Director's Note

While across our world tremendous strides are being made for democracy and equality, there persists a stubborn unwillingness to expand the humanistic view. With territorial disputes, the problem of teen violence, guns, and racism so prevalent in today's society, the relevancy of this classic tale is magnified tenfold. Since it is through the Arts that we are able to view ourselves, our culture, our tendencies and pitfalls in a manner which allows a sublime vista, it is my hope that the viewing audience will experience West Side Story with new eyes and garner the deeper message this tale of love, dominion, separatism, and deceit seeks to transmit. An elevated level of realization in all aspects of life will thus enable us to change old perspectives, replacing them with compassion and respect for the dignity of human life; a requisite for the survival of our human race. For these and several other reasons, it has been my privilege to have had the opportunity to express my vision of this classic story.

Finally, to have worked with such a superlative production staff, as well as wonderfully talented, and determined cast members, has been an extraordinary experience I will not soon forget! Thank you ALL very much for your support and diligent efforts!!!

POWER SERIES 94/95

OPERA • DRAMA • DANCE • MUSICAL THEATRE

Experience the POWER of the performing arts in one convenient package!

DRAMA: The Glass Menagerie

Tennessee Williams's initial dramatic success, The Glass Menagerie is a memory play which reaches beyond natural conventions and stage realism to tell the story of a family trapped between reality and illusion. It is a tender examination of human vulnerability which strikes a chord in all of us.

Department of Theatre and Drama • October 20 - 23

OPERA: Hansel and Gretel

This quintessential fairy tale by the brothers Grimm is brought to the stage in a delightful opera, sung in English, by German composer, Engelbert Humperdinck. Audiences will be struck by the endearing and immediately likable quality of the tunes in this work with appeal to adults and children alike.

Opera Theatre • November 10 - 13

Dialogueur des
Carnavales, 1993

DANCE: FutureDance 1935 - 2035

The University Dance Company presents an exploration of future vistas and frontiers in modern dance, using Martha Graham's revolutionary work, "Panorama," as its point of departure. This dance masterwork remains as potent and dynamic as ever in this rare, sixtieth-anniversary revival.

University Dance Company • February 2 - 5

MUSICAL THEATRE: 42nd Street

This lavish musical within a musical by Warren and Dubin is renowned for its splashy production numbers. Debra Ann Draper, who was the dance captain in the Broadway production of 42nd Street, will recreate Gower Champion's memorable choreography and direction in this production.
