

The Michigan Argus.

VOLUME XXXIV.

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, MAY 30, 1879.

NUMBER 22.

The Michigan Argus.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

In the third story of the brick block corner of Main and Huron streets,

ANN ARBOR, - - - MICHIGAN.

Entrance on Huron street, opposite the Gregory House.

JOHN N. BAILEY,

EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

TERMS, $2.00 a year, or $1.50 in advance.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

SPACES.	1 w.	2 w.	3 w.	4 w.	5 w.	6 w.	7 w.	8 w.
1 square	$ 75	$ 125	$ 150	$ 225	$ 300	$ 375	$ 450	$ 525
2 squares	2 00	3 00	3 50	5 00	6 00	7 50	10 00	12 50
3 squares	3 00	4 50	5 00	7 50	10 00	15 00	20 00	25 00
4 squares	4 00	6 00	7 50	10 00	15 00	20 00	25 00	30 00
5 squares	5 00	7 00	8 00	10 00	15 00	20 00	24 00	30 00
6 squares	6 00	9 00	12 00	15 00	20 00	25 00	30 00	35 00
7 squares	7 00	10 00	13 00	16 00	20 00	25 00	30 00	35 00
8 squares	8 00	12 00	16 00	20 00	25 00	30 00	35 00	40 00
9 squares	9 00	13 00	18 00	22 00	28 00	35 00	42 00	48 00
10 squares	10 00	15 00	20 00	25 00	30 00	35 00	40 00	45 00

Twelve lines or less considered a square.

Cards in Directory, $1.00 line per year.

Business or special notices 10 cents a line for first insertion, and 5 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Yearly advertising have the privilege of changing their insertion price.

Additional advertising, $1.00 per line per month, and charged accordingly.

Legal advertising, first insertion, 70 cents per column; second insertion, 60 cents per column.

When a postponement is added to an advertisement, the whole will be charged the same as the first insertion.

JOBS PRINTING.

Pamphlets, Posters, Handbills, Circulars, Cards, Ball Tickets, Labels, Banks, Bills and other varieties of Print and Fancy Job Printing executed with promptness, and in the best possible style.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

D. B. TAYLOR, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Chelsea, Mich

DONALD MACLEAN, M. D., Physician and Surgeon, Office and residence, 71 Huron street, Ann Arbor. Office hours from 8 to 12 A.M. and from 1 to 3 P.M.

MRS. SOPHIA VOLAND, M. D., Physician and Surgeon. Office at residence, 44 Ant street. Will attend to all professional calls promptly.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist, Office corner of W. Main and Washington streets, over B&A's store, Ann Arbor, Mich. Anesthetic administered if desired.

C. SCHAEFERLE, Teacher of the Piano. Pupil attains the desired skill in piano-playing by a systematic course of instruction. For terms, apply at residence, No. 12 West Library street, Ann Arbor. Prompt attention paid to piano tuning.

CRAMER, FRUEAUFT & CORBIN, ATTORNEYS at Law.

E. K. FRUEAUFT, Justice of the Peace, All business promptly attended to. Office No. 8 East Washington street, Rinsey and Sebold's block.

HENRY R. HILL, Attorney at Law, Dealer in Real Estate and Insurance Agent.

Office, No. 3 Opera House Block, ANN ARBOR.

E. C. FREEER, DEALER IN Fresh, Salt & Smoked Meats, Fresh Fish, Oysters, Poultry, etc.

No. 36 East Huron Street, ANN ARBOR, MICH.

J. H. NICKELS, DEALER IN FRESH AND SALT MEATS, Hams, Sausages, Lard, etc.

STATE STREET OPPOSITE NORTHWEST CORNER OF UNIVERSITY CAMPUS.

Orders promptly filled. Farmers having meats to sell give him a call.

EVERYBODY SAYS THAT

S. B. REVENAUGH

IN THE BOSS Photographer of Ann Arbor.

Fourth Street, East of Court House, 1st floor.

THE ANN ARBOR SAVINGS BANK

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN.

Capital paid in $50,000.00

Capital in trust 100,000.00

Transacts a general Banking business; buys and sells Exchanges on New York, Detroit and Chicago; sells Sight Drafts on all the principal cities of Europe; also, sells Passage Tickets to Liverpool, London and Glasgow, via the Anchor Line of Steamships. Interest rates are lower than most other first-class lines.

