at the present time so stimulates yet baffles curiosity, the light that Mr. Ralph (a keen and trustworthy observer) is to cast upon China will enhance the value of this series.

To the same number a timely paper on The Future in Relation to American Naval Power will be contributed by Captain A. T. Mahan, U. S. N., who advocates a strong navy as a promoter of peace and of American interests, and assails the dogma that the national defence should be the sole purpose of battle-ships.—Harper & Bros. N. Y. Among graphic methods of illustrating Sunday-school lessons, the sand map is now used in many progressive schools. Miss Juliet E. Miss Dimock tells not merely how she makes and uses her own sand-maps, but how other teachers may prepare and use theirs.—Sunday School Times, 1031 Walnut-st. Philadelphia, Pa.

CHURCHES FOR SALE.

Half a Dozen on the Market in Philadelphia.—Strange Uses for Others. If anyone desires to buy a church he will find some rare bargains these days, says the Philadelphia Record. As in other commodities, the supply of churches for sale fluctuates considerably, but just at present, owing to the rapid westward push of business, the number for sale is larger than usual, and the would-be purchaser must be hard indeed to please who cannot find one according to his fancy in architecture and size. There are now on the market in the central portion of the city at least half a dozen church edifices from which the congregations have departed or want to depart. The Epiphany, at Fifteenth and Chestnut streets, found a ready purchaser in John Wanamaker, who will pay down over $600,000 for it as soon as the congregation can find a site on which to build another church. They have now been over a year in an unsuccessful search for such a site, owing to the opposition of neighboring Episcopal churches. The strange uses to which churches are sometimes put is exemplified by the old Episcopal church on Filbert street, above Seventeenth, which is now used as a stable by the Adams Express Company. A few doors away, at Eighteenth and Filbert streets, is an old Presbyterian church, which is now being used by a firm of stone-cutters. On Vine street, east of Eighth, another ancient house of worship is doing duty as a factory. Salem Methodist Episcopal Church, at Juniper and Lombard streets, will soon lose its identity, having been purchased by the Baptist Publication Society, which will put a printing and publishing plant in operation there in a large building to be erected on its site. Only a short time ago the Tenth Presbyterian Church, at Twelfth and Walnut streets, was purchased and razed to the ground to make room for the Episcopal diocesan house now going up there. Many efforts have been made to purchase the old Chambers' Presbyterian Church, at Broad and Sanson streets, but the congregation decline to name any price for their property.

Things of the past with many happy mortals are the tortures of Headaches and Neuralgia which in some instances have been endured since childhood. Their better state, their rescue from affliction is due entirely to the curative powers of Gessler's Magic Headache Wafers. The record of this great remedy is unsurpassed. They are a specific for all headaches and neuralgia. The wisest physicians use and prescribe them. The remedy is backed up by guarantees as to its wholesomeness and its positive healing efficiency. They are guaranteed by John Moore.

Plausible Argument.

Between the passenger offices of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railway and the freight depot there is a little spot of green sward that the public has few opportunities of observing. A tall fence shuts off the view from the street, so that it is only when the large gate has been left open through mistake that passersby get a chance to see the little park.

Several days ago the gate was standing open and two countrymen who happened to be passing stopped for a closer inspection.

"What do you suppose that's for?" said one.

"Don't know, unless it's where the railroad grazes its stock," was the reply.

"Pshaw; railroads don't have no stock," said the other in disgust. "You bet they do," said the companion, "because I read in a paper about them watering their stock, and I guess stock has got to eat as well as drink."

"You know," said a discerning gentleman to an Atlanta Constitution reporter, "it used to be said that a man who carries a cane every day was an idler, a dawdler—worthless for all practical purposes. If you'll let me see how a fellow handles a cane, I'll tell you whether he is worthless or not. It's not in the fact of carrying a cane, but how it is carried that the significance lies. When a man comes into my office with a cane in his hand I twist him closely. If he sits and twirls it idly and aimlessly about on his fingers, he's a worthless idler. But if he walks in, puts it up against the wall and proceeds to business, there is something in him. You may hope for him. If he holds it firmly while he is talking to you and does not twirl it about, he's all right. The fellow who plays with his cane, swings it around, marks figures on the carpet with it, punches the furniture with the tip, isn't fit for much else. Yes, a decent, hard-working fellow can carry a cane all the time, and they do so, many of them, and the act does not indicate that they are idlers. But the fellow who goes around swinging his cane and playing with it is a nuisance anywhere you put him."

