The tax-gatherer has raked in the money lively for a few days. Exercises at the several departments of the University will be resumed next Monday. Dave Henning found Chicago too slow and came to Ann Arbor to make New Year's calls. E. C. Soman, assistant of Miller & Webster, gives notice of an auction sale in another column.

Dr. C. A. Leiter, of the Gregory corner drug store, has put out his shingle as a practicing physician. New Year's callers were out in force yesterday; and enjoyed themselves to their fill, or our informant is mistaken.

Mrs. Lewitt has returned from California, and Dr. Lewitt has come to Texas (with T. F. Leonard), or so report says. The Sheriff reports that he commenced the year with half-a-dozen boarders. He entered on duty one year ago with an empty house.

The communication of "Citizen" in another column was a few days ago. Mr. Sagar but came to hand after our paper was out. At the late meeting of the Regents of the University, the degree of Master of Arts was voted to Alfred Hennique, Instructor in French.

Mrs. Gov. Felch and daughter—Mrs. Knight—left for the South on Wednesday of last week, expecting to join Dr. Sagar and wife at Atlanta.

Rev. G. D. Gillespie, of St. Andrew's Church, has been invited to assume the charge of Trinity Church, Bay City. His parish cannot afford to let him go.

Lots, youngest daughter of President Winchell, of Syracuse, (N. Y.) University, died at Berlin, Germany, a few days ago. She was a beautiful and lovely child.

Now is the winter of our discontent; and just because the ARGUS subscribers and advertisers are forgetting (or neglecting) to PAY UP. This means YOU if you are in arrears.

Cal Wagner's Minstrels—and what concert goes don't know all about Cal Wagner and his troupe—are posted for the Opera House on Thursday evening next, January 8. They will draw.

A very little snow fell on Wednesday evening last; just enough to dull the edge of the proverb, "A green Christmas makes a fat graveyard," and relieved the minds of the superstitious.

County Treasurer Fairchild, is going South for the benefit of his health, and will be absent some months. Geo. W. Moore, of this city, sits at the table of the money-changer during the Treasurer's absence.

A "police office," about 4x6, has been erected on State street (on the Mundy lot). We heard some "little knacks" discussing it yesterday, and one of them thought that the policeman would have to stand up to sleep.

Rev. Chas. W. Wood, of Chicago, preaching in the Unitarian church last Sunday morning and evening. His evening discourse, "A plea for Common Honesty,"—not the honesty that is common,—was excellent and timely.

A delegation came out from the Detroit Homeopathic College last Friday evening, with a memorial praying the Regents to take that institution under their wings. We guess at the contents, for the reason that the Board refrained to consider it in secret session; it was withdrawn without being read. But a resolution offered by Regent Estabrook adopting the child appropriating $1,500 toward its support sustains "our guess." The subject was tabled.

The session of the State Teachers' Association held in this city on Tuesday and Wednesday was largely attended, and we hear old teachers pronounce it the most successful session ever held. The exercises were conducted in accordance with the very full programme published by us last week (with slight variations), and the addresses, papers and discussions were spirited and practical. Official engagement, occupying full time and strength prohibited us from attending and has also prevented the preparation of an abstract of the proceedings. Another week we will endeavor to draw upon the dailies for the best points.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President—Prof. D. Putnam, Ypsilanti. Vice Presidents—Prof. Wellington, Detroit; U. H. Payne, Adrian; S. Montgomery, Battle Creek; O. B. Curtis, Muskegon; C. B. Thomas, Niles; J. Jones, Pontiac; O. D. Thompson, East Saginaw; Prof. Oviatt, Marquette; L. C. Miller, Lapeer.

Secretary—N. S. A. M. Catech, Ypsilanti. Treasurer—E. V. F. Brokaw, Lansing. Executive Committee—Prof. Olney, of Ann Arbor, and Prof. Tarbell, of East Saginaw. A resolution was adopted agreeing to go to Put-in-Bay to join with the Ohio teachers in their meeting to commence there on July 1, 1874. Prof. Putnam and Still were appointed a committee to make arrangements for going down and meeting with the Ohio teachers.

A correspondent writes us from Dundee, and suggests that we "blow our horn for a narrow gauge road until we get it," and expresses a belief that nine out of ten will be in favor of it. What say others interested? Our columns are open to a discussion of the subject. Meanwhile we hope that the directors will take the subject into consideration and inaugurate some method by which the views of the stockholders may be obtained. If means can be obtained to build a narrow gauge road we say let a narrow gauge road be built, and that immediately. Will not the directors sound the alarm as soon as the holidays are over?

