DEMANDS A RETRACTION.

BOSS JUDSON DISLIKES THE COURSE TAKEN BY THE REGISTER IN EXPOSING HIS OFFICIAL CAREER.

SAYS IT MUST RETRACT TO-DAY

Register is Willing to Retract Every Item Which May Have Unjustly Reflected Upon Mr. Judson's Career--If Mr. Judson or any of His Followers Will Prove We Were in Error in a Single Statement, We Will Make Prompt and Proper Amends.

REGISTER WILLING TO RETRACT.

The course of THE REGISTER, in its endeavor to overthrow bossism in Washtenaw county, and save the party from defeat this fall, has, necessarily, aroused the antagonism of those who, as a result, feel the solid ground slipping from beneath their feet. They cannot fail to realize that their overthrow is near at hand unless some effort is made to offset what is being done to rid the party of a leader who has been a great detriment to it. In order to make a show of vindication Sheriff Judson, last Friday, had the following notice served upon the editor of THE REGISTER by deputy sheriff Canfield:

Ann Arbor, Mich., March 25, 1898.

Selby A. Moran, Publisher of ANN ARBOR REGISTER.

SIR:—You are hereby notified to publish a retraction of an article printed in the issue of the ANN ARBOR REGISTER under date of March 10, 1898, with the following heading: "Would be mobbed and killed. That is what it is declared Boss Judson and those who follow his direction threatened poor Stockwell. Can these things be true? Strange story of a plot to intimidate and fleece Howard Hockwell, a Salem farm hand. Judson between the horns of a dilemma. If Stockwell is innocent it was a piece of rank injustice to frighten him into paying a large sum for his liberty. If guilty, it was a gross breach of official duty to bleed him to the extent of $8000 in settlement and then tell him to leave the county and that he would be mobbed and killed if he returned."

You are also hereby notified to publish a retraction of an article printed in the issue of the ANN ARBOR REGISTER under date of March 17, 1898, with the following heading: "No use for courts in certain classes of cases—at least with our present sheriff who modifies sentences to suit his own ideas. An unusual state of affairs. Prisoners sent to jail frequently given the freedom of the city, some even serving two sentences at one time while the county pays the board—something that should open the eyes of people who believe the law should be enforced."

You are also hereby notified to publish a retraction of an article printed in the issue of the ANN ARBOR REGISTER under date of March 24, 1898, with the following heading: "Tampers with ballots. Can the republican party afford to sustain a leader with such a record? It would bring certain defeat. The party will not run the risk. It would mean disgrace to republicanism in Washtenaw. Pingree also will be obliged to throw him over. Party cannot carry such a load." This notice is given in accordance with the statute in such case made and provided and your failure to publish a retraction of the above publication in your next issue of the ANN ARBOR REGISTER will be taken as a refusal on your part to comply with the request.

Yours, etc.,

WM. JUDSON.

As has been stated in the heading to this article, THE REGISTER has no desire to do any person an injustice, and it will promptly retract any statement it has made which can be shown to be untrue or unjust. In its zeal to strengthen the party by attempting to overthrow those whose course has been wholly antagonistic to the best interests of Republicanism in Washtenaw county, it has put the case as strongly as possible. It has done this because it has honestly believed the circumstances demanded such a course. Under these circumstances we believe it to be our duty to go on in the course we have been pursuing until the entire party is united in its opposition to ring rule. We are confident all that is necessary to bring about a realization of this is to continue to expose the shortcomings of those who have set themselves up as party leaders, until the party shall be united in its repudiation of such leadership. We believe that we have now almost accomplished this. The moment we can be assured that our purpose has succeeded that moment we will drop the contest and devote our energies with even greater zeal to pushing the coming campaign to a successful issue this fall. We never were more thoroughly convinced of the truth of any proposition than we are that our course in this matter is the only one that will enable the party to win next fall. The almost universal indorsement which THE REGISTER is receiving from Republicans all over the county is proof positive that we are right in our views upon this matter.

A $1000.00 BLUFF.

When THE REGISTER took up the investigation of the official conduct of Boss Judson and began to tell the people of Washtenaw county something of how the sheriff's office was being run, an effort was made to discredit the showing which THE REGISTER was making. This took the form of a pretended offer on the part of Judson to give $1,000 to some charity if it could be shown that he had ever taken a penny not honestly his. This was supposed to be a clincher and copies of the Courier containing his statement along with a defense of Judson were spread broadcast over Washtenaw county. There were plenty of people in sympathy with the various charitable institutions who wished to see what could be done towards capturing that $1,000. This led to a request being made through the press that Mr. Judson make his offer specific enough so that, if the proof were forthcoming that he had taken money to which he was not entitled, the thousand dollars could be secured. This led to what purported to be a specific proposition from the Boss. This proposition was to leave the matter to the decision of Judge Kinne and a certified check for $1,000 was to be placed in one of the Ann Arbor banks. Upon its face this offer looked very fair. Upon examination, however, it appeared that the offer was made to depend upon whether or not Mr. Judson had ever knowingly taken a dollar to which he was not entitled. This was a shrewd plan. Upon such a condition, it would be easy for him to declare, in the face of any testimony, that it was an error, or an oversight, or something and that his intentions were all right, and that therefore, he did not knowingly take a cent which did not belong to him. As a result, those who felt that they had ample evidence to convict, concluded, after consulting able attorneys, that it would be foolish to attempt to do a thing so long as the offer was hedged about with such a one-sided condition. The proposition was evidently made as a bluff, pure and simple, and as such it is sure to react as soon as people come to understand the real character of the offer made.

It is reported that a scheme is now on foot to force the sheriff to back down with his bluff or put up the money in such a way that his offer will amount to something. We predict that before any such definite and proper offer is made a back down will be recorded. We do not believe that Boss Judson will dare face a judicial investigation, and we shall be greatly surprised if he can be gotten into a position where such an investigation is even remotely probable.

BOSS JUDSON OPPOSES BOSSISM!

ALD. BROWN GETS HIT

The W. C. T. U. Makes the Following Scathing Remarks in Reply to Ald. Brown's Uncalled for Fling at the Church and W. C. T. U.—They Hint That the Times Could do Better Business Than to Publish Brown's Slurs—

(From the Washtenaw Times) Editor Times:

In all political controversies it is quite usual for the opposing factions to indulge in recriminations and to overwhelm each other with insulting epithets, but it would seem as if the faction represented by your correspondent, Mr. Arthur Brown, in your last Monday's issue were driven to desperate straits when it accuses a man of membership in an evangelical church as if that were a crime, and lugs in the name of an organization of Christian women as if it were the quintessence of all opprobrious epithets.

Your correspondent says: "Now a word as to your leader, that Church of Christ man, Moran. * * * If you kick Judson out and put in a new boss, or whatever you call him, from the W. C. T. U. end of your party, etc."

The W. C. T. U. is the declared foe of the saloon, and it is not difficult to understand that the sympathizers with the saloon have no respect for Christianity, temperance, or true womanhood, but they have usually too much diplomacy to voluntarily make open confession of their sentiments.

