On Friday last week Ulrich Laubengayer, of Lodi, attempted suicide under the following circumstances: Officer Hoskins of this city went to arrest him on a warrant charging him with drunkenness and disorderly conduct (which terms, we believe, include abuse of his family). Finding his house locked he went to the farm-house, some three-fourths of a mile away, where his wife and family were, and a boy was sent with a key to unlock the door and let the officer in. Going in he found no signs of his man, though the boy said he saw him at the window as they drove up, and so calling to his assistance Mr. Wallace who was passing by, a thorough search up stairs and down, in bedrooms and closets, was instituted, and finally the concealed man was found by finding Laubengayer concealed in a small closet making the charge. Being told that he must come to Ann Arbor he consented and the officer went up stairs with him to get a change of clothing. Preceding the officer down stairs he stepped into a bedroom to make the change, and then for the first time asked what the charges were against him. The officer told him, when he said he would go, but must go up stairs again to get a clean shirt. He was allowed to go, but thinking that he might be allowed to escape, officer Hoskins immediately followed him, and as he came to the bedroom door Laubengayer was gashing his throat in a very vigorous manner with a razor. In an instant Hoskins grabbed his arm, when he declared "the work was done and that he didn't want to live any longer." The last gash started the blood and before aid could be secured—Hoskins being then alone—Hoskins got from the room, he bled several quarts, and was apparently beyond recovery. He objected to having a physician sent for, saying that he couldn't live fifteen minutes. His life was saved by officer Hoskins' promptness.

At the closing session of the State Dental Association on Thursday afternoon of last week the following officers were elected:

Dr. Thomas, to fill vacancy on the Board of Councilors.

A vote of thanks was also tendered to Dr. H. R. White, of this city, "for his very able, interesting, and instructive remarks in relation to his theory of practice and experience in the use of hypophosphites in aiding nature in arresting the destruction of the teeth."

—The next annual session is to be held at Ypsilanti, on the second Tuesday of October next.
—During the session on Tuesday—Dr. W. H. Jackson, of this city, read a paper on "Dental Hygiene," which was received with favor and discussed at considerable length.

—Messrs. Folk, Murphy & Co., are canvassing our city for the purpose of gathering the material for a City Directory, printing and publishing it. It contains a full list of business firms and private citizens, alphabetically arranged; a classified business directory, street directory, lists of county city and school officers, churches, &c. These gentlemen have issued satisfactory directories for Detroit, Grand Rapids, Bay City, and Jackson. Our citizens and business men should give them encouragement.

Scribner's Monthly—the first number of a new volume—has: Edward King's carefully and profusely illustrated story of Old New Orleans, in the Great South Series, remarkable for its calm and dispassionate statement of the actual state of affairs in New Orleans and Louisiana generally. Katherine Earle, by Adelaide Trafton (author of The American Girl Abroad), is run through the year; Earthen Pithers, by Rebecca Harding Davis, which will be concluded within three or four numbers; —The public temperance meeting which was to have been held at Good Templar's Hall, 20 Main street, Friday evening last, was unavoidably postponed, and will be held this (Friday) evening at 7 o'clock. All are invited to attend. Good speakers will be in attendance.

G. H. FRANCIS, W. C. T. U.
KITTY GARNER, Sec'y.

—RHEUMATISM.—Among many remarkable cures by Dr. Trask's Magnetic Ointment, I send on the following: I found my friend Deacon Barber, of this place, prostrate and helpless from a severe attack of Inflammatory Rheumatism. With his consent I made a thorough application of the ointment to the diseased parts, rubbing it on with my own hands. I used one bottle. The next morning he was able to come to the breakfast table, and said he felt like a new man—thought a good Providence had sent me there. Within a week he was perfectly well and at work on his farm.
J. E. KEELER, Wheatland, Mich.

It corrects acidity of the stomach, relieves wind colic, regulates the bowels, and gives rest, health and comfort to mother and child. We believe it to be the best and surest remedy in the world in all cases of DYSENTERY and DIARRHEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from Teething or from any other cause. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. Sold by all Druggists in the outside wrapper. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

—Beyond the Mississippi.—Thousands have already gone, and thousands more are turning their eyes towards new homes in the fertile West. To those going to Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Utah, Wyoming, Nevada, Oregon or California, we recommend a cheap, safe, quick and direct route, via St. Louis over the Missouri Pacific Railroad, which runs its fine Day Coaches and Pullman Sleepers from St. Louis to principal points in the West without change. We believe that the Missouri Pacific Railroad has the best track and the finest and safest equipment of any line west of the Mississippi, and connections with roads further West are prompt and reliable. The Texas connections of this road is not completed, and passengers are offered a first-class, all-rail route from St. Louis to Texas, either over the Missouri and Texas R. R., via Sedalia, or over the Atlantic and Pacific R. R., via Fort Worth. For maps, time tables, information as to rates, routes, &c., refer our readers to L. G. Wheeler, Northern Passenger Agent, 72 Lloyd street, Buffalo, N. Y., or A. A. Ford, General Passenger Agent, St. Louis, Mo. Quotations will be cheerfully and promptly answered!

