STOCKWELL SELLS OUT

CASE WAS ABOUT TO COME TO TRIAL.

Settled Quietly Last Wednesday at Plymouth—Major Starkweather Drew Up the Agreement, Received and Counted Out the Cash Paid by the Defendants and Passed it Over to Stockwell—Thus Ends What Would Have Proven a Noted Case.

The suit of young Stockwell, of Salem, against Sheriff Judson, Deputy Canfield and Messrs. Doane and Mosher for the return of money wrongfully taken from him and for damages for false imprisonment, was on for trial this week at Howell. The defendants, who were so hot for trial before the case was transferred from the Washtenaw circuit where the sheriff could manipulate the talesman on the jury, suddenly experience a great change of heart when the case is about to be called for trial in a court where improper influence cannot be brought to bear upon the jury. Then, too, a gentleman, who is in the closest touch with Governor Pingree, had, to THE REGISTER'S certain knowledge, heard

The Little Annex at the North End of University Hall to be Torn Down.

It has been rumored recently that the small annex at the north end of University Hall is to be pulled down. It has an interesting history which will not be inappropriately told at this time.

It was built in the summer of 1863 for the accommodation of Randolph Roger's statue of "Nydia," which now stands in the center of the Art Gallery. Rogers was born in Ann Arbor and when his art made him famous, an association was formed for the purpose of buying a copy of this statue. A part of the north wing was then used as a museum and the annex was built to form a suitable place for "Nydia." The statue was purchased for $1,700 in 1859, exhibited in Detroit a while, later in the union school in this city and then in 1863 was placed in the alcove. A small fee was at first charged visitors to help the association pay for it. Here it remained until 1883, when it was removed to the new Art Gallery. When the statue was taken out the railing was taken down and the alcove thrown into the larger room. It has since been used as a place in which to keep various mathematical models and papers.—U. of M. Daily.

Charitable Union—Thanksgiving.

Last November, as an experiment, instead of giving out Thanksgiving dinners to the poor of the city as had been the custom, the Charitable Union asked for "pound" donations of groceries, canned vegetables, etc., such articles as might be stored and given out as needed during the winter. The call was responded to quite generously and the committees were able, all through the winter to send applicants to the storehouse for flour, rice, corn meal, rolled oats, sugar, tea, coffee, soap, salt, canned tomatoes, corn, etc.

The success of this experiment warrants the society in making a similar call for the coming Thanksgiving. All who can make contributions of this kind are requested to leave them with Mrs. Parker, cor. Ann and 5th st., Wednesday the 23rd and Thanksgiving Day.

Donations of clothing should be left with the committees of the different wards.

Mrs. Morris or Miss Sager 1st and 6th wards, Mrs. Bach 2nd ward, Mrs. Wetmore or Mrs. Booth 3rd ward, Mrs. Parker or Miss Hennlag 4th ward, Miss M. S. Brown 5th ward, Mrs. Lane or Mrs. Finney 7th ward.

DEXTER MAN HAS NERVE.

Arch Miles is confined to the house with a bad wound in one of his legs received while spearing on the mill pond last Wednesday night. He was in company with John Becker and Bert Adams, Arch spearing from the bow of the boat and John from the stern. John struck a fish and was jerking it off the spear when the boat ran against a stone. Arch stepping backward to maintain his balance just in time to be struck in the fleshy part of the leg below the knee with two of the spear tines, one of which penetrated two inches. He had the nerve to sit down and cut one out himself, but the other was removed by Dr. Honey. The wounds are very painful but are doing nicely.—Dexter Leader.

ANOTHER FIGHT ON.

WHO WILL SUCCEED JUDGE CLAUDIUS B. GRANT?

Newspapers Are Already Taking Up the Subject—The Following is From Monday's Detroit Journal—It Says That at Present Judge Kinne is Pingree's Choice—But it Intimates That There are Others Striving to Win the Governor's Favor.

The following is from Monday's Detroit Journal and will interest Ann Arbor people:

Like the poor, politics are always with us. The campaign is barely over when the campaign begins. In February there are more county conventions, city conventions and nominations, and finally, February 22, a state convention. The chief interest will center in the election of a judge of the supreme court to succeed Claudius B. Grant. Gov. Pingree is bitterly opposed to Judge Grant. There is no doubt that he will move the political heaven and earth to turn Mr. Grant down. On the other hand, the judge will have behind him, a very strong support, comprising the old line Republicans, temperance people and a large personal following.

Judge Kinne, of the Washtenaw circuit, is regarded at present as the Pingree favorite for the nomination.

He is very strong in point of qualification for the office. Besides, he has a strong, hardworking following of practical politicians, who are preparing to do most active and energetic work in securing delegates for him. But there are others. Among those whose fitness from the governor's standpoint is affirmed and who have the support of influential men in Mr. Pingree's entourage are Judge McAlvey, of Ludington, popular and a hustler; Judge Grove, of Grand Rapids; Judge Van Zile, of Detroit and Attorney General Fred A. Maynard, of Grand Rapids. Maynard particularly, it is supposed, will stand very well as a Pingree candidate. There will probably be a candidate from the upper peninsula also.

It will be useless to attempt to conceal the bitterness of the fight. Mr. Pingree and Judge Grant, in disposition, habit of thought, social relations and objective bent are about as far apart as two mortals can be. Judge Grant has a reputation as a fighter, earned in the upper peninsula in the days when he took his life in the hands by opposing the lawless element that used to run the district.

Tuesday's Free Press, taking up the same subject, has the following to say on the same topic:

One more fight between the Pingree and anti-Pingree factions of the Michigan g. o. p. is on the boards for next February. At that time there will be a convention for the nomination of a Supreme Court justice to succeed Justice Claudius B. Grant. The antipathy between Grant and Pingree is too well known to require explanation. Grant will be a candidate for renomination, and the same coteries that is backing Senator Burrows will be with Grant in the February convention. There are plenty of candidates who will try to ride into the $7,000 a year station on the Pingree gravel train. The man who has received most public attention in his candidacy is Atty. Gen. Fred A. Maynard, of Grand Rapids. There is another candidate from Kent county for the nomination, Judge Grove. The latter is regarded as a Pingree man, as are the following aspirants: Judge McAlvey, Manistee, and Judge Van Zile, of Detroit, and Judge Kinne, of Ann Arbor.

In the same convention at which a candidate for the justiceship is to be nominated a candidate for regent of the university will also be named. This nomination will be for the place to which Ell R. Sutton has just been elected, the term expiring January 1, 1900. Sutton will be a candidate for re-election.

ENLARGED AND IMPROVED.

The New Crusade, published by the Wood-Allen Pub. Co., of this city, and edited by Dr. Mary Wood-Allen, has been greatly enlarged and improved. The November issue just out is a 68 page magazine neatly printed on good book paper. The pages have been enlarged to 6x9 inches. The magazine is filled with matter of especial interest to mothers and all who care for the home and home life. This publication was begun as a mere leaflet entitled, "The Mother's Friend" only three years ago. The fact that it has developed so rapidly shows that there is an evident demand for such a magazine and also that it is in the hands of the people who know how to edit and publish it in just the right way.

A CAUSTIC REPLY,

ALLMENDINGER MAKES ONE TO CANFIELD.

DISCUSSES CHICKENTHIEF CHARGE.

Shows That What He Said About Canfield Was True—Liberal Sprinkling at Humor Makes the Reply a Biting One—Canfield Doubtless Wishes He Had Kept Still—Not Likely to Get Much of a Verdict.