This local controversy is entirely political, and the temperance question is in no way involved in it, therefore the use of the name of the W. C. T. U. is wholly unprovoked and we protest, Mr. Editor, against the use of your columns for an unwarranted fling at an organization of Christian women, who are wives, mothers, and daughters, sisters of men who are among Ann Arbor's most reputable citizens, and who represent the best elements of law and order. This gratuitous and covert attack deserves, and will receive the condemnation of all true men of what ever creed or party, among whom, Mr. Editor, we are sure we can count yourself.

SUCKERS ARE BITING

And a Fine String Was Taken By A Fakir at Saline.

Our village is $3. better off and some of our people are several times that amount out. Monday a fakir struck town and applied for a license to sell merchandise it was granted and he mounted a carriage and at once commenced to offer for sale watches and chains for from $2. to $7. each, giving with each purchase to the buyer, his choice of four pocketbooks containing $5 and $10 bills, that is they were supposed to contain them as the boss man placed them thus. Several men were induced to buy, paying the price, and were alike in many similar previous cases, "sucked in," only getting in the little wallet, a one dollar bill. There is a question, is it policy for our village to grant licenses to such people, or to allow them to do business here and thus cripple and sap so many who are not able to stand it? This man brought $3 into our treasury and swindled the peep-out of ten times that sum. It was a fine object lesson for the school children who after school stood thick and close around his wagon.—Saline Observer.

There are two days of every year set aside by us which serve to mark the milestone of our business life and at the same time express so far as we can our appreciation of the benefits we have received from our friends and patrons. In no sense are they counted business days with us as we aim to eliminate all profit on the goods sold. It is always a question with us how many of our friends we can congregate beneath our roof—in what manner we can impress upon them our superiority as conservators of family supplies. This year, with our vastly increased room and facilities, with an almost perfect organization and magnificent stocks of Merchandise to draw upon,

Get More and You Get Less

Why is it every sarsaparilla which tries to sell itself, ranges itself against Ayer's as the standard? Why is it that all have to offer extra inducements—bigger bottles, fancy wrappers, cheaper price—anything, everything, but the one inducement of quality?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

has never been equaled by any cheap imitation of it, and quality tells, just as blood tells.

It is the Standard.

"I have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla for more than twenty-five years, and have never heard anything but words of praise from my customers; not a single complaint has ever reached me. A preparation must possess great merit to maintain such a reputation. I believe your sarsaparilla to be the best blood purifier that has ever been introduced to the general public. I often hear other manufacturers say that this is 'as good as Ayer's,' but no one ever yet heard it said that Ayer's was 'as good' as any other kind. TELLS OF THE MAINE HORROR

President McKinley Sends a Message to Congress.

SYNOPSIS OF BOARD'S REPORT

Complete Details Given from the Time of the Order to Send the Warship to Havana Harbor to the Time of the Explosion.

Washington, March 29.—The president today sent the following message to congress:

"To the Congress of the United States: For some time prior to the visit of the Maine to Havana harbor our consular representatives pointed out the advantages to flow from the visit of national ships to Cuban waters, in acquainting the people to the presence of our flag as the symbol of good will and of our ships in the fulfillment of the mission of protection to American interests, even though no immediate need therefor might exist.

"Accordingly, on the 24th of January last, after conference with the Spanish minister, in which the renewal of visits of our war vessels to Spanish waters was discussed and accepted, the consular authorities at Madrid and Havana were advised of the purpose of this government to resume friendly naval visits at Cuban ports and that in that view the Maine would forthwith call at the port of Havana.

"This announcement was received by the Spanish government with appreciation of the friendly character of the visit of the Maine and with notification of intention to return the courtesy by sending Spanish ships to the principal ports of the United States. Meanwhile the Maine entered the port of Havana on the 25th of January, her arrival being marked with no special incident besides the exchange of customary salutes and ceremonial visits.

"The Maine continued in the harbor of Havana during the three weeks following her arrival. No appreciable excitement attended her stay. On the contrary, a feeling of relief and confidence followed the resumption of the long interrupted friendly intercourse. So noticeable was this immediate relief of her visit that the consul-general strongly urged that the presence of our ships in Cuban waters should be kept up by retaining the Maine at Havana, or in the event of her recall, by sending their vessel there to take her place.

"At forty minutes past 9 in the evening of the 15th of February the Maine was destroyed by an explosion, by which the entire forward part of the ship was utterly wrecked. In this catastrophe two officers and 260 of her crew perished, those who were not killed outright by her explosion being penned between decks by the tangle of wreckage and drowned by the immediate sinking of the hull. Prompt assistance was rendered by the neighboring vessels anchored in the harbor, aid being especially given by the boats of the Spanish cruiser Alfonso XII and the Ward line steamer City of Washington, which lay not far distant.

"The wounded were generally cared for by the authorities of Havana, the hospitals being freely opened to them, while the earliest recovered bodies of the dead were interred by the municipality in a public cemetery in the city. Tributes of grief and sympathy were offered from all official quarters of the island.

"The appalling calamity fell upon the people of our country with crushing force and for a brief time an intense excitement prevailed, which in a community less just and self-controlled than ours might have led to hasty acts of blind resentment.

"This spirit, however, soon gave way to the calmer processes of reason and to the resolve to investigate the facts and await the material proof before forming a judgment as to the cause, the responsibility, and if the facts warranted, the remedy due.

"This course necessarily recommended itself from the outset to the executive, for only in the light of a dispassionately ascertained certainty could it determine the nature and measure of its full duty in the matter. "The usual procedure was followed as in all cases of casualty or disaster to national vessels of any maritime state. A naval court of inquiry was at once organized, composed of officers well qualified by rank and practical experience to discharge the onerous duty imposed upon them.

"Aided by a strong force of wreckers and divers the court proceeded to make a thorough investigation on the spot, employing every available means for the impartial and exact determination of the causes of the explosion. Its operations have been conducted with the utmost deliberation and judgment and, while independently pursued, no source of information was neglected and the fullest opportunity was allowed for a simultaneous investigation by the Spanish authorities.

"The finding of the court of inquiry was reached, after twenty-three days of continuous labor, on the 21st of March, and having been approved on the 22d by the commander-in-chief of the United States naval force on the North Atlantic station was transmitted to the executive.

"It is herewith laid before congress, together with the voluminous testimony taken before the court. Its purport is, in brief, as follows: "When the Maine arrived at Havana she was conducted by the regular government pilot to buoy No. 4, to which she was moored in from five and one-half to six fathoms of water.

"The state of discipline on board and the condition of her magazines, boilers, coal bunkers and storage compartments are passed in review, with the conclusion that excellent order prevailed and that no indication of any cause for an internal explosion existed in any quarter.

"At 8 o'clock in the evening of Feb. 15 everything had been reported secure and all was quiet. At 9:40 the vessel was suddenly destroyed.

"There were two distinct explosions, with a brief interval between them. The first lifted the forward part of the ship perceptibly, the second, which was more prolonged, is attributed by the court to the partial explosion of two or more of the forward magazines.

