

THE Supreme Court commenced a regular term on Tuesday last with 93 cases on the calendar.

EX-PRESIDENT GRANT, wife, and son paid their respects to Pope Leo XIII on the 30th ult., being presented by Cardinal McCloskey, of New York.

THE attention of Supervisors is invited to Act No. 198 of the session laws of 1877 imposing a tax on dogs: $1 for a male dog and $3 for a female dog.

THOSE Republican journalists who are howling so dolefully about the partisanship of the House in determining contested seats should refer back to the vote of Senate in giving a seat to Kellogg, of Louisiana, and forever after hold their peace.

WE DON'T believe that the Democrats of the House won lasting credit by admitting—with the aid of Ben Butler's vote—Dean to the seat held by Field.

THE Republicans are jubilant because Judge Blatchford has decided the preliminary questions in the suit against Field in favor of the government: that is that the action of the assessor in levying tax and penalty in the absence of return, and the payment of such assessment and penalty, by Tilden, does not bar suit.

DETROIT has a total registered vote of over 20,000, yet that city polled less than 2,000 votes on Monday last on the constitutional amendments.

THE three-cornered fight in this town called out 821 voters, and the "National Greenbackers" waxed the other two parties, their vote, in fact, largely exceeding the combined vote for both the Democratic and Republican tickets.

A GOVERNMENT like an individual does a good thing in paying its debts. But does an individual really, or in any sense, pay his debts when he gives his note? And can the Government at Washington pay its debts, whether bonded or floating, by the issue of a new batch of greenbacks—mere promises to pay?

THE Constitution of the United States empowers Congress "to coin money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coin." This in no way authorizes Congress to print treasury notes or promises to pay and make them money or a legal tender.

THE CONSTITUTIONALITY or unconstitutionality of a new issue of greenbacks, or in other words the legality of a new batch of legal-tender notes, is the main point to be decided by Congress.

THE TOWN ELECTIONS—OFFICERS ELECT.

We are without full returns from the several towns of the county, but such as we have give our readers:

ANN ARBOR. In this Republican stronghold the battle was fought in caucus, where it is said with Democratic aid) Shurtleff, who seemed to have a permanent claim to the supervisorship, was shelved and a new man nominated. But 109 votes were polled. The following are the officers elect:

Supervisor, Isaac N. S. Foster. Clerk, Lorenzo E. Dyer. Treasurer, Fred B. Braun. Justice, Isaac Babcock. Superintendent of Schools, Emile Baur. School Inspector, Elijah E. Kellogg. Commissioner of Highways, Fleming Busenbark.

BRIDGEWATER. The whole Democratic ticket elected, as follows: Supervisor, Daniel W. LeBaron. Clerk, David W. Palmer. Treasurer, Henry R. Palmer. Justices, Malcom McDougall; William Hanks to fill vacancy. Supt. of Schools, George Calhoun. School Inspector, Henry R. Palmer. Highway Commissioner, George Walter. Constables, Lloyd Conklin, Charles Woods, James Quick, Henry Reyer.

DEXTER. For two years a split in the Democratic ranks has given the Republicans the Supervisor in this strong Democratic town, but this year the breach was healed and the Republicans all "scopped" by majorities ranging from 36 to 80. The officers elect are:

Supervisor, Frederick R. Snyder, 36 maj. Clerk, John McManis, 80 maj. Treasurer, William Ryan, 52 maj. Justice, Patrick Babbit, 64 maj. Superintendent of Schools, Richard McQuillan, 53 maj. School Inspector, Michael Ryan, 63 maj. Highway Commissioner, James Reid, 46 maj. Drain Commissioner, James H. Lyman, 62 maj. Constables, Richard Phelan, James Ivory, John W. Lavey, John Bell.

LIMA. The Democrats of this town made a clean sweep. The Republicans headed their ticket with a new man, Frederick Widemeyer, but Whittaker increased his last year's majority of 1 to 8. The officers elect are:

Supervisor, Charles Whitaker. Clerk, William Covert. Treasurer, Eugene B. Freer. Justice, Garner McMillan. Superintendent of Schools, Marcus S. Cook. School Inspector, Leonard A. Nolan. Highway Commissioner, Charles K. Brown. Drain Commissioner, Caleb Brown. Constables, George Stockford, George Lindower.