A Cure for Catarrh.

Bucyrus, Ohio, May 12, 1895. Messrs. R. Pretzinger & Bro., Dayton O. Gentlemen:—My wife and myself have been chronic sufferers from catarrh in its worst form for a number of years. We have tried every remedy heard of with the hope of securing relief, but without success. By the advice of a friend we tried a jar of Pretzinger's Catarrh Balm, and I am most happy to bear testimony to its merits. I believe it to be the only Catarrh Cure. It has cured me, and I think it will cure any one who will give it a trial.

Yours truly,

J. G. Deagle, 435 Popular-st. Detroit, Mich. February 27, 1895. Messrs. R. Pretzinger & Bro. Dayton O. Gentlemen:—I have been a sufferer from Catarrh for a number of years, trying every remedy I heard of, hoping that they would affect a cure—but without avail. Although I have been using Pretzinger's Catarrh Balm but a short time, I find that my nasal catarrh is entirely cured. I wish to recommend it to all who are suffering with catarrh.

Yours very truly,

First Thimble Made 200 Years Ago. A thimble was originally a thumb-bell, because it was worn on the thumb, as sailors still wear their thimbles. It is a Dutch invention, and in 1884 in Amsterdam the bi-centennial of the thimble was celebrated with a great deal of formality. This very valuable addition to my lady's workbasket was first made by a goldsmith named Nicholas van Benschoten, the ancestor of the American family of Van Benschotens. And it may further interest colonial dames to know that the first thimble made was presented in 1684 to Anna van Wedy, the second wife of Killian van Rensselaer, the purchaser of Rensselaerwyck and the first patroon. Mme. van Rensselaer's memory was duly honored in Holland on the occasion of the thimble bicentennial. In presenting his useful gift Van Benschoten begged Mme. van Rensselaer "to accept this new covering for the protection of her diligent fingers as a token of his esteem." It was not until 1695, just 200 years ago, that the thimble was introduced into England by a Hollander named John Loffing, who opened a thimble manufactory at Islington.—Harper's Bazar.

It's a Grand Success.

The fact has been demonstrated by the thousands of testimonials the Mayers Drug Company, of Oakland, Md., has received since it has sent its famous Mayers' Magnetic Catarrh Cure out to the sufferers of catarrh. No medicine has received such an endorsement from the people in so short a time as it did. The makers sell the medicine on business principles, and a patient is not required to buy the medicine by the dozen to get a cure. The Mayers' Magnetic Catarrh Cure sells for $1 per bottle, one bottle to last for a three months treatment. Three bottles is the highest record ever required to complete a cure. General catarrh one bottle is guaranteed. No cure no pay.

This is an unequalled offer and if you are a sufferer from catarrh get a bottle from your druggist, if no benefit derived costs you nothing. A prominent R. R. conductor speaks:

Cumberland, Md., April 29th, 1893. To The Mayers Drug Co., Gentlemen:—Yours to hand, in reply will say that I have the highest regard for your Catarrh Remedy; my trouble is in a chronic form and expected to use more than one bottle. I used one bottle which removed the trouble from the head in good shape and am on the second bottle for throat trouble, if I should succeed with the latter as I did in the former I shall write you again in the near future. Hoping it will do for the suffering humanity what it did for me, I remain Yours truly, G. J. Schmutz.

AN ORDINANCE.

Relative to Electric Light and Lighting and to Prescribe the Duties and Define the Rights of the Company Entering into the Contract for Lighting the Streets, Alleys and Public Places of the City of Ann Arbor.

The Common Council of the City of Ann Arbor ordain:

SECTION I. The Mayor and the City Clerk are hereby authorized to enter into a contract for lighting the streets, alleys and public places of the City of Ann Arbor by electricity for a term of five (5) years from January 1st, 1896, with the Michigan Electric Company, of Detroit, Michigan, its successors and assigns.

