Power Center

Curtain calls, flood lights and shining stars abound inside the Power Center for the Performing Arts. You'll experience nightly performances by great national and international stars such as Tammy Wynette, The Neville Brothers, Gordon Lightfoot and Betty Buckley up close and personal in an intimate theatre setting.

Approximately 20 performances take place in the 1,380 seat Power Center for the Performing Arts. The mainstage programming mix includes jazz, pop, blues, folk and country music, as well as dance, comedy, theatre and special family shows.

Also featured is at least one unique program that brings together extraordinary combinations of artists or cultural traditions. Workshops, master classes and a Youth Arts Program are also offered throughout the Festival.

As the Power Center celebrates its 25th anniversary, the Ann Arbor Summer Festival is proud to say the Power Center is our home.

Der Lindberghflug

Wednesday, July 2, 8pm
$21, $18, $15, $12

UNITED STATES PREMIERI

A French orchestra backing a French choir singing in German about an American! Sound intriguing? You bet! Based upon the 1930 opera by Bertolt Brecht and Kurt Weill, this powerful event commemorates the 70th anniversary of Lindbergh's first transatlantic flight. A wide variety of musical styles give voice to the aviator himself, the plane's engine, the temptation of sleep, the optimism of the American press, France's pessimism and finally the crowds gathered at the Le Bourget for Lindbergh's landing.

Tammy Wynette

Thursday, July 3, 8pm
$30, $27, $24, $21

The woman with the towering name and 30-year fame has confronted and conquered more heartaches than most while building a name she could hang a star from! Tammy Wynette, The First Lady of Country Music, performs hits from Stand by Your Man to Justified & Ancient to D-I-V-O-R-C-E. Although unequivocally a legend, today Tammy Wynette is ultimately at the peak of her capabilities as a singer and songwriter.

Capitol Steps

$21, $18, $15, $12

They're baaaack! It's another romping good time through the political scene with this group of ruthlessly funny real-life former congressional staffers. Thanks to the trials and tribulations, scandals and screw-ups of our elected officials, there is never a shortage of material. It's nonpartisan humor and political satire at its best!

Preservation Hall Jazz Band

Saturday, July 5, 8pm
$20, $17, $14, $11

The sweet-sad-gentle-exuberant music of the Preservation Hall Jazz Band came out of the turn-of-the-century street parades, saloons and river boats, but most of all it was born in the hearts of the people who worked and danced, laughed and cried. It's a Mardi Gras celebration with traditional New Orleans jazz.
