TO DOWN DEMOCRATS.

THE YOUNG MEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB A WIDE-AWAKE ORGANIZATION.

The efforts of a rule or rule ring to down it proves a failure—Over Two Hundred Members—Branches Organized all over the County—Club Elects Officers and Ready to do Business—Promulgation of Republican Principles Its Aim—No Boss or Those Who Wear the Collar of a Boss Likely to Receive Support of the Club.

When Boss Judson, and those who were willing to assist him in killing off a strong Republican organization simply because the Boss could not put a collar around its neck, stirred up an unfortunate row in the party last February, they congratulated themselves that they had suppressed the Young Men's Republican Club. In this they were doomed to disappointment. The large majority of those who had joined the Club were in hearty sympathy with the plan and aims of the organization. They were disgusted at the action of a few members who through treachery were willing to ruin the organization at the dictation of a few rule or rule Republicans. Within a few days after the Banquet last February between one and two hundred of the original members had expressed a strong desire that those who had been chiefly instrumental in organizing the Club originally should go on with the work. After due consideration it was decided to do so. They have found that the rank and file of the party so far as it has been possible to see them are in hearty sympathy with the plan and aim of such an organization. With but little effort fully as many members as formerly belonged to the Club have been secured. Almost every voting precinct in the county is represented in the membership of the Club, though it has not been possible, because of lack of time, to hold meetings and organize the local branches in every one of the thirty-two voting precincts. One of the aims of the club in the present emergency will no doubt be to save the ticket this fall if possible from disastrous results which are almost always sure to follow the rule of an unscrupulous boss. Whether it will be possible to do this remains to be seen.

At the meeting held yesterday the Club elected temporary officers to serve until the time of the first annual election of officers next winter. The officers elected are as follows:

President Emory Leland, Northfield; Vice Pres. Dr. L. D. Coombs, Ypsilanti; Secretary Geo. C. Wiley, Pittsfield; Treasurer Geo. N. Foster, Ann Arbor town; Field Sec. S. A. Moran, Ann Arbor city.

That the Young Men's Republican Club will be able to wield a strong influence in the interests of Republicanism this fall goes without saying. Those who desire to enroll as members should hand their applications to any member of the committee on membership in the Branch in their voting precinct or to the Field Secretary who will see to it that every name is placed in the proper hands.

Growth Of The University.

The University of Michigan began in 1817 with nine students and one department, that of literature, science and the arts. It closes the fifty-seventh year of its history at the coming commencement with 3,114 students and seven separate faculties. In its first decade the increase was slow, from 9 to 154. The medical department was added at the beginning, the law department at the end of the second decade, when the total attained 533. At the end of the third decade women were admitted, and the total, including the new pharmacy department, was 1,102. Thus the third decade more than doubled the attendance of the second. From 1870 to 1875 there was but 25 increase, due probably to the business depression succeeding for several years the panic of 1871. From 1870 to 1893, the attendance has almost trebled. The falling off in the attendance of the literary department in 1895-6, from 1,523 to 1,204 is due to the separate organization of the engineering department, whose students hitherto had been incorporated with the literary department. Just before and during the war the literary department fell off in numbers from 287 to 217, rapidly regaining, the last year of the war, and quickly passing beyond, its previous registration. Since the years of business depression in 1870-75, its attendance has steadily increased, barring the subtraction of the engineers already alluded to.

Frouble With the Street Railway.

There is evidently a hitch between the council and the new street railway company. The latter claims that it is not obliged to pave except around the court house square while the council maintains that it must pave between its tracks on all streets where the city orders pavement. Unless the railway company gives the council satisfactory assurances that it will comply with its demands the city attorney is authorized to begin proceedings against the company. This may delay still further the beginning of regular service between here and Detroit over the electric line.

A Biological Examination of Lake Erie.

During the coming summer, Professor Jacob Reighard, of the University of Michigan, will direct the work of a party engaged in a biological examination of Lake Erie, under the auspices of the United States Fish Commission. The party will consist of Professor Reighard, Prof. H. B. Ward, of the University of Nebraska, Dr. H. S. Jennings, of Dartmouth, Mr. A. J. Pieters of the Agricultural Department at Washington, and others. A laboratory is being thoroughly equipped at the United States Fish Hatchery at Put-in-Bay Island, Ohio, and the party will work there during July. In August a steamer will be chartered and a tour made of the lake, with a view to selecting a location for the work of the following summer. This is the most extensive work as yet undertaken in fresh waters, and it is hoped that it will be continued through a term of years.

CLAIMS THE EARTH.

BUT IT IS ANOTHER THING TO ACTUALLY OWN IT.

Convention Today Will Settle It—The Boss Aided by All Sorts of Elements—Avowed Bryan Men Crowd Into Republican Caucuses to Elect Judson Delegates—Republican Party Apparently Still in Hands of a Ring.

For nearly four years past Boss Judson has been hard at work constructing a powerful political machine in Washtenaw county. A few months ago THE REGISTER began a warfare against his unscrupulous methods. Its course has been bitterly condemned by every satellite of Boss Judson, hundreds of whom he had placed under obligations to him by real or imaginary political favors. On the other hand its course has met with the hearty support of every lover of good government.

When the fight against bossism began THE REGISTER had no idea that it would be able to overthrow such a powerful machine in so short a time. It is satisfied, however, that no Judson man can carry this county this fall. This will in time break up the ring that has run Republican affairs with a high hand in this county for the past four years.

Just what will be the result of the convention today remains to be seen. Boss Judson claims almost everything in sight. In this he believes he is doomed to disappointment. Still it would not be surprising if he should control the convention. He has had nearly thirty deputies hustling for him all over the county; he has had almost every Pingree appointee in the county, and they are numerous, doing all in their power to elect Judson delegates; he has strenuously endeavored to persuade people that opposition to Judson was opposition to Pingree; he has used money lavishly to hold the county; he has promised the deputy wardenship at Jackson to men in various parts of the county and has had them all working day and night for him; he controlled the call of the county convention so as best to suit his own ends; he has had caucuses packed by Democrats to elect delegates to a Republican convention as for example, in one township a man openly boasted at the caucus that he voted for Bryan, that he worked for free silver and that he was proud of it, and such men succeeded in sending Judson delegates to the convention today; he will have the benefit of delegates elected at a caucus where there were eleven more votes cast than there were Republicans and Democrats present at the caucus; he will have the benefit of delegates elected at a caucus where those who expected to attend were locked out of the room where it was called, by a Judson man until the Boss' forces could be rallied. It is more than probable that all these things combined will give the Boss a small majority today. It will be a disgrace to the party if it does.

Important to Farmers.

Allmendinger and Schneider have issued the following circular letter to farmers:

A year ago we advised our farmer friends to put every acre of ground that they possibly could, into wheat. The world's stock had steadily decreased for a series of years and the statistics of the situation made it evident that wheat would bring a good price. We come this year to the new harvest with the smallest world's supplies remaining in many years at this season. By the middle of July these stocks will be nearly wiped out of existence. This condition will again be favorable to good prices though high prices cannot be predicted with any such confidence as last year, for the reason that at this time the prospect is for the largest crop in the United States that we have ever raised. The largest crop ever raised was according to the government reports, that of 1891, of 612,000,000 bu. Crop experts are predicting a crop for this year of from 725 to 925 million bushels. The realization of either amount must have a depressing effect on price. We, therefore, say to farmers this year, watch crop conditions from now to harvest and get as full information about the yields abroad before deciding on the acreage of wheat to be sown in 1898.

We strongly urge all farmers to cut rye from their fields. During the past few weeks we have been able to pay large prices for wheat for shipment, the sole condition being that the grain conformed to the grade requirements of the markets. These conditions are arbitrary and may even be unjust but the fact remains that they must be conformed to, strictly. Wheat with rye is at once barred out and in consequence, not a man in the county who had rye in his wheat, was able to take advantage of the high prices. (Continued on 5th page.)

A Woman's Heart.

The wife of a clergyman tells the story of her suffering with neuralgia of the heart, with the hope that her experience may indicate to others the way to regain health.

Few bodily afflictions are more terrible than heart disease. To live in constant dread and expectation of death, sudden, instant death, with last farewells unspoken, is for most people more awful to contemplate than the most severe lingering illness.

The slightest excitement brings great suffering and danger to people so afflicted. Such was the experience of the wife of a well-known clergyman. She tells her story for the sake of doing good to others.

"I feel," she said, speaking carefully and weighing her words, "that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People relieved me of a lifetime of sickness and sorrow, and I cheerfully recommend them."

