

ANOTHER BOLD BLUFF.

Sheriff Judson Grows Desperate---$1000 Bluff Does Not Succeed So He Tries Another---Sues for Libel---Orders His Deputy to Take Editor of Register to Jail---A Plain Violation of the Law.

HIGH-HANDED PIECE OF BUSINESS.

The Sheriff a Public Enemy---He Winces Under the Charge---His Course Universally Condemned---Judson Never Suspected Anybody Would Dare Expose His Conduct---Finds He Cannot Put a Collar on the Register---A Few More Things for Voters to Think About.

GUILTY OF FALSE IMPRISONMENT.

When Sheriff Judson found that people saw through his palpable bluff in offering a thousand dollars if it could be shown that he had ever taken a dollar not honestly his, he, in his desperation, decided to try another plan. This was put in operation last Friday when he began proceedings against the editor of THE REGISTER on a charge of libel. On such a charge the defendant may be arrested on what is, in law, called a capias and be compelled to give a bond for his appearance to defend his case. In the event of his being unable, or his refusal to give a bond for his appearance he may be kept in custody by the officer. The duty of the officer is clearly to give the defendant every reasonable opportunity and ample time to furnish the required bond. In all cases also where the sheriff is a party to the case, the law is as follows:

Every coroner, within his county, shall serve and execute process of every kind and perform all other duties of the sheriff, when the sheriff shall be a party, or interested in the case.—Howell's Annotated Statutes, Vol. 1, sec. 606.

It is indisputable, therefore, that the sheriff was clearly violating the law when he ordered his deputy to serve the papers in this case. That Sheriff Judson knew better cannot be questioned for it has only been a few weeks since he was a party to a case where the same principle was involved. We refer to Howard Stockwell's suit against the sheriff for extorting money and for damages. In this case the law was observed and the coroner served the papers. That no sheriff has ever before thought of throwing a defendant in jail when arrested on a capias, or refused to allow an opportunity to give bail at once is a matter of common record. In this case, however, even though the opportunity was demanded, the demand was bluntly ignored. Judson could not find a chance to touch the editor of THE REGISTER, legally, so in order to attempt to disgrace him, he was willing to openly violate what he knew to be the plain terms of the law. It cannot be that the sheriff acted upon the advice of reputable attorneys.

Since THE REGISTER is not making this fight against the sheriff on personal grounds, but rather because it believes him to be a public enemy, it would much rather pass over without notice this offense of a public arrest and confinement in the county jail with common criminals. Believing however, that such insults should not be allowed to pass by unnoticed, we may possibly decide later on to bring suit for false imprisonment.

ANOTHER SAMPLE OF JUDSONISM.

During the latter part of Sheriff Judson's first term of office, a well-known resident of this city became, because of ill health, slightly deranged. It was a mild form of monomania upon a certain phase of the gentleman's business. It was believed that treatment at Pontiac for a few weeks would restore him. Except upon the one point the gentleman was perfectly sane. In a talk with THE REGISTER recently he stated that when it was decided that he should go to Pontiac for treatment, he was taken there by J. Wood, a deputy sheriff, employed by the month by Sheriff Judson. When we arrived at Pontiac, he stated, I was asked to remain in the depot for a little while. During this time Mr. Wood stepped outside and entered into conversation with a gentleman who was standing on the depot platform. Wood then came back to the patient whom he had in charge and the two started for the asylum. The party whom Mr. Wood had in charge soon noticed that the man with whom the deputy had been talking was following right along close behind. When they arrived at the asylum and the patient was turned over to the authorities the third party reported his name as Lester Canfield, deputy sheriff who, by the way, is another deputy who works for Sheriff Judson by the month. When the voucher was made out it read that deputies Wood and Canfield had delivered the patient at Pontiac and that, therefore, Washtenaw county should pay the expense of two men for conveying the gentleman referred to to Pontiac. At the rates set by the board of supervisors the expense of the two men for taking the patient to Pontiac should have been $19.25. If it was a fact that Deputy Wood alone took the patient to the asylum, and deputy Canfield had admitted that he did not assist in the case, the expense to the county should not exceed $12.25. For this service an order was drawn up on the treasury of Washtenaw county in favor of Sheriff Judson for $32.10 notwithstanding the efforts of the supervisors to prevent anything of this sort taking place. We ask Mr. Judson's attention to this case and, in this connection, we desire to raise the question, Is not some charity in Ann Arbor entitled to the $1,000.00 you have so freely offered to give if it could be shown that you have ever taken a dollar not honestly your own? THE REGISTER and the various charitable institutions await your answer.

