A BIG RISKE.

A CITIZEN SAYS THE CITY IS RUN-NING ONE.

By Not Repairing the Bridge Across the Michigan Central Tracks on Detroit Street-Or Else Compeling the Railroad Company to do So-Thinks the City Will Have a Big Damage Suit on Its Hhands Some of These Days Unless Something is Done

Editor THE REGISTER.

I remember seeing in your paper proceedings either of the Council or of the Board of Public Works a statement that the bridge across the Michigan bridge was ordered closed and people ing to the city from the northwest were obliged to go around by the bridge something like a half mile out of the way in order to get to the city. This state of things lasted but a short time, however, there being such a vigorous kick from people who were so greatly inconvenienced by the closing of the bridge. As there was a dispute between the city and the railroad company as to which should keep of Michigan as professor of hygiene and the bridge in repair, which could not be as dean of the literary department, she settled in a day, it was deemed advisable, on account of the dissatisfaction mentioned above, to replank the bridge with heavy lumber so as to distribute the weight of teams over a number of weak timbers. This, I understand, was to be but a temporary makeshift, it being distinctly understood at the time that the contention as to who should repair the bridge should be pushed to a conclusion at once in order that the bridge might be rebuilt at the Arbor University in securing Dr. earliest possible date. The matter, however, seems to have been entirely loss we sustain in saying goodby to forgotten. If the bridge was in a dangerous condition last summer due to decayed timbers it is more so now. When the matter was being discussed bers were badly decayed and that a team with an ordinary load was liable to go through. The writer remembers and driver and two and a half tons of coal making a combined weight of one immediately behind the other. Knowing as I do the report that the bridge was in a dangerous condition was not the least particle exaggerated, I firmly believe that had not some one happened to come along and speak to detain him until the other driver had city is running just such a risk every day. Some bright morning it will awaken to find itself compelled to pay a heavy judgement for allowing this bridge to be used while it is in such a dangerous condition. What is the matter with our city officials that they allow such a condition of things to April 8. exist? It is high time that the question who is to keep this bridge in re- pected to be in attendance at the openpair should be forced to a conclusion before our already high taxes are made still higher due to the neglect on the part of those who have charge of such matters. Grooklyn People Will Miss Dr. Eliza M. Mosher, the New Woman's Dean of the Literary Department.

A recent issue of the New York Daily Tribune contained the following in regard to Dr. Eliza M. Mosher, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who comes to Ann Arbor next Fall to the Woman's Deanship in the University.

"The decision of Miss Eliza M. Mosher, of No. 196 Joralemon-st., to leave Brooklyn and accept the call of the University of Michigan to become professor of hygiene and act as woman's some months ago, in the report of the dean in the University, will deprive the Erooklyn Young Woman's Christian Association of one of its valued workers. The association will give a formal expression to its sense of loss in a statement that will be published in the year book, soon to be issued. This is what the book will say: "The medical report recalls the fact that it is the last we can have from the pen of Dr. Mosher. In accepting the call to the University must soon leave the city. Dr. Mosher has from the outset of our life as an association been a most loyal friend giving freely of her time and medical advice without material reward. Who can tell of all she has been able to accomplish for the girls who have come to her in her mornings spent in counsel with them in our little medcal departnent tucked away in the basement? Dur congratulations, therefore, to Ann Mosher are tempered by a sense of the such a warm iriend and valued fellow-

A GREAT COMBINATION.

Prof. A. A. Stanley Helps to Form One in Chicago.

The following from yesterday's Free Press will interest the thosands of music loving people in Ann Arbor:

Prof. Stanley has returned from Chicago, where, on behalf of the University Choral Union, he helped form a great musical combination, to be known as the Western Choral Union. Representatives of the great choral societies of Louisville, St. Louis, Cleveland, Milwaukee, Ann Arbor and Oberlin met with the Apollo club of Chicago and perfected a temporary organization Saturday. The association will be in working order in about two months, with the eleven or twelve great choral so that they can agree as to the dates for holding concerts, and by forming a regular circuit among themselves can secure the great soloists for their con-certs at mutually advantageous terms. Moreover, they will take joint action as to securing the latest works of composers all over the world, as soon as published. By such means of economy they will be enabled to produce greater works than they have and produce them more effectively.

