

TERMS, $2.00 a year, or $1.50 in advance.
CASH IN ADVANCE.
SINGLE COPIES, 5 CENTS.

Year	1878	1879	1880	1881	1882	1883	1884	1885	1886	1887	1888	1889	1890	1891	1892	1893	1894	1895	1896	1897	1898	1899	1900	1901	1902	1903	1904	1905	1906	1907	1908	1909	1910	1911	1912	1913	1914	1915	1916	1917	1918	1919	1920	1921	1922	1923	1924	1925	1926	1927	1928	1929	1930	1931	1932	1933	1934	1935	1936	1937	1938	1939	1940	1941	1942	1943	1944	1945	1946	1947	1948	1949	1950	1951	1952	1953	1954	1955	1956	1957	1958	1959	1960	1961	1962	1963	1964	1965	1966	1967	1968	1969	1970	1971	1972	1973	1974	1975	1976	1977	1978	1979	1980	1981	1982	1983	1984	1985	1986	1987	1988	1989	1990	1991	1992	1993	1994	1995	1996	1997	1998	1999	2000	2001	2002	2003	2004	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025	2026	2027	2028	2029	2030	2031	2032	2033	2034	2035	2036	2037	2038	2039	2040	2041	2042	2043	2044	2045	2046	2047	2048	2049	2050	2051	2052	2053	2054	2055	2056	2057	2058	2059	2060	2061	2062	2063	2064	2065	2066	2067	2068	2069	2070	2071	2072	2073	2074	2075	2076	2077	2078	2079	2080	2081	2082	2083	2084	2085	2086	2087	2088	2089	2090	2091	2092	2093	2094	2095	2096	2097	2098	2099	2100
------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------

Printed and bound by L. B. FOND, at the third story of the brick block corner of Main and Huron streets, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

JOHN W. WATSON, Printer, 100 South Main St., Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of Main and Washington streets, over back of J. H. Hartley, Ann Arbor, Mich.

SONGS OF THE SEASON.

April's Sublime.
"Here a warm sunbeam, Daisy, Daisy;
And thy smile is like the air;
How can you be so lovely,
Have you heard that spring is here?"

Daisy merrily, merrily and airy;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

April's Song.
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Repetitions.
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Of Flowers.
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Hitler-Sweet.
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Pigeons.
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Merry Rain.
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

The Lover's Choice.
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Heart's Choice.
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

So I cannot please you some;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Yes each choicest bud I bring;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Knocking—like love's humble slave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Can you guess which flower I crave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

So I cannot please you some;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Yes each choicest bud I bring;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Knocking—like love's humble slave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Can you guess which flower I crave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

So I cannot please you some;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Yes each choicest bud I bring;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Knocking—like love's humble slave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Can you guess which flower I crave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

So I cannot please you some;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Yes each choicest bud I bring;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Knocking—like love's humble slave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Can you guess which flower I crave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

So I cannot please you some;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Yes each choicest bud I bring;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Knocking—like love's humble slave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Can you guess which flower I crave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

So I cannot please you some;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Yes each choicest bud I bring;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Knocking—like love's humble slave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Can you guess which flower I crave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

So I cannot please you some;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Yes each choicest bud I bring;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Knocking—like love's humble slave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Can you guess which flower I crave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

So I cannot please you some;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Yes each choicest bud I bring;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Knocking—like love's humble slave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

Can you guess which flower I crave;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

So I cannot please you some;
"I'm not alone, young and gay;
I don't believe in a world of care;
He's just playing at April fool."

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, MARCH 29, 1878.

irreparable ruin upon the house of Dudley was the loss of his wife. Her youth, her beauty, her devotion to him, her tragic manner of her death, made it appear to all that his sorrow should be deeper than that of many others similarly bereaved. To me, who knew something of the character of both and the intense love which seemed to blend their being into one, it was almost a marvel that he survived her at all. When I had seen them together in the freedom of their own home the thought had more than once occurred to me that the existence of each was dependent upon that of the other. Yet she had perished suddenly—been swept from him by a swift and terrible catastrophe, which had hardly allowed them a parting embrace.

