APPLICATION AND CERTIFICATE OF ELIGIBILITY FOR LIBRARY MATERIALS

Mail, drop off, or email this application to WLBDP@AADL.ORG. Once your application is processed, you can expect to receive a welcome packet and any equipment that you have requested. Equipment and materials issued through WLBDP are federal property. When no longer needed, they must be returned by mail or in-person to either the Ann Arbor District Library or the Braille and Talking Book Library in Lansing, MI.

Please know that in order to ensure that you are receiving service according to your preferences, you may receive a call from a Reader Advisor in the coming weeks.

Notice: All patron records pertaining to this service will remain confidential, as required by the Michigan Library Privacy Act.

If you're applying for an institutional account, please list the name of your institution under Name of Applicant and complete all other relevant information below.

BARD (BRAILLE AND AUDIO READING DOWNLOAD) is a web-based, password-protected service that provides access to thousands of audio and braille books, magazines, and music scores available from NLS. The service is available as an application on a Windows or Mac computer or on an iOS or Android device. The mobile application, known as BARD Mobile, includes built-in playback capability so you can enjoy talking books anytime, anywhere.

SERVICE DELIVERY FOR LIBRARY MATERIALS (CHECK ALL THAT APPLY)

I have a personal mobile device (iPhone, Android, iPad, or Kindle Fire) and Internet or cellular access. I want to download digital talking books and/or eBraille materials to read instantly with the free BARD Mobile application. (Please provide your email address on page 1 for BARD registration.)

I have a personal mobile device and would like to access the free BARD Mobile application, but I would also like materials sent to my home by USPS. (Please select the types of materials you want mailed to your home. Check all that apply.)

Digital talking books and magazines on cartridge/flash drive

Braille books and magazines

Large Print books by mail

I do NOT have a personal mobile device. I want my library to send books by USPS to my home. I would like materials in the following format. (Check all that apply.)

Digital talking books and magazines on cartridge/flash drive

Braille books and magazines

EQUIPMENT: If you elected to receive digital talking books through the mail, a Digital Talking Book Machine will be mailed directly to you upon receipt of this application.

Check this box if you would also like a set of headphones mailed to you.

SPECIAL ATTACHMENTS: If you use a breath switch or if you are unable to access your digital talking book machine due to severe hearing loss, you may inquire about special attachment options by calling 734-327-4224 or emailing wlbpd@aadl.org.