SECTION II. Such contract shall be in the words and figures following:

Witnesseth as follows, the said Company, party of the first part, its successors and assigns, in consideration of the agreement herein contained, and on the part of the said City to be done, paid and performed, do hereby promise and agree for itself, its successors and assigns, to and with the said City, to erect, keep and maintain in good running order for the full period of five (5) years from and after the first day of January, A. D. 1896, in the streets and public places of the City of Ann Arbor, not less than ninety-six (96) arc lights taking not less than 9.6 amperes of current and from forty-six (46) to fifty (50) volts between the carbons of each lamp, and so many sixty-five (65) candle power incandescent lamps as the Common Council or its Lighting Committee may order, for at least two hundred and sixty-five (265) nights in the year, lighted from dusk until 12:30 A. M. o'clock, local time, of each of the said nights during the life of this contract, omitting moon-light nights, according to the Philadelphia standard of lighting, and on such other nights during the term of this contract as the said Electric Company shall or may be thereunto requested by the Common Council of the said City or its duly authorized committee, and said Electric Company agrees that it will keep and maintain all such lamps lighted at such other times as the Common Council or its duly authorized committee shall or may direct, at the terms and price hereinafter agreed upon, provided, that notice of unusual lighting shall be given by said Council or its said Committee to the said Electric Company, or to the person in charge of its work, at least one-half hour before such extra lighting shall or may be required.

All of said lamps, poles and wires for the lighting circuits shall be located in such streets and at such points in the City of Ann Arbor and in such manner, and the lamps at such height above the streets, as the Common Council or its lighting committee shall or may direct, provided, that after lamps, poles and wires are located, if the Common Council shall order lamps, poles or wires moved to other localities, the same shall be done by the party of the first part, the Michigan Electric Company, its successors and assigns, the party of the second part, the City, to pay the actual cost of such change.

The said Electric Company, its successors and assigns agrees to re-locate any of its said lamps or poles or apparatus at the request of the Common Council of the said City as soon thereafter as practicable after notice.

The party of the first part, its successors and assigns, agrees to use only the regular standard carbons of the best quality.

Provided, however, that cored carbons shall not be required.

The party of the first part, its successors and assigns, agrees that in case any of the said lamps erected and maintained under this contract shall go out and not burn on any of the nights stipulated in this contract to be lighted, the same shall constitute a charge against said Company, its successors and assigns, and be deducted from the amount to be paid for lighting at the same rate as hereinafter charged for extra lighting.

The party of the first part, its successors and assigns, agrees that if the said City shall at any time direct additional lights to be erected that it will, after notice thereof within a reasonable time, erect and establish all such additional lights at such place or places in said City as shall or may be designated by the Common Council, and all such additional lights shall therefrom and thereafter be subject to all the provisions of this contract relating to the said arc or incandescent lamps, as the case may be, as aforesaid, provided, however, that no lamps shall be ordered during the last year of this contract, unless with the consent of the party of the first part, its successors and assigns.

The party of the first part, its successors and assigns further agrees to paint all poles and put the same in as good condition as the poles in use by the Ann Arbor Thompson-Houston Electric Company at the time of entering into its contract.

It is agreed between the parties, that should the party of the second part, the City, concluded by resolution of the Common Council, to change the time of lighting from dusk to daybreak, the party of the first part, its successors and assigns, agrees to furnish the light during the said time for two hundred and sixty-five (265) nights in the year at eighty dollars ($80) per arc lamp, and forty-one dollars ($41) for each incandescent lamp.

The said City, in consideration of the foregoing agreement on the part of said Electric Company, its successors and assigns, to be done and performed, do hereby agree to take and use the aforesaid number of electric arc and incandescent lamps for the term of five years as aforesaid, commencing as aforesaid, the time of lighting to be from dusk to 12:30 A. M. o'clock, local time, and that it will pay to the said Electric Company, its successors and assigns, at the rate of sixty dollars ($60) per lamp per annum of two hundred and sixty-five (265) nights for each arc lamp, and thirty-one dollars ($31) per annum for each incandescent lamp, to be paid in equal monthly installments, and for each additional lamp ordered to be operated from dusk until 12:30 A. M. o'clock, local time, the same rate per annum; and for each additional lamp ordered to be operated from dusk to daybreak following, at the rate of eighty dollars ($80) per annum.

If, however, less than the entire number of lamps are required by the City at any time when not required by the contract then they shall use not less than twenty (20) and shall pay for same at the rate of fifty cents (50 cents) per night per lamp.

It is further understood and agreed that in the absence of notice of the termination of this contract at least sixty days prior to the expiration of the same, it shall at the option of the said electric company, its successors and assigns be deemed binding for an additional year, commencing at the expiration thereof.