"The evidence of the divers establishes that the afterpart of the ship was practically intact and sank in that condition a very few minutes after the explosion. The forward part was completely demolished.

"At frame 17 the outer shell of the ship, from a point eleven and one-half feet from the middle line of the ship and six feet above the keel when in its normal position, has been forced up so as to be now about four feet above the surface of the water; therefore about thirty-four feet above where it would have had the ship sunk uninjured.

"The outside bottom plating is bent into a reversed 'V' shape, the after wing of which, about fifteen feet broad and thirty-two feet in length (from frame 17 to frame 25), is doubled back upon itself against the continuation of the same plating extending forward.

"At frame 18 the vertical keel is broken in two and keel bent into an angle similar to the angle formed for the outside plates. This break is about six feet below the surface of the water and about thirty feet above its normal position. In the opinion of the court this effect could have been produced only by the explosion of a mine situated under the bottom of the ship, at about frame 18 and somewhat on the port side of the ship.

"The conclusions of the court are: "That the loss of the Maine was not in any respect due to fault or negligence on the part of any of the officers or members of her crew.

"That the ship was destroyed by the explosion of a submarine mine, which caused the partial explosion of two or more of her forward magazines; and,

"That no evidence has been obtainable fixing the responsibility for the destruction of the Maine upon any person or persons.

"I have directed that the finding of the court of inquiry and the views of this government thereon be communicated to the government of her majesty, the queen, and I do not permit myself to doubt that the sense of justice of the Spanish nation will dictate a course of action suggested by honor and the friendly relations of the two governments.

"It was the duty of the executive to advise the congress of the result, and in the meantime deliberate consideration is invoked.

GROWING UPSIDE DOWN.

Planted by a Man Who Had Read an Old German Legend.

John Meiners' distillery in Milwaukee has not been in operation for nine years. It is an old landmark and is surrounded with the interest that every old building in Milwaukee awakens in the historian. The grounds about it are covered with grand old trees and rustic benches and form a little by-way nook whose existence one would not suspect from the road outside the fence at the south, says Meehan's Monthly. But the object of greatest interest in this unique place is an old apple tree that was planted twenty-eight years ago, with its limbs in the ground and its roots in the air, and which still lives to bear fruit and sprout branches where roots should be, and roots where twigs and leaves should be, a curiosity to beholders. Mr. Meiners was induced to make the trial through an old German legend, in which such an inverted tree played a prominent part. When Mr. Meiners planted his twenty-five apple trees they showed no signs of life for a long time. Finally the one still remaining showed a leaf, softened by summer rains and expanded by the sun, and with a great deal of care it was nursed to a sturdy life. It grew very slowly and has not grown more than two feet in height since it was planted. It is now about four feet high, with a trunk fifteen inches in diameter. The roots had a tendency to droop, and it was found necessary to prop them up with a trellis. Instead of growing vertically, they have extended horizontally in long, slender arms. There are about twenty of these, radiating in all directions. Each year, as they grew longer, additional props were put underneath, and they have extended along the trellis flat, straight as a ceiling, with little slender shoots running at right angles and intertwining with one another so closely that they afford some protection from the rain to one who may stand underneath. The top is circular in form and about fifty feet in diameter. The tree has borne fruit for about twenty years and is now covered with little green apples. The fruit is of good quality, but the variety is not known by Mrs. Adolph Meyer, daughter of Mr. Meiners, who now occupies the old homestead with her husband and family.

"The evidence of the divers establishes that the afterpart of the ship was practically intact and sank in that condition a very few minutes after the explosion. The forward part was completely demolished.

"At frame 17 the outer shell of the ship, from a point eleven and one-half feet from the middle line of the ship and six feet above the keel when in its normal position, has been forced up so as to be now about four feet above the surface of the water; therefore about thirty-four feet above where it would have had the ship sunk uninjured.

"The outside bottom plating is bent into a reversed 'V' shape, the after wing of which, about fifteen feet broad and thirty-two feet in length (from frame 17 to frame 25), is doubled back upon itself against the continuation of the same plating extending forward.

"At frame 18 the vertical keel is broken in two and keel bent into an angle similar to the angle formed for the outside plates. This break is about six feet below the surface of the water and about thirty feet above its normal position. In the opinion of the court this effect could have been produced only by the explosion of a mine situated under the bottom of the ship, at about frame 18 and somewhat on the port side of the ship.

"That the ship was destroyed by the explosion of a submarine mine, which caused the partial explosion of two or more of her forward magazines; and,

"That no evidence has been obtainable fixing the responsibility for the destruction of the Maine upon any person or persons.

"Golden Nectar" banishes the frown from the clinic's brow. Satisfies the thirsty, refreshes the wearied, vitalizes and exhilarates, counteracting lassitude and depression.

There are many persons with whom coffee does not agree, those who are constitutionally bilious for example. Coffee even clogs the liver of perfectly healthy people, causing headache and dullness. "Golden Nectar" takes the place of coffee, and every one who has used it knows how admirably it does that.

"Golden Nectar" is the result of scientifically treating the American cereals. It is at once a tonic stimulant of marvelous sustaining properties without reaction, and there is no harm in a barrel of it.

THE EXTRA SESSION.

The anti-Pingreeites introduced two measures in the House on the taxation question, at the second day's session which the Pingree followers declare were intended to delay action on the governor's bill.

The House had a scrimmage on the question of printing the proceedings of the House and the speeches of the members, but it was finally voted to print them and C. H. Bender, J. W. Langley, J. W. Stockwell and W. A. Brown, the four stenographers who responded to the call of the governor and volunteered to report the session verbatim free of charge to the state, were made the official stenographers of the House, and were sworn in.

Rep. Foote introduced a bill to repeal the charter of the Michigan Central railroad. Rep. Bemis offered one to increase the specific tax on railroads. Rep. Green went at it wholesale and introduced three bills, viz: To provide for local taxation of express companies, telephone companies, and telegraph companies. All of these tend to complicate the situation and are evidently intended to draw attention from Gov. Pingree's original bill.

The desire of the Senate to adjourn the legislature for one week—spring election week—is being strongly opposed by the House. Neither branch can adjourn for more than three days without the consent of the other and as the Pingree men are dominant in the House they do not intend to allow a whole week of a necessarily limited session to be wasted.

In just one week after the calling of the special session 12 measures were introduced in the House on the subject of taxation. While some of them are claimed to be for the object of including all property in a more equitable taxation scheme, others differ from the governor's bill only a small particular.

The Pingree leaders figured out that if the seats of Senators Covell, Preston and Hughes could be declared vacant writs of election could be issued and the governor hoped that three men of his opinions could be elected. However, the Senate refused to discharge the committees having under consideration the protests against seating the three Senators. The governor was upon the floor of the Senate and Senator Thompson took occasion to score him for lobbying. The governor was not to be turned down, however, and he later issued a proclamation ordering an election April 4 in senatorial and representative districts where members of either house have died, removed or become United States officers.

