

ANNEXATION.

A correspondent in Plymouth has sent us a well written article on this subject, which we would like to publish at length...

Not wholly opposed to Annexation, if it can be accomplished with credit and honor.

This motto he explains as follows:

While I cheerfully acknowledge that a banner with an inscription similar to the one above quoted was displayed on the occasion referred to, yet I will not admit that it was intended to convey the idea which you have seemed to suppose...

As to the assertion that none of his adult slaves would have their liberty if offered to them, it will be time enough to believe it when the offer shall have been rejected. But supposing it to be so...

Gov. Polk's Slaves. We cut from the last number of the Nashville Union, the following statement in regard to Gov. Polk's slaveholding:

The Whig papers have stated the truth in asserting that Gov. Polk is the owner of slaves, though they have magnified their numbers greatly beyond the truth. The slaves he owns have come to him by descent, from the parents of himself and Mrs. Polk.

Thus, if our informant be right in his explanation, we stand corrected, and hasten to make the proper acknowledgement. We supposed the banner actually represented the political views of a portion of the convention. But in the sense in which the young ladies were in favor of Annexation, we shall make no war upon the measure.

All the stories about Gov. Polk's hiring out his slaves are sheer falsehoods, coined for the base electioneering uses of whiggery.

MR. POLK AND HIS SLAVES.

There seems to be, after all, some little shame felt by the Democratic party at the utter degradation of the party to slaveholders. While determined to go to the whole figure, they would yet make their disgraceful acts look as respectable as possible.

State Liberty Convention.

In compliance with the earnest request of many of the most spirited friends of Freedom in different parts of the State, whose ranks are free from POLKS, and whose eyes are free from CLAY, there will be a held at the Court House in Ann Arbor, on Wednesday, the 9th day of October, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M. Let all men and all women in the State who think more of the ransom of 8,000,000 of their fellow-beings, than of the comparatively trifling difference in the issues between the pro-Slavery parties...

Two thousand true Liberty men and women thus assembled, would of itself make 500 or 1,000 Liberty voters more in Michigan.

A number of noted speakers, full of the self-springing spirit of Liberty will be there. Our well known Ann Arbor friends assure us, they shall receive all their distant friends with open hearts and open houses.

Comfortable seats will be reserved for the ladies, and no pains shall be spared to render their attendance pleasant for them. We have learned with much pleasure, that such is the spirit among some of our esteemed Liberty ladies in many towns, that they are getting up LIBERTY BANNERS for the noble BIRNEY AND MORRIS, to present to the LIBERTY MEN for these public occasions...

State Central Committee of Liberty Party.

THE LIBERTY PARTY IN NEW YORK. We find the following in the New York Herald, a paper which favors, or did favor, the election of Mr. Clay. It will be seen that it is completely all parties, that the Liberty vote will be not less than from 20,000 to 25,000.

The Abolition Movement in this State. The recent letter of Clay in favor of the Annexation of Texas, has created quite a stir among the abolitionists of this State. This party, it may be said, was not in existence when General Harrison was elected in 1840.

The contingency has thrown great fear into the ranks of the Whigs, and equal joy among the Democrats. Out of this it may be foreseen that three-fourths will be taken from the Whig party, and therefore it will lose many votes which were given to Mr. Clay in 1840.

In looking over the Albany Patriot, the great organ of the abolition party, we observed preparations being made for organizing the whole of the State on the presidential question in favor of Birney. There is to be a great convention, postponed from the 19th, at Utica, on the 25th and 26th instants.

From all these movements, and from the virtuous efforts of the Democrats, from the speeches of Mr. Webster against annexation while the candidate of his party is in favor of it, will make a difference of some 50,000 votes to the Whig party.

NEW JERSEY. The Liberty Electoral Ticket of this State is as follows:

- DARIUS WELLS, JAMES HOWE, THOMAS V. JOHNSON, ALEXANDER H. FREMAN, STEPHEN GRIMES, ALEXANDER BLACK, SAMUEL HALL.

He also puts to rest the clamor, which has been raised against him by his enemies in the South, for his supposed unfriendly feeling toward Texas, based on an unjustifiable construction of his Raleigh letter.

While the Northern Whigs are using every effort to prove from Mr. Clay's letters that he is opposed to Annexation for reasons of eternal fealty, the Southern Whigs quote the same letters to prove the reverse.

THE LIBERTY PARTY IN VIRGINIA.

The last Cincinnati Herald brings us the Address of the recent Liberty Convention of Ohio County to the people of Virginia. It is too long for us to copy, but takes the full ground for Birney and Morrie.

Resolved, That in organizing a Liberty party in the State of Va. we do not do a service to God—and are determined to support no man or party in the management of political affairs, either than measures and men in office, governed by the Bible, which we take as our supreme law, to which all other laws must conform.

Resolved, That we can no longer give our votes to elevate slaveholders to office, nor insist either of the political parties, so long as they sustain slavery.

