The October Magazines.

With the first frosts come the October magazines, a reminder that we are already on the year's "house stretch."

—Scribner's Monthly, fresh and brilliant, both in illustrations and text.

—The Geysers of California, by Benj. P. Avery, with six illustrations.

—The Old Van Pelt, by E. B. Coker, ten illustrations.

—Free Marriage, by Lulu Gray Noble; Paving Debits, by Charles Carroll; Central Park, by twenty-five illus.; Turkish Proverbs, by G. F. Herrick.

—An Episode of Fiddletown, by Bret Hart, concluded; Arthur Bonnicastle, by J. G. Holland, concluded, a story which in book form is one of the most popular of new books.

—A Day in the French Assembly, by Albert Rhodes; Modern Skepticism, III, by Augustus Blauevelt; and "Sicr George, by Geo. W. Cable. For poems we have: Racer-Rearing, by D. N. Besch; Music, by F. V. C.; A Song of the Soul, by Edward King; Hark! by Caroline R. Wilkinson; and, A Spiritual Song, from the German, by Geo. Macdonald.

The minor departments are well-filled and are not of minor interest. This number completes the sixth volume, and the whole are offered, neatly bound, for $15, delivered free. Much is promised for the coming year, commencing in November: the continuation of "The Great South," by Edward King; papers by Clarence Cook on "Furniture and Household Decoration"; "Kismet," by E. B. Coker, concluded; by Adeline Trotter, short stories, by Saxe Holm, Rebecca Harding Davis and Kate Puntall; Historical Sketches, "Annals of an English Abbey," by Froude; Critical Essays on the Victorian Poets, by Edward Clarence Steadman; and a series of poems by B. F. Taylor. Now is the time to subscribe, $4 a year. Address SCHENNER & Co., 654 Broadway, New York.

—With four full-page pictures and numerous others, less in size but not in merit, the Atlantic for October is an art-gallery in itself. "Nutting," by John S. Davis, carries one back to boyhood days. We have seen and been of such a group; "Elizabeth quiet," by Alex. Lawrie, is a lovely picture of a quiet and lovely vale on the Boquet, an Adirondack stream, with mountains looming up around; Holman Hunt has "The Eye of St. Agnes"; "Mr. Greaves," "The Haman Mansion," New York city; Van Elton a mid-summer view on Salmon Brook, Conn., beautiful as nature itself, as is "Falling Leaves," by J. McIntire; Benjamin Vautier has a fine portrait of Angelica Kaufmann, and, by space forbids to enumerate. The table of contents is varied and rich, in story, sketch, and editorial. We may name, Penelope's Veil, by Lucy Ellen Guernsey; Loss of the Oro Fino, by W. F. Young; The Lady of Belloguon, who was the infatuated friend of Mrs. Browning, by James J. Jarvis, &c. It is a wonder that such a monthly can be given—and with two beautiful premium chromos—for $5. JAMES SUTTON & Co., 58 Maiden Lane, N. Y.

—The Atlantic has: Mademoiselle Olympe Zaboriski, Chab's story in the best style, by T. B. Aldrich; The old Surpriser, a poem, by E. B. Coker; Thomas Jefferson's Last Years, the closing chapter in Jefferson's readable life of Jefferson; Solomon, by Constance Fenimore Woolson; Golden Dell, a poem, by Paul H. Haynes; Gunnar, a Norse Romance, by H. H. Boyesen; The American Pantheon, poem, by C. P. Cranch; Honest John Vane, by J. W. DeForest; Frances Wright, General Lafayette, and Mary Woodcock Shelley, another of the admirable autobiographical papers of Robert Dale Owen; The Germans in the West, by J. J. Lalor; Daniel Treadwell, Inventor, by Morrill Wyman; Some Objections to the Sea, by Charles Dawson Shaly; Our Population in 1,900, by Francis A. Walker; With notes on Literature, Art, Science and a "Political" article in which the Grangers come in for a notice. An annual number, $4 a year. JAS. R. OSGOOD & Co., Boston.

—The Eclectic Magazine has for a frontispiece a fine portrait of Marshal MacMahon, the President of the French Republic, which is accompanied by an interesting biographical sketch by the editor. It also gives the opening chapters of a new novel, "Spring Floods," by Ivan Turgeneff, the leading European novelist translated from the Russian especially for the Eclectic. The other most noticeable papers are: Living English Poets, Alexander Dumas; Man and Apes, by St. George Mirat; Montrose, by Peter Bayne; In the Vineyards; Wordsworth, by Sir John Coleridge; News from the Moon, On Beneficial Restrictions to Liberty of Marriage, and Rome and its Adversaries. $4 a year. E. B. PELLON, 108 Fulton street, N. Y.