Prof. Stanley was made chairman of committee, and says that they will begin at once to secure the available productions offrecent oratorios in every music center of the world, and arrangements will be made for the production in regular order in cities represented in the association.

Besides being of advantage to the individual choral societies in their concerts; it is likely that the association will combine the forces of its members to give in the large cities represented in it the greatest musical festivals the west or the country even has ever seen.

This matter is of first importance because the moving of the rock to and from the crusher and its delivery upon the street will, as done last season, form a large item of the cost of the road material, and any thing that cheapens to that extent the cost of each yard of macadam laid.

You have an outfit of road making machinery which is first-class in every sidewalks hereinafter mentioned are respect, and I don't think you will soon deemed and declared a necessary public improvement. Therefore, it is hereby ordered that a plank sidewalk that remains for you to do to give Ann Arbor complete road making facilities, no frost will heave it and no wet hereby ordered that a plank shewark be graded built and constructed on and along the north side of Washington-st, between First and Seventh, in front of the property of The Ann Arbor Organ Co, Heinzman & Laubengayer, Louis Rohde, Eugene Oesterlin, Mrs. B. These plans include a tram-way and two dump cars. for transporting the rock from the storage pile to the crusher and a system of self loading bins for the reception of the crushed rock.

A system like this will reduce the cost of getting rock to the crusher to a mimimum and effect an entire saving whom was referred the petition ask- of hand labor upon it from the time it ing for an electric light at the corner is delivered at the crusher until it is of Huron and Ashley streets would dumped upon the street. Road building is a science to which the American people have only recently comparison for smoothness, durability and cheapness of maintainance.

But Resolved, That the Board of Public there are reasons for all of these fail-

That mistake has frequently been made. Again, soft stone, poor foundation, lack of drainage, faulty construc-hear or read of a macadam road pro; perly constructed and for a traffic to which such roads are adapted, that has failed to give satisfaction.

The essential features of a good road covering are capacity to present a smooth surface, to resist wear and to shed water; the foundation must do the rest. In most localities the first and most expensive problem with which the engineer is confronted in the construction of macadam roads is the prepartion of the foundation.

Usually it must be under-drained, side ditches must be constructed and the foundation prepared at great expense before the road is ready to receive the broken stone covering. And this expense cannot be avoided for the foundation of a road is quite as essenttends to diminish the cost of handling is not properly drained and protected ial as its covering. If that foundation from the weather by the stone covering which should be to it as a roof, no depth of stone or other material will make a good road.

If the foundation is well drained and the surface water prevented from reaching it by an impevious covering, weather will caused it to cut under heavy loads.

Surface wear of course no read matorial can resist entirely, but if properly constructed the stone road should wear evenly and to a very thin layer before it begins to cut.

This item of foundation and drainage, nature has very efficiently cared for on most of the streets of Ann Arbor. We have ready made that which costs many communities thousands of dollars per mile to prepare. With a road surface that will turn the water that falls upon it into the gutters, the foundation of the macadam will always remain perfectly dry, for the underlying

With regard to the effect of Sunday no matter what their desires may be as and that said Board will be in Session on closing of saloons in New York, Inspector Brooks testifies that "crimes decrease and arrests are fewer." In the notorious "tenderloin" district, which under the old regime could every Sunday be "counted on for a big batch of arrests and police cases of all kinds" not a single arrest was made in the twenty-four hours between six o'clock on a recent Sunday morning and six on Monday morning. What a vista of possibilities such a showing opens up for time when saloons shall be closed seven days in the week.