This grateful woman is Mrs. Wamsley, wife of the Rev. C. E. Wamsley, who lives on West Sheridan Street, Greensburg, Ind.

She continued: "My heart became affected after the birth of my youngest child, about six years ago. The pain was constant. Frequently it grew so severe I would be forced to cry out. I could not endure any excitement."

"It would increase the pain so I would scream and fall down in a state of collapse. In this condition I was helpless."

"These spells would come on me at home, in the street, or anywhere I might be. I could not sleep at night. I ate very little."

"Different doctors were called in. They said I had neuralgia of the heart, resulting from nervous prostration."

"The doctors treated me, but the relief they gave did not last."

"I was a physical wreck, when my eye fell on an item in the local paper describing how Mrs. Evans, of West End, had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Her suffering was like mine."

"I hope other sufferers who read this account will have the faith I had when I read of Mrs. Evans."

"My husband bought me one box of the pills. The change they made in my condition was encouraging. I took another box; then bought six more boxes."

"All the time I gained in health, strength, hope, nerve force—steadily, surely!"

"Before I finished the eighth box I ceased the treatment. I felt perfectly well, and the doctor said I was entirely cured."

"To add weight to her story Mrs. Wamsley made affidavit to its truth before John F. Russell, a Notary Public of Greensburg."

Neuralgia of the heart is only one of many serious evils that grow out of derangements of the nervous system or of the blood.

The remedy that expels impurities from the blood and supplies the necessary materials for rebuilding wasted nerve tissue reaches the root of many serious diseases.

It is these virtues that have given Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People their wonderful curative powers in diseases that at first glance seem widely different.

This famous remedy is for sale by all druggists for 50 cents a box; or six boxes for $2.50.

ANOTHER BOMBARDMENT.

American Warships Drive Spaniards from Caimanera, 40 Miles From Santiago.

Five American warships at 5:30 a. m. began to shell the fortifications of Caimanera, on the bay of Guantanamo which cuts into the southern coast of Santiago de Cuba, east of the city of Santiago. The Americans' fire was most effective, driving the Spanish gunners in consternation from the defense of their works and then from the town of Caimanera, in which they took refuge. The inhabitants of the place also joined in the rout. The vessels which took part in the bombardment were the cruiser Marblehead, the auxiliary cruisers St. Louis and Yankee and two gunboats. The latter, however, paid little attention to the Spanish forts, directing their efforts to cutting the cables which run out of Caimanera, three of which were cut.

The fire from the cruisers was rapid and well directed and was replied to with vigor by the Spanish. All the men on board the warships worked with enthusiasm, the New York Naval Reserves on board the Yankee earning their share of laurels at the guns. As the walls of the fortifications began to tumble upon them the Spanish gunners deserted their posts of duty and ran to the town, which was in a state of high excitement. A great panic fell upon the residents of Caimanera, who feared the Americans would complete their work by destroying the town and there was a general movement to places of safety. Many shells from the American guns exploded in close proximity to houses on the outskirts of Caimanera.

After the cessation of firing from the forts the fleet concentrated its fire upon the block house, at which the cables of the French Cable and Telegraph Co. land, and speedily demolished it.

The shelling of Caimanera was followed by the American vessels taking complete possession of Guantanamo bay. The Spaniards made but slight defense and their batteries were silenced by the Marblehead in a few minutes firing at 4,000 yards. A small Spanish gunboat ran away. The Oregon, Marblehead and Yankee now hold the harbor, waiting to land marines and troops when they arrive. The harbor is a fine base for land and sea operations. It is spacious and has 40 feet of water. The low lying hills can be easily crossed with trains of siege guns and there are level roads to Santiago, 33 miles distant, where a few mountain batteries will be taken to an eminence commanding the city and the Spanish ships. Guantanamo has six miles of water harbor and will be of great value to the United States as a navy and army supply station, coaling depot and cable terminus.

The navy now awaits the army. The fighting ships of Rear Admiral Sampson and Commodore Schley have battered down the coast defenses of southern Cuba, have sealed up Admiral Cervera's fleet in the harbor, have cut the Haitian and Jamaica cables, and now hold 35 miles of the coast east of Santiago, including Guantanamo harbor. Under the cover of the guns of the fleet eastern Cuba may be safely invested by land and sea, Admiral Cervera's fleet annihilated and the entire province and its towns and harbors seized and held after a short campaign.

Highwaymen on Wheels.

A wheelman of West 46th street, N. Y., was not long since attacked, robbed and left senseless by two highwaymen mounted on bicycles in Central Park. Repeated accounts of robberies by men mounted upon the swift revolving wheel have appeared in the papers in various parts of the country. In each instance, so far as learned, they have evaded the police. Those depredators of the health, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, will likewise in all likelihood escape arrest, and pursue their atrocious career unchecked, unless they are arrested in the outset by the patent intervention of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest diuretic as well as tonic, known to modern times. The genial preventive safeguard not only against renal, but also rheumatic and malarial disorders. It is at the start that disease is the more easily and completely overcome. The use of the Bitters is followed by the happiest results in cases of dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint and nervousness.

$200,000,000 Was Bonds Authorized.

The war revenue bill just passed by congress provides for the issue of $200,000,000 3 per cent bonds. The subscription for these bonds is now open at the treasury department and will close July 14. It is intended to make this loan a popular one and for this reason congress provided that the smallest subscriptions shall be first allotted and the allotments made inversely in accordance with the size of the subscriptions. All individual subscriptions must be allotted first, and therefore subscriptions from corporations and associations other than individuals will only receive an allotment in the event that the individual subscriptions fall short of the $200,000,000 which are at present offered.

The movement upon Havana has been postponed until the Santiago and Porto Rico expeditions accomplish their objects.

Santiago is on the verge of starvation. All the food has been seized for the army and navy and the troops and sailors are on half rations.

Secretary Long has practically promised that if Lieut. Hobson and the other heroes of the Merrimack ever escape from Spanish hands the department will advance them as a reward for their deed. Hobson will probably be made a lieutenant-commander.

Lieut. Hobson and the other Merrimack heroes have been transferred by Admiral Cervera to the military authorities at Santiago under orders of Blanco, which will delay their exchange. Admiral Sampson has notified Cervera and Gen. Linares that he will hold them personally responsible for the lives of the heroic Americans.

A MILLIONAIRE LUNATIC.

A MAN WHO HAD HIS OWN WAY AND WHAT BECAME OF HIM.

A pathetic story is told of a young man in a western city who was eager to be rich. He toiled all day and sometimes half the night. He was an operator in grain and stocks. To relieve the terrible strain of business he drank hard and led a fast life generally. Before he was forty he was a millionaire and a lunatic.

He was a victim of that fearful form of brain disease that is fast increasing where civilization is highest. It is a breakdown of the center of mind and motion in the brain. It always goes on from bad to worse until the sufferer is helpless in mind and body. No cure for this latter-day curse has been devised. It is paralysis—the disease of cities, of restless lives, of active brains—the result of life at high pressure.

Because paralytic invades the brain slowly, as the rising tide covers the sand, the first signs of it are commonly neglected. What is a little headache, an enfeebled will, broken sleep, failing digestion and a memory so treacherous that it can scarcely retain impressions for a day? What are vertigo, dull pain at the back of the head, and wasting of the tissues in the face until deep draw lines make a man of forty look like a centenarian.

These are signs of the brain degeneration that leads to paresis. There is no remedy for paresis itself. In its kindliest form it puts the victim out of his wretchedness in a few months. In its worst form it drags slow death over the period of a year.

But paresis can be prevented. If Nature's warnings are heeded and she is assisted at the time she needs help, the dread paralytic may never come. Cure the pounding headache, the broken sleep, the failing digestion, the vertigo and the wasting tissue, and you prevent paresis. It can be done. A little tablet, the discovery of a celebrated French physician, and which is now known in this country as Warner's Helmet Nerve Tablets, will absolutely cure all forms of nervous disorders. There is no exception to this statement: it is absolutely unqualified. This tablet is the biggest little thing in medicine. It controls the nervous system and cures all nervous troubles because it equalizes the circulation of the blood, the undue pressure of which upon the nerve-centers is the beginning of all nervous maladies.

The formula for compounding these tablets was brought to the United States by Dr. H. L. Warner, the originator of Warner's Safe Cure, a man whose name is a household word in every city and hamlet in the land. Following is what the doctor says regarding this wonderful remedy:

"The formula from which Warner's Helmet Nerve Tablets are compounded was secured by me from a celebrated French physician. Upon investigation I found the remedy had been used in Paris for many years, with the most wonderful success in the treatment of all nervous disorders, which disorders are especially prevalent among the people of France. After a most comprehensive and thorough test, carried on under my personal observation, to prove its merit, I transferred the formula to the Helmet Medicine Co., and the tablets which they now offer I recommend to the American public as a mild and harmless remedy for the absolute control of the nervous system. A trial will convince the most skeptical of their great value."