It is further understood and agreed that the said electric company, its successors and assigns, is to furnish everything and to be at all expense with said lighting and the furnishing of said lamps, poles and lighting apparatus; and it is further agreed that the said Electric Company, its successor and assigns, shall and will hold and save harmless and indemnify from any and all loss, costs, suits, claims, damage, demands and proceedings, either at law or in equity coming or to come to the said City from or on account of any and all accidents or damage, or by or through the use of said lamps, lights, poles or apparatus, or from the infringement of any patent right or for the use of any of the said lamps without the right of the said City, and also from or on account of any of all decrees, judgments or orders of any court, made on account of said lamps, poles or apparatus, so to be used as aforesaid; and that said Electric Company, its successors and assigns, will take upon itself the defense of any or all suits, action or proceedings which shall or may be brought against the said City or the pendency or commencement of any such proceedings.

It is further agreed that said Electric Company, its successors and assigns, shall and will execute and deliver to the said City with sufficient sureties to be approved by the Common Council, a bond in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) conditioned for the faithful performance of this contract and each and every part thereof. It is further understood and agreed that the said Electric Company its successors and assigns, shall not be held liable for any loss, damage or injury coming from or through non-lighting, caused by riot, fire or unavoidable accidents.

In witness whereof. The parties hereto have executed this contract by their respective officers duly authorized, and have caused their respective corporate seals to be hereto affixed this day of September, A. D. 1895.

SECTION III. Permission is hereby granted to the Michigan Electric Company, its successors and assigns, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Michigan, having its principal office in the City of Detroit, to erect, lay, operate and maintain in the public streets, alleys and other public places in the City of Ann Arbor, Michigan, all needful and proper poles, wires, lamps and other electrical appliances necessary for furnishing and operating all electric lights, motors, and for all other commercial uses of electricity, subject, however, to all conditions and restrictions hereinafter mentioned.

SECTION IV. The said corporation shall do no unnecessary injury to any street, alley, lamp, park or square, belonging to the City of Ann Arbor, Michigan.

SECTION V. All poles located by said Company shall be properly set in the ground and so located as to cause the least possible obstruction consistent with their use for the above specified purpose.

SECTION VI. All wires of said Company shall be put up properly and insulated in a manner suitable to their use.

SECTION VII. All wires entering any building shall be provided with suitable switches and cut-offs at the point of entrance as required by the insurance rules in force from time to time in the City of Ann Arbor, Michigan.

SECTION VIII. This Ordinance shall take effect ten days after legal publication and be binding upon said corporation upon the filing with the City Clerk of said City of a written acceptance thereof by the said Michigan Electric Company, and shall be void unless the said Michigan Electric Company, its successors and assigns, by January 1st, 1896, light the City pursuant to its contract with said City as authorized by the Common Council of the City of Ann Arbor.

The Incomparable Chicago & Alton. In these United States of America at least, and it is highly probable that throughout the entire world, the official record for the safety and welfare of its passengers made and maintained by the Chicago & Alton Railroad cannot be surpassed if indeed it can be equalled.

Over its completely rock-ballasted, dustless roadway between Chicago and Kansas City, Chicago and St. Louis and St. Louis and Kansas City, eighteen magnificently appointed express trains are run on uniformly fast time every day. But in spite of this heavy passenger traffic the official records show that from December 4, 1879 to December 4, 1890, eleven years, there was no passenger, who was in place as a passenger, killed on Chicago & Alton trains. Moreover there was not a passenger seriously injured, to the extent of losing a limb, an eye or a member of any kind during that time.

During the entire period of the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago, when it was not an uncommon thing to find the usual passenger traffic of the road increased two, three and four-fold, and special excursion trains were very many, there was not an accident of any kind—a most remarkable record.

Besides being America's most popular railroad, the Chicago & Alton is the Pioneer Dining Car Line, the Pioneer Pullman Sleeping Car Line and the Pioneer Palace Reclining Chair Car Line.

Be sure that your ticket reads over the Chicago & Alton Railroad, when its matchless and direct lines can form the whole, or even a part of your journey.

ARE HEELER & WILSON'S
SEWING MACHINES
POPULAR?
BECAUSE LADIES
BUY THEM LIKE THEM
AND TELL THEIR FRIENDS.