> One of our leading white-ribboners in Canada recently visited a penitentiary where eight hundred and four prisoners were confined, and upon asking the warden what number was there because of strong drink, he said he would consult the record, and a day or two later stated to her that seven hundred and sixteen of the number were to becredited as the output of the saloon, having committed their crimes while under the influence of liquor. This is about the proportion of criminals the drink traffic turns over to the taxpayers to be taken care of, to say nothing of its product that goes into the poor-houses and insane asylums. If people will support the liquor traffic they must also support its degenerate broo d.

The Chicago Record is Chicago's leading morning daily.
In fact, with a single exception, it has the largest morning circulation in America—160,000 a day. It is a member of The Associated Press and "prints all the news from all the world." They is independent in politics and gives all political news with judicial impartiality, free from the taint of partisanship. It is Chicago's family newspaper. Prof. J. T. Hathield, of the Northwestern University, writing to the Evanston (IR.) Index, says;
"I have come to the firm conclusion, after a long test, and after a wide comparison with the journals of many States and countries, that The Chicago Record comes as near being the ideal daily journal as we are for some time likely to find on these mortal shores."

The journalists' class paper, published in New York, called Newspaperdom, says:

This old man who looks out at the world with clear and healthy eyes cannot help feeling great gratification at the thought that his children and his children's children have inherited from him no weakness nor him no weakness nor tendency to disease. The healthy old man is the man who has throughout his life kept his digestion-good and his blood throughout his hie kept his digestion good and his blood pure. Once in a while you find such a man who has never taken any medicine. That man has lived a perfectly natural life. Not one in a thousand does do it. So me times very slight indiscretions or carelessness pave the way for serious sickness. The germ theory of disease is well authenticated, and germs are everywhere. This need make no difference to the perfectly healthy body without effect. They are hurried along rapidly and thrown off before they have time to develop or increase. Let them once find lodgment or let them find a weak spot, they will develop by the million and the blood will be full of them. Instead of rich, life-giving properties, the blood will be a sluggish, putrid tide of impurity. Instead of giving strength to the tissues, it will force upon them unwholesome and innutritious matter, and the man will lose flesh. The more flesh he loses and the weaker he becomes, the more susceptible he is to disease. His trouble will become complicated and serious consequences will follow. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the only medicine that absolutely and infallibly cures all blood diseases. It isn't a medicine for some one particular so-called disease. It is a medicine for the wehole body. It forces out all the germs of disease, replaces impurities with rich, red blood, feeds the tissues and makes strong, healthy flesh.

The first prize will be given to the person who constructs the longest sentence in good English containing no letter of the alphabet more than three times. It is not necessary to use every letter of the alphabet. The other prizes will go in regular order to those competitors whose sentences are next in length.

Every competitor whose sentence reaches forty-two letters will receive a paper covered volume containing twelve of Wilkie Collius' novels whether he wins a prize or not. This contest closes April 15, 1896. The prize winners will be announced one week later and the winning sentences published. In case two or more prize winning sentences are of the same length preference will be given to the best one. Each competitor must construct his own sentence, and no person will be allowed to enter this contest more than once. Sentences cannot be corrected or substituted after they are received. Residents of Omaha are not permitted to compete.

BULES FOR THE SENTENCE—(No Others Environ).

RULES FOR THE SENTENCE-(No Others Furnished.) The length of a sentence is to be measured by the number of letters it contains, but no letter can be used or counted more than three times. No word except "a" or "I" can be used more than once. The sentence must consist of complete words. Signs, figures, abbreviations or contractions, etc., must not be used. The pronoun "I" and the article "a" will be accepted as complete words. Proper nouns cannot be used. Each contestant must indicate by figures at the end of his sentence how many letters it contains.