Senator Preston's district comprises Lapeer and Tuscola counties; Covell's district comprises Antrim, Benzie, Charlevoix, Kalkaska, Leelanau and Wexford counties. The representative districts where elections have been called are the second district of Berrien county, where Representative Williams has become a postmaster; the first district of Macomb, Representative Rowley having died; second Lenawee district, Representative Edgar having removed from the state; the Lapeer district, formerly represented by Representative Lee, deceased. An attempt was made to have Senator Hughes resign, but he refused and no action can be taken as to his case until the Senate disposes of it.

Senator Preston caused another complication in the Senate mix-up by resigning his position in the Port Huron customs office in order to retain his seat in the Senate. It is predicted that Covell will make the same move, and this will block the governor's plan for a special election in their districts.

The Pingree bill met with a sudden check when Fred A. Baker, of Detroit, on invitation of the governor, appeared before the House committees having it in charge and proceeded to show that although the governor's intentions were right and in line with the wishes of the people, yet his bill would not accomplish the result aimed at. He said that unless the charter of the Michigan Central road was repealed there would be no legal way to reach it for proper taxation. He also showed that the laws provided that the legislature should fix the rate of taxation, when this bill would place that power in the hands of a board of assessors.

On motion of Senator Moore of Wayne Chas. H. Strawhecker of Grand Rapids, and Harvey A. Sherman, Gov. Pingree's stenographer, were appointed official stenographers, with one more to be named later. It was also voted to print all speeches in full in the legislative journal.

Notwithstanding his first defeat Rep. Adams again introduced his resolution demanding that the governor send a special message to cover all kinds of taxation. It was laid on the table by a vote of 57 to 31 and an attempt to take it from the table was lost—46 to 37.

NEW LIGHT IN MEDICINE

Power of the Specialist in Treating Grave Diseases.

His Advantage Over the General Practitioner—How the Best Treatment May be Obtained for an Insignificant Sum.

Even a layman, who never sees a medical paper, must marvel at the great advance the science of healing has made in the last few years. A decade has seen more advancement, more light, than all the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

This condition has been brought about very largely by the researches of specialists, who have made some particular organ of the body their special study.

How to provide the advantages of special treatment to the afflicted who have been unable to secure it, has been a problem many have tried to solve. That it is practicable has finally been demonstrated by H. H. Warner, the original proprietor of the world-famed Warner's Safe Cure.

Mr. Warner's years of experience in the treatment of kidney diseases led him to believe that equally good results could be obtained by offering the public special treatment for the several classes of disease to which mankind is liable. Since he severed his connection with the Warner Safe Cure Company, some five years ago, he has been working out his present plan, and has formed the Warner Nazaro Medicine Co.

To Everybody: We manufacture the well known JUMBO PATENT FLOUR, and WHITE LOAF, the Standard Family Brand; also "GOLD DUST" Granulated Meal, Central Mills Graham Flour, Central Mills Pure Rye Flour and Central Mills Pure Buckwheat Flour.

Better Times: are advancing. Business is improving. Many of our new customers tell us that they began to trade with us because they found that we had the best assortment of the kind of goods they were looking for and that our prices were the lowest, considering quality.

Warner Nazaro Medicine Company's Consulting Parlors. The Board of Specialists Diagnosing Cases and Prescribing Medicines that Cure. This plan of special treatment places within the reach of all, the experiences of men who have devoted years of study to their respective specialties. Many diseases that have baffled the skill of the general practitioner can thus be successfully treated.

THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1898.

A VOTE for Dr. Dell for alderman in the third ward will be a vote for a clean official, a man who has had experience in such work and who has always worked for the best interests of his constituents.

HENRY RICHARDS, the Republican candidate for alderman in the first ward, is an able and successful business man. He would make a city official who could be relied upon to look after the city's affairs in a thoroughly satisfactory way.

BOSS JUDSON is rather premature in his demand that THE REGISTER retract. If he will only wait a few weeks longer he would be able to demand that a whole lot more be taken back. Better wait awhile Mr. Sheriff and do up the whole job at one time. By commencing a suit now you would miss several interesting chapters in the account which we have begun to relate.

THE vote for Col. H. S. Dean, for supervisor in the first ward should be an overwhelming one. When a man of his experience and business ability will become a candidate for an office, it will attend to the duties of which would be a great sacrifice on his part, the taxpayers should respond liberally. It would be to the interest of every taxpayer in Washtenaw county to have Col. Dean act as supervisor for the coming year.

As between the two Browns who are candidates for aldermen in the fourth ward there can be no comparison. Mr. Wm. N. Brown, the Republican candidate, is so far superior to the pretense of a man who now tries to fill the position as alderman that there should be no question as to who will be elected. However, Arthur Brown and work well together and may capture lots of votes. Still we believe that the respectable element will be strong enough to elect William N. Brown.

PROF. E. F. JOHNSON declared when he was nominated for the presidency of the Judson club, that he would not accept the office unless it was the unanimous desire of those attending that he should become president. The call was not unanimous by any sort of means. People have been wondering ever since why the professor has failed to keep his word, but continues to hold on to the doubtful honor as head of the Judson club. May be he has had orders from the Boss and these orders are of more importance than the Professor's word.

THE REPUBLICANS of the seventh ward showed their good sense and sound judgment when they accepted Mr. G. Frank Allmendinger to succeed the nomination for supervisor in that ward, and then nominated him by a good big majority. His business experience as well as his experience as a member of the council eminently fit him for the duties of supervisor. With Mr. Allmendinger's extensive business interests it will be a great sacrifice for him to lay aside his private affairs for the public good, if he is elected, and he will be by a large majority. We feel perfectly safe in predicting that Mr. Allmendinger will be the next supervisor for the seventh ward.

SHERIFF JUDSON has taken a good way to find out if he is honest or not. They say "money talks," and the sheriff putting up a cool thousand should do a heap of talking these days. He says that $1,000 will go to the man who proves he did a dishonest act in his official capacity.—Commercial.

It is fortunate that the man who wrote the above is still young as he has much to learn yet. The only condition upon which Judson offers his thousand dollars is that he shall be the final judge as to whether the case is proven that he has taken money not his own. Money may talk as the Commercial declares, but bluff does not. We suppose the Commercial knew the difference between bluff and cash.

COMMENTING upon the effort which is being made to down Judsonism in this county, the Ypsilanti Sentinel says among other things, that Judson's "offer to donate $1,000 to charity if he can be shown ever to have taken money wrongfully, is nonsensical." Maybe it would be to a man who is innocent, but to a man who wants to play a game of bluff, it becomes a serious matter. Then, too, it is not so light a matter with the friends of several charities in this city who are only too anxious that Judson should make his thousand dollar offer in such a way that Judson himself will not be the final judge in the matter. To leave the matter so that the Boss will be the final judge in every case, as it now stands makes his offer a mere burlesque.

PLEASE RISE AND EXPLAIN.