This Bank, already having a large business, invites merchants and others to open accounts with them, with the assurance of most liberal dealing consistent with safe banking.

Interest to Loan on Approved Securities.

DIRECTORS—Christian Mack, W. W. Wins, W. D. Harriman, Daniel Hiscock, R. A. Neal, Wm. Desuel, and William B. Smith.

OFFICES:

CHRISTIAN MACK, W. W. WINS, President.

CHAS. E. HISCOCK, Cashier.

EMANUEL MANN, Druggist and Pharmacist.

SOUTH MAIN STREET, ANN ARBOR,

has on hand a well selected stock of

PURE DRUGS,

MEDICINES,

CHEMICALS,

CHOICE PERFUMES,

Toilet Articles, Shoulder Braces, Trusses, etc., which he offers for sale at prices to suit the times.

Physician's Prescriptions carefully prepared at all hours.

EBERBACH & SON,

Druggists and

Pharmacists,

12 South Main St.,

Have on hand a large and well selected stock of

DRUGS,

MEDICINES,

CHEMICALS,

DYE STUFFS,

Artists and Wax Flower Materials,

Toilet Articles, Trusses, Etc.

PURE WINES AND LIQUORS,

Special attention paid to the furnishing of Phleum, Chemicals, Etc., with, Chemical Glassware, Porcelain Ware, Pure Reagents, etc.

Physician's prescriptions, carefully prepared at all hours.

Tit for Tat.

"Farewell, fond one—dieu my Pole-star ever!" Those were his parting words long, long ago. Ere yet the ocean did our hearts sever.

And after years their value tell I true.

For all too soon were vows which erst we plighted.

Beneath the crescent moonlight's silv'ry rays

Forgotten, and my spirit left benighted;

To mourn the mem'ry of those happy days.

The postman's thrilling knock resounded often,

But still the letter frayed in the main

O'er came to me, my spirit's woe to soften,

O'er kiss me aching heart of all its pain.

Till I spied a paragraph thus headed—

"A marriage in g'h life across the seas."

He was false, watch was to another wedded,

And the old love forgot by degrees!

But, oh, the anguish whilst I longing tarried,

And the pain of one the stormy main across

That's past now, and I too am married.

My heart has found a guerdon for its loss,

BY PERCY BYSSHE SHELLEY.

—

A Dream of May Flowers.

—

BY PERCY BYSSHE SHELLEY.

I dreamt that as I wended by the way,

Bare winter was suddenly changed to spring,

And gentle odors led my steps astray.

Mixed with a sound of waters murmuring

Along a shelving bank of turf which lay

But there—was no turf, nor grass, nor green,

Its green arms round the bosom of the stream.

But kissed it and fled, as though it had

Kissed it and then fled, as though it had

Replay.

"Never made an April fool?"

"Never, and never will be," was the reply.

"But, then, child, go play that last nocturne you learned. It suits me,

I hate sky-rocket music, but that is a dreamy, lazy air and I like it."

"So, I dreamt of your liking anything dreamy or lazy," said Mrs. Kimberly.

"I thought you were all energy and activity."

"When I work, I work," was the reply.

"But when I rest, I want to play."

"I'll do, I do."

"I'll keep your eyes open."

"I'll be, I'll be, I'll be, I'll be."

"I'll be, I'll be, I'll be, I

FRIDAY, MAY 30, 1879.

Sherman in the Field.

John Sherman is willing to be a candidate for President as he states in a letter to a friend—and, good soul! he is willing to be elected. It is a novel thing for a man to write just such a letter; and we do not believe it was ever before done by anyone who seriously entertained the idea. It would sound well for Daniel Pratt or Geo. Francis Train, but a man holding the position of John Sherman ought to let his friends bring him forward, and not be quite so forward himself. Certainly there is no affection or false modesty about the matter. It shows an obliging disposition upon the part of John Sherman.—He takes occasion to state in the same letter that he might be nominated and elected Governor of Ohio, but a grave duty forbids. Though the executive chair of that state proved to be the successful road to the Presidential chair for its present incumbent, he, John Sherman, can not come down to travel in the same highway. He wants to mount its steps direct. Moreover he hopes to crown the summit of his ambition by the votes of war Democrats. In this also he exhibits no false sense of modesty for he informs us how he hopes to get there—if he gets there at all. A fair interpretation of his letter is, that he will be a candidate upon the war issues, issues that are obsolete; issues that went into history nearly fifteen years ago, and without a revival of which it would be useless for the Republican party to attempt a campaign. Another revival of sectional hatred toward the south must be attempted in order to stand any chance of retaining hold of the executive branch of the government, the only source of power remaining in the hands of a party which, for the past twenty years have observed the sceptre of government melting out of their hands. It is their last and only hope of retaining even this portion of Federal patronage.