This remarkably liberal offer is made by the Weekly World-Hebald, of which Dispatches from Rome say that nerotiations are in progress for peace beween Italy and the Abyssians and that when it became generally known in Italy produced a feeling of surprise amounting to stupor in most quarters. The conditions, as reported thus far, fixing the frontier at the Mared river line and the prohibition of fortifications on the frontier are considered humil-The majority of the deputies oppose the project and strong pressure will be brought to bear to break off the negotiations. Advices from Massowah say: The negus (King Menelik) has received 100,000 of his troops in the presence of Maj. Salsa, the Italian officer who is treating for peace with the Abyssinians. The troops marched in good order and were well armed. Later the negus showed Maj. Salsa his quantities of provisions, the Italians having, some time ago, been under the belief that the Abyssinians were short of supplies. In fact, it is said, that this was one of the reasons which prompted Gen. Baratieri to make his lisastrous advance.

Dispatches from London state that an advance of English-Egyptian troops has been ordered against the Mahdists at Dongola, in the Soudan, undoubtedly for the purpose of preventing the dervishes making a descent upon the Italians at Kassala. The Times has Killed His Sw etheart, Shot Her Sister and an editorial discussing the Italian sit-uation and declares that the shock to Archie Belangea, aged 25, shot and instantly killed Miss Gertrude Bailey, European prestige owing to the defeat of Adowa cannot be neutralized by Italy concluding peace with Menelik. The advance upon Dongola is urgent in the interest of the British policy. It will prepare the way for the ada handsome young lady, at her parents' home, four miles east of Benton Har-bor. After shooting Gertrude through the heart a second bullet was sent flying through her younger sister Anna's neck, passing close to both jugular vance on Omdurman when the time is ripe and the shattering of the Mahdist power at its base. Ohlo Republican Convention.

At the state convencion of Ohio Republicans, held at Columbus, the Grand opera house was crowded. Chairman J. M. Ickes reviewed the McKinley campaigns in Ohio, and stated that at the state convention in Zanesville last year the party entered into a pledge to make Bushnell governor, Foraker sensinians—England is Reopening the parts of the trinity had been fulfilled and the Republicans of Ohio had now assembled to fulfill the third part—the unanimous and unqualified support of McKinley for the presidential nomina-tion. These remarks caused such a demonstration that it was some the before Mr. lekes could introduce Sen-ator-elect Foraker, as the temporary chairman of the convention. And when Mr. Foraker was introduced there was another enthusiastic scene, which was repealed as often as he proceeded. Senator Foraker devoted his speech to eulogizing and nominating McKinley. It was some time before the routine business could be pro-ceeded with. After the appointment of the usual committees the convenvention adjourned for the day.

The entire convention was most har-monious and was more like a McKinley rally than a convention. There were several warm tussels for candidates for the minor offices of the state government and the nominations were as follows: Delegates-at-large, Gov. Asa S. Bushnell, Senator-elect J. B. Foraker, Congressman Chas. H. Grosve-nor and Hon. Marcus A. Hanna; alternor and hon. Marcus A. Hanna, alternates, J. E. Lowes, Chas. Fleischman, J. B. Green and J. N. Taylor; electorsat-large, I. F. Mackay and Albert C. Douglas; secretary of state, Chas. Kinney; supreme judge, Marshal J. Williams; food commissioner, Joseph F. Blackburn; member board of public works, Frank A. Hoffman.

The resolutions adopted congratulated the country on the growing Republican sentiment as shown by recent elections; denounced the Democratic national administration as the most destructive: the country has ever known; affirmed confidence in the Republican platform of 1892; declared strongly for a protective tariff; denounced the present tariff law; de-clared that the Republican party stands for a reciprocity that reciprocates; it stands for a foreign policy that is genuinely American—for the Monroe doctrine as Monroe himself proclaimed it; it stands, for a commercial policy that will whiten every sea by the sails of American vessels flying the American flag and that will pro-tect that flag wherever it floats; denounced the present pension adminis-tration; declared that Thio would contribute her share toward a Republican victory, whoever head the ticket, but declared in favor of Wm. McKinley as their first choice and pledged him anew the absolute, loyal, unswerving support of his state at the national support of his state at the national convention and instructed the delegates chosen to represent Ohio to redeem this pledge. The resolution on finance was as follows:

We contend for honest money: for a currency of gold, sliver and paper, with which to measure our exchange that shall be as sound as the government and as untaruished as its honor; and to that end we favor bimetallism and demand the use of both gold and sliver as standard money, either in accordance with a ratio to be fixed by an international agreement. If that can be obtained, or under such restrictions and snen provisions to be determined by legislation as will secure the maintenance of the parities of the values of the two metals so that the purchasing and debt-paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shail be at all times equal.