Such endorsement should be sufficient to lead every sufferer from nervous troubles, no matter how slight their nature to give this wonderful remedy a trial. Such confidence have the proprietors in its efficacy that they will willingly send to any man or woman in America a sample package for four cents in stamps, to pay cost of delivery. Address the Helmet Medicine Co., 220 Broadway, New York, at once. Do not delay. The tendency of all nervous disorders is from bad to worse. The wise man acts at once, only the foolish delay. Assist Nature now when she needs your aid, and thus prevent slight disorders from becoming chronic and incurable diseases.

UNDER BLACK WINGS

Neither Love Nor Duty Can Stay the Suicide's Hand.

Three Women, High in Washington Society, Kill Themselves Because They Believed Health Was Gone From Them Forever.

"Opening his mouth wide, he brusquely thrust the pistol-barrel into the very bottom of his throat and pressed upon the trigger." Of course the shot killed him. He had been challenged to a duel, and the fear of death drove him to suicide. Guy de Maupassant, the great French writer, tells the story. This is no mere fancy of a novelist. It is a dreadful, eternal truth. Men and women, living under the shadow of Death's black wing, fling themselves into the arms of the very enemy they dread. See the proofs of this in the matter-of-fact newspaper reports.

Note that in a great city half-a-dozen persons will, in a single day, take their own lives. Why? Various motives are assigned, such as disappointed love, financial ruin, actual or impending disgrace and thwarted ambition. The most prevalent reason is not dwell upon, except in rare cases, because to the unthinking reader it is less impressive than the others. Yet the fact that sufferers from real or imaginary disease, despairing of a cure, take their own lives, is the most appalling of all the doleful facts connected with suicide. Within a few weeks three women, moving in the highest society in Washington, killed themselves because they saw no hope of overcoming disease. They had struggled and hoped until struggle seemed vain and hope a mocking delusion. One day the shadow of the black wing was so near that it blotted out all the joy and sunshine of the world. The next day's papers told of a historic family's awful affliction. Aliments leading to self-murder are roughly two classes; those that are mostly fanciful and proceed from ill-regulated nerves, and those of which the symp-

NOTES ON THE WAR SITUATION

Key West: Persistent rumors, credited by some naval officers of high rank, are in circulation here to the effect that three Spanish warships have succeeded in forcing their way into the harbor of Havana. One report says that a Spanish battleship and two cruisers have entered the harbor.

A Newport News special says: Seven of the swiftest ships in the American navy are now at Hampton Roads. They are the Minneapolis, Cincinnati, Newark, Buffalo, Yale, Harvard and Dixie. Every ship has been coaled to its utmost capacity, which leads to the belief that a long trip is planned, possibly as far as the coast of Spain.

While there has been no authentic news to that effect the Washington authorities are inclined to place some credence in the reports that Manila has surrendered either to Dewey or the insurgents. The latter have won several victories over the Spaniards in the country about Manila; they have killed over 1,000 Spaniards, taken 1,800 prisoners and secured 8,000 to 10,000 rifles with ammunition and supplies. It is said that Gen. Aguinaldo, the insurgent leader, is anxious to establish a government, with himself at the head, under a United States protectorate.

toms are misunderstood by patients and physician. In the pitiless struggle for existence the sick are at an awful disadvantage. They are trampled under foot like lambs in the rush of their strong and hungry fellows. Small wonder is it that the invalid, gloomily reflecting on what he believes to be his hopeless state, resorts to pistol or poison; to the rope or the river. A few dry words from his doctor have fallen on his ear like a death-sentence. In some medical book the sufferer has read of deadly diseases with symptoms such as he noted in himself. He concludes he has some disease he has read about, an inference as natural as it is unwarranted. Pride, duty and love are powerless to hold the suicide's hand. Among the readers of this article may be some who have pondered long on the question whether a sick life is worth living, yet have not reached that pitch of despair when they would push themselves across the line between time and eternity. To them a few words of simple, temperate common sense. If you do know that you cannot be as well and strong as any of your neighbors?

What authority has condemned you to the bondage of disease? Your doctor, and possibly the doctor whom he called in consultation. But they are busy general practitioners who treat all sorts of maladies. Don't give up the fight until a specialist, trained for years in the study of just such cases as yours, has heard all about you. The Warner Sarsaparilla Medicine Co., 220 Broadway, New York, has arranged to place the most skillful special treatment within the reach of everybody. No matter what part of your body is affected; no matter how long you have suffered, the highest talent and the widest knowledge in the country are at your disposal. With obstinate diseases of lungs, nerves, blood, stomach, liver and kidneys the company's Board of Physicians has been most successful. Correspondence is invited from women who are victims of disorders peculiar to their sex, and from men whom ordinary measures have failed to rid of old troubles. A carefully arranged symptoms blank will be sent you for the asking, which will enable you to fully and accurately describe your disease. Write for this today.

SUMMER CATARRH

Catarrh of the bowels, because it is most prevalent in the summer months, is called summer catarrh.

It surprises many that bowel trouble is catarrhal. Dr. Hartman's books make this plain. Write to the Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, O., for them. They tell all about catarrh and how Pe-ru-na cures it wherever located.

"I had chronic diarrhoea for fifteen years," writes Mr. T. E. Miller, Grand Prairie, Tex. "I tried many medicines and doctors in vain. At last Pe-ru-na was recommended, and it relieved and cured me at once."

Mr. John Harting, 633 Main St., Cincinnati, O., writes: "My wife and myself took your Pe-ru-na for chronic diarrhoea and it cured us. No doctor or medicine we tried before helped us."

Mr. Edward Wormack, Leebetter, Tex., writes: "Pe-ru-na for bowel troubles is unequalled by anything in my experience. I owe my life to Pe-ru-na, and shall always recommend it to those suffering as I was."

Mr. John Edgarton, 1020 Third Ave., Altoona, Pa., says: "I suffered from dysentery for three years. I took Pe-ru-na and am now well."

CHAS. E. HISCOCK, Mayor.

The Board of Public Works hereby transmits to your honorable body the following resolution passed by them June 14th, 1898,

AND WHEREAS, said Detroit, Ypsilanti & Ann Arbor Railway has not complied with the above mentioned resolution in any particular.

PREFERS A HERMIT LIFE.

Aged Badger Refuses to Live in Comfort with Relatives.

Living in a hut near this place is a hermit named Elvin Barker. He was born in Vermont, is well educated and came west in 1852. He operated a sawmill at Four-Mile creek for many years. He lost his property through business reverses. His hut is situated upon a high knoll, with a heavy growth of jack pine and oak as a background, while at the sides and front is shown that at one time this place was cultivated and the hut occupied by a family. It faces a well-traveled road, along which many teams pass and repass during the day. Very few people who travel this road or live in Grand Rapids realize that in one part of this building resides an old bachelor 88 years of age, almost blind and quite poverty stricken. A recent visitor to the hut thus describes it: "The room black with smoke, an old-fashioned cook stove with the door wide open and pieces of green wood about six feet long with the ends inserted in the stove, the other ends resting upon a box beside the stove; a plain board bunk in one corner of the room in which is laid some straw and old ragged blankets which serves as a bed; a common dry goods box upon which rests a common, old-fashioned wagon seat, these two set in front of the stove and serve as the only chair and sup-board in the place; in this box are kept the only dishes and eatables. This constitutes his entire outfit. There was no evidence of any floor, and the place was littered with hay, twigs and rubbish of all kinds. Friends interested themselves in this man last summer, fitted him out with new clothing and a ticket to relatives in Illinois, sending him there, where they hoped he would be properly cared for in his remaining days. He was contented only a few weeks, when he returned to this locality and found solace in the old scenes and associations of better days."

LATCH KEYS FOR WOMEN.

One of the Last Male Perquisites Seized by the Bachelor Girl.