Many ladies have used our machines twenty to thirty years in their family work, and are still using the original machines we furnished them a generation ago. Many of our machines have run more than twenty years without repairs, other than needles. With proper care they never wear out, and seldom need repair. We have built sewing machines for more than forty years and have constantly improved them. We build our machines on honor, and they are recognized everywhere as the most accurately fitted and finely finished sewing machines in the world. Our latest, the "No. 9," is the result of our long experience. In competition with the leading machines of the world, it received the Grand Prize at the Paris Exposition of 1889, as the best, other machines receiving only complimentary medals of gold, silver and bronze. The Grand Prize was what all sought for, and our machine was awarded it.

HE FOUND OUT.

The Policeman Was Kind Enough to Give Him a Practical Illustration.
"If you don't object, I'd like to ask you something," said an old man with a cane and satchel, as he stopped a policeman on Monroe avenue.
"Ask your question," was the reply.
"I live up in Macomb county, and I have a son Bill who comes here purty often. The last time he was here he come home with his coat ripped up the back and dead broke, and said a policeman had given him the collar."
"Well?"
"Well, what did he git?"
"He got the collar, probably, just as he said."
"But what is the collar? That's what I want to ask."
"Why, he was probably half tight and whooping along the street, and an officer took him by the collar—this way—and gave him a shake—that way—and rattled his heels together—just so—and—"
"Say, hold on!" shouted the old man, as he picked up his satchel and cane and worked himself down into his coat.
"What's the matter?"
"I've found out all I want to know! If Bill got that kind of a collar and was locked up and fined $5 to boot, I'll go home and raise his wages $4 a month and give him every Saturday for a holiday."—Free Press.

DAMAGE NOT SERIOUS.
Postum Cereal Works Loss Quickly Repaired
Battle Creek, Mich.—The works of the Postum Cereal Co., which were partially destroyed by fire on the 4th will be in operation again on the 23rd. A large gas plant is being installed and the new works will have a capacity of 30,000 packages per day.

Strikers Resort to Violence.
Two strangers who were passing through Negaunee on their way to the woods, were set upon by the strikers and most cruelly beaten. One of the men was quite old and he clung to the fence and begged for mercy, but was given a blow in the mouth which almost knocked him senseless. The officers could not cope with the gang and it was not until Mayor Foley appeared that the mob desisted and their victims escaped. They were afterward found hiding several miles away completely exhausted and terribly injured. Mayor Foley gave the strikers such a severe lecture that many of them became ashamed and threw away the clubs they had been carrying during the strike. Gov. Rich heard of the disgraceful affair and telegraphed Mayor Foley to know about it. The latter replied that he had sworn in 50 extra police and would prevent any more outbreaks.

British Art Students.
The works of the students in the British national competition of schools of art, which have been selected by the examiners for rewards, are this year set out in the exhibition road galleries, adjacent to the machinery galleries, and opposite to the school of science. We are told in the catalogue that the surprising number of 47,978 works of all kinds, from schools of art and branch schools, were sent up for examination, 4,044 being selected out of these for national competition, and the final awards being made by the examiners out of this last selection. It is again in the branches of purely decorative art, pictorial and sculptural, rather than in painting, sculpture and architecture proper—that is, in the minor rather than the major art—that the students show excellence.

A Plague of Bees.
Some time ago it was announced that bee farming had been taken up at Gennevilliers, one of the most loathsome industrial suburbs of Paris. This was treated as a joke, but the news is, our correspondent says, nevertheless true, and the Prefect of the Seine has just received a petition from the inhabitants to abate the nuisance. The bees live upon the sugar refineries of the neighborhood, clearing away all the dust on the roofs, and even landing on the bare backs of the workmen. It has been stated by a sugar refiner that every hive in the neighborhood carries away twenty shillings' worth of sugar in a year from the factories. He does not, however, complain of this loss, but of the irritation the perpetual buzz inflicts on the workmen.

Rev. E. H. Inman, Baptist clergyman at Centerville, Mich., says he has never found an equal to "Adironda" Wheeler's Heart and Nerve Cure. Sold by druggists.

