

United States Places

Across

4. located in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, this National Lakeshore on Lake Superior features brightly colored stones and rocks that you can see by hiking or by boat
7. formed by Colorado River erosion, this huge landmark is located in Arizona and can be seen from space!
9. this three-word National Lakeshore in Michigan features beautiful, enormous hills of sand in the northwest part of the state and is named for a snoozing mammal
10. this three-word name refers to the red landmark with two large towers that helps cars, bikes, and people cross over the ocean between San Francisco and Marin County
11. located in Seattle, this unusual-looking building was built for the 1962 World's Fair
12. this National Park in Maine is located entirely on an island and is the first place in the United States you can see the sunrise!

Down

1. this National Park in Florida is very swampy and has LOTS of alligators in it!
2. located in South Dakota, this has the faces of four US presidents carved into it!
3. this National Park located mostly in Wyoming features the famous geyser referred to as "Old Faithful"
5. this famous landmark was given to the US by France and is a giant lady made of copper holding a torch and a book!
6. this iconic St. Louis, Missouri landmark is made of stainless steel and is the world's tallest of its kind
8. on the border between New York and Canada, this beautiful landmark features three different waterfalls