Resolved, That our experience fully confirms us in the assertion that the use of the ballot for the slave's redemption, in a distinct organization, is demanded of us as true republicans, as christians, patriots and philanthropists.

The electoral ticket of the State is as follows: 1. Joseph Bryan, 2. Thomas Freeman, 3. Jesse Bondell, 4. Benedict Brashear, 5. David Clyde, 6. John Parkinson, 7. Jacob Nuss, 8. William Wallace, 9. John Wilson, 10. Samuel Thompson, 11. Thos. Wickman, 12. Hugh Bradley, 13. William Wright, 14. George Whitman, 15. John Dixon, 16. James Clemens, 17. Thomas Wood.

Resolved, That Slavery ought to be abolished in Delaware at the next session of its Legislature.

Resolved, That we will vote for no candidate for office, unless he is in favour of such Abolition.

VERMONT.

We have not the full returns of the Liberty vote from this State; but it is known that there is a handsome increase of the Liberty vote in every county.

The "Truth Seeker," published at LaFayette, Indiana, has come out for Binney and Morris.

One Joseph Phycis, of Newbern, N. C. lately died, emancipating by his will twenty slaves.

"Nobody asks support for Mr. Clay on the pretense that he is an Abolitionist, or friendly to Abolition."

C. M. CLAY'S OPINIONS.

On the first appearance of Mr. Cassius M. Clay in Detroit, he addressed the Whigs at their Clay room.

Although these coincidences are already recorded in Mr. Clay's many admirable and eloquent letters, still it may be desirable to have them in a concise and pithy table.

- 1. That our National existence depends upon the principle of justice.
2. That if we disregard this principle, anarchy must ensue.
3. That Slavery violates Justice.
4. That the three fifth slave provision for constitutional representation, (based on slave property) is un-republican and wrong.
5. That this provision can constitutionally be altered, and that it ought to be altered, when possible.
6. That Congress never had power to create Slavery—nor admit slave States—and of course, ought not now to admit new ones.
7. That an unnatural slave dominion does exist over the Nation.
8. That the right of petition is of inestimable value, and ought to be vindicated.
9. That there is no constitutional power to annex Texas.
10. That annexation would saddle us with debt.
11. And with perpetuity of Slavery.
12. And with a great increase of the Slave power.
13. That there was a fatal prevalence of the Mob Spirit in the Nation.
14. That citizens ought to disregard the trammels of party.
Most of the above is word for word as it was read and approved by Mr. Clay. Some trifling additions are introduced to enable the matter to be properly understood.

was called to the chair and Philetus P. Perry made Secretary.

The friends from Van Buren recommended JONATHAN A. HINCKLEY as a suitable person for Representative from that County, which recommendation the convention confirmed.

The following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted by the Convention: Resolved, That this convention deeply deplore the recent death of LUTHER F. STEVENS, late Liberty candidate for Lieutenant Governor of this State, & tender to the widow and family our sincere sympathy and condolence.

Resolved, That this Convention with pleasure respond to the Liberty nominations for President, Vice President, Member of Congress and Senators, and that we will use all honorable means to carry forward their election.

Messrs. Gurney and Bement being present, it was announced that the afternoon and evening would be occupied in speeches from those gentlemen. Accordingly at the hour of 2, the spacious court house was filled, and the audience attentively listened for two hours to a speech from Mr. Gurney.

The labors of Dr. Bement have been of great service in this section of country, almost all have become convinced of the righteousness of our cause.

Although these coincidences are already recorded in Mr. Clay's many admirable and eloquent letters, still it may be desirable to have them in a concise and pithy table, especially for the review of members of that party, whose advocate he was, and who would naturally pay greater respect to his southern opinions, than to our Liberty ones of the north.

Points of coincidence between Cassius M. Clay and the Liberty Party. 1st. That our National existence depends upon the principle of justice.

HONEST DEMOCRATS IN OTSEGO! An influential Democrat in Otsego county has pledged himself that thirty of his townsmen, who have up to the present time voted the "Democratic" ticket, will vote this fall for Binney the just!

They keep coming.—John G. Curtis, of Peterboro', Madison county, for many years clerk of the county, and Otis P. Granger of Morrisville, both of the highest standing in the local ranks, and leading politicians of great influence, intelligence and personal popularity, have joined the Abolition party.

Amendment to the Declaration of Independence.—The Ohio Statesman, a democratic paper, lays down the following as a "great fundamental principle and self-evident truth of America's Liberty": viz: That the only legitimate government is that which is established by the governed; and where no government exists, established by the majority of the people, the WHITE man, adult resident citizens have an indefeasible and unalienable right to form a government for the security of their rights.

Prospects Abroad. Gekhart Surra has addressed a cheering and cogent letter to the "Friends of the Slave in Oswego county," of which we have received a copy.

Two considerations justify the in saying that, if the Congressional District, composed of Oswego and Madison, shall fail to elect an abolitionist, at the approaching Election; you and probably you only, will be responsible for the failure.