On Tuesday Mr. G. Frank Allmendinger, by his attorneys, filed a reply to Canfield's bill of particulars in the latter's suit for five thousand dollars damages against him. The document created the greatest interest in legal circles as soon as it became known what was the nature of its contents. It is humorous to a degree and is enough to make anyone wince unless he were case-hardened. It is announced that Canfield is not affected in the least by it. Mr. Allmendinger explains the statement he made in saying that Canfield was better adapted to unlawfully pull a poor man's chickens off their roost in the dead of night than to do detective work by citing the course of said Canfield in levying upon the property of a Mr. Parker in Northfield. John M. Naylor had purchased at a reduction a mortgage against Parker and was proceeding to foreclose the same. We quote below, in part, the exact words of the defendant. Allmendinger's reply:

"This defendant will further give the evidence, and insist in his defense, that from the time of the purchase of said mortgage, the said Naylor entered upon a systematic course of insult, persecution, injury and abuse of the said Parker, with the express purpose and design of forcing the said Parker to remove from his said farm before the expiration of the period of redemption of said mortgage; that after making the said levy upon all of the crops and growing stuff upon said farm, the said plaintiff in this cause and the said Naylor, well knowing that said Parker possessed no personal property liable to levy under any execution that might issue against him, but desiring to annoy, insult, injure and oppress said Parker and especially to render his life upon said farm so miserable, distasteful and hateful that he would voluntarily abandon his said home before the equity of redemption had expired, the said plaintiff and said Naylor, with other evil disposed persons, plotted and conspired together to make a sham and pretended levy upon the remaining personal property of said Parker, in addition to the said growing crops; and by a great show and parade of authority, and display of force, to frighten Parker into giving up and abandoning his said farm at once; and in pursuance of said conspiracy, the said plaintiff, Lester Canfield, being himself physically a very large and dangerous-looking person, accompanied by one Zenas Sweet, also a portly and imposing tip-staff and minion of the law, on-to-wit, the first day of April, commonly called "All-fool's Day," of the said year of 1895, repaired to the farm of the said Naylor, in the township of Salem, in said county, and adding to their force the said Naylor and one Charles Galligan, at Naylor's aforesaid, and, arming themselves with pikes and staves, swords and pistols, lanterns and guns, at about the hour of ten o'clock of the night time of said day, the said plaintiff and said Sweet, in company with the said Naylor and Galligan, repaired to the home and farm of said Parker with great noise and display.

"(Now the hungry lion roars,
And the wolf behowls and anon;
Whilst the heavy ploughman snores,
All with weary task fore-done;
Now the wretched brands do glow,
Verily the screeching-owl, screeching loud,
Puts the wretch that lies in woe,
In remembrance of a shroud.")

"That arriving at the home of said Parker, they aroused him from his slumbers, and said plaintiff, with great display of force and with menaces and threats, demanded of him, the said Parker, that he, the said Parker, come to the settlement with said Naylor and get up and get off his said farm and surrender it up to the said Naylor; that upon said Parker's refusal to do so before the expiration of his equity of redemption, the said Naylor and the said Sweet and the said plaintiff became very angry and made sundry dire threats, and said plaintiff Canfield then notified him, the said Parker, that he, the said Canfield, had an execution against him and would immediately seize, levy upon and remove all his personal property, and in order to convince said Parker that he meant what he said, he declared that he would begin by seizing and levying upon said Parker's poultry, that said Parker urged upon said Canfield his, the said Parker's poverty and destitution, and informed him that his poultry was necessary for his, said Parker's, living, and that said Canfield had no legal right or authority to seize said poultry under execution; but notwithstanding the strenuous objections and opposition of the said Parker, the said Canfield, plaintiff herein, accompanied by said Sweet, said Naylor and said Galligan, with their sticks and staves, guns, revolvers, pistols and lanterns aforesaid, gallantly charged upon the lowly hen-coop of the said Parker, scaled the walls thereof, ascended to the ridge of the roof where said Parker's pullets were dozing the hours away, rudely and unlawfully and in the night-time

THE BEST AND CHEAPEST.

The New York Independent, the leading weekly newspaper of the world, and one whose pages exercise the widest influence, is entering upon its fiftieth year of publication. The Independent emphasizes its fiftieth year by changing its form to that of a magazine, and by reducing its annual subscription price from $3.00 to $2.00; single copies from 10 to 5 cents. The Independent in its new form will print 3,640 pages of reading matter per year while the prominent magazines, which sell for $4.00 a year, print only about 2,000 pages. The subscriber to The Independent gets $2 per cent. more of equally good reading matter at one-half the cost! It is not only the leading family weekly newspaper but by far the cheapest and best. A free specimen copy may be had by addressing The Independent, 130 Fulton Street, New York.

U. OF M. IN THE WAR.

The University of Michigan Alumni Association desires to collect all the data possible concerning the participation of its graduates and students, past and present, in the late war with Spain. The University has been prominently identified with the war. Secretary Day is a Michigan graduate of 1870, and associated with him at present on the Board of Peace Commissioners at Paris, is Senator Cushman K. Davis, another U. of M. Alumnus. Three University Professors enlisted, two as Surgeons, one as Engineer in the navy. Several U. of M. men gave up their lives in the war, one of them at the side of Col. Roosevelt as the Rough Riders went up the hill at San Juan. The University is very desirous that the records be as nearly complete as possible, even down to the most minute scrap of information. To this end, any person who can furnish the slightest intelligence upon the subject is respectfully urged to forward it to the proper authorities. Names of men who enlisted, their regiments and stations, class in the University, experiences they may have had in the course of the war, names of women students who volunteered as nurses, and other similar notes would all form suitable items. It is hoped that Michigan graduates and the public generally will respond promptly to this request and that nothing may be omitted for fear that it shall be regarded as unimportant by the University. Address all communications on the subject to James H. Prentiss, Alumni Secretary, Ann Arbor, Mich.

CHIEF OF POLICE SPEAKS

Ringling Words Advising People to Use Dr. Greene's Nervura.

From His Statement No One Can Doubt that Dr. Greene's Nervura is the Best and Surest Remedy in the World to Cure.

Chief of Police Henry W. Mason, of New Bedford, Mass., writes to the people: "It gives me pleasure to add my testimony in this brief note to that of many others, of the high esteem in which Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is held in this community."

ness and debility it is the sovereign remedy. It makes the nerves strong, the muscles vigorous, the brain clear, the blood pure and rich—in fact it will make you well and strong.

Do not forget also that you have the privilege of consulting without charge with Dr. Greene, 148 State Street, Chicago, Ill., who is acknowledged to be the most successful physician in curing nervous and chronic diseases, personally or by letter.

ANN ARBOR, MICH., Nov. 7, 1898.

To the Hon. Mayor and Members of the Common Council.

Gentlemen:—Your Board of Health begs leave to make their report for the month of October. There have been thirty-five inspections made and those nuisances thus inspected abated.

The health of the city continues good, there being only nine deaths to report for the month.

Your Board of Health would request that the Council instruct the Board of Public Works to have the property occupied by Mr. H. O. Walters on E. Ann street connected with the sewer as it is in a very unsanitary condition, and there has been a number of cases of sickness in families residing in this property.

Your Board would also suggest that it would be very wise if the Council would provide us with a pest-house, as there are a number of places in the state infected with small-pox, and many of our soldiers returning from the war are likely to bring diseases into our midst, if such were the case we are not in a position at present to cope with them should they break out. This we deem very important as former Boards have had a great deal of trouble in times gone by when such diseases broke out and there was no place to take them.

We would also ask that the Board of Public Works notify all property holders on the line of the finished sewers, that the sewer is completed and ready for them to connect.

ELI W. MOORE, President. H. B. DODSLEY, Inspector. E. A. CLARK, M. D., Health Officer.

Ald. Brown moved that the Walter's store on E. Ann street be ordered connected with the sewer.

Adopted as follows: Yeas—Ald. Hamilton, Richards, Koch, Dieterle, Sweet, Exinger, Vandawarker, Brown, Spathelf, Coon, Howell, Cady, Stevens, Pres. Luick—14.

Nays—None.

BONDS OF SYMPATHY

Women tell Mrs. Pinkham the whole truth about themselves and that is the reason she is able to help them.

Nearly every woman suffers or has suffered from some trouble of the delicate organism that makes her a woman. The gratitude of those who have been relieved of backache, racking pains or serious displacement, is boundless. From grateful women everywhere come to Mrs. Pinkham most earnest words of thankfulness for vanished pain and restored health.