Kansas Republicans for McKinley.

The Kansas state Republican convention was held at Wichita. Judge Horton, as temporary chairman, scored the recent Populist state administration unmercifully. The delegates elected were strictly on the McKinley basis. Kansas will go solidly for the ex-governor of Ohio.

Rhode Island Wants the Maine Man. The Republican state convention of Rhode Island was held at Providence On taking the chair, Gen. SENATE. - Seventy-sixth day. - The Cuban debate has advanced to the stage of one of the SENATE.—Seventy-sixth day.—The Cuban debate has advanced to the stage of one of the great debates of the American congress, and the speech of Mr. Hoar was another eventful feature of the discussion and was notable to setting forth the conservative view of the subject and urging a postponement of action until April 6. This developed many sharp controversies with Mr. Sherman and other Senators. In the main the speech was a plea for calm dignified and judicial action instead of the excitement and disorder of the mob and the impassioned speech of orators. Mr. Hoar characteried his golleague. Mr. Sherman, as one of the great statesmen of the country, and he besought the Ohio Senator not to obliterate his brilliant record by hasty and unguarded action on the Cuban question. Mr. Hoar did not confine himself to Cuba, but spoke against congressional meddling in any foreign negotiation. In this connection he paid a glowing tribute to Secretary Oney, while differing with him politically, and added a tribute to the sincerity of President Cleveland in dealing with the Venezuelan question, and declared that any action by Congress attacking the President's course would be an attacking the President's course would be an attacking the President's course would press the privileged question—the conference report accepting the House Cuban resolutions. MONKEYS HAVE MINDS.

There Is Abundant Evidence That They Can Think.

"That the monkey possesses intelligence to a considerable degree is probably true," said a hotel proprietor who has a small menagerie on his premises. "I believe, however, much of the intelligence with which that animal is credited is due to his love of mimicry. The other day two young men with two girls were at the monkey's cage feeding him peanuts. One of the girls was chewing gum and one of the men suggested that she give the monkey some, expecting that if he took it in his mouth it would stick to his teeth and he would make sorry work of trying to chew it. The girl at once parted with the sweet morsel she was so industriously chewing, extending it toward the cage. The monkey grabbed it instantly, and put it into his mouth, but instead of chewing it or attempting to, began pulling it out in small ribbons, as children are frequently seen to do. When he had it all out of his mouth he rolled it into a compact ball between his hands, threw it into his mouth and began the operation again. He appeared to enjoy the performance as much as his visitors. That was imitation."

"That's all right," rejoined another, "but I had an experience with that same monkey, wherein he displayed infelligence. I was by the cage smoking one day and I thought to annoy him by blowing smoke in his face. I was much surprised to find that instead of being annoyed he enjoyed it, as was evidenced by his edging up as near me as possible to receive the smoke in larger volumes. Soon he began scratching himself at the point where most of the smoke came against him. When I had smoked one side for a few minutes he would turn squarely round to have the other side treated in the same way. Then he sat directly in front of me and received the smoke squarely in the face and neck. I don't know whether he held his breath, but he did not cough, sneeze or wince a particle. To complete the job, he then sat with his back toward me and it would have done you good to have seen him scratch. It made me think of the kickers of a hay-tedder in motion. Now, that monkey knew, through some sort of intelligence, that nothing will send flees and other insects to the surface or stupefy them as effectually as tobacco smoke."-Utica Observer.

ty of a glass-eyed dog, of course.' "Yes; but he eventually agreed to let me try my hand, as it was such a valuable dog, and on my assuring him that I would do it no harm we injected cocaine around the membranes of the eye and then removed part-and only part -of the eye, leaving sufficient to form a bed for the artificial eye."

