

LAWYERS WILL BANQUET.

ELABORATE PREPARATIONS HAVE BEEN MADE FOR THIS OCCASION.

Will be Held at the Cook House To-morrow Night—A Fine List of Toasts Announced—John F. Lawrence Toastmaster—A Magnificent Spread Also Has Been Prepared.

The members of the Washtenaw County bar hold their annual banquet at the Cook House tomorrow night. Elaborate arrangements have been made both for the speeches and for the wants of the larger man. Although no honorable guests will be invited this year, as was the case at the last banquet which was especially arranged as a celebration of Ex-Gov. Felch's 90th birthday, the program will be none the less interesting. Host McClure has laid himself out in the way of preparing a display of viands and soft drinks that would tempt the most pampered Epicurean. If this part of the evening's arrangements is not a success, it will be because the markets of the world and plenty of money can not make it so. In regard to the toasts it goes without saying that this part of the program will be a brilliant success. The following list of toasts with the men who are to respond to them is evidence that there will be a mighty flow of legal wisdom and lore during the evening:

- "The Bar of Washtenaw County," Hon. A. J. Sawyer.
- "The Bar as Viewed from the Bench," Hon. E. D. Kinne.
- "The Function of the Probate Courts," Hon. J. Willard Babbitt.
- Music.
- "The Bench as Viewed from the Bar," Hon. Chas. R. Whitman.
- "The Lawyer in Politics," Hon. E. P. Allen.
- "The Dignity of Our Profession," Hon. J. C. Knowlton.
- Music.
- "The Mission of the Advocate," Hon. M. J. Lehman.
- "The General Practitioner," Hon. A. F. Freeman.
- "The Amenities of the Legal Profession," Hon. B. M. Thompson.
- Music.
- "The Evolution of the Lawyer," Hon. T. A. Bogle.
- "The Literature of Law," Hon. N. W. Cheever.
- "The Progress of the Law," Judge W. D. Harriman.

Wade; Second Ward, Christian Martin; Third Ward, A. R. Peterson; Fourth Ward, Dr. J. N. Martin; Fifth Ward W. P. Moore; Sixth Ward, Evert H. Scott; Seventh Ward, A. B. Stevens; secretary, B. A. Must Apply to the Supervisors.

The following communication explains itself:

Glen V. Mills, Clerk of the City of Ann Arbor:

You are hereby notified that it is the opinion of the Soldier's Relief Commission that Act 253 of the public acts of 1895 is in force and all applicants for assistance must comply with Section 4 of said act, which directs that all applicants for aid must apply to the supervisor of their respective towns or wards. As the commission have no power to extend any aid until the supervisor has granted relief to the amount of $10, you are hereby notified that all orders heretofore issued granting relief beyond the month of January, 1896, are canceled.

C. H. MANLY,

Secretary Soldiers' Relief Commission.

Henry Ostrum.

Henry Ostrum, of Milwaukee, who associated with B. Fay Mills in the great meetings held last fall at Louisville expects to begin a series of meetings in the M. E. church, of this city, one week from next Saturday evening.

Mr. Ostrum has just closed a very remarkable revival effort in Indianapolis of which the Indianapolis Journal says:

"The large auditorium has been crowded. It was a crowd such as has been seen at meetings here only when conducted by such evangelists as Moody or Sam Jones. This has been one of the most thorough and remarkable revivals ever held in this city and its results seem to reach farther and deeper than most meetings of the kind. The object throughout has been to appeal to the intellect rather than the sympathies and emotions of the people."

A Rare Treat.

Tomorrow night there will be given at the Inland League one of the finest entertainments of the season. It will be in charge of Miss Lucy K. Cole and will illustrate certain methods of teaching music in our public schools, practical illustrations of the same being given by a large number of Miss Cole's pupils in the ward schools. Miss Cole will be assisted by Mrs. E. E. Thomas, of the Detroit Conservatory of Music, who will illustrate the methods of musical instruction in the Detroit public schools. Many people remember the great success of the Cole evening in this course last year. We can assure them of a far more interesting evening tomorrow night. The success of Miss Cole in an entertainment of this sort should, and, without doubt, will insure a crowded house. The League is to be congratulated for its good fortune in securing Miss Cole to give an entertainment of this kind.

A Big Scare.

Recently there was organized here a branch of the Granite State Provident Association. A large number of people here took stock in the association. At least 700 shares were subscribed for and two payments have been made upon them amounting to about $1400. Tuesday evening the Detroit papers contained sensational articles about the association to the effect that it was in a bad way financially. Those who had subscribed for stock here, not a few of whom are liable to lose what they have put into the business, became considerably worked up over the matter. Later reports seem to give assurance that the association is all right, and that even if the head association in the east is not a solvent condition, it has an abundance of loans in Michigan on which Michigan investors have first lien sufficient to secure every stockholder of the association in this state.

Light Infantry Notes.

Don't forget the dates of the Grand Mid-Winter Circus, Feb. 12-15.

The A. A. L. I. Band took part in the inspection ceremonies last evening.

The A. A. L. I. has received its circus paper and is greatly pleased with it.

The railroads will make a special rate to and from Ann Arbor on the occasion of the Mid-Winter Circus.

The Ypsilanti people are assured of accommodation as the motor will run several special trains during the Mid-Winter Circus.

The A. A. L. I. boys are finding out how much work it takes to get up such an entertainment as they expect to give in their Mid-Winter Circus. The amount of work that is being given to it insures its complete success.

The Light Infantry is going to a big expense in its preparations for the Mid-Winter Circus, but they propose to make the entertainment first-class in every respect, and that requires a heavy expense. It should and will receive good patronage.

Several students skated into an opening in the ice Tuesday night were the ice had been cut out. The fact that others were near and rendered prompt assistance saved their lives.

Installed New Officers.

In Lois Lodge, No. 115, D. of R., I. O. O. F., the following officers have been installed for the present term by Mrs. Geo. Scott, D. D. G. M.; N. G., Mrs. A. T. Cook; V. G., Mrs. Ella Rogers; R. Sec., George Scott. Per. Sec., George W. Clark; Treas., Mrs. J. J. Ferguson; Chap. Mrs. Geo. Colgrove; Warden, Mrs. L. Curtis; Con., Mrs. N. B. Covert; R. S. of N. G., A. T. Cook; L. S. of N. G., Mrs. J. M. Perkins; R. S. of V. G., Mrs. Wm. Cousins; L. S. of V. G., Mrs. W. J. Willcutt; I. G., W. J. Willcutt. The lodge is in a very flourishing condition as shown by the reports of officers for the term just ended.

Adrian Press Clippings.

The editorial page of the daily Washtenaw Times, has been well conducted lately. Not a word has been said on any subject.

The Washtenaw Co. bar had a meeting last week and decided to have a banquet in the near future. The price of ham and bolognas has been sharply advanced in that vicinity.

A tramp walked up to a house in Dexter and asked the lady who came to the door, for a cake of soap. The lady is under the doctor's care yet.—Chelsea Standard.

Tramps over there, always want cake or pie.

Mr. Farr's appointment as Regent, was a recognition of the western Michigan people, the second district being already represented by Regent Henry S. Daan, of Ann Arbor.—Ann Arbor Democrat

Is that so? Kindly inform us what part of the state Prof. W. H. Cocker represents.

It took three officers to hunt up a chap named Baluss, at Ann Arbor, who was wanted at Clare, for embezzling 40,000 feet of lumber. They went to the house of Baluss, broke in the door, and hunted every nook and corner, and finally found him under a floor of the house. They dug him out and landed him in jail. The lumber was not found on his person but the Clare officer took him along up north the next morning just the same.

James Furlong, is about 40 rods of humanity, living near Ypsilanti, who has less money and more experience than was his on the first of January. He lately went to Detroit, taking $50, and let a couple of nymphs—introduce him to social life at the Pingree station. He drank some Furlong whiskey, and the next morning looked at his wallet, and there wasn't any more in it than is in the hullabaloo about a war with England.

Vote of Thanks.

At a meeting of the Ann Arbor Light Infantry Wednesday evening the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, that the Company extend a vote of thanks to the Detroit Wheelmen for the many courtesies shown our arrangement committee while in Detroit and timely suggestions and favors rendered us in arranging our Mid-Winter Circus, that copies of this resolution be sent to the Detroit Wheelmen, furnished the city press and spread upon the records of the Company.