In the autumn of 1862 Dudley had been called to Havana upon business. His wife persuaded him to permit her to accompany him. How well I remember that splendid autumn day upon which they sailed! Caroline and myself stayed with her until the vessel was ready to start. How beautiful Mrs. Dudley looked as she waved her handkerchief to us from the deck, the bright color lighting up her always eloquent face into the loveliest animation! I had waited the night vessel until it was a speck upon the Narrows; then we had turned away with a sigh, half sad and yet not sad. We had no presentiment of evil, and when her brother and wife returned Caroline and I were to be married.

This vessel was fated never to touch the Cuban shores. When but twelve hours from Havana, at midnight, in the midst of darkness and storm, she was run into by another ship, and sank in fifty minutes. Thrown from her berth by the severity of the collision, Dudley seized his trembling wife under his arm, forcing his way through the disordered crowd from the cabins, already filling with water, to the upper deck. Here he maintained his place while the men and officers made efforts to launch the boat. The first of these filled and went down. The second was more successfully managed. A few women, to whom was given the first chance, were lowered into it by the light of lanterns, whose uncertain gleams made efforts to launch the boat. Mrs. Dudley clung to her husband, begging to be allowed to stay with him until he, too, should be permitted to take the desperate effort at salvation. But for once her prayers had no influence upon him. He desired for her safety, and overruled the pleadings of love. With almost rudeness he tore away her clinging arms, the rope was fastened about her waist and she was lowered down. The lantern threw a strange beam upon her as she swung off from the ship's side, and that was the last look he had of the countenance dearest to him. The few men away from the vortex which the vessel would make in sinking; a great wave rolled in upon it, and the cry went forth that the boat had gone down.

For Dudley's wife, for his own life, he jumped into the boiling sea. But the crew of the uninjured vessel picked him up before life was extinct, and he recovered consciousness to find himself in the cabin of the other ship. Utterly alone, he lay there, his reason lingered around the spot, until all hopes of rescuing any floating persons who might be clinging to pieces of the wreck were over. Then it continued on its way to New York.

Over four months had elapsed during Dudley's carriage to New York. His sister shared his darkened life, deferring our marriage, and withdrawing from society to devote herself to him. I was almost the only one outside of their circle of relatives who visited them. At times Dudley would be possessed of a strange fancy that his wife might not be dead—that she might have escaped—be now in some remote portion of the world, whither some passing breeze had blown her. He would then rise and gaze at the sky, and his eyes would be turned to the sea. The boat which they had never heard from. Another boat, which had put out last, had succeeded in landing upon an island coast west of the one upon which they were. The first boat had gone down within five minutes after she left the ship's side. Sometimes Dudley would work himself into an alarming state of excitement, avowing his belief that his wife was alive. His argument was that if she were dead she certainly would have been found some token to put him mind at rest.

This evening I felt high-triumped and joyous, despite the sad face which had been upon her. Her spirit had risen triumphant over the weather, over the gloom induced by sympathy with others, even over the impatience I sometimes felt at the long-delayed consummation of my wishes. I am sure my face shone with pleasure, for I had that day received a letter containing news of an accession of fortune, which had exhilarated me beyond the power of my ordinary troubles to subdue.

Suddenly Dudley stopped in front of me, his face paler and darker than ever from the smoken lines about them, and fixed upon me with an intensity almost unbearable.

"Is it not strange," said he, "that all this time—all this time—she has sent me no message?"

"I was surprised as well as startled by this question. Despite his theory that if she were dead she would comfort him by some special message, I had not realized that he was really seeking consolation in looking for some palpable token from the spiritual world. It was too much opposed to his previous habits of thought.

"What have you expected?" was all I could for the moment say.

"Anything to prove that she is still mine, in death as well as in life." "I know it," said he, "and that is what gives me so much pain. Of course my grief is nothing compared to his. But it breaks my heart to see him so changed. I fear that if he does not die outright a worse calamity will happen. Sometimes I fear for his mind."

"The disaster which had brought such

"No, I am only relating the last marvel of Spiritualism."

"What do you think of it?" directing his eyes to me.

"It's rather a new thing, even with the Spiritualists themselves. I have not made up my mind about it. In fact I have never inquired much into the phenomena. But when you spoke so earnestly of having expected a message from Eleanor it occurred to me that it could hardly come in a more acceptable or more convincing shape than this."

"To-morrow we will make the experiment; if there is any such thing possible I know that Eleanor will come to me. I shall be permitted to see her. If she does not come, I shall know she is still alive."