Many women have wasted years in almost constant agony, spent money freely in treatment and travel, and finally learning of Mrs. Pinkham's great knowledge, have written to her and secured without cost advice that helped them back to health. In this way there is formed a bond of sympathy with an ever-widening circle.

Wherever women meet, they talk about the great virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. WEEDEN Says, "Mrs. Pinkham Saved My Life."

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I wrote to you two or three months ago about my poor health, I was completely discouraged. I had tried different kinds of medicine, and had been to number of doctors, but could get no relief. A friend of mine advised me to write to you, and I did so. I had a great deal of trouble with my stomach, could not eat hardly any solid food, and even broths distressed me. I was growing poor and losing strength every day. I was so weak that I could hardly sit up, and was very nervous and down-hearted. Had backache and headache most of the time, also falling of the womb, trembling spells and dizziness. After receiving your letter, I began taking your Vegetable Compound, Blood Purifier and Liver Pills. I had taken them but a few days before I began to feel better, and have been gaining very fast ever since. I shall advise all my friends who are sick to write to you. I thank you for what you have done for me. You have certainly saved my life and may Heaven bless you.—Mrs. CHARLES D. WEEDEN, Bridgewater Corners, Vt.

Perfect reliance on the sacredness of the confidential relations with Mrs. Pinkham, coupled with the feeling that they are telling their story to a woman, leads women to tell to her the whole truth, thus enabling her to give most intelligent counsel. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass. A woman best understands a woman's ills.

NOSE-CAPS.

The Dominic looked around the breakfast table with his usual genial smile and said, as if in answer to a query, and fingering his prominent nose tentatively as he spoke: "Yes—Yes—It is a cold morning."

Pert little Miss Hull who sat next him dauntly felt of her own "tip-tilted" nasal organ and asked flippantly, "Does your nose act as a thermometer, Doctor, by which you measure the rise and fall of the temperature?"

The Dominic was never offended at her pertness and answered with a good natured smile, "It just does that, Miss Nellie: my nose always knows when it is cold weather. The fact is" he added in a confidential tone, looking around the table as he spoke, "The fact is, that in the winter my nose is often so cold at night that it keeps me awake, and so my wife has made me a nose-cap which is a great comfort. I suppose none of you suffer with a cold nose do you? If so, I'd advise a nose-cap."

Miss Hull giggled as if the idea that her nose could be cold was excessively funny.

Jolly Miss Mathews, who looked as if her nose was always as warm as her big generous heart, laughed outright.

Dainty, delicate Miss Perry with her white hair, pale, thin and clear-cut face, looking like a bit of fragile Sevres China, flushed with the faintest tinge of pink as if a personal inquiry as to the temperature of her nose might be verging on an impertinence. From one and all came a softly murmured negative to the Dominic's query. "I said from all; but matrooly, plain faced Mrs. Elton, the only married woman among the group of eight ladies, said outspokenly, "Indeed I do suffer with a cold nose, both day and night when the weather is the least bit cold, and I'd welcome anything that promised relief. How do you make a nose-cap?"

"I can show you mine," responded the Dominic in a tone of great satisfaction at finding someone to sympathize with him in his peculiar affliction. "I always carry it with me but I try to keep it out of sight when among strangers. Once, when a guest in a strange house, I forgot to put my nose-cap away in the morning, and I overheard the daughter of my host saying to her mother—"Mamma, I found the strangest thing in the Doctor's room made of black velvet. Its unlike anything 'in the earth or in the heavens above or the waters under the earth.' I guessed at once that she had found my nose-cap, and so it proved, and when I had explained what it was, she acknowledged that she needed one too."

Mrs. Elton did not see the Dominic's nose-cap, and when winter came on with its keen nipping air, she remembered this with much regret.

One night when lying awake, feeling as if her nose was a lump of ice, she recalled the Dominic's experience and remembering that a crocheted shawl lay on the chair by the bed, she threw it over her forehead bringing it down to the tip of her nose. The effect was magical. That often dingy member grew warm and she soon slept. All through the winter she clung to the shawl as a soporific. She did indeed try to fashion some sort of a night cap, but none proved a success. They would not stay on even if tied, and they did not cover the nose. The little crocheted shawl was light in weight, it clung so that it did not get displaced, it fell not only over the forehead but down around the ears. It did not entirely shut out the light, and if it slipped a little too far down it did not interfere with the breathing.

Mr. Elton laughed at her shawl, but one night when he was suffering with a severe cold in the head and was in the condition of the little boy who said, "one of his noses would not go," Mrs. Elton showed him to throw one end of her shawl over his forehead, and in a short time the annoying symptoms had disappeared and instead of lying awake struggling for breath he soon fell comfortably asleep.

Many people are kept awake at night because the head is uncomfortably cold and any method which will keep the head warm will induce sleep. After his experience of the comfort to be obtained from the corner of his wife's shawl, Mr. Elton adopted one of the children's worsted polo caps for night wear, to their amusement and with great satisfaction to himself.

This little sketch is written with the hope that it may suggest to sufferers with colds, with catarrhal headaches or who are sleepless from lack of circulation through the brain, a probable method of lessening their discomfort and inducing sleep.

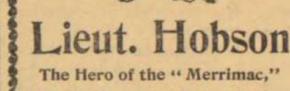

The young mother's delight and joy in her beautiful baby is always accompanied by more or less care and solicitude, and a certain degree of drain on her physical resources. She needs all the strengthening and sustaining help which is possible to be obtained, in order not to fall a victim to the organic weaknesses incident to maternity.

The grandest help in the world for expectant mothers or nursing mothers is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It imparts health and strength directly to the delicate organs and nerve-centers involved in motherhood. It renders the coming of baby safe and almost free from pain. It transmits constitutional health and hardihood to the child; promotes the secretion of abundant nourishment, and fortifies the mother with permanent vital energy.

All diseases of the feminine organism are completely cured by this remarkable "Prescription." No other medicine was ever devised for this purpose by an educated, skilled physician of thirty years' experience and an expert in this particular branch of medical practice.

The marvelous effects of this medicine are more fully described in one chapter of Dr. Pierce's thousand-page illustrated book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," a book which every woman ought to read. A paper-bound copy will be sent absolutely free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay the mere cost of mailing. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. A handsome cloth-bound copy for thirty-one stamps.

W. R. Malcolm, of Knobel, Clay County, Arkansas, writes: "Since I last wrote you we have had a baby girl born to us. My wife took your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and also your 'Favorite Prescription' all during the expected period and until confinement, and she had no trouble to mention. A stout, hearty child was never born. Our child will be one year of age the 8th inst. and she has not been sick a day. Has not had so much as the colic. It is a fact, sir, and we have not had to be up with her as often as twice at night since her birth."

NO HELP NEEDED.

Americans who favor an Anglo-American alliance assume that the United States cannot stand alone in the great controversies of the future. They admit that we are strong and growing stronger, but insist that in fighting the battle of civilization we must have allies, and that the natural alliance is between the United States and England. It does not occur to these gentlemen that up to this time the United States has gained national strength and prosperity faster than any other country, and has increased its territory, wealth and influence, not through allies, but by its own inherent vitality and enterprise, in complete political independence of other nations. Standing alone thus far, this republic has increased in power as no other country in the world.

Englishmen have a keener appreciation of this progress and of its significance than have most Americans. A writer in the London Mail, in directing attention to statistics showing that England is marching backward while her rivals are marching forward, says the United States is rapidly becoming the richest country on the globe. He points out that the United States is keeping the rest of the world out of its great home market, as well as forcing its own way victoriously into the world's markets. Our exports for the seven months of 1898 were $31,726,571 against $549,020,353 in the corresponding period of last year, whereas our imports, in computation of the free-trade theory of automatic balance, dwindled from $306,481,172 to $377,257,901.