Last week's issue of the Dexter Leader contained the following:

The Ann Arbor Register came out with another batch of charges against Sheriff Judson last week, and intimates that the end is not yet. With all due respect to both the Register and Sheriff Judson, and as one who believes in fair play and desires to see the best interests of the county promoted, the Leader would suggest less wind and more work. If the charges made by the Register are true a grave wrong has been done Washtenaw county; if they are not true a grave wrong has been done Sheriff Judson. In justice to both Mr. Judson and the county the matter should be settled officially and at once.

We have studied over the item not a little ourselves and have submitted it to a number of lawyers and led legal lights, but so far have failed to find a man who will attempt to fathom the meaning. Brother Thompson, please rise and explain.

SPEAK UP, MR. SWEET.

Ex-Marshall Banfield Asks Some Hard Questions for the Present Marshal to Answer—The Register Will be Glad to Give Room for an Answer.

MR. EDITOR:

Will Marshal Sweet explain his statement to the council how, in giving the warrants to a deputy sheriff to return, instead of returning them himself, he saves the city a large amount of money? Does not the city pay its just proportion of county tax? And is it not a fact that for every warrant returned by a deputy the city pays forty cents of the $1.50 which the deputy gets for the return? Why not save that forty cents? The city pays your salary.

Straighten out these matters, Mr. Marshal, and explain where the saving to the taxpayer comes in. Did anybody ever hear of a sheriff asking the city to pay for the keeping of a city prisoner?

It is safe to say that in the years of '94, '95, and '96, there were 250 ordinance cases, and that 245 of them paid all costs; sheriff, justice and officer; so that the lawbreaker paid all costs, and the innocent taxpayer was not out one cent; the other five—which was a larger number than there was for the three years—might have cost the city $20.00, or $0.75 per year, if the sheriff had asked the city to pay for them.

The average for these three years will not vary from the average for any three years if the Marshal uses good judgment.

Let us see how this sheriff-marshal combination looks to a taxpayer who knows something about it. In looking over the council records for 1896, I find there were not so many special meetings as in '94. There were about one-half as many sidewalks ordered repaired, and new ones laid. There were fewer committee meetings held in '96 than there were in '94, when the sewer committee was planning to build 17 1/2 miles of sewer; the ordinance committee met and revised all the city ordinances; and the Marshal was required to notify each member of these meetings.

I further find that we had a large number of scarlet fever cases in the city, and the Marshal had to placard the houses, and, when ordered by the Board of Health, go and remove the cards. This year there have been no cases reported. So that in the past year the personal work of the Marshal was one-third less than in 1894.

Now, let us see how you saved the tax-payers money; you turned nearly all your warrants, amounting to several hundred dollars, over to the deputies; you have had an assistant at $50 per month, making the actual cost of the personal work of the Marshal about $1,700 for the same work which all other marshals have done at a cost to the city of $780.

Please explain where this great saving comes in Mr. Marshal. PARRIS S. BANFIELD. Ann Arbor, March 20, '98.

Electric Moonlight. In the new library of Columbia university, New York, a large ball several feet in diameter is suspended in the rotunda, directly under the center of the cupola or dome. Around the periphery of the upper part of the rotunda a number of electric arc lights are placed, and their light is thrown directly upon the great ball, which is painted white. The lamps are so placed that their light does not directly reach the lower part of the room. The ball acts like the moon, and disseminates the light through the room. The effect is very fine, but it is, of course, far from economical.

CLEANSE THE STABLES.

[From The Ypsilantian]

THE Moran-Judson episode seems difficult to down; nor will it down till the cause of the party's differences are removed. The Courier deprecates all controversies within the party fold and thinks all differences should be left to the conventions and like good soldiers republicans should put their principles above personal feelings and abide the decision of the majority. The Courier, on general principles, is right, and we take no issue with him on the question of principles above feeling. The trouble at present has nothing to do with party principles except to see that they are preserved. We have nothing whatever to do with any personal animosity that may exist between the factions which are at odds, but while we say this, we believe that the life of the republican party and its efficiency for good depend largely on decisive action when any one by the use of unlawful methods is found to forget the good of the party in his insane greed for personal advantage. When men who have been honored by the suffrages of the party by which they have come into official relations, forget that they are servants and not its bosses, and things are done which bring a reproach upon themselves and the party responsible for their promotion, sharp and incisive criticism of such persons and their official conduct, cannot hurt the party in the least. If Mr. Judson is caught in the focus of hostile forces just now, he has himself to blame for it. The Courier knows, as every other republican knows who was in the convention two years ago to appoint delegates to the gubernatorial convention, that Washtenaw county was not allowed to express through its delegates their choice for governor. Contrary to the law of the republican party, and in spite of protests against gag law, the gag was applied, and the trouble has been brewing ever since. Everybody knows that Judson was responsible for this violation of republican law, and encouraged by his success, he has ridden rough shod over party principles and precedents ever since. It is fully time for Mr. Judson to know that the party does not recognize him as a leader, much less will it endure him as a boss. We gave warning to the honorable gentleman at the time, that he was laying a mine which would blow him politically into kingdom come. The official records of the supervisors are sufficient to retire him and all his following, and when the party, which possibly may go to defeat this fall, shall be purged of these "birds of ill omen," it will be henceforth stronger in the confidence of the people. Mr. Frank Allmendinger is right when he suggests the unwisdom of covering up a festering sore within party ranks. The Courier may deprecate all controversies; it would be doing the party a better service should the Courier use its influence to remove any occasion for controversies, by insisting that republican conventions shall not be subject to boss dictation and slum methods.

Samuel Tilden turned the river through the Augenan stables of New York city, and saved his party from eternal damnation. If we mistake not, the republican party of Washtenaw propose a similar cleansing.

Large Plate Glass Window. A large plate glass window has been ordered for the front of the armory, and the non-commissioned officers' room will be connected with that of the officers by folding doors.

The company drills twice a week—Wednesday and Friday nights—and during the next two weeks the armory will be open every evening, for members only. Cleaning of equipments is the order of the evening.

It is now Corporal Watson and Bithke and Past Quartermaster Sergeant Frank Campbell. The company has a membership to be proud of and they are working hard to place the company at the top of the general average column in the Inspector General's report, also to be in perfect shape if called upon to go south.

GLEN V. MILLS, City Clerk. Dated March 21, 1898.

Peaceable men don't like to carry weapons, but there are times when a weapon saves a man's life. Sensible people don't like to be always taking medicine—it is like flourishing fire-arms on every needless occasion—but the right medicine at the right time is often a genuine life-saver. When your constitution is over-taxed by worry or extra work, or weakened by an attack of indigestion or biliousness; or whenever your natural energies are not quite up to the mark and fail to respond to the demands upon them, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will meet the emergency promptly, and save you from dangerous or perhaps fatal illness. It wards off disease by acting directly upon the vital organs where disease originates. It restores the liver's capacity to filter poisonous impurities out of the blood, and empowers the digestive organs to extract from the food those nourishing vitalizing elements which drive out disease germs, repair wasted tissues and build up healthy flesh and muscular force. It is the most thoroughly scientific and effectual alterative remedy ever discovered in the whole history of medicine, and one of Dr. Pierce's most valuable contributions to Materia Medica during his thirty years service as chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. A. I. Gibbs, of Russellville, Logan Co., Ky., writes: "I can heartily recommend your 'Golden Medical Discovery' to any one who is troubled with indigestion and torpid liver. I was so bad I could not lie on my left side and could scarcely eat anything. I had a dull aching and pain in my stomach all the time. Now it is all gone after taking one bottle of your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' Constipation is the commonest beginning and first cause of many serious diseases and it should always be treated with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets used in connection with the 'Discovery.' These are the most perfect natural laxatives and permanently cure."