The editor of the ARGUS can always have Bea's approving smile, if he will only scissor the right kind of articles. The former editor of the ARGUS had a perverse way of refusing this, hence Bea did not like him.—Register.

By what authority does our cotemporary thrust its proboscis into a matter that does not concern it? Begotten in a spirit of hatred, it lives for no higher purpose than the satisfaction of revenge, to which it has long given allegiance, and, appears to envy the ARGUS because it is without any of its "stock on hand." Whatever may have been the conduct of this journal under the management of its "former editor" its future mission, in addition to that of subserving the interests of the great party to which it has long given allegiance, will be to give the news in a concise and readable manner as possible, submitting personal quarrels to the attention of such papers as are conceived for editor of the ARGUS believes the true functions of a newspaper to be something higher more enabling than the ventilation of spleen and gratification of personal resentment. Besides life is too short, and time too valuable to be spent altogether in looking after the weak spots of a single individual.

Beecher, who has been on a lecturing tour through the South, has quite fallen in love with the Southern people. "So far as I had an opportunity of judging," said Mr. Beecher to a reporter at Louisville, "I love the Southern people. They are noble, kind, considerate and enthusiastic. I have lectured in Europe and all over the United States, but never had it been my lot to meet with more intelligent and better people than you Southerners. The ovations tendered me at Memphis and Nashville I consider the pleasantest of my life. I only regret that I can stay no longer with you!"—Mr. Beecher expresses his determination to go on another Southern tour and give the proceeds of his lectures to Southern charity, which is very good of Mr. Beecher.

The State Sunday School Convention will be held in the city of Detroit, June 17th, 18th and 19th, and one of the best programmes ever had at any of the State Conventions is being prepared, the whole of which will soon be announced. Reduced rates will be secured on all railroads. Entertainment to delegates will be furnished by the people of Detroit, and every Sunday School in the State of Michigan is requested to send a delegate.

From the New York World.
Michigan Doubtful.

Mr. Churchill, of Newburgh, only count upon a majority of 6,000 in his State, which went Republican by 25,000 at the corresponding election in 1877 and by 25,000 in 1875, while Hayes carried it in 1875 by 25,000 over Tilden, and Grant in 1872 by 57,000 over Greeley. Of course under the pressure of a closely contested campaign many of the Republicans who went into the National party last year have returned to their old allegiance, and others have fallen off from the Greenback cause because of Mr. Sherman's "resumption." But after making allowance for all this, the fact remains that the net result of the National movement must be that the Republicans in Michigan have gone out of the Chandler camp and are no longer to be scared by his "solid South" bugaboo. Michigan, as the world said before the election it would be, is hereafter a State to be fought for earnestly—a State worth careful watching by the National Democracy. According to the April figures the Republicans will lose one Congressional district by nearly 3,000 majority; in two others they are in a minority of between 900 and 900 votes as compared with the united opposition, now that things have crystallized, and in a fourth they have a margin of less than 400 votes to work upon.

A MATRIMONIALIZED FAMILY.—Edward Brown, of Wilton, served in the Civil War and at its close brought home a Florida wife to his wife. She had returned to Florida, where the woman was deserted with two children, Brown going back to Bridgeport and marrying again. He left No. 2 and two more children later, marrying with another woman. Wife No. 1 in Florida married again, and returned to Wilton. Husband No. 2 died, and she was taken to Wilton's poor-house. Brown's wife No. 2 in Bridgeport, was also brought to the same place, and the two wives and four children were domiciled together. Subsequently wife No. 2 was taken from the poor-house by friends. Wife No. 1 is about to leave in company of a third husband.