The London Mail directs the attention of Englishmen to the fact that in recent years the imports into England have exceeded the exports and the disparity, though already tremendous, is still growing. In 1897 the total imports into England amounted to $1,955,372,750, while the exports of home products amounted to $1,171,035,510, leaving the excess of imports over exports $784,274,240. The excess of imports over exports in 1896 was $725,000,000. The disparity is expected to be still greater this year than last. The value of foreign manufactures sold in Great Britain since last Jan. 1 is $327,000,000, against $321,000,000 in 1897. This shows that England spent 11 foreign manufactures nearly $5,000,000 more in 1898 than she spent in 1897, while the United States, through its protective policy, manufactured more goods for the home market and sold more of its own manufactures abroad than ever before.

Had the anti-expansionists had their way is the time of Jefferson and Monroe the United States would not have made such rapid progress in wealth and power and influence, and would not be able at the end of this century to stand alone. Under the expansion policy of the fathers, however, the territory of the union was extended southward and westward, giving us a coast line on the gulf and the Pacific as well as the Atlantic. The distinctively American policy of the Republican party has made the Union stronger and more prosperous. Building on a sure foundation, the United States, as the London Mail declares, rapidly becoming the richest country in the world. The policy that brought about this condition will enable the United States to stand alone in the great struggle for the control of Pacific trade.

Never before in its history has the United States been so strong from commercial or political competition with other nations. It is really less today than at any previous time since it became a nation. Alone by itself, and of itself, it stands ready to achieve its own future greatness, with a fulfiling of resources and a plentiful aid of power renders superfluous the aid of any foreign ally.—Inter Ocean.

AN overdose of Plingreism accounts for Washtenaw's slump and let it not be forgotten. The convention held Tuesday could not be packed by Boss Judson and the protest shows what republicans think of rough riders.—Ypsilantian.

The person who lost the horse whip which we have at this office can have it by proving property and paying for this notice.—Dexter Leader.

Better save that whip, Bro. Tompson. An editor never knows just how suddenly and how badly he may need just such an article.

The Argus-Democrat has begun the publication of a daily. Whether Ann Arbor will support two daily papers remains to be seen. The daily Argus starts out well. If there is room for two, we predict its success, if not it will be a fight to the death between it and The Times. We hope all may succeed.

The entire county ticket except that of the Register was wiped out, thanks to the high handed outrages perpetrated by the Pingree push during the past two years. If the warning is heeded, well; if not no republican will ever feast at the county's public table again. The Ypsilantian gave warning of the result two years ago.—Ypsilantian.

IN A FEW WORDS

Sufferers from Piles May Learn of a Harmless Lasting Cure.

There are plenty of pile cures which give relief and sometimes cause a mild case of piles, but there is only one which can be depended upon with certainty to cure obstinate, long standing cases and that is the Pyramid Pile Cure.

Endorsements and testimonials are received daily from men and women whose integrity and reliability are above question and in this connection a letter received from the Rev. J. Westbroek of Bayne, Mich., may be of interest to pile sufferers who have sought in vain for a cure. It says:

I have used the Pyramid Pile Cure and I know that it is all that is claimed for it. I had been troubled with piles more or less for about eighteen years and I have tried remedies, but the piles grew worse until about ten months ago I used the Pyramid Pile Cure. It gave most instant relief and I have been free from piles ever since.—Rev. Jas. H. Westbroek.

Mr. Frank Smith, the well known druggist of Ypsilanti, Mich., in speaking of the Pyramid Pile Cure says: "A year ago I sold C. C. Potter, 119 Hamilton St., Ypsilanti, Mich., a box of the Pyramid Pile Cure. He made the following statement to me today: 'I have been troubled for twenty years with itching piles. Have tried nearly everything that promised relief, but got very little help until one year ago I called on my druggist, Frank Smith and got a box of the Pyramid Pile Cure. The box used according to directions was in my case, a perfect cure as a year spent without any symptoms of the trouble has convinced me.'"

Although a comparative new remedy its popularity is such, that all druggists now sell it; if your druggist hasn't it in stock, he will get it for you if you ask him, at 50 cents and $1.00 per package.

A pamphlet describing the cause and cure of piles sent free by addressing the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshal, Mich.

Handbook of the Tariff.

The understanding of the complicated provisions of the new tariff has been greatly simplified by the issuance of this manual, which contains decisions of the Federal Courts, General Appraisers and the Secretary of the Treasury on mooted points. To digest the tariff laws is no easy task, but to direct the foot taken into the gastric receptacle is rendered facile and agreeable by the systematic use of that thorough stomachic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This is a family medicine of comprehensive uses. It prevents and cures malarial, kidney and rheumatic troubles, remedies nervousness and insomnia and removes constipation and biliousness. Appetite, as well as the ability to satisfy it without subsequent abdominal disturbance, is restored by this fine stomachic, which also accelerates convalescence. Persons in the decline of life and the infirm of every age and sex find it of material assistance.

The postoffice fight in Ypsilanti is beginning to wax warmer. We rather suspect some one will get left in the race.

The governor said that unless the Stockwell case against Judson was dropped or else the Sheriff came out unscathed, he would no longer consider Judson as a candidate for the appointment as Warden. This statement, we understand, was made only a few weeks ago. Immediately negotiations were begun and here is the result: Last Saturday, Hon. A. J. Sawyer, who had been retained as counsel in the case, received the following letter:

OFFICE OF CRANE & CRANE
Attorneys at Law.
Saginaw, W. S. Mich., Nov. 11, 98.
Hon. A. J. Sawyer,
Ann Arbor, Mich.
Dear Sir:

My brother R. L. Crane, left for a hunting trip yesterday. He was not feeling well, and desired to have me assist in the trial of the Stockwell case. Mr. J. O. Cunningham calls in today, and states that he was informed yesterday that Stockwell went to the office of Mr. Starkweather at Plymouth upon Tuesday or Wednesday and was paid $1250 by Mr. Doane and that Stockwell has left for parts unknown. Presumably gone to Canada where his father resides. This is a surprise, and as we believe, brought about by representations on the part of some of the defendants. I enclose you a copy of the statement signed by Stockwell at our office on February 11th, 1898. He came to our office in company with Mr. Cunningham, and to protect our rights and security for services and expenses, Mr. R. L. Crane had Stockwell sign the enclosed statement. We still believe that it would be better to have a continuance of the case until the next term of court, and if possible secure the presence of Stockwell, or bring about an adjustment of the matter in some other way. It is very disgusting to us, and we have to leave it largely to your advice in the premises. I will come to Howell on Wednesday or Thursday next, if you think best, and do what I can to aid and assist in obtaining the continuance, and also bring down the original statement signed by Mr. Stockwell.

Yours very truly,
WM. E. CRANE.

The following is a copy of the assignment Stockwell made to his attorneys:

This is to certify that I have placed my case and matters of difference against Joseph Doane and others for my arrest and taking of $512.17 from me in January last, entirely in the hands of J. O. Cunningham and R. L. Crane, and have assigned my rights in same to them including any judgment I may recover thereon.

Feb. 11, 1898
HOWARD STOCKWELL.

This was rather startling news and THE REGISTER immediately set about to investigate. Mr. Starkweather, who is Mayor of the Village of Plymouth, was called up by telephone and he admitted that a settlement had been reached in his office last Wednesday. THE REGISTER reporter went to Plymouth to learn the particulars. Mr. Starkweather stated that parties representing both Stockwell and the defendants met in his office on Wednesday, Nov. 9, and there concluded the agreement which had been in negotiation for some time and which is referred to in the above letter. Mr. Starkweather who is a perfectly reliable man, informed THE REGISTER that the terms of the release which Stockwell signed were that he would not prosecute further any one of the various defendants in the above mentioned cause. In consideration of his signing such an agreement he was liberally paid. Mr. Starkweather said that he himself counted out the cash and upon Stockwell's signing the release, turned the money over to him. Thus the case against Judson has been "dropped" and Gov. Pingree can appoint him Warden if he desires, that is if he considers such a settlement a vindication of the defense. The fact that even a dollar was paid to settle the case will convince most people that the defense realized that they were sure to lose if the suit ever came to trial.