It was decided that we should go at 2 o'clock the next day to the photographer I had selected. When we entered the gallery we became conscious of a peculiar influence permeating our very souls. As a person in the dark, in total silence and seeing nothing, yet perceives the presence of another who approaches him, so we perceived an intangible something which thrilled us beyond speech. But few words were spoken. The business-like manner of the operator was in curious contrast to the intense emotions of those who hung upon his movements. When we entered the gallery he said that the day was excellent for his purpose. He arranged his plates, screens and camera with a matter-of-fact air, as if he were not about to attempt to catch and fix the shining substance of the immortal soul, divested of its garments of earth. It struck me as being a strange mixture of the material and spiritual—this preparation of chemicals, this assistance of the ethereal light, itself the nearest to spirit that I have ever known. He prepared screens and burnishing of glass, by such palpable apparatus to seize the image of the immortal soul and retain it for the gaze of mortal eyes. I presume no such reflections had passed in the mind of the operator as I was reflecting. He was concentrated upon one object.

Obedient as a child, he submitted himself to the directions of the operator. When all was ready he seated himself in the chair placed for the purpose. He made efforts to launch the boat. The first of these filled and went down. The second was more successfully managed. A few women, to whom was given the first chance, were lowered into it by the light of lanterns, whose uncertain gleams made efforts to launch the boat. Mrs. Dudley clung to her husband, begging to be allowed to stay with him until he, too, should be permitted to take the desperate effort at salvation. But for once her prayers had no influence upon him. He desired for her safety, and overruled the pleadings of love. With almost rudeness he tore away her clinging arms, the rope was fastened about her waist and she was lowered down. The lantern threw a strange beam upon her as she swung off from the ship's side, and that was the last look he had of the countenance dearest to him. The few men away from the vortex which the vessel would make in sinking; a great wave rolled in upon it, and the cry went forth that the boat had gone down.

For Dudley's wife, for his own life, he jumped into the boiling sea. But the crew of the uninjured vessel picked him up before life was extinct, and he recovered consciousness to find himself in the cabin of the other ship. Utterly alone, he lay there, his reason lingered around the spot, until all hopes of rescuing any floating persons who might be clinging to pieces of the wreck were over. Then it continued on its way to New York.

Over four months had elapsed during Dudley's carriage to New York. His sister shared his darkened life, deferring our marriage, and withdrawing from society to devote herself to him. I was almost the only one outside of their circle of relatives who visited them. At times Dudley would be possessed of a strange fancy that his wife might not be dead—that she might have escaped—be now in some remote portion of the world, whither some passing breeze had blown her. He would then rise and gaze at the sky, and his eyes would be turned to the sea. The boat which they had never heard from. Another boat, which had put out last, had succeeded in landing upon an island coast west of the one upon which they were. The first boat had gone down within five minutes after she left the ship's side. Sometimes Dudley would work himself into an alarming state of excitement, avowing his belief that his wife was alive. His argument was that if she were dead she certainly would have been found some token to put him mind at rest.

This evening I felt high-triumped and joyous, despite the sad face which had been upon her. Her spirit had risen triumphant over the weather, over the gloom induced by sympathy with others, even over the impatience I sometimes felt at the long-delayed consummation of my wishes. I am sure my face shone with pleasure, for I had that day received a letter containing news of an accession of fortune, which had exhilarated me beyond the power of my ordinary troubles to subdue.

Suddenly Dudley stopped in front of me, his face paler and darker than ever from the smoken lines about them, and fixed upon me with an intensity almost unbearable.

"Is it not strange," said he, "that all this time—all this time—she has sent me no message?"

"I was surprised as well as startled by this question. Despite his theory that if she were dead she would comfort him by some special message, I had not realized that he was really seeking consolation in looking for some palpable token from the spiritual world. It was too much opposed to his previous habits of thought.

"What have you expected?" was all I could for the moment say.

"Anything to prove that she is still mine, in death as well as in life." "I know it," said he, "and that is what gives me so much pain. Of course my grief is nothing compared to his. But it breaks my heart to see him so changed. I fear that if he does not die outright a worse calamity will happen. Sometimes I fear for his mind."