A MATRIMONIALIZED FAMILY.—Edward Brown, of Wilton, served in the Civil War and at its close brought home a Florida wife to his wife. She had returned to Florida, where the woman was deserted with two children, Brown going back to Bridgeport and marrying again. He left No. 2 and two more children later, marrying with another woman. Wife No. 1 in Florida married again, and returned to Wilton. Husband No. 2 died, and she was taken to Wilton's poor-house. Brown's wife No. 2 in Bridgeport, was also brought to the same place, and the two wives and four children were domiciled together. Subsequently wife No. 2 was taken from the poor-house by friends. Wife No. 1 is about to leave in company of a third husband.

The first crop of wool, unwashed was purchased by Messrs. Mack and Schmidt of Wood Bro. of Lodi, at 20 cents.

General Notes.

—U. S. supreme court justice Hunt is getting well.
—Talmadge goes to Europe on a three months leave of absence.
—William Lloyd Garrison, one of the pioneer anti-slavery agitators, died last week.
—The widow of President Polk is still living in Nashville, a sprightly, well-preserved dame.
—Georgia's four per cent are all sold out, and still the brigadiers are running this country to ruin. Too bad—too bad!
—The sole survivor of old Ossawatomie's companions in his raid at Harper's Ferry has turned up in the Rochester, N. Y. jail.
—It is said that Mr. Pond (H. W. Beecher's lecture agent) has offered Jeff Davis $400 a night to lecture through the north next season.
—Mr. Henry Bergh is again in luck. He was informed last week by a wealthy lady that she has left his society $25,000 in her will.

—Secretary Sherman says he doesn't want the nomination of Governor. He won't throw the Presidency over his shoulder, though.

—Gen. Pemberton, who surrendered Vicksburg to Grant, has taken up his residence in Philadelphia, and desires to resume his citizenship.
—Col. Thomas A. Scott has a salary of $100,000 as president of seven railroads. The Pennsylvania Central pays about one-fourth of the amount.

—Mark Gray, who shot at Edwin Booth a few evenings ago, has been pronounced insane by the criminal court and is to be sent to the Elgin asylum.
—Col. D. R. Anthony, of the Leavenworth Times, refuses to be a candidate for Governor, and says that the Times office is a good deal bigger than any the State of Kansas has to give.

—The dedication of St. Patrick's new cathedral in New York on Sunday brot together the largest gathering of distinguished dignitaries in the church ever before assembled in America.

—Robert Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas are both practicing law in Chicago and both are prominent in politics. Illinois may again be called to choose the polls between Douglas and a Lincoln.

—The Rochester Theological Seminary is to receive gifts from five well known New York laymen amounting to $142,000. The names of these gentlemen are J. B. Hoyt, J. B. Trevor, Charles Pratt, and the brothers Rockwell.

—Mr. Hendricks, in reply to an interviewer says: "I do not propose to be a candidate for vice-president with any one, and as far as I am concerned the old ticket will not be in the field." Mr. H. will be re-nominated and will run all the same.

—The late Theodore B. Weber, of Chicago, who was fatally shot by Mrs. Roberts a few days ago, died worth some $115,000, a moiety of which his will directs to be used in founding a German college in Chicago after the pattern of the University of Bonn.

—C. C. Beebe, late city treasurer of Flint, is a defaulter to the amount of some $10,000. The money has been used in his business. He has made over all his property to his bondsmen, and the city will not be the loser.

—On the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and that the devises, legates and heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are to appear at a session of said court, then to be held at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, in said county, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the executor give notice to the persons interested in said estate and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the MICHIGAN ARGUS, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

—WILLIAM D. HARRIMAN, Judge of Probate.

—STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF Washtenaw, ss. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, held at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, on Thursday, the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

Present, William D. Harriman, Judge of Probate.

—In the matter of the estate of Samuel Cross,

Testator, deceased. Lawrence Bradford, Joseph Palmer, W. J. Cogswell L. R. Willard, W. A. Mack, Amalia Waugh, Miss Sarah LaFayette, Miss Adeline Thornton, Miss Ella Hunt, Miss Jeffries Morris, Mrs. Lydia, and the entire crew of the Yacht Cross, deceased.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Tuesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the executor give notice to the persons interested in said estate and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the MICHIGAN ARGUS, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

—WILLIAM D. HARRIMAN, Judge of Probate.

—STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF Washtenaw, ss. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, held at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, on Thursday, the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

Present, William D. Harriman, Judge of Probate.

—In the matter of the estate of Samuel Cross,

Testator, deceased. Lawrence Bradford, Joseph Palmer, W. J. Cogswell L. R. Willard, W. A. Mack, Amalia Waugh, Miss Sarah LaFayette, Miss Adeline Thornton, Miss Ella Hunt, Miss Jeffries Morris, Mrs. Lydia, and the entire crew of the Yacht Cross, deceased.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and that the devises, legates and heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are to appear at a session of said court, then to be held at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, in said county, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the executor give notice to the persons interested in said estate and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the MICHIGAN ARGUS, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

—WILLIAM D. HARRIMAN, Judge of Probate.

—STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF Washtenaw, ss. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, held at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, on Thursday, the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

Present, William D. Harriman, Judge of Probate.

—In the matter of the estate of Samuel Cross,

Testator, deceased. Lawrence Bradford, Joseph Palmer, W. J. Cogswell L. R. Willard, W. A. Mack, Amalia Waugh, Miss Sarah LaFayette, Miss Adeline Thornton, Miss Ella Hunt, Miss Jeffries Morris, Mrs. Lydia, and the entire crew of the Yacht Cross, deceased.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and that the devises, legates and heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are to appear at a session of said court, then to be held at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, in said county, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the executor give notice to the persons interested in said estate and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the MICHIGAN ARGUS, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

—WILLIAM D. HARRIMAN, Judge of Probate.

—STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF Washtenaw, ss. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, held at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, on Thursday, the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

Present, William D. Harriman, Judge of Probate.

—In the matter of the estate of Samuel Cross,

Testator, deceased. Lawrence Bradford, Joseph Palmer, W. J. Cogswell L. R. Willard, W. A. Mack, Amalia Waugh, Miss Sarah LaFayette, Miss Adeline Thornton, Miss Ella Hunt, Miss Jeffries Morris, Mrs. Lydia, and the entire crew of the Yacht Cross, deceased.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and that the devises, legates and heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are to appear at a session of said court, then to be held at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, in said county, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the executor give notice to the persons interested in said estate and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the MICHIGAN ARGUS, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

—WILLIAM D. HARRIMAN, Judge of Probate.

—STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF Washtenaw, ss. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, held at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, on Thursday, the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

Present, William D. Harriman, Judge of Probate.

—In the matter of the estate of Samuel Cross,

Testator, deceased. Lawrence Bradford, Joseph Palmer, W. J. Cogswell L. R. Willard, W. A. Mack, Amalia Waugh, Miss Sarah LaFayette, Miss Adeline Thornton, Miss Ella Hunt, Miss Jeffries Morris, Mrs. Lydia, and the entire crew of the Yacht Cross, deceased.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and that the devises, legates and heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are to appear at a session of said court, then to be held at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, in said county, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the executor give notice to the persons interested in said estate and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the MICHIGAN ARGUS, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

—WILLIAM D. HARRIMAN, Judge of Probate.

—STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF Washtenaw, ss. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, held at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, on Thursday, the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

Present, William D. Harriman, Judge of Probate.

—In the matter of the estate of Samuel Cross,

Testator, deceased. Lawrence Bradford, Joseph Palmer, W. J. Cogswell L. R. Willard, W. A. Mack, Amalia Waugh, Miss Sarah LaFayette, Miss Adeline Thornton, Miss Ella Hunt, Miss Jeffries Morris, Mrs. Lydia, and the entire crew of the Yacht Cross, deceased.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and that the devises, legates and heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are to appear at a session of said court, then to be held at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, in said county, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the executor give notice to the persons interested in said estate and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the MICHIGAN ARGUS, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

—WILLIAM D. HARRIMAN, Judge of Probate.

—STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF Washtenaw, ss. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, held at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, on Thursday, the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

Present, William D. Harriman, Judge of Probate.