Latch keys have ceased to be a male perquisite since the old-fashioned spinster has been replaced by the bachelor maid. The bachelor girl is nothing if not determined, and so she has adopted one of the last remaining articles that man could call his own. When the key came the pocket had to come with it, of course, and now it is cut in the back of the dress skirt very near the belt line and with a bit of a flap over it to conceal the fact that a coat tail is missing. And thus it is that the freed woman goes on her way, conscious that she may at least enter her own doors at all sorts of coveted and fascinating hours without arousing everyone from the butler to the aged grandparent who "disapproves." When the pocket came the key chain had to follow in its wake and, behold, from a button proudly sewn to the tailor girl's "weskit" hangs the jeweler's device, for she has not been emancipated long enough to leave off sterling silver and take to plain nickel plate. When the bachelor girl went into business she was forced into some of the needs of a man and some of his patented rights had to come to her, and so there came the key ring, in the train of the key and chain, and there was another chance for the smithy to turn out pieces of artistic workmanship. They are often heart-shaped wires of silver, solid and wide. So it seems that woman never gets so "new" that she cannot carry hearts around. Other designs are serpents and ever their spring-set tails go the door key, the mail box key, the escutcheon key and all the rest of the lot that used to be always "among the missing." And now the bachelor maid is free from care unless she forgets chains and rings and keys.

THE DANGER

to which the Expectant Mother is exposed and the foreboding and dread with which she looks forward to the hour of woman's severest trial is appreciated by but few. All effort should be made to smooth these rugged places in life's pathway for her, ere she presses to her bosom her babe.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

allays Nervousness, and so assists Nature that the change goes forward in an easy manner, without such violent protest in the way of Nausea, Headache, Etc. Gloomy forebodings yield to cheerful and hopeful anticipations—she passes through the ordeal quickly and without pain—is left strong and vigorous and enabled to joyously perform the high and holy duties now devolved upon her. Safety to life of both is assured by the use of "Mother's Friend," and the time of recovery shortened.

"I know one lady, the mother of three children, who suffered greatly in the birth of each, who obtained a bottle of 'Mother's Friend' of me before her fourth confinement, and was relieved quickly and easily. All agree that their labor was shorter and less painful."

"COAT OF SLIME."

The New York Voice has been publishing accounts of the moral conditions prevailing around various prominent educational institutions in this country. It has handled the matter without gloves. Last week The Voice took up the U. of M. and published an array of statements that was far from being creditable to the moral surroundings into which students must come when they enroll at Ann Arbor. So far almost every paper in the city has severely criticized The Voice, some of them calling the article a "coat of slime." To our surprise we have found but little more than a mere denial of the truth of what The Voice says. An effort is made to weaken the force of The Voice's article by the statement that it is impossible to get together 3000 students from all over the world without having some black sheep. We believe this is true. It would, indeed, be remarkable not to find among so many young men some very black sheep. We do not understand that The Voice criticizes the fact that there are toughs among the students at Ann Arbor. It would be senseless for it to do so. What we do believe The Voice intends to criticize and what gives its criticism a powerful force is the fact that the lack of interest on the part of so many in authority here makes it possible for the spirit of this black sheep element to prevail to a very large degree in the control of social and moral life at the U. of M. A gentleman who talked with the representative of The Voice when he was in Ann Arbor, told the writer that the aim of his paper was to stir up the better element to put forth the proper effort to suppress as far as possible the evil influence from the contact with which we could not wholly escape. The Voice believes that many of those in authority can be stirred up to do their duty in suppressing the influence of the black sheep element and preventing the ruination of thousands of young men every year, only by a wholesome fear of exposure of their indifference to the evils which The Voice mentions.

That paper may not have adopted the wisest method by which to accomplish its purpose. We are disposed to believe, however, that it will be an effective one. The patrons of the U. of M. will be heard from and the attendance will be affected should such reports go out and no effort be made to change the conditions which makes such criticism just though severe.

The hackneyed expression so commonly used by some professors that students who come to the U. of M. are supposed to be men entirely competent to choose for themselves between right and wrong may satisfy the consciences of those who use it. It does not, however, state the facts in the case. A large proportion of the students who come to the University are boys and girls either in or barely out of their teens. It is absurd to assume that they are able in all cases to judge for the best when in some instances the men whom they are supposed to look up to and whose opinions and conduct they are supposed to respect, are not proper examples for young men to follow.

There are scores of communities in this and other states from which pure young boys have come to Ann Arbor, and have returned with their moral nature undermined to such an extent that their lives have been ruined. It is seldom that other students are sent here from such localities. This must necessarily lessen the attendance at the University. A determined effort to overcome as far as possible dangers of this kind would not deter a single student from coming here while it would remove an objection that is today keeping hundreds of other students from attending our great University.

Looking at the matter purely from a business standpoint, every business man in Ann Arbor, who profits by student trade should help to create a public sentiment that would compel a more careful oversight over the morals of students since it would certainly increase the attendance and thus bring greater profits to the merchants as well as greater fame to the University.

The above was written by a conservative University man who for years has been a careful observer of such phases of University life as The Voice mentions, and his opinions are deserving of careful consideration.

Two Oregons have recently won golden opinions—the battleship and the state from which she got her name. Both have shown that they are able to take care of themselves, and at the same time fully capable of upholding the national honor.

ADVOCATES of the Navy Personnel bill in Congress will find in the heroic conduct of Naval Constructor Hobson, who sank the Merrimac in Santiago harbor, an additional argument in favor of abolishing the existing distinction between line and staff officers of the navy. This gallant officer would not have been eligible for any post of command on a Federal war ship, under current naval regulations; yet no one would deny his right to recognition as one of the bravest and most skillful of the nation's maritime defenders.

BOSS JUDSON'S RECORD.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF REGISTER CHARGES.

What Will Governor Pingree Say To It—If He Will Look Into the Matter He Will Pitch Such an Unscrupulous Boss Overboard—Here is What The Register Shows.

1st. It shows how he plotted to overthrow one of the strongest Republican organizations in the state of Michigan and succeeded by the aid of base treachery on the part of his henchmen.

2nd. It shows how he owned the City Marshal and used said officer to regularly rob the city of fees which belong to it as appeared in our report of arrests for last December.

3rd. It shows that in the Stockwell case he practically "held up" a farmer boy and helped to bleed him to the extent of hundreds of dollars.

4th. It shows how through his attorney he worked enough members of former council to prevent an investigation of the marshal's conduct and thus shield himself.

5th. It shows how he ignored justice court and circuit court decisions by allowing men sentenced by both courts to confinement in jail for crimes to go and come as they please.

6th. It shows how he allowed convicts to go free and then be sentenced again to serve time in jail for other crimes before time of first sentence expired, thus drawing double pay from county for board of prisoners.

7th. It shows how Judson boasted that he manipulated ballots and thus could control elections.

8th. It shows that the pretended offer of $1,000 by the Boss as an evidence of his honesty was a ridiculous bluff.

9th. It shows how Judson controlled Marshal Sweet in the matter of fees for taking prisoners to the Detroit House of Correction.

10th. It shows that the Sheriff intentionally violated the law in the course he took in his suit for libel against the editor of THE REGISTER.

11th. It shows how he worked the county in the matter of fees for taking people to asylum at Pontiac.

12th. It shows how he managed to have the county help pay his campaign expenses in the fall of 1896.

13th. It shows how for several days, the Sheriff drew pay for attending court in Washtenaw county while doing political work in Lansing.

14th. It shows how in the month of January the Marshal was his tool in the matter of fees, the same as in the month of December, as shown in the case cited above.

"A woman's rank lies in the fullness of her womanhood." A sick woman, a nervous woman, a fretful woman, a woman who suffers from weakness and disease of the delicate and important organs that constitute womanhood, a woman doomed to childlessness, is not a real woman. The most glorious duty and privilege of womanhood is motherhood. The childless woman cannot be a happy woman. A woman's first-born's fingers, cannot know the full measure of happiness possible to a woman. There are thousands of unhappy women who go through a life without knowing the supreme happiness of motherhood, who go each day through a faithful but weary round of work, and live almost loveless and usually pain-racked lives, because they neglect to take care of themselves in a womanly way. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most wonderful of all medicines for ailing women. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs that make maternity possible. It makes them well and strong. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. It banishes the dangers of maternity. It does away with the discomforts of the period of anticipation and makes baby's coming easy and almost painless. It increases the new comer's health and an ample supply of nourishment. Thousands of homes that only lacked a baby as a final binding tie, now bless this marvelous remedy for the row of childish laughter. It soothes pain, tones the nerves and makes a woman's work easy. All medicine dealers sell it.

"I miscarried four times," writes Mrs. Florence Hunter, of Corley, Logan Co., Ark. "Then, after taking four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I made my husband a present of a fine, healthy girl."

Tiny, sugar-coated granules that always cure biliousness and constipation—Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They regulate and invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. All good medicine dealers have them. Nothing else "just as good."

DEATH OF A MANCHESTER BOY.

Caused by Explosion of Gasoline Stove in Laundry at Reading.