Sheriff Judson is advertising the fact that he was "$1,250" on the election last Tuesday.

Capt. Vernon and wife and 36 men of the 19th U. S. infantry, have left Ft. Wayne, Detroit, to join their regiment in Porto Rico.

Mrs. J. L. Pierson, of Eaton Rapids, found a two-months-old babe on her porch. She will keep him and name him Wm. McKinley.

Thomas E. Peck, the 26-year-old son of a prominent Grand Rapids druggist, committed suicide at Chicago by shooting himself in the head.

ROSEBUDS

Budding womanhood! What glorious possibilities! What half-hidden dangers! What a time for tender sympathy! At puberty nature generally makes some attempt to establish physical regularities, but when nature fails to assert itself, developments result which injure the health and impair the constitution of the maiden. The timely use of Bradfield's Female Regulator, the standard remedy for all weaknesses and irregularities peculiar to all women, is what retarded nature needs in such cases. Sold by druggists for $1. Books for women free.

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN NEWS

Spanish Troops Break Out in a Mutiny in Cuba—Cruiser Maria Teresa Went Aground on Cat Island and British Claim Her as a Derelict.

Spanish Troops in Cuba Mutiny.
Reports from Puerto Principe and Nuevitas, Cuba, say that 7,000 regular soldiers mutinied, demanding their pay before embarking Spain. About 4,000 armed soldiers presented themselves in front of the palace, calling on the military governor, Emilio March, for their overdue pay. Thereupon, Gen. March drew his sword and ordered them to disband. The soldiers, however, refused to obey, and some of them threatened the life of Gen. March, who returned his sword to its scabbard and told them to kill him if that was their purpose. The soldiers then calmed down somewhat and said they only wanted their money before embarking. Gen. March promised them that they would be paid and the soldiers returned to their quarters. The cruiser Alfonso XIII, and the gunboats Conde de Venadito and Infanta Isabel have proceeded from Havana for Nuevitas to compel the soldiers to embark, after which they will proceed to Gibara for a like purpose.

A more serious affair was that at Havana where the soldiers of the Orden Publico started a revolt because of arrears and for two days a serious outbreak was threatened. Gen. Blanco, however, pacified them with a portion of the money due them and promised the rest as soon as possible. Gen. Blanco then ordered all the foot and mounted regiments of the Orden Publico to be disbanded. As originally planned, it was intended that the mutiny should have extended to the Guardia Civil and the artillery regulars, and it would in that event have assumed much graver importance and might perhaps have inaugurated a reign of terror and bloodshed in the island.

May Save the Maria Teresa.

Later advices report that the Maria Teresa, instead of going to the bottom, stranded on Cat Island, in the Watling group. The navy department sent orders to the Vulcan at Norfolk and the Potomac at Santiago to leave immediately for Cat Island, and if the vessel is found to do everything possible to save her. The expedition will be under command of Capt. McCalla, who commanded the Marblehead in the Spanish war.

The report that the Maria Teresa had stranded off Cat Island is confirmed. The natives of surrounding islands, looking upon her as a derelict, carried away her supplies and nearly everything else movable. The British authorities at Nassau announced that they would take possession of the vessel as a derelict. The American consul has protested against this course.

Bloody Race Riots.

A bitter race feeling between the whites and blacks in various parts of North and South Carolina has culminated in terrible bloodshed. At Wilmington, N. C., a Negro paper published an article slandering several white women. White men wrecked the newspaper office and burned the building, and in rioting which followed nine Negroes were killed and three white men mortally wounded. At Rehobeth, S. C., five blacks and one white were killed and one white man mortally shot in an after-election riot.

Sultan Refuses Passports to Americans

A party of seven missionaries sent out by the American board of foreign missions have been refused passports by the Turkish government, but have gone to their stations under protection of the U. S. legation. Two Michigan women were in the party—Mrs. Robt. S. Stapleton, of Farmers Creek, Mich., going to join her husband at Ezeroum, and Miss Ruth M. Bushnell, of Joppa, Mich., going to Ezeroum for educational work in the mission high schools.

A CAUSTIC REPLY,

seized the said poultry of the said Parker, he being then and there a poor man, by their naked legs, wings, necks, heads and bodies and forcibly pulled them from their roost and hauled them from their exalted perch, bound them with strong cords and yokes and threw them violently upon the ground, and then and there threatened to take and carry them away unless said Parker would agree to give up the possession of said farm to the said Naylor at once; that said Parker still refused to leave said farm and the said poultry noisily protesting against such rude and unentertaining treatment, said plaintiff and his companions in this night raid, after a long consultation finally concluded to and did then and there free the said fowls from the cords that bound them and released them, from said pretended levy and seizure and permitted them to soar aloft to the ridge-pole of their spacious coop, to float away into dreamland on the Sable wings of Night. That the said plaintiff having failed in his said scheme and plot to persuade, or force, or frighten said Parker prematurely to abandon his homestead, departed from the premises of said Parker, taking with him his Sancho Panza, said Zenas Sweet, and his noble patron, the said Naylor. That sometime during said night one of said Parker's fowls, probably with the intent to discover the further designs of the said conspirators, appears to have followed the said plaintiff and his associates to the home of the said Naylor, but at the dawn of the succeeding day, it eagerly returned to the scenes of its chickenhood days, the home of said Parker. The defendant will further show in his defense that soon thereafter the said Parker and the said plaintiff related to this defendant and to divers other good and reputable citizens of this state, the circumstances of the pretended levy upon said Parker's poultry, and that the same became the subject of public comment and discussion in the neighborhood of said Parker's home and the city of Ann Arbor and other places within said state, and that this defendant honestly believed that the acts of said plaintiff as related to him by said Parker and as admitted by said plaintiff and hereinbefore set forth, were true in every circumstance and particular and the act of the said plaintiff in taking said poultry off their roost in the night time, was unlawful. And his defendant will give in evidence and insist in his defense that in the use of the alleged libelous words and language set forth in plaintiff's declaration in this cause, to-wit: "The latter is" (meaning the said plaintiff) "off from a poor man's hen-roost in the dead of night rather than in a decent way," he referred to the aforesaid unauthorized, unlawful, oppressive and high handed conduct of said plaintiff in the aforesaid pretended levy of said Parker; that the said words and language do not impute to said plaintiff the crime of larceny as set forth and charged in plaintiff's declaration, and were not intended by this defendant to charge or imply the charge of said crime of larceny, and that this defendant did not charge said plaintiff with the crime of larceny of poultry or any other property, but did charge that he unlawfully meddled and interfered with the property of a poor man, and that he abused the process of the court in making said shan and pretended levy, and that the charge so made and understood was and is true; that the common and popular understanding, interpretation and meaning of the words alleged to have been used by this defendant is that the said plaintiff trespassed upon the rights of a poor debtor, in pretending to levy upon his property, in the night time, and that the said language and words were so understood by all who read them, and that the said charge of an unlawful interference with the property of a poor man and of a shameful abuse of the process of the court was and is literally and absolutely true."

The placing of an electric light in front of the Baptist church on E. Huron st. is a much needed improvement. People can now walk along that street after night without danger of colliding with other pedestrians.

CONSULTING A WOMAN.

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Inspires Confidence and Hope.

Examination by a male physician is a hard trial to a delicately organized woman. She puts it off as long as she dare, and is only driven to it by fear of cancer, polypus, or some dreadful ailment. Most frequently such a woman leaves a physician's office where she has undergone a critical examination with an impression, more or less, of discouragement.

This condition of the mind destroys the effect of advice; and she grows worse rather than better. In consulting Mrs. Pinkham no hesitation need be felt, the story is told to a woman and is wholly confidential. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass., she offers sick women her advice without charge.

Her intimate knowledge of women's troubles makes her letter of advice a wellspring of hope, and her wide experience and skill point the way to health. "I suffered with ovarian trouble for seven years, and no doctor knew what was the matter with me. I had spells which would last for two days or more. I thought I would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken seven bottles of it, and am entirely cured."—Mrs. JOHN FOREMAN, 26 N. Woodbury Ave., Baltimore, Md.