W. J. BRODIE.

1057 W. Polk St., Chicago, Oct. 27, 1893.

THE OWEN ELECTRIC BELT AND APPLIANCE CO.
Gentlemen—Solely in the interest of others who are, or may become similarly affected with myself, I venture to offer my experience with the use of the Owen Electric Belt, and that I am actuated entirely by that motive, must be apparent from the fact that until you see my name and address recorded on this letter you had no knowledge of either. I had long been a sufferer from chronic dyspepsia and nervous prostration, contracted or aggravated by many years residence in the East Indies. About three years ago I purchased one of your Belts in the hope that its use might afford me some relief and were it continuously as directed for about four hours every afternoon for a month or so, and the result was perfect! marvelous. My indigestion with all its attendant miseries, nervousness, depression, irritability and insomnia, from which latter I was a great sufferer, have disappeared. I then discontinued the use of the Belt (the existence of which I had indeed forgotten), until about six weeks ago, when a recurrence of my old trouble very forcibly reminded me of it. I again put it into wear (after ceasing its use for over one and one-half years), and with the same extraordinary results, being again restored to health, strength and vigor, after wearing it for only ten days. Under these circumstances I can most emphatically recommend to others suffering from the ailment
which I have endeavored to describe, the adoption of the use of the Owen Electric Belt.
I had long been aware of the curative powers of electricity from what I had read on the subject, and on my return to England I purchased from Pulvermacher of Regent street, London, the combined chain bands, of which he is the patentee, for which I paid three guineas, and although I must admit that I derived some benefit from their use, I am bound to say the general result did not approach the benefit derived from the use of the Owen Belt, besides which its utility is so great an improvement in comfort and convenience; Pulver-macher's being cumbersome and complicated in adjusting to the body, besides causing from being uncovered, blisters and sores, and above all not being able to regulate the current as is the case in the Owen Electric Belt. You are at perfect liberty to make what you think fit of this letter, and I shall be glad to answer either verbally or by letter any inquiry made from me on this subject. I am, gentlemen, Yours respectfully,
W. J. BRODIE.

GENERALITIES.

GLIMPSSES OF THE DOING OF THE BUSY WORLD.

Russia Obtains Control of Turkey and Gets an Upper Hand of the Other European Powers in the Dardanelles
—England Not at all Pleased.

London: A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Constantinople says an offensive and defensive alliance has been concluded between Russia and Turkey. The basis of the treaty is declared to be on the line of the Unclarikessli agreement of 1833, by which Turkey agreed in the event of Russia
going to war, to close the Dardanelles to warships of all nations. The French ambassador, M. Cambou, conferred with the sultan yesterday and it is probable France will be included in the new alliance.

Britons Don't Like It a Little Bit.
Commenting on the dispatch, the Pall Mall Gazette says: "We regard the news as true and the result of the treaty is that the Dardanelles is the southern outpost of Russia and Turkey is Russia's vassal. We presume the British government will protest against the treaty for all it is worth.
The information is plainly of the very gravest importance. This brings Russia into the Mediterranean with a vengeance, and may necessitate the strengthening of our fleet in those waters. Politically, the effect will be far greater."

Fire Engine Plunged Through a Bridge.
A fire engine while being drawn at a rapid rate to a fire in the lumber district on the flats at 2:30 a. m. at Cleveland, plunged through an open drawbridge spanning the river at Seneca street. Four firemen were on the engine, two of whom jumped in time to avoid going down. The other two men were precipitated with the engine and horses into the river, 25 or 30 feet below. The men, while being partly stunned by the fall, managed to reach some bridge piling, and were then rescued. The horses were drowned and the engine lies a wreck at the bottom of the river. The approaches to the bridge are not provided with safety gates and the night was so stormy the danger signals could not be seen. The draw had been opened to permit a fireboat going to the fire to pass through.

Over 40 Miners Killed.
A terrible explosion occurred in a colliery at Tylersdown, near Cardiff, Wales. The shafts were shattered and the whole town was shaken by the tremendous concussion, causing a scene of wild excitement. Fifty-four miners were below the surface when the explosion took place, and although several of them have reached the surface with the dead body of one of their companions, it is supposed that nearly all the remainder were killed. Rescue parties have hurried to the scene, but their work is very dangerous, as the pit is on fire. Fifteen bodies were recovered during the afternoon and 42 miners are now said to be missing. A later report places the number of dead at 41, though it is feared that the further exploration of the wreck will develop the bodies of more.

U. S. Ambassador Runyon Dead.
Hon. Theodore Runyon, United States ambassador to Germany, expired suddenly and unexpectedly at Berlin. Mr. Runyon had been in somewhat feeble health for some time past, but no immediate serious results were anticipated. His death came as a great shock to official and social circles
in Berlin, where he was a great favorite.
Mr. Runyon was born at Somerville, N. J., Oct. 25, 1822. In March, 1893, he was appointed by President Cleveland U. S. minister to Germany, and shortly afterward was made ambassador in accordance with a law that the United States representative in Germany should be raised to the rank of ambassador reciprocally
with the similar action on the part of the German government concerning its representative in the United States. A degree of LL. D. was conferred upon him by Yale, Rutgers and Westlejan colleges.

Populist National Convention.
After a session of two days at St.
Louis the Populist national committee adjourned without having selected a place to hold the next national convention. A meeting of the executive committee was unexpectedly called,
however, to consider new propositions presented by the Business Men's league of St. Louis. After discussing them for some time the committee decided to hold the national convention in St.
Louis on July 22.

British Don't Get Delagoa Bay.
Lisbon: In the Portuguese chamber of deputies Capt. Ferreira d'Almeida, minister of marine and of the colonies,
declared that the report of the sale of Delagoa bay to Great Britain was unfounded.

France Has Annexed Madagascar.
Paris: It was announced that by the terms of a treaty signed Jan. 18 the island of Madagascar is declared a French possession.

The state department is urging the house committee on ways and means to push the appropriation of $75,000 for the expenses of a convention with Great Britain for marking the Alaskan boundary.

John B. and Charles Clendenin, prominent citizens and owners of the electric light plant at Gallipolis, were found guilty of bribing a juror in the common pleas court and were each fined $100 and costs and sentenced to jail for 10 days.

There are rumors that the premptory order for Commander Ballington Booth, the head of the Salvation Army in America, to return to England, may result in the Army here breaking away from the general body in England.

The thirty-eighth annual assembly of the Grand Commandery of Royal and Select Masters was held at Detroit.
Most illustrious Grand Master George Cross presided. The reports showed high degree of the craft to be in a fourishing condition. The following officers were elected: G. M., L. B. Hess; G. P.
McMahon; D. G. M., L. B. Hess; G. P.
of W., Chas. M. Norton; G. T., Geo.
H. Green; G. Sec., Gari B. Noble; G. C.
of G., Geo. D. Smith. They were installed by Past Grand Master Hugh McCurdy.

U. S. revenue officials discovered an illicit distillery of 140 gallons a day capacity in the heart of Brooklyn.

OUR LAWMAKERS AT WORK.

SENATE—Thirty-sixth day—A controversy occurred between Mr. Sherman, Mr. Gorman, Mr. Teller and others which led to the most spirited financial debate that has occurred since the present Congress convened. Mr.
Sherman spoke at length and with great exhaustion, deprecating trusting of an "old worn out issue," the silver question, into the Senate at a time when practical legislation was imperative. Mr. Teller and Mr. Gorman answered
Mr. Sherman from their respective standpoints while Mr. Aldrich, Mr. Lindsay, Mr. Gray and others took part in the exciting debate. Two important reports were made by the committee on foreign affairs, one strongly presenting the serious condition of affairs in Turkey and urging prompt action by the civilized powers, and an adverse report on Mr. Call's resolution calling for the official dispatches of the United States consuls in Cuba. Mr. Wolcott delivered a speech in which he strongly declared that the Monroe doctrine has been misapplied in the Venezuela boundary controversy. Mr.
Fugate succeeded in having his resolution taken up, and Mr. Hill offered an amendment providing that if for any reason silver shall not be at a parity with gold coin, the United States bonds, now payable in coin, shall be paid in standard gold coin whenever demanded.
HOUSE—In the absence of any regular business before the House (today) the speaker has devoted to the consideration of minor matters and legislation by unanimous consent. Mr.
Aiken introduced a bill of rather novel
character, which practically provides that Uncle Sam shall maintain a militia organization distinct from that maintained by the several states.
Mr. Bay, of New York, inspired by the refusal of Comptroller Bowler to pay sugar bounties
because he thought the law was unconstitutional, introduced a bill which makes it unlawful for any executive officer of the government to refuse or neglect to enforce or carry into effect any law of the United States on the grounds of alleged unconstitutionality or to refuse to pay out or apply any appropriation of money made by the Congress by act or resolution which has prima facie become a law.
Mr. Aiken, of Michigan, entered objection to the consideration of a bill providing that 25 per cent of moneys received for the sale of mineral lands shall be devoted to the support of mining schools in the United States. The lands may be located, the total amounts devoted not to exceed $12,000 for each state. The reason given for the objection was that the mineral lands of Michigan have nearly all been sold, and this would leave her fine mining school without government aid. Mr. Aiken will insist upon an amendment to show that a percentage of the total sales of mineral lands in the country to be divided among existing state schools of mines on the basis of the number of students.