A shadow of sorrow settled over this place last Thursday morning when word was received here that Elmer Silkworth, one of Manchester's most promising young men and a general favorite, had met with a sudden and terrible death. Mr. Silkworth has for nearly two years been managing a laundry at Reading and it was there by the explosion of a gasoline stove in the laundry that he received such fatal injuries as to cause his death.

Mr. Elmer C. Silkworth was born here and was a regular attendant at Union School up to the time of his graduation in 1893. Of an energetic and noble spirit, he made friends wherever he went.

His remains were brought here on the train Thursday afternoon accompanied by his sorrowing mother and brother and six young men from Reading who acted as pall bearers. The funeral was held from the M. E. church Friday afternoon, Rev. Pope of Tecumseh officiated. The many beautiful flowers sent as tokens of respect by friends from here and Reading showed how highly he was esteemed by all.

The sorrowing family have the deepest sympathy of their numerous friends.

KIDNEY TROUBLES

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I have been a great sufferer from kidney trouble; pains in muscles, joints, back and shoulders; feet would swell. I also had womb troubles and leucorrhoea. After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Blood Purifier and Liver Pills, I felt like a new woman. My kidneys are now in perfect condition."—Mrs. MAGGIE POTTS, 224 Kauffman St., Philadelphia, Pa.

"My system was entirely run down, and I suffered with terrible backache in the small of my back, and could hardly stand upright. I had no appetite. Since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I have gained fifteen pounds, and I look better than I ever looked before."—Mrs. E. F. MORROW, 1043 Hopkins St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

LILLIAN CRIPPEN, Box 77, St. Andrew's Bay, Fla., says:—"Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I had suffered many years with kidney trouble. The pains in my back and shoulders were terrible. My menstruation became irregular, and I was troubled with leucorrhoea. I was growing very weak. I began the use of Mrs. Pinkham's medicine, and the first bottle relieved the pain in my back and regulated the menses. It relieved the pain quickly and cured the disease."

THE JOHN F. HUMMEL COLOSSAL SHOWS

Combines With The American Racing Association.

A real circus is coming. The John F. Hummel Colossal Shows will arrive in Ann Arbor and immediately spread their acres of canvas Tuesday June 21 for giving their first performance. The Hummel Show is said to be one of the most complete of modern shows. It has the advantage of many in being clean and new. Two hundred men, women and children are employed in the show. These include performers, advance men, canvasmen, horsemen, trainers, cooks, waiters, laborers etc. To feed them two big tents are provided, where the cooks and waiters hold forth. In one the hostlers and hostlers are served. Two hundred horses are carried with the show. They include every kind under the sun, from the roly-poly little Shetlands to the pink-nosed racers and heavy Norman and Percheron draft animals. Four tents shelter them and a small army of men look after them. Three tons of hay, one hundred bushels of oats and two tons of straw are used daily. A blacksmith shop is always stationed near the stables and a harness maker works in a big wagon as much as use as if on firm ground. To accommodate everybody, a barbe also travels with the circus. To carry these 200 people and 200 horses, besides the whole menagerie and all the apparatus, requires a train of 20 cars. The circus has its own train. All the railway furnishes the locomotive and the tracks. The cars are all over 60 feet length and one containing the elephants is 80 feet long, the largest car in the world.

Important To Farmers.

While such a bulge may not come again, we advise farmers to be in line for it, if it does come, by raising wheat that will grade. In this connection we attach a clipping which is worthy of attention.

Cut Out The Rye.

"During the past two or three years there has been considerable trouble in this state caused by rye getting mixed in the wheat. A large quantity of wheat that would otherwise be of fine quality is utterly ruined for milling purposes by the rye that is mixed through the grain, and many a dollar is lost to farmers that might easily and readily be saved by the exercise of a little care during the next thirty days to cut the clusters of rye out of the wheat fields.

"Michigan millers require the best grade of perfectly clean wheat in order to produce flour of as fine a quality as they have been making the past ten years or more. Michigan first grade flours are justly celebrated in the most discriminating markets both at home and in foreign countries. This reputation cannot be maintained except by the use of first class grain. Wheat mixed with rye brings only a low price in any market. It is a well known fact that the growing of rye deteriorates the quality of wheat, creating a mongrel or hybrid variety. If we desire to improve the grades and varieties of our wheat we must keep it absolutely pure and free from rye. Farmers cannot spend a little time to better advantage than to go through the wheatfields in the early part of June and cut the rye out clean."

New Lecturers In The Medical Department.

Dr. H. B. Baker, secretary of the state board of health, has been appointed by the regents of the University of Michigan to lecture before the medical students in the coming college year, upon the administration of the state laws for public health. The regents have also arranged for lectures to be delivered before the medical and sociological students of the University, by superintendents of the various public institutions in the state. Among these are the superintendents of the schools for the blind, for the deaf and dumb, and for the feeble minded. The superintendents of the state hospitals for the insane will also give lectures at the University.

University Trained Nurse.

A lawn fete and musicale recently given at the home of Professor Russell of the University of Michigan, realized $35 toward a fund for a University trained nurse, who is to be at the service of the students as a visiting nurse in short illnesses. It is hoped that next year enough money may be added to this sum to make the employment of the nurse practicable. The amount required is $300. It is not designed to make this work in any sense a charity, as many students might in that case be unwilling to receive benefit from it. It is proposed, instead, that the students shall form a mutual benefit association each pledging himself for a small sum, perhaps only twenty-five cents a year.

For the North Side Church.

A lawn social for the purpose of increasing the building fund of the North Side Church, is to be held tomorrow evening, on Earl Ware's lawn, 1305 Broadway. Band and other music will be furnished, ice cream, strawberries, cake and lemonade served, and a quilt sold, the proceeds to be for the church fund. Mr. Ware has a fine lawn and no pains will be spared to make the evening an enjoyable and profitable one. Come and help those who are engaged in a christian enterprise and desire the encouragement and assistance of all who are interested in Christian work.

That Cadiz Fleet Again.

A special from Cadiz, Spain, says that the reserve fleet, consisting of two ironclads, one cruiser, 20 torpedo boats, three torpedo boat destroyers, and seven auxiliary cruisers and 3,500 troops, is under steam, ready to depart at any moment. There was, however, an accident on board the Alfonso XIII whose torpedo tubes proved defective, and she was compelled to return to the arsenal. This, it is said, causes the delay, but it is believed that the alleged accident is simply an excuse to keep the fleet at Cadiz.

Blanco Short of Supplies.

Madrid: Gen. Blanco having again telegraphed that in case the blockade becomes stricter it will be urgent to send war stores, as his supply is running short, the government has taken steps to dispatch abundant supplies by fast vessels from Spanish and foreign ports. The more important supplies from Spain will be strongly conveyed and will be sent immediately.

THE TROOPS SAILED AT LAST

After Many Delays the Transports Start for Cuba.

15,337 MEN MOSTLY REGULARS

Big Fleet of Warships Convoys the Transports on the Way to Santiago—Only Two Regiments of Infantry Volunteers—Roosevelt's Rough Riders.

Delay after delay in starting the transports with U. S. troops from Port Tampa for Cuba had caused so many disappointments that the troops scarcely believed they were going when they had really started. They had been aboard the transports several days with all arms, ammunition and supplies, but each day had brought forth a further delay, and only the day before the expedition actually sailed. Maj.-Gen. Shafter and his staff had boarded the transport Segura and given orders to hoist anchors, when a dispatch was received from Washington saying "Delay expedition until further orders." Two of the transports had already started, however, and it required a hot chase on the part of dispatch boat Castine to overtake them with orders to return. It was learned later that plans had not been fully completed for warships to convoy the transports. This was arranged after a lengthy conference between the war and navy officials at Washington and the first expedition sailed the next day at daylight.

Maj.-Gen. Shafter, who commands this expedition, has with him a force of 773 officers and 14,564 enlisted men. The U. S. regular troops make up the greater part of the force, there being but three volunteer organizations on the ships. These are the 71st New York infantry volunteers, the Second Massachusetts infantry volunteers and two dismounted squadrons of four troops each, from the First U. S. volunteer cavalry, the Regiment which Col. Wood commands and of which Theodore Roosevelt is a lieutenant-colonel.

It was difficult to prevail upon the mounted riflemen to leave their mounts behind, but this was a matter of necessity, it is said, owing to the lack of accommodations for the horses on shipboard.

The full list of the troops that make up this expedition as reported to the war department by Gen. Shafter, is as follows:

Infantry regiment—First, Second, Third, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, 10th, 12th, 13th, 16th, 17th, 20th, 21st, 22d, 24th, 25th, all U. S. regulars; 71st New York volunteers, Second Massachusetts volunteers—Total infantry, 561 officers and 10,709 enlisted men.