—In the matter of the estate of Samuel Cross,

Testator, deceased. Lawrence Bradford, Joseph Palmer, W. J. Cogswell L. R. Willard, W. A. Mack, Amalia Waugh, Miss Sarah LaFayette, Miss Adeline Thornton, Miss Ella Hunt, Miss Jeffries Morris, Mrs. Lydia, and the entire crew of the Yacht Cross, deceased.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and that the devises, legates and heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are to appear at a session of said court, then to be held at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, in said county, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the executor give notice to the persons interested in said estate and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the MICHIGAN ARGUS, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

—WILLIAM D. HARRIMAN, Judge of Probate.

—STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF Washtenaw, ss. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, held at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, on Thursday, the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

Present, William D. Harriman, Judge of Probate.

—In the matter of the estate of Samuel Cross,

Testator, deceased. Lawrence Bradford, Joseph Palmer, W. J. Cogswell L. R. Willard, W. A. Mack, Amalia Waugh, Miss Sarah LaFayette, Miss Adeline Thornton, Miss Ella Hunt, Miss Jeffries Morris, Mrs. Lydia, and the entire crew of the Yacht Cross, deceased.

—Thereupon it is ordered, that Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and that the devises, legates

City.

—For year ending May 16, county treasurer Fairchild received $385 fine money.

—Jerome Murray, it is reported, has taken off the red ribbon and is dropped as a lecturer, by Ohio authorities.

—Aratus Dunn is building a new residence next east of the M. E. parsonage. John Thompson is putting up one on Division Street.

—George Miller and Anton Eiseler have been elected delegates to the Workmen's convention to be held in Detroit in the latter part of June.

—Adolphus Cohen has purchased the cigar manufacturing business of Mr. Goldman and is carrying it on in the rear of Berolzheimer's cigar store.

—The jury in the case of Wiedmann vs. White, before Justice Frueau on Monday, allowed the girl twelve shillings per week—a compromise verdict.

—James B. Halleck of Northfield charged with illegal sale of liquors at Whitmore Lake was brought before Justice Granger on Tuesday and case adjourned to Monday, June 2.

—“Groceries are cheap” people say after calling at the City Tea Store. Just look elsewhere at an advertisement and see the prices of goods; then go and examine, and you can help coming to that conclusion yourself.

—Maj. J. A. Brown has received letters patent for an improved hay rake and tender, which is very simple of construction. An effort will be made to induce the Ann Arbor Agricultural Company to manufacture a number of them for sale.

—In the case of the People vs. Daniel M. Cline of Hastings a medical student, charged with jumping a board bill due Dr. MacFarland, trial was had by jury on Wednesday before Justice Granger. Found $1 costs, amounting to $37.74 or 60 days in jail.

—John A. Volz of the Third ward, has exchanged his property on High street to Nathan H. Carey of the town of Ann Arbor, taking in exchange five acres of land on the territorial road, a short distance west of the city. The amount of the trade involves $3,500.

—Supervisor Krapf returns from wards one and two an assessment of $2350 for the retailing of liquors. Supervisor Gregory for wards four and five $1050. Supervisor Brown of fifth and sixth wards $250. Total revenue (if collected) to the city from the traffic $350.

—Fifty-two years ago this month, Gen. Clark, a young man of twenty years, left what was the small village but now city of Auburn, N. Y., for the far west, and came to Ann Arbor where he has since resided. In November, 1837, he moved into the residence where he now, and has, from this date, resided.

—Dr. E. Watson, brother of professor Watson, was taken with a stroke of paralysis recently while crossing the University campus. He lay some time on the campus before recovering, but finally succeeded in dragging himself to his home. He is now in a very precarious condition, his recovery being considered doubtful.

—The June meeting of the Pomological Society of Washtenaw Co., is set down for Saturday, June 21, in the rooms of the courthouse. A paper on “Ornithology” will be read by A. B. Covert. Mr. James Toms will exhibit a floral display. Prof. Sage will furnish the music. “The Strawberry and its Culture” will form the topic of general discussion.

—The committee entrusted to present to the Reform Club the most feasible plans for the erection of a suitable building for the wants of the organization, reported in favor of issuing stock to the amount of $10,000, in $50 shares, all moneys except what is actually required to pay the running expenses of the club to be paid over to the treasurer of the company for the benefit of the stockholders. When the sum of $10,000 shall have been raised, the building is then to become the property of the Reform Club.