SENATE—Thirty-sixth day—Mr. Mills, Dem.
Tex., introduced a bill to repeal the funding act of 1870 and the specie payment resumption act of 1873. Mr. Call introduced a resolution which provides for a committee of seven Senators to investigate the imprisonment of E. V. Debs for alleged contempt of court, and to then recommend to the Senate such legislation as may be necessary to protect citizens from arbitrary and oppressive exercise of judicial power. It was disclosed at this point that the Pugh resolution for silver payment of bonds had lost its parliamentary status and was at the foot of the chair.
Warren Rep. Wyo., addressed the Senate on his resolution calling attention to the shrinkage in number and value of farm animals, and requesting the issuance of a resolution concerning the same. The Senator attributed the shrinkage to the Wilson bill, saying it had caused in two years $25,000,000 loss to the country, and $2,000,000 loss to the farmer.
The wool growers were more prosperous under free wool was proffered, he said. A message from the President transmitted the correspondence relating to Turkey and Armenia was received. At 2 o'clock the bond silver bill was taken up and Mr. Duloh, Rep. Idaho, addressed the Senate. The speech in addition to advocating passage of the free coinage substitute for the bond bill, outlined the position of Republican Senators in the silver states. Mr. Daniel spoke on the Monroe doctrine of which he is a strong advocate.
The House resumed the consideration of the rules and disposed of the last amendment offered by the committee. It is substituted for the quorum counting rule of the majority of the whole House. The method of attendance of a quorum proposed in the Forty-sixth congress by J. Randolph Tucker with some modifications. It was not until the rules of the Fifty-first congress were adopted with the few modifications from the committee that something like excitement was engendered in a debate between Kansas (Sen. Dowell, Rep. Ia., and ex-Speaker Crisp, Rep. Avery, of Michigan, introduced a bill providing that all ex-soldiers, who served 90 days in the army,
who were honorably discharged and are now in dependent circumstances, shall receive a pension of $8 per month.

SENATE—Thirty-eighth day—After a stirring debate the resolution was agreed to urging decisive action by the European powers against Turkey and pledging to the President the support of Congress in the event of any action
he may take for the protection of Americans in Turkey and the redress for injuries to American persons and property. Mr. Cummings, of Illinois, who reported the resolution, urging its adoption in a speech which set forth the startling extent of the massacres as the greatest in the history of the world. Mr. Cummings, of Louisiana, spoke in about the same line.
The climax of the debate was reached when an "eye of Lince" supported the resolution in a speech which was a great success. He spoke from the galleries for his expressions of sympathy with the Armenians, and for his better arrangement of Great Britain's course toward Turkey. Mr. Baker, of Kansas, presented an hour on limiting the pending silver coinage substitute to the silver of American mines.
HOUSE—No business.

SENATE—Thirty-ninth day—When the Senate was called to order Rev. Dr. Milburn, the blind chaplain, prayed eloquently for bleeding Armenia. Senators Frank J. Cannon and Arthur Brown, of the new state of Utah, took the oath of office, the former drawing the term ending March 4, 1897, and the latter the term ending March 3, 1897. With the exception of the contested Delaware case this establishes the political division of the upper branch of Congress until March 4, 1897, as follows: Republicans, 41; Democrats, 39; Populists, 6; total, 86. Necessary for majority, 43. Should Mr. Dupont be seated from Delaware the Republican vote would be increased to 45, but at the same time the number necessary for a majority would be increased to 47. Aside from the Delaware case the session was given to speeches on the silver bond bill. Mr. Lodge offered an amendment providing for a bond issue of $100,000,000, the proceeds to be used for coast defenses. Mr. Baker, of Kansas, presented a petition from Mrs. Wallager, wife of the ex-United States consul in Madagascar, requesting her husband's arrest, his trial by a drumhead court and his transportation in chains to the French prison. She petitioned for the United States to take some action toward securing his release. The House, after an interesting four-hour debate, adopted the resolution passed by the Senate giving to the powers of attorney to the treaty of Berlin to enforce the reforms in Turkey guaranteed to the Christian Armenians and pledging the support of Congress to the President in the most vigorous action he might take for the protection and security of American citizens in Turkey. There was a disposition on the part of some of the members to go further than the resolutions did, and Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa, proposed to give the Turkish minister his passports and sever all diplomatic relations with Turkey. But the course of M. H.
Hitt not to take rash action, in the course of which he pointed out the dire consequences that might result from a severance of diplomatic relations, prevailed. Mr. Avery intro-and King Drempeh and his household have been imprisoned as security.

TO FIGHT FOR SILVER

NEW NATIONAL PARTY IN THE FIELD.

Independent Action Decided Upon by the Friends of the White Metal—National Convention Will Meet the Same Day as the Populists.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The silver conference Thursday decided to put a national ticket in the field for the approaching presidential campaign. The national convention is to be held at St. Louis July 22, the same day as the meeting of the Populist national convention. Senator Jones of Nevada, from the committee on resolutions, presented the following declaration of principles:

"The paramount issue at this time in the United States is indisputably the money question. It is between the gold standard, gold bonds, and bank currency on the one side and the bimetallic standard, no bonds, and government currency on the other.

"On this issue we declare ourselves to be in favor of a distinctive American financial system. We are unalterably opposed to the single gold standard, and demand the immediate return to the constitutional standard of gold and silver, by the restoration by this government, independently of any foreign power, of the unrestricted coinage of both gold and silver into standard money, at the ratio of 16 to 1, and upon terms of exact equality, as they existed prior to 1873; the silver coin to be a full legal tender, equally with gold, for all debts and dues, public and private.

"We are unalterably opposed to the issue by the United States of interest-bearing bonds in time of peace, and we denounce as a blunder worse than a crime the present treasury policy, concurred in by a Republican house, of plunging the country in debt by hundreds of millions in the vain attempt to maintain the gold standard by borrowing gold; and we demand the payment of all coin obligations of the United States, as provided by existing laws, in either gold or silver, at the option of the government and not at the option of the creditor."

The resolutions closed with the following appeal to the people:

"Resolved, That, over and above all other questions of policy, we are in favor of restoring to the people of the United States the time-honored money of the constitution—gold and silver; not one, but both—the money of Washington and Hamilton, and Jefferson and Monroe, and Jackson and Lincoln, to the end that the American people may receive honest pay for an honest produce, the American debtor pay his just obligations in an honest standard, and not in a standard that is appreciated 100 per cent above the great staples of our country; and to the end, furthermore, that silver-standard countries may be deprived of the unnatural advantage they now enjoy in the difference in exchange between gold and silver—an advantage which the tariff legislation alone cannot overcome.

"We therefore confidently appeal to the people of the United States, that, leaving in abeyance for the moment all other questions, however important, even momentous, they may appear, and sundering, if need be, the former party affiliations, they unite in a supreme effort to free themselves and their children from the domination of the money power—a power more destructive than any which has ever been fastened upon the civilized men in any race and in any age. And upon the consummation of their desires and efforts we invoke the gracious favor of Divine Providence."

The following is the report of the committee on organization: "That a convention of the qualified voters of the United States who believe in the principles this day enunciated by this conference, and who are willing to subordinate party allegiance and fealty to those principles, and to support the nominees of the national convention provided for by this conference, shall be held at the City of St. Louis, Mo., on the 22d day of July, A. D. 1896, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon. That the apportionment to such convention shall be one delegate for each senator and representative in the United States congress from the several states, and one delegate for each delegate in congress from the several territories, and additional delegates for the several states and territories based upon the silver strength as ascertained from the American Bimetallic Union.

"That this conference appoint a provisional national committee, consisting of one member from each state and territory, said committee to possess all powers usually possessed by national committees of political parties; said committee to serve until the holding of said national convention; said committee or a portion thereof appointed by this conference shall have full power to fill all vacancies, whether from the failure of this conference to appoint a full committee or from death, resignation, or otherwise. Said committee shall have its headquarters in the city of Washington, D. C.

"The mode of selecting delegates to said national convention shall be as prescribed by the national committee, subject to the following regulations: "All delegates shall be elected at public convention or at public meetings, to be held either in the several states at large or in the several counties or districts of such states, as the national committee may prescribe.