Pure Drinking Water.

A great many Ann Arbor people are familiar with the artesian well water which is found in such abundance on the land of the Ann Arbor Celery Co., about two miles south of the city. This water comes from a stratum of sand below some 30 feet of blue clay and it must come a great many miles in order to gain the pressure it has when tapped. The water has been analyzed at the hygiene laboratory at the University and has been found absolutely free of germs. It makes an excellent and pure drinking water. The Ann Arbor Celery Co., is prepared to deliver this water in case lots of six half-gallon bottles for 25 cents per case. This makes the water very low so that it is within the reach of the large majority of people. Those desiring further information should address the above company, Lock box 214, city.

MRS. PINKHAM'S VICTORY

RED HOUSE, VA.—To Mrs. Pinkham: "My heart goes out in sympathy to all who are suffering with troubles peculiar to the female sex."

"I would like to express my gratitude for your 'Vegetable Compound' has done for me. I have been a sufferer since girlhood; did not then know the cause of dreadful sick headaches and other troubles. I could not take long walks, lift or carry anything heavy, and was very nervous."

"Last summer I was almost an invalid; could not walk across my room without pain. I sent for our physician. He pronounced my case a bad one of 'Prolapsus Uteri,' congestion and ulceration of the womb, and said I was to lie abed. I was so distressed to find myself so helpless and useless to my family; I saw your Compound advertised and thought I would try it. I took several bottles, and used the Senative Wash and Pills as directed, and now I am as strong as I ever was, and do all my own housework. I can walk more than a mile without any inconvenience. Oh! I am truly grateful. I cannot write the good you have done me. Words are inadequate to express it. May God bless you for the good you are doing."—MRS. SIDNEY HAMLET, Red House, Va.

BOSS JUDSON OPPOSES BOSSISM!

club banquet, he had foresight enough to see that it would not do to entirely kill off the club right then and there. He seemed to realize that too many people, the party husters in fact all over the county, would raise a storm of objection to such a proceeding. In order, therefore, to avoid too great a kick, if the entire idea of a club were knocked out, he decided to organize what might properly be called the Judson club. Those who attended the meeting held in the court house on February 17, remember how smoothly the plan was worked out, and how well trained were Boss Judson's lieutenants. There can be no question that the object in organizing this Judson club was purely for the purpose of attempting to appease the antagonistic feeling which would be aroused if the original club were killed off as they intended it should be. THE REGISTER has the best of reasons for believing it was never intended that any effort should be put forth looking toward making the new club an effective working body. All that was wanted was to be able to say "We have a club, and that is all we need." They seemed to think this would satisfy the people, and that in all they were mistaken. It soon became clearly evident that something must be done and that at once. In the meantime the large majority of the members of the original club had given specific orders that their names should not be handed over to the Judson club. Mr. Moran, therefore very properly refused to surrender to the Judson club the names of any of the original members excepting such as desired him to do so. We should state right here that not one of the original members has ever requested that his name should be handed to secretary Green of the Judson club. This left the club to start off with but four members, who handed in their names at the time the club was organized, and Boss Judson's two faithful henchmen, Messrs. Johnson and Green, as officers. There was another party elected to an office without his consent, and without his being a member of the club, and we do not wish, therefore, to offend him by mentioning his name in connection with the affair. But people were beginning to ask, is the Judson club going to show any signs of life? This caused those interested, the men who at the Boss's behest, had sponsored for the trail offsprings, to bestir themselves. At least an appearance of life must be shown. This was done by the presentation of the following in as many of the Republican ward canvases Monday night as persons could be found who would consent to bring the matter up.

We the undersigned desire to be enrolled as members of the Republican Club of Washtenaw county, Michigan, and promise our assistance and influence to the perpetuation of the principles of the party. We also desire to continue our protest against Boss Rule in our party and express a hope that whatever may be done by this Club may be for the best interests and for the highest welfare of the party as well as for all the people.

Judson Draws City Revenues.

Another recent incident illustrates the control which Boss Judson exercises over the Marshal. In February, Alfred Parsons, Frank Hill and John O'Grady were arrested by the police for stealing a penny-in-the-slot machine. They pleaded guilty and were sentenced to the Detroit House of Correction. Marshal Sweet, Patrolmen Armbruster and Deputy Sheriff Wackenhut started to take the men to Detroit, the marshal and patrolman taking the Michigan Central train here, while Wackenhut and O'Grady went by motor to Ypsilanti expecting to take the train at that point. O'Grady, however, appealed his case and instead of taking him to Detroit, Wackenhut was obliged to let him return to this city. Marshal Sweet and Patrolman Armbruster went to Detroit with their men and left them in the House of Correction. This was a very proper thing to do for there is a fee of $4 for delivering each prisoner and this would naturally have gone to the city for the men were delivered by the city's regular employees. But if the matter of fees had been honestly settled Boss Judson would not have gotten a cent for it and this was more than he could stand. So the receipts for the delivery of the prisoners were made out in favor of Marshal Sweet and Deputy Wackenhut, though the latter had not gone near Detroit. As Wackenhut works for Judson by the month this money undoubtedly went into the pocket of the Boss. At any rate it did not go to the city, though a city employee, paid by the month, had delivered the prisoner.

Before Boss Judson demands that this be retracted let him enquire who took Alfred Parsons to Detroit. He will learn from a dozen sources that it was Patrolman Armbruster. Then let him ask who drew the pay?

The County Clerk's order book will show that Deputy Wackenhut drew the pay on February 19. What difference does it make who drew the pay? Wacky this: An honest report of Patrolman Armbruster's services would have turned $4 into the city treasury, but by falsifying the report the city was robbed of that amount and Boss Judson or his deputy got the benefit.

The Coast Defences. One half the number of improved cannon, mortars and emplacements will be located and placed in suitable position ere the expiration of 1898. The Artillery Board is constantly making practical surveys, so far as these relate to the army, and the establishment of adequate military protection of our seaboard frequently urged upon the government by the chambers of commerce of our maritime cities, is receiving a strong reinforcement from this source.

Meanwhile there is a means of defence from greater physical calamity which no one afflicted with nervousness or dyspepsia should neglect, and that is the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which by restoring the tone of the nerves and stomach invigorates the entire system. It also remedies and prevents malarial, kidney and rheumatic ailments, and cures biliousness and constipation. It is a capital appetizer, and promotes sound repose. Those who have been cured by it speak in no uncertain tones as to the effectiveness of this celebrated medicine in disease and as a medicinal stimulant.

