WHOLE NO. 1263

FREEMAN'S APPOINTMENT FAULTS.

VOTE IS AGAINST JUDSON RATHER THAN FREEMAN.

People Do Not Want Judson to be Warden and the Senate Acted Accordingly.

LANSING, Mich., March 2.—Interest in the senate today was chiefly centered in the confirmation of the bunch of state appointees sent in some time ago by Governor Pingree, and especially in the confirmation of A. F. Freeman, of Mauchester, named by the governor as a member of the Jackson prison board, this being the appointment that is understood to mean the letting out of Warden Chamberlain and the appointment of "Bill" Judson, of Washtenaw, to succeed him. Freeman was turned down in executive session yesterday afternoon by a vote of 18 to 11.

Senator Loomis, of Grand Rapids, who is regarded as the governor's right bower in the senate, executed a complete flop on this nomination. He was at the prison last night and had a long talk with Warden Chamberlain, and when he returned to Lansing he told Freeman frankly that he could no longer support him—that he thought that as between the two men, Chamberlain and Judson, the best interests of the state and the prison would be served by retaining Chamberlain. The vote on this confirmation stood as follows:

To confirm Freeman—Baker, Giddings, Helme, Leidlein, McGraw, Monaghan, Sayre, Sheldon, Stoll, Wagner, Ward—11.

Against Freeman—Atwood, Blakeslee, Brown, Collingwood, Davis, Graham, Humphrey, Latimer, McMillen, Maitland, Milliken, Moore, Perren, Potter, A. G. Smith, Charles Smith, Wagner, Loomis—18.

Senator Flood was absent when Freeman's name was being considered, but stated that he should have voted to confirm Freeman.

It is asserted that Gov. Pingree will send in no nomination in place of Freeman, but will wait till the close of the present legislative session and then appoint Freeman, when his appointment may take effect without interference by the senators. By means of such a move it is hoped that Judson may be landed.

A DELAYED LETTER.

An Interesting Letter From Fred Dodsley, a Member of Co. A.

AMARO, CUBA, Feb. 9, 1899.

Co. A came to this place as the advance guard of the regiment. Amaro is but a name. A solitary resident—guardian of the ruins—remains after the destruction of the town two years ago, when it had a population of 800 souls. Weyler himself carried the place and surrounding district. It was once a country place where the soldiers of Havana came to enjoy the baths. Of these five remain intact, the only structures preserved. One of them is a small but pretentious brick affair with a porcelain basin and reminds one of a condensed edition of a Roman bath. All of them have been cleaned for the use of the coming troops.

We are now in the hill country and but a little way from the haunts of bands of Cubans which, as yet, have refused to give up their arms. The wily Gomez, whose attitude towards Americans and their policy to be inaugurated here, is not fully understood, even at Washington, is not far away. He formerly used the range of hills on our left as a base upon which to conduct his operations through the province. Every precaution is taken to guard against any hostile move on the part of these irresponsible, marauding bands. No move, however insignificant, is made by the troops without finding one or more of these fellows following it on their little ponies reconnoitering at a distance. They are a sullen, uneasy, dissatisfied lot, and plainly consider the U. S. forces as interlopers. They fail to realize that our troops were the prime factors in causing the Spanish withdrawal from the island, and attributes it to their own prowess, and cannot appreciate our intent in this temporary occupation. Of course I refer to the Cubans of these hill provinces who feel they have a special grievance in that they have not

BUSINESS MEN MEET.

The Business Men's Association Revived—Can Do Great Good.

The "Ann Arbor Business Men's Association" was infused with new life last Thursday night and the result is that an organization was effected that will mean a great deal to its members, and if the present enthusiasm is kept up an inestimable amount of good can come to Ann Arbor in general. What Ann Arbor needs to do is to have the same kind of an organization and work on the same lines as Ypsilanti—all pull together—and when anything is to be done it can easily be accomplished.

There were about 48 business men present when the president, Sedgwick Dean, called the meeting to order, and the preponderance of young men was plainly noticeable. About a dozen more came in during the evening.

Glen V. Mills got his old job of being secretary in the absence of S. A. Moran.

