THE GOOD IT.

By MARGARET J. PRINCE.

When any task my hands essay, Wherever I find the eager day, There rises to my thought again The kindly, well-remembered name.

The world is over-ruled with speed; And I, too, am a part of the tread; And I, too, am a part of the tread; And I, too, am a part of the tread.

Because our music is not keyed, Because our music is not keyed, Because our music is not keyed, Because our music is not keyed.

That Engineer. "Now, George," said mother, "when you run into Chicago to get your work done, don't forget to get your work done."

It was a little after sunrise. His boots rang along the pavement, and his whistle ran along the breeze. George was dressed in his usual work clothes.

"That's a nice girl," he communicated to his mother. "She's a good girl, and she's a good girl, and she's a good girl."

While he and his iron horse, and his row at baggage car and passenger coaches rushed across the land that hot day, nobody looked in the engine car for a moment.

It was a little after sunrise. His boots rang along the pavement, and his whistle ran along the breeze. George was dressed in his usual work clothes.

COLD WATER.

By MARGARET J. PRINCE.

A cup of water from the spring, 'Tis the most delightful thing, Among all drinks that stands the first, 'Twill surely quench one's raging thirst.

Now, my young lady, just only think, For three score years it's been my drink; I've always passed by the season, Every morning, each night and noon.

Thus, while I'm free to use my voice, Cold water'll be my only choice; The water cool, my constant drink, While I am free to act and think.

Now, shall I ask the real cost, Of water cool, my constant drink, More than all other drinks combined.

It's just honest, no doubt he'll say; Just take my rum and gin away; I henceforth desire, without fail, To be supplied with Adam's ale.

Alcoholic Extracts. "The function of alcohol is to diminish the necessary function of living," says John Ruskin.

"Alcohol is the monarch of liquids. America was subjugated by alcohol as much as by gunpowder." -Savarin.

"This thirst for liquid which nature has thrived in mystery, this extraordinary desire, traceable in every race of men, is a mystery of the most profound nature." -Savarin.

"Can we imagine a beverage compounded of such ingredients as nux vomica, henbane, opium, arsenic, sulphuric acid, oil of turpentine, sugar of lead, tannin, aloes and quassia, without an involuntary shudder?" -Hartley.

"Who hath wine? who hath sorrow? who hath contentment? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath scars on the forehead?" -Proverbs.

DR. BACON ON MR. BEECHER.

By MARGARET J. PRINCE.

Dr. Leonard Bacon delivered a lecture, Thursday, before the Yale Theological School upon the recent Congregational Council, giving his views upon the results of the Council, with his customary earnestness and power.

And now some of you may think that what has been said has been dictated by suspicion of Mr. Beecher's purity. My theory of all these transactions and troubles proceeds on a belief in the highest Christian integrity of Mr. Beecher.

Thus, while I'm free to use my voice, Cold water'll be my only choice; The water cool, my constant drink, While I am free to act and think.

Now, shall I ask the real cost, Of water cool, my constant drink, More than all other drinks combined.

MR. MOTLEY'S REMOVAL.

The day after the rejection of the Santo Domingo treaty, Mr. Motley was removed from the position of Secretary of State.

At last, in January, 1871, a formal paper justifying the removal by the Secretary was laid before the Senate.

The Responsibility of Inflation.

We disdain to palliate the public crime of the six Senators called Democratic who disgraced themselves on Monday by voting for inflation. Their crime, as we have said before, is greater than the crime of the twenty-three Republican Senators whose lead they followed.

Michigan Argus.

ANN ARBOR. FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 17, 1874.

HAVE WE ANY MONEY in circulation in this country? Will the inflationists consider and answer that question before grinding out another grist of greenbacks or national bank notes?

Isn't about time to come back to first principles? time to provide for the redemption of the greenback in coin? time to provide for the redemption of the national bank note in coin? time to place the money of this country on a par with the money of other nations?

These were the principles prevailing in our history during that grand and fruitful period when the Democratic party controlled the Government. Not until under the sharp stress of a sudden war all things seemed to have become new and serious attempt made to set them at naught.