Ten thousand demons gnawing away at one's vitals couldn't be much worse than the tortures of itching piles. Yet there's a cure. Doan's Ointment never fails.

And now Ann Arbor is in convulsions over the best kind of paving to adopt. It makes no difference what has been done in other places where paving has been going on for 50 years. The fellows inside and outside the council know all about it, and the fight is on between brick and asphalt. And the arguments deduced are as lucid and satisfactory as the farmers' grange controversy, "Will Chess Grow from Wheat?" Ann Arbor people will learn that on some streets, one kind of pavement is better than the other, and of course that's the kind to use. Any one ought to know that.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROBLEM.

IT HAS BEEN SOLVED BY J. M. BARRY, A LAW STUDENT.

Who Gets $50 As A Prize—Nine Students Were Entered.

In January, Governor Pingree submitted a problem to University students. He wanted to know what the difference would have been to union soldiers had they been paid in gold? What difference it made to himself, serving three years and 14 days, and how much it would take now to pay the difference to the whole union army, with 3 per cent interest payable semi-annually and compounded. He offered a prize of $50 to the student who gave the first correct answer; $25 to the second, and $10 to the third. The contest was referred to Adjt.-Gen. Irish, to whom all answers were sent, and Gen. Irish made the prize awards in the following communication:

"Answers from nine different students have been received. In considering their respective correctness I have been greatly assisted by Capt. Cornelius Gardner, U. S. A., and I desire at this time to acknowledge his careful and painstaking efforts in verifying the lengthy computations.

"I concur with him in the conclusion that the answer of M. J. Barry is entitled to the first prize of $50; that of Roman Adams to the second of $25, and that of R. M. Watkins to the third of $10.

"The answers of M. J. Barry to the questions are as follows:

Question 1: What difference did it make to me (i. e. Gov. Pingree?)

Answer, $181.47.

Question 2: "What difference did it make to the whole union army?"

Answer, $566,224,855.51.

Question 3: "How much would it take now to pay the difference with 3 per cent interest, payable semi-annually and compounded?"

Answer: To pay Gov. Pingree's difference, $495.26. To pay the difference to the United States army, $1,288,408,074.47.

ATHLETIC NOTES.

A RELAY TEAM WILL GO TO PHILADELPHIA.

Plans for a Graduate Manager-Foot Ball and Base Ball Work.

The athletic board met last Wednesday night and decided to send a relay team to Philadelphia to compete in an invitation meet to be given under the auspices of the University of Pennsylvania. The race will take place April 30 and will be one mile, each man running a quarter.

Yale, Georgetown, and other big universities will send teams.

Work to get the men into shape will begin at once. Heald, Teetzel, Thompson and Thomas are promising candidates and there is good quarter mile material among the freshmen.

At the same meeting an amendment to the constitution was proposed providing for a graduate manager of inter-collegiate athletics. It is also proposed to have a manager of inter-scholastic athletics whose duty will be to manage the inter-high school meets which are to be held here each year.

A large number of foot ball men have turned out to train for the punting and drop kicking contest. The prize in this contest will be the Carrow silver cup.

The base ball candidates have been reduced in number to 30. There are some good ones and Michigan is sure of at least a fair team.

Track work is progressing rapidly. Next Monday, Trainer Tom Cox will begin work with the men on the track, out of doors. The first work will be with the quarter-mile men to prepare them for the relay race at Philadelphia can be overcome in almost all cases by the use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod-Liver Oil and the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. While it is a scientific fact that cod-liver oil is the most digestible oil in existence, in it is not only palatable, but it is already digested and made ready for immediate absorption by the system. It is also combined with the hypophosphites, which supply a food not only for the tissues of the body, but for the bones and nerves, and will build up the child when its ordinary food does not supply proper nourishment.

Wasting in Children

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper. All druggists; 50c. and $1.00. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

PROFESSORS ADAMS AND TAYLOR HOLD OPPOSITE VIEWS

On Some Economic Questions. Standard of Value and Protection Discussion.

It is often mentioned as a good thing that Professors Adams and Taylor of the department of economics are able to present the opposite sides of leading questions.

The Evening News says: Prof. H. C. Adams is an uncompromising advocate of international bimetallism, and it is hinted that he even voted for Bryan. Prof. F. M. Taylor, on the other hand, said:

"I am an uncompromising believer in gold. I doubt if any serious evils are traceable to its establishment as the standard; and I feel sure that no possible substitute is desirable. International bimetallism I consider a mere chimera, as likely to be realized as the project of opening up communication with the people Mars."

Prof. Adams is a free trader pure and simple, while Mr. Taylor believes that protection has benefited the country, though he holds that its day of usefulness is about over.

Prof. Adams is more of a socialist than Mr. Taylor. He has believed that legislation could lessen competition and greatly better the condition of the laboring classes and do it at once, while his colleague holds that free competition is, in general, the best plan, though it must be regulated to some extent by the state.

Prof. Taylor is a Pingree man. He said: "I consider both corporations and trusts of great value and believe that they have come to stay. Still, I consider their regulation by the state absolutely necessary, though the process of working out the best method must be a slow one.

"Any change which involves the disturbing of vested interests is bound to occasion a conflict; and the man who wins in such a conflict cannot stop to discriminate too nicely as to the rights in every case. In the end the conflicting interests will probably secure substantial justice."

SPANISH MISRULE.

PROF. WORCESTER TOLD ABOUT IT FRIDAY NIGHT.

Prof. Worcester lectured before the Fellow Craft Club in Detroit Friday Night. The Tribune Tells of His Address as Follows:

Prof. Worcester is a large, athletic-looking man, of fine presence. He speaks in a simple, straightforward manner, fluently but without oratorical effect. He gives a humorous turn of his sentences at times. He was introduced by William Livingstone, who quoted from Senator Thurston's speech the striking sentences characterizing Spaine's colonial enterprise and policy.

Prof. Worcester's lecture was illustrated with a great many interesting pictures. While telling of his uncomfortable personal experiences with Weyler, he had upon the screen an official paper bearing Weyler's signature. He described the peculiar system of collecting revenues in the islands, which enabled Weyler, on a salary of $50,000 a year, to save up nearly $5,000,000 in four years, and which reduced the natives to an ineffectual life-long struggle to keep out of slavery in the penal colonies.

What the government leaves is taken by the friars. Prof. Worcester showed the picture of a friar that he saw shoot one of his parishioners wantonly, and then beat the man for getting blood on his doorsteps. In conclusion he said:

"There are three plague spots in our modern civilization. Cuba and the Philippines. I hope that as a result of the action that America must and will take soon in the interests of humanity, that both her East and West Indian possessions will have passed from the hands of Spain forever."

After eliminating the mistake from their bid on the new law building, Carow & Co., of Detroit, got the contract at $49,000.

"Jerry" McCauley, the famous football coach, who prepared Michigan men for victory in '94 and '95, is dead. His death occurred at Rochester, N. Y., and was due to heart trouble caused, it is said, by failure to continue his athletic habits after leaving college. A number of Psi U's went to Rochester to attend the funeral.