The constitution was then read by the secretary. Said President Dean: "Now the first thing for you gentlemen to do is to step up here and sign the constitution, and then if you do not like it you can vote to change it." There were about 25 men who subscribed their names to the book, the old members being still considered as belonging to the new organization.

The matter of electing a new set of officers then arose. E. F. Mills thought there should be a larger representation of business men present when officers were elected. President said that a notice was given at the meeting Monday night and a further notice had been published in the papers, and it was doubtful if there could be a larger number brought out. G. Frank Allmendinger said that the meeting last night was a larger one than he had ever seen at the old association, when there was a hundred members in the association. Fred Lamb, formerly of Ypsilanti, told of the Business Men's association of that city. He said that it had been in existence for seven years now, and every business man in Ypsilanti—cobblers and harnessmakers as well as dry goods merchants and grocers—belonged to it. The association had succeeded in killing off the dead beat class. He promised that some of the prominent men of the Ypsilanti association would be present next Wednesday evening to give the Ann Arbor men the benefit of their seven years' experience.

The association then proceeded to elect the following officers by acclamation:

President—H. J. Brown.
Vice-president—Walter Mack.
Corresponding Secretary—E. F. Mills.
Recording Secretary—Glen V. Mills.
Treasurer—Dean Seabolt.
Director (until July 1, 1899)—Charles Wagner.
Director (until July 1, 1900)—S. W. Burchfield.
Director (until July 1, 1901)—Ottmar Eberbach.
Director (until July 1, 1902)—Fred Lamb.

A. J. Brown, G. Frank Allmendinger and Fred Lamb were appointed a committee on revision of the constitution and by-laws.

The meeting then adjourned until last evening.

Y. W. C. A.

The Annual meeting of the Association will occur Monday evening, March 13th at 7:30. Seven new directors are to be elected to fill vacancies caused by the expiration of term of office of Mrs. Crippen, Misses Crippen, Sager, Roy, Haley, Markham, and Sterrett. The officers will be elected later by the board from the Board, according to the new Constitution adopted last spring.

COMING TO THE FRONT

ARE CANDIDATES FOR CITY OFFICES.

Republicans Have About Two Candidates to the Democrats One.

In about two weeks the city elections to nominate candidates for city offices will be held. There seems to be an unusual scrambling for the nominations this year, which goes to show that both of the leading parties think they have a sure thing. As far as can be ascertained thus far, the following are either aspirants or their names have been mentioned for the offices given below.

MAYOR.
Republican—O. E. Butterfield, Bert

Schumacher, Will Reinhardt, Chas. E. Hancock, H. G. Prettyman, E. F. Mills, Ottmar Eberbach.

ELECTRIC ROAD FAD.
The latest fad in Ann Arbor is electric roads.

REMOVAL.

Please note that THE REGISTER office has been removed from 216 East Huron to 125 North Main st., Opera House Block, where it has quarters with The Evening Times and where for the future it will be pleased to meet its friends and do business with them. In a few days we shall be entirely settled and our job department greatly improved. We ask our friends and patrons to bear in mind our change of location and give us a fair share of their advertising and job work.

The citizens' committee which is looking after the subscription for the Saline road now find that there is a strong sentiment of continuing the road on to Adrian, and if this is done Ann Arbor will be connected with Saline, Mason, Tecumseh and the seat of the Page Fence, Industrial school and Willard Stearns' paper.

It would open up a resourceful country, and not only bring a great amount of trade but it would make Ann Arbor the great electric road center of Michigan.

With Lansing on the north, Detroit on the east, Adrian on the south and Jackson on the west, together with all the intermediate points, Ann Arbor would be the center of four large and important electric roads.

The Detroit road is already completed the contract for the Lansing road has already been let; the franchises for the Jackson road have been secured; and now there is a movement on foot to start and get the rights and privileges for the adrian road.

CO. A. CHANGES LOCATION.

Correspondent Lear sends the following to the Evening News from Cuba: An order has been received from Gen. Bates sending one company of the 31st Michigan to Placetas to guard the property there. Co. A. of Ann Arbor, under command of Capt. Ross Granger, was selected as the company to go, and I will leave here for its new camp in the course of a few days. The company will take with it fifteen 14x14 tents, two wagons, medical, ordinance, commissary and quartermaster supplies, Dr. Chas. Farmer, a contract surgeon from Louisville, Ky., and several hospital corps men, will go with the company to look after the sick.

