Light Committee.

To the Honorable Common Council:

Gentlemen:—At the urgent request of the residents of Ann, Washington and Lawrence streets, between State and Division streets, your committee on lighting would recommend that the electric light on each of these streets be retained, as the conditions are much the same and that the three gas lights there be discontinued to be located elsewhere as soon as the weather may permit and that the Gas Lighting Company be reimbursed for the expense of locating them where they are.

WM. GOODYEAR.
RICHARD KEARNS,
C. W. GILL.