The above letter from Mrs. Foreman is only one of thousands.

Many people claim success when no one rises to dispute it. What we want to do is to place our claims where doubt is out of the question. We are doing this every day and Ann Arbor people are beginning to appreciate it. Now, to get right down to the point, everybody knows that there is many an aching back, many a lame and painful one, the sufferer not finding so many remedies, the sufferer not trying success, looks upon all those who profess to have a cure with all the skepticism of a skeptic; and yet one more struggle with the right ally and the back is free. Others have done it right here in Ann Arbor, why not you? Read what Mrs. Jos. Buechler, of 314 Second street, says: 'From the result of a severe fall I had in autumn, 1897, I have been troubled ever since with pains through my back and kidneys. I could not lie or rest comfortably in bed and in the mornings felt unrefreshed and tired. The kidney secretions became affected, unnatural and distressing. I doctored a great deal but met with little or no success. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended I thought they would help me. I went to Eberbach & Son's drug store, procured a box and began to use them. Before I had taken many doses I began to feel better; in a short time I was entirely rid of the trouble and felt as well as ever. I certainly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills very highly to anyone needing such a remedy.' Doan's Kidney Pills sold by all dealers. Price 50c per box. Sent by mail on receipt of price. MICHIGAN NEWS SUMMARY. Doings of the Week Recorded in a Brief Style. CONCISE AND INTERESTING. Three Persons Burned to Death in the Destruction of a Livery Barn at Perry—Famous Michigan Jurist is Dead—Large Acreage of Wheat. Disasters on the Lakes. A wintry storm which assumed the proportions of a blizzard on land was a gale of terrific force on the Great Lakes and caused much damage to shipping. The schooner Iron Cliff broke from the steamer Iron Duke near Chicago and drifted upon the beach and was totally wrecked. The crew was rescued with a great deal of difficulty on account of the huge waves that rolled in from Lake Michigan. The men were compelled to jump into the water, being then hauled into the lifeboat. Some of them were unconscious when rescued. The Iron Cliff had a cargo of salt. She is owned by the Detroit Transportation Co., of Detroit and was insured for $50,000. The S. Thal, a two-mast schooner from Milwaukee, foundered off Glencoe, Ill., and the crew of five drowned. The steamer Chisholm, which went ashore on Isle Royale two weeks ago, was completely wrecked by the gale. The steamer Curtis, of Tonawanda, arrived at Port Huron without her three barges, the Fassett, Reed and Holland, giving every evidence of having passed through a terrific gale. Part of the deck load had been swept away and considerable water was in the hold. The Fassett went ashore at Sand Beach and the crew was taken off by life-savers. The schooner Lena Neilson, with lumber from Manistee to Benton Harbor, struck on the bar at the entrance to St. Joseph harbor. She spread canvass and freed herself, but lost her heavy seas breaking over her. The crew of four men clung to the rigging while the life-savers attempted to reach them. The big steel freighter North Star, belonging to the Northern Steamship Co., arrived at Detroit after a passage from Buffalo which was the most exciting she ever had and all hands were thankful to escape.

Damaged By Smoke Only. The Cincinnati Clothing Co. and the Miami Valley Shoe Manufacturing Co. were damaged to the extent of $50,000. Oh, the Pain of Rheumatism!

Rheumatism often causes the most intense suffering. Many have for years vainly sought relief from this disabling disease, and are to-day worse off than ever. Rheumatism is a blood disease, and Swift's Specific is the only cure, because it is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated diseases.

A few years ago I was taken with inflammatory Rheumatism, which became so intense that I was for weeks unable to walk. I tried several prominent physicians and took their treatment faithfully, but was unable to get the slightest relief. In fact, my condition seemed to grow worse, the disease spread over my entire body, and from November to March I suffered agony. I tried many patent medicines, but none relieved me. Upon the advice of a friend I decided to try S. S. S. Before allowing me to take it, however, my guardian, who was a chemist, analyzed the remedy, and pronounced it free of potash or mercury. I felt so much better after taking two bottles, that I continued the remedy, and in two months I was cured completely. The cure was permanent, for I have never since had a touch of Rheumatism though many times exposed to damp and cold weather.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, }
County of Washtenaw, } ss.
Zenus Sweet, clerk of the City of Ann Arbor, being duly sworn, deposes and says that on the 23rd day of October 1898, he gave notice of the pendency of the question of ordering the improvement proposed by the petition referred to in the resolution of the Common Council of the City of Ann Arbor of which the annexed is a copy, to the owners, occupants, or persons interested, by delivering a true copy thereof on the date aforesaid to each of the following named persons, personally: Mary Maynard, Leonard Morse, Lucy E. Whitark, Helen Morse, S. R. Gregory and wife and sister, and to St. Andrew's Episcopal Society by delivering a true copy of said resolution to Harry W. Douglas its agent.

ZENUS SWEET.
Subscribed and sworn to me this 23th day of October, 1898.

GLEN V. MILLS, Notary Public.

Sir:—Whereas the Common Council of the City of Ann Arbor has been applied to in writing by ten or more freeholders of said city to lay out, establish, and open a continuation of Catherine street, between North Division street and N. State street; and whereas at the adjourned regular session of the said Common Council held at the Council Chamber in the City of Ann Arbor, the 6th day of September, 1898, it was determined by said Council that it is advisable to lay out, open, and establish a street described as follows, to-wit:

Commencing at a point in the east line of N. Division street at the southwest corner of the Episcopal church property; running thence easterly along the south line of said property and on said line extended to a point in the west line of N. State street, thence southerly along the west line of State street forty-five feet; thence westerly parallel to the first line to a point in the east line of N. Division street forty-five feet from the place of beginning; thence northerly on the east line of N. Division street forty-five feet to the place of beginning.

You are hereby notified that the Common Council of the City of Ann Arbor will meet at the Council Chamber in said city on Monday, the 7th day of November, 1898, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., to consider the proposed improvement, and to hear the parties interested therein.

GLEN V. MILLS, City Clerk.

Received and ordered filed.

ANN ARBOR, MICH., Nov. 7, 1898.
To the Common Council of the City of Ann Arbor, Acting as Commissioners of Highways for said City:

The undersigned residents and freeholders of said city, owning property abutting upon the street proposed to be opened between Division and State streets in said city, as a continuation of Catherine street, of a width of forty-five feet, hereby object to the opening of said street for the reason, among others, that there exists a public street or highway extending from Division street, in an easterly direction, along the north line of lands formerly belonging to Mrs. Mary J. Maynard for a distance of thirty-six rods, more or less, of a width of thirty-nine feet, and on and over the lands now proposed to be taken for a public street.

Also that the grant and conveyance by Mrs. Mary J. Maynard to the City of Ann Arbor, of the strip of land thirty-nine feet wide, and extending east about thirty-six rods, bearing date the 7th day of March, 1898, and the acceptance thereof by the city constituted such strip of land a public street and highway, and that there exists no necessity of condemning such lands for a public street.

St Andrews church, by H. J. Brown, Senior Warden. SAMUEL R. GREGORY. JENNIE B. GREGORY.

By A. E. Brown.
WHEREAS, more than ten freeholders residents of the City of Ann Arbor, having petitioned this Council praying for the establishment of a certain street within the corporate limits of the City of Ann Arbor; and hereinafter particularly described; due notice of the hearing of such petition having been given and this day having been assigned for the hearing thereof, and all persons interested therein having been heard, and it appearing to this Common Council that such proposed street and the establishment thereof is a necessary public improvement, therefore be it

Resolved, and it is hereby ordered that a public street or highway be laid out, established and opened within the limits of the City of Ann Arbor and as a continuation of E. Catherine street in said city between N. Division street and N. State street, and more particularly described as follows: That is to say, commencing at a point in the east line of N. Division street in said City of Ann Arbor at the southwest corner of the lands of the Episcopal Church Society and running thence easterly along the south boundary line of the said church property and on such line projected easterly to the west line of N. State street; thence south forty-five feet; thence westerly and parallel with the first line to N. Division street; thence north along N. Division street forty-five feet to the place of beginning.