COUNTY PAYS JUDSON'S BILLS.

While looking over some papers in the Clerk's office recently a rather surprising bill was found. It was a bill containing a personal account of $10 against Sheriff Judson which had been presented by the Courier office to Washtenaw county and which the county had paid. It was a clear case of the county helping to pay Boss Judson's campaign expenses. The incident also contains a hint at the reason why the Courier is bending its best efforts toward defending the Sheriff at the present time. He seems to have a pull with the Courier which as yet that paper has not been able to shake off. The bill referred to was presented to the county on October 31, 1896. It came from the Courier office and consisted of but two items as follows:

October 18, 20,000 tickets and counting.....$98.50
 " 13, 200 Couriers..... 10.00—Judson
 $108.50

An order for the amount was drawn the same day by the County Clerk and the same was cashed at the Ann Arbor Savings Bank within a few days. A few days after we discovered the bill, Sheriff Judson, learning that the fact had become known that the county had paid for 200 copies of the Courier which he had ordered for campaign purposes, at once saw to it that the money was refunded to the county. The explanation is made that it was all due to a mistake at

U. of M. Faculty Hope War May Be Avoided.

Members of the U. of M. faculty sent the following to Gen. Spalding Monday: "We, the undersigned, members of the various faculties of the University of Michigan, feel that the country is now passing through hours that are weighted with the most solemn issues to the American people. We beg leave respectfully to represent with all earnestness that we most cordially approve of the course that the president is pursuing in regard to these questions with a view, if possible, of finding a peaceful solution of the difficulties that weigh down upon us and of saving the country and the world the awful horrors of war if it can be done consistently with the national honor. We beg leave, also, to express the hope that you, as a representative of the people, will second to the utmost the efforts of the president in this direction."

TREATMENT OF CRIMINALS.

Ex-Regent Harbour Says They Should Be Cured of Diseased Minds.

Ex-regent Levi L. Barbour spoke before students of sociology yesterday on the treatment of criminals. He said that only diseased men commit crime and criminals should be treated for disease. "What would you think, asked he, 'of sending a man to the asylum for a certain term of years because he was insane? The idea is preposterous. Yet we send criminals to the penitentiary for a definite length of time. The criminal should be looked upon as diseased, the prison should be in the hands of expert criminologists who treat the man till he is cured and then let him out on parole."

FOR COUNTY TREASURER.

That the fall campaign has opened early is evidenced by the fact that already candidates for county offices are being talked of. One of the most prominent so far mentioned is a candidate for the Republican nomination for treasurer, Mr. C. E. Sperry, of Pittsfield. His friends are active in his interests, and since he is so well and favorably known all over the county he will make a strong run for the nomination. Mr. Sperry was born and raised in this county, his parents being among our best known and most highly respected pioneers. With a good education, and with the experience of several years as township treasurer in Pittsfield, Mr. Sperry is well able to attend to the duties of County Treasurer to the entire satisfaction of every taxpayer in Washtenaw county. THE REGISTER believes that some good Republican can and will be elected County Treasurer this fall. We also believe that Mr. Sperry will make the other fellow, whoever he may be, who wants the office, hustle if he captures the nomination.

Y. W. C. A.

At the entertainment soon to be given by the Y. W. C. A., the children are to give a Mother Goose party, introducing the audience to Jack Horner, Brown Betty and other childhood favorites in charming costumes. The young ladies of the older class will give a series of tableaux illustrating "Joan of Arc." Each is to be preceded by a brief description which will make the series instructive as well as entertaining. The calcium light will add much to the beauty of this entertainment. Admission, 10 cents.

A club is to be organized consisting of girls from 9 to 13 years of age. Our recording secretary, Miss Seelye, is gaining in health.

Miss Edmunds, who has won an enviable reputation as a trained nurse, is in the city, caring for Mrs. Seelye, who is very ill.

It is desirable that all books belonging to the library be brought in very soon. A number have been out for a long time.

AT TAYLOR COLLEGE.

Wife of President Wright Thankful to

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

At Taylor college, Upland, Indiana, one of the buildings, "The Maria Wright Hall," bears the name of its donor on the corner stone. Maria Wright is the wife of Rev. John R. Wright, the president of the college, as well as president of the "National Association of Local Preachers," a familiar name, especially to Methodists, all over the country.

If anyone has known the luxury of doing good, her beloved wife and co-worker of the president of Taylor college has enjoyed her share. In the same helpful spirit with which she has helped many a poor struggling student by something more substantial than good advice, Mrs. Wright writes to the proprietors of Paine's celery compound hoping someone may be benefited by Paine's celery compound, as her letter shows that she has been:

Washington, D. C., May 24, 1897.
1337 10th St., N. W.

