

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. The result in several of the States is yet a disputed question, and at this writing, Friday noon, we are unable to say definitely whether Tilden or Hayes is to be the next President.

Table of electoral votes by state: Alabama 10, Arkansas 6, Connecticut 6, Delaware 3, Georgia 11, Indiana 15, Kentucky 12, Maryland 7, Mississippi 8, Missouri 15, New Jersey 9, New York 35, North Carolina 10, Tennessee 12, Texas 8, Virginia 11, West Virginia 5.

The Republicans have carried the following States beyond question, except Oregon, which they claim with the best show:

Table of states carried by Republicans: California 6, Colorado 3, Illinois 21, Iowa 11, Kansas 5, Massachusetts 13, Michigan 11, Nebraska 3, Nevada 5, Minnesota 5, New Hampshire 5, Ohio 22, Oregon 3, Rhode Island 2, South Carolina 8, Vermont 5, Wisconsin 10.

The Democrats have undoubtedly carried Florida and Louisiana, and have the best show for South Carolina, but with Zack Chandler's boast that "we have the means to give the vote of these States to Hayes," carrying them is a very different thing from getting them.

Private dispatches just received claim Florida Democratic by 1,600 majority. Press dispatches claim South Carolina for Tilden. Wait until confirmed.

We are "waiting," and so are all the chickens in our 'nnerary.

THIS STATE is still in the bondage of slavery. The Republican voters have not yet got their eyes open to the need of a change, are still blind to the revolutions going on around them.

And this is all we have to say of the result in this State just now. "A short horse is soon curried." "The returning board decides the election in Louisiana." That was the sentence which closed a New Orleans news dispatch, dated Nov. 9, 10:30 A. M. They were very innocent but very significant words.

"The returning board decides the election in Louisiana." That was the sentence which closed a New Orleans news dispatch, dated Nov. 9, 10:30 A. M. They were very innocent but very significant words.

When Hartman was nominated for Judge of Probate, certain Republicans who couldn't forgive him for changing his politics several years ago, joined with certain Democrats who imagined that his nomination had worked against their interests or imaginary claims, and predicted lustily and long that he would be the worst boston man on the Democratic ticket, in fact that he would be worse boston than any man who ever ran for a county office on the Democratic ticket.

THE VOTE of Monday was very large throughout the State, probably the largest ever polled.

State Building Commission.

The State Building Commissioners have published their annual report for the year ending September 30th, 1876, from which we take the following facts: The walls of the new State Capitol are finished. The work of putting on the roof has been delayed on account of the iron work, but it is hoped to get the building completed before winter.

On January 25th, L. T. Ives, Esq., of Detroit, at the request of the Governor, submitted to the Board a plan of a group of statutory designed to be placed in the central Eastern or principal pediment of the building.

Most of the great powers have a portion of their territory easily fomented into a state of rebellion. England had her Ireland, which was for many years a hot-bed of treason, and remained so whilst military surveillance and bad laws were enforced.

According to the New York Herald the closing of the Centennial Exposition is accompanied with a good deal of vexation to the exhibitors, owing to the action of the customs department in respect to foreign goods.

Complaint is made that goods brought by some of the foreign commissioners for their governments, and which are to be exported as soon as the Exhibition closes, are to be made to pay an import duty of $16,286.

Complaint is made that no general regulations have been established for the shipment of exhibited goods, and that in the absence of such the exhibitors are obliged to bring goods and other go-betweens, which originally they were promised exemption from all such exactions.

The London Press on Tilden's Election. LONDON, Nov. 8.—The Daily News of this morning, discussing the Presidential election in the United States, says the result cannot surprise any attentive observer of American politics.

Complaint is made that the exhibitors and Commissioners, when they try to make known their troubles to the Secretary of the Treasury, are not allowed to reach him, but are by subordinates to the same local officers against whose conduct they protest.

Complaint is made that there should be some authority which try to once to remove any real grievances. We shall then the trouble investigate, the matter more fully and shall report in detail in a few days.

NEGRO VIOLENCE IN RICHMOND. RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 9.—The negroes tonight are very disorderly. A large crowd gathered in the northern suburbs of the city and marched in a procession down Broad street, armed with clubs, etc., throwing stones and breaking a number of store windows along the line.

THE REPUBLICANS throughout the State voted for Gen. Partridge despite the protest of the Bay County Republicans. They didn't want an honest administration, and hold to the old maxim that the devil himself is better than the best Democrat.

Ben Holladay's Farm.

Nearly every one has heard of this wonderful domain, that embraces miles of the most fertile soil, and is bounded by the great sloping meadows and rolling hills of Westchester County, and any one who has passed along the Dorchester turnpike, from White Plains to the Sound, has noticed the magnificent mansion of granite that looms up on the highest hill in the centre of the estate.

As it is probable that the session of the Legislature of 1877 will be the last one prior to the completion of the building, a statement has been prepared showing the condition of the appropriation, and an estimate of the probable requirements of the board, in order that there may be no delay or obstruction in the work, and that the building may be ready for occupancy before another Legislature shall convene.