"The disaster which had brought such forward to meet him. He feared to lay his mortal hand upon her, but love was more powerful than awe. The trance was upon him, but it was broken when he stretched out his hand and touched her hair.

"Ah! what blessed answer to my prayer is this, my wife!" He had turned toward us, then back to her, and she had clasped her arms about his neck; she blushed; I feel her hair; she is weeping; she is warm; she is living!"

For an instant I felt a breathless suspense; but joy never kills the strong, and Dudley was strong.

This was the good fortune which had so excited me the previous day; I had received a letter from Boston, from Mrs. Dudley, giving me an account of her escape in an open boat; the days of her exposure, her constant wearisome voyage in sailing vessels which lashed up the boat's crew and carried them about until it landed them in Boston; and she had written to me, as Dudley's most intimate friend, to ascertain if he were alive, and to break to him the news of her safety. Poor thing! during all these months of hardship she had been compelled to endure the uncertainty as to her husband's fate. I had immediately telegraphed to her that Dudley was alive and at home; that she must come on by the next train; that I would receive her at the depot, and in the meantime prepare Dudley for the news.

When I had gone to his house the previous evening I had been troubled by the thought that I had not seen him. I was afraid the greater the chance of despair to such joyous feelings. I was struck by the reason which seemed already on the verge of madness. The chance mention of the photograph suggested the idea to me of gradually preparing his mind, in the manner which I had just described, for the final consummation of his happiness. I introduced my plan to Caroline, who approved of it. At the most it would only be keeping him from his wife an hour or two longer.

Caroline consented to the dress already perfumed with violets, which had once been a favorite dress of Eleanor, but had long lain among the precious relics of the supposed dead. The privacy of the dressing-room gave the two women an opportunity to arrange the scenic effects. Probably it was as hard for Eleanor to restrain herself as for Dudley when, as he said truly, he heard the rustle of her garments and the living warmth of her breath upon his cheek.

All anxiety for further restraint was now over; happily, the young wife lay sobbing upon the bosom whose every throbe had been so constant to her. Caroline was in tears, and I am not ashamed to confess that

THE NEWS CONDENSED.

THE FIRST.

JOSEPH ROE, the defaulting Treasurer of New Jersey, who has spent nearly three years in the State prison, has been pardoned out. His term would have expired May next.

OWEN to the recent panic among savings-bank depositors, the Massachusetts Legislature has enacted a law to prevent depositors from drawing their money, and to give the State the right of the protection of depositors in savings banks, and an idea of its provisions may be obtained from the following: "The Treasurer of the State shall have authority to issue a five-cent Savings Bank promissory note in lieu of the law, and the Bank Commissioners directed that, from March 21 to Sept. 21, 1878, ten per cent. be paid on deposits; 10 per cent. additional be paid between Sept. 21 and March 21, 1879. No further additional note to be paid after that date except by order of the Commissioners."

THE First National Bank of Troy, N. Y., has collapsed. About $100,000 of worthless paper is among its assets, which fall short of the liabilities about $50,000.

THE building occupied by the Non-Explosive Lamp Company, at Cleveland, Ohio, has been destroyed by fire.

ERRORS that are to be retraced from the north on both sides of the Dominion line, north and northwest of Fort Denton, leave little room to doubt that the hostile Indians are preparing for a general war upon the Montana Dakota settlements. More than a dozen large bands of Indians are roaming about, and are engaged in hunting, but with supplies and provisions so scanty as to prove their hostile intentions. Scouts who have been sent on these savages, just across the boundary, estimate the number of warriors at 6,000 or 7,000.

THE most notable theatrical event of the season in Chicago has been the production of a new French play entitled "A Celebrated Case," now running at McVicker's Theater. No modern drama has so completely enthralled the sympathies of an audience as this play, and it is an intense degree. From the rise of the curtain to the end of the sixth act, says a Chicago critic, "the attention is kept on the scene to an almost painful degree, by the sustained interest of the story, the ingenuity with which the plot is unfolded, and the pathos of the pathetic tale of heroic suffering unfolded in its development."

THE Citizens Savings Bank of Findlay, Ohio, has suspended its thirty days. Assets, $225,000, and liabilities about $300,000.

FOUR masked men recently robbed a Central railroad train, near Hudson, N. Y. The train was riddled, the express matter taken, and the messenger wounded. About twenty shots were exchanged. The highwaymen were all young men.