Placetas is a town of about 10,000 inhabitants, and located in the mountains about 70 miles from here and 15 miles from Santa Clara city. It is said to be a very healthy city, and the Ann Arbor boys will no doubt like the change from this lonesome spot. This makes the second detachment to leave the regiment for detached service in Santa Clara province.

NEW SOUSA MARCH.

The announcement of a new march by John Phillip Sousa, the "March King", interests more people throughout the world than any other piece of musical news that could be promulgated in the public prints. Sousa writes but one march a year, but its publication is an event of importance throughout the world. Every military band in the United States, and there are many thousands of them, and every military band of any importance elsewhere in the universe, buys the new march. So does every theater and dance orchestra and the piano copies of the new composition have a sale that runs quickly into the hundreds of thousands. Every devotee of the two step demands the new Sousa march and the phonograph, hand organ and music box manufacturers are always on the alert for new Sousa music. The Sousa march for this season is called "The Charlatan" and is the feature of the new opera of the same name now being played by De Wolf Hopper. Of course Sousa will play it here when he brings his great band to this city for a concert early in their present long transcontinental tour. Apr. 8 Univ. Hall under Women's League.

may exist. It is the prescription of Dr. Hartman, President of the Surgical Hotel, Columbus, O., who gives personal attention, without charge, to a voluminous correspondence on the subject of catarrhal diseases.

WHAT CAUSES DEGENERACY?

This momentous question finds a ready answer in our manner of living our habits, and strange to say in what we drink.

The human race, unfortunately, are victims of narcotics taken in the shape of coffee.

Children early acquire the coffee habit and before reaching maturity are afflicted with dyspepsia, biliousness, liver trouble and even heart failure.

"What shall we drink if not coffee?" The answer will one day make "the nation glad."

PARSNIP COMPLEXION.

It does not require an expert to detect the sufferer from kidney trouble. The hollow cheeks, the sunken eyes, the dark, puffy circles under the eyes, the sallow parsnip-colored complexion indicates it.

A physician would ask if you had rheumatism, a dull pain or ache in the back or over the hips, stomach trouble, desire to urinate often, or a burning or scalding in passing it; if after passing there is an unsatisfied feeling as if it must be at once repeated, or if the urine has a brick dust deposit or strong odor.

When these symptoms are present, no time should be lost in removing the cause. Delay may lead to gravel, catarrh of the bladder, inflammation, causing stoppage, and sometimes requiring the drawing of the urine with instruments or may run into Bright's Disease, the most dangerous stage of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great discovery of the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, is a positive remedy for such diseases. Its reputation is world-wide and it is so easy to get at any drug store that no one need suffer any length of time for want of it.

However, if you prefer to first test its wonderful merits, mention The Register and write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle and book telling all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.

DISCUSSING SUBJECTS OF INTEREST TO THE FAMILY OR THE INDIVIDUAL.

Unrecognized Missionaries. This topic was assigned me for a missionary meeting and I naturally began to think of the people in the church who are always ready for every good work, who have never received any official appointment; who without being on the Lookout Committee, or the Visiting Committee, are always busy calling on strangers, carrying delicacies to the sick, entertaining the revivalist or minister who is exchanging with the pastor; are always at the prayer-meeting, or the missionary meeting not merely as absorbers but with a hand ever outstretched to help with someone's burden; these are they who in the church might be called "unrecognized missionaries."

From these my thoughts wandered to the maiden aunts who are unrecognized missionaries in many homes. Ever ready to supplement the efforts of the weary mother, to supply all deficiencies, they "brew and bake and mend and make;" they hunt for missing caps and books; untie troublesome knots; tie up cut fingers; tell fairy stories to never tiring little ears; take the children out walking; stay with them while the mother takes an outing.

It is not a far step from these to the recognition of the world's greatest, though most unrecognized, missionary, the child. The household is transformed by his coming. Everyone moves, speaks gently, thinks lovingly. The sight of his tiny face brings to the heart a warmth of tenderness unrecognized before and that love overflows and embraces the world.

"He is God's pledge of Infinite potentiality." The promise that his power is unending and renewed over and over again. He sends the child as this pledge that the race shall have continued opportunity, so the child is a missionary, i. e. one sent.