"Did it stick in?" "We put a shell in first to keep the lid in position. We had to get the eye specially to color and shape, and at last we fixed it in. It matched so well that you had to look very close indeed to know it from the natural eye. It made a wonderful improvement in the dog.

It was 20 pounds better in appearance. "And the dog were it without inconvenience or pain?"

SETTLE WITH THE SWORD.

Students at Heidelberg Cling to the Duello to Vindica e Their Honor.

The duels at Heidelberg are very famous, says the Philadelphia Telegraph. There is, perhaps, no university in Germany at which dueling is not practiced, but here it is regarded almost as a religious duty. The sons of the rich congregate at Heidelberg and they are the people who are especially addicted to this form of student pastime in Germany. It is not an exaggeration to say that between twenty and thirty duels take place here every week during the semester, and these nearly all at the Hirschgasse, a little tavern across the river from Heldelberg which is known and advertised everywhere as the place of resort for such encounters. It has served in this capacity for a great many years. The signboards point to it.

It is mentioned in the guide-books and every one knows of it except the university officials and the police. It is not a ten-minute walk from the center of the town, though it is outside the city jurisdiction. This, however, seems to be a matter of no moment, for some of the clubs for a period last year fought in the town itself, at a tavern directly in the shadow of the old castle. There are duels here some three or four mornings every week by the members of the various fighting clubs, of which Heidelberg has an enormous number. The most aristocratic of them all is the Saxe-Borussia. This club bears cartel relations with the Borussia of Bonn, to which the Hohenzollerns belong. Five or six duels between various combatants are usually fought on the same morn-

This is all a curious commentary of law and order as they are supposed to exist in Germany. Such machinery for the enforcement of law as is to be | pol. found here flourishes in no other land in the world, and yet, for one reason or another, the duel goes on unhindered. By the laws of the empire, without taking into account the penalties prescribed by the lower jurisdictions, there is the most severe punishment for dueling and the challenging to duel. In spite of various attempts to make other interpretations, the student duels have, by the supreme court of the empire, been decided to be duels in the sense of the law. Yet, publicly in the reichstag, no longer ago than last winter an esteemed member of the kaiser's ministry declared himself and his government at issues not only with the laws and the supreme court, but with whatever moral feeling there may be in the land against this malevolent form of evil.

Sick stomach means sick man (or woman.)

Why not be well?

Sick stomach comes from poor foed, poor nourishment; means poor health, poor comfort. Shaker Digestive Cor-dial means health and a well stomach. If we could examine our stomach we would understand why it is that so little will put it out of order. But, unless we are doctors, we never see our stomach. We only feel it. We would feel it less if we took Shaker Di-

The Pyromaniac's conve

Fire Marshal Whitcomb has been pretty busy taking testimony in reabout examining witnesses the other day he mentioned several curious things he had noticed. He says that inevery case where he has discovered a pyromaniac he has had his suspicions of the person's guilt aroused by a per culiar smile which plays around the mouth of the guilty one when under examination. It is hardly a smile, rather a peculiar puckering of the corners of the mouth, an expression almost indefinable, but it seems to mean, "Well, I'm too smart for you to catch me, anyhow." The marshal says he can recall a dozen cases where he noticed this smile and at the time had no other cause to suspect a witness, yet by following these smiling ones he has obtained the most convincing testimony of their guilt and almost invariably confession from the guilty ones themselves.-Boston Transcript.

NOT CHOLERA GERMS.

A Hawaiian Reassured as to Some Roots He Saw in His Pol.

An incident is told by ladies who deal out rations to needy natives at the central depot of the Hawaiian Relief Society about an aged native and his allowance of poi, says the Pacific Commercial Advertiser.

"Poi for six," cried out one of the ladies as she handed a rusty old bucket to one of the native attendants.

"Poi for six," cried the attendant as he returned the bucket filled with the substance.

The native received his allowance and started to walk away, when something in the bucket seemd to have the effect of hypnotizing him. His eyes started from their sockets and the cold beads of perspiration on his forehead indicated fear of some kind.