These far inflation would be merely a folly if any other Government had done it. Nature can be described as merely a folly. But it would be a folly which Democratic Senators above other Senators are bound by the past history of their party if they know it, by the present attitude of every Democratic circle, every Democratic leader, every Democratic convention has spoken out for redemption and hard money.

But neither in nor out of Washington are examples lacking of Democrats who have been true in this matter to the teachings of their party. Governor Dix, who is no longer in communion with the Democratic party, led him to assent even to a signed a deliberate breach of the traditions of their party, together with twenty-six Radical Senators who followed the traditions of their party, does not postpone or vary the account of the Radical Senators with their party. It only opens another account to be settled between the Democratic recreants and their party.

The Tigress. NEW YORK, April 11.—Capt. Bartlett, of the whaling steamer Panther, arrived at St. Johns, Newfoundland, yesterday, and gives the following account of the terrible disaster on board that vessel: On Friday, April 3, when the Panther was in longitude 51 degrees 15 minutes and latitude 50 degrees 22 minutes, she was on her return to St. Johns, the lookout reported a steamer, apparently moving only under sail, with her flag at half-mast.

ALL SORTS OF PEN-SCRATCHES.

For a great many years the Democracy have consorted themselves in defeat, by attempts to prove that they had either obtained or just missed a victory, and that the obstinate election figures didn't exactly give them their due.

—If Hon. Burt Van Horn, of Lockport, N. Y., is correctly reported Senator Chandler can take a third libel suit on his hands. Mr. Van Horn is reported as saying in a recent temperance speech, referring to a suit against the Free Press: "Let Zack Chandler sue me. I have seen him drunk time and again."

—Madame Loysen (that is, the wife of Pere Hyacinthe) has written a letter to the American ladies engaged in the temperance crusade. She says: "The evil is so deep that it will take a generation at least to cure it, and advises that prayer 'be followed by good works.' She enjoins a reformation of the table, and ceasing to create 'an appetite that ever craves for liquor,' also that 'instead of rye for whisky, grapes for native wine be raised.'"

—Lansing has voted $50,000 for a high school building, and $6,000 for two ward school house sites. We advise Lansing to spread the high school building out on the ground, so that measurement up will not be its chief claim to the title, or even one of its claims. It is time to stop sacrificing convenience and health to architectural grandeur, and the law-makers of the State might do a good work in prohibiting any school building being more than two stories high.

—Arkansas has "revoluted." The foul deed was done on the 10th, on which day James Brooks, armed by a writ of replevin from a circuit judge, took forcible possession of the State House, and assumed the role of Governor. Governor Baxter has established himself at St. John's College, and has called upon the President for aid. Bloodshed is imminent.

—Dr. J. A. B. Stone, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Michigan State Woman's Suffrage Association, has issued a call for a meeting to be held at Lansing on the 6th of May next. The object of the meeting is to stir up the faithful and secure the adoption in November next of the constitutional provision for woman suffrage.

—When Grant was charged with being drunk during the war, it was told that Lincoln expressed a desire to get some of the same brand of whisky for other generals; and now the Gratiot Journal (Rep.) wants Chandler to keep drunk all the time, provided he was drunk when he made his recent anti-inflation speech.

—We copy in another column a severe but just criticism of the Democratic inflationists of the Senate. The World is doing good service in exposing these recreant Democrats to the public gaze.—Democratic legislators must cease to advocate protection or a shipmaster currency or lose standing in the party.

—Catholics are not permitted to join the Grangers, or the Catholic organ at Detroit, the Western Home Journal is at fault. It says: "The 'Grangers' form a secret society, with which no Catholic can become affiliated. The rule is laid down by the Church, and that should end the matter."

—On Saturday last Murat Halstead, of the Cincinnati Commercial, was arrested on a charge of advertising a lottery or "grand gift concert." We have rejected the same ad. twice, but see it in a large number of our Michigan exchanges. And the laws of Michigan are as stringent as those of Ohio.

Township Officers Elected.