"No person shall be eligible as a delegate to any such convention or meeting, or shall sit as a delegate in said national convention, who is not in favor of the declaration of principles this day enunciated by this conference, and who is not willing to subordinate party allegiance to the advancement of such principles, and to support the nominees if said convention.

THOSE HIGH STATE TAXES.

THE determined way in which the Democratic press of the state is attempting to lead the odium of the present high state tax upon the Republican party is clearly exposed in the following extract from Gov. Rich's speech before the State Grange some weeks ago.

It may not be uninteresting to give a few facts in relation to State finances and the cause of the present high state tax.

There is one unpleasant thing about it. I cannot assure you of any relief this year, but next year there will be a substantial reduction. The State is growing rapidly, and some increase in the amount of State tax is unavoidable, as the demands of the State increase.

The main excess of taxes this year over what they have been in legislative years in the past arises from the fact that sufficient taxes have not been levied in the past to pay the expenses of running the State government.

I will go over briefly the condition of State finances for the past eight years. One of the most prolific causes of the increased expense is the care of the insane. The cost of keeping prisoners has increased with increased number and the inability to find remunerative employment.

When Governor Luce was inaugurated, January 1, 1887, there was a balance in the state treasury of $440,232.83. His administration had to live one year and over on what his predecessor had provided, and the balance in the treasury at the close of his first year was $94,060.46.

The appropriations made by the legislature of 1889 were $3,085,205 or more than $300,000 less than in 1887. The amount appropriated for the insane was $786,939, and for all state institutions, $2,246,693. The balance in the treasury December 31, 1890, the close of Governor Luce's second term, was $6,315,515, and on December 31, 1891, the time when the administration of Governor Winans would commence to live on what it had provided, there was a balance of $506,110, or, in round numbers, $100,000 less than one year previous.

al government, making up to that time a total reduction of $677,637. The new administration had to live one year on what had been provided by its predecessor, and on December 31, 1893, there was a balance of minus $128,300, and this after getting in about $200,000 advanced by the Michigan Central and Lake Shore & Western Southern railroad companies, and about $150,000 from Wayne county; and the overdraft mentioned was paid by the First National Bank of Detroit, making a deficit of nearly or quite $500,000.

The legislature of 1891 levied in the taxes for the two years only $2,863,050, but they received from the general government $420,000, and made appropriations amounting to $264,000 to which there was no taxing clause attached, amounting in all to $3,547,258. Among the items for which an insufficient tax was raised, was the care of the insane. The estimate for 1891-92 was $650,000, but the cost was $882,523 or $232,523 more than the estimate.

The legislature of 1893 levied in taxes for 1893, $1,931,214 and 1894, $1,689,135 a total for the two years of $3,620,349; and it made appropriations amounting to $172,000 to which no taxing clause was incorporated. It is proper to say that this legislature was unaware of the condition of the treasury, or it is reasonable to presume the matter would have been remedied.

The following table shows the amount of tax levied from 1887 to 1896, inclusive also the amounts paid for the support of educational, reformatory and charitable institutions:

Table with columns: YEAR, TOTAL TAX LEVY, EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS, PENIT. AND REFORMATORY, INSANE, ALL INSTITUTIONS. Rows for years 1887-1896 and totals.

Table with columns: YEAR, PRIMARY SCHOOL INTEREST FUND FROM 1887 TO 1895, INCLUSIVE. Rows for years 1887-1895.

Table with columns: YEAR, LEGISLATIVE EXPENSES, 1887 TO 1895. Rows for years 1887-1895.

The balance at the close of business, December 9, 1895, was $31,644.49, but there had been borrowed $900,000, and $50,000 advanced by Wayne county. There are taxes due from various counties and from insurance companies and charter railroad companies, which will enable the bills to be met until the money from the present tax levy can be realized.

The census, amounting to, probably, $75,000 has been paid. There will be some interest to pay on loans, and some received for deposits, but which will not materially change the result. There is also being considerable expended in the collection of accounts against counties which have been delinquent in payment of taxes, but there will be from $200,000 to $250,000 collected which would otherwise not have been paid to the State.

In view of the increased expense it is possible there will be a small deficiency at the close of the year 1896, but every effort is being made to collect past due taxes and to keep down expenses.

This in brief is the present condition of the treasury, and the cause of the present high taxes. It is to be sincerely regretted that this high tax comes when people feel so illly able to pay, but the appropriations are no more than the necessities of the State and its varied interests and institutions require and the honor of the State and of its people demands that the unauthorized debt be canceled at the earliest possible moment.

The action of the Board of Regents in establishing a woman's deanship and appointing an able and experienced woman to the position is an act to be commended, though but a tardy recognition of the rights due the thousands of women who have been students at the University of Michigan. Instead of having a woman upon the faculty who could come in touch with the lady students, the University has heretofore gone to the other extreme and retained many professors, and it is not entirely free from such men today, who believe that the same treatment should be shown a delicately organized woman that would be accorded a sturdy coarse-grained boy.

We have heard more than one professor say, if ladies come to the University of Michigan they must expect just the same treatment that is shown the young men. We are indeed glad to see that the Regents are discharging such semi-barbaric ideas and have come to realize that while the young men who came here should be treated like men, the young women should likewise be treated like women.

The balance December 31, 1894, was a minus of $66,894 and $300,000 had been borrowed to bridge over until the taxes could be collected. The legislature of 1895 appropriated for 1895 $2,733,919 or thereabouts, and for 1896 $3,013,919, and for 1896 it is estimated it will be about $2,083,800.

broadminded man or woman will say: Treat the men like men and the women like women. This seems to be what the Regents are now disposed to do.

Was Not Whipped.

Your informant who supplied the data upon which you prepared the article in your last week's issue, entitled "No Whipping, No Larnin'" made a great mistake when he said the son of Mr. Mowerson was soundly whipped by his teacher, for such is not the truth. The boy was struck in the face by his teacher. It is not the first time the teacher has treated pupils in this manner. Mr. Mowerson has been informed that the board of examiners have allowed the teacher to continue her duties in the school room, but she must not strike her pupils in the face. As for the "turning over" mentioned in said article, Mr. Mowerson is ignorant of what that can be, as he has heard nothing of an unkind nature from that honorable body whom the writer says administered the "Long to be remembered turning over."

W. C. T. U.

For God, and Home and Native Land. Edited by Mrs. A. E. Van Valkenburg. Press Superintendent

A special meeting of the city W. C. T. U. will be held this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, in the post-office block, to meet the District and County presidents to make arrangements for the District Convention which will be held in Ann Arbor in April.

The Loyal Temperance Legion give a reception to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at the time of their regular meeting next Saturday, at two o'clock, in the hall over Calkins' drugstore on State street. Every member of the Union is cordially invited to be present.

It has been decided to hold the twenty-third Annual Convention of the National W. C. T. U. in San Francisco next fall.

Miss Clara Barton and her courageous corps of workers have decided to start for Constantinople in the face of the Sultan's prohibition. The Turk in forbidding entrance to the Red Cross Society, to which he himself belongs, has become more "unspeakable" than ever. Apparently his plan for the relief of Christian Armenians is to put them forever beyond the necessity of relief by exterminating them as fast as possible and in the most brutal manner.

Rev. D. L. Moody, president of the Bible Institute, of Chicago, has set apart a fund by which he is enabled to send Bible and books written by Spurgeon, Talmage and other good writers, free, to any part of the United States for distribution in jails and in prisons. White-ribboners have received valuable assistance in their department of jail-work from this source.

Mrs. Aldrich, state superintendent of work among the "Lumbermen and Miners" reports a large quantity of good literatures and a great many well-filled comfort bags sent to the camps during the past two months. Funds have been raised to support a missionary, who shall report weekly the name and location of every camp he visits, the condition of the men in each, work done, and other things which will greatly help in the work.

Mrs. Mary G. Stackenburg, of Mass., superintendent of "Capital and Labor," accompanied by Mrs. Mary T. Burt, president of New York W. C. T. U., went before the American Federation of Labor, to present greetings from the National W. C. T. U. to that body. They welcomed the ladies, passed a unanimous resolution not to smoke while they were present, and voted to incorporate their speeches in the National Report of the Federation, only one vote being opposed to this, that of the delegate from the Brewers National Union.

CUBAN HABITS.