Dear Sirs:—I find your Paine's celery compound of much benefit as a tonic. Since taking it I feel stronger. I take pleasure in recommending it. Respectfully, Mrs. H. Maria Wright.

Every person who has ever taken Paine's celery compound has observed soon it regulates the bowels and clears the whites of the eyes that yellow jaundiced look. Another witness of its invigorating capacity that may escape the notice of persons not accustomed to ordinarily employing this test is its effects on the pulse. Observe the firm, regular, full pulse that was before uncertain, fluttering and feeble.

The great susceptibility of woman to worry is heightened by the fact that she leads a more confined, monotonous life, narrowed down to the four walls of home the greater part of the day. Paine's celery compound is just what such nervous, depressed persons need to restore their nerves to energy and to lift them out of their constipated, dyspeptic habit of body.

Paine's celery compound counteracts the exhausting strain of work by its strong inducement to the delicate tissues to take more food. It plainly induces the nerves and brain to feed themselves more liberally, and has thus saved countless men and women from chronic neuralgia, rheumatism, sleeplessness and falling mental power. No remedy has been discovered so rich in flesh-forming and energy-producing constituents as Paine's celery compound.

Lends All Others.

"I was troubled with boils and sores for a long time and tried many kinds of medicine without much benefit. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and a few bottles of it cured me. I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla leads all others and recommend it for the blood." Claude Young, Milbrook, Michigan.

The Kidneys

are the seat or the starting point of many maladies, all of them serious, all more or less painful, and all of them tending, unless cured, to a fatal end. No organs of the body are more delicate or more sensitive than the kidneys. When symptoms of disease appear in them not a moment is to be lost if health is to be restored. The best way to treat the kidneys is through the blood, cleansing it from the poisonous matter which is usually at the bottom of kidney complaints. For this purpose there is no remedy equal to

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

At last a friend advised me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The use of eight bottles of this remedy entirely cured my malady."—MAY MILLER, 1238 Hancock Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

MILITARY DAY.

Gov. Pingree Will Attend the Small Military Ball.

The faculty of the University and a large number of the students have been invited to attend the grand military ball to be given April 11, which will certainly be a great social as well as military success. The affair will be run strictly in a military manner, the governor and staff will be received at the depot in military style and escorted to the Cook House where a short informal reception will be held in the afternoon. Early in the evening the official inspection of the company will take place in the armory by Inspector General Case, M. N. G., and Captain Gardner, of the U. S. A. The inspection will be immediately followed by the reception in honor of Governor and Mrs. Pingree, the military staff, visiting officers and ladies. The ball program will open with the lancers followed by two-step and waltz until 2 o'clock, a band playing the two-steps and an orchestra the waltzes. Arrangements of the armory for the comfort and convenience of the guests are perfect; every detail is being looked after with great care and the event of the season is assured.

A Timely Friend.

With perfect propriety may we call that excellent remedy, Salvation Oil, a timely friend. This liniment rapidly cures rheumatism, neuralgia and pains, when other remedies fail. Mr. Jno. M. Hall, Ashland, Va., writes: "I suffered with rheumatism in the ankle and the muscles connected therewith. Salvation Oil at once relieved the soreness, reduced the swelling, and cured the pain. No other liniment that I ever used did me so much good."

ANSWER THIS QUESTION.

What shall be done with the delicate man or woman, who keeps thin and pale, and who does not develop and keep healthy?

First thing to do is to stop drinking coffee, and in its place drink "Golden Nectar." "And why?" In the first place "Golden Nectar" is new life for backward people. It creates a healthy action of stomach, of heart and of liver. "Golden Nectar" is a food beverage, which takes the place of coffee. You prepare it as you would coffee, "boil 20 minutes," add cream and sugar. It tastes like good coffee, and looks like it and has the aroma of the purest coffee. "Golden Nectar" is a pure healthy food product of American cereals, and nothing but health can result from its use. Everyone knows that coffee eventually drags down the system. Change now for "Golden Nectar." For sale by all grocers.

Few books printed in the English language have reached so great a sale as has this popular work, over 650,000 copies having been sold at $1.50 each. The profits on this enormous sale have repaid its author for the great amount of labor and money expended on its production; he has now decided to give away, absolutely free, 500,000 copies of this valuable book, the recipient only being required to mail to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Michigan Christian Endeavor Convention Supreme Court Affirms Tax Title Decision—Mason Severely Scorched—$500,000 War Appropriation.