LODI. Entire Democratic ticket elected except Philip Blum, candidate for Supervisor, who was beaten 29 by Egbert P. Harper, who headed a "Citizens' Ticket." The new officers are:

Supervisor, Egbert P. Harper. Clerk, Joseph B. Blass. Treasurer, Samuel D. Rogers. Justice, James Sager. Supt. of Schools, Brahmam H. Taylor. School Inspector, Augustus Sager. Highway Commissioner, Charles J. Keadle. Drain Commissioner, Frederick Laubengaver. Constables, George Huber, Walter Cook, Frederick Sager, John S. Schalle.

MANCHESTER. The three-cornered fight in this town called out 821 voters, and the "National Greenbackers" waxed the other two parties, their vote, in fact, largely exceeding the combined vote for both the Democratic and Republican tickets.

NORTHFIELD. But one ticket was run in this town. An opposition one was nominated the head of which refused to get any tickets printed or have anything to do with, and so the Democratic candidate had a "walk over." The officers are:

Supervisor, Patrick S. Purcell. Clerk, William C. Childs. Treasurer, Bradley H. Webb. Justice, Edwin Jacob, Joseph J. Rathfon. Superintendent of Schools, Wilber E. H. Sizer. School Inspector, Peter Cook. Highway Commissioner, Frederick Hutzal. Drain Commissioner, Thomas G. Wallace. Constables, Henry Miller, Frank Rathfon.

PITTSFIELD. The Republicans played a "one hand" and the following officers are the result: Supervisor, Morton F. Case. Clerk, William K. Childs. Treasurer, Bradley H. Webb. Justice, Edwin Jacob, Joseph J. Rathfon. Superintendent of Schools, Wilber E. H. Sizer. School Inspector, Peter Cook. Highway Commissioner, Frederick Hutzal. Drain Commissioner, Thomas G. Wallace. Constables, Henry Miller, Frank Rathfon.

SALINE. The Democrats of Saline—owing to personal dissensions—came out at the little end of the horn, the Republicans gaining the Supervisor and by this gain keeping control of the Board of Supervisors. The candidates and majorities so far furnished us:

Supervisor, Everett B. Clark, Rep., 14. Clerk, Caleb M. King, Rep., 34. Treasurer, Martin Seeger, Rep., 4. Justice, John Forbes, Dem., 1. Supt. of Schools, George E. Mitchell, Rep. School Inspector, Edwin De Pay, Dem. Highway Commissioner, John Gordon, Dem. 53. Drain Commissioner, Hamilton Cole, Dem. Constables, Edwin W. Wallace, Nathan Boring, John Klager, Frank Whiting, all Democrats.

SCIO. In this town there was a three-cornered fight—the Republicans of "National" party, a ticket in the lead, headed by Samuel W. Holmes. The Republican ticket was headed by Stephen G. Johnson. The entire Democratic ticket was elected, as follows:

Supervisor, Patrick McGuinness. Clerk, Volney H. Potter. Treasurer, Jacob J. J. Justice, George C. Page, Supt. of Schools, John Lee. School Inspector, James Davis. Highway Commissioner, David Almondinger, Drain Commissioner, James Smith. Constables, Charles W. Guest, Christopher Behan, Christian Bruner, James Hill.

SYLVAN. Three tickets were run in this town, with a mixed result. The officers elect are: Supervisor, Timothy McKone, Dem. and Republican. Clerk, Frederick Vogel, Dem. Treasurer, Orin Thatcher, Dem. Supt. of Schools, William E. Dewey, Rep. School Inspector, David E. Fuller, Dem. Highway Commissioner, Wales W. Riggs, Dem. Drain Commissioner, Christian Weber, Dem. Constables, James Hudler, Dem., Perry C. Dewey, Rep., George Foster, Greenback, and Richard H. Dewey, Greenback and Rep.

SHARON.

The Democracy of Sharon thrashed out the flooring on Monday by majorities as indicated: Supervisor, John J. Robinson, 29. Clerk, Albert H. Perry, 31. Treasurer, James L. Wade, 18. Justice, Louis F. Jackson, 29. Jefferson R. Leman, to fill vacancy, 21. Supt. of Schools, Matthew J. Flynn, 14. School Inspector, Ashley Parks, Jr., 17. Highway Commissioner, Charles W. Raymond, 19. Drain Commissioner, Harvey Blackman, 17. Constables, James L. Wade, Lambert Cook, Bennett R. Tracy, Charles Lenn, each 17 majority.

SUPERIOR. The whole Republican ticket elected except Treasurer. The candidates for that office tied and the Democrat "drew in." The officers are: Supervisor, Freeman P. Galpin. Clerk, James A. Wilbur. Treasurer, George Rufford, Dem. Justice, Thomas B. Goodspeed, James A. Campbell to fill vacancy. Supt. of Schools, George McDougall, Jr. School Inspector, Ira C. Cuppes. Highway Commissioner, Andrew J. Leitch. Constables, Hiram Goodspeed, Oliver Markham, Jacob Meyers, James Rice.