While there is so much discussion at present over the affairs of Cuba, a short sketch of Cuban habits may be interesting. The saloons of Cuba are many, and they are very gaily decked to attract their victims. Gin is the national beverage, and is very low priced. Spanish claret comes next in favor. Although the people drink often, they usually take small drams, which accounts for the low per cent of intoxicated men. Coffee is a favorite beverage, but tourists seldom drink Cuban coffee, for the best of the product is exported; not so with the tobacco however; the very finest quality is kept for home consumption. Smoking is a national custom. Everybody smokes, men, women and many children; they smoke at all times. During dinner cigarettes are passed around between the courses, and burners are always kept upon the table. After dinner the finest brand of cigars owned by the host are brought out. Snuff is seldom taken, and tobacco is never chewed on the island, except by other nationalities. To illustrate the smoking habits, I quote from a noted traveller: "The funeral cortege in Havana is most unique. The hearse drawn by four black horses, is gilded and decked like a car of Juggernaut, and is driven by a flunky dressed in a cocked hat covered with gold braid, a scarlet coat alive with brass buttons and gilt ornaments. This individual is very proud of his position. Beside the hearse walk six hired mourners. Fifteen or twenty victorias follow, containing only male mourners. The driver in scarlet, the twelve mourners, and the occupants of the carriage each and all are smoking cigars as though their lives depended upon the successful operation."

DR. GREENE'S NERVURA

Physicians Urgently Advise Use of Dr. Greene's Nervura.

Well Known Physicians Enthusiastic in Their Statements of the Wonderful Curative Powers of Dr. Greene's Nervura.

DR. JOB SWEET.

One of the most noted physicians and surgeons is Dr. Job Sweet, of New Bedford, Mass. He makes the public statement that he has often recommended the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to his patients who have been suffering from nervous troubles and he has learned that in a large number of these cases it has proven efficacious.

Dr. Willard H. Morse, F. B. S. S., of Westfield, N. J., the great expert on medicines, says of this grand discovery of Dr. Greene:—

"The true remedy for nervous diseases is Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It acts by affecting the organs of nutrition, and entering into the formation of new nerve tissue, which generates nerve force. This means the making of new nerves."

The well-known Dr. Emil Neumer, superintending physician of the N. Y. Lodge and Association Hospital says:—

"We are using Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy at this hospital for our patients with good success."

Dr. B. D. Bickford, of Wolcott, Vt., states:—

"I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for some time, first trying it myself, and I found it did me so much good that I now recommend it to my patients. The fact that I have used it in my own case shows that I know what I am talking about. As a tonic and invigorator it is the best of all to build up a person.

Dr. Robert W. Lance, of So. Woodbury, Vt., says:—

"I have known about Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and the good results in cases as a tonic, after hard sickness, and the cure of nervous females. They have received great good from its use. I do not hesitate to recommend it."

Dr. C. W. Cook, of Carmel, Ind., says:—

"I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for my patients and have found the remedy all that was claimed for it. The results have been entirely satisfactory. I think it is worthy and I recommend its use."

Such enthusiastic endorsement by physicians stamps this remarkable medical discovery as the greatest restorer of health and strength. It certainly cures more cases of diseases than any other known remedy. It makes all who take it strong and well. It is the prescription and discovery of the well-known physician, Dr. Greene, of 25 W. 14th St., New York City, who can be consulted without charge, personally or by letter.

ROB ROY.

Grand Opera House, Monday February 3.

The Whitney opera company which appears here for the first time in the production of "Rob Roy" the latest work by Reginald De Koven and Harry B. Smith, has by reason of his indomitable pluck and the personell of the organization itself, assumed its present power with the theatre going public in a shorter time than any similar company. Mr. Whitney, who is now but 35 years of age and probably the youngest of the American managers, has given up this season the idea of controlling many theatres and many companies. He is devoting himself solely and exclusively to the interests of the great opera, whose phenomenal success in New York made it world famed.

This does not mean, however, that "Rob Roy" is to be the trade-mark, so to speak, with which he will, for all time, charm the public. Although "Rob Roy" is today a more pronounced success than anything since the days of Ermine or more appropriately, since it is the work of De Koven and Smith, since the palmy days of Robin Hood, Mr. Whitney will not continue to depend solely upon it. The organization appearing at the Grand Opera House next Monday evening will be held together from year to year for the presentation of new operas as rapidly as they can be found of equal merit with "Rob Roy." However, for the immediate present the chief interest of music lovers is concentrated on the latter opera and there is already every indication that it's first hearing here will duplicate all of its past successes.

A Matter of Opinion.

A gentleman was greatly surprised and pleased the other day at the reply a lady gave to the question: "Do you plant Vick's Seeds?" Her answer was: "I always plant Vick's seeds in the front yard, but we get cheap seeds in the back yard, which I know is a mistake."

It pays to plant good seeds, and we advise our friends who are thinking of doing anything in this line to send 10 cents for Vick's Floral Guide for 1896. This amount may be deducted from the first order. James Vick's Sons, Rochester, N. Y., are the pioneers in this line.

What is

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osogood,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. KINCHLOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

SMUGGLING WITH SNOWBALLS.

A Clever Ruse to Hoodwink the Customs Officials of Russia.

Until within recent years the Russian frontier on the German boundary was guarded in a surprisingly weak manner for a nation so completely under military rule as the czar's great empire. But now there is a strong cordon of garrisons only a few miles apart, and a careful patrol service between them. The chief duty of these garrisons is to prevent smuggling, and the introduction of nihilist literature into Russia. The duty is hard and monotonous, and the czar does not like to have his best trained and most effective regiment sent out along the boundary line.

For the most part these garrisons consist of young recruits from the eastern and central provinces of Russia. They are seldom expert soldiers, and the lax discipline they are under is further weakened by their excessive drinking. Their small pay is doled out to them twice a month, and every kopeck of it is immediately expended in vodka. After the vodka is gone they employ their spare time in making raids across the boundary line into the German farm yards to supplement their meager rations. Along the entire boundary line between these two countries there is a series of great open plains. Over these an icy east wind blows in winter, and the only way the soldiers can keep alive on their patrol is by the building of wood fires between the posts. Even then the patrols frequently have their limbs frozen in their monotonous marches to and fro. Hence it is not at all difficult to smuggle across the boundary, and, indeed, it is suspected that the soldiers often add to their small pay by making deals with the smugglers and turning their heads the other way when they pass by. Two very novel attempts were made last spring by the smuggling fraternity, both of which proved successful. In one case, late one night, a band of men in Germany began snowballing some villagers on Russian territory, and the Russians returned the attack. In the snowballs thrown from Germany, however, yards of fine Brussels lace were concealed. This method proved most successful, for even the secret police did not discover it, and the guard of the frontier certainly had no idea of what was going on. Quite as efficacious was the bringing of thousands of nihilist proclamations through Silesia under the very eyes of the garrison. These proclamations were in the hollow staves carried by a body of men who passed themselves off as pious pilgrims entering Russia on a sacred journey.

TRICKS PLAYED BY PLANTS.

Artful Devices of the Calendula—The Cow Wheat's Joke.

Dr. Lundstrom has recently described some cases of alleged plant mimicry, says London Public Opinion. The cultivated plant known as calendula may, in different conditions, produce at least three different kinds of fruit. Some have sails and are suited for transportation by the wind, while others have hooks and catch hold of passing animals, but the third kind exhibits a more desperate dodge, for it becomes like a caterpillar! Not that the fruit knows anything about it, but it is sufficiently like a caterpillar, a bird may eat it by mistake, the indigestible seeds will be subsequently dropped and so the trick succeeds.

The next case is more marvelous. There is a very graceful wild plant, with beautiful, delicate flowers, known to many as the cow wheat. Ants are fond of visiting the cow wheat to feast on a sweet banquet spread out upon the leaves. Dr. Lundstrom has observed one of these ants and was surprised to see it making off with one of the seeds from an open fruit. The ant took the seed home with it. On exploring some ant nests the explorer saw that this was not the first cow-wheat seed which had been similarly treated. Many seeds were found in the ant nurseries. The ants did not eat them or destroy them; in fact, when the nest was disturbed the ants saved the seeds along with their brood, for in size, form, color and weight, even in minute particulars, the seeds in question resemble ant cocoons. Once placed among the cocoons it requires a better than an ant to distinguish the tares from the wheat. In the excitement of flitting when the nest is disturbed, the mistake is repeated and the seeds are also saved. The trick is found out some day, for the seeds, like the cocoons, swarms out of sleep. The awakening displays the fraud. The seeds are thus supposed to be scattered; they germinate and seem to thrive in the ant nests.

LITERARY NOTES.

The Forum for January contains: Some Suggestions on Currency and Banking by Adolf Ladenburg; Railroad Kate Wars; Their Cause and Cure, John W. Midgley; Naval Aspects of the Japan-China War, Sir Edmund R. Fremantle; Criminal Crowding of Public Schools, James H. Pennington; The Development of Sculpture in America, William Ordway Partridge; A Study of Church Entertainments, Rev. Wm. Bayard Hale; Woman and the Bicycle, Dr. Henry J. Garrigues; The "German Vote" and the Republican Party, Frederick William Hollis; The Federal Census, Carroll D. Wright; Matthew Arnold's Letters, Herbert Woodfield Paul.