Ald. Hamilton moved as a substitute that the subject of opening up Catherine street be laid over until next session.

Adopted as follows:

Yeas—Ald. Hamilton, Richards, Spathoff, Coon, Howell—5.
Nays—Ald. Koch, Dieterle, Sweet, Exinger, Vandawarker, Brown, Cady, Stevens, Pres. Luick—9.

Whereupon the original motion was adopted as follows:

Yeas—Ald. Hamilton, Richards, Koch, Dieterle, Sweet, Exinger, Vandawarker, Brown, Spathoff, Coon, Cady, Pres. Luick—11.
Nays—Ald. Howell, Stevens—2.

On motion the Council adjourned.
GLEN V. MILLS, City Clerk.

A PECULIAR REMEDY.

Something About the New Discovery for Curing Dyspepsia.

The Rev. F. L. Bell, a highly esteemed minister residing in westport, Cayuga Co., N. Y. In a recent letter writes as follows: "There has never been anything that I have taken that has relieved the Dyspepsia from which I have suffered for ten years except the new remedy called Sturt's Dyspepsia Tablets. Since taking them I have had no distress at all after eating and again after long years CAN SLEEP WELL. Rev. F. L. Bell, Westport, N. Y., formerly, Idalia, Colo.

Sturt's Dyspepsia Tablets is a remarkable remedy, not only because it seems to act as well in old chronic cases of dyspepsia as though in mild attacks of indigestion or biliousness. A person has dyspepsia simply because the stomach is over worked. All it wants is a harmless, vegetable remedy to digest the food and thus give it the much needed rest.

This is the secret of the success of this peculiar remedy. No matter how weak or how much disordered the digestion may be, Sturt's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food whether the stomach works or not. New life and energy is given not only to the stomach but to every organ and nerve in the body. A trial of this splendid medicine will convince the most skeptical that Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles can be cured. The tablets are prepared by the F. A. Sturt Co., of Marshal, but so popular has the remedy become that Sturt's Dyspepsia Tablets can now be obtained at any drug store at 50 cents per package. Send for book on stomach diseases free.

PARSNIP COMPLEXION.

It does not require an expert to detect the sufferer from kidney trouble. The hollow cheeks, the sunken eyes, the dark, puffy circles under the eyes, the sallow barsnip-colored complexion indicate it.

A physician would ask if you had rheumatism, a dull pain or ache in the back or over the hips, stomach trouble, desire to urinate often, or if burning or scalding in passing it; if after passing there is an unsatisfied feeling as if it must be at once repeated, or if the urine has a brick dust deposit or strong odor.

When these symptoms are present, no time should be lost in removing the cause.

Delay may lead to gravel, catarrh of the bladder, inflammation, causing stoppage, and sometimes requiring the drawing of the urine with instruments, or may run into Bright's Disease, the most dangerous stage of kidney trouble. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great discovery of the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, is its reputation is worldwide and it is so easy to get at any drug store that no one need suffer any length of time for want of it.

However, if you prefer to first test its wonderful merits, mention (Insert the full name of your paper) and write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle and book telling all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.

Michigan Woman's Experience.

Foa years I suffered from a severe stomach trouble and did not get permanent relief. I could not eat anything without distress in my stomach, and could not do any work. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and it cured my stomach trouble and now I can do my own work Mrs. J. Woodrow, Olivet, Mich.

Morrow's Kid-Ne-Oids Produce Natural Sleep.

Many persons write us that they can sleep like a babe since complete rest of the nerves has been restored to them by the use of Morrow's Kid-Ne-Oids.

Natural sleep gives new life and Morrow's Kid-Ne-Oids produce natural sleep by acting directly on the kidneys and nerves by giving them natural action. Morrow's Kid-Ne-Oids are not nerve dullers but nerve strengtheners and produce natural results. We give you home evidence for all we say. Have you noticed what your city people have to say in the city papers about the good Morrow's Kid-Ne-Oids are doing here in Ann Arbor? We ask you to read the following from Mrs. Jason Rogers, 704 S. Main St., who says: "I have suffered a great deal for two years past with a disordered condition of the kidneys. Some of the worst symptoms were a severe backache, nervousness and sleeplessness. I was induced some time ago to try Morrow's Kid-Ne-Oids and procured the preparation at A. E. Mummy's drug store.

"I was more than pleased to find decided relief inside of two days time, and the backache is now gone, my nervous system is much strengthened and I can sleep splendidly.

"Appreciating the great relief afforded me by Morrow's Kid-Ne-Oids, I most cheerfully recommend this preparation to all afflicted as I was."

To confirm the statement of Mrs. Rogers we want you to ask her about Morrow's Kid-Ne-Oids. She is a grateful woman and will be glad to tell you personally how much she was benefited by their use. Morrow's Kid-Ne-Oids are all kinds of kidney disorders, backache, nervousness, etc. They are for sale by all first class druggists at 50 cents a box. John Morrow & Co., Chemists, Springfield, Ohio.

AROUND BEAUTIFUL ANN ARBOR

DESCRIPTION OF PLEASANT WALKS AND DRIVES ABOUT ANN ARBOR.

BY NOAH W. CREEVER. DRIVE "C."

Start at the southeast corner of Forest Hill Cemetery on Geddes avenue, from this point go east, and for about eighty rods there is a fine view to the left, of the Huron Valley, including Cedar Bend avenue or Boulevard and the fine scenery on the north side of the Huron river. The banks on each side of the Huron river rise here to about a height of two hundred feet above the level of the river, and their uneven surfaces present an interesting and pleasant view of fields, forests and farm houses. This road passes through the fine peach orchards of the Huron hills on both sides of the river for several miles each side of Ann Arbor. The small fruit farms are numerous and well cultivated. About a mile and a quarter from the cemetery going east is the residence of Dr. Nichols and Mr. Woodruff, the road makes a short turn to the left and goes down a rather steep hill. It is well to notice the fine view down the river just after you make this turn to the left. You have a fine view of the river, Geddesburg dam and the hills and valleys covered with beautiful farms and fine forests. After making the turn, you pass down the hill, cross the Michigan Central railroad and on to the bridge over the Huron river. It is well to stop awhile on this bridge as the scenery is fine both above and below. The river is lined with fine elms and willows and presents a very pretty view. After crossing the bridge, you go about a quarter of a mile to the main road running east and west on the north side of the Huron river; turn here to the right and go east about a mile, then take the first road to the left next to the Botsford farm. On this road you will pass a small country cemetery on the top of the hill and along a very interesting road with timber and bushes on both sides coming up to the track. Go on this road about a mile north and then turn to the left on the first road crossing this road and go west towards Ann Arbor. This is one of the most interesting of the country roads about our city, if you have a reliable team and a good driver. There are two very steep hills on this road before you reach the River road. The track of the road is quite narrow between the high ground in places that might make it difficult to pass teams, but I think one could get through without much difficulty as there is not a large amount of travel on this road. The scenery for two miles is among the finest that I have ever seen. You strike the River road near the old McMaster farm, then pass along to the south end of Cedar Bend avenue or Boulevard near the Huron river. You can then pass over the Boulevard if you have time and return to the city on Broadway, Lower Town, or you can keep on the River road, cross the Huron at the bridge near the south end of the Boulevard and come into the city on Fuller street to State street then up State street to the city.

There can be two modifications of Drive "C" made that will prove pleasant and interesting. Instead of crossing the river at the foot of the hill near Dr. Nichols and Mr. Woodruff's places, you can turn to the right at the foot of the hill and go along the Michigan Central to Geddesburg, then cross the Huron river on the bridge there and return to Ann Arbor by the north river road. This drive is about seven miles. There is another change that can be made in this drive. After crossing the bridge at the foot of the hill near Dr. Nichols and Mr. Woodruff's, when you reach the north river road you can turn to the left and return to Ann Arbor on this road which is very pleasant

Are You Easily Tired?