State Convention Y. P. S. C. E.

The state convention of the Young People's society of Christian Endeavor, at Saginaw, was attended by nearly 1,500 Endeavorers, including General Secretary Baer, of Boston. Every part of the state was represented. The convention opened in the Jefferson Ave. M. E. and First Congregational churches with crowded auditoriums and much enthusiasm. Rev. Ira Billman and Rev. C. E. Bronson presided. Prof. E. O. Excell, of Chicago, conducted the song services. Denominational rallies were held in 12 churches. Miss Carrie Parsons, of Kalamazoo, gave a glowing report on the increasing strength of missionary and Junior work. There are 52 county organizations. During the year 87 societies were added, making a total of 1,457 societies, with a membership of 60,000. Over 300 Junior Endeavorers held an interesting rally under direction of Miss Parsons. Junior Superintendent Miss Mabel Bates, of Traverse City, made her report, which showed the junior work to be keeping pace with that of the seniors.

The list of speakers was unusually good throughout the convention, comprising some of the best known Endeavorers in the state and country.

The following officers were reported by the nominating committee and elected: President, Rev. W. K. Spencer, D. D., of Adrian; vice president, John W. Johnson, of Saginaw; secretary, Miss Carrie Parsons, of Kalamazoo; treasurer, C. D. Harrington, of Grand Rapids; Junior superintendent, Miss Mabel Bates, of Traverse City; missionary superintendent, Rev. E. B. Allen, of Lansing; Christian citizenship superintendent, W. H. Strong, of Detroit. Denominational vice-presidents were also chosen. The enrollment committee reported 1,658 delegates in attendance. The convention enthusiastically expressed its sentiment by a rising vote in favor of Detroit for the national convention of '99.

Grand Rapids and Alpena made a hard fight before the executive committee of the '99 state convention. After long deliberation the committee finally decided unanimously on Grand Rapids.

Michigan Epworth Leaguers.

The seventh annual convention of the Michigan Epworth League was held at the First Methodist church in Jackson with over 800 delegates from all parts of the state. The city was decorated with flags, bunting and Epworth colors and unusual efforts made to entertain the large number of guests.

The board of control changed the name from convention to conference and recommended biennial instead of yearly conferences. Flint and Owosso competed for next year's convention and the decision was in favor of Owosso on its offer to entertain the delegates free. A large number of splendid papers were read and stirring speeches made. The department of junior conferences were inspiring and instructive. Secretary Scott Jones' report showed that the Epworth League has 40,000 members in Michigan. Bishop Ninde and President Ashley, of Albion college, delivered eloquent sermons to the conference.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. R. S. Copeland, Ann Arbor; first vice-president, Rev. W. A. Frye, Three Rivers; secretary, W. Scott Jones, Detroit; treasurer, Otis A. Felger, Grand Rapids; junior superintendent, Miss M. Frances Pullar.

Resolutions were adopted in favor of a "Christian citizenship" committee in each local league to work for moral reform; pledging members to wage un-

Supreme Court Affirms Tax Title Decision

The opinion handed down by the supreme court last December in the famous tax title case of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co. vs. Eugene B. Wood et al., has been affirmed by the court at a rehearing granted on an appeal by the state. This decision is of great importance to hundreds of persons in all parts of the state. It protects, to a great extent, the rights of homesteaders on state tax lands, caustically criticises some former state officials for what it terms "gross negligence," and suggests the necessity for sending a special message to the legislature, recommending remedial legislation.

In the former opinion the court held that when lands had once been bid in by the state for delinquent taxes they could not again be offered for sale for the delinquent taxes of any subsequent year. This is contrary to the method of procedure in the auditor-general's office for nearly 40 years, and it was claimed that an enormous loss to the state would result if the court adhered to its opinion. Not only does the court not recede from its former position, but it emphasizes its findings by vigorous criticisms of the manner in which the state has conducted its business. It is intimated that if the state has been doing business improperly for 40 years, it is time that it struck the right path.

Pingree Asks for $500,000 War Fund.

Gov. Pingree says that in view of the apparent close proximity of war Michigan should be prepared to take her part. He says: "I will recommend to the legislature an appropriation of $500,000 for arming and equipping the militia and volunteers for war service and more if needed, and the enlistment of 150 men per company in case war is declared. I prefer, however, to recommend an appropriation of 20 times that amount to free Cuba without war. I prefer peace to war for us, for 'war is hell,' as Gen. Sherman says."

THE WAR SITUATION.