The first reproduction of Mr. Percy Ives's recent portrait of President Cleveland is one of the many interesting features of the January issue of The Art Amateur, and the article on "Beardsleyism" extravagances is pertinent and appropriate. The revived taste in America for eighteenth century paintings as indicating the beginning of a reaction from realism forms the subject of another valuable paper, and "The Study of Human Expression," maintains the interest of former installments. What may be called the Educational section of the magazine is very strong this month, and teachers and parents will find much that will prove instructive and helpful to them in this department.

The "Lee of Virginia" series will begin in the next (February) number of Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly, with the introductory article specially written for it by Mrs. Roger A. Prior, upon "The Ancestors of General Robert E. Lee" in England and in Colonial Virginia, and the times in which they lived. This article, and those to follow, will be profusely illustrated, the whole forming an authoritative pictorial chronical of the distinguished family which has given to America so many statesmen, warriors, and types of chivalrous patriotism.

Scribner's Magazine enters upon its tenth year with several new departments and a most promising outlook for interesting features. What most readers will first turn to is the long expected serial by J. M. Barrie, his only fiction since the publication of "The Little Minister," four years ago. In these times of prolific novelists it is unusual for one of the most popular of them to show the reticence exhibited by Mr. Barrie. A reading of this first long instalment of "Sentimental Tommy" (25 pages of which are given) will convince everyone that Mr. Barrie has produced a masterpiece.

The character sketch of the Sultan of Turkey in the January Review of Reviews will acquaint many readers for the first time with the real personality of that functionary, who is described as the chief constable of the East—"a poor policeman, but the only policeman there is" in that portion of the earth.

Prof. Sloan's Life of Napoleon Bonaparte is continued in the January number of the Century, and deals with the battles of Jena, Auerstadt, Pultusk, and Eylau. It includes an account of the devastation of Prussia, and among the interesting details describes the excellent arrangements in the field which contributed to the celerity and accuracy of Napoleon's movements. The daily routine of his military life is graphically set forth, as well as the hardships of the troops in Poland.

The January number of the New England Magazine opens appropriately with an article on "The Winter Birds of New England," by Mr. William Everett Cram. A very charming article it is, and exquisitely illustrated by its author, who is a young New Hampshire naturalist. The article is inspired by a love of nature as true as that of Thoreau or John Burroughs, and shows a familiarity with the habits of the birds and an exactness of description which gives promise that an important new student and writer is coming into this interesting field.

IT CONTINUES THE NATIONAL BAPTIST, AND THE CHRISTIAN ENQUIRER. Both these Baptist papers having been consolidated with the EXAMINER.

$2 is the Price of one year's Subscription. $2

The Back Chapters of GLEG KELLY: ARAB OF THE CITY, a serial story, by Rev. S. R. Crockett, author of A Lilac Sunbonnet; Bog, Myrtle and Peat; The Stick Minister, etc., will be forwarded FREE.

This story was written by Mr. Crockett for publication in book form, but his American representatives, Messrs. D. Appleton & Co., contracted to give THE EXAMINER the exclusive right to publish it as a serial before its issue in book form. It was begun in THE EXAMINER of October 10th, and will run for several months yet.

Is not this most and generous attractive? Now let every friend, East, West, North and South, become a self appointed agent, to the end that THE EXAMINER—a weekly epitome of the world's progress—may go into thousands of new homes during 1896.

Agents for THE EXAMINER have a cash commission arrangement for obtaining new subscribers and collecting from old ones. In churches that we have no agent in at present, or where the agent fails to canvass the church, we invite some friend to write us for terms and instructions. And we will consider it a friendly act if the pastor of any church in which we are unrepresented will take steps that will result in a suitable person undertaking the home missionary work that increasing the list of readers of a good denominational paper really is.

Sample copies will be sent to the names of prospective subscribers at their own request, or that of friends who purpose to call upon them for their subscriptions. Address, "THE EXAMINER, Box 2203, New York City." Just that—no more—no less.

NEWSY NOTES OF PEOPLE AND THINGS OF MICHIGAN.

The University of Michigan Keeps Up to the Times by Securing a Woman Prof. —Royal Arch Masons of Michigan Met at Detroit—$30,000 Fire at Coleman.

A Lady Prof. at the U. of M.

Elvia F. Mosher is the first woman to be made a professor of the University of Michigan, after years of agitation of such a step. She will be a very useful member of the faculty, as professor of hygiene and woman's dean in the literary department.

Elvia F. Mosher, D. D., now practices medicine in Brooklyn, N. Y. She graduated from the U. of M. in 1875 and was among the University first women alumni. Dr. Mosher was in 1877 appointed resident physician of the Massachusetts reformatory for women. Two years later she visited London and Paris in the study of special medical subjects, and on her return was made superintendent of the reformatory prison. In 1884 she accepted the position of professor of physiology and resident physician of Vassar college, where she served three years. But she preferred to resume the practice of her profession, and in 1887 settled in Brooklyn, N. Y. Dr. Mosher was one of the incorporators of the Chautauqua school of physical education, and is now first vice-president of the school and lecturer on anatomy.

Another woman appointment at the U. of M. is that of Miss Gertrude Buck, of Kalamazoo, as assistant in English. Miss Buck is a daughter of Judge Buck, of the Kalamazoo circuit, a graduate of the U. of M., and a young lady of exceptionally fine literary attainments.

Still another valuable acquisition to the University is Robert Mark Wenley, of Glasgow university, doctor of science, who was elected to the chair of philosophy in the U. of M. He is said to be well qualified for the chair.

Grand Chapter R. A. M.

The annual session of the grand chapter of Michigan, Royal Arch Masons, was held at Detroit with 250 delegates in attendance. High Priest Chas. D. Blanchard presided. Grand Secretary J. S. Conover's annual report showed that the degree had been conferred on 700 new members in the state during the past year. There had been a healthy increase of the funds, and the general condition of the chapters was better than in years before. One new chapter had been organized at St. Ignace. Officers elected: G. H. P., Lou B. Winsor, Reed City; D. G. H. P., Charles Gay, Big Rapids; G. K., Charles N. Norton, Lansing; G. S., Frank N. Clark, Northville; G. treasurer, Emerson Newell, Detroit; G. secretary, J. S. Conover, Coldwater; G. C., Francis A. Blades, Detroit; G. visitor, L. C. Goodrich, Ann Arbor; G. C. of H., Reuben C. Webb, Detroit; G. P. S., William C. Denfield, Saginaw; G. R. A. C., Chas. L. Stevens, Ypsilanti; G. M. of V., third, Horace Maynard, Charlotte; second, J. W. Burk, Coldwater; first, M. B. McGee, Crystal Falls; G. T., Alex McGregor, Detroit. The next session will be held at Saginaw.

Grand Rapids' Man's Home Dismayed.

Soon after midnight residents in the east end of Grand Rapids were startled out of their beds by a noise which shook houses for blocks around. A few moments later the fire department was called to the residence of William E. Boyd, 224 South Fuller street, but there was little for them to do. The house was completely wrecked by a terrific explosion which scattered the walls, roof and bits of furniture all over the neighborhood and not enough of the house was left to mark the spot. The cause of the explosion is a deep mystery. Boyd and his wife have been living in down-town rooms while the house was being furnished. The house was insured for $1,500 and the furniture for $2,500. Boyd was formerly engaged in the chattel mortgage business and it is thought that he then made an enemy who took this method to be revenged.

Fish and Game Protectors.

The annual meeting of the Michigan Game and Fish Protective league was held at Lansing. There was a fair attendance and a great deal of enthusiasm. The game wardens received considerable praise. Officers elected: President, W. S. Vance, of Port Huron; vice-presidents, Joseph Hills, of Pontiac, and S. B. Daboll, of St. Johns; secretary, A. L. Lakey, of Kalamazoo; treasurer, E. Crofton Fox, Grand Rapids;

Coleman's Costly Conflagration.

Fire broke out in the Michigan head lining and hoop mill at Coleman and it was nearly burned to the ground. The kilns, stock sheds and everything, excepting the boiler house, was consumed. The loss will reach fully $30,000, with an insurance of $10,000. This is Coleman's largest manufacturing institution, and a large number of men were employed. The origin of the fire is unknown.

72-Year-old Prisoner Pardoned.