—Emigration Turning! Cheap Farms in South-west Missouri!—The Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company offers 1,200,000 acres of land in Central and South-west Missouri, from $12 to $15 per acre, on seven years' time, with free transportation from St. Louis to all purchasers. Also other buildings, lots, and property.

—Centaur Liniment.
There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling it will not subside, and no lameness which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. Where the parts are not gone, its effects are marvelous. It has produced more cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, lock-jaw, palsy, sprains, swellings, caked-breasts, scalds, burns, salt-rheum, ear-ache, &c.; there are two more chapters of Hannah Colby's, upon the human frame, and of strains, spasms, galls, &c., upon animals in one year than have all other pretended remedies since the world began. Cripples throw away their crutches, the lame walk, poisonous bites are rendered harmless and the wounded are healed without a scar. It is no humbug. The recipe is published around each bottle. It is selling as no article ever before sold, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do. Those who now suffer from rheumatism, pain or swelling desire to suffer if they will not use Centaur Liniment. More than 1,000 certificates of remarkable cures, including frozen limbs, chronic-rheumatism, gout, swelling joints, &c., have been received. We will send a circular containing certificates, the recipe, &c., gratis, to any one requesting it. One bottle of the yellow paper Centaur Liniment is worth one hundred dollars for sprain or swelled horse or mule, or for screw-worm in sheep. Stock-owners—this liniment is worth your attention. No family should be without Centaur Liniment. Price 50 cts., large bottles $1. J. B. Rose & Co., 63 Broadway, New York.

—The Catholic World has: Spiritualism, Dante's Purgatorio, The Farm of Mucrono, Philosophical Terminology, Madame Agnes, Daniel O'Connell, Grapes and Thorns, The Cathedral of Chartres, The Sea of St. Francis of Sales, Catholic Literature in England since the Reformation, Catholic Young Men's Association, English Sketches, Lesser poems and poems. THE CATHOLIC PUBLICATION HOUSE, New York.

—The Nursery has a capital number, in print and picture, story and verse. Every page will hold the attention of the little 'uns of the family and instruct and amuse at the same time. J. L. SPOREY, 35 Broadway Street, Boston.

—While the Street Railway project "sleeps," we are glad to learn that Polhemus & Son have occupied a portion of the proposed route with an omnibus line. The omnibuses were put on yesterday, and run from near the residence of C. H. Miller, through Washington avenue, Orleans street, South University avenue, State and Huron streets to the Mineral Spring House, leaving the Mineral Spring House at 7 a. m., and every hour to 10 p. m., and Miller's point at 12 a. m. and every hour thereafter—the trip east being made through North University avenue.

—For a few weeks the Detroit Free Press has been plethoric in double sheets and supplements, evidencing a commendable determination to accommodate its advertisers without encroaching upon its news columns. Such liberality and enterprise is appreciated by its readers.

The new University Hall is to be dedicated—provided there is no change in the arrangement—on Tuesday evening, Nov. 5. President White, of Cornell, is to give the address of the evening. President Gilman, of the California University, is expected to be present, also many distinguished gentlemen from this and other States. It is also understood that Judge Campbell will provide the dedicatory ode. We hope to give the programs in full next week.

—The number of students registered in the Law and Medical Departments of the University up to Wednesday noon was: in the Law, 273; in the Medical, 285. These numbers are far less than at a corresponding date last year; owing, probably, to the financial crisis.

The lady whose sudden death is recorded in the following paragraph clipped from the Jackson Citizen of Tuesday, was well known to our citizens as Miss Mattie James, elder daughter of the late Enoch James, and had many friends in our city:

"Sunday morning this community was shocked to hear of the sudden demise of Mrs. Wiley H. Reynolds, at the residence on north Main street. At supper time on Saturday she was well and appeared in fine spirits, but in the evening she indulged in eating quite a quantity of nuts which produced excessive vomiting, and inflammation set in so rapidly that the utmost exertions of her physicians could not avert a fatal termination. At 4 o'clock yesterday morning she died. Her sudden death has cast a sad shadow over a large circle of friends and a house usually so replete with happiness and gaiety is in a few short hours turned into one of mourning."

Silas Farmer & Co., of Detroit, have placed us under obligation for a copy of their new edition of the State Map, thoroughly revised and brought down to latest dates. Compared with the very correct edition of 1871, it shows 62 additional townships, 193 additional villages, one new county, the changed boundaries of seven other counties; also several hundred miles of newly completed railroad with the new railroad stations. And all for $1.

If the premature cold weather has generated a desire in any of the Washenau county farmers to accept O'Grady's advice and "Go West" they are advised to call at the ARGUS office and get a descriptive circular of the lands of the Atchison, Topeka, & Santa Fe Railroad Company. This Co. holds some of the best lands in the most desirable sections of Kansas—those in the Arkansas valley being unexcelled—which it sells at low prices and on long time.

We invite attention to the prospectus of the New York Evening Post. The daily edition of the Post is just the paper for the family circle, as nothing appears in its columns which may not be read by any member, the details of shocking and disgusting crimes being excluded. The other editions are also favorites with literary and scholarly men. We say nothing of its politics—which are a little mixed.