Every child begins his mission-work with his first breath. Helpless, unseeing, unhearing, unnoting, he teaches the most profound lesson of love. Through his unembarrassed ignorance the child teaches. We thought we were wise, but a pair of questioning cold-eyes look into our face and the query, "What is that for?" "What makes that?" makes us realize that our boasted wisdom was a sham.

We think we teach the child but he is a greater teacher than we are. We pump statements of facts into him, he pumps statements of ignorance out of us, until, in very self-abasement, we hasten to supply our selves with stores of truth from which he can draw the knowledge he so eagerly seeks.

He teaches us by his imitiveness. We did not know we were so ungraceful; that we spoke so ungrammatically or so rudely; that we had so much irritability of tone and manner, until we saw ourselves reflected in some little living mirror and were ashamed of what we saw.

His purity teaches us. Many a man who has not trimmed his speech to suit the ears of his wife, or the public, has silenced the oar of the vulgarity because he shrank from staining the purity of his little child.

No reformer, no philanthropist, no clergyman can preach so effectively for righteousness as does the child. Think how this world would degenerate if there were no children to act as missionaries. I have seen houses where adults lived by themselves, and they grew careless in manner, slipshod in speech, selfish in thought and deed, and I have said they are heathens and need the missionary efforts of a little child. And I have seen the transformation such a missionary has wrought. Politeness cultivated, words more carefully chosen, unselfish love manifested, the world's missionary has done his work. By his confidence in us the child teaches us to be true. He believes in us until we have taught him that we are unworthy and are humiliated before his reproachful glance.

SLAVERY IN THE SOUTH

After Forty Years of Bondage a Mississippi Man Has Just Regained His Freedom.

Sometimes we hear of slavery still existing in some out-of-the-way place in the South—rarely in a Southern city. A recent case in a town in Mississippi will create great surprise because it was white slavery. The pretty town of Maben, Miss., was the place where the dreadful bonds were broken. Dr. O. B. Cooke, of that city, has lately written the facts. He says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the finest medicine for any and all lung troubles I ever used in my life. It has cured me of a cough I have been suffering with for forty years." Think of it, forty years a slave to a cough. Then that all-powerful emancipator, Dr. King's New Discovery, shattered his bonds and made him free.

'Twas in those palmy days of yore that Billy Judson's hope to be the prison warden was inspired by Pingree dope.

He dreamed by day and dreamed by night of money he would make, and of the proud position that in party ranks he'd take.

And then there came the crashing blow that nearly broke his heart—the senate, caring naught for Ping, sat on him from the start.

Now Billy's learned the lesson sad—no more will favors bring—it ain't like what it used to was, to be a friend of Ping.

DOINGS OF CONGRESS.

The President has signed bills passed by congress as follows: Authorizing Admiral Selfridge and other officers of the United States navy to accept medals presented to them by the Russian government; creating the Mount Ranier national park in the state of Washington; the navy personnel bill; also bills authorizing the construction of public buildings at Norwich, Conn.; St. Cloud, Minn.; Salem, Ore.; Anniston, Ala.; Annapolis, Md.; Janesville, Wis.; Eau Claire, Wis.; Oskaloosa, Ia.; Creston, Ia.; Streator, Ill.; Columbus, Ga.; Rome, N. Y.; Leadville, Colo.; Newport, Vt.; New Iberia, La.; Carrollton, Ky.; Freeport, Ill.; Winston, N. C., and enlarging public building at Macon, Ga.

The President has approved the following bills: For the investigation of leprosy in the United States; for the purchase of sites for public building at Hastings and Norfolk, Neb.; Butte City, Mont.; Joplin, Mo.; Seattle, Wash., Oakland, Cal.; Beaumont, Tex.; Abilene, Tex.; Salt Lake City, Utah; Fergus Falls, Minn.; Blair, Neb.; Elgin, Ill.; Jackson, Miss.; Menominee, Mich.; increase cost at Omaha, Neb.; addition to building at Canton, O.; Dubuque, Ia.; Hot Springs, Ark.; Kansas City, Kas.; Monmouth, Ill.; Joliet, Ill.; Minneapolis, Minn.; additional property for use of postoffice at Clinton, Ia.; also an appropriation of $20,000,000 to carry out provision of peace treaty with Spain.