We continue our report of Township Officers elected on Monday, the 8th inst.: YORK. The Democrats elected all their candidates but two, the heretofore unbroken Peter Cook heading the Republican ticket and coming out 44 behind. There must be a first time, Peter. The officers elect are,—the figures designating majorities: Supervisor—Jesse Wagner, 44.

—The Democrats of course had it all their own way, without opposition enough for fun, electing: Supervisor—Patrick Fleming, Clerk—James H. Lyman, Justice—Byron Green, Patrick Rabbet (vacancy), Commissioner of Highways—T. White, Rep., 28.

—The electors of this town are chained to their idols, and no Democratic ticket banded in the field, the Republican candidates had it all their own way, and were unanimously elected. They are: Supervisor—W. Irving Yeckly, Clerk—Chas. M. Habbell, Treasurer—Geo. Rogers, Justice—Benj. D. Loomis, School Inspector—Ed. C. Warner, Commissioner of Highways—Orrin B. Hinman.

—This town "which used to be" present a solid Republican front, and in which Democrats were thought to have no rights which their opponents were bound to respect, elected the whole "Union ticket," except Treasurer, and that active Democrat, Thos. Shankland, was beaten for that office by only 3 votes. The officers are: Supervisor—John Crandall, Clerk—Darwin D. Cook, Treasurer—Geo. Herrick, Justice—Lorin G. Ovenshire, George N. B. Keaster, 2 years; Calvin Wheeler (vacancy), 2 years; Eliskim T. Walker (vacancy), 1 year, School Inspectors—Charles D. Smith (vacancy), 2 years; Elam Worden (vacancy), 1 year, Drain Commissioner—Lorenzo D. Perkins, Highway Commissioners—Wm. Murray (vacancy), 3 years; James B. Vanat (vacancy), 2 years, Constables—Thos. E. Shankland, John McCormick, Frank Ovenshire, Dwells E. Smith.

—The Democrats held their own, electing the whole ticket except Treasurer. The officers are: Supervisor—Emerson Annabil, Clerk—Ashley Parks, Jr., Justice—Emathan Fish, Treasurer—Samuel R. Smith, Rep., Highway Commissioner—D. G. Rose (full term), Harvey Blackman (to fill vacancy), Drain Commissioner—John O. Selfe, Constables—Matthew Flynn, Martin Kappler, Frank Hall, Daniel Burck.

—ON THE 9th inst., Congressman CONGER—who learned all the crooked ways of finance in practicing law up at Port Huron—took a tilt at the currency, avowed himself the defender of labor against capital, and went in for inflation.—"JONES"—he who wrote two speeches for MOSES—had nothing to do with this speech of CONGER'S. It was his, every word of it, and we can see him knit his eye-brows as he jerked out the sentences and sent the barbed arrow home.

—We will only quote a single paragraph, the closing one, aimed of course at Gov. Dix. It is: "Sir, let the governors of the States dictate to subordinate Legislatures their high-sounding manifestoes, in not overbearing language, of instructions to this Congress, and the millions of the millions of merchant princes and millionaires. I cannot tell how submissive others may become, but for me, I will await with confidence the verdict of that loyal, enterprising, intelligent host of toilers and laborers of the earth whose confidence in me is not to be outraged, but whose avenging wrath will be terrible if once aroused."

—At the Kalamazoo Charter election on Monday last the Union ticket was elected by a large majority. It was headed by Dwight May, for President. A burlesque post-office ticket, constituted entirely of defeated candidates for postmaster, received 83 votes.

—In the United States Court at Detroit, on Saturday last, Mrs. Lottie A. Moore, widow of the late E. W. Moore, obtained a verdict for $5,095.42 against the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company. The defense of the Company was suicide.

—The vote of Whittier for Senator from Massachusetts was doubled on the twenty-fifth ballot. Up to that time he had received one vote, but on that ballot two votes were given him. One hundred and thirty-one (only) were necessary for a choice.