—Mrs. Jennie Badger Reade, who figured conspicuously in a lawsuit against her brother, Major Badger, of this city some months ago, has brought suit against Mr. Thomas P. Murphy, of Terre Haute, for breach of promise, laying her damages at $25,000. Murphy doesn't exactly deny it, but claims that she is a tough customer and that he can prove it. If what he alleges in his defense, is proven on trial—the will make her out to be one of the worst specimens of unchaste, blackmailing travelers that infest watering places, watching for victims.

—Mrs. Edgar Hedges of Hinton, came to this city one day last week to submit to the painful and dangerous surgical operation of removal of a tumor that had been troubling her for eight or more years. On Monday Dr. MacLean performed the delicate job, the location of which was directly above and attached to the womb and weighing fifty pounds. The lady survived the operation and gave evidence of recovery until Wednesday, when she died the shock to her system proving greater than she could withstand. It seems only fair to mention here the fact that Dr. MacLean has performed a large number of operations of this description, and at the same time has had a larger per centage of recoveries than any surgeon in the Northwest.

—Distinguished gentlemen of Ann Arbor, Gov. Ashley, John N. Gott, A. W. Hamilton, H. C. Waldron, Profs. Green and Watson, met other distinguished gentlemen in Detroit last week with the view of extending the T. & A. R. R. to Pontiac, where it will connect with the Grand Trunk. In response to a question from a reporter of what was done at the conference, Gov. A. replied: “We didn't do very much,” said Mr. Ashley, “but what little we did had a rub to it. We told Sir Henry Tyler that we should build our road from Ann Arbor to Pontiac and wanted him to meet us at the latter point by finishing the line from Rochester thereto. We were assured that they would be in Pontiac ahead of us, and that, in a nutshell, is all that our conference amounted to. You can tell the public that we left for home smiling, content and happy. I might add that we are going to build our road to Pontiac whether the Grand Trunk does anything or not. I shall never give up.”

—Sophomore hop held at State Street Hall on Friday evening was an enjoyable affair although lightly attended.

—Under influences of painters, kalominers and gilders, the drug store of Mr. S. L. Lirsch presents an attractive and pleasing appearance.

—The name of A. McReynolds was accidentally omitted from the list of speakers announced to deliver short addresses on this memorial day.

—The usual meeting was held at the church in Lower Town on Sunday evening addressed by a number of speakers including Mr. Fanning of Ohio. Eighteen signers.

—The retailer of milk at four cents per quart, finding the business unprofitable, sold his business. Thereupon, those remaining met on Saturday and agreed with one exception to advance the price to five cents.

—James Hammel, a pedagogue teaching the young ideas of Salem to those to shoot, was arrested on Monday charged with an assault on an eight year old pupil named Harry R. Sheffield, and arraigned before Justice Beahan, plead not guilty. Case adjourned to June 6.

—Alfred B. Sager writes Charles Donnelly of this city, from Las-Vegas, New Mexico announcing his arrival there after a stage passage of 200 miles and another 100 to make to reach his destination. Mr. S. says he met and was entertained by Edward Henries who is prospering.

—At the meeting of the Common Council on Monday evening, an effort to elect a city attorney will be made, Messrs. J. Q. Sessions, present incumbent, John F. Lawrence and J. C. Knowlton being candidates. It is possible the question “Is alderman-elect Ross (National) a citizen” will come before our city Fathers for solution.

—The University.

—The Beta Kappa Epsilon Society building will be ready for occupancy in about three weeks.

—The University foot-ball eleven have elected D. W. DuTarr, of the medical department, captain.

—University eleven go to Chicago today when they meet the Racine eleven for contest in foot ball.

—The match game between the University and Tecumseh Niners resulted in 26 scores for the farmer, 7 for latter.

—George A. Zedeale, of the class of '81, and Wm. Clapp, of '82, two Detroit boys, left college Monday to engage in Government survey work during the summer.

—Some members of the faculty have been away from town examining the high schools in the state that desire to have their graduates admitted on diplomas to the University.