Cavalry—Two dismounted squadrons of four troops each from the Third, Sixth, Ninth, First and 10th cavalry, and two dismounted squadrons of four troops each from the First U. S. volunteer cavalry. Total dismounted cavalry, 159 officers, 2,873 enlisted men; mounted cavalry, one squadron of the Second, 9 officers and 280 enlisted men.

Artillery—Light batteries E and K, First artillery; A and F, Second artillery, 14 officers and 323 enlisted men; batteries G and H, Fourth heavy siege artillery, 4 officers and 133 enlisted men.

Engineers—Cos. C and E, 9 officers and 200 enlisted men.

Signal corps—One detachment, 2 officers and 45 enlisted men.

Aside from the men and officers making up the expedition the boats carried a vast quantity of supplies, ammunition and war equipments, necessary to maintain an organization of this size for at least 60 days. Every detail for the landing of this party has been worked out by the engineer corps of the army. It will be a laborious process at best, and will take a full day or more. The point of landing has been so chosen that there is little danger of an interruption from the Spanish forces, but should they attempt to make trouble. Admiral Sampson's ships will insure ample protection until the troops can care for themselves.

The expedition should arrive off Santiago within five days at the latest, barring storms or accident, and the landing probably will take place on the afternoon of the day of arrival or the day following, as Admiral Sampson is extremely anxious to reinforce the small body of marines now ashore at Guantanamo bay.

Capt. Taylor, of the battleship Indiana, was in command of the naval convoy fleet which accompanied the transport ships. The make-up of the convoy fleet is still withheld by the navy department. Besides the Indiana, one other battleship and a first-class cruiser accompanied the fleet. The other ships are lesser cruisers, gunboats and auxiliary craft. Five of the war vessels first went to Port Tampa while 11 remained off Key West. When the five warships and the 32 transports reached Key West they were joined by the 11 others and the combined fleet of 43 vessels made a magnificent spectacle as they sailed to carry freedom's banner to the oppressed "Gem of the Antilles." The procession was several miles in length.

Some villain has been poisoning the fish in Berrien lake, near Niles.

When the cable from Santiago was cut by American cruisers the ends were buoyed and Rear-Admiral Sampson can establish communication with Washington direct.

It is now positively asserted that the U. S. cruisers and gunboats have cut every cable connecting Cuba with the outside world, and thus Blanco and Cervera cannot communicate with Madrid. All news regarding the progress of the war in the vicinity of Santiago will, in future, be conveyed by newspaper dispatch boats from the scene of the conflict, to Port Au Prince, Cape Haitien or Jamaica.

Work Goes On

When Hood's Sarsaparilla Gives Strength and Vigor

Backache and That Tired Feeling Promptly Cured.

"I was feeling very miserable. I was tired all the time, had no appetite and felt sore all over my body. I had backache so that when I stooped down it was hard to raise myself up. I was hardly able to work and was just making up my mind to give up my work when I read an advertisement of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I determined to try this medicine. When I had finished one bottle I felt a great deal better. I did not stop my work, and after I had taken the third bottle I felt as well and strong as I ever did in my life. Since then I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla when my blood was impure and I recommend it to everyone who does not feel well." JOHN J. EICHENBERG, 928 Meldrum Avenue, Detroit, Michigan.

BATTLE AT GUANTANAMO.

800 U. S. Marines Attacked at Night by 1,000 Spanish Guerrillas.

The invasion of Cuba by the American forces began when 800 marines pitched their tents about the smoking ruins of the outer fortifications of Guantanamo, and the stars and stripes for the first time floated from a Spanish flagstaff in Cuba. To Capt. Clark and the battleship Oregon belongs the honor of accomplishing the first successful landing of the war. Forty marines from the battleship went ashore and occupied the left entrance of the bay, until the troopship Panther arrived with 800 marines. These, under the command of Lieut.-Col. R. W. Huntington, arrived at 3 o'clock, and within half an hour they had burned the buildings of the Spanish camp and had set fire to the miserable little village which crouched on the beach under the hilltop of Guantanamo.

The city of Guantanamo lies 15 miles farther up the bay, and the main fort lies within the city limits and is still to be reduced, but it is not in a difficult position and the American officers say it can be taken in 15 minutes when desired.

Lieut.-Col. R. W. Huntington's battalion of marines, which landed from the transport Panther and encamped on the hill guarding the abandoned cable station at the entrance to the harbor of Guantanamo, was engaged in beating off a bush attack by Spanish guerrillas and regulars the second day and night after they landed. The fighting was almost continuous for 13 hours, until 6 o'clock in the morning, when reinforcements were landed from the Marblehead. Four of our men were killed and one wounded and the advance pickets under Lieuts. Neville and Shaw are unaccounted for. Among the killed is Assistant Surgeon John Blair Gibbs, son of Maj. Gibbs, of the regular army, who fell in the Custer massacre. He was a very popular officer. The others killed are Sergt. Charles H. Smith, Private William Dunphy, and Private James McColligan. Corporal Glass was accidentally wounded in the head. The Spanish loss is unknown but it was probably considerable. The splashes of blood found at daylight at the positions the Spaniards occupied indicate fatalities, but their comrades carried off the killed and wounded.

Lieut.-Col. Huntington and Maj. Cockrell gave high praise to the nerve and steadiness of officers and men, especially the young ones, as the engagement was a baptism of fire for a large majority. The men were in darkness and in a strange land, but they stood to their posts with courage and fortitude and there was no symptom of panic. The marines, though much exhausted, were eager for more fighting, promising to inflict heavy punishment. The next day the ample precautions were taken, and reinforcements were landed from the Marblehead. A stormy time was expected. Estimates vary as to the Spanish attacking force, and the figures run as high as 1,000.

The Third Annual Commencement of the University School of Music will be held in Frieze Memorial Hall on Friday evening June 17, at 8 o'clock. Prof. R. M. Wenley of the University will give the address.

A FAMILY FAILING.

The struggle with Heredity.

To heredity, to the transmission of traits from sire to son, we owe most of the possibilities of growth and development. If each newly born being started out without the force of heredity the level of life might be expected to be that of the digger Indian or Bushman. Naturally bad traits descend like the good. Peculiarities of feature, eccentricities of speech and manner, birth marks, etc., are handed down just as surely as manual dexterity, physical beauty, mathematical ability, and the mental and moral qualities in general. A curious example of this descent of family traits is furnished by Mrs. Maggie Pickett, Canton, Ga., in whose family gray hair was hereditary. She writes:

"Gray hair is hereditary in our family. As long as I can recollect, my mother's hair has been gray. About twelve years ago, my hair began to show signs of turning. I resolved to try Ayer's Hair Vigor, and after using it only a few times my hair was restored to its natural color. I still use this dressing occasionally, a bottle lasting me quite a while; and though over forty years of age, my hair retains its youthful color and softness. To all who have faded and gray hair, I would heartily recommend Dr. Ayer's Hair Vigor."—Mrs. MAGGIE PICKETT, Canton, Ga.

Eczema! The Only Cure.

Eczema is more than a skin disease, and no skin remedies can cure it. The doctors are unable to effect a cure, and their mineral mixtures are damaging to the most powerful constitution. The whole trouble is in the blood, and Swift's Specific is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated blood diseases.

Eczema broke out on my daughter, and continued to spread until her head was entirely covered. She was treated by several good doctors, but grew worse, and the dreadful disease spread to her face. She was taken to two celebrated health springs, but received no benefit. Many patent medicines were taken, but without result, until we decided to try S. S. S., and by the time the first bottle was finished, her head began to heal. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now sixteen years old, and has a magnificent growth of hair. Not a sign of the dreadful disease has ever returned.

H. T. SNORE,

Don't expect local applications of soaps and salves to cure Eczema. They reach only the surface, while the disease comes from within. Swift's Specific is the only cure and will reach the most obstinate case. It is far ahead of all similar remedies, because it cures causes which are beyond their reach. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no potash, mercury or other mineral.

Santiago Shelled Again.
Dispatches via Kingston, Jamaica, say: The American fleet engaged the Spanish batteries defending the harbor of Santiago de Cuba, and after a three hours' bombardment, silenced nearly all the forts, destroyed the earthworks, and rendered the Estrella and Caye Smith batteries, the two principal fortifications, useless.

The fleet formed in double column, six miles off Morro castle, at 6 o'clock in the morning, and steamed slowly 3,000 yards off shore before beginning the bombardment. The firing of the fleet continued until 10 o'clock.