On Tuesday the Massachusetts Legislature

lature balloted five times for Senator, with indications of a break up, DAWES and HOAR falling off, and ADAMS and WASHINGTON gaining. But on Wednesday the one ballot taken showed the DAWES men firm again, and it is announced that a caucus of his friends, previously held, determined not to abandon him. It was the twenty-ninth ballot and stood:—Dawes, 92; Hoar, 59; Curtis, 11; Adams, 2; Bass, 7; Washburn, 3; Safford, 1; Whittier, 1. Necessary to a choice, 134.

—The Currency Question. Rev. Dr. Leonard Bacon, of Yale Divinity School, has written an open letter to Congressmen Phelps, of New Jersey, in which, after complimenting Mr. Phelps on his speech on the currency question, he says: "Sooner or later bitter experience will make every people know that dishonored promises to pay money—promises issued with a deliberate intention to break them—are not money but lies. Simpletons in Congress as well as elsewhere—or, if not simpletons, then knaves—are giving out false greenbacks to the amount of $100,000,000, so long as the people have confidence in the government; but have those wise acres inquired how long the people can be expected to have confidence in a government which, instead of redeeming its promises, is lending money to the people against its issue fraudulent lies by the million, and is, always ready to redeem one lie with another?"

—The electors of this town are chained to their idols, and no Democratic ticket banded in the field, the Republican candidates had it all their own way, and were unanimously elected. They are: Supervisor—W. Irving Yeckly, Clerk—Chas. M. Habbell, Treasurer—Geo. Rogers, Justice—Benj. D. Loomis, School Inspector—Ed. C. Warner, Commissioner of Highways—Orrin B. Hinman.

A Curious Document.

The Mayor of Dayton has issued the following: PROCLAMATION. WHEREAS, It has become apparent to this Board that the visits of the recently organized bands of ladies to the various saloons in the city, and the occupation by them of the sidewalks and streets for religious exercises, have, on several occasions, attracted large crowds of riotous and disorderly persons who assembled in the vicinity of such numbers as seriously to threaten the peace and good order of the city, and materially to obstruct the free and proper use of both the sidewalks and the streets; and

WHEREAS, It is by the laws of this State, unlawful for any person or persons, by agent or otherwise, 1. To sell, in any quantity, intoxicating liquors (except wine manufactured of the pure juice of the grape, cultivated in this State, beer, ale or cider), to be drunk in or upon the premises where sold, or in or upon any adjoining premises connected therewith; 2. To sell any intoxicating liquors, whatever, without exception, to minors, unless upon the written order of their parents, guardians, or family physicians; and the seller of such liquors, of any kind whatever, to persons intoxicated, or in the habit of getting intoxicated; and

WHEREAS, All places where liquors are sold in violation of these laws are declared public nuisances, and upon conviction the keeper thereof are required to be shut up and abated as such; therefore, Be it known, that orders have been issued to the police force of this city to prevent the use and occupation of the streets and sidewalks, as aforesaid, and to give special and careful attention to the enforcement of the said laws, and make prompt arrest of any and all persons violating the same.

By order of the Police Board. W. H. SIGMAN, Mayor and ex-officio President Police Board.

European Crop and Market Reports. From the N. Y. Produce Exchange Weekly. The weather throughout the United Kingdom has been upon its good behavior for an unbroken period of time. The farm work is in an unusual state of forwardness, peas, beans and oats having been sown early, under the most favorable circumstances.

The Liverpool Advertiser estimates the consumption of wheat annually in the United Kingdom at 23,000,000 quarters by the 31,500,000 of its population, which is 1,000,000 to 2,000,000 quarters more than the usual estimate of consumption. The aggregate quality of wheat in transit to the United Kingdom on the 19th of March, as reported by Beerbohm's Evening Corn Trade List, was 1,491,050 quarters (four included) and maize 114,920 quarters.

At Tangarrog, since the close of navigation, about twenty cargoes of wheat have been purchased for Genoa, Italy, which, when shipped, will leave empty warehouses until the new crop shall become available.

The port of Odessa was, on the 13th ult., still closed by the ice sailing vessels, and steamers had great difficulty in entering and departing. There was scarcely any business doing in bread-stuffs, but prices were firmly maintained.