Lemon Juice as Polish.
Lemon juice applied to cast iron articles gives an excellent finish to the surface of the metal. It turns the portion of polished cast iron to which it is applied to a bronzed black, and when touched over with shellac varnish will absorb a sufficient amount of the varnish to preserve it. To many lemon juice would seem to be a weak and ineffective acid for metal, but every one knows how quickly a knife blade of steel will blacken when used to cut a lemon, and the darkening of polished iron by the acid is very beautiful.
The best is what you want when you are in need of a medicine. That is why you should insist upon Hood's Sarsaparilla.

New Consumption Cure.

Medical authorities in Europe are discussing a new serum for the cure of consumption, for which, as usual, great claims are made. So far the records of its use show at least that it deserves a trial. It is related that in eighty-three cases great improvement took place if cures were not made. That is quite as much as could reasonably be expected of any remedy.

Patti has been on the operatic stage for forty-five years.
Pills Do Not Cure.

Old-Time Courtesy.
"What kind of a man is Judge Bagrox?"
"Undoubtedly a gentleman of the old school. Why, when I asked him for his daughter's hand he pulled my nose, a form of insult which has not been in vogue for more than forty years."—Truth.

Killed by a Swallowed Pin.
A post-mortem examination of the body of James Ellis, aged 65, who died in Leavenworth, Kan., showed death to have been caused by a pin, swallowed perhaps in childhood.

LIVE IN SNOW HOUSES.
Many adventurous prospectors have been making their way in the last year toward the Yukon River valley, in Alaska, and they have had to live very much after the fashion of the natives. Caribou and moose abound, though it's not much sport hunting them when the thermometer registers 50 degrees below zero. The natives construct snow huts in about the time that would be required to pitch a wall tent. They select a place where the snow is about four feet deep. A space 6 by 9 feet is marked out. Blocks two feet square are cut from the surface snow and set on edge around the excavation for side walls. At one end three feet of space is dug down to the ground; in the balance about two feet of snow is left for a couch. The sides and ends are built up tight and the whole is roofed with broad slabs of crusted snow cut in proper dimensions to form a flat gable roof, and loose snow is thrown over all to chink in. At the end, which is dug down to the ground, a hole is cut just large enough to admit a man crawling on his hands and knees. The hut is now finished and sleeping bags and provisions are packed inside. The arms and ammunition are generally left outside. After the outside work is finished everybody crawls into the hut and the opening is stopped up from the inside with a plug of snow that has been fitted carefully, and no one is expected to go out until it is time to break camp. The combined heat from the bodies of the inmates, together with the lamp they use, soon raises the temperature, and a degree of comfort is obtained, no matter how cold it may be on the outside. The Alaska Mining Record says that a similar degree of warmth is obtained by no other manner of camping in that region. Snow tents that are occupied for a month or more are more elaborate, and are usually built when the snow is six or eight feet deep, as the roof can be made higher and the hut entered by a covered way and through an ante-room in which the dogs sleep and the sleds and other articles are stored.

Mr. Howells Did Not Accept the Bribes.
I found that there were stations which were considered particularly desirable by the fruiterers, and that the chief of these was in front of the old United States court house. A fruiterer out of place, whose family I visited for the charities, tried even to corrupt me, and promised me that if I would get him this stendio (they Italianize "stand" to that effect, just as they translate "bar" into barra and so on), he would give me something outright. "E poi, ci sara sempre la mancia" ("And then there will always be the drink money"). I lost an occasion to lecture him upon the duties of the citizen; but I am not a ready speaker.—W. D. Howells, in the Century.

Thoroughly Organized.
Groggins—There's no more work in this town for me, an' I'll starve. Broggins—Why don't ye git out o' th' place, an' enter some other town? Groggins—I'd have to tramp there, and if th' reg'lar tramps should see me, I'd be mobbed. Broggins—What fer? Ye used to be a tramp y'rself. Groggins—Yes, but I was expelled from the Ameriken Tramps' Benevolent association, and now they'd mob me fer a scab. Broggins—What was ye expelled for? Groggins—Fer workin'.

A Boarder.
The Inquisitive Man—What do you mean by that sign outside your shop, "Summer Board?"
The Carpenter—I mean that I am ready to board the doors and windows of your house while you are away for the summer, see?

A Pleasing Fad.
People at eastern resorts have a new fad. They hire a quartette to serenade guests at hotels and cottages. The quartette is supplemented by a fifth, who conceals himself in the shrubbery and imitates the singing of birds during the selections rendered by the quartette.