The Spaniards replied promptly, but their artillery work was of a very poor quality and most of their shots went wide. Smoke settled around the ship, in dense clouds, rendering accurate aiming difficult. There was no man euvring of the fleet, the ships remaining at their original stations and firing steadily. The squadrons were so close in shore that it was difficult for the American gunners to reach the batteries on the hilltops, but their firing was excellent.

Shortly after 9 o'clock when the American ships moved closer toward the mouth of the harbor, where the old cruiser Reina Mercedes had been discerned early in the morning attempting to place explosives about the hull of the Merrimack and blow her to pieces, thus clearing the channel, a shell from the Oregon—one of her 13-inch terrors—landed squarely abait the pilot house and tore all the upper works to pieces. The Reina Mercedes' second officer was killed and five of her sailors blown to pieces. The second lieutenant of the Mercedes and 16 of her seamen were seriously wounded. One marine also was killed. A perfect shower of shell and shot fell upon and around the old cruiser and she was so badly damaged that her crew abandoned her, and sought the shore for safety. According to later advices the Reina Mercedes sank soon after she was abandoned.

Not one American sailor sustained a scratch and not one American warship was touched by a Spanish shell. It was not possible to get the exact facts about the loss on the enemy's side, but trustworthy reports were to the effect that at least 10 were killed and about 50 wounded before the gunners fled from behind the shattered casemates.

Hair Hints

It is much easier to keep the hair when you have it than it is to restore it when it's lost. If your hair is "coming out" it needs instant attention. The use of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will promptly stop the hair from falling, and stimulate it to new growth.

"Some years ago my hair began to fall out and I became quite bald. I was advised to try and had used it but a short time when my hair ceased to fall out and a new and vigorous growth made its appearance. My hair is now abundant and glossy.

MICHIGAN NEWS SUMMARY.

Doings of the Week Recorded in a Brief Style.

CONCISE AND INTERESTING.

A Terrible Crime Frustrated at Battle Creek by One of the Plotters Turning State's Evidence—Outcome of a Feud of Long Standing.

A Plot of Kidnap and Murder Foiled.
The most blood-curdling tragedy ever enacted was not more sensational than the dastardly plot which has been unearthed at Battle Creek by the weakening of one of the plotters, and which resulted in the arrest of Lawyer Charles R. Mains and Ed. Murphy on the charge of attempting to kidnap and murder Lawyer Stephen S. Hulbert. The plot is the outgrowth of a legal feud of long standing between Mains and Hulbert.

Mains is charged with offering a man known as "Molly" McGuire, $300 to sandbag Hulbert and deliver him in a carriage to him at the Union street bridge. McGuire revealed the plot to the officers. Detective Hamilton was dressed up in Hulbert's clothes and was taken by McGuire in a carriage and delivered to Mains at the place designated. There the officers were waiting and arrested Mains. Upon Mains' person was found a revolver, 30 feet of rope and a letter purporting to have been written by Hulbert to his friend, E. C. Nichols, in which he stated that Mains was innocent and that he was guilty and that his sins troubled him so much that he would commit suicide. It is expected that this letter would be mailed after the deed had been done. Near the place was found secreted "Wall-Eyed" Murphy, an accomplice, who was to accompany Mains the rest of the journey. Murphy was confused and told the officers to go back where he was in hiding and there they found a spade. A posse went to the place and found a piano cover in which was wrapped a spade and a hatchet. Hulbert was to have been killed with the hatchet and buried near Homer.

The entire conversation between McGuire and Mains was listened to by Detective Hamilton, who was supposed to be the invisible Hulbert in the carriage, and by Deputy Sheriff Shoup and Constable Moore, who were in hiding nearby. McGuire was paid $20 on the spot by Mains with a promise of the rest later.

Destructive Fire at Detroit.
The new Case Power building on Congress street west, Detroit, was destroyed by fire at an early morning hour. It was but recently erected on the spot where a previous large fire had occurred. The blaze started on the fourth floor at 2:45 a. m. and an hour later the structure was a mass of ruins, the walls having all fallen in. The building was valued at $90,000 and was insured for $60,000. The losses of the numerous tenants—small manufacturers and business offices—brings the total damage up to about $150,000.

The flames spread on either side and across the street, and the Seitz office building, the Wayne County Savings Bank building, the Detroit Gas Co.'s building and old St. Paul's church were badly damaged.

Five firemen were badly injured in various ways while fighting the flames.

The Simpson planing mill in the southern part of Saginaw, was practically destroyed by fire which was the work of an incendiary. The loss is estimated at $6,000, fully covered by insurance.

It is semi-officially announced that Brig.-Gen. Duffield will command the brigade to be composed of the 33d and 14th Michigan and Ninth Massachusetts regiments. The Michigan men are well pleased.

Shepherd is a town of 1,000 inhabitants but has no fire protection. The whole town had a narrow escape from destruction by a fire which started in the postoffice, in the middle of 12 wooden buildings. By extraordinary efforts the citizens prevented the catastrophe.

The scheme adopted for recruiting the Michigan regiments now at the front to the maximum quota is to send officers and privates of the various companies to the towns and cities represented in the regiment and enlist recruits and forward them to the point where their regiment is located.

The workman often eats his lunch on the same bench where he does his work. The office man turns his desk into a dining-table. Neither gets the out of doors exercise he needs, neither takes the proper time for eating. It is small wonder that the digestion of both gets out of order. In such cases Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets come to their assistance by aiding nature in taking care of the food.

The cause of nine-tenths of the sickness of the world is constipation. From this one cause come indigestion; disorders of the stomach, liver and kidneys; biliousness, headaches, flatulence, heartburn, impurity of the blood and the serious complications that follow. To begin with, constipation is a little thing, and a little thing will cure it. The "Pleasant Pellets" are tiny, sugar-coated granules. They will perfectly cure the worst case of constipation and indigestion. If the druggist tries to sell you some other pill that pays him greater profit, just think of what will best pay you.

CO-EDUCATION IS ALL RIGHT IN UNIVERSITIES.

ADDRESS TO THE ALUMNAE.

Professor Wenley Spoke On "The Ideal Curriculum For a Woman's College."

Prof. R. M. Wenley's address to the Michigan intercollegiate alumnae last Saturday afternoon was full of surprises for the ladies. The professor handled the subject of an ideal curriculum for a woman's college without gloves and attacked the problem of co-education from every side.

Prof. Wenley holds that there should be no co-education in high schools. He believes that the great defect in our educational system, as regards women, is strong in, namely, memory, and neglects education of principles. He would not regard with disfavor the assigning of work that requires memory to women instructors, but he thinks that elucidation of principles should be left as a rule to men instructors.

He holds that memory and the tendency to run in ruts should be curbed in women; that they should be encouraged to think for themselves.

EXTRAORDINARY POWER.

"Women have a most extraordinary power of assimilation," said the professor to a reporter, "and less of reaction on what they see. They need greater breadth of view. The teacher must use the ordinary university course to set these defects right. If it were practicable it would be advisable to have separate colleges for girls, within a university, with a double staff of instructors, so that the women might be given separate classes and yet be within the atmosphere of the university, at least in their undergraduate work."

"Glasgow, Columbia and Harvard have this system, but the staff is not sufficient and the strain upon the staff is so severe that there is a strong tendency to encroach upon the system."

A girl of seven has 92 percent of all the brain power she will ever have. Consequently after the age of 14, man's mental development is far greater than woman's. Man's mental development stops at 20 and woman's at 30. There should be no co-education between the ages of 11 and 16, girls being capable of advancing with far greater strides at that time than boys."

In his address to the ladies Prof. Wenley said, in part:

NO IDEAL CURRICULUM.

"There is no ideal curriculum for a woman's college. The subject of the education of women has never been approached in a scientific way. Those in favor and those against have indulged in a great deal of screaming. Partisans of woman's education usually have held that women are in all respects the same as men and that they ought to be treated like men. Their opponents have argued in a quasi scientific fashion that woman is physically different from man and that motherhood is her mission."

"They have also held that she cannot have the same ability as man, for psychology proves that her brain weight is less. Neither of these positions can be maintained. Woman is different from man, but not simply on account of the facts connected with motherhood; and the conclusions of brain psychology are now known to be fallacious. The question is not a comparative one between man as man and woman as woman, but a sociological one between man and woman as mutually complimentary elements in a single system. The main difference between woman and man may be summed up by saying that woman is more diligent, more interested in the immediate, more easily influenced, more concrete, in short, than man."

Did You Take Scott's Emulsion

through the winter? If so, we are sure it quieted your cough, healed the rawness in your throat, increased your weight, gave you more color, and made you feel better in every way. But perhaps your cough has come back again, or you are getting a little thin and pale.