A woman was tragically wounded near Wheeling, W. Va., a few days since. The wife of John Wallace, her infant child, and a niece, were killed, and her husband, who was living with them, was mangled and his body horribly mutilated. The husband and a brother have been arrested on suspicion of being the authors of the horrible deed.

SEVERAL heavy financial failures are reported from Memphis, Tenn. Five men were recently drowned below Richmond, Va., while attempting to cross the James river.

THE United States steamer Enterprise, now at New Orleans, has been ordered to proceed to Brazil, and make a survey of the Amazon river as far as navigable.

THE United States steamer Wyoming, which recently sailed from New York with a cargo of articles for the Paris Exposition, was found to be in a leaking condition when about a fourth of the way over, and was compelled to put back to New York. The cargo, which included a child and his wife, child and niece, mention of which has been heretofore made, was last week taken from the ship at New York, and hung by a mob of infuriated citizens, W. L. Stead made a full confession, which cleared his name of complicity in the crime, but implicated one George Villiers, who is now in custody.

WASHINGTON. SENATOR SHERMAN appeared before the Senate Finance Committee, the other day, at the request of the committee, and gave his views regarding the Home Loan bill, and the Specie Resumption act. He spoke for two hours, and set before the committee facts and figures bearing upon the subject. He said, in substance, that it would be better to suspend the resumption of the act, as resumption could be brought about by the day fixed without any great difficulty. He said that the bill passed in regard to the effect of the Silver bill on the resumption question. He said he had to admit that the effect of the bill on the resumption of the act, as resumption could be brought about by the day fixed without any great difficulty. He said that the bill passed in regard to the effect of the Silver bill on the resumption question. He said he had to admit that the effect of the bill on the resumption of the act, as resumption could be brought about by the day fixed without any great difficulty.

HOX, JOHN ALLEN, Register of the Treasury for the past nine years, died last week. Mr. Allen was a Pennsylvanian, and was 66 years old.

THE Secretary of the Treasury has announced the appointment of the following as Government Directors of the Union Pacific Railroad: Charles F. Adams, Jr.; John P. Buckley, Ohio; G. W. Smythe, Iowa; Daniel Chadwick, Connecticut; and C. C. Howell, Nebraska.

POLITICAL. The Democratic State Central Committee of Pennsylvania has decided to hold the next State Convention at Pittsburgh, May 22. Returns of the recent election in New Hampshire, from all the towns of the State, foot up as follows: Prescott, 39,377; McKean, 37,963; Kendall, 251; Flint, 223; scattering, 93. Prescott's plurality, 1,514; majority, 941. The Democratic State Central Committee of Pennsylvania has decided to hold the next State Convention at Pittsburgh, May 22. Returns of the recent election in New Hampshire, from all the towns of the State, foot up as follows: Prescott, 39,377; McKean, 37,963; Kendall, 251; Flint, 223; scattering, 93. Prescott's plurality, 1,514; majority, 941.

the most notable cases in the history of this Congress, and while the nomination, in view of the recent developments, was not a discreet one, it is probable that the fact that Reed was a prominent friend of the President and Stanley Matthews did not help him in committee.

THE Rhode Island Democrats held their State Convention at Providence last week. J. B. Barnaby was nominated for Governor, and Jesse Lee for Lieutenant Governor. The Democratic State Convention has been called to meet in Arkansas on the 4th of July. The South Carolina House of Representatives, in an overwhelming vote, has adopted a resolution intended to conciliate the national sentiment of the country. The Governor of Rhode Island deems it expedient, to instruct an order of nole prosequere to be entered in any of the proceedings brought, or which may be brought, by the State against the officers named by the joint investigating committee on public frauds.

WASHINGTON dispatches report a rumor to the effect that the President is contemplating a reconstruction of his Cabinet, and that the State Department, the Interior, and the War Department are the ones to be changed. A Washington correspondent says Montgomery Blair recently asserted that a bill was being introduced in Congress, proposing to reorganize the Presidential staff.

FOREIGN NEWS. SULEIMAN PASHA has arrived at Constantinople, in close custody. It is thought that Osman Pasha will soon be released by the Russian Government, and will be allowed to return to his country. A dispatch from Vienna says the declaration of war between Russia and England is complete. Austria and Germany, it is alleged, offer to mediate a peace, but the Russian Government has confidentially informed of the conditions of peace, and considers them on the whole, not satisfactory.