Just remember that all your strength must come from your food. Did you ever think of that? Perhaps your muscles need more strength, or your nerves; or perhaps your stomach is weak and cannot digest what you eat. If you need more strength then take indeed, and make a shorter drive. This drive is about five miles.

There is another modification of this road, if one wishes to take a long drive, that can be readily made. After you turn from the north river road north at Mr. Botsford, instead of turning to the left on the first road that crosses this you can keep on north about a mile further and strike the Ann Arbor and Dixboro road, then turn to the left and come into Ann Arbor on this road, which is Broadway extended northeast. This last modification will give a drive of about nine miles.

DRIVE "D."

If one wishes to see fine country scenery including beautiful farms, he can take the following route. Start anywhere on State street, go directly south on State street and the road connecting with it, about four miles until you reach the celery farm and the south boundary of the farm of John F. Lawrence, then go east one mile, then north until you strike the stone school house or the South Ypsilanti road and the street car line, then return on the South Ypsilanti road to the city. This drive is about eight miles.

DRIVE "E."

This is a long drive and one of the best of the long drives about Ann Arbor. Start at Mr. Beal's printing office on Main street, go north across the Huron river on the Whitmore Lake road up the hill about two miles from the river. Turn on the first road turning to the left, keep on this road which is a bending road, usually called the Boyden road, bending gradually to the north until you come to the Boyden farm. At the top of the hill north of the Huron river you pass the James C. Allen farm of several hundred acres lately purchased by Mr. Towar, of Detroit, who is extensively engaged in the milk business. This farm is to be made a stock farm for the purpose of supplying the Detroit market with milk. The scenery on the Whitmore Lake road across the river and upon the high ground to the north is fine. After turning to the left between the Whitmore Lake road and Boyden's farm, you will pass through one of the finest farming sections of Washtenaw county. If one has time, the Boyden farm will repay a visit. It consists of about six hundred acres, the buildings are large and well equipped for all farm purposes and the stock kept by Mr. Boyden is of the best quality. After passing Mr. Boyden's residence, take the first road to the right, north, going about three-quarters of a mile, then the first road to the left, a short distance, then the first road to the right, a short distance, then the first road to the left and go about a mile until you reach the Webster Congregational church. Take the road passing in front of the church turning to the left, go about a mile south and take the first road to the left, a somewhat crooked road. Go about a half a mile and take the first road to the right and go about a mile to Delhi village. Cross the bridge at Delhi Village for the purpose of seeing the dam, which, especially in the winter time, with its small islands below and ice formations is very beautiful. But do not take that road back to Ann Arbor. After you have crossed the bridge and have seen the dam, return again to the north side of the river and take the first road near the old flour mill going down the river. This is a beautiful river road. Keep on this road about a half or three-quarters of a mile until you come to the first bridge crossing the Huron river. Cross this bridge, follow the river along the south side of the river along by the Osborne Flour Mill, which extends over the road, then on across the Michigan Central railroad until you come to a creek and a blacksmith's shop when you turn square to the south and go about a half a mile through some woods and ascending ground until you come to the Miller avenue or Delhi road. This is the second road going to the left or east, after you have crossed the Michigan Central railroad, and is located on top of high ground after passing through a strip of woods. Keep on this road and it will bring you into Ann Arbor on Miller avenue and to your starting point at Mr. Beal's printing office. This drive is about fifteen miles.

There are some modifications of this drive. When you are at Mr. Boyden's farm, you can save about three miles by going right on west instead of going around by the Webster church, and then return from Delhi the same road as indicated above. This drive is about nine miles.

A still shorter drive may be taken. Leave the so-called Boyden road a little over two miles from the Whitmore Lake road, on the second road, turning to the left and go south until you reach the Osborne Mills. From this point you reach Ann Arbor on the same road as described above. This drive is about nine miles.

A still shorter drive may be taken by leaving the Boyden road on the first road to the left, going south until you reach the Cornwell paper mill or Foster's station, then cross the river and the Michigan Central railroad, take the first to the left and follow it until you strike Miller Ave. which is in sight of Ann Arbor, and return to Ann Arbor on Miller avenue. This drive is about seven miles.

Escaped Death.

Unusual Experience Granted Le Roy Bowen—Given up to Die by Four Doctors Because of a Serious Complication of Diseases—How He Saved Himself.

From the Enterprise, Mapleton, Minn.

Four doctors death after being given up by four doctors, and bidden good-bye to family and friends. Is an experience not granted every man. Yet it happened to Mr. Le Roy Bowen, of Decoria township, Blue Earth Co., Minn.

Mr. Bowen is a farmer, but formerly resided in Mapleton, where he was clerk and city marshal for a number of years. He is a well-known member of the Masonic fraternity and is of sterling honesty and upright character.

His story is of the greatest interest. He said: "I was suddenly taken sick in the spring of 1895. The doctor was summoned. He pronounced my case one of gravel and said the pain was caused by the passage of a stone from the kidneys to the bladder. I doctored with him for three months, but was not benefited. One day I would have a bad spell of two or three days duration, during which I suffered untold agony.

"Finally I went to Mankato and consulted a specialist. He stated that I did not have gravel, but thought it was rheumatism of the stomach. I continued to visit him until the end of August. Then I became completely bedridden and sent for another doctor. He called my complaint inflammation of the bowels and treated me for that.

"The doctor laid my case before the faculty of Rush Medical College, Chicago, and it was decided that I had neuralgia of the stomach. I was treated for that until December, but continued to grow worse. Then the doctor said, 'I can't do you any good. All the help I know for you is an operation.' 'Very well,' I replied, 'go on and operate, if that is left for me.' 'The appointed time came; the four doctors present examined me for two hours, then they retired and consulted me for the same length of time. They concluded that they did not know what ailed me. The head physician asked permission to 'cut,' as he placed it, 'and find out.' I asked how big a place he wanted to cut. He said 'he thought four inches far enough.' I did not want any such huge-and-seek game played with me, so the operation did not occur. I continued under the doctor's care, but my case was considered hopeless. I made my will, balanced my accounts and made every preparation for death.

"Day after day was passed in intense agony. As a last resort I told my hired man to get a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I had read considerable about them and thought I would try them. Immediately after beginning the use of these pills I commenced to feel better and in two weeks I was out of bed and around, thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

I hereby certify the above statement is true, to the best of my knowledge and belief. LE ROY BOWEN. Witnesses: J. A. Biddison, Mrs. Le Roy Bowen. Mr. Bowen's post office address is Beauford, Minn. He will gladly answer any inquiries to those enclosing stamp for reply. It was nature's own remedy that accomplished this cure caused by impure blood for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People composed of vegetable remedies that exercise a powerful influence in purifying and enriching the blood. Many diseases long supposed to be incurable have succumbed to the potent influence of these pills. This universal remedy is sold by all druggists.

THE NEW SHOE FOR WOMEN... SOROSIS

Many women have no idea how cruel shoes can be made.

They cover the feet to be sure, but what else do they do? Are all the pedal discomforts and distortions natural to the feet? In every instance they are caused by poorly constructed and ill fitting shoes.

Why do women wear 3s and 4s at twenty, and 5s or 6s at thirty?

Because the feet have been improperly trained. The shoes have pinched and bruised the joints causing permanent enlargement and in many instances allowed the instep to drop and the foot to lose that arch, which is so attractive.

Full official report of the proceedings of the last regular meeting of the council will be found in this issue.

Thursday afternoon at about half past four o'clock every building on the campus was thrown into darkness by the electric lights going out. The cause was found to be in the fact that the fuses in the main circuit had burned out. The machines were carrying a load of about 700 amperes, 100 more than their rated capacity, and the strain was extremely great. By a quarter past five the cause of the trouble was discovered and corrected. The sudden plunge into darkness was felt by the greatest number of people in the libraries and the gymnasium.—Times.