—Godey's Lady's Book has a fine array of reasonable fashion plates, plain and colored, single page and extension, with working cuts and directions; a readable list of papers including another installment of Carrying Weight, by Marion Harland; Bessie's Wooing, by Paul Forbes; A Week's Rural Enjoyment, by T. H. F. Hallowsen at Farmdale, by S. Annie Frost; poetry, music household recipes, etc., making it a favorite in every household department. $4 a year. L. A. GODEY, Philadelphia.

—Your Young Folks is, as always, chock full of good things, the only limit being the number of pages between the covers. A Chance for Himself, by Trowbridge, is carried another stage, Jack, her getting out of and into trouble with equal facility. But why enumerate? the boys, and girls, too, will digest its pages without a list. $2 a year. J. R. OSGOOD & Co.

—In print and picture and story and verse, the Nursery maintains its well-earned reputation, and that is saying enough. A house with a four year old in and without the Nursery is a house in which the little one's don't have their rights. $1.50 a year. JOHN L. SMOLEY, Boston.

Ypsilanti has a new Steam Fire Engine—its first venture in that line—and naturally our neighbors, the Ypsilantians, are as proud of it as a boy of a new top. And they, Ypsilanti being of a generous disposition, chooses not to hide her light under a bushel, and therefore the Common Council, ye quill-driver for the AROUS—

—And we know not how few or many others were invited to go down on Wednesday afternoon and see the new engine.

—The steamer is the make of Clapp & Jones, of Hudson, New York, and has the Clapp Circulating Tubular Boiler. It is a very beautifully finished machine, and the boys in charge will need to be some labor to keep it as bright and shiny and charming as it is on Wednesday. The cost of the engine is $12,500; the boiler cost $2,500; 1,000 feet of New York test 4 1/2 inch hose, $1,400; a total of $5,000. On this sum, Clark Cornell & Co. volunteer to pay $1,000, leaving the city to provide for $4,000, which is to be done by the issue of 7 per cent bonds. The engine has 9 inch cylinder, 8 inch stroke, 10 inch suction, and is under contract to throw 100 feet of hose in 200 to 240 feet of hose, and 1 1/2 inch nozzle; 100 feet from 220 to 230 feet of hose and a 1 1/4 inch nozzle; and 180 feet of hose of 1000 feet of hose, which the committee of the Ypsilanti Council say has been done, and also that it threw, on Tuesday, 100 feet from 220 to 240 feet of hose.

What we saw was this: The engine standing still, steam was up and water started in 10 minutes from the time the match was lighted. It threw through 400 feet of hose and a 1 1/4 inch nozzle—about 150 feet as paced off by Ald. Lebold, most of the distance a solid stream. Water enough was thrown on the roof of the Hotel Mills to fill a large conductor beyond its capacity. A 1 1/8 inch nozzle was substituted with not much gain in distance. Then another 400 feet of hose and two streams through a less penitentially considerable above the Follett House. And at the end of the trial the machine reported itself not a bit tired, and the cistern was reported exhausted, 500 barrels of water having been thrown. It is to be run an hour with 100 pounds of coal.

The steamer has been christened the "Clark Cornell," and our neighbors may well feel proud of it. Given plenty of water, a good engineer, an efficient company, and they may also feel safe.

YPSILANTI ITEMS.

A trial of the new steam engine lately purchased by the city, was had on Monday last.

The engine is satisfactory in every respect.

The depositors in Ypsilanti banks showed no signs of distrust during the panic.

Both of our banks deserve and received the absolute confidence of our people.

The indications are that the Eastern Michigan Fair, to be held in this city, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of next week, will be a big thing. Entries are beginning to pour in already to a great extent.

The liquor suits, a large number of which are now pending, have ceased to attract the attention of more than those directly interested.

Two large cisterns, one on the southeast corner of Washington and Congress streets, and the other on the northeast corner of Washington and Ellis streets are being built for the use of the new engine.

Dr. Joseph Tripp, Health Physician of the city, has removed to Adrian. Albert Crane, City Attorney, is about to remove to Grand Rapids, to engage in the law practice there.

Thus the city loses the services of two valuable officers.

The County Fair.

The 25th annual Fair of the Washtenaw County Agricultural and Horticultural Society commenced on Wednesday, and yesterday the attendance was large with the weather favorable.