Gov. Rich has pardoned Bartholomew Sands, who was sent from Oakland county Sept. 20, 1824, to state prison for life, for rape. Sands is one of the oldest convicts in the prison, his number being 55 and he being past 72 years of age.

Alpena has a telephone war between the Alpena Mutual and the Bell monopoly and rates are going to smash.

The coal supply shed of the S. T. & H. railway at Sebawaing, containing over 600 tons of coal, burned. Loss, over $2,500.

Policeman Ellertrope, of Port Huron, has been acquitted of the charge of robbing the cash drawer of James Wilson's saloon.

There will be 10 shipping mines in the Iron Mountain district this year as against five last year, and the output will be more than doubled.

ENGLAND INVIT'D.

To Submit Evidence to the Venezuelan Commission.

Washington: The Venezuelan commission appointed by President Cleveland, has invited the governments of Great Britain and Venezuela to submit to it all of the evidence in their possession to further work of the commission, to be represented before it by attorneys and all of this with the reservation that such representation and appearance shall not be deemed an abandonment of any rights or position heretofore assumed. It has done this in order that the proceedings of the commission may not be said to be ex parte, that the truth may appear and that time may be saved in the inquiry with which the commission is charged. Secretary Olney has transmitted a copy of the commission's views to the two governments concerned.

London Papers Say Its Insolence.

London: The Globe publishes a severe article on the invitation of the United States-Venezuela commission to the governments of Great Britain and Venezuela to submit to the commission the evidence in their possession, and says: "Great Britain will never allow this monstrous claim to determine the territory of a British colony within its jurisdiction. No power could admit it except at the close of a long and disastrous war. Were such a demand made by any other power, our only reply would be to hand its ambassador his passports and mobilize the fleet. Will these pernicious commissioners undertake to answer for the effect upon their own countrymen of forcing the premier to snub the American secretary of state?"

Germany Threatens Venezuela.

New York: The Sun publishes a dispatch from Havana which says the two German war vessels which arrived there five days ago have been ordered to Venezuela to enforce Germany's railroad claim.

Berlin: The Berlin correspondent of the Standard telegraphs that the German minister at Caracas has demanded payment of the Venezuelan government on behalf of German capitalists for the Venezuela railway constructed by them.

Berlin: It is semi-officially denied that the two German warships at Havana are shortly to proceed to Venezuela.

Ohio Roodlers Brought to Time.

A bomb was exploded in political circles at Columbus by the indictment of three ex-members of the legislature on charges of bribery. True bills were found, against ex-Senator John Geyer for soliciting $400 from W. F. Burdell, for his influence in securing the passage of a bill; against ex-Senator Gear for soliciting $250 from D. H. Gaumer, of Zanesville, in the Iden-Gaumer election contest in 1893; three counts against ex-Senator Ohl, of Youngstown. Gear and Geyer are Democrats and Ohl a Republican. Other indictments are probable. All three have been arrested.

Anti-local-optionists are working hard to get the requisite number of petitions to call another election to vote on the question of the open sale in Allegan county. So far only one township, returned a sufficient number. Five men have served and are serving four months now for violation of the liquor law, one without the privilege of paying a fine; 29 have been convicted; three others have served from 20 days to three months.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

The past week has been marked by improvement, apparent rather than real. Prices of some products have risen, but only because supplies are believed to be smaller than was expected. The senate still injures all business by doing nothing and the treasury cannot expect to gain in gold as yet, but loses less than was expected. It is generally assumed that the new loan will be placed without difficulty, though the successive payments may cause continued disturbance. A deluge of foreign reports favorable to wheat speculation found ready answer in an advance in spite of western receipts, 50 per cent larger than last year. Atlantic exports for the week were also much larger than last year, for the first time in several months, but for the crop year to date all exports have been about 11,000,000 bushels smaller than last year. The market has the idea that foreign demands hereafter may be much greater because of deficient supplies elsewhere, but no one expects that increase will be at all commensurate with the enormous increase in western receipts. Corn advanced because wheat advanced, receipts and exports continuing as before. Cotton rose a small degree, but textile industries do not gain. With material specials unchanged the market because the demand for future delivery is so narrow. Woolen goods also tend lower with small demand and all practically at the prices of a year ago, though wool is higher. The iron and steel business finds encouragement in the advance of Bessemer pig and gray iron, but these are results of the advance ordered by combinations in coke and ore. Prices of finished products average lower. The demand is plainly too small for the supply and the works in operation are killing time for each other by underbidding. The failures for the week have been 373 in the United States, against 363 last year.

Rt. Hon. G. J. Goeschen, first lord of the admiralty of Great Britain, in a speech said that the destination of the now famous "flying squadron" was not known and that its organization was not necessarily a menace to any nation, but it was intended as an emergency measure.

In a speech at a banquet in London Hon. Jos. Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies, said he was glad of the recent thrusts at Great Britain from various directions as it had roused the country and the colonies and they had showed that they are still Britons and not to be trifled with.

FOUND IT WAS NO USE.

They Quit When They Discovered He Was a Yank.

Governor Matthews is telling a good story he heard in the South recently, says the Indianapolis Journal. In a valley in the northern part of Georgia, between two mountains, which shut out all communication with the outside world, there lived an old planter who, while an ardent adherent of the Southern cause, was too badly crippled by infirmities to shoulder a musket and march barefooted.

The years wore on and news failed to arrive. The valley was deserted and there was no one to learn the course of events. The old man smoked his pipe and waited impatiently for news.

One morning as he sat on the front porch, with his pipe, far down the dusty road appeared the form of a solitary pedestrian.

The old man reached behind him for a stout club, which he used as a cane. 'Jim,' he said, nervously; 'Jim, ye didn't desert?'

'No; we're whupped.' 'What?' 'Yes, we're whupped. Lee has surrounded with his army and we all laid down our guns.'

Boying American Botta.

Some time ago an American launch company sold to the Grand Duke Alexander of Russia an electric launch of the same type as that provided for the United States man-of-war New York.

GEORGE R. KELLY SELLS WOOD.

The Professor Talks to His Class.

Dr. Liebman, Professor of Pathological Anatomy, asked his class of several hundred young men how many of them had catarrh. Over two-thirds raised their hands and the Professor said: "It is evident that among the people a very much larger proportion will be afflicted. In your practice you will find men, women and children who have either a simple catarrh from a slight cold in the head, or with the mucous passages inflamed with running sores, or with the passages of the head entirely eaten away and the diseases extending to the throat and still others where the disease has reached the acute form making breathing impossible.

USES OF THE BANANA.

The Skin is Valuable for Blackening Shoes.

In the West Indies the dried leaves and prepared portions of the stem are used as packing materials, says Chambers' Journal. Fresh leaves are used to shade young coffee or cocoa seedlings in nursery beds, and to cover cocoa beans during fermentation.

In the Malay peninsula the ash of the leaf and leaf stalk is used instead of soap or fuller's earth in washing clothes, and a solution of the ash is often used as a salt in cooking.

When you are through getting partial relief from headache and neuralgia by the use of uncertain remedies, try a cure that's thorough—one that's guaranteed to cure or your money refunded.

Lower Farming.

The statistics of flower farming tell us that the British Indies and Europe consume annually, at the very lowest estimate, 150,000 gallons of perfumed spirits, under various names.

Even catarrh, that dread breeder of consumption, succumbs to the healing influences of Thomas' Electric Oil.

THE PROISED LAND.

Why the Tourist, Traveler and Student should visit Utah.

There are two reasons, either one of which ought to be conclusive with every American citizen. First:—The trip from Denver to Utah via Rio Grande Western.

Second:—You should go because, when you have made this wonderful trip, you will find Utah at the end of it. Utah, one of the world's famous spots and a land of gold, silver, copper, iron and coal; of lofty mountains and fertile valleys; of vineyards, fruits and flowers.

ONE MAN'S SUFFERING.

The Trials and Tribulations of a Battle Creek Citizen—How He Comes to Tell This Story.

Among the moulders at the works of the Michigan foundry company can be found Mr. Amos Maynard; he has lived in Battle Creek for over ten years, is honored and respected by all who know him; such is the man who makes this statement, he says: "I have had kidney trouble for years, and it has made my life miserable. The heavy lifting, necessary in my business, made me worse. I have been compelled to lie in bed in a helpless condition for as long as nine days at a time; the greatest pain was from my back, which sometimes felt as though a bayonet was being run through me in the region of my kidneys; many citizens of Battle Creek knew how bad I was. I could not move without the greatest caution, for as soon as I attempted to stoop over, bend to one side, or even turn in bed, the pain was simply unbearable. I wore porous plasters constantly for the little temporary relief they brought me. When weary I caught the slightest cold it went straight to my kidneys and made me worse. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and got some. I have taken in all four boxes of them, and I now feel as active as ever. A few months ago I would have ridiculed the idea of being cured so quickly, and being able to work as I can now. All the long-standing pains are gone, and the former traces of kidney disorders found in my urine have disappeared. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to many friends who were troubled as I was, and in every case I have learned they proved as beneficial as with me. Doan's Kidney Pills would be cheap to me at almost any price."