An East Saginaw committee appointed some weeks ago to look much to the part of the State could afford to do of securing the site of the new State House of Correction, reported Monday night that Bay, Midland and Saginaw counties paid $2,500 last year for the support of criminals, and that a house of correction at Saginaw City would save to the taxpayers of Bay, Genesee, Gratiot, Isoc, Midland, Saginaw, Shiawassee and Tuscola counties over $25,000 a year.

If you wish to have your Probate or other legal advertising done in the Argus, do not forget to ask the Judge of Probate and Circuit Court Commissioners to make their orders accordingly. A request will be granted.

- CARDS. - Circulars. - Bill-Heads. - Letter-Heads. - Shipping Tags. - Printed at the Argus office. - In the best style and cheap. - Don't order elsewhere before calling. - Satisfaction guaranteed in every respect. - Now is the time to subscribe for the ARGUS. - See the advertisement of Charles Fante. - "Now is the winter of our discontent."

We are indebted to Dr. Sager for a late copy of the Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier. The postoffice was not yet opened, but it is confidently predicted that C. G. Clark, of the Courier, is bound to win. The new Common Council is to hold its first session on Monday evening next. And then a new deal of the city officers. - Wines & Worden are enrolled as Argus advertisers this week. They have a large stock and offer rare inducements to customers. - "Picket guards" are proposed by the temperance ladies; to discover what visitors visit seasons and list all parties entering them Sundays. - Joe T. Jacobs & Co. host their colors in the Argus columns this week. It will pay to visit their store and examine their case of furnishing goods. - Dr. Pratt, of the Fifth ward, is making an active campaign for the March 17th, and keeps his doors or more rivals stirred up to the work. - Judge Cheever has been visited upon by a committee of the Ladies' Temperance Union and asked to appoint an inspector of liquors. The law is a stringent one against adulterations. - Mack & Schmid rushed things at their "Ribbon sale" on Saturday last, and ever since. All because of that advertisement in the Argus. Let sleepy business men profit by their example. - A freight train going west yesterday forenoon ran into the caboose of a train standing on the track near the Kellogg crossing, piled it upon the car in front, and damaged the locomotive. Nobody hurt. - Three more divorces have been granted in the Circuit Court since our last report: Cecelia A. Hart from Allen Hart; Anna North from George W. North; and Diantha Watrous from Daniel S. Watrous. - E. C. Seaman, Esq., equine in bankruptcy of Miller & Webster, has called a creditors' meeting to be held at the office of H. K. Clark, Esq., Detroit, on the 29th inst. Look out for a homoeopathic dividend. - In the Circuit Court on Monday an order was entered discharging the petit jury for the term, in order that Judge Crane could give his exclusive attention to clearing the Chancery calendar and disposing of the "Court cases." - Prof. Watson has received his papers, taken the oath of allegiance, subscribed the articles of war, and holds himself ready to sail for the Orient via the Occident. He holds our application for the position of "Chaplain to the expedition" under advisement. - Weather reports say that the total eclipse of the sun advertised to come off yesterday in South America and Africa, has been at the bottom of our "hang over" of cold dry weather, disagreeable winds, etc., and predict an agreeable change now that it is over. Let it come. - John Goetz has settled a suit brought by the parents of young Brownell, claiming damages in the sum of $5,000, by paying $150 and stipulating to sell the Brownells no more liquor. The older Brownell had been in the habit of drinking with his father at the saloons of Coats and had told him to let the son have liquor when he sent for it. The day he got the bottle filled he drank nothing there.

Ladies' Library Association. The annual meeting of the Ladies' Library Association of this city was held on Monday afternoon last, April 13th. The following officers were elected: President - Mrs. Hunt. Vice President - Mrs. Fen Block. Secretary - Miss Ormsby. Treasurer - Miss Porter. The new directors elected (or re-elected) for the term of three years are: Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Hubbell, Mrs. Beal, Mrs. D'Ooge, and Miss Ormsby. The reports of the Treasurer and Librarian show the receipts and disbursements for the year, and the condition of the Library as follows:

Table with columns: RECEIPTS, DISBURSEMENTS, Total. Includes items like annual dues, memberships, books, magazines, etc.