—No quorum was present at the meeting of the Board of Regents Thursday night, Regents Grant, Rynd, S. S. Walker and Climie only being present. The latter designated President Angel, Dr. Steere, Regent Maltz and Regent Shearer as a committee to advertise for plans, specifications and estimates for building a museum, the total cost of which is not to exceed $10,000, said plans to be placed in the hands of President Angel not later than Saturday noon, June 21, 1879. The committee are requested to meet not later than Saturday, June 21, at 10 A.M., for such investigation of and consultation on the plans as may enable them to report to and advise with the board at the meeting of June 26 in regard to the adoption of the most suitable plan. Both Regents-elect Shearer and Grosvenor are invited to meet with the board at the June meeting for consultation on the above matter.

—The aggregate claims against the firm of A. P. Wood & Co. of Saline, amount to about $1,800, of which B. A. Fitzsimmons & Co., held $116.25 and closed them up with an execution.

—On Wednesday night of last week the barn of Byron Kuhl of Sharon burned, consuming its contents excepting sheep and one horse. Loss estimated at $1,500. Insured in the Washtenaw German Co.

—G. D. Kies of Clinton has set out 3,000 young fruit trees on his farm in Bridgewater, and the woodchucks are making such ravages among them, that he is paying bounty of ten cents on every woodchuck killed.

—Monday morning a young man named Miller had his hand cut by a circular saw while employed in sawing wood on a farm just north of Ypsilanti. Two fingers were completely severed and two more so nearly that amputation will be necessary.

—Early on Thursday morning of last week C. K. Chapman, a freight brakeman, was instantly killed on the Michigan Central Railroad, near Chelsea, by falling between two cars when the train was in motion. He was a married man, and resided on Congress street, Detroit.

—The next regular meeting of the Washtenaw County Pioneer Society will be held at Ypsilanti June 4. The selection and furnishing of a room for the society in the new Court House will be considered, and other questions of special interest to the society. A general attendance is requested.

—Many Ypsilanti people growl—apparently with good reason—at the Michigan Central railroad engineers, who take fiendish delight in blowing their steam whistles and easing up their safety valves in that city. The whistle business in particular has grown to an intolerable nuisance there.

—The Ladies of the German M. E. church announce a strawberry festival at the Opera House, on Wednesday evening next.

—Rev. G. A. Herzer, presiding elder of the Michigan District will preach at the G. M. E. church on Monday next at 7.12 p.m.

—Rev. J. H. Crooker of Laporte, Ind., who exchanged pulpits with Rev. J. T. Sunderland, the past two Sabbaths, graduated from union school in Ypsilanti.

—Rev. W. H. Ryder, pastor of the Congregational church of this city preached the opening sermon at the state conference held last week at Grand Rapids.

—Mr. J. W. McKinley, senior in literary department of the University attended conference at Grand Rapids as delegate of the Congregational church of this city. The result shows no ordinary ingenuity and patience.

—An accident Tuesday of last week at the Ypsilanti Paper Company's upper mill, by which Frank Jones lost a thumb, has been followed by several more in the same establishment. C. C. Vrooman, who took his place, caught his hand in a calendering machine, smashing two fingers, Saturday afternoon. Saturday evening, it is said, although inquiries have failed to substantiate it another employee was hurt, and Sunday Mr. Chamberlain, a millwright employed there, was knocked down and severely hurt by a falling plank.

—The nicest fitting corsets manufactured, and the largest display will be found at Bach & Abel's.

—The accident, which caused the death of Mrs. Todd is detailed by our Northfield correspondent.

—Joseph Wagner of Scio has deeded 120 acres of the old Nowland farm located in Scio to his son John G.

—Mr. and Mrs. John C. Taylor of Chelsea, lately celebrated the 14th anniversary of their nuptial life.

—Boys took all the fish, including lake Superior trout from the private pond of John Gilbert of Ypsilanti.

—C. S. Baldwin of Ypsilanti, lost a dress coat from his state room on board steamer en route from Cleveland to Detroit.

—Elbert Tate, salesman for several years in Clinton, will hereafter smile across the counter of J. H. Miller in Manchester.

—Erasmus Logan of Manchester, has received a pension certificate allowing him $2.00 per month from June 1865, about 14 years. It was for wounds received in battle.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

—The new Universalist church is progressing; the frame is up and it will soon be ready for the brick with which it is to be sided.