WEBSTER. The full Republican ticket was elected in this town by majorities ranging from 46 to 71, the latter figures being Ball's majority over John Coyt, the Democratic candidate for Supervisor. Officers elect: Supervisor, Lorenzo D. Ball. Clerk, William H. Weston. Treasurer, Andrew J. Sawyer, Jr. Justices, William E. Waldron, James B. Arms, Jr., to fill vacancy. Superintendent of Schools, Olean A. Vaughn. School Inspector, Alonzo Olmeyer. Highway Commissioner, Isaac Terry. Drain Commissioner, George Foster. Constables, George W. Phelps, Henry Stumm, William Martin, George B. Rosser.

YPSILANTI. In the absence of definite returns we venture to schedule the list of officers elect—all Republicans—as follows: Supervisor, W. Irving Yeckley. Clerk, Albert R. Waldron. Treasurer, Christian J. Kelley. Justices, Benjamin D. Loomis; Jacob Emery to fill vacancy. Superintendent of Schools, Edwin C. Warner. School Inspector, William H. Lay. Highway Commissioner, Peter Dickerson. Drain Commissioner, Peter Dickerson. Constables, Arthur Paster, George Clough, Hiram Eston, Oswald Frazer.

YPSILANTI CITY. Nide, Republican, was elected Mayor by 118 majority. The Republicans also elected one Supervisor, two Aldermen, and one Constable, and the Democrats, one Supervisor, two Justices, three Aldermen, and a Constable.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS. Politically the Board of Supervisors for the coming year may be classified as follows: DEMOCRATS. Daniel LeBaron, Dexter, Fred R. Snyder, Freedom, John G. Breining, Lima, Charles Whitaker, Lodi, Egbert P. Harper, Lyndon, Thomas Ryan, Manchester, Horatio Burch, Northfield, Patrick S. Purcell, Scio, Patrick McGuinness, Sharon, John J. Robinson, Sylvan, Timothy McKone. Ypsilanti, 24 dist., Martin L. Shutt.

REPUBLICANS. (Conrad Krapf, Ann Arbor City, Alonzo Schuyler, Ann Arbor Town, Isaac N. S. Foster, Augusta, John D. Olcott, Pittsfield, Morton F. Case, Salem, George S. Wheeler, Saline, Everett B. Clark, Superior, Freeman P. Galpin, Webster, John W. Blakeslee, York, John W. Blakeslee, Ypsilanti City, 1st dist., Leo Yeck, Ypsilanti Town, W. Irving Yeck. Democrats, 12; Republicans, 13.

THE CHARTER ELECTIONS this year are unusually mixed, and with neither a green and jaundiced hue. The Republicans seem to have elected mayors in Ann Arbor, Big Rapids, Lapeer, Muskegon (H. H. Holt, ex-lieutenant governor), Niles, Port Huron, Traverse City, Tawas City, and Ypsilanti; also, supervisors in Benton Harbor, St. Johns and innumerable other places. The Democracy have elected mayors in Alpena, Bay City, East Saginaw, Flint (with a Republican city government), Grand Haven, Greenville, Ionia, Lansing, Monticello, a Republican city government, Owosso, Pontiac, Saginaw, and St. Clair. The Greenback party have elected mayors in Adrian (with Representative R. B. Robbins as justice of the peace), Battle Creek, Coldwater, Grand Rapids, Hillsdale, Jackson, Marshall, Mason, Midland, and Yassar. Considering the Greenback move as a Democratic stratagem, it has been successful in many places; but the voters will soon find out—as they did on election day in Lansing—that no Democracy can carry a Republican Greenback or when there is a candidate of his own party. Republicans are used for hate but not permitted to hold the fish-pole. Hillsdale and Barry counties, two Republican strongholds, are said to be caught this spring on a bare hook, for such is the Greenback version of wealth from irredeemable paper currency.—Lansing Republican.

School Statistics for 1877. From the Lansing Republican. The annual reports of the various school districts in the State for the year ending Sept. 3, 1877, have been received by the superintendent of public instruction, and properly classified, their errors and imperfections corrected, and the results tabulated. The comparative footings for the two years 1876 and 1877 show an increase in attendance over the increase in number of scholars, which is a most favorable feature. There is a gratifying reduction of district school tax from last year, and a reduction of almost six per cent in the bonded indebtedness. These figures are the only complete ones yet published.