In the senate three or more of minor bills were passed, the calendar being cleared entirely of private pension bills and of measures correcting military and naval records. Two measures of national importance were passed, the fortifications appropriation bill and the bill providing a code of criminal laws for the district of Alaska. A provision for the high licensing of liquor traffic in the latter measure was defeated by a decisive vote.

The senate is rapidly clearing its desks for final adjournment. The naval appropriation bill, which ordinarily consumes the time of the senate for several days, was passed after less than five hours' debate. One important amendment was made to the bill making a reduction of the amount agreed upon by the house to be paid for armor plate $300 per ton, or $145 less than the amount fixed by the house, and in the event armor plate manufacturers refused to sell at that figure, to proceed to the construction of an armor factory at a cost of $1,500,000, and placing in the secretary's control $2,000,000 with which to operate the government plant.

In the house the senate bill, carrying $1,000,000 for a new building for the department of justice, was passed and two public building bills attached by the senate to bills for public buildings in other cities were agreed to, one appropriating $250,000 for a building at Los Angeles, Cal., and the other $75,000 for a building at New Brighton, Pa.

The amendment which Senator Hansbrough offered to the army reorganization bill and which became a part of that measure, prohibiting officers or soldiers from selling intoxicating drinks, in any post or exchange, was more far reaching than first appeared. It goes further and prohibits any other person from selling such liquors in any encampment or any place used for military purposes. This will exclude liquors from all military reservations.

The closing day of the 55th congress was characterized by excitement, confusion and disagreements in both the house and senate. However, the army appropriation bill was agreed to and passed, and this and the rivers and harbors bill have gone to the President, but the armor plate amendment hung up the naval appropriation measure.

The best estimates available place the aggregate of the appropriations of the 55th congress at $675,885,489. The naval nominations were confirmed by the senate without opposition. These are the promotions resulting from the naval personnel bill. It settles the Seley-Sampson controversy by making a rear admiral, with Schley two numbers in advance of Sampson. The house passed the bills giving Buffalo and Toledo appropriations to help along their proposed expositions. The bills carry $500,000 each. The nomination of Samuel J. Barrows to be librarian of congress has been reported unfavorable by the senate committee on library.

Nerves Destroyed By Catarrh. Nerves Restored By Pe-ru-na.

MR. ROBERT B. MANTELL, THE GREAT ROMANTIC ACTOR.

Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, O.: Dear Sir—The bottle of Pe-ru-na at hand. It is splendid and most invigorating; refreshing to the nerves and brain. It is one of the best tonics I have ever used.

Catarrh and Nervousness.

A nervous person nearly always has catarrh. Catarrh is one of the ways in which a depressed condition of the nervous system shows itself. Catarrhal people are soon made nervous. The relation between chronic catarrh and nervous debility is most intimate. Catarrh is chronic congestion of some mucous membrane. The nerves, which should guard the mucous membrane against congestion, are depressed and their functions partly destroyed.

ly through the nerves, invigorating the mucous circulation.

Mrs. C. C. Miller, of 134 1/2 South Fourth street, Columbus, O., writes: "For ten or fifteen years I have been subject to nervous dyspepsia. I would have spells of quivering in my stomach, with smothering feelings. I was suffering from what is called nervous prostration. My stomach felt bloated and I was constantly weak and trembling. I consulted several physicians, who treated me without doing me any good. I had almost given up in despair when I heard of Pe-ru-na. It was about six years ago that I first took Pe-ru-na. I found it an immediate relief to all my disagreeable symptoms. It is the only medicine that has ever been of any use to me." Dr. Hartman's latest book, entitled "Winter Catarrh," sent free. Modest Women

Modesty in women is no less a charm than beauty and wit. Is it any wonder that women afflicted with physical disorders peculiar to their sex shrink from personal examinations by male physicians? The weaknesses and irregularities of women may be recognized by certain unassuming symptoms. Backache, headache, bearing-down pains, irritability and extreme nervousness indicate derangement of the delicate female organism. Bradford's Female Regulator is the standard remedy for characteristic diseases of women. Sold by druggists at $1.00 per bottle. THE BRADFORD REGULATORS CO., Atlanta, Ga.