Prof. McKnight is to bring out the Opera, "The Flower Queen," for which he has had a large number of children in gratuitous training for some three months, at the Opera House, commencing on Tuesday evening, January 13th, and continuing four evenings. Wherever Mr. McKnight has given his course of vocal lessons and has brought out this Opera, both he and it have been commended in the warmest language, which leads us to predict that a rare treat is in store for our people. Mr. McKnight certainly deserves a liberal patronage.

We gave the Argus to our readers last week in season of Christmas, but thinking it unbecomingly to play the same trick again, we have back seat this week, giving precedence to the New Year. And instead therefore, of wishing our readers the usual Happy New Year, we may express a wish that a year already happily commenced may be so continued until the end.

The annual statistics of the City of Milwaukee show a considerable increase in population, which is estimated at 104,000. The improvements in the way of building foot up $3,500,000; articles of manufacture, $27,000,000; losses by fire, $300,000; deaths, 2,000; arrests, 18,000.

The Woodhull Emeute. Mr. Editor: In your last issue you comment with just severity on the proceedings at the Lecture on the 22nd inst. There is no justification for rowdism on such an occasion. It is people here who do they not approve, they are present by their own will, and they have the liberty to retire. The best rebuke this miserable woman could have received would have been, to find empty benches, or if a pertinent curiosity must give her an audience, when her utterances became intolerable, for the benches to have been quietly vacated.

Our moral and Christian city has been disgraced. This woman has been enabled to carry out all her plans to lecture here, and has gathered a large audience. It is a disgrace to the University that it should have been so largely represented through the students. But here arises a question. By whose assistance has this been effected? Who allowed her the use of a hall? Who enabled her to sell her tickets? Who printed her bills? Here is where we must seek for responsibility. If all this is through citizens of Ann Arbor, they are the persons by whom the community is aggrieved, who should be called to account and who should be remembered.

CITIZEN. Our correspondent goes to the root of the matter in fixing the responsibility, perhaps digs too deep and cuts too close, but we permit him to have his say. "Dating back" does not all exonerate the students or citizens who let themselves down to or below the level of the woman they were under no compulsion to go and hear.

At a meeting of the Board of Regents held on Friday evening last, Dr. ANOELL presented the following letter, both in Russian and English, which sufficiently explains itself, announcing at the same time that he had received information of the arrival of the books in New York: WINTERS PALACE, ST. PETERSBURG, October 24, 1873.

My Dear Sir: At the desire of the Grand Duke Alexis I have this day addressed to you through Messrs. Trubner of London, a parcel of books which His Imperial Highness wishes you to be kind enough to place in the library of your University. A list of the books, with the translation, you will find enclosed. We have all a most agreeable recollection of our tour in the United States, and particularly of the day we had the pleasure of passing with you in Detroit. Mr. Macken sends his compliments, and requests me to thank you for the University catalogue for 1871-72. Believe me, my dear Sir, Yours most sincerely,

G. POSSIET. The following translation of the titles will show that the volumes are of special interest to educationalists: that is if they are able to read them: 1. History of the Russian Empire, 10 vols. 2. History of Russia, Solonoff, 22 vols. 3. Course of Civil Law, Pobedonostoff, 2 vols. 4. Manual of Criminal Law, Spasovitch, 1 vol. 5. Historical Notes of the first fifty years of the University of St. Petersburg, 1 vol. 6. Minutes of the Council of the University of St. Petersburg, 6 vols. 7. Extracts from the reports of the condition and the acts of the Universities of Moscow, Kazan, Kharkov and Warsaw, for 1870, '71 and '72. 8. Notices published by the University of N. Vladimir, for 1871, '72 and '73, containing the yearly report for 1872 and other information referring to University life. 9. Notes of the University of New Russia, from the foundation of its foundation, containing among other matters the report of the University for last year.

As an expression of the thanks of the Board the following resolution, introduced by Regent Walker, was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That the cordial thanks of the Board of Regents of the University of Michigan be tendered to the Grand Duke Alexis Romanoff, for the gift to the University of a valuable collection of books connected with the history of Russia, and especially with its educational interests and development; a gift prized not only for its intrinsic value, but also for illustrating anew the kindly spirit always existing between the citizens of two nations so widely separated. Resolved, That a copy of this resolution, properly expressed and signed by the President and Secretary, be forwarded to the Grand Duke Alexis through His Excellency, C. Possiet.