Owned by Colored People. From the Baltimore Sun: The only cotton mill in the country, it is claimed, owned exclusively by colored people, is now approaching completion at Concord, N. C., and the last brick will be laid before the close of the present year. The mill is to have from 7,000 to 10,000 spindles and from 150 to 250 looms. The building is a handsome three story brick structure, 120 feet long and 80 feet wide. Besides the main building there are also engine and boiler houses and a tower for water purposes. It is expected the mill will be put in operation by the 1st of April. The colored people of Wilmington alone have put $4,000 in the mill, which promises to be a monument to the enterprise and thrift of the colored people of the old north state.

A CITY HOUSE BEAUTIFIED.

By Expending Thought and a Little Money on Brick Exterior.

Amid the general neglect of picturesque effects in the exteriors of New York dwelling-houses, it is pleasant to come now and then upon a building which is the exception to the rule—a spot which the owners have thought it worth while to beautify at the expense of some pains and a certain amount of money, though the latter need be only a small item, says the New York Tribune. In Tenth street, just west of Fifth avenue, only two or three doors from the Church of the Ascension, there is an imposing old-fashioned house. It has a one-story extension, which occupies an adjoining lot on the same street, reaching quite to the wall of the next house beyond. Between the extension and the house to which it belongs there is a communication on the ground floor, the one story building being used chiefly as a library. But it is in the roof arrangement of the extension that the decorative effect consists. A brick parapet, three or four feet high, with occasional diamond-shaped embrasures, extends along the top of the entire front wall. The top of this parapet is flat and is covered with low boxes containing growing plants. At this season the place is a mass of chrysanthemums, yellow being the predominant color, and the brightness of their tints against the dull hues of the building is noticeable many rods away. In the spring the tulips on the parapet are quite as gorgeous as the chrysanthemums are now, and the owners of the house cause the flowers to be changed according to the season of the year. A sturdy growth of the Japanese ivy, now in its autumn bronze, covers the walls of both house and extension, and adds to the general effect. The building has a rather foreign appearance, owing to the parapet garden, which is not often seen here. The roof space, which is cut off from the street view by the wall and the flowers, is tiled and used in pleasant weather as a veranda. The windows of the second story of the house open directly upon it.

THE PROBLEM SOLVED.

THE NEW MEDICAL DISCOVERY TESTED.

Results of the Test in Various Forms of Dyspepsia.

Chronic indigestion or dyspepsia, while a very common trouble, has for some time been looked upon by able physicians as a serious thing, and that no time should be lost in treating it properly at the start, because recent rehearsals have shown that the most serious, fatal and incurable diseases have their origin in simple dyspepsia or indigestion.

Diabetes is simply one form of indigestion, the sugar and starchy food not being assimilated by the digestive organs. In Bright's disease the albumen is not properly assimilated.

While consumption and dyspepsia are twin diseases, and it is beyond question that dyspepsia makes a fertile soil for the seeds of consumption.

But the trouble has been to find a remedy that could be depended upon to cure dyspepsia, as it is notoriously obstinate and difficult to cure.

This has been the question which has puzzled physicians and dyspeptics alike, until the question was solved three years ago by the appearance of a new dyspepsia cure in the medical world known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which it was claimed was a certain, reliable cure for every form of stomach trouble.

Physicians, however, would not accept such statements without first giving the new remedy many tests and carefully observing results.

For three years the remedy has been thoroughly tested in every section of the country and with surprising and satisfactory results.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be honestly claimed to be a specific, a radical lasting cure for indigestion in the various forms of acid dyspepsia or sour stomach, gas or wind on stomach, too much bile, undue fullness or pressure after eating and similar symptoms resulting from disordered digestion. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were not placed before the public until this three years' trial left no doubt as to their value and they have recently been placed in the trade and can be found on sale at all druggists at the nominal price of 50 cents per package.

No extravagant claims are made for the remedy. It will not cure rheumatism, pneumonia, typhoid fever, nor anything but just what it is claimed to cure and that is every form of stomach trouble.

No dieting is necessary, good wholesome food and plenty of it and you may rest assured that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest it.

Druggists claim for it that it is a pleasure to recommend it to dyspeptics, because it gives such universal satisfaction. Little book on stomach diseases sent free by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

From Extreme Nervousness.

THAT no one remedy can contain the elements necessary to cure all diseases, is a fact well known to everyone. Dr. Miles' System of Restorative Remedies consists of seven distinctively different preparations, each for its own purpose.

Mrs. L. C. Bramley, 37 Henry St., St. Catharines, Ontario, writes: "For years I suffered from extreme nervousness and annoying constipation, developing into palpitation and weakness of the heart. I was unable to sleep, suffered much from headache, pain in my left side, palpitation and a constant feeling of weakness and prostration. I began using Dr. Miles' Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills and the Anti-Pain Pills to relieve sudden paroxysms of pain and headache. I soon felt much improved and the pains and aches and weariness left me. I then took Dr. Miles' Restorative Tonic and am now restored to my former good health."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

Dr. C. S. Chadwick, our popular dentist, has been experimenting with the earth or deposit at the bottom of Grass Lake to ascertain how near it approaches in quality to Portland cement. After coming from the report the product has all the appearance and "feel" of the genuine Portland article, and no doubt is the peer and equal of that celebrated cement. Should it be demonstrated that a cement can be made here as good as any manufactured elsewhere it is believed that enough of home capital can be realized to secure a sufficient development to make it an article of commerce.

If the worth of anything is proven by results, then surely Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, is pre-eminently the best cough syrup now extant.

Seems as if consumption always picks out the brightest and best. Fully one-sixth of all the deaths that occur in the world are caused by consumption. Many things were once considered impossible. The telegraph and telephone, the phonograph, the electric light—all were once impossible, and once it was impossible to cure consumption. That was before the time of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Taken according to directions, this standard remedy will cure 98 per cent of all cases of consumption. Consumption is caused and fostered by impurity in the blood. It is cured by the "Medical Discovery." It builds up solid healthy flesh and vigorous strength.

ANSWER IT HONESTLY.

Are the Opinions of Ann Arbor Citizens Not More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers?

The above is a vital question. It is fraught with interest to Ann Arbor it permits of only one answer. It can't be evaded or ignored. An Ann Arbor citizen speaks here. Speaks for the welfare of Ann Arbor. A citizen's opinion is reliable an Utter stranger's doubtful. The impression created is lasting. Curiosity is at once aroused. Read what follows and acknowledge these facts:

Mrs. R. Hatto, of 1103 Forest Ave., says: "Owing to the exertion and worry attendant to waiting on my late husband during a long illness, I contracted kidney trouble and during the past three or four years I suffered much from heavy, aching, bearing down pains through my loins. I could not rest comfortably nights and felt exhausted and tired out when I got up in the mornings. If I caught the least cold it settled in my back and made me much worse. I felt generally run down and unwell. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended that I procured a box at Eberbach & Son's drug store and began to use them. They relieved me right away though I only took the treatment a short time. They certainly did me a great deal of good and I can do recommend them very highly."