A French steamer Astarte has been lost off Castillon, on the coast of South America. Thirty-one lives were lost. A cable dispatch from London, dated the 23rd inst., reports the death of Rosebery to Hannah, only daughter of Baron Meyer of Rothschild. More men have been lost from the Russian fleet, and the disease by the Russians in Armenia since the close of the war than were slain or disabled in all the battles with the English soldiers. Five of the most valiant characters are still living, and three Generals are reported among the latest victims.

A French steamer announces that "the companies in the several large printing-houses have struck work. This, taken in connection with the great strike of miners at Decazeville, which is attributed to the instigation of the International strikers, and the strike of the Parisian printers, is a very serious situation. A cable dispatch says the villages of Olympus, Reparsa, Caria and Stochori, in Thessaly, have been sacked and burned by the Turks. Women, children and old men were massacred, except some who escaped to the mountains. The Turkish troops, who were in the country, reported by cable to be in a stagnant condition, and thousands of workmen are out of employment. The Turkish Government is sending a telegram to the British Government in the case of Consul Eisenkuch, who has been arrested in Constantinople.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS. TUESDAY, March 19.—SENATE.—The day was an extremely animated one in the Senate. When the Deficiency bill came up there was a long, heated, bitter, personal discussion upon the timber question. The bill was passed by a vote of 22 to 12. The Secretary of the Interior, by his acts, has been severely criticised. The Interior Department and the administration have been severely criticised. The Interior Department and the administration have been severely criticised.

TALKING-MACHINES. Mr. Thomas A. Edison has recently invented an instrument which is, undoubtedly, the acoustic marvel of the century. It is called the "speaking machine," and is applied to call it "The Sound-Writer who talks." Much curiosity has been expressed as to the workings of this instrument, so I purpose giving an account of it.

All talking-machines may be reduced to two types. That of Prof. Faber, of Vienna, is the most perfect example of one type; that of Mr. Edison is the only example of the other.

THE wild horse can run away from a man; but this protection fails at times. The horse-catchers—or "vaqueros," as they are called—are famous riders, and to see them capture a wild mustang is better than to go to a circus. The vaqueros make ropes and saddles, and start out to see what he can find. In front, on the high pommel of the saddle, he hangs large coils of leather rope, about a hundred feet long, called a laeso. It is made of strips of hide, and is used to catch the horse.

CRIME IN TEXAS. Texas issues a curious public document entitled "A List of Fugitives from Justice." It contains 200 names, and puts the number of fugitives at 400, with forty counties yet to hear from, which cover some of the most populous portions of the State. Of these gentlemen and ladies who have wandered away from home and given the cold shoulder to the guardians of the peace, the latter made advances, 750 are charged with murder. Rewards, ranging from $50 to $1,000—the aggregate being $80,000—are offered for 800 of the fugitives, and a list of 100 more, who are charged with burglary, theft, and other crimes. A State good one to emigrate to. Appraisals of it, it is estimated that over 100,000 horses have been stolen in Texas in the last three years. Some 750 in all are reported to be in the hands of horse-thieves and fugitives from justice in the State, and the number that have escaped arrest is incalculable. An organized gang of several hundreds is operating in Middle Texas, and the loss of farm stock in some localities is immense. It is little wonder that, when one is caught, he is likely to be hung to the nearest tree.

A Night-Gown in Court. A Spanish lady was brought into court in London the other day for refusing to pay for a blue silk night-gown. She refused to pay for it, and the judge, in a fit of anger, ordered her to be committed to prison until she had paid for it. She was released on the condition that she should pay for it.

STEVEN McCORKLE, of North Carolina, a leader among the colored men, advocated the establishment of a printing press on the plea that under existing laws the average offender cannot afford to pay the fine usually imposed for petty crimes, and, consequently, has to work in the chain gang for months, thereby losing valuable time. He proposed that the offender should be allowed to work for his fine, and that the State should employ him for a certain period of time, and pay him for his work.