Our Tribute. WHEREAS, Our beloved brother and co-worker, CAUSTEN G. PLATT, a member of the Students' Christian Association of the University of Michigan, has been removed from this field of labor by an overruling Providence, and WHEREAS, We, as an Association, deeply mourn his death, and feel our inability to pay a just tribute to his memory, rendered sacred by a Christian character and experience, which, though brief, grew brighter and more beautiful to the last, and WHEREAS, He, then being conscious that his end was nigh, calmly prayed God to give him strength and patience to endure his pain and suffering, and feeling perfectly sure that all was well, without a murmur, bade adieu to earthly hopes and loved friends; therefore be it Resolved, That while we thank our Heavenly Father for another witness that Christianity gives a peace and joy even in death which the world can not give, we have lost, in the death of CAUSTEN G. PLATT, a kind brother and active member. Resolved, That we extend our Christian sympathy to his deeply afflicted family and bereaved friends. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the University Chronicle, in the city papers, and in the Syracuse Courier. Ann Arbor, April 13, 1874.

The Pioneer Society. A regular meeting of the Washtenaw County Pioneer Society was held on Monday last, with Vice-President John Geddes in the chair. The papers read were: one by E. W. Whitmore, now living in Kansas, giving a sketch of the early settlement of Pittsfield, or more especially of the "Mallett's Creek neighborhood"; one by E. D. Lay, who came into the territory in 1833 and planted out the first nursery; and one written by J. Thompson. Mr. L. Davis also gave a short account of John Bryant, one of the earliest settlers of this city, and we believe, father of the first white child born in the county - "Alpha Washenaw Bryant." A resolution was adopted thanking Mark Howard, Esq., of Hartford, Conn., for a file of the first paper printed in the county, The Emigrant, and another pledging the Pioneer Society to join in the semi-centennial celebration at Ypsilanti the coming Fourth of July. Biographical sketches for future use were requested as follows: By Wm. A. Jones, Esq., of Judge Dexter; by Wm. Gregory, Esq., of Orange Ridon; by L. Davis, of Robert and John Geddes; and Historical papers: Salem, by Geo. S. Wheeler; Scioto, by Henry E. Peters; Lima, by H. S. Clements; Sylvan, by C. H. Wines; Bridgewater, by D. W. Palmer; Freedom, by W. F. Odus; Sharon, by Andrew Robinson;

Manchester, by J. D. Corey; and Northfield, by R. Bohan. Messrs. Davis, Wheeler, and Clark were appointed a committee to arrange a programme for the next meeting, the first Monday in June.

The Temperance Campaign. A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in the M. E. Church on Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies' Temperance Union - the audience and galleries being densely packed. The meeting was presided over by the President of the Ladies' Union, Mrs. S. Reed, and after music by the choir and prayer by Rev. E. Steele, was addressed by several ladies and gentlemen. The first speaker was Miss Emma M. Hall (of the Senior class in the University), who discussed for 15 minutes the position of woman, the obstacles direct and indirect she places in the way of temperance reform, and the duties which devolve upon her. It was a fine effort, both in matter and manner, and ought to have carried conviction home to the minds of many women present - old and young - who could not disavow all the sins of omission or commission charged at their door. The next speaker was Miss Sarah D. Hamlin, also of the same class, followed, and occupied the same length of time in discussing some of the methods or measures necessary to promote the desired reform. Her suggestions as to home amusements and hospitalities, and as to the provision of places of innocent amusement and entertainment, were practical and worth consideration. Mrs. C. E. Pond followed and discussed feelingly and effectively the duties of fathers and mothers - their obligation to watch more carefully over their sons. Her observations upon the number of mere boys turned loose in our streets were too true, and as painful as true. After more music Dr. Angell addressed the audience, saying that the ladies had given him his subject and limited his time. The subject assigned him was the right of the State to enact prohibitory laws, the ladies having been informed by saloon keepers that such laws were an infringement of their individual liberty. Dr. A. compared such legislation with the laws regulating sewers, police, etc., and said that the one rested upon the same basis as the other, and that the State could regulate or suppress any business which tended to promote disorder or crime. The expediency of such legislation was another thing, not within the subject assigned him, and must be determined by time and place. Prof. Olney was the last speaker. He vigorously called upon the ladies to "go on!" and upon all good citizens to identify themselves with the work. A motion was made and carried asking the ladies to take charge of the public meetings in the future, and then after good music the Rev. Mr. Taylor pronounced the benediction.

