

Ann Arbor Summer Festival 400

A sustaining force of the Ann Arbor Summer Festival, the Festival 400 Club is a group of individuals and couples who have pledged four hundred dollars per year for four consecutive years. Formed in 1985, membership in this group now totals over one hundred and twenty-five, and provides important funding for the Festival.

With membership to the Festival 400 come many benefits and privileges, including advance ticket sales, free parking, and the chance to meet distinguished artists at special receptions.

DR. THOMAS WINNER

Emeritus Choklov Scholar Dr. Thomas Winner will present a lecture on Annis Choklov, producing The Acting Company's performance of ORCHARDS, July 10 (Thursday at 4 pm)

Additionally, Dr. Winner will lead a post-performance discussion from the Power Center stage with Acting Company members following their performance of ORCHARDS, Friday July 11.

TOP OF THE PARK

Located adjacent to the Power Center for the Performing Arts, the Top of the Park has become a favorite meeting spot for Festival patrons before and after performances, and a popular evening destination for all visitors. Amidst the excitement of the Ann Arbor Summer Festival, all types of folk gather at the Top of the Park to enjoy dinner, refreshments, live live entertainment, live movies, (projected on a huge outdoor screen), and a congenial, relaxing atmosphere. Nowhere is the spirit of the Ann Arbor Summer Festival more apparent or more enjoyable.

Highlighting this year's Top of the Park schedule will be performances by a number of Ann Arbor area performing groups on a newly built outdoor stage. Also, following last year's success, a special Children's Day at the Festival will be held on Sunday, July 6.

WORKSHOPS AND ART EXHIBIT

YOUNG PEOPLE'S THEATER PRESENTS

1986-1987 SEASON

RIDING ON STARS

Composed during YPT's Young Authors' Workshop, this play is a charming holiday show interweaving fantasy and reality in a story of how human compassion can carry us to the stars!
December 18-21.

A WRINKLE IN TIME

This Newberry Award winning story by Madeleine L'Engle has been adapted by local playwright Janet Hackel. It portrays a cosmic confrontation between love and evil, with love winning out.
February 27 — March 1.

THE SECRET GARDEN

A longtime favorite of young and old alike, this play is based on the novel by Francis Hodgson Burnett. The script is by Simone Press, written especially for YPT.
May 15-17.

YPT fall classes begin September 15,
1986. Call 996-3888 for information.

PUSS IN BOOTS SONG

Here's to the cat, the capital cat,
The cat who walks by night!

She'll hunt and prowl to capture the fowl
With only her eyes for light.

Oh what she sees and where she goes
Only she and the night-moth knows!

Here's to the Puss, the Puss in Boots,
The cat who looked at a king.

She's sleek and smart with a purring heart
And a tail like a twitching string.

There's never an ogre to match her wit
Today we have seen proof of it.

Oh here's to the PUSS IN BOOTS!!

Here's to the PUSS IN BOOTS!!