A matter of considerable interest, though not generally known, comes up in connection with this story. A great many natives are of the opinion that the germs of cholera can be seen with the naked eye. My feet are wet, you see, and water is so good a conductor that a ground connection is established with myself as part of the circuit. The sensation is quite enough to be disagreeable, I assure you.

"The metal doorsill, too, is another place where the current leaks out. Since I discovered that by personal experience I have often amused myself by watching the people who enter and the window, he pointed to some yellow leave the car. The man at one end held a key to the fixture and the fellow at the other end laid his hand on the radiator. You would hardly believe how strong the current was. Our hands seemed suddenly gripped together and after we let go our fingers tingled for minutes from the effect.

"I have often thought that a computation of the amount of unused electric force there is around us would be interesting. There must be numbers of other places that I have never noticed where it escapes and I suppose there is no doubt that in the aggregate the power wasted would be sufficient to accomplish a tremendous amount of

MINE ON PADEREWSKI.

A Chicago Barber Wanted the Job of Cutting His Hair. While in Chicago recently Paderewski was made the victim of a laughable joke. Within an hour of the arrival of the pianist and his suite a man presented himself at the hotel with a small hand satchel and asked to be shown to the room of the musician. The clerk on duty, knowing that such distinguished people as Paderewski are at times bothered with cranks, insisted on knowing the stranger's business.

The caller leaned over the counter and whispered in his ear:

"I'm a barber from the Great Northern and they sent me over here. They said Paderewski sent for a barber to cut his hair. That's why I'm here. Don't tip it off to everybody around here. Do I git up now?"

The clerk sent a bell boy up to Paderewski to inform him that his barber had arrived. It was hardly a minute before the boy came back, bounding down the stairs four at a time.

"Phew! Dat guy didn't do a t'ing to me. He give me de hot foot, dat's all," the boy panted.

"Well, do I go up?" the barber asked. 'What did he say?"

"What did he say? I pass. It's up to you. I don't know what he said, but it sounded like forrin' swear words. I told him dere was a barber here ter cut his hair, and, say, yer ought ter seen He yelled something at me, and I taut he'd kill me, and I ducked."

Club for Widows and Spinsters.

Not a little heartburning in fair bosoms has been caused among "society circles" at Warsaw, Poland, owing to an exclusive rule adopted by the newly established Ladies' Club in that city. This aristocratic social association of Polish ladies has had the temerity, it seems, to cut out its married sisters, only spinsters and widows being eligible for membership. There are noble matrons with marriageable daughters who are content to believe that the attractions of the club will serve the excellent purpose of keeping pretty and designing young widows out of mischief. The new club premises are commodious and elegantly arranged, and in addition to their other attractions and comforts public readings, lectures, and music will form conspicuous features of the ordinary entertainments.

TYRANNOUS SOCIALISM.

A Monstrous Proposal That the Liberals Are Bound to Kesist.

No system which the brain of man has ever devised carries that tyrannous repression so far as socialism, says the Fortnightly Review. Liberty, let me repeat, means the power of a man to make the most and best of himself; to develop fully his personality. This is his aboriginal, imprescriptible, inalienable right, its limit being that the corresponding right of others is not infringed. And private property is realized liberty.

It is, in its first idea, the guaranty to an individual person of what has been wrought, through the exercise of his personality, by labor and abstinence. It is essential to the development and maintenance of personality in this work-a-day world. It is requisite for the very existence of the family. But socialism, even in its mildest type, means the confiscation of private property, the destruction of the family and the annihilation of individual freedom.

It proposes to remedy what it callsnot altogether without reason-the slavery of labor, not by vindicating the liberty of the laborer, but by establishing a system of universal servitude. This monstrous proposal the liberal party in England is bound to resist even, if necessary, to the shedding of blood. And to the shedding of blood the matter is not unlikely to come in the long run. For socialism is rather a sect than a party. Its votaries are animated being benefitted. An Honest Man's Story Greenvillage, Pa., Jan. 23, '96.