A series of such meetings will do much to create a healthy tone and action, to make temperance, eye, total abstinence, popular and fashionable. That does the battle will be half won. At the last temperance reform working in the University. A meeting of the students was held in the chapel on Monday evening, and a committee of nine - six gentlemen and three ladies - appointed to confer with the faculty and invite co-operation. The same evening a petition was presented to the faculty, signed by 291 students of the Literary Department, asking that that body do all in its power to suppress the evil of intemperance in the University, in response to which the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That the faculty of the department of science, literature and the arts are gratified to learn from the petition presented by a large number of the under-graduates, that they are interested in the suppression of intemperance in this institution and communally, and that this faculty will earnestly co-operate with the faculties of the other departments and with the students in eradicating the vice from the institution. We may express a hope that there will be unity of action in the faculty, that every member will join in recommending total abstinence as the only safe refuge for the young men under their instruction, and that not one will hesitate to join the students in pledging themselves to such a rule of life. "A little wine" may have been good for the stomach of Timothy; but teachers and professors and clergymen and men high in social position cannot wield a saving influence and reserve to themselves the right to drink occasionally or moderately, even at home. The young men, in their charge or under their guidance, looking to them for example as well as precept, are away from home and home influences; and, besides, have not reached the years of self-control; if man ever reaches that point in a fair and square contest with the demon of the bowl, under whatever name disguised. Better self-denial or abstinence even from meat than becoming a stumbling or causing one's brother or pupil to offend and fall.

At Bay City salaries are somewhat larger than here. As just fixed by the Common Council of that city they are: City Treasurer, $1,100; Controller, $1,100 (no school officer here); Recorder, $1,800; Attorney, $1,000; Marshal, $1,200. Here the salaries are fixed by the charter, and are: Treasurer, $100; Recorder, $300; Attorney, $100; Marshal $100. As policeman the Marshal gets $2 a day, and fees go to the city. At Bay City policemen are paid $50 a month; here, $2 a day.

What Our Moses Did. According to Donald Platt, Moses, of the elegant toilet, did this: Jones came in on us full of wrath the other day. The verdant field, in gayest verdure clad, was the cause of Jones' indignation. It seems that the flowery field engaged our Jones, when he, E. F. first came to Congress, to write him two speeches - one on finance and the other on protection. "Now, will you believe it," cried Jones, "when the fellow comes to make his speech he puts in the one on protection when finance is under discussion, and now he'll be putting out finance when the tariff is up. Isn't it discouraging?"

A business firm in this city, to which a bill had been owing for some time, finally sent a sharp, dunning note to the debtor, and received in reply a postal card containing the following: "Matthew 18:26." To this they responded: "Romans 13:8; Luke 12:58." The result was the prompt return of a check in payment of the amount. - Newark Advertiser.

An inebriated individual precipitated himself down the depot stairs, and on striking the landing reproachfully reproached himself with: "If you'd been wanting to come down stairs, why didn't you say so, you wooden-headed old fool, an' I'd a come with you and showed you the way!"

A Boston paper wonders why a member of Congress who recently spoke with so much feeling of the "hay seed in his hair," and "oats in his throat," forgot to complete the diagnosis of the case by alluding to the rye in his stomach.

A paper in Nebraska under the head of "An hour with our business men," describes two saloons, and ends the item with the remark, "This completes the round of business houses on the public square."