We learn that the show of cattle, horses, vegetables, and fruits is better than heretofore for some years, but that there is a slim show of agricultural implements and machinery and in Floral Hall. We go to press too early—Thursday afternoon—for a detailed notice. We shall visit the grounds to-day and make our notes for the next AROUS.

In a leading pulpit of the metropolitan city of the State, on a Sunday evening not long ago, while the newly appointed pastor was laboring to convince his hearers that the world was growing better, and that "things are not what they seem" or "surface convulsions indicate, some graceless scamp entered his study in the church, borrowed, appropriated and carried off—we refrain from using the unbecoming, unpopular, unrefined, and unbecoming word—his overcoat, and at our latest advices it had not been returned. And now it is proposed to hold a missionary meeting in that church: "A home missionary" meeting we suggested, but was pointedly requested to "keep quiet," and we will.

Notice.

The Annual Meeting of the Washtenaw Mutual Fire Insurance Company will be held at the Court House, in the city of Ann Arbor, on Saturday, Oct. 4, 1873, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the election of officers, and the transaction of such other business as may legally come before the meeting. A general attendance is earnestly requested, as business of importance to each member is expected to be acted upon.

N. SHELTON, Secretary.

Ann Arbor, Sept. 17, 1873.

Liniments for Horses.

Are always irritating and heating, operating upon the principle of counter irritation. Prof. "Anapain's" Dressing," on the contrary, is at once cooling and soothing. It seems to act chemically by dissolving as it were the inflammation and soreness, and dispersing all diseased action in a short time, restoring the part to soundness and health.

Beyond the Mississippi.

Thousands have already gone, and thousands more are turning their eyes towards new homes in the fertile West. To those going to Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Utah, Wyoming, Nevada, Oregon, or California, we recommend a cheap, safe, quick and direct route, via St. Louis, over the Missouri Pacific Railroad, which runs its fine Day Coaches and Pullman Sleepers from St. Louis to principal points in the West without change. We believe that the Missouri Pacific Railroad has the best track and the finest and most complete equipment of any line west of the Mississippi, and its routes to the West are prompt and reliable. The Texas connection of this road is now completed, and passengers are offered a first-class, all-rail route from St. Louis to Texas, either via the Missouri, Kansas & Texas R. R., via Sedalia, or over the Atlantic & Pacific R. R., via Ft. Smith. For maps, time tables, information as to routes, rates, &c., we refer our readers to L. G. Wheeler, Northern Passenger Agent, 22 Lloyd street, Buffalo, N. Y., or to A. J. Ford, General Passenger Agent, St. Louis, Mo. Questions will be cheerfully and promptly answered!

Emigration Turning! Cheap Farms in South-west Missouri!

The Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company offers 1,200,000 acres of land in Central and Southern Missouri, at from $2 to $12 per acre, on seven years' time, with free transportation from St. Louis to all railroads. Climate, soil, timber, mineral wealth, schools, churches and everything society invite emigrants from all points in this land of fruits and flowers. For particulars address A. Tuck, Land Commissioner, St. Louis, Missouri.

Thirty Years' Experience of an old Nurse.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the prescription of one of the best Female Physicians and Nurses in the United States, and has been used for thirty years with never failing success by millions of mothers and children.

It is a favorite in every household, and is the infant of one week old to the adult. It corrects acidity of the stomach, relieves colic, regulates the bowels, and gives rest, health and comfort to mother and child. We believe it to be the Best and Surest Remedy for all the above cases.

It is sold in all the principal cities of the United States, and is prepared by CURTIS & BROWN, 215 Fulton Street, New York.

Centaur Liniment.

There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling it will not subside, and no lameness which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. Where the parts are not gone, its effects are marvelous. It has produced more cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, lock-jaw, neuralgia, sprains, swellings, scalds, burns, salt-rheum, cramps, &c., upon the human frame, and of strains, sprains, galls, &c., upon animals in one year than have all other pretended remedies since the world began. Cripples throw away their crutches, the lame walk, poisonous bites are rendered harmless and the wounded are healed without a scar. It is no humbug. The recipe is published around each bottle. It is selling as an article over the face sold, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do. Those who now suffer from rheumatism, pain or swelling deserve to suffer if they will not use Centaur Liniment. More than 1,000 certificates of remarkable cures, including frozen limbs, chronic-rheumatism, gout, running tumors, &c., have been received. We will send a circular containing certificates, and each bottle, if it is willing to pay one cent over the face sold, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do.