Dear Sir:-Thank God there is a medicine that will cure catarrh. Mr. Pretzinger, I used your sample box of catarrh cure which you sent me. The first night I sed, it it helped me. May God bless you for your kindnesss. I used the little box you sent me and about Hon. 'Squire Britton, brother-in-law to me, is using it; he says it is helpi g him very much; he has catarrh very bad. Mrs. G. D Ludwig, daughter of me, is using your medicine. I use it in the evening before retiring to bed and and I have more energy for work and business. Before I used your medicine I felt many a time that I did not care whether I was living or dead; I had no energy; I did not care for anything' I had catarrh over sixty-seven years; mother had catarrh and it turned into consumption; she died in her sixty-On nice days I drive up to the farm and work. Mr. Pretzinger, I think it would pay you to have it put in all the Franklin County papers as I am a reliable. honest man, so the people say, mid ling well acquainted over the County.

Yours truly. Geo. K. Zollinger

Chloroformed the Dog.

A prominent family residing in the business part of Wayneport possess a dog which, having reached old age, they decided to put an end to. They procured a quantity of coloroform and the wife proceeded to administer it. The handkerchief saturated with the fluid was held to (or near) the dog's nostrils, but the applicant, watching closely to hear the dog draw his last breath, inhaled the chloroform in much larger quantities than the dog and promptly went off into an afternoon nap, which was awakened by the dog's quite lively voice. The dog still lives and the family has decided to let him die a natural death .- Monroe County Mail.

How They Act While Attending Their Duties in Parliament.

It is a mistake to think that the act which led to the confederation of the various provinces in 1867 has attained no higher meaning in the life of the Canadian people than that of a constitutional union, says Donahoe's Magahalf of a 50 cent jar. They keep it in zine. It carries with it a meaning of Chambersburg. I have told a great far deeper import—a union of hearts, many people about your medicine. whose offspring is oneness of patriotic aim and purpose. Of course it would be idle to say that the Canadian people are a unit upon all questions of vital interest to the life and growth of the dominion. The geographical interests of Canada are so varied that there must necessarily be at times some friction am feeling better now than I have for and clashing of provincial needs and the last five years. My head is clear ambitions. This is the case at Washington; this is the case, too, in so small a confederation as the cantons of Switzerland.

A stranger visiting the gallery of the Canadian house of commons is struck with the dignity and decorum which mark the proceedings and surround even the warmest and keenest of debates. Parliamentary procedure being fourth year. I have a farm up at Stras- rigidly adhered to, there is little room burg, seven miles from Greenvillage, for uncalled for personalities in the heat of a discussion. Sometimes, however, when the house has been sitting for hours, wearied with the perplexities and incoherencies of some member from "way back," suddenly, as if through the unity of desperation, the usual dignity of the house is relaxed and grave members from such intellectual centers as Montreal and Toronto play the schoolboy and outvie one another in "shying" blue books at the heads of slumbering and inoffensive members. Of the 215 members that make up the house of commons, in point of ability and gifts, 20 per cent of them are below mediocrity; 20 per cent of them occupy the plane of mediocrity; 40 per cent possess admitted ability, and the remaining 20 per cent are men of commanding talent.

Pawning a Bank Note.

One of the oddest methods of utilizing a bank note which has probably ever been known took place recently in the east of London. A sailor walked into a large pawnbroking establishment near the docks and gravely produced a £10 Bank of England note, inquiring how much could be advanced on it. Six pounds was offered and promptly accepted and the note actually remained for some months until redeemed by some sharp-witted person, loan being of course paid. This perfectly authentic incident recalls the equally true stories of old days when men-of-war's men at Portsmouth on being paid off after a long cruise, during which large sums of prize money usually accrued to them, frequently lit their pipes with bank notes as an agreeable variant to frying gold watches in pans of fat over the fire, both of which facts are vouched for on undoubted authority.-Strand Magazine