THE late Judge Leonard, of Louisiana, was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

that man is his master, and, perhaps, in one or two days he submits to a bit in his mouth, and becomes a tame horse for the rest of his life. If by any chance, he escapes before he is broken in and runs away to join his wild companions, he soon becomes a fugitive, and is hunted for by the law. He is again, he will stand, trembling and frightened, too much terrified to even run away.—From "The Wild Mustang," by Charles Barnard, St. Nicholas for April.

Horrors of the Irish Evictions. From scenes of fiery excitement into others of deepest gloom and despair, was but a short step for poor Ireland. Three terrible years had annihilated the resources of the rural population. The result was a luxury they could not afford. Thus England sowed the seed of the wind, and is now reaping the whirlwind; for the great "famine clearances" which followed drove 1,000,000 Irish to America, filled with that deadly hatred which has been the past history of the Irish people, there would be an end of seditions and secret conspiracies. None cared or thought what would become of the poor people who now held the lands; and if the landlords were tempted to pity, it was a luxury they could not afford. Thus England sowed the seed of the wind, and is now reaping the whirlwind; for the great "famine clearances" which followed drove 1,000,000 Irish to America, filled with that deadly hatred which has been the past history of the Irish people, there would be an end of seditions and secret conspiracies.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE LATE JUDGE LEONARD.

Sad Termination of a Romance in Real Life.—The Object of Congressman Leonard's Visit to Cuba. The announcement of the death of Representative Leonard, of Louisiana, at the city of New Orleans, recalls the reports published touching the purpose of his visit to Cuba. After his departure from New York, it was announced that Judge Leonard was sent to Cuba to see the President of the alleged kidnapping of colored citizens of the United States, and their conveyance to Cuba, where they were sold into slavery. It was further alleged that Judge Leonard was commissioned to represent to Gov. Nicholls the views of the President with reference to the prosecution of members of the Louisiana Returning Board. These stories were without the slightest foundation in fact.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

THE visit of Judge Leonard to Havana was purely personal and private, and was of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character. He was a young lawyer, who came to New Orleans from New York, and was engaged in the practice of his profession. He was a man of a peculiarly interesting, delicate, and romantic character.

SABBATH READING.

He Knoweth. Out of the window in the night, I saw the city and its towers, Wandering shapes of woe and woe— Shapes that the bitter midnight haunts.

THE origin of the soul of man is not to be found upon earth, for there is nothing in the soul of a mixed or concrete nature, or that has its appearance of being formed or made out of the earth, nothing even hurried, or airy, or fiery. For what is there in nature of that kind which has the power of memory, understanding or thought? which can recollect the past, and plan for the future, and comprehend the present? For these capabilities are confined to divine beings, nor can we discover any source from which men could derive them, but from God.—Oeero.

Prayer. Christ has conferred on prayer all power for good—to renovate the weak, to heal the sick, to free from the power of evil spirits, to loosen the bonds of the innocent. It repels temptations, extinguishes passions, and gives a new, noble-minded, delights the magnanimous, guides travelers, stills the waves, nourishes the poor, controls the rich, raises the fallen, prods the falling, and preserves the standing. Prayer is the bulwark of the faithful; on the wall against the adversary who lays us on every side. Therefore, never let us go about unarmed.—Tertullian.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK. BEVER—Choice Graded Steers... 4.00 4.10. HOGS—Choice Graded Steers... 3.75 3.85. CATTLE—Choice Graded Steers... 3.50 3.60. SHEEP—Choice Graded Steers... 3.25 3.35. WHEAT—No. 1, 2, 3... 1.25 1.35. CORN—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.75 0.85. RICE—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.50 0.60. SUGAR—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.40 0.50. COFFEE—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.30 0.40. TEA—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.20 0.30. SPICES—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.10 0.20. OILS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.05 0.10. FURS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.01 0.02. GOLD—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. SILVER—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. DOLLARS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. POUNDS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. FRANKS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. GUILDS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. DUKATS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. PIASTRES—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. RUPYAS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. CROANES—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. MORGES—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. MILLS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. BARS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. COINS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. NOTES—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. CHECKS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. BILLS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. BONDS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. STOCKS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. COMMODITIES—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01. MISCELLANEOUS—No. 1, 2, 3... 0.00 0.01.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.

THE spirit of self-sacrifice is one of the noblest of human qualities. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character. It is a spirit that will sweep away the selfishness of the world, and will leave behind it a pure and noble character.