

DR. CHICAGO &

Films are usually stories. Stories are the artificial manipulation of possible real-life events, in generally condensed form, for profit. There are so many great stories and profitable authors, that people drop out of school--feeling that real life, or their own lives are more important. The DR. CHICAGO series are sometimes confused with bad stories. Nothing could be closer or farther from the truth. They are also sometimes thought to represent real life--also in the worst sense. This is closer to the truth. See your doctor now.