Sheriff Fleming and lady were the recipients of a handsome Water Pitcher, Goblets, and Cake Basket, which is the occasion of the following correspondence. ANN ARBOR, Dec. 24th, 1873. SHERIFF FLEMING: DEAR SIR—As the annual visit of Santa Claus (according to the almanac), is booked for this evening, and for fear that a person living in the County Jail might be overlooked, we have taken the liberty to speak to that aged and respected gentleman, and have cheerfully recommended you and your lady to his generosity. According to our request, he has sent the presents that you now find on your table, and joins in wishing you and your family a merry Christmas.

Yours, Ever, DEPUTIES. To MY DEPARTS:—Through your kindness, myself and lady were not forgotten by that Ideal of infancy (Santa Claus), for judging from the magnificent present, of which we were made the happy recipients on the occasion of his last annual visit, we were very substantially remembered. Nothing so touches the heart and leaves there such pleasant and lasting impressions as acts of kindness, and tokens of respect from those with whom we are most intimately associated, and therefore while we highly prize your valuable present for its own sake, yet its greater value to us rests in the kindness of heart that prompted the gift, which will long be remembered after the symbol shall have passed away.

Very Respectfully, M. FLEMING. The Free Press of Christmas day tells how the genial managing editor of that journal was "done for" the preceding day, as follows: "Yesterday the employees of the Free Press establishment executed a flank movement upon the managing editor, Wm. E. Quinby. While that gentleman was absent temporarily the man in the news-room posted a sentinel on the upper landing to give warning of his approach. When he finally appeared the ambassadors surrounded him and before he knew what the demonstration meant a veteran printer was in the midst of a speech, the termination of which was accompanied with the presentation of a massive gold-headed cane. Mr. Quinby had hardly ceased to thank "the boys" when the editorial and reporter staffs surrounded him and escorted him to the local rooms, where were awaiting his acceptance in behalf of Mrs. Quinby a small but well selected party of Parisian statuary. This second surprise had hardly transpired when the entire delegation from the counting, job and press rooms filed in, one after another bearing a superb gold-lined silver service of seven pieces. This was the hair that broke the camel's back, and the genial manager was for once compelled to surrender. The affair in all three of its distinctive phases so managed as to culminate in a succession of complete surprises, as the gentlemen present were never undertaken had not the remotest suspicion of what was in progress up to the very moment of receiving the offerings. Served him right.

I. O. O. F.—The following officers have been elected for the ensuing term: ANN ARBOR ENCAMPMENT, NO. 7. G. P. L. E. Morris. H. P. L. Courad Krupf. S. W. Chas. J. Gardiner. Scribe—Gilbert Bliss. Treas.—Andrew B. Schmid. J. W.—Fred. Sorg. Representatives to Grand Encampment—Chas. A. Leiter and D. Almandorby. WASHINGTON LODGE, NO. 9. N. G.—Chas. J. Gardiner. Secy.—Chas. H. Manly. Treas.—Chas. Spoor. P. S.—George Haller. Representatives to Grand Lodge—Chas. A. Leiter and Fred. Sorg.

A Lecture. Miss Anna V. Raper, of your city, delivered a lecture before the A. V. P. Literary Society of this village last Tuesday evening. The subject of her lecture was "The Press—The People." It is people here who do they not approve, they are present by their own will, and they have the liberty to retire. She sustained her reputation in a very particular. She discussed the question in a way that was at once thorough and practical. She gave the best and most general satisfaction. And at any future time she will be welcome and draw a full house.

I understand she has given the same lecture in other places and with general approbation. Lecture committees will do well to correspond with Miss Raper. She will do them credit. People express themselves confident that she will rank among the best lecturers of the country.

I have written this as a simple testimonial to a worthy woman. R. S. PARDINGTON. Grass Lake, Dec. 28, 1873.

Unit for the Position. Here is what the Hartford Courant, General Hawley's paper, thinks of the nomination of Attorney-General Williams to be Chief Justice: The real and deep objection to Mr. Williams has nothing whatever to do with his moral character, or his actions as a politician. It goes straight to the man's mental fitness for the place. He has neither the culture nor the learning—not a tenth part of either—fit for the place; and he has not the intellectual grasp, or clearness, or power that give hope that he might become fit for the position. All this, we repeat, was perfectly evident to those who heard him here in the Credit Mobilier suit. He not only did not make a fair argument, but he seemed entirely incapable of grasping the points that were made by the opposing lawyers. His appearance here in court was a humiliation to every friend of the government. We have never talked with a member of the bar here who does not consider the proposal to make him Chief Justice an "outrage." In stating this we do not give an opinion; we report facts.
