

ESL Personal Tutoring

What is ESL Personal Tutoring?

An ESL tutor will meet with 3-4 learners every week to work on reading, writing, speaking and listening. You will decide together when and where to meet. You will meet together as a cluster for 6 months to work on your goals. Tutoring is free.

How do I get started in Personal Tutoring?

If you are interested in Personal Tutoring, please email Alison (austin@washtenawliteracy.org) or call 734-879-1320 to register for a Learner Orientation.

What is a Learner Orientation?

It is the first step in Personal Tutoring. You will meet with a staff member to learn about Personal Tutoring. You will talk about your goals and interests. You will provide your contact information. We will assess your English level. The Learner Orientation lasts approximately 90 minutes.

If you have questions, email Alison (austin@washtenawliteracy.org)