It is admitted on all sides that Spain is almost as well prepared for a naval engagement as the United States, and that if the torpedo battleship is allowed to reach its base of supplies in Porto Rico, the result cannot be foretold. The fleet is composed of vessels so small and so fast that they will prove difficult targets for the guns of the American cruisers.

The navy department has issued orders to the governors and the adjacent generals of all states where there are naval bases organizations asking them to set in motion the machinery for drilling and equipping the state organizations promptly so that they may be ready within a few hours' notice of a call to arms.

Cuban bonds are looking up. They are now quoted as high as 60 in the maritime exchange in New York and it is said at frequent intervals. The receipt of the frequent propositions from persons who are willing to take blocks of the bonds, soon as Cuba shall be paid for at par as the Cuban government requires.

The queen regent of Spain has sent an autograph letter to the queen of England beseeching Queen Victoria to use her influence to prevail upon the British government to support Austria and France in an attempt to mediate between Spain and America. This extraordinary step has been taken by the queen regent because of the cold reception accorded by the British government to the representations of the Spanish ambassador respecting mediation. Queen Victoria simply forwarded a copy of the queen regent's letter to Lord Salisbury, whose policy will not in any way be affected by it.

England will tolerate no policy of bolstering up Spanish rule in Cuba. The opinion prevails in London that the government will be pressed from the liberal benches of the house of commons to recognize the independence of Cuba as soon as the British government can do so.

The House committee on naval affairs has accepted an amendment to the naval bill increasing the number of torpedo boats and torpedo destroyers from six of each to twelve of each.

The London Daily Mail's correspondent at Madrid says Spain and Russia have asked Spain to formulate the utmost limits of concessions she can make, the two powers evidently intending to mediate. The minister of marine has received hundreds of applications from Spanish and foreign ship owners offering vessels for privateers to act against America. The Madrid Correspondence (semi-official) says: "Peace or war is hanging by a thread. The utterances of American opinion leave little room for hopes of peace. But the problem will have an immediate solution."

Moving out to get away from the enemy's shells getting to be the thing for those near the coast. Great activity prevails on the Staten Island shore, at the southern extension of Fort Belknap. The government has acquired residential property and is using it for fortifications. Hundreds of workmen are tearing down trees and excavating. In front of a handsome mansion a big mound is going up, on which is to be placed a new battery of disappearing guns.

Senator Wiley has introduced a bill in the Ohio legislature to appropriate $1,000,000 to put Ohio on war footing. The bill provides that the $1,000,000 is to be expended to defray the expense of the national guard, naval militia and volunteers in the defense of the state and for the support of the federal government in the event of war with Spain. The same act authorizes the governor to increase the National Guard to 10,000 men, to be held in readiness for call by the President.

Fred R. Phetteplace, a well-known Kalamazoo young man who was convicted of embezzling nearly $5,000 from the G. R. & I., was fined $400 or two years in prison. His fine was paid by his mother and it took the last dollar she had.

Which is better, to thoroughly cleanse and purify the blood just now, or make yourself liable to the many dangerous ailments which are so prevalent during summer? Impurities have been accumulating in the blood all winter, and right now is the time to get rid of them. A thorough course of Swift's Specific is needed to cleanse the blood and purify the system, toning up and strengthening it all over. Those who take this precaution now are comparatively safe all summer; but to neglect it is to invite some form of sickness which is so common during the trying hot season. It is now that a course of Swift's Specific

A Young Man Who Mistakenly Believed He Had Heart Disease.

He Simply Scared Himself to Death, for His Heart Was Sound.—What a Pity He Did Not Take Proper Advice!

A dramatic story is told of a young man in Chicago who believed he had heart disease. He abstained from exercise and he avoided excitement. He dosed himself persistently and imagined that only by leading an invalid's life could he hope to keep death at arm's length. One day he suddenly met a woman who had been associated with a discreditable chapter in his history.

"My God! my heart!" cried the young man, and he fell at her feet stone dead.

An autopsy showed that his heart was absolutely sound. It was the opinion of the physicians that he might have lived to a ripe old age if he had taken the precaution to consult a competent specialist.

The time when a physician was laughed at for devoting himself to one branch of his profession is past. So broad is the field of medical knowledge that no one man can hope to cultivate it all. COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

In order that the above indicated work may be done to the best advantage and to be of the most permanent good, it is necessary to provide adequate means for effectually disposing of storm water in some other manner than by surface drainage. The plan I suggest is to use a 24 in pipe sewer on each of the intersecting streets and extending from Allen's creek to the east line of Main street.