SOUVENIRS OF A RAID.

Safes Left in the Street by the James Gang.

The writer was sitting in front of one of the stores at Parkville, Mo., smoking a very bad cigar of local origin and conversing with the merchant who had sold it, says the Washington Star. It was about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and many of the country people were coming into town. A country girl of the region came cantering up on a bare-back horse and slid off on what was a unique sort of horse-block.

It was nothing more or less than an old rusty safe of considerable size. It had apparently lain there for years, and when examined disclosed a suspicious-looking hole in one side, clearly the work of explosives. At this point the attention of the investigator from the east was called to two other safes, similarly exploded, and also lying on their sides in the street and doing duty as horse-blocks.

"How about these safes?" "Nuthin' much of a story," remarked the Parkville merchant. "Them safes have laid right there where you all see 'em since '73. They wuz dragged out there and busted by Quantrell and Jess and Frank James and the Younger brothers, along with the rest of Quantrell's gang. They came chargin' down the street one day in June, and tuk the town in about a minute and a half, and then went for them safes. Money wuz mighty popular with Quantrell and the James boys, and they usually went arter all they heard of."

"How much did they get from the safes?" "I dunno how much they got from them on 'other side of the street," said the Parkville man. "They hunted $3,800 out'n mine." And here he pointed sadly at the safe nearest to him, the one on which the young rustic had just alighted.

"Was that yours?" was asked. "Yes," he answered. "I kep' store then right whar I do now and just as I do now."

"Why haven't you removed the safes?" "What's the use?" observed the Parkville man. "They ain't in nobody's way and they do fast-rate for loss-blocks. 'Nuther thing—we ain't got no carts nor tackle strong enough to move 'em, nohow; so we jest let them go as they lay, as they say in fero."

The Number of Drunkards.
I stated two years ago that there were approximately 1,600,000 persons who use spirits to excess in the United States. By excess I meant all persons who drank to intoxication continuously or at long intervals. These figures were reached from a study of the statistics of persons arrested for intoxication in the lower courts; also the general opinion of persons with a wide acquaintance among business men, who assert that less than 2 per cent of all drinking men come under legal notice. Of course wide differences of opinion will prevail until some accurate statistics are made. Two attempts to make a census of drinking men in eastern towns revealed many difficulties and the intensely morbid desire to conceal the drinking customs of people. Both of these censuses indicated one drinking man to every eight persons and produced a strong conviction that this was a very low proportion. There are many reasons for believing that the estimate of 1,600,000 persons who use spirits to excess in this country is a minimum rather than a maximum statement.—Quarterly Journal of Inebriety.

Did you ever stop to think what indigestion really means? It means simply that your stomach is tired. If your legs are tired, we ride. The horse and the steam engine do the work. Why not give your stomach a ride; that is, let something else do its work. Foods can be digested outside of the body. All plants contain digestive principles which will do this. The Shaker Digestive Cordial contains digestive principles and is a preparation designed to rest the stomach. The Shakers themselves have such unbounded confidence in it that they have placed 10 cent sample bottles on the market, and it is said that even so small a quantity proves beneficial in a vast majority of cases. All druggists keep it.

LAXOL is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

A Rare Bird.
The rarest species of bird now extant, and one which is almost extinct, has its home in the jungles of South America. This ornithological curiosity is known to science as the palamedra cornuda, and to the common people as the "horned screamer." As a rara avis nothing could excel the cornuda, unless it should be the accidental discovery of a living moa, or an epornis. But few of the bird books even let you know that such a horned paradox ever existed, let alone telling you that living specimens of the queer creature are occasionally met with. The only one now in captivity in North America, if the writer was not misinformed, is that belonging to the aviary of the Philadelphia Zoological gardens, and which arrived in this country about three years ago. The creature is about the size of a full-grown turkey hen, and of a blackish brown color. One of its distinguished peculiarities is a ruffle of black and white which surrounds the head.

Grapes for ongs and for singers.
Auntie Rachael, a Holland nurse, has discovered a novel and effective way of using grapes with Elecampane Root and Horehound for the purpose of curing coughs, colds and sore throat. It is called Aunt Rachael's Elecampane and Horehound Cordial and it is said that physicians are recommending it freely in the East. Singers and lecturers carry a bottle with them.

CLEARED HIS CLIENT.

How a Western Lawyer Overcame the Preponderance of Evidence.

From the San Francisco Call: "My first case," said a well-known attorney, "was the defense of a negro preacher in Missouri who had been arrested for stealing wood from a railroad company. A great deal of fuel had been lost from time to time, so when the culprit was arrested the company was so anxious to make an example of him that it employed special counsel and prosecuted the case vigorously. The evidence against the old man was convincing. He had been seen sneaking around the wood-pile and was arrested while carrying off a load.

"I had subpoenaed about twenty well-known business men to testify to the previous good character of the defendant. When the prosecution's case was closed I put one on the stand and asked: "Do you know the defendant's reputation for honesty and integrity?" "Yes," was the answer. "What is it—good or bad?" "Bad. He will steal anything he can get his hands on."

"A titter ran through the courtroom. It wasn't the answer I had expected, but it was too late, so I put on a bold front and called another. He testified the other witness had, and the prosecuting attorney rubbed his hands with satisfaction. Before I got through with my witnesses I proved that my client was a most notorious thief, who was never known to neglect an opportunity to steal something, no matter how trifling it might be. Then I called a couple of physicians, proved the existence of a mental disorder known as kleptomania, read some authorities to show that it was a good defense if proved, and submitted my case. The old preacher was acquitted, and thereafter stole with impunity, for he considered his acquittal in the face of facts equivalent to a license to steal."

"I am an old soldier of the Rebellion. A year ago I was in bed all winter with chronic rheumatism. Three doctors failed to give me relief. Two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters put me on my feet. It is worth its weight in gold." W. B. Knapp, Litchfield, Hillsdale Co., Mich.

Mr. Bergeret's Legs Sealed by a Volcano

San Augustine peak, forty miles east of here, is in a state of eruption. A week ago last Tuesday Day King and Lige Davis, who were out upon the mountain, heard a rumble in the earth, which was followed soon by a distinct explosion. About half a mile from them on the north side of the peak a large granite boulder soared aloft and fell with a crash among the loose rocks. The flight of the boulder was followed by a puff of steam and ashes. The family of Mr. Hufford also saw the eruption. The next day Mr. Bergeret went to the place where the explosion occurred and found a depression partly filled with ashes from which the boulder had been ejected. The snow was gone for some distance around the hole and the ground was perfectly dry. Mr. Bergeret soon became aware that his feet were uncomfortably warm and that steam was going up his trousers and scalding his legs and, fearing a repetition of the volcanic eruption, he hastened away from the spot.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Epigrams of Pat Sheedy.

Pat Sheedy, whose plan to establish a new Monte Carlo at Cairo was telegraphed from New York last week, is something of an epigrammatist. In detailing his plan to the reporter he said that the invalids who go to Cairo are "looking around for some mental diversion. There is no finer thing to divert the mind than gambling. It makes people forget their other troubles." He was once asked how it was that, if he played a "square" game, he could always find people he could beat. "My boy," he replied, "there's a sucker born every minute, and," he added, reflectively, "sometimes twins." On another occasion he watched the bubbles rise in the wine he was drinking. "A glass of wine," he presently observed, "makes a poor Irishman feel like a rich Jew."

A loud ring of your doorbell in the dead hours of night is alarming. So is the first hollow sound of a cough from one's husband, wife, son, or daughter. It is disease knocking, with perhaps a certain silent visitor waiting not far away. Arrest that cough. Stop it. Stop it at the start. A few days use of Ely's Pineola Balsam and the danger is past. Relief is immediate; a cure certain. This remedy is rich in the curative principles of the balsams and also contains certain ingredients that are new.

An Old Jack-Knife.

J. E. Marceau of Millbury has come into possession of a hand-forged jack-knife made in 1772. Its good condition is surprising. His brother came to visit him a short time ago and gave him this knife. Mr. Marceau says that when he was a small boy there was a stone house in St. Roch that none of the people could remember having been inhabited. It had been built in colonial times, and was of a style of architecture adapted for defense against the attacks of hostile savages. Last summer this old building was torn down, and in the cellar the old knife was found.