Then, why not continue the same helpful remedy right through the summer? It will do you as much good as when the weather is cold.

Its persistent use will certainly give you a better appetite and a stronger digestion.

It will cure your weak throat and heal your inflamed lungs. It will cure every case of consumption, when a cure is possible.

Don't be persuaded to take something they say is just as good.

MEN MORE VARIABLE.

"Further, there is a normal average to which women conform far more closely than men. Men, on the other hand, are more variable, more interested in and remote and abstract, and, the best of them, more thorough and distinctly able than women."

"While there are these psychological differences due to sex, it is to be remembered that both women and men are human and the sum of education is to develop, not the sexual, but the human side. To accomplish this the educator must so devise as to unite both the masculine and feminine qualities in one personality. The problem, therefore, is not one of an ideal course for a woman's college, but of an ideal staff. What is required is a body of teachers who are fully conscious of woman's strength and deficiencies; who will direct the one into the best channel and by their own personal co-operation attempt to counterbalance the other."

BELIEVES IN THIS WAR.

DR. VAUGHAN ENTERS THE VOLUNTEER ARMY AS SURGEON.

HE SUCCEEDS DR. NANCREDE

America Should Show A Strong Hand For The Effect on Europe.

Dr. Victor C. Vaughan, Dean of the Medical Department, has been chosen by Governor Pingree to succeed Maj. C. B. Nancrede as surgeon of the Thirty-third Michigan volunteers the vacancy being occasioned by the major's promotion.

The medical faculty will take no steps to fill Dr. Vaughan's place, believing the war will be over before the fall term begins.

An interview with Dr. Vaughan develops the fact that he believes in this war with Spain and believing in it, feels that it is his duty to bear any service that he may be called upon to perform. He thinks that the war with Spain will probably soon be ended, but that the real danger to our country will be greatest when the time comes to settle the terms of peace.

"European dictation may be expected at that time and if we wish to avoid humiliation we must show that we are prepared for greater wars." He believes that outside of England, European countries are not in sympathy with America and its institutions and that continental powers will endeavor to rob this country of any advantage she may gain. The best way to avoid a war with other European nations is to show that we are strong and ready to meet any one or all of them in defense of a just cause. He believes that every American should do his duty at this present time, regardless of personal comfort.

Pennsylvania Replies to Michigan's Suggestions For The Debate.

The letter received by Professor Trueblood from Professor Lewis, Dean of the Law Department of the University of Pennsylvania, accepting Michigan's suggestion in regard to the Pennsylvania-Michigan debate, indicates a most friendly feeling between the two colleges.

Professor Lewis writes: "I have received your letter of 31st inst. We are delighted to hear that you are able to arrange the matter of the date. March 3rd will be entirely satisfactory as also the change in regard to the time of proposing the question."

PHILOLOGIA ENTERTAINS.

Alpha Nu and Adelphi Societies Given a Pleasant Evening by Entertaining Ladies.

The reception given the members of the Alpha Nu and Adelphi Literary societies by the Philologia Debating society Friday, June 3rd, was a very pleasant occasion.

The first part of the evening was devoted to a regular meeting of the Philologia. Impromptu speeches were given and a debate between four of the girls, all showing that the society has been doing faithful, telling work during the past year. The rest of the evening was devoted to games and other forms of enjoyment.

The officers for the coming year are: Miss Connor, president; Miss Harbeck, vice president; Miss Raymond, secretary; Miss Bevens, treasurer; Miss Wood-Allen, marshal.

THEY ARE ORNAMENTAL.

The Co-Eds Did Not Join In The Applause.

Dr. Cooley started his class in sociology, which contains a large number of co-eds, and won warm applause from the men's side of the house by saying: "Men feel the need of social activity more than do women simply because more is expected of them. Women of the well-to-do classes are in many cases expected to do nothing but stand around and make themselves agreeable and possibly get married."

FOR PURE ATHLETICS.

MICHIGAN BOARD OF CONTROL STANDS FIRM.

WISCONSIN DISCIPLINED.

The Triangular Meet of Last Saturday Was Prearranged.

It has leaked out that the triangular meet of Saturday between Chicago, Illinois and Michigan, was prearranged. When the graduate board of the western intercollegiate upheld Maybury three colleges decided to break if Maybury who is charged with professionalism, did not withdraw. The three stand against professionalism. The autocratic policy of the graduate board has annoyed Michigan for years. Michigan favors conferences, but objects to autocracy, especially when pure amateurism is discounted.

Prof. A. C. McLaughlin, gave out a statement which clears up matters. He says that the withdrawal was accomplished principally through the efforts of the Michigan board of control, and that the board holds itself responsible and did it as a matter of university discipline. He said:

"Patience has ceased to be a virtue when dealing with Wisconsin, and we considered that amateurism in the northwest would be in danger if we recognized the exonerations of Maybury. We have looked up the case and know what we are talking about. It may be sufficient to say that a student named Porter in the university has competed with Maybury, and he made the protest on his own accord. I myself have seen the original contract under which Maybury ran in a race under the name of Henry Sherwood, with J. A. Freeman, for $1,000, and a certified copy of the bill of complaint filed in suit by Maybury's backer to recover the money lost by Maybury's defeat. The action taken was not done by Prof. Stagg, but Chicago's action, like Michigan's, was taken by the University of Chicago board of control, of which Pres. Harper is a member. We did it as a question of university discipline, because athletic control trusted to the board of control by the university senate is an emphatic case of discipline."

It ought to be noted that when we are charged with bad faith that we did not threaten the work of the graduate council, but simply gave them notice that we did not intend to abide by their decision if it was favorable to Maybury. We knew beforehand what the decision of the council would be, because the Chicago Athletic association brought a pressure to bear and the American Amateur union notified the council that they would reinstate Maybury if he was thrown out. The council threw out the evidence of Brown of Cambridge on a technicality, and said Porter's evidence did not justify the action. So far as I know, Michigan, Chicago and Illinois will continue to meet under agreements similar to the duel meets. We cannot again trust ourselves to such a board as the graduate council, for they are too easily swayed and there are members of it from the far west not in touch with the right sentiment. Wisconsin can go on just as she is at present, but we shall have nothing to do with her until a reform is made."

IN THE HANDS OF THE ENEMY.

"You are if you drink coffee," and you will find it hard to get away from this enemy, such a subtle hold does it get upon you.

Strange that the human race for a few short moments of bliss will as a rule, forfeit years of healthful pleasure.

It takes steam to drive this human engine—steam.

Coffee never made a pound of steam for this human engine, but you can drink "Golden Nectar," which tastes like the best coffee, looks like coffee, but every cup you drink of it makes steam for the system—turns into blood, makes the human engine respond to every touch of the throttle.

You know coffee wrecks the system. Change to "Golden Nectar" now, and instead of being the victim of a narcotic, grow fat and healthy on "Golden Nectar."

Bolt 20 minutes—add cream and sugar. Ask your grocer for it, and try a cup for breakfast.

A law which probably few people were aware was in existence has been brought forward by the present war. It relates to supervisors, and provides that each must make a report to the proper authorities a full list of the names of all the male residents of his township between the ages of 18 and 45, for use in case of a draft for army service. The law has not been observed for some years, but this year some few supervisors are complying with its provisions.

BITTER TASTE.

It Aids in the Detection of Unwholesome Food.

Daniel Webster in the famous White trial in Salem, Mass., years ago declared that "murder will out." This maxim has been found applicable to many other things besides murder. Housewives know it to be true when there is alum in baking powder. A bitterness in the bread at once betrays the alum's presence. It can't conceal its true nature. The alum bitterness "will out," and because it will, physicians, who understand the harmful effect of alum on the system, are at a loss to know why people continue to buy baking powders containing it. All baking powders sold for twenty-five cents a pound and less contain alum. There is surely no economy in using these cheap powders. For a pure cream of tartar powder, as Dr. Price's was shown to be at the World's Fair, goes so much farther and gives so much better results, there is no doubt of its being more economical in the long run.

SURE CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

The statement that there is a cure for Rheumatism will be read with incredulity by the majority of people. However, it is a fact which we can prove. Rheumatism is a disease of the blood, and until that is thoroughly cleansed no one can be cured. The disease can be cured by relief. The remedy we offer is not a new discovery, but it has never been placed on the market in medicinal form. We know from personal observation that it has effected a permanent cure whenever tried and this is what suggested the idea of offering it to sufferers from rheumatism. The Sure Cure Rheumatic Tablets are a purely vegetable compound. They are warranted to cure the worst cases of rheumatism. Price, 60 cents a box. For sale by druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price. Send for free sample.
